LITTLEFIELD CATS BREAK EVEN IN TWO GAME SERIES WITH ROSWELL NINE. FIRST GAME LOST 9-6; BUT WIN SECOND 6-4

Leland Fellows and his Roswell baseball stars were the guests of the Littlefield nine here last Sunday and Monday. Both teams put up a hard fight to win. The visitors grabbed the Sunday game 9-6, only to lose to the fighting Cats 6-4 in the tussle next day.

Leonard Rose, star right hander, pitched superb baseball, and knotted the count in the third inning with a long home run and Thornton on base. Two errors, a base on balls, and a sacrifice accounted for four scores of the six runs, the other two coming in the fifth frame when Mick Ratliff opened the inning with a free ticket to first base. Al Mueller missed a third strike, but Dick Ratliff connected for a long drive to center field that went through a gap in the fence, circling the bases with a runner on, giving the locals a total of six runs on four base hits collected from the pitching of Warner and Kee, mound artists for Roswell.

To open the game, Reaver White, who plays third base for the New Mexico team, rattled the board with a long triple to left center field fence. Manager Fellows' sacrifice went for a base hit. The next two men went out in order, but B. White hit a double to right center, scoring Fellows. Graham went out to pitcher, retiring the side. The visitors collected a total of eight safeties off Rose, but they were kept well scattered. Two of them coming in the first inning, one each in the fifth, sixth, seventh, ninth, and two in the eighth inning of the game.

Rose was easily the out standing star of the game and pitched masterful baseball throughout. He was the star twirler with the fast Lamesa club last year and at present lives at Hereford. The wildness of Warner coupled with errors cost the visitors the ball game. Rose was invincible in the pinches. Dick Ratliff's home run with his brother, Mick, on base brought joy to the Littlefield boosters in the 5th inning. Teaver White was the hitting star for the visitors. His two triples and a single led the attack for the Roswell stars.

These two exhibitions were of rare quality to be found in amateur ranks. Everything that goes to make good baseball happened in these two tilts. Fans who missed seeing these two games overlooked the best of the season. It is hoped that the Littlefield team may continue playing the best of clubs, but from the poor support in attendance at these games the future is very doubtful in keeping the team in full strength.

A game is scheduled with Amarillo for next Sunday at Amarillo.

SLAUGHTER WELL 5,550 FEET

By midnight tonight (Thursday) the Westbrook-Slaughter well will have reached the contract depth of 5,550 feet. Just what further action will be taken is a matter of conjecture. Unauthoritative rumors are current that several of the major oil companies who have large acreage leases in this section will help finance the drilling to a depth of 450 feet more, or 6,000 feet in order to make a thorough test. Several of men who have visited the well believe that the oil can be found under that depth.—Cochran County News.

This was fed at the rate of one pound per day to each pig, using the milk to make a slop of the supplement, and along with this the pigs were fed all of the grain they would eat during the day. The result is that these pigs were fed 100 days gained .41 pounds per day, at a cost of $4.88 per 100 pounds. They sold for $8.95 per 100 pounds.

Robt. L. May, a Lamb county farmer has been nominated for Master Farmer by the Progressive Farmers Magazine to compete others from over the state for one of the 10 Master farmers of the state. Mr. May is a man whom we should push as he has a good chance to win. His preliminary score is 979 out of a possible thousand.

Walter B. Rose, Olton, with the assistance of County Agent, purchased six head of highly bred heifers from Penn Gordon, Winnsboro, Texas.

J. C. Glover, of Littlefield, reports that he has been grazing his sweet clover since March 15. This, he says has cut my butter fat cost down to nearly nothing.

J. E. Hamilton, Anton, purchased a self feeder for his hogs last week, which was built according to specifications furnished him by the county agent.

The county agent has available at his office a complete set of blue prints for all farm buildings or equipment. Any farmer desiring the use of these can get them at his office.

Work Progressing On Amherst Fair Bldgs.

The sound of the hammer and the buzz of the carpenter's saw, tell a sweet story to the people of Lamb county, for the noise is heard coming from the Lamb County Fair grounds, located on a 40-acre tract just east of the city limits.

The buildings are now being erected and will be ready for the fair this fall. The fair grounds will include a race track, ball park, and other features suitable for a first class county fair.

Since the Lamb County Fair Association was chartered last fall, much interest has been shown in the project throughout the county. The fair isn't a community proposition, but a county-wide association with stockholders throughout the county, and as the project progresses, more farmers are becoming interested in the fair.

The permanent directors will be scattered over the entire county giving the association the influence of the most prominent farmers and business men in the county.

As the directors point out, it is the duty of each person in the community to get squarely behind the fair directors and help make the Lamb County Fair Association one of the best in the State of Texas.—Amherst Argus.

"DREAMS AND DRUDGERY"

Class Oration, Graduating Class of Littlefield Grammar School by Mary Frances Willis

Dreams are easy, but to bring them to reality, one must pay the price of drudgery. With us young people, when dreams are so common and bright, it is often hard to realize this stern fact; yet it is true. Frequently dreams come so easily with us we are prone to think of their realities as possible with no great effort; nevertheless, we must learn that the really successful people among us are those who combine dreams with drudgery, and the sooner we learn this the quicker we may start our accomplishments.

Poets are frequently called the dreamers of life; but those who perform the great tasks of this world are the prosaic men who are not afraid of drudgery. It has been so in every race, in every age and in every clime. In the world's dreamers there are no monopolies, yet without drudgery no dream ever comes true. Everyone must pay the price.

That which makes one a dreamer is not the color of his skin, nor the nation of his birth, nor the caste of his family; but the birth gift of soul that is able to sense the hidden treasures of reality, and, with an indomitable courage born of a determination to conquer, he bends all his energy toward making that dream come true.

One of the mistakes so many dreamers make is that of despising the little niche in which they find themselves and surrendering to their limitations while waiting for larger opportunities that never come. But the lesson that we young people should learn is to grasp the opportunities near at hand, making the best of them, while our dreams and visions lead us onward and upward into greater realms of desire and into yet wider fields of activity where more satisfying conquests may be achieved. It is by hitching the steed of dreams to the chariot of drudgery that we travel the highway of ambition to the goal of our hearts desires.

No dreamer ever achieved success who had not the courage to put his dreams into action. The architect who builds a magnificent castle, first built a castle in the air. Every painter every sculptor, every musician who produced a masterpiece, first formulated that masterpiece in his mind and soul. The dream always precedes the drudgery; but it is the drudgery that makes the dream a reality.

You, and I, my fellow classmates, may have some wonderful dreams of what we are going to do in the future but I am well convinced if we are lacking in energy we are doomed to failure.

Yet, after all there is no drudgery to the one who dreams, for the labor necessary to make those dreams come true is a work of pleasure. There is no menial labor except to those who make it menial. If a stone mason works on a mansion only for the six or eight dollars per day wages he receives, his work may become menial; but while obtaining his wages, if he visions in his mind the beautiful symmetry, the towering walls and piercing steeples; if he catches the breath of the fragrant gardens that shall surround it; if he hears the melody of music that shall ring out within those corridors, then the drudgery of his labor disappears amid the pleasure of the dreams he is helping to realize.

In this country a few years ago the curse of slavery was upon the land, and men dared to trade in the bodies and souls of human beings. But there grew up in the Sangamon bottoms of Illinois a tall young man who one day went down the Mississippi river to New Orleans where, at a slave auction he saw an auctioneer hold up a dusky skinned girl for sale, and he beheld the crowd bidding against one another for the right of possession. Then and there Abraham Lincoln dreamed of the day when the shackles would be struck off the wrist of the slaves, and he was never satisfied until he brought that dream to pass on the day when he signed the Emancipation Proclamation.

Tonight, I would say to you, my fellow class members, that practically everything worth while in this world has come to us from the hand of the dreamers: for the dream must pass from the mind to the hand before it can become a reality.

Cemetery Association Elects Officers and Employs a Care Taker

At a recent meeting of the Shareholders of the Littlefield Cemetery association, held in the Palace Theatre building, the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Pat Boone, J. H. Lucas, G. P. Howell, J. W. Porcher, J. T. Elms, J. H. Wells, and Pryor Hammons.

Immediately after the share-holders meeting, the directors' meeting convened for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, with the following result: Pat Boone, president; J. W. Porcher, first vice-president; G. P. Howell, second vice-president; J. H. Lucas, secretary-treasurer.

The Board of Directors, in this meeting employed Ed Griffay to look after the trees and shrubbery recently set out in the cemetery, to take care of the graves, and do other work necessary to beautifying the cemetery grounds. This work has been in progress for several days, and it is the purpose of the Association to keep a man employed regularly in looking after the cemetery in so far as funds are available for this purpose.

It is from the dreamers that the world received paintings which we call masterpieces, like the Transfiguration and the Sistine Madonna, and the music of Bach and Beethoven, that seem fit for angel voices. It was from the dreamer that came the codes of government like the Magna Charter and the Constitution, holding sway over human lives through all the centuries. Tonight we should be thankful because of the dreamers who have lived, and suffered and sacrificed that the world might have a larger and more abundant life.

Tonight you and I have dreams. We have finished the tasks of the Grammar school, and we are dreaming of our coming accomplishments in the High School. Perhaps even now our dreams flit on into college or university, or it may be, urged on by consuming ambition, unhindered by walls of brick or stone, they are soaring out into the realms of the world's activities where we shall some day take our place in the battle of human life that seeks to make this earthly existence a little better and a little nobler.

These dreams are all well and good but in closing let me remind you, that after all it is drudgery that makes dreams come true.

Mrs. C. O. Stone, the Chairman of the Membership committee, has agreed, within a short time, to organize her forces for a membership drive, and she will, no doubt, begin this work immediately, soliciting memberships from everyone who is not now a member of the association, and collecting annual dues of $1.00 from those who are already members of the Littlefield Cemetery association.

We urge that every business man in the town of Littlefield, as well as every farmer in the Littlefield community, become a member of this association. The fees are only $1.00 per year, plus $1.00 annual dues, and if it is expected to keep a man out there looking after the cemetery, it will be necessary to secure all the members possible, and also to sell lots and collect from the people who have relatives and friends already buried there.

Your hearty co-operation in making this a big success will be appreciated.—The Littlefield Cemetery Association.

OLD LIQUOR PRICES FOUND IN A HOUSE DURING ITS REPAIR

More than one citizen of the South Plains licked his dry chops last week and thought dreamily of the oasis spots of the halcyon pre-Volsteadian days when they read the following story appearing in the Muleshoe Journal last week.

"An interesting old folder was brought into The Journal office this week which was found in one of the oldest houses in this part of the country while undergoing repairs. It was a 'Special Wholesale Price List' of the Martin Distilling Company of Kansas City.

This firm tells the world that they are whiskey and wine brokers, and that all goods conform to the requirements of the U. S. and Pure Food laws.

The feature goods for sale at that time was Warwick Club whiskey, old fashioned and mellow, quoted at 2-65 per gallon. Guckenheimer Rye sold in them days for $10 the dozen quarts and satisfaction was guaranteed. If bought in large enough quantities, 5 quarts of California wine was given free, with a wide range of flavors to choose from. "Rose of Kentucky" was going at $2.85 per gallon and all other brands of the day were priced in proportion."

NOT NUMBERS ONLY

The exuberance some citizens work up over recent population statistics would indicate the larger a town is the better it is, which is not always true. Quality of population often counts more than quantity, and while Littlefield has had a marvelous growth during the past few years, yet her bigger boast is in the kind of people who have settled here rather than the number of them.

Population of a given community may largely determine the business magnitude of the town in its center, yet oftentimes business is overdone. There are plenty of towns in West Texas, and Littlefield is one of them, where the chambers of commerce would do well to devote considerable effort toward settling the surrounding country rather than fostering more business enterprises already represented in that town. Adding more business units of a kind already represented does not necessarily add more business, rather it spreads out more thinly among all the given business men of that kind. Any business of a given kind up to a certain point is an asset to any community; beyond that point it may become a liability.

During the coming 10 years many West Texas towns will have an opportunity of producing symmetry in their development and adding quality to their citizenry while also seeking numbers.

One trouble with this world is that modern houses are too small to live in and modern salaries are too small to live on.

TIMELY ADVICE

The best way to get anything done is to go ahead and do it. That applies to safeguarding health the same as anything else.

June, according to physicians is the opening month of the most dangerous time of year from a standpoint of illness and epidemics. It is the month when the insect world multiplies fastest hatching out millions of pests that will in a few weeks be carrying disease germs.

Since every citizen of Littlefield knows without being told that weeds are the greatest breeding places of disease-carrying insects, we wonder why anyone tolerates a single weed on his premises. If cut now, the danger is over until along late in the summer. Stamping out breeding places before the pests have a chance to breed in the most deadly way yet found to exterminate them.

You seldom hear of an epidemic of sickness in a community whose citizens never permit the weeds to attain their full height, and who keep them down all through the summer. Nothing flourishes like a weed, and nothing needs as prompt attention if you expect to keep them from getting the start of you.

It doesn't cost anything, just a little time and energy, to mow them, but it does cost a lot of money for doctors and drugs if a wave of illness sweeps over the community. And in many instances the expense extends to the undertaker, too. We insure our homes against fire. Why not insure our health against disease-carrying insects by mowing the weeds now and depriving them of breeding places?

There's one thing nice about airplane travel. The roar of the motor drowns out all comment from the back seat.

RUNNING THE STREETS

We recently overheard a Littlefield man, of good standing and a credit to the community, say that what real meanness he learned as a kid he picked up running around the neighborhood after school hours and loafing down town at night. That this man didn't turn out a failure, according to his own statement, is due to the fact that his father saw which way he was headed, and turned his steps in the right direction.

There isn't much to be learned by a boy on the street after dark, and especially if he is doing his loafing along with other boys. There are daylight hours for games and exercise—things that every healthy boy must have. But the kind of things he is apt to talk about, or listen to, while loitering around at night are not the kind that are going to be worth very much to him in after years.

Your boy may feel that you are a little too severe if you discourage such a practice; he may even feel that as a parent you are not as progressive as those who do let their boys have their own way at all times. But experience has shown that he will live to thank you for any kind of severity that will keep him off of the street at night and in the home where there is always some means whereby he can employ his mind to good advantage and enjoy himself at the same time. It's all a matter of how you start him off. But we've got to remember that boys are boys, the world over; the boys of this community are no different than those of other neighborhoods. But in no community can they gain anything helpful or beneficial by running the streets at night.

Maybe the world doesn't change, as some people contend, but we notice fewer cases of hiccups now than we once observed.

HERE'S A REMEDY

Every year along about this time we get the outing and picnic fever and the call of the outdoors is hard to resist. With it comes the usual "itching" that springs from too close contact with poison ivy. Despite repeated warnings, however, just as many will fall victim to it this year as ever, so we feel that suggesting a helpful remedy is timely.

Lead acetate (sugar of lead) is recommended as the best of all. Have the druggist dissolve the concentrated crystals in a given amount of 50 to 75 percent medicated alcohol until he has a milky solution. Rub this solution into the skin several times a day. Sugar of lead is poisonous and must not be left where the youngsters can get it for internal use.

Milk of magnesia rubbed on the affected parts will also give relief. Washing the hands in warm water with a strong laundry soap immediately after touching the poisonous plant may prevent a severe case of poisoning, and a strong solution of baking soda will do much to relieve the itching.

There is an old adage that "He who has no head needs no hat" and maybe that's the reason so many young fellows are running around bareheaded.

FORD'S NEW SCHEME

It may sound foolish to the average Littlefield citizen, but one of the hardest things a rich man has to contend with is finding some way to give away his money usefully. Every fellow has a different idea of how he would give it away if he had it, and everyone has his own idea about it. So it is of interest to read that Ford has his.

He now proposes to use $100,000,000 in founding schools throughout the U. S. that will teach trades. He wants schools to turn out men whom jobs would seek, instead of schools that turn out graduates seeking jobs. And it's a good idea, since we live in an age of machinery, mechanics, science and specialization and really don't need the highbrow stuff that Yale and Harvard and other such institutions center their activities on.

As in former instances, Henry Ford seems to have originated a pretty valuable idea and we believe the people of every section of the country will welcome the day when he starts to put it into practice.

LITTLE LEADERS

We wish to announce that the three chief topics of conversation around Littlefield this summer will be prohibition, divorce and second-hand cars.

Another pathetic figure is the Littlefield woman who has kept so healthy that she never could have an operation to talk about.

There are still a few men in Littlefield who imagine they've done also three-fourths of the house-cleaning when they clean the soot out of the stove-pipe.

It won't be long now until one of the prettiest pictures ever seen in Littlefield homes will again be common. We refer to a hunk of butter skidding around on a golden-brown roaring car.

What a TRACTOR

Fits Every Power Job

NOT only greater utility but faster, better work and easier handling—this briefly is what the new Case Model "CC" Tractor offers you.

You can plant or cultivate two or four rows at a time... pull two or three fourteen inch plows... operate a 22x36 thrasher with all attachments... in fact, you can do all drawbar, belt and power take-off work within this capacity. So well and compactly is the tractor designed that it is only slightly heavier than two good horses. Three forward speeds enable you to travel as best suits your field work.

It is easy to change the spacing of the rear wheels from narrow to wide tread—and back again if you wish. Two foot brakes on the differential independent of the steering, give you better control of the tractor along crooked rows, on side slopes, and over rough ground.

Power lift controlled by a foot lever raises or lowers gangs quickly. The controls are handy. You can sit down, stand up or change about as you choose... there is every advantage to make your work a pleasure.

Surely, you want to know more about this new tractor. Come in at your convenience.

Eastern Star Install Officers and Observe Memorial Day Service
Saturday evening the retiring officers of the local order of Eastern Star held publicly a very beautiful and impressive memorial service.
An illuminated emblematic star lighted and made beautiful the altar.
Following a splendid tribute by the retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. H. W.
Wiseman, a roll of the sisters and brothers, who had passed to the "great beyond" in this Grand chapter, other Grand jurisdictions and the local subordinate chapters was read by G. G. Hazell, acting worthy patron.
A piano solo, "Nearer My God to Thee," was rendered by Mrs. J. W.
Hopping, the chapter pianist.
As J. W. Hopping sang, "Shall We Gather at the River," the Past Matrons, Star Points and retiring officers, attired in white, and carrying alternating candles and bouquets of flowers in emblematic colors, entered with a beautifully executed march. As a cross was formed at the altar, he rendered a solo, "The Old Rugged Cross." The drill then took the form of a triangle about the altar, and each of its participants, with an appropriate tribute, placed her offering of flowers and lighted candles on the altar. The Chaplain, Mrs. F. O. Boles, closed the chapter of sorrow with a beautiful prayer.
Those participating in the memorial service were: Mesdames H. W. Wiseman, J. W. Hopping, E. A. Bills, R.
E. McCaskill, E. S. Rowe, W. G. Street,
W. H. Gardner, J. D. Coehn, Irvin
Miller, J. M. Stokes, T. S. Sales, Miss
Lulu Hubbard, J. W. Hopping and G.
G. Hazell.
The installation ceremony was entered into next with the retiring officers Worthy Matron Mrs. Wiseman, acting as installing officer, assisted by Mrs. S. J. Farquhar as installing marshal.
In addition to the usual ritualistic installation, a pretty floral ceremony was introduced with pleasing effect, in which the retiring Star Points presented their emblems to their successors.
Five little girls, chapter member's daughters, who were dressed in emblematic colors, namely: Mildred Wiseman, in blue; Alice Lynn Street, in yellow; Freda Charles Bills, in white; Earnestine Cundiff, in green; and Mary Eleanor Wiseman, in red, assisted in the ceremony by presenting flowers appropriate to their five stations to the coming Star Points, as retiring Star Points expressed a wish appropriate to the point she represented.
A beautiful gift of a Past Matron's pin was presented to Mrs. Wiseman from the chapter, with a few sincere words of appreciation and commendation on her year's work, by the incoming Worthy Matron, Miss Lulu Hubbard.
The installation ceremony was

Back Quit Hurting

"I WAS in a very weak condition from a serious sickness," writes Mrs. I. Leonard, 671 Joseph St., New Orleans, La. "I was so weak, I wanted to sleep all the time. I did not have strength to do anything. My back ached nearly all the time. I was just in misery. My mother told me I must arouse myself from the sleepiness, and take something to help get my strength back. She had taken Cardui and had been helped, so I decided to take Cardui, too. After my first bottle, I could see that it was helping me. I took four bottles at this time. My strength came back and I gained weight. Pretty soon, I was my old self again. My back quit hurting, and I haven't had any more trouble since I took Cardui."

TABERNACLE BAPTIST FOLKS HAVE SUNDAY MEET IN HILLS
Almost the entire membership of the Tabernacle Baptist church drove out two miles north of Fieldton for a noon-day service last Sunday. The congregation was joined by several visiting friends from various communities in the worship hour.
Rev. Roy Kemp, pastor, spoke on the theme, "The Goodness of the Lord," after which a bounteous old fashioned dinner was spread beneath the leafy trees. It is reported there was oodles of ice cream and a 50-gallon barrel of lemonade.
One of the members remarked that about the only difference between this service and the one John the Baptist held was the fact of the rolling sand hills instead of the rolling Jordan river.

ROUND TREE BURIED FRIDAY
Lee Roundtree, who died Wednesday of last week at the home of his brother-in-law, A. T. Aikin, five miles northeast of Littlefield, was buried here Friday afternoon in the local cemetery, the I. O. O. F. lodge being in charge of the service at the grave.
The funeral service was conducted from the Tabernacle Baptist church, Rev. Roy Kemp officiating, and Hammons Bros. in charge of arrangements.

METHODIST MISSIONARY
The Missionary society of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon at the church with 11 members present.
The president led the devotional, after which the meeting was turned over to Bible study, led by Mrs. H. B. Teal, which proved very interesting. The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mrs. G. S. Glenn.
Those present were Mesdames H. B. Teal, W. H. Gardner, Hinchey, Eagan, G. S. Glenn, E. G. Courtney, D. G. Hobbs, Van Clark, Luther Kirk, Lakey and Darnell.

BIBLE CLASS MEET
The Ladies Bible class of the Church of Christ met with Mrs. R. A. Bigham, Tuesday with 22 members present.
The lesson was led by Mrs. Collins, prayer by Mrs. Hood, and a very interesting paper on "The Need of a Church in each Community," by Mrs. S. L. Adams.
Each lady on leaving was served punch and angel cake.

"STILL IN THE RACE"
It has been reported from various sources that I have withdrawn my candidacy for County Treasurer of Lamb County.
I wish to state that such reports are untrue. I am still in the race, receiving more encouragement each day, and respectfully solicit your vote and influence in the coming Democratic primary.

ROCKY FORD CLUB
The Rocky Ford club met May 26 at Mrs. L. Y. Nix'. Miss Ruby Mashburn met with us and discussed children's clothing. Two new members joined, Miss Connie Dunn and Miss Fay Murrell, also, two visitors, Mrs. McCoy and Mr. Nix' mother, were present.
Dainty refreshments were served. All had an enjoyable afternoon. The club will meet at Mrs. Dave Edgen's June 9. New members and visitors are welcomed.—Reporter.

LEGION GIVES PLAY
The play, "Corporal Eagen," was put on here Thursday and Friday evenings at the High school auditorium, sponsored by the local American Legion auxiliary.
About 150 town people took part in the program, who responded heartily in the parts to which they were assigned.
Besides the play proper, a number of musical specialties and a minstrel composed the entertainment.

If a five dollar bill got into the church collection you would have to call the doctors to treat the astonished observers.

Commercial Body Will Elect Officers For the Fiscal Year Tues. Nite

Officers and directors of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce will be elected at a meeting to be held next Tuesday night, according to announcement made by Secretary J. W. Hale at the noon-day meeting Tuesday. The meeting will be held in the basement of the First Baptist church, beginning promptly at 7:30 p. m. and members will be permitted to bring their wives and lady friends.

First on the program will be a banquet served by the ladies of the Methodist church, after which will be the election of officers, and there will also be an entertainment of music and speeches. It is probable that Hon. Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, will be the principal speaker of the evening, said Secretary Hale.

President J. E. Brannen urges a good attendance at the annual meeting, and that members be thinking of suitable and competent men for election to the offices to be filled another year. He also urges that reservations to the banquet be phoned Mr. Hale as early as possible so the caterers may know how many plates to prepare for service. It is understood several out of town guests will be invited to the occasion.

Tuesday Meeting

At the Tuesday noon-day meeting comment was again made regarding the direputable condition of some prominently located lots and highways where auto wrecks have been strewn. Particular mention was made of the vacant lot adjoining the Ritz theatre and the alley just north of the Littlefield hotel which it was claimed was filled with an "obnoxious mess" of old cars and other debris.

The matter of obtaining a branch cotton handling station in Littlefield was discussed, and a petition circulated and signed guaranteeing such a branch of the A. C. C. A. at this point This petition will be taken to Plainview Friday afternoon and presented to Vice-President C. O. Moser.

Members present were high in their praise of the excellent chicken dinner served them by ladies of the Methodist church.

Pope Is Given Six Years In Southland Bank Case at Post

The jury trying John M. Pope on a charge of accepting money in the Southland Bank when he knew it to be insolvent, rendered a verdict of guilty following a trial held at Post last Tuesday. A penalty of six years in the penitentiary was assessed against Pope. The jury is said to have been out about 10 minutes before bringing in a verdict.

Announcement has been made by Pope's attorneys, E. A. Bills and G. G. Hazel this city, that a new trial will be asked for, and probably a change of venue sought.

Seven witnesses were heard for the state in the trial which opened Monday morning. The defense did not call a single witness. The jury was composed entirely of farmers from Garza county.

FIRST BAPTIST W. M. U.

RAISE $500 ON DEBTS

The W. M. U. met in their respective circles Monday afternoon for business, industrial and social meetings.

Circle No. 1 met in the new home of Mrs. Pryor Hammons. At the end of the afternoon lovely refreshments were served to Mesdames Happy Jordan, Herbert Martin, Joe Grizzle, W. I. Gilliland, Lena Howard, Mid Seale, and the hostess.

Circle No. 2 met in the home of Mrs. E. P. Couch, with Mrs. Jess Seale as hostess, as Mrs. Couch was called out of town. Those present included Mesdames Roy Morgan, G. G. Hazel, H. J. Gibbs, J. H. Hardberger, J. L. Pate, E. M. Jones, Ike Griffin and the hostess. Dainty refreshments were served.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. Lon Humphries. This circle has been rather unfortunate in having lost two chairmen in the last year, Mrs. John Woodmore having moved from our midst last week, Mrs. Lon Humphries graciously accepted the office and the circle is looking forward to good work done under her leadership. Delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames J. R. Coen, R. E. McCaskill, Acree Barton, Shelton and the hostess.

The W. M. U. has been doing a most strenuous work during the last eight months. Over $500 worth of local debts that had been left on the church has been paid, and the ladies plan for the summer lighter duties. It is planned to have the time spent in meeting and making welcome the many new members of our church. The meeting next week will be held in the home of Mrs. Paul Vause with a Royal Service program.

Home Demonstration Activities

Ruby Mashburn

J. H. McClain, head of Bureau of Dairy Industries, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington D. C. will be in our county June 11. All club women and their husbands are invited this day on a field trip in which we will visit special dairy demonstrations of D. A. Adam, county farm agent. The caravan will leave Amherst at 9:30 a. m. and visit the following homes: C. V. Harmon, R. L. May, J. E. Holand and G. E. Bonner.

Twenty of the 28 "Yard and Gardens" of the club women contestants have been scored this week. The others will be scored in the near future. The women are learning that a vegetable plot can be made an interesting and profitable, as well as a decorative part of small home grounds. Vegetable plots should be laid out not only for use but for beauty as well. The edges may be beautified by borders of low, blooming plants, to provide plenty of cut flowers for the table.

Those interested in the making of American cheese are invited to the County Council Saturday June 7th, at 1:30 p. m. After a short program by the Littlefield club two demonstrations will be given; that of "cheese and dress form."

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The Presbyterian Ladies Auxiliary met in the basement of the church with Mrs. E. R. Reese as hostess.

After the usual business meeting, Mrs. A. L. Wright gave an interesting devotional. Mrs. M. M. Brittain gave a very interesting lesson on our work in the West Indies.

This was Mrs. Reese's last meeting with us as she is moving out of town. We regret very much to lose her as she has been a faithful member. We wish her well in her new home.

Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Barber Mike Brewer, E. A. Bills, M. V. Cobb, F. G. Sadler, Bob Smith, H. B. C. C. Clements, Lulu Hubabrd, G. G. Hazel, M. M. Brittain, Irvin Miller, Speck, A. L. Wright and the hostess, Mrs. E. R. Reese.

True Thrift Means Scientific Management Of One's Own Affairs Says Economic Expert

By S. W. STRAUS, President American Society for Thrift

"If there is any term that could be used as a substitute for the word 'thrift' I would say it is 'personal management.'"

This is an extract from a letter recently received by the writer and is of value because it brings out an important aspect of true thrift. Too many persons think of thrift only in terms of saving money. It would be well if more of us became imbued with the thought that thrift is really a matter of personal management.

The writer's attention recently was called to the incident of a family which is operated exactly as a business even to the point of annual reports by the husband and father in which he sums up the various points of progress made by the family during the year.

The American Society for Thrift has worked out a plan which should prove helpful in personal or household management. On a printed sheet are horizontal lines for the different days of the month. Across those horizontal lines are vertical columns representing the various items of expense such as food, clothing, rent, insurance, recreation, sundries, savings, etc. Each of these columns is divided into two parts, one called "anticipated" and the other "actual."

In the "anticipated" columns there is to be written down the amount of contemplated expense for each day of the month for the various items. In the "actual" column are spaces in which are to be set down the sums actually spent each day for each different item. In this way, a person can budget his entire month's outlay, setting down for each day the actual or pro rata amount of expense. In following out this plan every reasonable effort should be made, of course, to keep the "actual" expenses below, or at least not above, the "anticipated." These sheets, incidentally, may be obtained without cost by any of the readers of this paper who will write to the American Society for Thrift, 9 East 46th Street, New York City.

But whether you adopt some such plan as this or proceed along some other line, it should be borne in mind always that to be thrifty is simply to manage one's affairs in such a manner that one continually is moving forward on the path of progress.

The Family DOCTOR

By JOHN JOSEPH GAINES M.D.
A WORD TO THE WISE

It was during last summer that a fine little mother told me she might need my services along about Thanksgiving. Such things happen you know, else this old world would be a mighty lonesome place, now wouldn't it? The point I am making is, the engaging of a physician so far of the expected need.

I promised the service. My first step, however, was to request her to come to my office at her convenience, that I might look into her health condition closely; one should be fully advised, when he is called to look after the matter of two lives—I found her in excellent condition.

I had her come in every four weeks at first; then as the time approached, every ten days. Imagine my surprise and apprehension when, two weeks before the expected event, I found ten per cent of albumin in my usual test making!

Here was a dilemma—all of which I kept to myself—in which I acted quickly—intelligently; I put her at once on an appropriate diet, and required daily sweat baths to remove a dropsical condition that developed rapidly. Under the very best of care we came out of it with a fine little girl, and the mother in good condition. Both are now fine and well.

But, suppose this patient had waited to call her physician until the hour of delivery was at hand; I would have been totally ignorant of the kidney condition, with no time for making intelligent tests; I might have had convulsions to deal with—possible severe hemorrhages, uraemic poison, maybe death for the mother—possibly the child too. Being fully advised however we came through happily for all concerned.

The moral is this: There is no graver mistake, than waiting right up to the hour to call the doctor—in cases like this, where the physician does not know you thoroughly.
