15,806 Acres of Land Sold By Yellow House Co. During Past Few Months Indicates Popularity of Littlefield Lands

Settling a new country is never a great undertaking when that country has unlimited resources proving its richness of human occupancy and its virtue as a home-giving, money-making section. That is the principal reason the South Plains section, and more particularly the territory immediately surrounding Littlefield, is proving so enticing to the hundreds of home-hungry people who are moving here.

Nearly 16,000 acres of this virgin, rich land have been sold during the past few months by one company alone, to say nothing of the thousands of acres sold by other real estate concerns operating out of Littlefield. As the country is being broken out into the country surrounding this metropolis city of Lamb County, as a representative of this paper took last Sunday, reveals in a marvelous manner the wonderful information taking place under the action of man's energy and ingenuity. While the country here is practically level, yet there are occasionally rises that lend definiteness to a horizon which stretches from horizon to horizon. On one of these occasions the writer last Sunday sold 25 new homes, and a few farther on 16 more new ones, all having been erected in the past three or four months and many of them strictly modern and splendid in every respect.

How many thousands of acres of new sod land is being broken out in Lamb County this year would be a hard guess, but of the nearly 100 acres of virgin land sold by the Yellow House Land company during the past few months, it is safe to say that 75 per cent of it is going to the plow, or rather, has already gone under the plow. The owner stopped his car at more than one place where from 1,000 to 4,000 acres of freshly turned sod was viewed, practically an entire body, unbroken by the highways and fences that separated the holdings of the recent new settlers. The Yellow House Land company, originally embracing approximately 322,000 acres of the once Yellow House and Littlefield sections, together with 22,000 acres of well known Spade ranch, reach around Roundup, Lubbock and cover a territory extending approximately 27 miles north and 24 miles east and west, Littlefield as the central point of operation activities and from which are sent out in every cardinal direction great development that has been taking place here during the past few years.

On the extreme eastern side of the domain is being carved out, practically every farmhouse, every line of fence is new, the ribbons of sod which are being chopped up by the disk and down and planted, have recently been upturned. Here the radio antennas are seen up above the roofs of reconstructed dwellings. Many new homes were not thought completed by their owners until lead water piped into the while not a few have Delco radios, and other types of and refrigerating plants, adding to the comfort and pleasure of rural living.

Last year Lamb County produced more than 52,000 bales of cotton and worlds of feed, the tonnage of which could scarcely even have been estimated. Every present indication is that last year's excellent crop will be duplicated this year, perhaps not quite so much cotton on the old land; but more feed and grains of various kinds will be sown, and with the constantly increasing herds and flocks these new and older farmers are gathering about them, this section will take several decided forward steps in the march of this new empire of the South Plains that is fast nearing the goal of idealism as one of the choicest agricultural sections to be found anywhere in the great Southwest.

Residents of the Littlefield section have no apologies to offer for the good opinion they have of themselves and of their country. They are a fine, progressive class of people, energetic to a high degree, optimistic with scarcely a fault, congenial in their disposition, moral in their character, and the products they bring forth from the soil is never tainted with any excuse for lack of quality or abundance. A trip, such as the writer took

362 Gallons of Liquor Taken and 4 Arrested In Raid Made Friday

The biggest liquor confiscation ever made in Lamb County went on record last Friday morning when officers from Lubbock and Hale counties under direction of a State Ranger raided the E. W. Herman place located four miles west and one mile south of Fieldton, obtaining 605 one-half gallon jars and six 10-gallon kegs of liquor.

In the raid State Ranger Sam C. Mays was assisted by J. K. Hooper, deputy sheriff of Hale County; O. B. Conley, deputy sheriff, of Lubbock County; H. S. Bolin, assistant chief of police, Lubbock; C. C. Luby, constable, Hale Center; Wayne Bridges, assistant county attorney, Hale County.

The search warrant was issued by County Judge Simon D. Hay, of Lamb County. E. W. Herman, Vernon G. Herman, K. B. Lester and Sam Bruton were placed under arrest at the time of the raid. It is understood that E. W. Herman, Vernon G. Herman and K. B. Lester were later released on bonds.

The Original Israelite House of David Baseball Club of Benton Harbor, Michigan Are To Cross Bats With the Littlefield Cats Here on Monday

When the Original Israelite House of David Baseball Club, of Benton Harbor, Michigan, appears in this city next Monday afternoon, baseball fans of this vicinity will be treated to the greatest, as well as the fastest traveling baseball club in the United States.

The members of this club have beards and long hair, some of them having hair nearly three feet long. Quite a few of these boys could join the Big League if they would consent to cut their hair and beard, but it is against their religious belief.

The leader of this Colony of Benton Harbor is Mary Parnell, wife of Benjamin Parnell, who died about three years ago. Benjamin and Mary organized the Israelite House of David 25 years ago.

Francis Thorpe, manager of the Club and one of the pillars of the Colony, has been with the Colony about 23 years. He has hair 20 inches long and is very heavily bearded.

Doc Tally, left fielder, has hair 30 inches long and is considered the Babe Ruth of the Club. He has been offered major league contracts but he would not leave his brothers. He is considered the country over as the greatest hitter, wonderful fielder and greatest out-fielder out of the big leagues.

John Tucker, first baseman, a really and truly big league first baseman, he is six feet-three, good hitter, wonderful fielder, and has a very good arm. Too much cannot be said about this man. He has a national reputation and it is worth the price of admission to see this boy work out.

The catching staff of Anderson and Fleming is easily on par with a class A ball club. They are both good hitters and have good arms.

Pitching staff of Heckman and Bass southpaws, and Laufer, Crotty and Neve, righthanders, would tickle any manager in organized baseball.

A feature of this game is the Pepper Game put on by Faust, Tally and Hipp just before the start of the regular game. It is easily worth the price of admission alone. They pass the ball back and forth between them so fast it is impossible to follow it with the eye.

Fans are warned to be there an hour before the start of the game to see this club work out. The gates will be opened an hour earlier than usual.

Arthur Mueller is in receipt of a letter from Doc Tally, the "Babe Ruth" of the long whiskered aggregation, expressing his appreciation of the privilege his team will enjoy in playing the renown Littlefield Cats. Doc states his team is having good success this year. Recently they beat Independence, Kansas, 17-5, playing the game at night under flood lights; Ft. Smith, Ark., 3-0; Shawnee, Okla., 6-4; all in the Western association; and last Sunday they beat McAllister Okla., 4-2.

Flying School Opened Here With 6 Students

Littlefield opened its first air school here last Sunday, with four students taking their time in an open three-place Eagle Rock plane, powered with an O. X. five motor.

The school is being conducted by Orvid Pickert, from Hereford, and Morris Morgan and Herschel Johnson from Littlefield.

Morris Morgan has come directly from a flying school in Midland, having spent some four or five hours flying.

Herschel Johnson, who came from Wichita Falls, had been attending the Lone Star Aviation school since last fall.

Orvid Pickert, flying instructor, has been flying for sixteen years, and is a licensed pilot.

The four students who flew last Sunday were Hubert Rook, Earl Glover, Herschel Johnson, and Morris Morgan. They planned to fly twice each week hereafter, on Wednesdays and Sundays.

Miss Virginia Turner and Mrs. C. R. Singer have enrolled in the school since Sunday. Neither has had any training as yet, but both are anxious to learn to fly.

I. O. O. F. MEETING GOES TO SUDAN IN SEPTEMBER

There were nearly 300 delegates who attended the spring meeting of the I. O. O. F. South Plains association held at Slaton last week.

A. M. Holt, of Sudan, was elected president of the association for the coming year, and it was decided that the next meeting to be held in September would also be held at Sudan.

There were good delegations present from both Littlefield and Sudan. An excellent and interesting program was rendered, Grandmaster Rector giving the principal address.

Parents of Littlefield can help their children by taking it for granted that the young ones have more sense than parents.

J. E. (Bert) Dryden Announces For Office Of County Attorney

I have been reluctant in making my announcement for the office of County Attorney for the reason that from a financial standpoint I did not think it would justify me to do so. However, there have been so many of my friends and former supporters from every section of the county who have made special trips to see me and insisting that I shall make the race for this office; as the solicitations have been general and from no small number of voters who have pledged support and influence, I have decided to submit my candidacy to the people for this important office.

Those living in Lamb County four years ago will remember that I was a candidate for this office at that time and was defeated by only a very small majority by my opponent who is now asking the voters for a third term. It is a democratic custom to reward one who has been elected with a second term, provided he has served the people well, and, bearing this in mind I would not make the race against my opponent for his second term. There is no democratic custom and in some states is a law that no one shall hold office for three successive terms. I was fair with my opponent two years ago by not making the race against him for his second term, and I have no doubt but the voters will take this into consideration and be just as fair with me at this time.

To those whom it has not been my privilege to meet, I will say just a word as to my qualifications: I have been in the active practice of law for the past 14 years, the last five years having been in this county, and prior thereto and for nine years I practiced in Fort Worth. I invite your inquiry as to my character and reputation from any one living in Sudan where I now live and have resided for the past five years.

There is a small remuneration in connection with this office, which is not negligible however, but the prime remuneration is the honor in receiving this office from the citizenship of this county and having the opportunity in rendering a public service in the discharge of the duties of this office in justice to all alike. If elected to this office I shall at all times be mindful that this is your office and that I am only an employee to serve you therein and promise I will discharge the duties without fear or favor to any person or persons, but in justice to all. I shall at all times solicit the cooperation of the good citizens in order to accomplish the purposes for which this office was created.

I shall endeavor to make a complete canvass of the county and hope to meet each and every voter before election day. However, if there should be those whom I fail to see, I earnestly solicit your vote and influence, and shall appreciate very much if my friends shall speak to their neighbors in behalf of my candidacy.

Yours very truly,
J. E. DRYDEN.

Legion Reports Good Progress at Last Meet

The regular meeting of the Richard New Post, American Legion, was held in the basement of the Presbyterian church Monday night, with 41 members present.

Different committees, which have been appointed at an earlier date, were called upon to report as to the financial standing of the Legion. The flag committee reported the sale of 60 flags, and that it had ordered 25 more flags to be sold. There was the sum of twenty-five dollars which had not yet been collected, on the flags. The president of the finance committee reported that the Legion had started with $11.00 and now had $87.24, which proves the Legion is hard at work.

An entertainment committee was appointed to see each of the clubs in this city to ask for co-operation on the barbecue and picnic which the Legion is sponsoring for the Fourth of July. R. E. Riley, vice-commander of the Legion, was to visit the Rotary Club members, R. M. Walthall, the Lion's and Jimmy Ware to see the Chamber of Commerce.

The Legion was advised that the owner of the London Shows which the members are sponsoring, will be here sometime soon to spend a few days to help advertise the show and Fourth of July celebration.

The women's auxiliary of the Legion ordered its charter Monday night. All ladies whose husband, father, or brother was in the service are eligible for membership in the auxiliary, and are requested to be present at the second Monday meeting, which will be held May 12.

Doss and Fraley Win in Double Header Bouts Over Owens and Burns Monday Night

It was a crowd "gone wild" at the Skating Rink last Monday night when Jack Doss, with a right to the neck crossing his left to the jaw, jarring loose a couple of back teeth, put the K. O. to Marlin Owens in the beginning of the third of what was scheduled to be a 10 round pugilistic bout.

Owens, commonly known as the "Country Boy" boxer from Wichita, Kansas, but more recently from the neighboring town of Anton, has been doing considerable artistic fist work in this section during the past couple of months. Doss, known in ring circles as the "Lone Wolf" fighter, came here a few weeks ago on a visit to relatives, and has been doing a little scrapping and some refereeing in other ring encounters. Boxing fans said he knew his stuff; but it remained for the Monday night encounter to demonstrate that statement.

Owens weighed in at 158 pounds. He has good action and fighting form. During the first round he led in points and aggressiveness. Doss, weighing in at 148 pounds, was cautious, studying his man apparently, and taking no chances until he had him well sized up.

In the second round Doss did his share of the mixing, making frequent use of the Dempsey rabbit punch and landing several hay-makers, two of which sent Owens to the mat, once for the count of eight, and again for the count of nine. At the close of the round it was clear that Owens was groggy. Doss claimed a foul, but the lick was so close to the border line the judges failed to allow it.

Mixing in the third round was about even at the start, but Doss quickly became the aggressor, following his man around the ring, landing practically at will, Owens frequently covering up to avoid the rain of blows the man of lesser stature was pouring upon him. Apparently he was weakening rapidly but it was a surprise to the fans when Doss whipped a long right into his neck, crossed with a left to the jaw and put him down for the count. Throughout the bout Doss demonstrated the ring generalship of a veteran.

Fraley-Burns

The first of the double header events at the Skating Rink was between Lee Fraley, Littlefield and "Cyclone" Burns, recently of Frederick, Okla. Burns went out in the third round on a technical knockout.

Fraley, who has been boxing here for the past two years, was clearly a favorite among the fans. Three weeks ago in a moment of carelessness when his guard was down, he had been knocked out by Owens. None of the fans were satisfied with the mill and were anxious for him to redeem himself against Burns. Both men are clean, manly fighters. Burns a little taller and with a slightly longer reach, displayed more skill at boxing, but Fraley better muscled, more frequently landed the counting punches. In the clinches Lee's kidney jabs had a wearing effect upon his opponent. Early in the fracas Burns got a nasty jab on the left eye which promptly began swelling. Lee's right played for the damaged optic at every opportunity. Notwithstanding the bell probably saved Burns in the second round it took only a few seconds more fighting when the third opened for his seconds to toss the towel into the ring for him.

At the conclusion of this bout Fraley challenged Owens for a return bout three weeks from last Monday night which, it is understood, was accepted by the Anton lad.

The Prelims.

In the preliminaries a couple of fly weights, Doss and Porter, tipping the scales at 97 pounds each roughed it to a draw in three rounds.

They were followed by Doc Phipps, and Jess Bates, 135 pounds each, who milled out four rounds. Bates, while a better muscled lad than Phipps, failed to show the skill and fighting form of the latter. In each round it seemed hard for him to decide whether this was a boxing or wrestling bout. His constant clinching and hanging on worried Doc who was used to more open fighting, but in the last two rounds Phipps got on to ducking Bates' long swing and swatting him a plenty before the hugging started again. The results of every round belonged to Doc, and many favorable remarks were expressed by the fans regarding the future career of this high school lad under the proper training.

This bout was followed by one between J. B. Guthrie and Parker Sikes, both lads springing the scales down to 135 pounds. It was a sparring match throughout, apparently neither lad was trying to seriously damage the other, tho both frequently landed telling blows. Sikes was more aggressive but Guthrie displayed fine footwork and skill in handling the mitts. Cliches were few with quick, clean breakaways at the referee's command. The bout between these lads was one of the most interesting of the evening.

The Skating Rink was well filled with fans for all events on the card, and everyone present felt like they got their full money's worth. Between events the crowd was entertained by singing and banjo music from an employe of the Texas Utilities Co., at Lubbock, familiarly dubbed "The Singing Fool." He was a virtuoso in the art of yodeling, and his singing of modern blues and other popular recent numbers brought him cheering from the crowd and plenty of loose change slipped into the ring.

Jean Wallace, of Carlsbad, N. M., was referee in the preliminaries, and Bill Chesher, Littlefield, the third man in the ring for the main events. Both men know their stuff and their decisions were all well accepted.

MISS SYBIL GLENN HONOREE IN AN ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

Monday evening Mrs. B. L. Cogdill and Miss Gladys Porter were joint hostesses at a lovely party given at the Methodist parsonage, announcing the engagement of Miss Sybil Glenn, of this city, to Douglass McGehee, of Lubbock. The marriage will be May 8th.

A musical reading, "In the Usual Way," was given by Miss Naomi Freeman, and Miss Eva Gertrude Chisholm sang "Yesterday." Miss Gladys Wales told a story, "The Romance," which suited the occasion very nicely. To conclude the story the guests were lead into the dining room which was beautifully decorated in pink and orchid, where little favors of cards bearing the name of "Sybil and Mac" were given to each guest.

Dainty refreshments of sherbet and angel food cake were served from the buffet to the following: Mesdames B. L. Cogdill, G. S. Glenn, F. G. Sadler, and Misses Erma Simmons, Naomi Freeman, Fannie Weaver, Bessie Bellomy, Thelma and Tommie Killough, Eva Gertrude Chisholm, Gladys and Bernice Wales, Josephine Glenn, Ruth Matthews, Corinne Wright, Gladys Porter, Irene Hobbs, Dalhia Hemphill, Ruth Courtney, Dixie Durphee, and the honoree, Miss Sybil Glenn.

The Tabernacle Revival Continues, 20 Received

The revival being conducted at the Tabernacle Baptist church constantly increases in interest and results, according to Pastor Roy A. Kemp, who is doing the preaching, and will be continued throughout next week. Twenty new members have been received to date, and a special baptismal service will be held next Sunday night. The membership in general, says the pastor, has also been greatly strengthened spiritually and is launching out into very aggressive church work. Large crowds are attending the services and taking active part.

A cordial invitation is extended the public generally to attend these services.

A Pioneer of Small Combines

Backed by 99 Years' Experience

WHEN you invest in a harvester-thresher you expect to use it for many years. You want to harvest a variety of crops—you will have to harvest them under a variety of conditions and seasons. A combine must be able to do these things. If it does not it fails as an investment.

International Harvester is a pioneer in building the small combine. For 16 years it has been manufacturing and perfecting harvester-threshers. Refinements and improvements have been made from time to time only after thorough field tests.

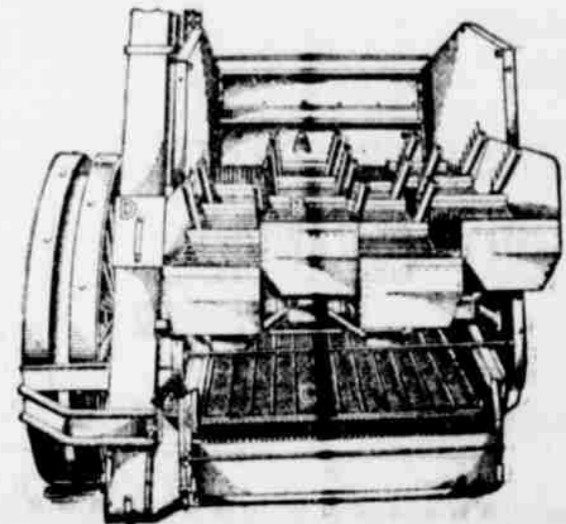

But here is the point of significance: the sound, accepted principles of harvesting and threshing mechanism remain—as the best methods yet devised for harvesting a variety of crops, threshing cleanly, and saving the grain or seeds.

McCormick and Deering names represent pioneers in the building of harvesting machines—and the McCormick-Deering is the only harvester-thresher that can trace its ancestry back to the Original Reaper. It is the only combine that has 99 years of harvesting-machine experience back of it.

It makes use only of proved harvesting and threshing machine features. It is built upon principles that have stood the test of harvesting and threshing for years.

Play Safe . . . Select a McCormick-Deering

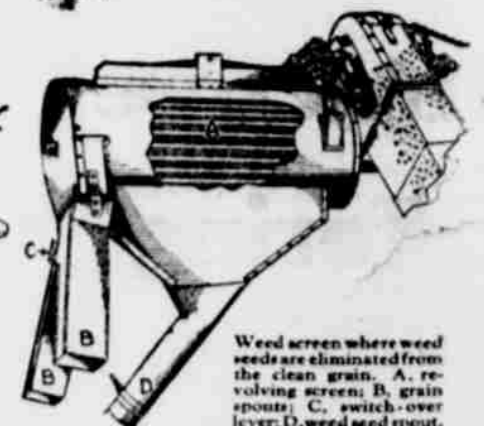

When you plan the purchase of a combine consider these things. Examine the McCormick-Deering—see how it meets every harvesting condition and how it cleans and saves the grain.

Rear view of separator showing cylinder beater A, straw rack B; note steel pins in straw rack rivets which comb the straw apart and release the grain. C is the shoe, and D, opening in tailings elevator.

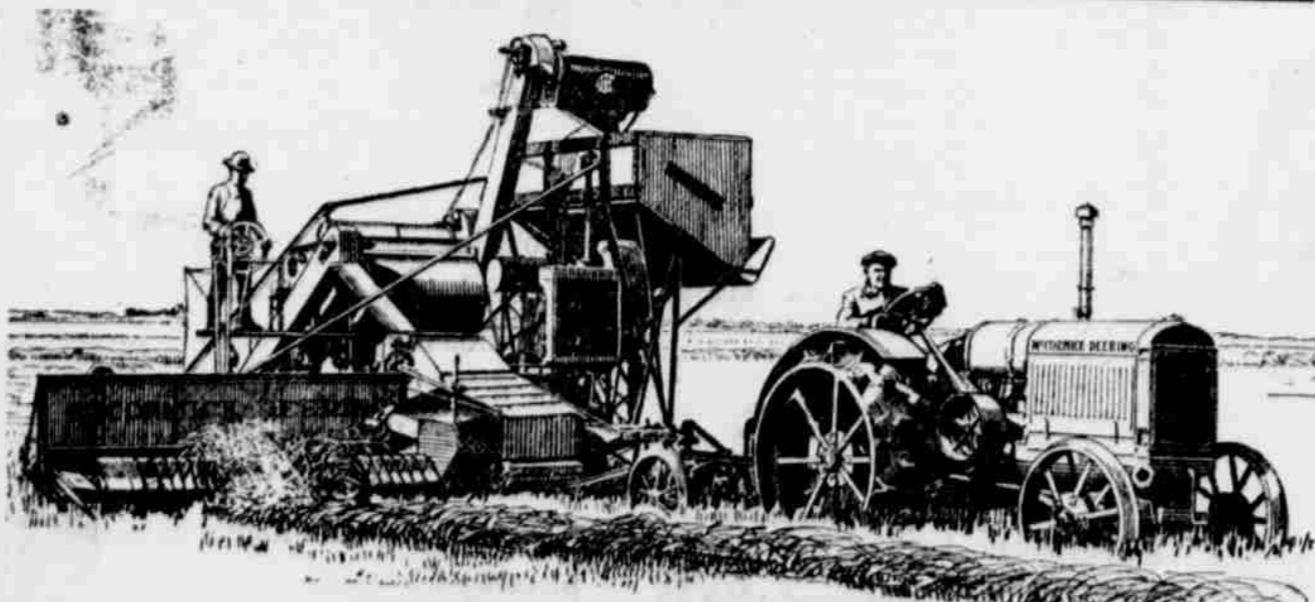

Elevator and feeder. A, platform and lower elevator canvas. B, upper elevator canvas cut away to show extra roller C, and carrier D. E, saw-toothed beater; F, spiked beater, which helps to carry grain to cylinder.

Weed screen where weed seeds are eliminated from the clean grain. A, revolving screen; B, grain spouts; C, switch-over lever; D, weed seed spout.

McCormick-Deering No. 11 Harvester-Thresher with 6½-foot pick-up device, handling the grain from a 16-foot swath cut by windrow-harvester

12 Important McCormick-Deering Points

- Adjustable to cut low. Gets lodged and tangled grain.
- Continuation of grain-tight platform canvas forms lower elevator canvas. No grain lost at end of platform. Large capacity, wide elevator carries all grain to feeder.
- Chain and slat feeder carries grain, heads first, into the cylinder. Direct front feed.
- Spiked beater in feeder assures positive feeding and controls delivery of grain to cylinder.
- Ninety per cent separation at cylinder. Straw and grain thus separated never mix again.
- Four-section straw rack. Extends entire length of thresher from cylinder to straw spreader. Combs straw apart, drops it three times, thoroughly shakes out all the grain.
- Extra long chaffer and cleaning sieve thoroughly cleans grain.
- Revolving weed screen takes weed seeds out of threshed grain and bags them. Saves dockage and reduces spread of weeds.
- Platform folds for transportation—does not have to be detached. No transport truck to buy.
- A pioneer of small combines—backed by 99 years of practical harvesting-machine experience and by field tests under difficult conditions in the harvest fields of the world.
- Expert service on the entire machine by permanent dealers and Company-owned branches.
- Handles a variety of crops under a variety of conditions and seasons.

OUR KIND OF FUN

◀ We may not have as many attractions as the big city boasts in the way of shows and night clubs, but thanks to a kindly fate what entertainment we do have is clean. And that the day of clean fun and amusement is far from being past is evident on all sides.

The radio brings to Littlefield homes such clean and entertaining broadcasts as "Amos 'n Andy" and it is identically the same as radios in city homes record. We get the famous Paul Whiteman orchestra and the magnificent music provided by Atwater Kent; the same thrilling playlets that make Colliers famous on the air—and all at the same instant the big city gets them. In the matter of movies, those responsible for their showing here are not offering them wholly for the money they can get out of them, regardless of what effect they might have on our boys and girls. They must be clean, and with a limited population to cater to and hundreds of films to select from it is possible to see that only clean ones are displayed.

Good, clean amusement has just as many friends today as before the "jazz age" brought out commercialized filth and suggestiveness. In the big city the amusement promoters, putting the dollar ahead of everything else, give the public what they want the public to have—and make them like it. Here the public gets what it demands. And we are glad that it demands clean fun because so long as it does we can rest assured that the community is going to remain clean.

If it is true that nobody loves a fat man then how does it come that Babe Ruth draws down a salary of $80,000 a year?

✦ MORE MONEY PER ACRE ✦

◀ Figures recently given out show that Minnesota hens laid eggs last year worth twice the grand total of the state's wheat crop.

There may be more back of this statement than the average Littlefield citizen can see at first glance. It may be the beginning of a method that will eventually change our entire farming to get all they can out of an acre owners are now, more than ever, trying to get all they can out of an acre of ground. Raising chickens and marketing them along with the eggs, running a dairy and marketing milk and cream and butter, doesn't mean any easier work than producing corn, wheat, cotton, or fruit. But the land investment is smaller and, as Minnesota figures will show, the profit on an acre of ground is greater.

Eventually agriculture may adjust itself to the point where every rural worker is a specialist in some particular line. Instead of sticking to the old crops he may raise a commodity on a few acres that will, in the long run, net him far more money for the same amount of labor. In that way, too, grain, cotton and fruit growing, as well as the raising of live stock would no longer be over-crowded fields. Those who did elect to continue in those lines would find it more profitable and not so apt to be jeopardized by over-production. It's something to think about, and something that may come to pass in this country far more speedily than we now imagine.

Never whip your little boy for lying. He may grow up to be a successful seed catalogue writer.

✦ PROTECT YOURSELF ✦

◀ An official of the American Automobile Association says that one reason why we have more auto accidents than we should is that too many drivers from our smaller towns and rural communities do not use hand signals when driving.

Accustomed to driving where traffic is not very heavy they lose sight of the value of hand signals, and when they get into heavy traffic they neglect this important means of protecting both themselves and the other fellow.

There may be a good deal in this at least is worthy of the consideration of every Littlefield motorist. If you use hand signals faithfully here at home you are sure to use them when you get away from home, and whether traffic is heavy or light there is no excuse for not using them.

It is the only way the other drivers have of knowing what you are going to do. It safeguards your own life and property as much as it does the other fellow. Why not use them all the time, regardless of where you are?

Dr. Harvey Wiley declares the auto is the poorest of all exercise. Wonder if he ever had a flat tire?

✦ KEEP SCRATCHING ✦

◀ It is an old saying, "A hen never quite scratches just because the worms seems scarce," and it is equally true that a good business man never quits advertising just because customers seem scarce. Hen scratching and newspaper advertising both bring the desired results.

It costs more to get business during dull months; but even if it is somewhat less profitable, it is still more profitable than to do without that business entirely. The wise business man never fails to keep his name and business before the public at all seasons of the year.

During dull periods when people do not have so much money to spend, they will read his advertisement just the same as in prosperous times; they are more likely to buy from the man who advertises than from the one who does not—and, when money becomes more plentiful, the advertising merchant has the longest opportunity of obtaining their business because he has kept in constant touch with them. As a matter of fact, advertising during dull periods brings the largest proportionate results.

Two of the hardest things in this world for a man to put by are money and temptation.

Chamber of Commerce Sponsors Fourth of July Program, A Creamery And A Cotton Seed Mill

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday at the regular luncheon hour with 18 present. After a discussion of good roads, the president appointed a committee to meet with the Portales people to get a road built to meet us at the state line.
Bob McCaskill reported the City Hall progressing nicely.
Kenneth Hemphill reported the numbering of the houses and streets as moving on to completion.
D. A. Adam made a talk on his work and asked the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce to sponsor the Better Farmer contest with one farmer. There are only 10 in the state and Lamb County wants at least one of them this year. Mr. Adam also stated the by-laws and all legal papers necessary for completion of the creamery will be signed at a meeting Tuesday night.
A committee to meet with committees from the Rotary, Lions, and American Legion was appointed and the question of a free barbecue on the Fourth of July to be worked out.
Messrs. Kenneth Hemphill, Maze Hibun, McCaskill and Hale were appointed a committee to secure subscribers of stock in a cottonseed oil mill to be started in May. Forty-five thousand dollars was subscribed by 20 present. One out of town man will take $10,000 stock.
A tract of land ideal for the location has been selected adjoining the Farm Bureau gin. This tract has 900 feet of trackage and the seed from the Farm Bureau gin can be augered to the mill without handling. This work should be completed within 10 days, said Secretary Hale.

Panhandle Editors Rap Phone Companies At a Recent Memphis Meet

Members of the Panhandle Press Association in their annual meeting at Memphis, followed the lead established by the West Texas Press Association, three years ago, when they stated they were "getting fed up" with the way the telephone companies are treating the newspapers of Texas and the communities which they serve.
The News-Globe said:
"The newspaper men expressed themselves in no uncertain terms about the various telephone companies operating in this territory at the closing session of the Panhandle Press Association meeting."
"In fact, the subject when brought up almost monopolized the meeting, and the convention adjourned with the 100 newspaper editors and publishers on hand voting unanimously to "do something."
"Main charges made against the telephone companies were:
Too high rates.
Inadequate service.
Indifference to public enterprises.
Policy of having directories printed in foreign cities."
"The refusal of telephone companies to permit local printing plants to publish the directories came up for discussion during the "Question Box" feature of the meeting under the direction of Gene Howe of Amarillo.

"Once the newspaper men got to talking about the telephone company charges of unfair policies and excessive rates and lack of service were offered by editors from all sections of the Panhandle.
Many Talk on Subject
"H. B. Adams, of Lockney, John McCarty, of Dalhart; Claude Wells, of Memphis; Fred Landers of Pampa; E. A. Carlock, of Paducah; J. D. Merriman of Panhandle; G. H. Russell of White Deer; Bill Miller, of Quitaque, and King Stephens of Memphis, were among the newspaper men who talked on the subject.
"Mr. Adams said it was wholly unfair for a telephone company to sell advertising in its directory and then have the directory printed in Dallas.
"They won't permit the newspapers or printing houses in the different Panhandle towns or cities to bid on the work," said Mr. McCarty, of Dalhart.
"Others declared that the telephone companies assume an 'independent attitude' toward local enterprises, and that they fail to make good on promises of reduced rates, improved service and similar matters.
We seem to have a "week" for everything in this country except a week for using horse-sense.

Tennis Champions Of Two Districts Play Match at Amarillo

Miss Lucile Stengel, winner of the girls singles tennis title of this district, played Mae Lois Ray, of Amarillo, in a bi-district match last Friday. Miss Ray defeated Miss Stengel after a hard contest which required the full three sets to decide by the scores, 6-3, 4-6, 6-8.
It was one of the most interesting tennis matches played this season. The final outcome was doubtful until Miss Ray returned the last ball which hit the top of the net and rolled over and was impossible to return.
The match was played on the Amarillo Tennis club's concrete courts and was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators who marveled at the vicious serves, slashing drives and perfectly placed returns of the two players.
Miss Stengel, the champion of this district does remarkably good playing for one who played her first game of tennis only 16 months ago. Her wonderful stamina, perseverance and determination as well as her skill accounts for her success.
Miss Stengel is a student of the Pep school.

LFD. WOMAN'S H. D. CLUB

We appreciate the cooperation of the different flour companies furnishing flour free for all the demonstrations. There were between 50 and 60 people present for the demonstrations; each housewife was presented with 4 lbs. of flour.
The following new members were received: Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Fred Duffey, Mrs. A. E. Holberg and Miss Irene Inklebarger.
The following visitors were present Misses Van Noy, Darmon, Ruth Easley, Pearl and Vessie Strawn, Mesdames Green, Herman Miller, J. B. Farrell, H. J. Miller and Strawn.

It is hoped all patrons of the school, and members of the P-T. A. in particular will take advantage of this meeting, which will enable them to get acquainted with the district officers, and derive the good from it they should.

Lfd. Ranks High As A Shipping Point On The Santa Fe System

More than 25,500 bales of cotton have been shipped out of Littlefield so far this year for the 1929 crop, says H. C. Pumphrey, Santa Fe agent.
The local compress, owned by the Union Compress company, has handled around 51,000 bales, he said. The other communities have used the local compress, shipping their cotton into Littlefield and having the bales pressed here and then shipped on.
An average of four cars of hogs a week are shipped out of Littlefield according to Pumphrey.
The Peyton Packing company maintains a line yard in Littlefield and buys hogs here, running them through the yard. Most of the hogs are sent to the company's packing plant at El Paso.

350 PEOPLE VISIT NEW LAUNDRY OPENING DAY

There were approximately 350 people who visited the new Bumpass laundry here last Monday on their opening day, and expressed their astonishment and appreciation for such a magnificent establishment of this character located in Littlefield.
During "open house" all the various machines were in operation under a crew of 18 men and women who were demonstrating laundry, cleaning and pressing work of customers as it is actually carried on.
Music was furnished by an orchestra, punch was served all guests and cigars given the men.

LITTLEFIELD SCHOOL NEWS

In Clothing Contest

The winners of the clothing contest in Home Economics, which was held in the high school building, accompanied by Miss Collins, left for Houston Wednesday, where they will participate in contests similar to those held here.

Miss Wilma Wilkerson will represent the second year class in a traveling costume and bag, while Miss Muriel Stripe will represent the third year class in an evening costume, which was made in class.

Miss Collins took some articles with her which will be placed on exhibit. They are as follows: baby's layette and three tailored dresses made by the second year class, two child's play suits, made by the first year class, and a luncheon set and two evening dresses made by the third year class. Also some budgets, expense accounts and posters, which are made by the different classes, were taken to put on exhibit.

Attend League Meet

At the present time Mr. Boles and three of our high school boys are in Austin, to represent our school in the state Interscholastic League meet, which is being held the latter part of this week.

Carson Glass represents our school in the extemporaneous speaking contest, having won first place in the district meet, which was held in Lubbock.

Percy Carter, our fast track man, represents us in the 440 yard dash. He won first place in the district meet in this event, and second place in the Javelin throw.

Richard Herring, also was chosen to attend the state meet, and if his future records prove to be as good as his past someone will have to fly.

Junior-Senior Banquet

A group of Juniors, Seniors and faculty members assembled in the Masonic dining hall, Friday evening, April 25th, for their annual banquet.

The hall was decorated very attractively in the Senior class colors, maroon and white. Ruffles of the two colors were artistically draped in the center, caught by several large red balloons. The light fixtures were small red electrical bulbs strung about the hall. The end walls were adorned with a "S" and "J," the side walls with '30 and '31 signifying the two classes represented.

Eleven tables were dressed in snow white linens, with hand made place cards, nut cup and programmes carrying out the color scheme, red and white.

At the given hour, all passed into the hall, found their places and were seated. About 90 young ladies and gentlemen were present to enjoy the excellent program and the savory food.

J. T. Allen, President of Junior class, acting as toastmaster, asked all to stand while everyone joined in and sang "L. H. S. Forever." Miss Mary Duncan was then introduced and gave the welcome address. Miss Duncan was dressed in a buffant frock of orchid tuffeta.

Miss Lorena Joseph, Vice-President of Senior class, gave a response for the Senior class which was very effective. She was wearing a very beautiful coral georgette frock. Mr. B. M. Harrison, in his usual interesting manner, gave the response for the faculty. He made a response that impressed everyone.

Miss Norma Lee Gattis dressed in a becoming gown of peach georgette, gave a delightful reading, "Progressive Parodies of Four Years." The group was then favored with a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Harrison. She was dressed in a charming frock of peach crepe. She showed a great musical talent.

Miss Donny Lou Adams, in her glib manner, gave the class prophecy of 1930, giving each Senior a souvenir. All were greatly amused. Miss Adams was dressed in a becoming gown of red. Mr. F. O. Boles gave a very appropriate talk on "Class of '30," appraising them for their fellowship and good behavior.

Lastly, "The Eyes of Littlefield are Upon You," was sung with both joy and regret, for everyone had had such an enjoyable evening, that they regretted that it was soon to be over.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The menu was as follows:

- Cocktail Coupe
- Chicken Croquettes Macedonine
- Glazed Beets Potatoes Half-Shell
- Peach Canopes
- Perfection Salad Cheese Wafers
- Iced Tea Lemons
- Hot Rolls
- Nuts
- Senior Delight

50 Years' Use of Black-Draught

"About fifty years ago," says Mr. Lewis G. Shields, of Fortersville, Ala., "my mother gave me the first dose of Black-Draught, and I have taken it ever since, when I needed a medicine for constipation. I have used this remedy all my married life, in raising my children.

"I have used Black-Draught for heartburn, as I have had spells of this kind, off and on, for years. This follows indigestion, and indigestion comes down on constipation.

"I have found that the best way to head off trouble is to begin taking Black-Draught in time. It relieves me of dizziness, tightness in the chest and backache.

"By getting rid of impurities, Black-Draught helps to keep the system in good order. I always keep it in the home, and have recommended it to many people, in my time."

THAXTON BROS. HARDWARE

found elsewhere in the nation. In the main the people here are hard working folks, but the brilliant prospects of attainment coupled with the exuberance of feeling from living in this delightful climate minimizes the drudgery and turns what might otherwise be menial labor into a joyous task not infrequently bordering on to play.

Citizens of the Littlefield area do not intend to be bombastic, though they do appreciate this new country the more as they live here longer. They are merely people who have bought a tract of land out of what was once a piece of range or a big cow pasture. They have built on it a cottage or bungalow more or less pretentious which they call "home." They have plowed some of the land, fenced in a pasture for their horses, cows and hogs, built their barns, put down their wells and up their windmills, erected a chicken house or two where the biddies are energetically at work from early morn 'til late at night. They are happy with their present lot and jubilant over their future prospects, and, naturally, they assure visitors are sympathetically interested.

There is something delightfully infectious about this area, something that lifts one out of the rut of conservatism. It is a contact with a buoyant climate, where the soil is prodigious—it grips the new comer who wants a home where he may carve out his future, fatten his bank account, get real enjoyment out of his livelihood and raise his kiddies up to healthful pure womanhood and noble manhood.

Now just a few concrete facts to back up the statement of land sales as made in the first paragraph of this article. The writer had the privilege of looking over the map showing the Yellow House Land company's holdings. It was a big blue print covering a space on the office wall several feet square. There were several portions of this more than one thousand square miles of area that was marked off solidly with the red pencil, showing it had already been sold. There were other portions where the red squares were a little more scattering, showing some of the land had been taken but that there were numerous other farms lying out there just as inviting, just as fertile and to be held just as covetously by some other persons who would soon come to make their initial payment and claim them as their own. Here and there were other markings showing the wealth of improvements that had gone onto these recently carved out farmsteads. It was like looking over a giant check-board where the stalemate had come early in the game, yet in some mysterious manner the pawns had all been crowned kings of their respective spots and were content to remain there indefinitely.

W. H. Badger, manager of the company, told the writer just a little of the seemingly mystic transformation that was taking place on some of these farm squares, but that little key-hole squint, as it were, opened to the writer a panoramic vision of the untold future development still lying latent and biding its time until man and machinery would turn it into a vivid reality.

Here are some of the sales the Yellow House Land company have made during the past few months—offered merely in corroboration of statements previously made in this article, and he added, "we are receiving more and more enquiries every day from people who are interested in the South Plains country and are coming out here to see for themselves and to get first hand information of what they have been hearing and reading about in the recent past."

Frankly speaking, the man who comes out here merely to see and to hear, is on a dangerous mission, because in most instances he finds he is compelled to go back home and load up his household goods to be transferred onto the new tract of land he bought before leaving.
