It Was Tons OF Thanksgiving Turkey And Fellowship At Pep Again This Year

The biggest family gathering—family dinner served by anybody, anywhere, on Thanksgiving Day of 1952, was served out at Pep. Mrs. Pep, or maybe we should say about 100 Mrs. Peps, cooked and served Thanksgiving Turkey, Goose, Duck, Sausage, Chicken, not with just "all the trimmings", but actually with a ton or more of trimmings if you count the pies, and the cakes and those other luscious desserts that were served.

They started coming early in the afternoon—and the first dinner bell rang at three o'clock. Then they kept on coming, and before the last dinner guest, who had eaten so much turkey he could almost gobble, finally gave signs of making it up and away from the (still groaning) table, because there was heaps of food still left, the Mrs. Pep and the Mr. Pep helpers had tallied up more than 900 dinners, and with tips, and folks who didn't bother about asking for change, receipts in excess of a thousand dollars.

And what a dinner it was. Try and match it any place in the world for less than a five dollar bill—and you won't.

The dinner was the advertised magnet that was employed to bring the huge crowd that converged on Pep last Thursday, but there was other doings galore—plenty of them.

The bingo game with many of the prizes donated cleared more than $200 and provided gales of laughter, and bushels of fun.

And did the big crowd go home after all of that—they did not, and more and more kept coming, because the big annual Pep Thanksgiving Day dance is almost a tradition out here in West Texas.

Now it's true, that the Pep High school auditorium was never intended to even seat more than a few hundred, but seating and dancing are not in the same category—we would guess.

Seven hundred and eighty-five dance tickets were sold, and most of the time during the evening, or should we say the night, (because it lasted until —?) most, or all of them were out there on the floor swinging their partners—and applauding for encores, when they could get their two hands together to applaud.

And those 785 dancers added another thousand dollars to the already bulging Pep church building fund.

One could write on and on about that big Pep Thanksgiving dinner and party, because it was that kind of an affair that mere words are beggared to describe, but even the written story must end somewhere, just as did the dinner, bingo party and dance.

When all of the receipts were finally totaled up, it was found (Continued on Page 5)

Mrs. Bagwell Seriously Ill In Fort Worth

Mrs. Maxey Bagwell, who became seriously ill Sunday afternoon while visiting her sister, Mrs. Tommy Tucker and family in Fort Worth, is reported to be improving in St. Joseph's hospital in Fort Worth. Her husband is at her bedside, as are other members of the family.

She became seriously ill Sunday night, and doctors diagnosed her case as possible polio or brain tumor. However, she was showing considerable improvement yesterday.

Mrs. Alvin Bagwell, who was in Chicago with her husband at the time her daughter-in-law became ill, was notified and she flew to Fort Worth to be at her bedside. However, she is expected to return home today or tomorrow and will bring her little granddaughter Shelby home with her.

LEADER WILL PUBLISH LARGER WEEKLY EDITION

The Lamb County Leader is discontinuing the Sunday Edition and returning to the publication of one issue each week... the Big, Popular Thursday Edition. Into the Big Thursday issue will go all the features that have been a part of the Sunday Edition, creating a publication full to overflowing with local, state and national news and Associated Press features... a publication that will contain many things of interest to every member of the family.

Discontinuing of the Sunday issue will give the entire personnel of the Leader more time to devote to the development and expansion of the Thursday Edition, making a greater and more interesting publication.

A survey has revealed that a larger Thursday Edition is favored over two issues each week.

In view of the popularity of the larger Thursday issue and the additional cost of publishing a Sunday Edition, the Leader has decided to return to one issue each week. Similar retrenchments in frequency of publication are being made by daily and weekly newspapers throughout the country, because of high costs of production.

The Lamb County Leader deeply appreciates the patronage and courtesies extended to this publication down through the years by advertisers and readers, and bespeaks at this time a continuation of such friendly cooperation.

NEW HEARING SET FOR NEW YEAR ON MERITS OF CASE

City Attorney Opines Some Lesser Increase

The legal application of General Telephone company of the Southwest for a temporary injunction prohibiting the enforcement of an existing rate ordinance governing phone service in the City of Littlefield, which if granted would have resulted in immediate raise of rates, filed in District Court about a month ago, was up for hearing before Judge E. A. Bills in Littlefield, Monday morning. Judge Bills ruled against granting of the asked temporary injunction, and immediately thereafter, set the first Monday in February for a further hearing, which will present and be focused on the merits of the case.

As a result of the court's refusal to grant the asked temporary injunction, subscribers of the Littlefield Telephone Exchange will continue, at least until after next February, to continue to pay the same telephone rental rates, as at present.

Following the filing of the legal action here, about five weeks ago, a mass meeting was held in Littlefield, at which citizens mapped a campaign and its financing, for opposing a requested approximately 50 per cent rate increase.

As a result, hundreds of dollars were subscribed to contest the action. Lawyers were employed, and rate analysis experts were employed to study the entire rate structure. These reports are expected to be ready shortly after the turn of the year, and will probably first (Continued on Page 5)

Kay Hendricks Crowned Football Queen In Coronation Ceremony

O. M. McGinty Is Taken By Death Monday

O. M. McGinty, 53, of Spur, and husband of the president of the Seventh District Federation clubs, passed away Monday morning at Phillips-Dupre hospital in Levelland. He had been ill about four weeks, and suffered from anthrax and leukemia.

Funeral services were held at 3 p. m. Tuesday in the Church of Christ at Spur. Interment was in Spur cemetery.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McGinty were (Continued on Back Page)

Coronation of Queen Kay Hendricks as football queen of Littlefield High school for 1952-53 was a highlight of the annual football banquet given Monday night by members of the Pep Squad and sponsors. She is a member of the senior class and is the daughter of Mrs. Wilda Fowler.

The coronation ceremony was held in the new high school auditorium. The queen's throne was decorated with maroon satin, placed in the center of the stage. Her escort was Loyd Williams.

The court of honor were the football boys and their dates, namely, Cam Jordan and Erna Jane Jones; Bill Brantley and Phonicille Pillion; M. C. Northam and Naomi Murdoch; R. L. Rhoten and Marlon Nickelson; Douglas Perkins and Jackye Hill; Don Nickels and Laytayne Steffey; Bill Jones and Paul line Boley; Garland Thornton and Edwina Schovajsa; Jeff Pate and Dorothy Holtyn; Keith Streety and Shirley Favor; Jeff Brantley and Sharoz Jeffries; Jackie Becker and Ethel Pope; Keith Davis and Jo Ann Parrack; Tommy Shelby and Joyce Tharp; John Terry and Norma Kay Moss; Don Howard and Phyllis Jeffries; Charles Parrack and Johnita Gallini; Frank Briscoe and Pat Childress; Gary Pass and Mary Jo Renfro; Bob Meers and Amella Zahn.

During the ceremony, Don Erwin sang "In a Winter Wonderland," accompanied at the piano by Sue McCown, who also played the professional and recessional for the coronation ceremony.

The Indian band, under the direction of Raymond T. Bynun, travels about 3,000 miles each year in tours throughout the Southwest and Mexico. Known for its theme of "versatility" the band has recently acquired another reason for its claim to this motto.

The addition of an old-time steam calliope which is mounted on a four wheel circus trailer has increased even more the requests for appearances by the band in festivals and parades in the surrounding area.

Last week they participated in the Monahans Five Star Christmas parade besides giving three concerts while in town. They were also presented in concert in Midland the same week.

Funeral Services For Mrs. W. A. Scott Will Be Held This Afternoon

Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday), for Mrs. W. A. Scott, 73, 609 West 2nd street, from the First Baptist church at 2 o'clock with the pastor, Rev. Lee Hemphill officiating. Burial will be in Littlefield cemetery with Hammons Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. S. Scott passed away Tuesday morning, December 2, at 7 o'clock, at Littlefield hospital. She was admitted to the hospital Sunday afternoon, following a heart attack. However, she had been in ill health a number of years.

Susan Ollie Leford was born October 22, 1879 in Mitchell, Louisiana. She was united in marriage to William Andrew Scott, December 28, 1898 in Louisiana. Eleven children, eight daughters and three sons were born to the union and all survive. The family moved to Littlefield. (Continued on Page 5)

Presbyterians Celebrate Home Mission Anniversary: Make Plans For New Building

Pioneer Citizen Taken By Death

Mrs. Mary Henderson, 70, a pioneer resident of Littlefield, passed away in a hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, last Thursday, November 27, about noon. She had suffered a heart attack about 24 hours earlier. However, she had been in ill health for the past two years.

Funeral services were held from the West Side Church of Christ in Phoenix, last Saturday, November 2, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, with Harry Pickup, pastor, officiating. Interment was in Resthaven Park in Phoenix. Mary Alice Thomason was born (Continued on Back Page)

First Presbyterian church in Littlefield observed the 150th anniversary of the founding of National Presbyterian Missions with a full-membership observance, which featured a special program and a huge birthday cake, appropriately embellished with a miniature mission house, and miniature replicas of mission beneficiaries in the guise of little boys and girls (dolls) of foreign lands.

But the occasion also marked an even more important observance, in the announcement of go-ahead instructions to the building committee, in charge of planning arrangements for the newly planned Presbyterian church edifice to be constructed on the Levelland highway. This announcement followed the announcement of success in the campaign for financial pledges and contributions, which culminated

Sunday morning. More than $11,000 was pledged at that time and this added to the several thousand dollars already contained in the building fund, brought the total to above $15,000.

At the meeting it was also voted to place the present church property located on XIT Drive in downtown Littlefield on the market for sale, and the actual start of construction is now only held in abeyance until this property sale has been consummated, and from which a considerable amount of revenue is anticipated. George White, a member of the building committee recently donated ground for the new church building and the deed and gift has already been accepted.

At the Sunday gathering, two sets of plans were presented to the gathering for their study and approval, one a western type style of architecture, the other of Colonial design, along with suggested floor plans.

Tentative plans call for an initial new church construction adapted to later additions, as finances and church growth dictate and permit.

A committee was named to further the sale of the present church property. This committee is composed of Bob Badger, Jimmy Brittain, J. D. Hagler and A. C. Chesher. The building committee is Byron Douglas, Frank Anzelme, Geo. White and Manell Hall.

"Quest canvas pipe" brings you... Positive Irrigation Control

Combines the Best Features of Ditch and Overhead Irrigation

SAVES time, fuel, labor, money... Pays for itself

UP HILL OR DOWN HILL - TAKE IT ANYWHERE

- The Quest Positive Irrigation Control method means savings for you in every phase of irrigation.
- You save TIME... there are no ditches to dig, no mechanical failures, no heavy equipment to wrestle around.
- You save LABOR... the flexibility of QUEST CANVAS PIPE means easy handling. The initial cost is surprisingly low and you have practically no upkeep. You pump only enough water to actually cultivate crops, thereby conserving WATER and saving FUEL at the same time.
- FROM ANY SOURCE... from a spillway reservoir or from a ditch. Many farmers hook QUEST CANVAS PIPE to the discharge pipe of their deep-well pump. Others use it with a centrifugal pump from rivers and lakes.
- MAINLINE... two different types of QUEST CANVAS PIPE solve every water conveyance problem... mainline lengths are to pipe water to the cultivated field.
- DISTRIBUTIVE LINE... the patented QUEST CANVAS PIPE sleeves make it ideal for sending water down the crop rows. These sleeves can be tied off easily so that you control flow of water.

 Claus minded too—he is working night and day, getting ready for the big day, old St. Nick will be here. He wants everything just so—you know. He has arranged for some fine and special music to be played over the chimes of the First Methodist Church when Old Santa rides down the street next Thursday. He has brought new records just especially for the occasion—Christmas music, with chimes and vibra harp etc. These records will be played all during the remainder of the holiday season to New Year's Day—the manager said. It will help to keep us Christmas minded and happy—like we should be at this time of the year, he said.

Then the merchants—have they been busy this fall, getting ready for Christmas! They have their stores stocked with the finest, newest merchandise and a wide selection. Be sure and shop Littlefield first, for your Christmas needs!

 of ceremonies, and Duane Hoover and Doyle Gibson were in charge of the lighting effects. Bill Brantley, Cam Jordan and M. C. Northam presented flowers, cape and crown to the queen's escort, who in turn made the presentation to the queen.

 Miss Deeky Pace and Mrs. Thelma Mills, Pep squad sponsors, and Miss Rosa Lee Hemphill, chairman of arrangements committee, were in charge and arranged the coronation ceremony.

Banquet Follows
 Wilford Moore, head athletic coach at McMurry college, Abilene, and former local boy and Littlefield high school graduate, was the principal speaker at the banquet. He used as his topic, "Valuation of Athletics," in which he compared football to the game of life. He was introduced by Jim Doherty, who acted as banquet toastmaster. Another distinguished guest, Billy Wayne Sisson, a graduate of Littlefield high, who is a graduate of McMurry college, made a few timely remarks.

Approximately 200 attended the banquet. Guests included football boys, senior band members, senior high faculty members, principals and wives from all of the schools, and school board members.

Phone Rate —

be aired before a new hearing on the matter by the City Commission—later possibly, if the matter is not previously settled, in a resumption of the court's attention on the first Monday in February.

At Monday's Court hearing on the injunction, the City was represented by Arthur P. Duggan and Pat Boone, jr. Locke, Locke & Purnell, of Dallas, and T. Wade Potter of Littlefield appeared for the phone company.

Following the hearing, and denial of the temporary injunction by Judge Bills, Arthur Duggan issued the following statement on the controversial issue:

"Last spring the telephone company asked the City for permission to raise telephone rates. The City Commission, after a hearing, decided not to raise the rates, but passed an ordinance setting the rates as they then existed.

"After the ordinance was passed, the telephone company again asked for a rate increase, and presented information, which if correct, would entitle the phone company to a raise.

"The City suggested a 20 per cent raise in local rates instead of the 50 per cent which the telephone company demanded. The phone company answered this suggestion with a court action in which it was asked that the city be enjoined (prevented) from enforcing the ordinance above mentioned.

"The phone company asked first for a temporary injunction, which would have had the effect of doing away with the rate ordinance immediately, even without waiting for a hearing on the merits. The hearing on whether to grant the temporary injunction was held December 1, 1952. District Judge E. A. Bills refused to grant the temporary injunction, which means that the city ordinance is still in effect and that the phone company cannot raise the rates at this time.

"However, the case was set for a hearing on the merits, for the first Monday in February.

"The City and a citizens committee have employed a rate expert

It Was Tons —

that just short of $2500 had been taken in—and something like $700 of it was clear profit.

We mentioned in an earlier paragraph that this Pep Thanksgiving party is almost a tradition out this way. Well, that's true—but this one was billed as the 7th annual Pep Thanksgiving Festival. In actuality, there have been more than seven predecessors. But in earlier years, the Pep Thanksgiving Festival and dinner was staged in Littlefield, and the Legion Hut walls have resounded to many a big Thanksgiving gathering of Pep folks and their friends.

But Pep folks seven years ago decided that the place to hold their big party was right there at Pep—and they were right because immediately more folks, bigger crowds gathered.

In point of attendance, in point of receipts, in point of food, fun and frolic, however, everyone is agreed—this 7th annual party was the biggest of them all.

St. Phillips Catholic church is one of the largest in all of West Texas. The membership is growing, and the church has plans for building in the near future—and to advise as to what the rates ought to be. The expert has not made his findings yet. When he does, the City will hold another hearing and allow the phone company to present its side of the case, and the expert will set forth his findings, and a rate will be set by the city commission, based upon the information presented at the hearing. As of now it looks like the phone company will be entitled to some increases in the cost furnishing services.

"The increase demanded by the phone company would cost phone users of the Littlefield exchange some $3,000.00 per month. This increase has already been delayed six months, meaning there remains some $18,000.00 which has remained in Littlefield that otherwise would have been paid in phone costs."

Funeral For —

tlefield in 1920, where Mr. and Mrs. Scott have made their home since that time.

Survivors besides her husband are the three sons, Walter, Albert O., and William Otis, all of Phoenix; the daughters are Mrs. Irene Carter, Phoenix; Mrs. Gladys Clark, Phoenix; Mrs. Elva Smith, Phoenix; Mrs. Corine Harper, Brownwood; Mrs. Juanita Caudle, Fort Worth; Mrs. Lucile Paulsen, Richmond, Calif.; Mrs. Bernice and Mrs. Lola Mae Kelley, both of Concord, Calif. Thirty-four grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren also survive, as do one sister, Mrs. Clyde Ott, and two brothers, Howard and Dube Ledford, all of Louisiana.

All of the children are expected to be present for the last rites this afternoon.

the receipts from the Thanksgiving party will give that building fund a substantial boost.

Recently a change in pastors was made at Pep, and serving the church now, and of course, on Thanksgiving Day is the Rev. Fred Hyland, who came to Pep from White Deer.

The ladies of the community, men and women, and children, too, of the church and church school, all of whom had a part in making the affair the big success that it was, are appreciative of the generous support and large attendance—yes, they are thankful.

But the folks who are and should be the most thankful of all, are the folks from Littlefield, Sudan, Muleshoe, Levelland, Amberst, from Lubbock, Amarillo, and goodness only knows where else—who got the biggest Thanksgiving dinner of their life, trimmed and trimmed for $1.25, and the privilege of mingling and fraternizing with the mighty good folks of that prosperous and friendly community—Pep.

Poetic Word Pictures Of Travels Is Achievement Of Local Society Woman

Many world travelers, who, more and more in recent years have been able and privileged to make the formerly time-consuming trips by water, now in time-shortened trips by ratio of 20 to 1 and more, have during the course of these flights in palatial air borne ships, had numerous reactions, and have expressed those reactions in many and diverse ways. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Little had opportunity for enjoying and comparing both types of travel having made the first stage of the trip by water and the USS United States.

The comparatively smooth air flight of the giant plane from Scotland to Norway, recently by Mr. and Mrs. Little, who were en- tour with a friend from Post, brought an unusual—poetic re- action from Mrs. Little, whose ta- lents are well known locally in such fields as painting, decorating and floral arrangements, in that during the flight a description of the trip occurred to her, which even during flight, she was able to clear- ly set down, in true artistic form and measure, with the result a beautiful poem, titled "Traveler's Reflections", and which friends and admirers, locally have read and re- read with acclaim.

Mrs. Little has generously co- operated with the Leader in mak- ing possible the publication, and further reading of the poetic offer- ing, for the pleasure of all of the Leader's readers. The poem recites:

I wish I were a poet, I'd put in verse or song, the stories of my journey to the land of the midnight sun.

T'was not the Cathedrals in Lon- don, with their spires reaching to the sky

Nor the towers of London were hundreds had to die.

T'was not the Buckingham Palace with all the colorful guards.

Nor the wax figures at Madam's Tussard's.

T'was not Westminster Abbey with it's tombs of nobility, With it's constant reminders of centuries of history.

T'was not the house of Dickens, or the cottage of Ann Hathway.

Nor Arc de Triumph, where flowers are placed everyday.

T'was not the mills in Holland, since a child I've loved so well.

Nor the tower in Venice, replac- ing the one that fell.

T'was not the Vatican City, or St. Peters, in the Eternal City of Rome

Nor the Catacombs, or the Pan- theon with it's colossal dome.

T'was not the works of Bernini, Michelangelo and Raphael— Nor the chapel of Queen Astrid, or the statue of William Tell.

T'was not the eight wonders of the World, the Monastery in El Es- corial.

Nor the tomb of Franz Josef, whom the Austrian loved so well.

T'was the bonnie, bonnie banks of Loch Lomond, with Ben Lomond at her side.

T'was the Avon in Stratford, where Shakespeare lived and died.

T'was the Bay of Naples, with its bold cliffs rising from the sea.

T'was the fairy-like island named the Isle of Capri

T'was the purple heather in Scot- land, like a blanket of amethyst hue

T'was the Blue Grotto with its water like sapphire blue.

T'was the great Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea.

T'was the Isle of Marken, and the Zuyder Zee

T'was the Apian way along the Roman wall

T'was this road that was traveled by the great St. Paul.

T'was the old yew tree where Gray used to sit and write

T'was the fjords of Norway, where the sun shines at Midnight.

T'was the ancient river Po, flow- ing peacefully on to sea

T'was our "CARE" friends we met in romantic Germany.

T'was the River Rhine famous for legend and song,

T'was the rock of the Lorelei so stately and strong.

T'was the Guadamaras and the Pyrenees of Spain

T'was the river Tiber, the Arno, and the Seine.

T'was the islands of Denmark in the bay of the Baltic Sea

T'was the unusual trees and flower in the garden of Tivoli

T'was the rainbow in the Aus- trian Alps so near I could almost touch

T'was the flowers at Aalsmer, grown for the world by the Dutch.

The glories of my journey to the land of the midnight sun, across the mighty ocean and on the foreign lands.

Were the things that were made by God, and left in the lands of man.

Jo Ann Priddy and Winfred Crosby Wed In Beautiful Church Ceremony

MRS. WINFRED CROSBY

In a ceremony performed Thurs- day, November 27, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Jo Ann Priddy became the bride of Winfred Cros- by of Amherst.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Priddy and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crosby of Amherst.

Richard Daughtry, minister of the Amherst Church of Christ perform- ed the ceremony before an altar decorated with white candles in wrought iron candelabra on either side of which were tall white bas- kets with white mums and green- ery and white satin bows.

The bride given in marriage by her brother Jack Priddy, wore a ballerina length wedding gown of white antique silk with a lace yoke which contained tiny pearl buttons down the front and a Peter Pan collar. The lace came to scallops on the gown. The gown contained leg of mutton sleeves and a full pleated skirt. Her shoulder length nylon net veil was attached to a lace headpiece. For something old the bride chose a bracelet belong- ing to her sister-in-law's great aunt, something new, her wedding gown; something borrowed, ear- rings belonging to her niece, Vera Lou Priddy. She had a blue garter and a penny in her shoe.

Her bouquet was red radiance roses interspread in the stream- white satin streamers and roses interspersed in the streamers and roses interspersed in the stream- ers. The entire arrangement con- tained tulle and satin ribbon back- ground. The center of the arrange- ment was a removable corsage.

The maid of honor was Miss Le- titia Stiemmons. Her gown was fashioned after the brides and was of blue antique silk with a net yoke and a pink carnation cor- sage. Wayne Swart acted as best man.

Ushers were M. L. Boren, Jr., and Harvey Patterson.

Demeris Crosby, sister of the groom was candle lighter and she wore a pink ballerina length gown with a white carnation corsage.

Carol Swayer sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly"; she was accompanied by Rose Marie Bush who also played the traditional wedding marches. Richard Daugh- try sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

Immediately following the cere- mony a reception was held in the basement of the church. The lace covered table was centered with a white wedding cake from which the bride and groom cut the first piece. The cake was served along with punch.

Miss LaWanda Terrell presided at the register.

Mrs. Claudine Feagley and Miss Wynonne Cook alternated at pour- ing punch and Miss Vera Lou Priddy served the cake. They are all nieces of the bride.

The bride is a senior in the Am- herst High school and the groom graduated from the Amherst High school last year. She has resided in Amherst for the past eight years and he for the past 17 years.

The young couple will make their home on Washington street in Am- herst. He is associated with his father in the C&C Electric in Am- herst.

Mary Louise Decker and Leon Veitenhermer Wed At Pep

In a beautiful formal church wedding solemnized Wednesday morning, November 26, at 8:30 o'clock, in St. Phillips Catholic Church at Pep, Miss Mary Louise Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Decker became the bride of Leon Veitenhermer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Veitenhermer of Windhorst.

Rev. Ft. Fred Hyland, pastor performed the nuptial Mass, and wedding ceremony before an altar decorated with snapdragons, with tiered candelabra holding white tapers forming a background. Organ music was furnished by Mrs. A. A. Decker of Pep, aunt of the bride, who played traditional wedding marches.

The bride was lovely in a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with a full skirt and train, tight fitting bodice, with two wide rows of chantilly lace forming a point in the front. The yoke of the dress was of chantilly lace, and the long sleeves came to a point over the hands. Her finger tip veil of white nylon net, scalloped around the edge, was held by a tiara of seed pearls and orange blossoms. She carried an arrangement of white carnations and stephanotis placed on a white prayer book. A three strand necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, completed her wedding attire.

Miss Mary Nell Decker of Pep, was her sister's maid of honor, and she wore an aqua dress, designed with an overskirt of net, and a bolero of the same material. They wore a hand crocketed white hat with velvet streamers and carried a nosegay of rose colored pom-poms.

bridesmaid. She wore a dress of deep rose, fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor, and used the same kind of accessories. She carried a nosegay of aqua colored pom-poms.

The groom's attendants were his brother, Alphonse Veitenhermer of Windhorst, and the bride's brother, Jerry Decker of Pep.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose a dark crepe dress and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue crepe dress and her corsage was of pink carnations.

In the afternoon a reception was given honoring the newly married

Alma Goodin and Ray P. Sullivan Married at Clovis

Alma Goodin of Amherst and Ray P. Sullivan of Lubbock were united in marriage in a ceremony performed at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, Nov. 23, at Clovis, New Mexico.

The bride wore a dusty rose suit with black accessories and a white carnation corsage. She is the daughter of Mrs. Pearl Goodin of Amherst and John Goodin of Tucson, Ariz. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan.

The bride is employed at the City Drug in Amherst and will continue her employment until Christmas. The groom is employed as an electrician for the Southwestern Public Service company plant X and was temporarily residing in Amherst.

The couple is making their home at 500 East 14th street, Littlefield.

Hamburgers, served with toasted rolls and barbecue sauce, make good eating for the football crowd. To make the barbecue sauce easily, put a cup of chili sauce, a tablespoon of brown sugar, two or three tablespoons of cider vinegar, and some thin onion rings in a saucepan. Simmer the sauce for about five minutes and when you pour it over the hamburgers see that there is an onion ring on each.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Gage are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Jean Gage, to Robert Paul Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan of Lubbock.

MISS WANDA JEAN GAGE
The wedding is planned for January 2 at the home of Mrs. C. B. McWilliams, 3rd street, Littlefield. The bride-elect was from the Littlefield High and Lubbock Memorial Nursing. She is at present at Lubbock Memorial. Mr. Paul is in the Marine Corps and stationed at Camp Pendleton.

Keep Santa In Stitches . . . . .

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

Having Christmas budget trouble? Then stitch up some gay little gifts on the sewing machine. They can be done in little time, cost practically nothing and will please the recipients more than a store-bought gim-crack.

Any woman, for instance, would welcome a practical apron with colorful trimmings. Little girls will love a hand-made doll or a wardrobe of doll clothes. And animal-head wash-cloth mitts with embroidered names are a sure-fire hit.

Standard patterns for all of these are available in most department stores. Beginners can get quick instruction at local sewing centers.

Ophelia Roberts and Royce Latimer To Wed December 21

Cleo Richards Family Moving to Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Richards and their two daughters who have made their home here for the past few years, have sold their home and are moving to Lubbock the latter part of the week, to 2419 24th street.

Mr. Richards, who has been associated with Alvin Webb, certified public accountant, will be associated with Merriman certified public accountants in Lubbock.

The family has made a host of friends while living here and have been active in the First Baptist church.

Spade Baptist Sunday School Class Party Set For December 18

The Young Married People's Sunday School Class of the Spade Baptist Church will hold their annual Christmas party December 18, in the old auditorium of the church.

There will be an exchange of gifts, with the price for children's gifts not to exceed $1.00; adults gifts not to exceed $1.50, the committee in charge announced.

Each man will bring a gift for a woman, ladies bring a gift for a woman, and children, gift for a child.

When making griddle cakes, many good cooks like to beat the yolks and whites of the eggs separately, then fold the whites into the batter last. This method usually makes the griddle cakes extra fluffy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roberts of Amherst are announcing the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Ophelia, to Royce Latimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Latimer, of near Spade.

The wedding is scheduled to take place December 21 in the Baptist parsonage at Amherst with the pastor, Rev. John Rankin, performing the ceremony.

Following the ceremony the couple will make their home on a farm near Lockney.

The bride-elect is now employed in the business office of the South Plains Cooperative hospital in Amherst, and the groom-to-be is engaged in farming.

Birthday Party Honors Mrs. G. A. Bench of Amherst

Mrs. G. A. Bench of Amherst was honored on her 79th birthday Sunday, November 23 with a dinner party at her home.

The dinner was a covered dish affair.

The honoree received a number of nice gifts and those attending were all relatives of Mrs. Bench.

They were: Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsinger, Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Osgood, Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richards and children; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bench, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kinsinger and daughter, Mrs. Mattie Patterson and son, Earth; Mrs. Donald Gilbreath, Sudan; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bench and children and Mrs. Neal Bench, Amherst.

Pioneer

 August 22, 1882, at Wagner, Texas. She was united in marriage to Alonzo L. Henderson, August 7, 1904, at Greenville. Nine children were born to the union. Seven of the nine children survive. Two sons died in infancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and family moved to Littlefield in 1924, and are truly a pioneer family of the city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Henderson are charter members of the Littlefield Drive Church of Christ, and have been active in church affairs through the years. Mr. Henderson is a carpenter by trade.

Survivors besides the husband are, the children, Mrs. Lois Poteet, Buckeye, Arizona; J. C. (Jack) Henderson, Littlefield; M. Durward Henderson, Lubbock; Mrs. Lonnie Thelma Kemp, Van Horn; Mrs. Eulalie Russell, Littlefield;

O. M. McGinty

 well known here, and have several close friends both here and in the county. Mrs. McGinty is particularly well known among Federated Club women having visited most of the clubs in the county on several occasions.

Survivors besides the wife, are two sons, Don and Rush, and a daughter Beth, all of Spur.

Lilburn Henderson, Hawthorne, Calif., and Mrs. Mattie Wilard, Los Angeles, Calif. Fourteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren also survive. The husband and all of the children were present for the last rites.

In the years between explosions of the volcano Vesuvius, men can descend to the crater floor.
