LOOKING OVER THE CROP--Three pickle producers in the Olton area look over the grades of cucumbers harvested from a 26-acre plot. Left to right are Henry Aigaki, Elvis Hatley and Douglas Giles. The small pickle on the right is No. 1, while the others go down the line to No. 4 and culls.

GRADING THE PICKLES--This machine at Olton grades the cucumbers brought to one of the companies contracting the crops. The cucumbers roll down the conveyor and drop into slots which separates them according to size. Joe Pat Hart, local Texas Employment Commission farm labor representative, watches the machine at work.

POTATOES ON RISE TOO--This grading machine at Olton, grades potatoes for sacking and shipment. The potatoes have been of very good quality this year, adding another cash crop to the economy in Lamb County.

More Pay Asked For Indigent Patient Care

HEADACHE AT HOSPITALS

The knotty problem of payment of hospital bills for indigent patients who live in Lamb County developed a new knot Friday when representatives of hospitals in Littlefield asked county commissioners for an increase in the amount paid for treatment.

Lamb county has been paying 10 percent of the hospital charges for patients certified by the county welfare agent as charity patients. They pay this amount in three installments in Lamb County, on occasion, to hospitals out of the county when a patient requires treatment elsewhere.

In 1962, the indigent patient for the county came to $33,277, the commissioners court reported in a lengthy session with the representatives.

Dr. Jack Still, who acted as spokesman for the Littlefield Hospital and Clinic, asked that the county pay 100 percent of the indigent bills, and asked also for a study of indigent charges by an independent committee "perhaps from the chamber of commerce or civic clubs."

Still contended that hospital care is a non-profit service, adding that "if our hospital is run without doctor costs included it is on a breakeven basis."

Commissioners engaged in a quiz session with the doctor on the basis of hospital charges, with Still contending that the daily patient care cost in his hospital, that he set at "around $30 a day" is within the average for the South Plains area.

"Most of our hospitals out here are owned by physicians, rather than being county owned or owned by some other group," he explained.

He has joined in the discussion by Dr. Carl Nowlin and Bob Manley, administrator of Littlefield Hospital and Clinic.

Medical Arts Hospital of Littlefield was represented by Mrs. Jack W. King and Ralph G. Maurer, Jr.

The commissioners reported that August payments for indigent patient care had reached $3,884.27, including bills they approved in the Monday session.

Board Rejects Amherst Offer

Littlefield School trustees turned down a request Monday night from the Amherst School Board concerning the transfer of colored high school students to the local system.

Amherst does not have high school facilities in its colored school system, and these students have been going to Sudan. After the Sudan board voted to integrate recently, a policy was announced to not accept the transfers.

The request from the Amherst board indicated that only 4 to 8 Negro students would be involved. They offered to pay $120 tuition for each student attending here, but Littlefield trustees rejected the request by a unanimous vote.

Trustees Study Budget, Hire Basketball Coach

Littlefield School trustees gave the 1963-64 budget a thorough going over, hired a new basketball coach and other teachers, approved milk and bread contracts, heard an appeal for a high school baseball program, discussed the sale of football tickets, and voted to take bids on gasoline and oil during a lengthy 6-hour session Monday night.

The proposed budget called for expenditures of $921,225, but trustees took a hard look at all items in an effort to slice this figure. Supt. Glenn Reeves was continuing work on a corrected budget, which might be as much as $20,000 below the proposed amount.

Harold Green, basketball coach and assistant grid coach, submitted his resignation, along with several other teachers.

Named as the new head basketball coach and junior varsity football assistant was Bill Martin, 27, of Memphis.

Martin has been head basketball coach at Memphis, Class A school, for four years. His team posted a 27-5 won-lost record last year. A Texas Tech graduate, he worked under LHS coach John Howie one year at Memphis.

The new mentor will probably move here this weekend. He and his wife, the former Linda Smith, of Slaton, have one daughter.

Green resigned to accept a coaching position at Plainview. He coached here two years and had a fine team last season. He will be "B" team basketball and football coach at the 4A school. Don Williams, former Littlefield coach, is athletic director at Plainview.

Other teachers whose resignations were accepted were Bill

Daughtery Charged In Rare Case

A complaint of assault with intent to murder has been filed against Frank Daughtery, Olton farmer, in connection with the firing on a crop duster plane near his farm last Friday.

Daughtery made $5,000 bond Tuesday in the court of Peace Justice David Maxey of Olton, after charges were prepared by District Attorney Jack Young of Muleshoe, who investigated the incident Monday.

The complaint was signed by Harold Harbour, Amarillo, pilot of the plane which had a large hole torn in it by a bullet as he banked for a crop spraying run near Olton late Friday.

The bullet ripped through the wing, narrowly missing a wing support, tearing a hole "as big as your fist," as Harbour described it. The pilot was warned by a flagman who was guiding him from the ground, and in communication with a walkie-talkie radio. Three shots apparently were fired, from a .38 calibre revolver. The third shot apparently struck home.

Harbour, 29, and a former service pilot, was spraying on the farm of Daryl Machen at the southwest corner of Olton late Friday, when the shooting occurred.

The farm adjoins that of

Rocky Ford Farm Dinner Draws 150

The Chamber of Commerce asks for cooperation and offers its help to farmers in the goal for increased net farm income, Joe Montgomery told farmers of the Rocky Ford community Tuesday night.

Montgomery, local Plainview Production Credit Assn. manager, was guest speaker at a "Farm Dinner" held at the N.B. Embry home Tuesday. It was another in a series of farm dinners sponsored by the area relations committee of the C of C.

V. M. Peterman, Rocky Ford farmer, welcomed some 150 persons to the dinner. Mancil Hall responded for the Littlefield citizens and C of C. Montgomery was introduced by Peterman.

Montgomery mentioned the great inroads being made by synthetics, and said advertising and research presented two possible solutions to the competition.

"Price alone is not the determining factor . . . some mills had rather use cotton but it does not come clean and it does not have the tremendous advertising advantage of the synthetics," he stated.

Montgomery said the Chamber program is "real encouraging" and other organizations are joining the battle. "The Plains Cotton Growers are doing much for the area cotton farmers," he added.

The PCA man announced that a joint meeting of POC officials, area farm leaders and businessmen will be held in Lubbock Aug. 22. They will discuss ways and

NEW POSTAL SERVICE SET

The Littlefield Post Office is initiating a new mail service Monday which should be of interest to local businessmen and other citizens, according to Postmaster T. A. Henson.

The service will be in the form of faster delivery service to most mail going to points beyond Lubbock. Patrons must have mail at the post office by 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, to take advantage of this service.

The special mail pouch will not affect Lubbock mail, but such points as Plainview, Amarillo and most cities south and east of Lubbock will be affected.

The service includes regular and air mail letters. It will provide delivery hours faster to many points and could mean a day's difference in some cases, Henson stated.

Four Named To Youth Conference

Four Littlefield students have been named by the Rotary Club to attend the Attorney General's Youth Conference in Austin Saturday and Sunday.

Rotarians will sponsor the trip for Maisie Naylor, Cindy Phillips, Roy Dale Pierce and Keith Kisner. Other county students are expected to be sent by other sponsoring organizations.

The group will leave Lubbock by special bus Friday morning and return Sunday night.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has called the conference which is an outgrowth of a movement in Austin last April by teenagers wanting to do something constructive about youth problems. Members of that group make up an organization called the Pilot Club.

Young people attending the conference from all over the state will be lodged in dormitories at St. Edward's University and the School for the Deaf and Dumb.

CHAT AT FARM DINNER--A few of the farmers and businessmen who attended a Chamber of Commerce "Farm Dinner" in the Rocky Ford community Tuesday night are shown chatting after the meal. Rip Elms, manager of Paymaster Oil Mill, had the attention of several farmers in this discussion.

Impressions From World Tour Given By Littlefield Woman

BY LAVON NIEMAN

It's always interesting to ask a traveler what impresses them most on a long trip, especially to foreign countries, and Mrs. E. G. Brunson of Littlefield has some lasting impressions from a world tour she recently completed.

The three things that impressed Mrs. Brunson the most on her trip around the world were The Holy Land, the Tashma Hall in India, and the Royal Palace at Bangkok in Thailand. She said, "There were so many beautiful and interesting places to see, that it is hard to describe them in just a short visit".

She was one of 15 to board a plane in Dallas and continue on a seven week tour of the world. She had been to Western Europe in 1960, but enjoyed seeing those countries again. The group had 20 plane changes while on their trip.

She said the trip was very well organized with an agent meeting the group after each landing and conducting them on a tour of the countries.

From Dallas, they went to Los Angeles, Calif. and from there to Honolulu, Hawaii. The thing that impressed her most there was seeing Pearl Harbor.

While in Japan, she visited in the Garden of Heiran (meeting place) Shrine at Kyoto. This is where the film, "Sayonara", was filmed. She thought Kyoto was the prettiest city in Japan. She found it clean, with beautiful gardens, shrubs and flowers and outstanding art work. They stayed in Tokyo while in Japan.

The group stayed at the brand new Hilton Hotel while in Hong Kong. There is a great water shortage in Hong Kong, and the group missed out on the showers, which are just available every four days at the fabulous hotel. She said they were using sea water in their conditioning system.

They went across the bay from Hong Kong to Kowloon, where most of the people lived. Only the wealthy live in Hong Kong. She said there were so many refugees living there, that it gave you "a very distressing feeling".

A lot of the refugees live in apartment buildings. They can rent one room for $8 monthly. This is an 8 by 10 room where five people can live. A bath and kitchen join these single rooms, and are used by several families. The schools are on the roofs. The only free schools are taught by missionaries.

The Philippines was next on the tour followed by Thailand. In Bangkok, Thailand, she saw the gorgeous Royal Palace that impressed her so. They had planned to land at Calcutta next, but because of a typhoon they landed at Karachi, Pakistan.

Mrs. Brunson said India was probably the most uncomfortable country to travel in because of the 112-degree heat. There are dust storms, and the cars they traveled in had no air conditioning. She said all sorts of animals would cross the road and might just stop in the mid-

Shower For New Baby

A baby shower was given Monday morning honoring Miss Gayla Don McCarty, brand new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarty. Gayla was born July 18.

The shower was given in the home of Mrs. Reed Loflin, 403 Crescent Drive. Others serving as hostesses were: Mmes. John Terry, Barry Armes, Thomas Moss, Charles Schroeder, and Tommy Thrash.

The table was laid with a white lace tablecloth over pink, centered with a large pink bow in which nestled a small stork with baby. The table also had a stereo-foam stork carrying a baby and was trimmed with blue feathers and ribbons.

Refreshments of coffee, lemonade, party cinnamon rolls and "chips and dips" were served.

The baby's gifts were arranged on a round table in the den, centered with a fruit and butterfly arrangement from which cascaded pink streamers holding tiny stork with baby.

Hostess gift was a matching musical pillow and blanket set of yellow and white satin.

Guests were: Mmes. Alvis Tubbs, paternal grandmother of Gayla Don, Harold Green, Walter Hill, James Walker, Herbert Hinckley, L. G. Aten, Butch Gerber, E. D. Bingham, and Robert Longshore.

MODELING -- Diane Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of Littlefield, is shown modeling her dress during judging recently at the District 4-H Dress Revue held on the Texas Tech campus. die of the road. When they would stop while touring India, native people would surround the cars and stand there and look until you drove away.

The trip included Iran, Turkey, and Lebanon. While in Beirut, Lebanon, they stayed at the Phoenix Hotel. She said this was the finest hotel they stayed in while on the trip. Lebanon is a rich land with an abundance of fruit.

Mrs. Brunson was very impressed with the Holy Land. She saw all the old biblical sites in Jordan and Jerusalem. She has been a Sunday School teacher since she was a teenager, and she feels the trip to the Holy Land will make her lessons more interesting. She is a substitute teacher at the First Baptist Church now.

She rode a camel while in Egypt, and found the ride on the Nile River most interesting as well as the Pyramids and Sphinx. The land in Egypt is very fertile.

She found Athens, Greece "a gorgeous place". From there she did a repeat performance as she had visited Italy, Switzerland, France and England on her trip in 1960.

The group which made the tour had all been of Dallas at one time. Mrs. Brunson had lived there 30 years before moving here in 1960. She is the mother of Mrs. W. C. Nowlin. She brought souvenirs to Mrs. Nowlin, as well as her two grandchildren, Bill 15, and Jane 12.

Coaching School Gives Wives Opportunity to See 'Cleopatra'

Five local coach's wives were lucky enough to "tag along" last week when their husbands attended coaching school in Houston. The lucky ladies were Mmes. John Howie, Jim Taylor, Ernie Davis, "Butch" Gerber and Harold Green.

The coaching school started the first of last week, and while the coaches were attending meetings day and night, the wives enjoyed a coffee at the Shamrock-Hilton Hotel, a bridge tournament, a luncheon and style show. The couples also enjoyed the basketball game followed by a dance, and of course, the football game last Friday night.

While Gerber and Howie were in a meeting one night, their wives decided to take in the much publicized movie, "Cleopatra".

When asked about the world's most talked about movie, they said it was "real good, but a little too long." They enjoyed the four-hour spectacle, directed by Joseph L. Mankiewicz. It could be cut in half and be just as good, or you could leave it as is and feel you're getting your money's worth. Mr. Gerber said "just being able to see the costumes and settings worth the price of the ticket."

They found the musical score by Alex North terrific. One of the scenes -- Romans in combat, the Roman mob demonstration on the steps of the Pyre of Caesar, Cleopatra's procession into the city, shots taken in her royal barge all in deluxe color, were takingly beautiful.

They thought Rex Harrison's portrayal of Caesar was in fact, they thought he was in the best performance ever cast, but Elizabeth Taylor's playing her part as the seductive queen of Egypt ran a close second. They not recommend the picture to children.

 manager of the Olton Co-Op Producers' Association, is another man who is real optimistic about the pickle business. Crews were harvesting about 1,000 pounds per day off his 26 acres this past week.

Both men described the cucumber production as "fascinating business" and said the pickles were easy to grow. Proper watering and fertilizing, and picking at the right time are the key factors in a successful operation.

The only problem the men foresee is on labor, but they've

AMHERST

Susie Humphreys was 10 years old last Thursday and her mother, Mrs. Jim Humphreys, entertained with a party to celebrate the occasion. She took the group to the Crescent Park swimming pool, in Littlefield. They were served ice cream, birthday cake and cold drinks.

Mrs. Aubrey Jones and Jan and Mrs. Virgil Fields and Paula were in Canyon last Thursday. The girls will be roommates as Freshmen students at WTSU next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Long and family and Mrs. Hudson Cantrell and Mark are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Richard Lerner and family in Sacramento, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tillman of Water Valley, Miss., are visiting her sister, Mrs. John Faust and other relatives. Here for a family dinner Friday night were Dr. and Mrs. B. O. McDaniel and Bennie Ann of Muleshoe. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Largent of Littlefield, W. E. McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Mac Foust and girls of Muleshoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bowman and Judy spent Sunday with their son and brother, Harold Ray Bowman and family in Fieldton to help him celebrate his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tillman of Miss., accompanied her brother, W. E. McDaniel to Snyder Monday to meet Mrs. McDaniel as she returned home from Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Duffy and sons left Tuesday for Van Nuys, Calif. where they will visit her relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Feagley and family of Arch, N.M. spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cook.

been able to secure crews this year. They report they are unable to secure enough domestic help for the cucumber harvest. Both of these men had Mexican Nationals in the fields.

Should the bracero program be scrapped, as the situation now stands in Congress, farmers in the vegetable business might be handicapped even more than those in cotton production.

Atgaki, who came to the Olton area from Colorado about 12 years ago, thinks the area is ideally suited for raising cucumbers and other vegetables. "The climate and altitude are just right, and any place in the county that has the water can grow them" he stated.

Two companies have grading plants at Olton -- Dalton Best Maid Products with Duane Adcock of Fort Worth as manager, and Brown & Miller of Texarkana, Ark., with Clovis Poteet as local manager.

These companies have contracted for the cucumbers and both report an increase in the number of persons raising the vegetable. Both sheds expect the harvest to be complete around Sept. 20.

Average payment for the cucumber is running $2.50 per hundred, according to one of the farmers. The companies pay $7 for No. 1 cucumbers, $2.50 for No. 2, $1.15 for No. 3, and 60 cents for No. 4.

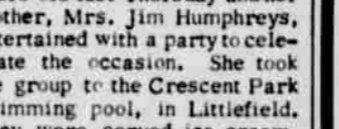

Prices are running a little higher than last year, but farmers think the grading system is unbalanced. They bring in more of the No. 2 and 3 pickles, and there is a big price difference from the No. 1.

One fascinating part of the cucumber raising is the fact that two to three bee hives must be put to each acre. The bees are used to pollinate the female cucumber blooms, the only ones which produce.

If it were not for the bees, the cucumbers would be crooked and nubby. The crews pick the same plants about every three days, and the watering process follows in the path of the workers.

It's been a perfect pickle year, hot and dry. Actually, a rain foul up the watering schedule in a cuke field. The pickle raisers put about 400 to 500 pounds of per-application fertilizer on the cukes and, at present, some are fertilizing every two weeks and some with each watering. One farmer reported the cucumber seed cost about $1 to $1.15 a pound.

Just as some of the farmers are high on the cucumber crops, so is J. B. Williams of Olton enthused about the potato business. His potato shed about 6 miles northwest of Olton is one of several in the area, and he has been busy harvesting the past few weeks.

The potatoes are not under contract, and Williams is shipping his out to various parts of the country. One order came in from Memphis, Tenn., while this writer was visiting him this week. He also sends them to Houston, Fort Worth, and Dallas.

Williams was one of the first farmers in the area to start growing potatoes back in 1941. He is of the opinion that the Littlefield area has the best soil in the country for raising potatoes. "I wish I had some land a little further south--the soil is not as tight there and should be ideally suited," Williams said. "The potato business is a bed of roses, but there is a lot to be made and this area is of the best," he added. Williams has had his potato crop since 1957. He washes, grades and sacks the vegetable.

He estimates there is 700 to 800 acres of potato in the county. Williams claims the area can produce two crops a year for Idaho and Colorado. "The color here is better, our reds don't have to be colored," Williams said. He also has had reports according to several of the graders. One thing for sure, the two cash crops are providing big assist to "king cotton" area's economy.

are fertilizing every two weeks and some with each watering. One farmer reported the cucumber seed cost about $1 to $1.15 a pound.

Just as some of the farmers are high on the cucumber crops, so is J. B. Williams of Olton enthused about the potato business. His potato shed about 6 miles northwest of Olton is one of several in the area, and he has been busy harvesting the past few weeks.

The potatoes are not under contract, and Williams is shipping his out to various parts of the country. One order came in from Memphis, Tenn., while this writer was visiting him this week. He also sends them to Houston, Fort Worth, and Dallas.

Williams was one of the first farmers in the area to start growing potatoes back in 1941. He is of the opinion that the Littlefield area has the best soil in the country for raising potatoes. "I wish I had some land a little further south--the soil is not as tight there and should be ideally suited," Williams said. "The potato business is a bed of roses, but there is a lot to be made and this area is of the best," he added. Williams has had his potato crop since 1957. He washes, grades and sacks the vegetable.

He estimates there is 700 to 800 acres of potato in the county. Williams claims the area can produce two crops a year for Idaho and Colorado. "The color here is better, our reds don't have to be colored," Williams said. He also has had reports according to several of the graders. One thing for sure, the two cash crops are providing big assist to "king cotton" area's economy.

The women's tourney drew 16 players in 4 flights. Jean McCary is defending champion.

Two Break-Ins Being Investigated By Police

City Police were investigating two break-ins, where an undetermined amount of money was taken, and theft of some bicycles, this week.

The Vista Drive Inn reported a break in Monday night with a cigarette machine being torn up, cartons of cigarettes stolen, and an unknown amount of money being taken. Entry was gained through the back door. Thieves also broke into the Tangle Cafe Sunday night or Monday morning. Cigarette and juke box machines were damaged and money taken. Entry was gained through a back door.

Albert Jennings of 1318 W. 6th, Mrs. Bill Heinen of 604 E. 8th and Mrs. Willard Morris of 909 1/2 reported the theft of bicycles from their residences.

Daughter, Harbour reportedly spraying malathion on a cucumber patch.

When Deputy Sheriff V. L. Smith of Olton went to Daugherty's home a short while after the shooting, to question him, he was met by a Plainview doctor who ordered that Daugherty not be disturbed.

Later, he was charged and made bond.

The Olton farmer reportedly retained an attorney, E. J. Harr of Lubbock, who said that Daugherty was concerned over injury to his string of quarter horses that were penned near the spraying area, and that were getting effects of the spray.

Witnesses indicated the plane was fired at on more than one occasion, at a time when it banked low over the Daugherty farm, at slow speed.

The district attorney indicated that the case would be presented to a Lamb county grand jury in 154th district court at its next session. The grand jury completed a session two weeks ago and probably will not be convened until late in the year.

Harbour, the pilot, is employed by Tri-State Aerial Spray Service out of Amarillo. He was back in the air spraying this week, in another area of the South Plains.

Choice Football Tickets On Sale

A number of choice reserved season seats for Littlefield Wildcat home football games are available at the school tax office, Athletic Director John Howle announced Wednesday.

Reserved seats which were not held last year are on sale anytime. Those who held reserved season tickets last year will have until Sept. 1 to claim the option on these same seats, the school board decided this week.

The season ticket for five home games is priced at $7.50. The advance sale of reserved seats has been around 500 in past years.

school math. Two other new teachers employed were Mrs. Mickey Ratliff, Jr., and Mrs. Thelma Chennault, 7th and high school math.

Rainbo won the bread contract on a draw, after the three companies submitting bids came up with identical figures. Baldrige and Mrs. Baird's were the other two bidders.

Three companies also submitted bids for the milk contract with the school cafeteria. Jensen Foremost of Littlefield was awarded the contract on a bid of 5.25 cents per half pint.

Kelly Milk, with warehouse in Hereford, was the low bidder but the board questioned whether service would be satisfactory with an out-of-town warehouse. The Kelly bid was 5 cents. Bell Milk bid 5.5 cents.

After a discussion of gasoline and oil purchases, the board decided to call for separate bids on these products. In the past the school has purchased from nine local dealers on a rotating basis.

Jim Black was spokesman for the baseball group, explaining that the men represented only those interested in an expanded athletic program. Also appearing were Judd Walker, Lloyd White and B. T. Kisner.

Black reported the group had made an investigation of the proposal to put baseball into the high school program, including statements and information from several other schools which have baseball.

He said the objections usually raised were concerned with the expense, the conflict with other spring sports, and the classroom absences. "After a thorough check, we believe these objections are all negligible in consideration of adding the sport to the athletic program," Black stated.

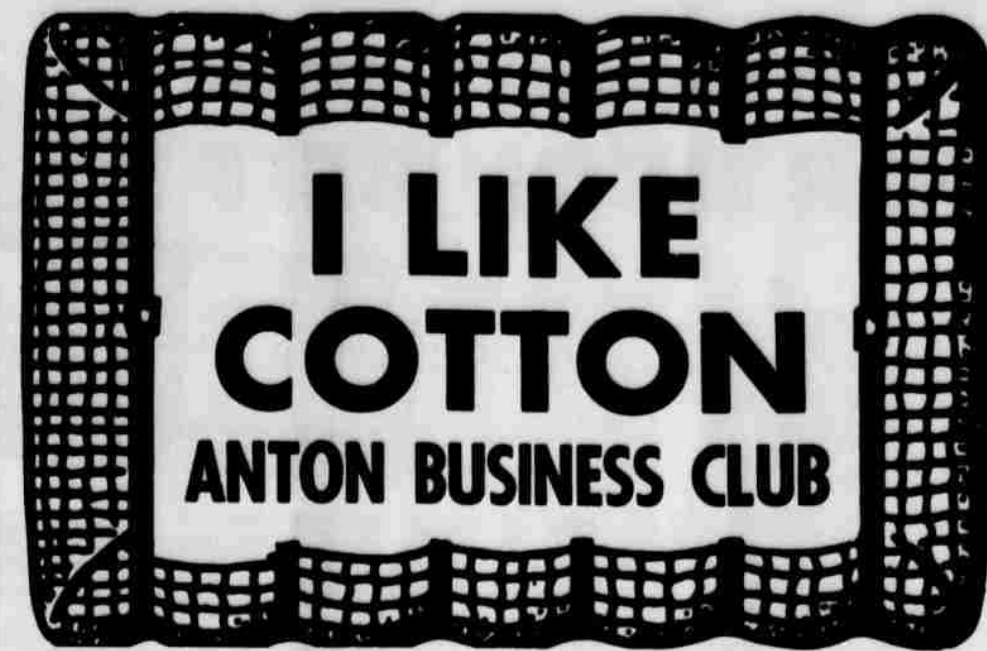

Black pointed out that a major factor was to allow more boys to participate in high school sports, especially those whose interests lie only in baseball. He noted that the American Legion Park would be available to the school.

Supt. Reeves and Athletic Director John Howle estimated a first-year budget of $2,200 for the sport, or about $1,300 if the interested baseball men provide some equipment as offered.

The board discussed the effect baseball might have on the track program and spring basketball workouts, and the possibility of the season extending into June with a winning team. This would require a coach for another month.

After discussing some of the advantages and disadvantages, the board decided to consider the proposal further and discuss it in the September meeting.

Trustees also discussed the policy on selling season reserved seat tickets. A motion was approved to allow options on last year's seats to be exercised until Sept. 1 and promote the sale of unclaimed seats at any time.

Fire Department Asks Raise for Calls in County

With new-budget time at hand, Lamb County commissioners Monday heard a request from the Littlefield fire department that its payment for fire runs to county fires be raised from the $25 each it has been.

The city estimated that the cost of fighting a county fire has averaged nearly $150 each the past year. They did not, however, set this figure for the commissioners but asked for an increase in the amount.

The county does not maintain a fire department. Fires in the county area, and outside of the city limits, are fought by the Littlefield department.

The request was voiced by a city delegation of Councilmen H. C. Randall and Paul McCormick, Fire Chief M. O. Dunagin and City Manager J. W. Harrison.

One bill in this group was for a total of $2,300, and payment of 60 percent of it was approved.

County Judge J. B. Davis said later that he and the commissioners planned a study of hospital charges in surrounding counties, and also the policies that counties follow in payment of hospital bills for indigents.

Commissioner Hubert Dykes cited results of a preliminary study made some months back by the court, that showed that Lamb county "pays more per capita for indigent hospital treatment than other counties around us."

The indigent patient discussion is not new to the county commissioners. Earlier this year they surveyed a number of Texas counties in establishing a policy on certifying indigent patients.

Mrs. Norman Frey, county Welfare officer, read the policy developed after the survey, which provides that persons eligible for hospital payment shall not be "gainfully employed."

On questioning, Mrs. Frey explained that "gainfully employed" could mean a person whose earnings were limited and could not allow payment of hospital expenses.

On the basis of the 1962 payment history, if Lamb county increased its indigent patient hospital payment to 100 percent of the bill, the cost to the county would reach more than $56,000 a year, compared with the 1962 figure of $33,884.

"This would almost certainly mean a raise in taxes," pointed out Commissioner H. W. Lewis.

County Column

A second Littlefield Cotton Gleaner is at work in South Texas, with good results reported, this one in the Corpus Christi area. An earlier one started work three weeks ago near Harlingen.

James Joyner, manager of J. C. Penney Co., left yesterday on a week's vacation. He planned to stay overnight with friends in Liberal, Kans., and then continue on to Wichita, Kans., where he intends to stay with his sister and her family.

Going with Joyner were about 100 birds. He plans to exhibit some Kormorner birds at the Young Bird Lawn Show while there. This show is prior to a big fall show that he attends each year. He plans to sell some of the birds that are making the trip. Joyner raises the birds here.

The Pep School Board will hold a budget hearing at 8 p.m. Tuesday. All interested taxpayers in the school district are invited to attend.

Gals Clash; Leone Back

An old favorite returns to Littlefield Sports Arena Saturday night when Ripper Leone appears here on the bigtime wrestling card.

Leone returns to the local arena after an absence of two years, meeting Treach Phillips in a 2-of-3 fall match with an hour's time limit. Matches start at 8:45 p.m.

The second event is a special attraction with the girls tangling in a one-fall, 30-minute time limit match. Jean Antone makes her first appearance here as she takes on Jessica Rogers.

The top main event pits Sputnik Monroe against Ricky Romero. Monroe, who stops at nothing to win a match, will have his hands full with the popular and skillful Romero.

Last Saturday wrestling fans saw Enrique Torres defeat Billy Romanoff, Dory Funk Jr. whip Monroe, and Jose Lothario beat Killer Karl Kox.

CLASSES TO BEGIN SEPT. 3

Registration, Calendar Listed for Littlefield

Registration and faculty meetings start Aug. 26 and classes will begin Sept. 3 in the Littlefield Schools, it was announced this week by Supt. Glenn Reeves.

Students will note a major "face-lifting" job when they return to classes. A new junior high field house is under construction near the present high school gym, and remodeling and renovation is partially complete in the primary, elementary and junior high buildings.

The old auditorium in the junior high building is being converted into six new classrooms, and these are due to be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term.

The field house is scheduled for completion by Dec. 3. The building program is part of an $800,000 bond issue approved in April. New high school facilities at another site--Sunset and W. 10th--will be a major portion of the work. Target date for letting contracts on this project is Sept. 20.

The registration schedule for Littlefield students is as follows: Students in grades 1 through 3 will register Aug.

26-27, including first graders who did not register in the spring and pupils new to the district. New students only in grades 4-6 will register Aug. 29-30, and junior high students will not register until Sept. 3 due to remodeling work being done in that building.

The high school schedule for registering calls for seniors from 9 a.m. to noon and juniors from 1 to 4 p.m. on Aug. 29; sophomores from 9 to 12 and freshmen from 1 to 4 on Aug. 30.

A general faculty meeting is scheduled Aug. 28.

The school calendar: Aug. 26-30--Registration Aug. 28--General faculty meeting, Sept. 2--Labor Day holiday, Sept. 3--Classes begin Oct. 11--End of 1st six-weeks period, Nov. 22--End of 2nd six weeks, Nov. 28-29--Thanksgiving holidays, Dec. 20--Christmas holidays begin, Jan. 6--School resumes, Jan. 17--Mid term, Feb. 28--End 4th six weeks, March 6--District teacher's meeting, March 27-30--Easter holidays, April 17--End of 5th six weeks, May 29--End of 2nd semester, May 31--Baccalaureate, June 1--Commencement.

There will be a slight change in school hours this year, according to the superintendent. School started at 8:45 last term, and the new schedule calls for high school and elementary students to be in their classes at 8:30, for junior high students to be in their home room at this time, and for the primary building to open at the same time. Primary pupils will be tardy at 8:45 a.m. Primary pupils will dismiss at 3:15, elementary at 3:55, and high school at 4. During the first six weeks of school, primary pupils will be dismissed at 2:45.

OSU Reunion

The High Plains Chapter of Oklahoma State Alumni and Exes will hold its third annual family picnic at MacKenzie State Park in Lubbock Aug. 18. Activities will begin at 1 p.m. that date, with each family asked to bring a picnic basket. The school calendar: Aug. 26-30--Registration Aug. 28--General faculty meeting, Sept. 2--Labor Day holiday, Sept. 3--Classes begin Oct. 11--End of 1st six-weeks period, Nov. 22--End of 2nd six weeks, Nov. 28-29--Thanksgiving holidays, Dec. 20--Christmas holidays begin, Jan. 6--School resumes, Jan. 17--Mid term, Feb. 28--End 4th six weeks, March 6--District teacher's meeting, March 27-30--Easter holidays, April 17--End of 5th six weeks, May 29--End of 2nd semester, May 31--Baccalaureate, June 1--Commencement.

Candlemaking Class For Adults Set Here

The homemaking department of Littlefield High School will conduct classes for adults in candlemaking Aug. 19-21. Mrs. Francis Jones and Mrs. Dorothy West, high school homemaking teachers, will be in charge. On Aug. 20 and 21 the meetings will be held in the homemaking department of Littlefield High School from 9 to 11 a.m. and 2 to 4 p.m. Special plans have been made for the first day of the classes. This session will be held in Lubbock at the home service center of The South Plains Electric Cooperative on the old Plainview highway near Mackenzie Park. Mrs. Gayle Brewer will teach basic techniques and demonstrate methods of making different types of candles. The instruction will be such that any class member, however inexperienced, will be able to make a candle during this first class meeting. This will be an all-day meeting and those who attend are asked to bring a sack lunch. Drinks will be furnished. Also, anyone who wishes to make a candle at the Lubbock meeting should bring an electric deep fryer or saucepan in which to melt the wax and a spoon with which to stir it. She should bring crayolas or oil base paints to color her candle and molds for the shape she wishes to make. Several large molds will be on hand for use in the class but these molds can not be taken from the center. Anyone who uses them would have to return a day or so later to un-mold the candle after it hardens. Old candles can be remelted, or new wax will be available at 25¢ a pound. Candle wicking will be available also. There will be an exhibit of beautiful candles to inspire the class members. Every woman who is interested in making candles for any purpose is invited to gather up a car full of friends and sack lunches and meet the crowd at Littlefield High School on Monday morning at 8:30, Aug. 19, and join the group for a trip to Lubbock and an adventure in candle making.

AUSTIN -- About this time each year, thousands of Texas mothers suddenly realize that only a few more weeks remain until school begins.

For those mothers who have six-year-olds beginning school for the first time this September the excitement is beginning to rise -- and for mothers with no older children, a little bewilderment accompanies the excitement.

Smart mothers have already had their child fully examined by a physician, as well as a dentist. Also the beginning-school child should have his hearing and eyes checked for any abnormality so that correction or glasses can be accomplished well in advance of school time.

Also, for children just starting school, there is the problem of clothes, adjusting to new friends, discipline and surroundings. A thousand-and-one details crowd in on the parents.

One detail often overlooked until the last minute is the need for a birth certificate for first-time students. Most school districts require proof-of-age for beginning students.

Smart mothers send for their certificate copies early to avoid the rush of late August requests which pour into county clerks' offices as well as the State Health Department's Records and Statistics Section.

Certified copies may usually be obtained from local county clerks and local registrars for a slight fee.

If unable to obtain a copy locally, a request should be made to the State Health Department as early as possible. The State fee, established by law, is one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50).

Most important aid for speedy service -- aside from getting requests in early -- is complete and correct information.

Parents should include the child's name, his place of birth, date of birth, and the parents' name -- including the mother's maiden name.

A special corps of summer "searchers" who seek out the proper birth certificate from a special "school" index permits quick service even during the burden of late August requests. However, a week to 10 days should be allowed for mailing time and servicing.

When mother gets the certified copy of Johnny's birth record she will have nothing to do but get his clothes ready, have his teeth checked, see about his vaccination record, arrange car pools. . .

Holidays will include Thanksgiving, Nov. 28-29; Christmas, Dec. 21 through Dec. 29; New Year's Day, Jan. 1; teacher's convention, March 6; Easter, March 27-30.

School will close with high school commencement May 22. Baccalaureate services are set May 17 and junior high graduation May 21.

Elementary teachers will be Mrs. Vivian Price (new), first grade; Mrs. Alma McNutt, second; Mrs. Ruth Sheek, 3rd

High school teachers are John McDaniel, English; Earnest Dyke, math; Albert Sinnacher, science; Hershel Price (new) social sciences; Marion McDaniel, commerce; J. F. Lands Jr., agriculture; and Wanda Young, homemaking.

Ruth Sheek, Entha Campbell, John McDaniel, Marion McDaniel and J. F. Lands Jr. hold master's degrees. All other teachers hold basic degrees.
