FARMERS MEET IN LITTLEFIELD SATURDAY

D. A. Adam Explains 38,000 Acres Must Be Taken Out of Contracts

A crowd, estimated at between 400 and 500 farmers gathered at the First Baptist Church, Littlefield, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, when D. A. Adam, county agent, presided, and explained many matters of interest to the farmers in regard to the 1934-35 cotton reduction contracts.

He pointed out that 1822 contract holders from Lamb county asked for 191,000 acres as a total average for the five-year base period, and that the state board, composed of statisticians from Washington, and E. A. Miller, state agronomist, allowed the contract holders 148,000 acres as the correct average, which means a reduction of 38,000 acres by the contract holders in order to get in line with the state board figure. Methods of getting this extra acreage out of the contracts were discussed by the county agent.

Mr. Adam said: "Contract signers asked for 37,000,000 pounds of lint cotton, while the state board allowed the contract signers only 25,000,000. In the final analysis, when the extra

MANY GO TO COLLEGE

Parents and others interested in 4-H club training raise the question whether boys and girls are turned to or away from seeking further education after they have completed a certain number of years of projects. All information available indicates that a large percentage of club members hope to go on with their education, and do.

In the projects which a boy or girl does there are many details which they have to carry out without knowing the "how" or "why" of it. Take the mating of animals, the selection of seed grains, incubation of eggs, the treatment of dress materials, the practice of health habits, and so on. Thousands of questions arise in the club member of inquiring mind—and what boy or girl does not have one?—why this or that is done and why it is done in its particular way.

Most any person of normal makeup can be taught in a short time how to drive an automobile. Some persons are satisfied not to know any more than just that. But not many boys will drive a car long before they will be poking a head under the hood or crawling under the car to see what makes it go, and how it goes. The same applies to the methods used in carrying out a 4-H project. The club member soon has a burning desire to do the equivalent of poking his head under the hood and seeing what's what. But laws of heredity, chemical changes in the soil, and the changes in an egg during incubation can't be seen so easily as the working of a gas engine.

The desire to know the reasons for these things naturally turns the boys' thought to college. Or the girls'. And they are the best of reasons to go; not like many that motivate college-going youth. Actually, there were found to be 2,178 former 4-H club members in the agricultural colleges of 13 central states last year. This is nearly 30 per cent of the enrollment. Other colleges claimed many more, and any club members would have attended college if they could have found a way.

THE DAY OF THE CHILD

By proclamation of the President of the United States, the first day of May will be observed as National Child Health Day. The President suggests that every community ought to conduct on that day some sort of exercises to at least impress upon everybody the importance of individual and community effort to preserve the health of children.

We are heartily in accord with this idea. Child welfare has become such an important part of every program for social betterment that many folk sort of take it for granted, and do not realize the amount of time, effort, study and money that has been expended all over the country to make health conditions for children safer and better everywhere.

One does not have to be very old to remember when more than half of all children born died in infancy. Look at any old graveyard and see the number of tombstones inscribed to the memory of little ones who passed on before they were hardly able to talk. That is not the case today. Every child born has many times better chance to live to grow up than we older folk did. Everybody who is thirty or past is one of the minority of children of his birth year, the majority of them died, and we are the survivors.

The interesting figures published at Washington, a short time ago that show that the increase in the nation's farm population is due to the excess of births over deaths, are set off by the decline in the birth rate in the larger cities. It is true that in the United States, big and large, births are only a little ahead of deaths, and the time is likely to come when this country, like France, will have to offer prizes for large families in order to keep the population stationary from year to year.

We have learned that healthy children make healthy men and women. The average length of life in America has increased by nearly ten years in the past generation. That is beyond doubt due to the increasing knowledge of how to conserve the health of children.

Give every child a chance. It seems to us that Child Health Day might well be celebrated by a health examination of every child, with a prize or two for the healthiest.

President Signs Bankhead Bill Saturday Last

President Roosevelt Saturday signed the Bankhead bill limiting to ten million bales the amount of cotton which can be sold from the 1934 crop.

The farm administration followed his action by announcing the share of the total which each cotton state will be allowed to produce. The method of determining allotments for the 1,000 cotton-producing counties within the states is now being worked out.

In signing the bill President Roosevelt said:

"It aims to prevent a very small minority who have refused to cooperate with their neighbors and government from impairing the effectiveness of the current cotton program which now includes 92 per cent of the cotton acreage."

He added "the cotton states have found it impossible to act independently or in unison" to secure reduction of cotton acreage and "a Democratic government has consented" to using federal power in an attempt to do so.

Administration of the act during the year of its life will be left to Secretary Wallace who has expressed himself as extremely dubious of compulsory control but willing to try it as an experiment.

The act provides that no state which has produced as much as 250,000 bales in any year during the 1928-32 base period shall be given an allotment of less than 200,000 bales.

The remaining 9,600,000 bales will be allotted to other cotton states on the basis of the percentage that the average production of each state during the base period is of the total production of all states during that period.

Exceptions Allowed

Administration officials said it was expected producers who signed voluntary production control contracts would receive certificates exempting from the taxation provisions of the act the amount of cotton normally produced on the acreage permitted under their contracts.

Cotton produced in excess of that amount would be subject to the tax. The reduction entailed by the quota of 10,000,000 bales is approximately 31 per cent of the average production during the past five years. In the voluntary curtailment program, producers agreed to reduce acreage approximately 38 per cent or 15,350,000 acres.

Allotments By States

Allotments by states corrected from the tentative figures announced previously and excluding Missouri and California, which produced less than 250,000 bales from 1928-1932, given in terms of bales of 500 pounds net weight, were:

Virginia, 30,720; North Carolina, 507,840; South Carolina, 577,920; Georgia, 838,080; Florida, 24,000; Tennessee, 323,520; Alabama, 845,760; Mississippi, 1,052,160; Arkansas, 916,800; Louisiana, 503,040; Oklahoma, 748,800; Texas, 3,091,200; New Mexico, 60,480; Arizona, 72,960; all others 6,720.

The administration announced that in making county allotments not to exceed ten per cent of each state allotment would be reserved for special allotments to individual producers and in cases where production within a county was abnormally low because of drought, flood, or other natural causes such years would be excluded in computing county averages.

Cotton producers who did not sign voluntary contracts will make application to county committees and receive an allotment upon approximately the same basis as contract signers.

Colorful Exhibit To Be On Display At WTCC Meeting

A colorful exhibit portraying West Texas as "The Raw Materials Capital of the World" will be on display at the sixteenth annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in San Angelo, May 14-16. The West Texas relief map, shown at A Century of Progress in Chicago last year by the regional chamber, will form the center portion of the exhibit with a backwall upon which attractive posters will tell the story of the resources of West Texas to support the slogan of the regional chamber that West Texas is the raw materials capital of the world.

The relief map is thirteen feet square, and was built by students of Texas Technological College for the West Texas chamber last year. Upon it appears all towns affiliated with the organization, all roads, highways, streams, and topographical features. It has been declared to be correct in detail. In colors the various resources are shown. One color shows small grain production, another cotton, another oil, another gas, another wool, etc.

The individual towns of West Texas will be represented in the exhibit with attractive posters made by students of the respective high schools. In preparation for the exhibit at San Angelo, a poster exhibit contest was launched in the two hundred fifty schools of West Texas. Each school was furnished the rules and regulations and an entry blank and asked to conduct a local contest—selecting the best posters from the local contest, and entering them in the exhibit at San Angelo. The posters will tell the story of some resource or resources of the town. The town having the best poster at San Angelo will be given a silver loving cup trophy.

Fifteen cities have already definitely entered the contest, and notified convention headquarters that they are conducting local contests and will enter posters at San Angelo. They are Amarillo, Anton, Big Spring, Denton, Dumas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Hamilton, Higgins, Marble Falls, San

Regardless of criticism of work of the committee, the data show that 89 per cent of the representatives of classroom teacher organizations and 90 per cent of the superintendents reporting approved the December ruling of the committee. Twenty-six per cent of the teachers in a group of cities with more than 100,000 population indicate they will be unable to meet the new requirement because of lack of funds, while combined data of all other city schools reveal that only 2.5 per cent of the teachers claim they will be financially unable to comply with the requirements of the accrediting committee.

Although data indicate a rather general approval of higher professional standards for teachers, many teachers may find it difficult to make progress toward the new requirements under present conditions.

Why Hospitals Use Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reason?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be limited to suit individual needs. There is no habit; you need not take a "pile dose" a day or two later will a mild liquid laxative irritate the lining.

The right dose of a liquid laxative is a perfect movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good. A properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, safely gives relief from constipation, gently helps the average person's bowels back to regularity. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists are ready for use. It makes an excellent family laxative; effective for children, and may be given the least child.  When you pay the price of a Knee-Action car, you naturally want genuine Knee-Action and all that goes with it. You want the new gliding ride at its best. You want the huskiest, sturdiest front-end you can buy. And, of course, you want shock-proof steering. You pay for them all—but you get them all, in the low-price field, only from Chevrolet. The reason is simple. Fully-enclosed Knee-Action wheels are costly to build—so costly that only Chevrolet, world's largest builder of cars, can afford to make the necessary huge investment in new machinery—and still keep prices among the lowest of the low. Only Chevrolet has the resources and the assured volume of sales that permit this extra production cost. Chevrolet does it because Chevrolet believes that, to KEEP ON SELLING THE MOST CARS, YOU MUST KEEP ON BUILDING THE BEST.

MEMBERS OF TEXAS TECH EXPEDITION PUT ON PROGRAM AT LOCAL ROTARY MEET

Last Thursday the Rotary Club was fortunate in having as its guests six members of the recent Texas Tech expedition to the Yaqui villages in Mexico. Four members of the expedition gave interesting talks on various phases of the expedition and exhibited numerous specimens of Yaqui handicrafts or craftsmanship.

Charlie Guy, genial editor of the Avalanche-Journal, presided during the program and introduced the other members of the party. Mayor Ross Edwards of Lubbock brought greetings from the city of Lubbock and described briefly the geography of the Yaqui country which is on the Mexican Pacific coast. Dr. C. J. Wagner who was official physician for the expedition described the people which were encountered and gave interesting sidelights on the life of the Yaqui Indians. Dr. W. C. Holden, who headed the party who made the trip, spoke on the customs and habits of the Indians and explained the uses to which many of the curious implements, tools, etc., on display were being put by this tribe of Indians.

Other members of the expedition who were present were Bonnie McWilliams, official interpreter, and Frank Maddox.

lene Foust will represent the department in two contests as follows: "Special Occasion Dress" and "Selection of Foods for Proper Child Care." These folks will arrive in Austin at 9 p. m. Wednesday evening and will participate in the contest during Thursday and Friday. Saturday will be filled with a style show for the girls and a big parade through town. Other features of entertainment will be had for the girls who represent the various schools of the state.

The funds for this trip have been accumulated by the Home Economics Club all through the year. They have worked hard for the money to make the trip.

Littlefield will compete in the Group A section which consists of schools who have 300 or more enrolled in the high school. In this group first place in each contest will be given a new Singer sewing machine and for second and third places there will be $30.00 and $20.00 offer respectively.

The girls are going away with great hopes of bringing back one of these prizes.

The South Plains cured ham, which was sent to President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, has been declared as 'delicious' by the First Lady of the land.

In a letter to Congressman Marvin Jones, through whom Senator Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield sent the grand champion ham of the fourth annual Lubbock Quality meat show, the wife of the president expressed her thanks to the women of the home demonstration clubs of this section for their "thought of us."

Senator Duggan arranged with L. Wesley Read to purchase the ham and then sent it to Congressman Jones with the request that it be presented the president and his wife. In his letter to Mr. Jones, Mr. Duggan said he wanted the president to see what was being done in this section and particularly the home demonstration work.

Mrs. Roosevelt expressed her thanks to Mr. Jones and through him to Senator Duggan and the South Plains women for their thoughtfulness. She said:

Dear Mr. Jones:

"The ham which was sent to the president and me through you, by State Senator Arthur P. Duggan, has been received. It is indeed a 'grand champion' ham and we found it delicious.

"I shall appreciate it if you will extend to Senator Duggan and the members of the home demonstration club of the 19th congressional district our thanks for their thought of us. Sincerely yours, "ELEANOR ROOSEVELT."

Senator Duggan sent the letter to Mr. Read Monday.

Rev. O. L. Oldham, one of the early pioneers of Littlefield, has returned and is living on the Kemp farm, four miles southwest of this city.

Mr. Oldham was the first pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city. He organized the Baileyboro Baptist Church, and was a member of the council which organized the Sudan and Muleshoe Baptist churches. He arranged for the first Baptist church service that was held in Amherst, and preached the first service to be held at Circleback. He also is said to have held two revival meetings at Shallowater before the town started.

Since moving back to this section last Sunday, April 22, he organized a Baptist church at Goodland, Texas. Rev. Oldham is a brother-in-law of Sanders Mills of this city.

PROGRAM BY LOCAL STUDY CLUB WINS FIRST PLACE AT FEDERATED MEETING

The delegates from the Seventh District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs met in Amarillo, April 16, 17 and 18.

Mrs. J. M. Stokes was delegate from the Senior Study Club of Littlefield, and she brings a very interesting report of the work done in this district during the past year.

The members of the Littlefield club were greatly pleased to learn that one of their programs won first place at this convention. Mrs. Chenault of Snyder had offered a prize for the best Biblical program, so the local club sent in one that they had all so greatly enjoyed, given here December 6th, with Mrs. Pat Boone as leader, and Mrs. B. L. Cogdill assisting. Your reporter has had the pleasure of hearing many of the greatest speakers of America, but has never heard a finer or more inspiring talk on any subject than the one given by Mrs. Boone on the "Bible as Literature." Mrs. Cogdill had the lesser theme, the "Bible in Literature," but handled it in a most admirable manner. The Littlefield Club had heard Mrs. Cogdill speak several times before, and knew that they had a mental treat in store, but she surpassed their greatest expectations, and her lecture will long remain a pleasant memory to all of her hearers.

After hearing these ladies speak last winter, the local club felt confident of victory over all contestants, and were not disappointed. Mrs. Stokes brought home the prize.

Mrs. C. E. Cooper and Mrs. A. P. Duggan also attended the convention.

Littlefield Represented At Presbyterian

The Amarillo Presbyterian met in regular annual session at Plainview, April 19 and 20.

A large number of women were present from over this district, some coming from as far as Canadian regardless of rain and mud.

Those attending from Littlefield auxiliary were, Mrs. Ira Woods, Mrs. J. G. Singer, Mrs. W. O. Stockton, Mrs. S. G. Underwood, Mrs. F. W. Wynn, Mrs. W. H. Walker and Mrs. E. A. Bills.

West Plains Workers Hold Meeting Tuesday

The West Plains Workers' Council held its regular monthly meeting with the Baileyboro church last Tuesday, there were 19 of the 21 churches represented in this meeting. One new church received into the association. Those attending from the First Baptist Church here were Rev. and Mrs. Joe F. Grizzle, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Sullivan and Miss Mary Louise Sullivan. The next meeting of the council will be held with the Anton church in May.

Ruby-Dale H-D Club
The Ruby-Dale Club met March 22, at 2:30 p. m. at the Sunnydale community house with 18 members and one visitor present.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to Miss

Westbrook, county home demonstrator, who gave a demonstration in making foundation patterns. One complete pattern was made.

Mrs. R. N. Carpenter, wardrobe demonstrator gave a report of the training school she attended conducted by Mrs. Dora Barnes, clothing specialist of College Station. Then she, assisted by Mrs. L. G. Fox, wardrobe demonstrator No. 2 gave a lesson on making various sleeve patterns from the foundation pattern.

It was decided to give a cake and ice cream supper to finish raising money to send our delegates to the short course. The date will be announced later.

After the business session the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Carpenter who gave a report of the training school which she recently attended in Amherst, conducted by the Singer Sewing Machine Co., under the direction of Mr. Heath of Lubbock.

PARITY PRICE FOR WHEAT
Farmers who cooperate with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration will get close to a parity price for their wheat this year if the market holds. Figures furnished the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service show the March price this year on the farm was 71 cents compared to 34 cents a year ago. Add to this the benefit payment of 28 cents per bushel of 54% of the average five-year production and the total farm price is 99 cents. This is about 7 cents short of parity, or the purchasing power wheat had in the 1909-14 period.

The wheat program has been reopened for the benefit of late comers and county committees in Texas wheat counties are receiving applications for contracts. Those who sign now will miss only the first of the 1934 payments.

Former Resident Visits Littlefield

Jim Caviness, who is particularly well known among many of the old residents of Littlefield, and now living at Causey, New Mexico, was a visitor in Littlefield Tuesday.

Mr. Caviness came to Littlefield to purchase paint horses, which he is specializing in breeding as saddle stock. In this connection Mr. Caviness spent a part of the day with Col. J. W. Horn.

Mr. Caviness knew this section when it was "short" grass country, and for a number of years engaged in the freighting business before the railroad was completed.

"I am very much pleased at the immense growth and development which has taken place in the Littlefield section.

"If a man had told me back in the early days that Lamb county would produce as much cotton as it has in the past year or two, I would have told him that he didn't know what he was talking about," said Mr. Caviness.

Installing of equipment for the assembly of Chevrolet automobiles in the General Motors Building at the 1934 "Century of Progress International Exposition," Chicago, has already been started by the Chevrolet Motor Company, M. E. Coyle, president and general manager, announced today.

Complete installation will be effected well in advance of the scheduled reopening of the 1934 World's Fair on May 26, Mr. Coyle said, assuring early visitors that they will be able to see an automobile built up from the bare frame to the completed car, from the opening till the closing day of the exposition.

Machinery is identical with that used in Chevrolet's nine other assembly plants, with the exception of overhead conveyors. The latter have been replaced by floor type conveyors to bring parts to the proper stations along the line. This slight change in factory procedure provides visibility for the thousands who will watch the assembly each day. Machines will again be finished in silver with black trim, and will be manned by approximately 200 workers in white uniforms.

A balcony seven feet above the assembly line and erected in circular form so that the maximum number of visitors may walk completely around the line and watch every operation in the building of a typically modern automobile, has been provided, Mr. Coyle said.

ROCKY FORD NEWS

Quite a few of our people are planting corn and other feed, and some are threatening to plant cotton. It seems that cotton seed sterilization is attracting quite a bit of attention. Let's everybody take our seed and get the bugs killed and thereby help Uncle Sam to help us.

This scribe wonders what it would mean to our country here on the Plains if the pink boll worm should get such a start on us that the lid would be put down tight and a non-cotton zone be established. Better look out, our Uncle Sam is trying to help us now, so let's cooperate the best we possibly can.

Everything is normal around Rocky Ford, no excitement but plenty of activity. We are to start a revival meeting here Wednesday night to run at least through next Sunday. Everyone is invited to come and help make our community a better place to live. If you are a christian, come help us, if you are not, then come out, maybe we can help you some. Let all ponder these words of the little rhyme:

"If all church members were just like me, What kind of a church would my church be?"

Floyd Rogers and wife visited with Mrs. Cole and John Reed and family Sunday.

It looked like Claude Rogers tried to have most of the Sunday School at his place Sunday, the place was covered up with folks, too many to mention names.

Robert Smith and family visited the Bud Skinner family Sunday.

Quite a lot of our folks visited school Friday evening, as that was Parent's Day. All seemed to enjoy the occasion. Some expressed themselves as wishing they were young again and had their book satchels again. Its a pity some one doesn't discover that "spring of eternal youth" isn't it? Wishing the Leader and family the best of everything. I close. —Optimist.

SCHOOL CARNIVAL IS GREAT SUCCESS

The school carnival held in the local high school building Friday evening last was nothing less than a howling success. Crowds jammed the corridors and every available space was packed to capacity.

Every noise maker known to the modern carnival found its way into the carnival site. Many attractions were offered sightseers including doll race, terrapin race, fat lady, human breaks, fortune telling, etc. The free exhibit of school work shown by the grade and high school departments was well worth an evening spent in examining them.

The chief feature of the affair was the coronation of the queen. Geneva Fleming won the queen's race. Other contestants were Lois Wren, senior queen; Faye Foust, junior queen; Oma Carpenter, sophomore queen; Louise Thornton, freshman queen; Kathleen Cundiff, sixth grade queen; Velma Lee Lowe, fifth grade queen; and Onita Ratliff, fourth grade queen; Louise Thornton, was high school queen, and it was thought for a time that she was carnival winner but a final counting showed that the grammar school was victorious and the seventh grade contestant was duly crowned.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND UNABLE TO ENTER CONTEST

The high school band was planning on entering the band contest sponsored by Simmons University Cowboy

Band Friday, April 27, but owing to the band director, A. B. Taylor, having to appear as a witness in a case at Lamesa, and illness of several band boys, will not be able to enter the contest.

EIGHTEEN SWEATERS AWARDED ATHLETES

Eighteen sweaters were awarded to athletes by Coach "Brack" Barksdale, in assembly last Thursday.

Before the sweaters were awarded the boys were asked to make a solemn pledge which involved physical, moral and mental obligation. Each boy pledged himself to keep training, to live a clean moral life, and to do creditable work in school. A request was also made by those awarding sweaters that no one except members of the owners' family or his sweetheart be allowed to wear the "letter" award.

Those receiving sweaters were: Wood (Rowdy) Dow, 1933-34 captain; Robert (Bob) McKnight, 1934-35 captain-elect; J. P. (Jake) Brantley, Linton (Smitty) Smith, Lee (Speedy) Beckner, Allen (Bigamist) Kendrick, Cecil (Curly) Hall, Randolph (Randy) Brantley, O. K. (K. O.) Yantis, Leo (Duff) Duffey, Russell (Cookie) Cook, Gayle Hemphill, Harold Martinez, Bill Irvin, Marvin Swanner, George Lightsey, John Jones, L. V. Pierce.

The first sixteen boys received sweaters as football awards. Jones received a basket ball sweater and Pierce received a sweater for track work.

Bob McCaskill was awarded a sweater as manager of basketball and track. Coach Barksdale declared that he had never known a more efficient and dependable manager than McCaskill.

Several Students Prepare For Contest

The following speech was written by Miss Naomi Terry, a senior student in the Littlefield High School. She plans to enter the "My Home Town" speech contest at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention to be held in San Angelo, May 13-14. Littlefield will have several entries in the contest among whom are "Cotton" Eagan, Emery Glass, and A. B. Taylor.

MY HOME TOWN

In the northwestern part of Texas, better known as the Panhandle, lies a vast, treeless table-land, extending to the New Mexico boundary line. Not long ago, it was most notable as a great cattle country. Across it ran the long trail, and on its plains roamed thousands of cattle, descendants of the "longhorn" cattle of Spanish and Mexican days. It was here that wars took place between the neater and the cattlemen, and between the Texas "longhorns" and the "short-horns." The former cattle country is now a fertile land, and has given way to the plow and the white cotton bloom.

In the center of this great plain, and occupying the most fertile spot, is My Home Town, which is comparatively young in years, but much older in accomplishments than many towns will ever be. The present townsite is located on the famous Yellow House Ranch and was founded in 1912 by its owner, Major G. W. Littlefield.

To Littlefield, my home town, is given the distinction of having a higher percentage growth than any other town in Texas. It was not until 1923 that any definite progress was made in its development, but since that time the population has grown from 250 people to 3,218 in 1930, or a 1187 per cent increase.

Besides being the largest town in Lamb county, Littlefield is also the center of one of the greatest and most important agricultural districts in West Texas, and is one of the foremost cotton sections in the state. The 1931 ginning report showed 80,000 bales of cotton raised on 101,000 acres of land—an average of over three-fourth bales per acre. The United States average for lint cotton per acre was 201.1 pounds. The Lamb county average was 402.8

pounds per acre or 1.7 pounds over twice as much as the United States average. This is a record which we doubt will ever be equaled. In 1933 we received more plow-up money than any county in the state, merely because our land produces more cotton per acre than that of any other county—and has for the last seven years. Not only do Littlefield farmers raise more grain sorghum than any other section in Texas, but they supply the majority of seed for all other counties of South West Texas. The Peyton Packing Company, established in Littlefield last fall, is feeding 60 tons of feed daily to over 7,000 head of cattle. Lamb county has carried off the honor of the highest per acre production of cotton and grain sorghums in the United States.

The people of Littlefield are proud of its civic improvements which are representative of its progressive spirit. We have electricity in every home in the town and a good many of the rural homes. We have paved streets, a modern fire department, a municipal water plant, a new city hall valued at $50,000, and a new railroad station, erected at the cost of $60,000; in fact, everything to make a real trading center.

The moral and cultural phases of development which are so important to the progress of a city, have not been overlooked. Ten different denominations are represented here, nine of which are Protestant and one Catholic. Clubs and organizations for the culture of both young and old are represented fully by the Junior Band, Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, and Junior and Senior Study Clubs. The splendid educational facilities open to school children is to be compared favorably with any in the state. The town has three modern school buildings, built and equipped at different times during its history. Equal educational opportunities for all children has been the dream of all Americans for generations. For the first time in American history there is a county in Texas that can boast honestly of having reached this goal. Students living as far as 20 miles from school are transported to and from school daily by 19 school buses driven by bonded men. This gives all children the chance of a high school education. Lamb county is the only county of equal educational opportunities yet reported in the county school systems of the United States.

"The Pulse of the Plains," selected by the Chamber of Commerce as Littlefield's slogan indicates the great development of this section and the wonderful spirit of its citizenship. The people of my home town are law-abiding, generous-hearted, devout people, and are second to none as citizens. They possess that rare quality of friendship that is to be admired and should be practiced in all towns. Cooperation is the keynote of our success.

I have given you an accurate and brief account of my home town—its industries, its civic improvements, and its moral and educational facilities.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

"Such a Good Laxative," Says Nurse

Writing from her home in Festus, Mo., Mrs. Anna LaPlante says: "I am a practical nurse and I recommend to some of my patients that they take Black-Draught, for it is such a good laxative. I took it for constipation, headache and a dull feeling that I had so much. A few doses of Black-Draught—and I felt just fine."

Because so many people know from having used it that Theodor's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, millions of packages of it are sold every year.

Littlefield has more distinction than any other town of its size and age in Texas. It is distinguished for its high percentage growth, for its highest per acre production of cotton and grain sorghums in the United States, for its leadership of all other towns in equal educational opportunities, and for the spirit of its citizenship; and it should receive the proper recognition it deserves.

The First National Is A Safe Place To Deposit Your Funds

WHY DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY IN THE POST OFFICE?

Isn't it in your own interests, the interests of your city, your community, and your county that you deposit your money in the home bank?

Every dollar which is taken out of circulation in this city and section retards the progress of us all. Money deposited in the home bank is reloaned to those who need funds to carry on their various projects.

From every standpoint there is no more logical place to deposit money than in a bank, especially when you know that there is ABSOLUTELY NO DANGER OF LOSS.

There are two outstanding reasons why the FIRST NATIONAL BANK LITTLEFIELD, is a safe place for your funds. One is that the First National is a highly sound bank with ample assets for the protection of all deposits.

As a participating bank in the functions of the Federal Insurance Co., all deposits up to $2500 in the Littlefield bank are fully insured.

With the First National Bank in such an excellent financial condition, and with deposits insured, this bank offers a 100 per cent safe place for the depositing of funds.

You are invited to visit the First National Bank and look over the financial statement, and also to discuss the financial condition of the bank with any officer of this institution.

purpose of showing these officials Lamb county, which, according to Mr. Whicker, is the outstanding county in 110 counties supervised by M. G. Abornathy, in that it headed the list in the scaling down of indebtedness, closing land loans and collection of delinquent taxes.

The route taken by the officials Monday covered the section from Lubbock to Dimmitt; from there to Farwell, and to Muleshoe. They looked over the Warren lands in the Blackwater irrigated section in the west part of Lamb county, where the visitors made the remark that they had never seen such wonderful alfalfa land in all their travels.

party inspected the north half of Hockley county, were shown community values around Littlefield, visited the Peyton Packing Company's plant, Union Compress, schools, churches, etc.

The Washington representatives and out of county men, who accompanied them to Littlefield were: D. S. Gray, assistant chief reviewing appraiser for the appraisal section of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, who is third man to the president in the farm credit work; W. J. McAnnuly of Houston, reviewing appraiser for the Houston Land Bank district, representing the Farm Credit Administration of Washington; J. C. O'Brien of Lubbock, supervising land bank appraiser for the South Plains, also representing the administration at Washington; P. W. Chumm, assistant treasurer of the Federal Land Bank of Houston; W. P. Soash of Lubbock, representing the Slaughter interests; Maple Wilson of Lubbock, large land owner of Cochran county lands; and Judge R. C. Hopping, representing the Elwood interests.

The visiting officials were entertained at lunch Tuesday at the Littlefield Hotel by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whicker. Included in the luncheon party were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Eisiger, T. A. Henson, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Whicker, Mr. and Mrs. T. Wade Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Otha Key and Morley B. Drake, publisher Lamb County Leader, and Mrs. Drake.

Following lunch a tour was made of Amherst, Sudan and vicinity, and the north part of Lamb county, the party proceeding west to Circleback, and then to Morton, Whiteface, Levelland, Smyer and Lubbock.

Wednesday the south half of Hockley county and Terry county were inspected.

Thursday it is planned to tour Crosby and a portion of Hale county.

According to J. C. Whicker, one of the government officials from Washington stated to him Wednesday that this was the most wonderful country he had ever seen; that he did not know there was such a big body of good farming land in the United States.

It is expected that the officials will complete their investigations in this section about the end of this week, or the beginning of next, when reports and certain recommendations will be made to Washington. No intimation has been made by them as to what recommendations will be made, but it was very evident that these men could see in the South Plains a section which has enjoyed a rapid and substantial growth, and one that possesses a future that it is doubtful could be duplicated by any other part of the state or country.

of each month. The teachers and members of the Study Club are cooperating to work up their groups.

The royal party will be another interesting feature of the fete. Several organizations of the town have selected candidates to represent them in the race for the May queen. Melba Dawn Pearson will represent the Chamber of Commerce, Betty Ann Hilliard the American Legion, Clyde Willis the Rotary Club, and Mary Nell Keithley the Senior Study Club. Boxes to contain the money for the votes for each candidate will be conveniently located in several stores. Invitations have been sent to Anton, Amherst, Sudan, Whitehall, and Oton, to send duchesses and their escorts to attend the queen. Other members of the royal party will be selected from the junior and senior classes and from the young people of the town.

standings printed today, but the race promises to be a close one from now on to the close of the campaign, and the changes in the line-up will be many from day to day.

The Daily Honor Roll The daily Honor Roll feature is proving very popular and the more active candidates are trying for this distinction each day. The HONOR ROLL closes each day at 6 p. m. and the names are announced on the bulletin the following morning.

The HONOR ROLL credit goes to the two candidates who make the best sales report for the day, and carries with it a special credit of 10,000 EXTRA HONOR ROLL VOTES.

Every worker in the campaign should try as often as possible for the HONOR ROLL credit, not only for the extra votes, but for the great prestige it carries. Every reader of the Leader is watching the HONOR ROLL column to see if their favorite worker's name is on it. The HONOR ROLL shows just who the hardest workers are in the campaign.

The vote standings are announced daily on a bulletin in the window of the Leader office. These daily standings are based on the business of the previous day only, and the changes in the line-up each day are many. Each morning shows a revised vote standing, and new leaders appear almost daily.

Watch the daily vote standings—also the HONOR ROLL bulletin—follow the changes in the line-up of workers. The race is getting to the interesting stage, and from now on to the closing day it promises to be a "battle royal" between the many workers.

acreage is taken out, and the corresponding yield of lint on that acreage is taken out, it will leave only 2,500,000 pounds of lint to be reduced. This will make the total yield per acre for the county 9 9-10th per cent less.

"The new figures for Lamb county, as given by the state board for the 1928-32 base period, are 148,000 acres average planted to cotton, and 213 pounds of lint yield per acre."

Figures for the different communities in regard to the total acreage signed up, and the average yield per acre, as shown by the contract holders, was given by the county agent. Explanations were given as to what might be grown on the contracted acreage. Farmers who have individual problems in regard to the contracted acreage may get them worked out at the county agent's office, Mr. Adams said.

Ninety per cent of the farmers present, who were contract signers voted their cooperation to the local committee, in getting out the proper amount of extra acreage for the Littlefield section.

Mr. Adam then spoke relative to the Bankhead bill, saying that there was nothing new up to the present time. He stated that as soon as administrative ruling in regard to the Bankhead bill are received, additional meetings will be held in every community to explain the full details of the bill.

Mr. Adam stated that reports had come to his office from the quarantine division that farmers in the Littlefield territory have been slow in getting their seed sterilized. The seriousness of the situation was pointed out by Mr. Adam, and farmers were urged to bring their seed to the local gins and have it sterilized. "Germination of sterilized seed, if properly handled by the farmers, is practically as good as unsterilized seed," stated Mr. Adam. Two batches of seed was sent to Austin for germination tests by a local ginner, and tests before sterilization were 93 and 91 per cent and after sterilization the same seed had a germination test of 91 and 89 per cent, respectively. In view of these facts, the farmers are urged to bring their seed in and help remove the partial federal quarantine as it is hanging on the shoulders of Lamb county farmers.

Mr. Adam pointed out that if the government did not receive one hundred per cent cooperation in the sterilization of cotton seed, that this section stands a chance of being declared a non-cotton zone, which would be disastrous to Lamb county.

The county agent also announced at the meeting Saturday that Tuesday, April 30, was the last day for applying for emergency feed and seed loans, and that farmers desiring to apply for such assistance may make application to B. L. Cogdill, city hall, Littlefield.

WILL PREPARE TO FUNCTION UNDER BANKHEAD BILL

The Littlefield Chamber of Commerce held their regular weekly luncheon meeting at the Presbyterian Church Tuesday noon, with Dr. Ira E. Woods, president, presiding.

Several matters of importance to the city and district were discussed, including the Bankhead Bill.

Dr. Woods explained that he had received a letter from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce pointing out that this booster group was urging the organization of unofficial cotton allotment committees in each county, the purpose of which would be to make every effort possible to secure for that county a fair allotment of cotton production under the Bankhead Bill, and urging Dr. Woods as a director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to look after the organization of such a committee in Lamb County.

"This is especially important in this section," said Dr. Woods, "because 10 percent of the United States' quota, or approximately 300,000 bales will be withheld from the total allotment on the production basis to be allotted to counties where new land is put in cultivation this year."

The president of the local booster group also said that a meeting would be called for Monday evening at eight o'clock at City Hall, Littlefield for the purpose of organizing a cotton Allotment Committee for Lamb County, and that representatives from the various cities and communities in this county would be urged to attend this meeting and assist in the organization.

Home Town Speech Contest Announcement was made by Joe Hale, secretary-manager of the local group, that four Littlefield pupils, Miss Naomi Terry, "Cotton" Eagan, Emery Glass and A. B. Taylor were working on "My Home Town" speeches, and that selection of a student to represent this city in "My Home Town" speech contest at the annual meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, would be made in the near future.

W. J. (Bill) Chesher was nominated a director of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the coming year to succeed Dr. Woods, whose term expires shortly.

Oil Mill Discussed J. A. Nichols, ginner of Bula, was a visitor at the meeting. He addressed the gathering and suggested the possibility of financing with local capital the establishment of an oil mill in Littlefield; and it was decided to take up Mr. Nichols' suggestions, and investigate more fully the proposition outlined, and make a further report at next week's meeting.
