Appeal For Additional Scrap From Farms Is Made By County Agent

By V. F. JONES
County Agent

There were 669,000 pounds of scrap iron turned in from the farms and ranches of Lamb County during the month of August, according to V. F. Jones, Chairman of Lamb County Salvage Committee.

Mr. Jones states that the committee is well pleased with the way the farmers have responded and the amount of scrap they have brought in. He says that the job is not nearly so hard as each person should think it is. Many of the farms have been thoroughly cleaned up and scrap while there are many farms that have not been touched. Farmers are urged to gather up all scrap material, even the small pieces and turn them in. This scrap is needed and needed badly. It is a war of materials as well as a war of manpower, and one of the big items we face right now is shortage of materials—scrap iron. You do something about this, it is your job and responsibility of every man to do his part to see that scrap iron which is needed so much is gathered up and turned in for the production of war machines. Ask all of you—everybody in Lamb County to help get this scrap

The scrap was collected from the following communities as follows:

Arbuckle	130,000 pounds.
Spring Lake	50,000 pounds.
Arbuckle	110,000 pounds.
Littlefield	278,000 pounds.
Arbuckle	12,000 pounds.
Arbuckle	43,000 pounds.
Arbuckle	46,000 pounds.
Total	669,000 pounds.

Exercise Control Over Overseas Mail

The War and Navy Departments have exercised control over all transportation of mail overseas. It has been necessary to limit all air mail to not over 2 ounces. No packages will be received for air mail except official packages. Military necessity may later require the use of only V-mail, and official mail will be transported by air mail.

Official mail has all preference, and has second choice, and other mail if space is available.

Red Cross Enrollment Campaign Nov. 1 to 15

According to a statement by Mrs. H. Carl, county chairman of the Red Cross, the 1942 enrollment campaign will be held throughout the nation, November 1 to 15, an effort is being made to give every school child in Lamb County opportunity to become a member and do his part through this campaign in the national emergency. Membership campaign will be held in local public schools.

This year's Junior Red Cross program will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the founding of the American Junior Red Cross.

Lamb County was completely organized for Junior Red Cross activities last year and turned in one of the most complete reports of all counties in the State of Texas.

Mrs. Carl and her assistants are anxious that last year's success may be exceeded this year.

Luncheon Served To 62 Members And 28 Guests Saturday

Lloyd Croslin, Former Secy. To Cong. Mahon Is Guest Speaker

What farmers and stockmen can do to help in the winning of the war was one of the topics discussed at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Littlefield National Farm Loan Association of Littlefield, at the Methodist Church last Saturday, Sept. 5.

Luncheon was served by the Methodist Ladies to 63 members and 28 visitors and guests, which was enjoyed by all present.

The secretary-treasurer emphasized that the Land Bank system which served so well during the depression by staying with borrowers is now urging that all borrowers use today's income to put all obligations into current position and build up reserves, through the plan which has been provided to create a reserve to meet future installments, these reserve accumulations bearing the same rate of interest as the loan. This is a real help to the family that is trying to pay its home and business out of debt and the Nation's leaders have asked that all contribute to the Nation's strength by cutting down debts.

Following the luncheon, J. M. Blessing, president of the association, opened the business session, and program of speaking. He then turned the meeting over to C. O. Stone, secretary-treasurer, who presided.

Lloyd Croslin, attorney of Lubbock, who was for a number of years secretary to Congressman George Mahon at Washington, D. C., was the guest speaker for the occasion. He paid a beautiful tribute to Congressman Mahon for the manner in which he has and is representing the people of his district, and in carrying on the duties of his office during this time of emergency. ## GIRLS ARE PRETTY IN LAND 'DOWN UNDER'-VERY PRETTY

Young ladies sure are pretty in the land "down under!"

And it wouldn't surprise us a bit if Pvt. Billie Qualls feels that he would like to stop in Australia for the duration.

Pvt. Qualls, 18, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Qualls, who reside seven miles northwest of Littlefield, recently sent the picture you see here, which was taken in Melbourne, Australia.

The young lady's name is Joan Johnson—nice name—good-looking girl!

Pvt. Qualls mailed a V-letter to his parents August 17, which they received a few days ago. He stated that he had been in a hospital 68 days, and would remain there another month, but did not disclose the cause of his injuries or illness. He landed in Australia sometime in March, and he and his cousin, Pvt. R. W. Stanfield, Jr., were together when they wrote the editor of the paper in April, "It's Mutton and potatoes for dinner; it's potatoes and mutton for supper, down Aussie way with U. S. Troops."

In the letter to his parents, Bill said he had not seen R. W. "Dub" in three months, and believed that he was seeing some action. "Dub's" parents live near Fieldton.

Bill wrote that he had been moved from Melbourne, but did not say where he was.

Miss Johnson wrote to his parents recently, asking them to write

of the Land

to her, and she would get letters through to Bill quicker than he would receive them addressed direct to him.

She will be coming to Texas... once this war is over. She wrote, "I have heard from Bill that America is coming home." (Continued On Back Page)

Scrap Iron Must Be Sold! (An Editorial)

Many persons were shocked, no doubt, at the statement that unless more scrap iron is available it will be necessary to turn out the fires under some of the furnaces which are converting scrap into materials for the manufacture of requirements of war... tanks... planes... ships.

There is scrap iron which has never been gathered and delivered for sale to the depots which are assembling this material.

Deliberately or unthinkingly, those who fail to dispose of scrap iron are depriving our men in uniform... our Nation... of the tools with which to drive back enemies who would destroy and enslave us.

We are reliably informed that there is scrap iron in Lamb County which has never been offered for sale.

And we are reliably informed that unless such scrap is voluntarily offered for sale that government action will be taken to obtain this material.

President Roosevelt, in a radio address Monday night, declared that "we are not doing enough" in the war effort.

Our President intimately knows the needs at this time for the successful conduct of the war.

And we do not hesitate to add that those who willfully or unthinkingly fail to make available scrap iron for the requirements of war are denying guns to the men in uniform who are fighting to protect these United States... every man, woman and child of this Nation.

Think it over... but act quickly!

Lease Promised On Air Port Site

Important steps are underway toward bringing about a government designated air port for Littlefield.

With such a property, Littlefield stands a chance of obtaining a flying school, or glider school.

Negotiations were launched recently to lease a labor of the Dugan land south of the golf course (Continued on Back Page)

Service Clubs Stage Inter-City Meeting

Over a hundred members and their wives attended the Inter-City meeting of the Rotary and Lions Clubs of Littlefield and Sudan at the First Methodist Church here Thursday evening.

The meeting was designated as Ladies' Night, and Rotarians and members of the Lyons Club had their wives as guests.

Goodwill and international brotherhood were the objectives of the inter-city meeting. A special program of "Sense and Nonsense," chiefly music, was presented by the versatile E. H. Findley, director of the band of Sudan High School, which was pleasingly and enthusiastically received by the group.

Supt. F. A. Hemphill, president of the local Rotary Club, was toastmaster. Reed Markham, manager of the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co., and a Rotarian of Sudan, offered the invocation. Singing was

Lamb County Quota 10,000 Bandages And Dressings Per Month

Mrs. Lyle Brandon of Sunnydale, County Chairman of the Red Cross Surgical Dressings Preparation program, announced Tuesday that the John Blair building, located opposite the Batton Hotel in Littlefield, has been secured for the installation of the Lamb County Surgical Dressing project.

Mrs. Brandon also stated that materials should arrive in sufficient time to start the work within two weeks.

Mrs. I. E. Holt of Olton is assistant to Mrs. Brandon in the program.

The County organization plan calls for the appointment of Community chairmen by Mrs. Brandon. These chairmen in turn will bring workers from their respective communities to Littlefield on certain days of the week to work in this laboratory.

Mrs. Brandon has issued a call for workers to report to her their willingness to work as soon as possible.

The County Chairman also stated that the Lamb County quota is expected to reach 10,000 bandages and dressings per month.

She also announced that workers will be required to wear washable clothing, use no nail polish; that hair must be "done up, and head covered"; also that they must be free from any contagious or skin disease.

Finances for this program are limited, and any financial donations that citizens wish to make are much needed and urged.

The plan is to install the county program in Littlefield, and as soon as workers from the communities have been trained, similar work programs will be set up in those areas.

The Red Cross are now providing 80 per cent of the surgical bandages and dressings being used by the armed forces.

Freight Train Is Derailed Monday

The East and westbound passenger train Nos. 91 and 92, over the Sant Fe railroad, were again traveling through Littlefield Tuesday after a stoppage of train service following the derailment of 17 freight cars due to the rails giving way about three miles west of Lubbock about 3 o'clock Monday morning.

The track was repaired and trains passing over this track again by 3 a. m. Tuesday. The damage in the track was occasioned by heavy rains, which caused the rails (Continued On Back Page)

Road To Victory!

OUR VALLEYS OF DECISION

By Louis Bromfield

"This is a new kind of war, a war for which we have as yet been unable even to find a name. It marks a turning point in world history, the most enveloping and decisive turning point there has ever been, because for the first time in the world's history the entire world is involved and because the decision involves the whole future of civilization.

"The future of civilization is a vague and tremendous and oratorical phrase. Interpreted and broken down, it means the freedom of yourself and myself, whether we shall be allowed to live in a decent fashion, enjoying liberty and prosperity and human dignity, involving the future of the very house we live in, the happiness and well-being of our children, the opportunities of young people and all the comfort and security of the old. It affects how we shall worship God, and how and whether we can live in decency with our neighbors. We can help, all of us, by fighting, by working, by keeping our courage high. We can help too, enormously, by lending to ourselves the money which is necessary to win this war, by testifying to our confidence in our own country, our own battle. War Bonds and War Stamps are weapons exactly as tanks and guns are weapons. Buy now, not tomorrow or next day, but now—to save what God gave us and what we have fought for since our country became a Nation—BUY WAR BONDS."

WAR—POLITICS—AND TIME

Below is a reprint from the editorial columns of the New York World Telegram, which we found to be one of the most timely and powerful statements we have yet read, and because we believe it expresses with extraordinary eloquence views that are common to millions of Americans today, we are passing it on to the readers of this newspaper:

"We obtained permission from the author to republish below a letter to a Congressman. We think it eloquently speaks volumes in this perilous period, when time is so tragically precious and when so many vital things to be done are being left undone because they are being put off 'until after election.' The letter:

"This letter is democracy at work. This letter represents what we are fighting for. This letter is the first I have ever written to you or to any government official.

"For years I have sat back and watched selfish little individuals and pressure groups write, telegraph or travel to Washington to ask for favors.

"For years I have wanted to write or to ask you for just one favor—good, honest government for me and for all the people.

"But I wondered what my one lone letter—just like my one lone vote—could do. So I didn't write. I didn't ask.

"Now at long last I am stirred up—the cause is so vital that I am writing my first letter—asking my first favor. It is this:

"You don't realize how much more willing I am to make sacrifices to win this war than you think I am, and that goes for millions of Americans like me who have yet to write their first letter. You underestimate us.

"So get us straight.
"Vote that $6,000,000,000 tax bill that doubles my income tax.

"Withhold 5 per cent—10 per cent—of my savings next year.

"Make War Savings Bonds compulsory. (I am already investing 11 per cent of my salary.)

"Put a ceiling on wages and all prices.

"Ration my gas—take my spare tire—take my car if you need it.

"Ration my food—my clothes—my fuel. My great-grandfather got along on what I waste.

"Help Leon Henderson—he's got hold of a tiger by the tail. Help him hold it or it will eat us all.

"For once in your life, forget the folks back home. Vote a clear, firm 'Yes' if it will win the war. Let that be your only test.

"Do this and you won't have to worry about re-election for the duration.

"This letter is democracy at work—a private citizen with no ax to grind—telling you not how to vote, but telling you how he feels so that you may know better how to represent him.

"This letter is from a plain citizen with two children, a mother, a job and a home, and a long-neglected right to express the way he'd like to be governed.

"There are 10,000,000 like me in the United States. We will decide the election this fall. Don't underestimate us. You vote as courageously as we are willing to sacrifice and nothing in this world can stop us.

"With utter sincerity,

Anton Salvage Campaign Success

The Salvage Campaign is reported a tremendous success in Anton. The American Legion Post took the campaign in hand there and left no stone unturned looking for a piece of scrap metal under it. Commander Hooper estimated that at least 35 tons of the death-dealing material had been gathered by the Legion Post alone. If there is any old waste metal around your place, it is not too late, bring it in—your government needs it. The patriotic thing to do is to "Slap The Jap with Your Scrap."

Your Car Has Enlisted!

Your car is just as important in winning the war as battleships and tanks. That is why we are urging you to let us help keep it in smooth operating condition at economical cost.

Must File Ceiling Prices By Sept. 10

Filling stations, laundries, shoe repair shops, dry cleaners, and all others who render services either to consumers, wholesalers, or manufacturers, were reminded today by C. O. Griffin, chairman of Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board, that they are required by OPA regulations to file their ceiling price lists with the Local County Board before midnight of September 10.

"Anyone affected by this regulation," Mr. Griffin said, "is invited to come by the office of the County Board and obtain a sample copy showing how these statements should be filed. Every consumer business, like every other business, has been mobilized on the front line of this war against inflation," Mr. Griffin said.

"The government and our friends and neighbors need to cooperate to make price control effective. It will help all of us to maintain the security of our businesses and our homes. We are counting on every supplier of services to do his part." Mr. Griffin pointed out four things which suppliers of services must do:

1. Find out the ceiling price for every service supplied, why this was the price charged to each class of customer during March, 1942, and if the service was not actually supplied but was offered, the offering price now becomes the selling price.

2. Keep all existing records showing any of the prices charged during March, 1942. If a supplier of services used a price list in March, he must save it as proof of his March price. Also he should be sure not to destroy or lose any receipts, books, duplicate sales slips, or other printed matter showing his March prices. His records should be kept where they can be examined by a representative of OPA.

3. Prepare a statement by September 1, 1942, and file a copy of this with the Local County War Price and Rationing Board by midnight of September 10.

"These statements in general must contain an adequate description of the services a firm supplied or offered in March, 1942," Mr. Griffin said, "and the highest March prices charged for these services."

4. The fourth requirement mentioned by Mr. Griffin is that the service supplier should now make sales slips and records as required by the regulation.

"Such a sales slip might be a laundry list or a bill showing the price charged for each item. It might be the cash register ticket that is rendered when the service supplier makes a sale. It might be a receipt or a receipted bill for the money paid for the service. Regardless of the kind of sales slips or receipts that might have been given in the past, the service supplier must now give any customer who asks for it, a sales slip showing the date, the name and business address of the firm, the service and the price charged."

390 PUPILS ENROLL AT AMHERST SCHOOL

A total of 390 pupils were enrolled last week for the beginning of the 1942-43 Amherst school term.

According to an announcement by superintendent Lester Egan, 133 of this number were high school pupils, the remaining 257 being members of the grade school.

Forty-four children started in the first grade and they will be given a kindergarten achievement test in order to determine the proper room for them to be placed in.

Service Businesses Must File Ceiling Prices With War Price, Rationing Board

All service business in Lamb County were advised this week by C. O. Griffin, chairman of the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board, that pamphlets explaining the ceiling on service prices and the filing of price lists on these services are now available.

These pamphlets may be obtained at the office of the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board at the City Hall in Littlefield.

"Every owner of a service business such as a garage, laundry, dry cleaning establishment, various repair and rental services and agricultural services such as bagging and ginning should know his responsibilities under the law and live up to them," Mr. Griffin advised.

"The pamphlets we now have contain a digest of the law, written as a guide, and examples of how a service business must prepare and file its report by September 10, with the local War Price and Rationing Board. There is also a list of the services covered by this regulation."

Effective July 1, the price ceiling regulation on these services limited such service businesses to the highest price charged in March, 1942. All records showing prices charged in March must be kept. Whether receipts were given or not in the past, this is now required if a customer demands it.

Moreover, the service business must keep in its store a statement showing the highest prices charged for services supplied during last March, a description of each of these services, the pricing method used, and all allowances, discounts and other price differentials the service business was in the habit of giving during last March. This statement must be shown to any person who asks to see it during ordinary business hours.

"A copy of this statement must be filed with the local War Price and Rationing Board by September 10," Mr. Griffin explained, "and if a new business is opened offering a service, it must prepare such a statement within 10 days after starting business and file it within 20 days after it starts operations."

The services covered range from automobile repairs, servicing and storage to the repairs of bicycles, boats, cameras, vacuum cleaners, gas appliances, typewriters, farm equipment and furs to window washing, tool sharpening, hat blocking,

C. J. Duggan On Defense Project At Whittier, Alaska

C. J. Duggan, one of Littlefield's oldest pioneers, who has a host of friends in this section, is now employed on a defense project at Whittier, Alaska, according to a postal card received by this newspaper Monday. The publisher was indeed proud to receive a message from Mr. Duggan, and believing it will be of interest to his friends here, it is published below:

"Whittier, Alaska, 8-12-42 (One of the prettiest spots on earth even if it is not on the MAPS as yet)

"My Dear Friends:

"Doubtless you will be surprised to hear from me off up here, but I am here just the same. Lamb County's quota of defense workers is 3 as far as I know, one being Fred Schreier of Olton oldtimers, who is at Sitka at present but who I hope to get over here soon, and the other is George (Andy) Roberts whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. B. Roberts of Oklahoma Avenue and I who are holding our own with these 'savages' up here who have never been to Texas but think it a terrible place.

"I wish I could tell you a lot of things that I can't because of the censorship, but suffice it to say that big things are taking place right here and when the war is over, Whittier is to be the — or present — instead of Seward, the present —. You may send me copy of paper if you care to as we have not seen a newspaper of any kind in weeks, and no war news. Thanks and best wishes, ever, and I think of you and other Littlefield friends often.

"Sincerely,
"C. J. DUGGAN."

Mrs. Leon Stansell Returns After Visit With Husband In Navy

Mrs. Leon Stansell returned Saturday after spending two weeks with her husband, Leon Stansell who is stationed at Davisville, Rhode Island, in the Naval Construction Battalion. She also visited her brother-in-law, Pvt. Dick Stansell, who is stationed at Camp Edwards, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Stansell reported a wonderful time. All the country being new to her, she experienced many things which seemed very strange. One of the things she noticed specially was the difference in the people's speech. Cars are always referred to as "the automobile" or "vehicle." Instead of saying "come in" they say "come in the house" or wherever it may be; and says Mrs. Stansell, "they don't say 'Youall!'"

Mrs. Stansell has been employed as receptionist at the Littlefield Hospital for three years, and was very glad to get back to her work. Miss Lodema Garnett acted as receptionist during the absence of Mrs. Stansell.

Large Use Of Farm Machinery In Cooperative Arrangement

With American farmers being urged on to produce more and more and less, the need for cooperation and sharing the use of various kinds of farm machinery is resulting in the organization of farmer cooperatives in Lamb County, in the opinion of Pegues Houston, rural rehabilitation supervisor for the Farm Security Administration.

During wartime farm production, it's patriotic to have idle machines sit to have idle men, and Lamb County farmers are expected to do something about it, Mr. Houston believes.

The Farm Security Administration reports, is anxious to assist farmers in this county in organizing cooperatives and will, in many cases finance the group purchase for group use of scarce farm machinery and equipment.

Such groups are small and would consist, in most instances, of neighbors forming a cooperative arrangement between each other, the supervisor explained. The arrangements are simple, he said, the participation agreement forms may be obtained, with complete information at the Farm Security office by anyone interested. The agreement may constitute the bases of understanding between all participants, covering rental and/or service charges, kinds of records to be kept, schedule of use, and so forth.

Mr. Houston recalled a recent address by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard in which he urged farmers to "Unite for Victory." "It is not a question of when we win the war," said Mr. Wickard, "it is a question of if we win the war."

Continuing the secretary said, "American farmers are working the longest hours of any group in the country and this year's production of crops and livestock shows where farmers stand. Despite limitations of labor and machinery, farmers are smashing all records—not only for total production, but in the particular products that are needed most for winning the war."

Mr. Houston said Farm Security has made a good many loans in this area in former years to help farmers buy machinery on a cooperative basis, "but now with the shortage of machinery, we're a lot more anxious to help farmers with this particular phase of our program than ever before."

Farmers interested in the complete details about cooperative purchase and use of machinery and equipment are urged to contact Mr. Houston at his office in the City Hall at Littlefield.

Croatian Tamburitza Ensemble To Appear At Spring Lake Independent School September 17

The Croatian Tamburitza Ensemble will appear at Spring Lake Independent School on Thursday, September 17, at 3 p. m., according to an announcement by Superintendent H. L. Minor.

The Tamburitza is the oldest string instrument in use by a Christian nation. Devised by Carpathian mountain shepherds more than 15 centuries ago, it consisted originally of no more than two strings stretched along a piece of dry wood. The shepherds called their instrument a "dangubica," meaning the passing of the day. Evidently the dangubica was invented by the shepherds to amuse themselves as they watched their flocks.

Caravans often passed through the foot-hills of the Carpathian mountains on their way to and from the Orient. Perhaps the shepherds heard from them about the lute of Persia, Arabia and Egypt, because the dangubica finally took the shape of this early instrument.

The shepherds migrated farther and farther south and finally the groups or clans became known as Slovenes, Croats, Serbs, Dalmatians, Bosnians, etc. The Croats retained the dangubica as their household instrument. Improvements followed rapidly. One form was called the "bugaria," and another, the "Brac." From the Bugaria and Brac have come all of the present eight members of the Tamburitza family of instruments.

The Balkans, crossroads of East and West, have been influenced by both Oriental and Occidental civilizations. Under Ottoman influence some Slavs adopted Turkish social and religious customs. The Turks had a many stringed instrument called the Tambour. Confusing this instrument with the Dangubica, the latter was given the name Tamburitza, which it retains to this day. This explains, too, why Oriental themes, like gypsy airs, so often are inextricably woven into Slav compositions.

In Jugo-Slavia it is the custom for families to assemble and furnish their own music and entertainment. For many years Charles Elias, Sr., and his family played together the music they so dearly loved. Later this family migrated to America. Here their music was found to be so beautiful and novel and their long years of playing together had produced such perfection of ensemble playing, that they were persuaded to enter the professional field.

The company includes Charles Elias, Jr., director; and Martha and Anne Elias. All are accomplished musicians on the tamburitza as well as other well known instruments, and are graduates of music colleges.

The program includes, besides the Jugo-Slav numbers, selections from well known composers. There are also the latest popular airs which are played with verve and zest. Folk Songs sung to orchestral accompaniment, vocal duets and solos, descriptive numbers and quaint dances from Croatia are unusual and favorite features. Clad in their native costumes, these spirited musicians form a striking picture and present a program of notable charm. From Maine to Florida, New York to California, New Brunswick, Canada, to British Columbia, audiences have acclaimed this program an outstanding one. They were a hit in the South and Southwest the summer of 1942, appearing in such schools as the University of Texas, University of Tennessee, University of Arkansas, etc.

Shipment Of Books Made Thursday Last

According to Mrs. E. A. Bills, director for Victory Book Campaign of Lamb County, a shipment of books was sent to the Armed Forces at Sheppard Field Air Base, Wichita Falls, Thursday.

This shipment included text books and fiction.

The Dalby Freight Line, according to Mrs. Bills, were kind enough to deliver the shipment by truck free of charge, as they formerly did.

Mrs. Bills has announced that she has been notified not to ship any more magazines, but that books are needed. She has asked this newspaper to state that anyone having books to donate to please take them to the Littlefield Library at the City Hall. She explained, however, that the books should be in good condition.

SUFFERS FRACTURE OF COLLARBONE

Emmett Franz, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Franz, was unfortunate enough to fracture his collar bone Tuesday of last week when playing football at the school. Buddy Boles accompanied him to the Payne-Shotwell Hospital, where his shoulder was strapped up. He returned to school Friday, but will be obliged to keep the strapping on his shoulder for four or five weeks.

President Demands Laws For Control of Farm Products Prices

President Roosevelt, in a message to Congress Monday, demanded legislation by October 1 to bring farm products under control.

Mr. Roosevelt said that date is the latest Congress acts by that date to act himself, he said.

He reiterated this statement in a radio address to the Nation Monday night that immediate action was necessary to avoid a "serious economic crisis," and that he would wait for two or three or six months it may be too late.

When farm prices stabilized, he would act to stabilize wages and salaries.

President Roosevelt, in his radio address, described his message to Congress and repeated his demand that farm price ceilings be removed. He said that the present farm price ceilings, which forbid farm price ceilings, are not 110 per cent of parity, but 116 per cent of parity, he contended.

He explained, "means that the farmer and the city worker on the same relative ratio as other in purchasing power they were during a period of years ago—at a time when the farmer had a satisfactory purchasing power."

In his message to Congress, he said that farm price ceilings are at parity, or the price of some recent date, which is higher. He proposed, too, a law for farm prices which would prevent a disastrous post-war drop in quotations.

Mr. Roosevelt stressed both messages and speech control of the inflationary process can be obtained only by controlling all the factors influencing farm and farm prices remained stabilized. Time after time he has stressed the independence of the two experience with the control of prices during the past few years has brought out one important fact—the rising cost of living is being controlled, providing all the cost of living is controlled at the same time.

Now know that parity prices for farm products not only will not pull up the cost of living more than a very small amount but that if we must go up an average of 116 per cent of parity for food and farm products is necessary at present emergency price control we can control all farm products—the cost of living will get of hand.

are face to face with this today. Let us meet it and it.

The vicious economic spiral is under way, the whole economic system will stagger. Prices will go up so rapidly that the entire production program is endangered. The cost of the food by taxpayers, will jump all present calculations."

Stabilization of prices, wages and profits is necessary to the continued increasing of planes and tanks and guns, President Roosevelt

Washington Reaction
Washington, influential Democrats and Republicans appeared that overall controls of the economic machinery were with many contending that as well as farm prices should be controlled by legislation.

State members rallied to that if ceilings were to be put on the prices of agricultural products at parity levels, parity for all crops should be guaranteed to the farmers by the government.

Weeks-Bagwell Gin
The Weeks-Bagwell Gin, located west of Littlefield on Highway 1, is ready for the ginning season, W. O. Weeks, manager, announced this

The gin has been completely overhauled and reconditioned, and the rollers and ribs have been replaced. Employees of the gin have been given new press, and a new building was installed last year.

Should plan now to build barns to take care of the cotton this fall. Materials are available. Cicero-Smith Lumber Company.

Adjustment Made In Time Schedule Of Littlefield School

Four Teachers Elected At Board Meeting Held Last Monday Evening

An adjustment in the time schedule in the local public schools will be effective next Monday morning, September 14. The opening time will be moved up from 9:00 a. m. to 9:40 a. m. with the morning session running through to 12:10 and the afternoon session beginning at 1:10. Schools will be dismissed on the new schedule in the afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

This schedule will apply in general to all buildings; but variations in dismissal, according to grades, will be arranged for primary school students. First grade pupils will be dismissed at 3:50 p. m.; second grade pupils will be dismissed at 4:05; third grade students will be dismissed at 4:05, and fourth grade students will be dismissed at 4:20.

As is generally understood, changes in the time schedule of the schools are necessitated at this time to keep a balance between emergency war time and the daily decrease in the length of daylight time. Said Mr. Hemphill, local Superintendent of schools, "It is naturally expected that the necessity of making adjustments in the time schedule will bring some inconvenience to homes in the rural and town sections." Mr. Hemphill further expressed hope that all parents and children would see the necessity of changes in time schedules and willingly cooperate.

At the regular meeting of the school board, Monday evening, Miss Margaret Ross of Spur was elected to fill the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Miss Myrtle Woodfin in the primary grades. Miss Elizabeth Dumas, Brownfield, Mrs. A. Y. Doherty, Littlefield, and Miss Dora Jo Covington, Littlefield, were appointed to serve for the time being in the vacancies created by the resignations of Mrs. Herman Couser and Miss Bernice Grundy in the grades and to fill an arithmetic vacancy which has existed for some time in the middle grades.

The board of education also approved a letter to parents of bus students explaining the necessity of holding up the busses in bad weather. In part, the letter regarding transportation sent to parents, is as follows:

"During last school year, school busses were not permitted to run their routes on five days because of heavy rains and weather which made bus runs seem unwise. On two of these days last year the entire school was dismissed, leaving only three days of the five when schools were open to students who could get themselves here. This year, already it has seemed necessary to hold the busses up three days because of rains. Some parents have naturally felt that on some of these occasions, the busses should be allowed to run, or that the entire school should be dismissed if the busses do not make their routes.

"In answer, then, to the above opinions, the following reasons are stated from a viewpoint of all the factors and conditions involved throughout the whole district on such bad days:

"In the first place, the entire school is dismissed and no school day is counted when school authorities know that the busses will not run in time to dismiss teachers and all pupils. When, however, we do not know until the morning after a night's rain that the busses will not run on that day, there is no way to properly dismiss school for that same day. School authorities wish, however, at this time to assure you that every time possible, that busses do not run, the schools will all be dismissed.

"Busses are held up from time to time in very bad or rainy weather because experience in trying to run them on bad days has proven it quite unwise to send them out on these days. It proves unwise because many of the busses get stuck and are unable to complete their runs and because other busses come in quite late with only half a load of pupils; and many times are unable to get the children home again in the afternoon. There is also much evidence that trying to run the busses on these bad days, is so very hard on the busses, that in later years children will miss more days because of busses being in bad shape than they will miss by our holding up on bad days to save the vehicles for other years.

"Indeed we appreciate parents who sincerely want their children in school; we, too, are very anxious to have them here, but we firmly believe that our decisions regarding transportation on bad days are in favor of your children's welfare in the long run.

"Whenever students must be absent because the bus does not call for them, teachers will surely give these children special help upon their return to school.

"It should be remembered that while it may not rain much in one direction from town there may have been heavy rains in three other directions and that these heavy rains in other directions necessitate holding up all busses because it is impossible to know which way busses may successfully or unsuccessfully run on any given day of bad weather."

School Buses Not Eligible For Tires If Transport Football Teams To Games

School buses that carry football teams to games, or transport school bands, debating teams and other such groups on excursions will lose their eligibility for tires, the Lamb County War Price and Rationing Board was advised this week by the Office of Price Administration state headquarters.

"The State OPA office has pointed out that under the tire rationing rules, school buses must be used exclusively to transport teachers and children from their homes to school and back again," C. O. Griffin, chairman of the Local War Price and Rationing Board, explained.

"The rule further makes it plain that school buses used for purposes other than this lose their future eligibility for tires, even though the tires on them now were acquired before rationing was put into effect," he continued.

"Many of us are football fans and we'd like to be able to say that the buses could be used to carry the teams to their games, but we know this must not be done, or we will jeopardize the transportation means of thousands of children who depend on these buses to get to school, especially in rural neighborhoods."

He added that the only alternative for football teams would appear to be the use of private automobiles which are ineligible for tires and retreads anyway, or to resort to public buses and trains.

"That is something for each school to determine," Mr. Griffin added, "after it considers the fact that public transportation already is taxed to the limit with wartime traffic, and the rubber situation is so critical we know we must conserve every ounce of it for essential needs."

Mr. Griffin also pointed out that a school cannot designate one special bus to handle excursions by the football team, band and other such groups, without jeopardizing the tire eligibility of all of that school's buses.

"The rationing rules are strict on that point," he said. "The applicant must establish that the regular school bus cannot be replaced by another vehicle owned or operated by the applicant before it completely establishes eligibility."

How To Get Cotton To Gins Discussed At Lubbock Meeting

How the South Plains and West Texas farmers are going to move one of their largest cotton crops to gins and markets was the topic of the meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the Senior High school, Lubbock, which was held specifically at the call of Mark McGee of Fort Worth, State Director of the Office of Price Administration.

Members of the Lamb County Rationing Board attended, as well as a large number of farmers and ginners from this section.

The purpose of the meeting was two-fold: First, to emphasize anew that automobile tires will be almost unobtainable; and, second, to hear and discuss ideas as to how cotton can be moved to gins either with the few available tires, or by other means of transportation.

The meeting was productive of a great many suggestions, but the consensus seemed to be that the main hope of solving the problem is by neighborly cooperation among the farmers themselves. That such a plan of cooperation does work has been demonstrated in Ellis county, according to Joe Naughton, chairman of the Ellis County War Price and Rationing Board, who was one of the principal speakers.

This pooling arrangement, as described by Naughton, and others, requires cooperation by neighborhoods, by communities, by counties and even by larger areas.

But, in its simplest form, it was described as working something like this:

A few farmers—usually five or six—residing in the same general area get together to try to solve the problem of moving their cotton crops. It seldom will happen that any one or two of them will have enough tires and other equipment to move their crop. But, among five or six, they usually either have all the equipment that is needed or they will be able to obtain it from the limited supplies available.

This sort of plan, as frankly admitted, might mean a great deal of inconvenience and extra work. It might mean additional expense. But, according to speakers, it should move to gins and markets a lot of cotton that otherwise will not be moved.

The explanation continued that each group ordinarily will encounter problems peculiar to itself. But each group usually can work out the details of its own problems—such, for example, as to whether some member of the group will receive pay for serving as driver or for a greater contribution to the group than the others.

What of those who refuse to cooperate in such groups? The best answer to that, as suggested by McGee, Naughton and others, is for rationing board to refuse to approve tires for those who won't cooperate.

Another advantage of the cooperative plan, as pointed out at the meeting, would be that the vehicles used to transport cotton to gins or markets could be used to haul return loads back to the farmers.

Among the many other ideas suggested were these:

1. Attach several cotton-laden trailers behind a single tractor.
2. Switch tires, even wheels, from such other vehicles as family cars, tractors and the like to trailers in which the cotton is hauled.
3. Arrange by groups of farmers with professional truckers to haul the cotton.
4. Investigate the possibility that trucks or wholesale houses might be brought into the cotton hauling picture.
5. If the farmer has friends in the city, see if a worn spare cannot be bought or borrowed there.
6. Make the utmost possible use of trucks and trailers that some gins keep available for that type of hauling.
7. Take fullest advantage of other methods of transportation, such as horse-drawn wagons if any can be "dug up."
8. Investigate the possibility that and fronting on the Levelland highway.

The Duggan interests have agreed to lease this land for a period of five years, and the necessary papers are being prepared by T. Wade Pettey, Littlefield attorney.

With the obtaining of the lease program will be launched about construction of a suitable hanger.

large trucks, like those used to haul cattle, which could carry many bales of cotton in a single load, might be put to use in hauling cotton.

McGee admitted frankly that some of these proposals might infringe existing laws. But, as he said repeatedly, "the big problem is to move the crop that is needed to win the war." He expressed confidence that there will be leniency in the enforcement of laws during the emergency, and that it likely will be possible to obtain official waivers of some of the usual restrictions.

gency. He commented on the bigness of West Texas, and the big heartedness of its people. He emphasized the need for everyone to put forth the greatest possible efforts to produce and conserve food, bring in scrap iron, buy war bonds, have faith in our leaders; and thereby help to win the war.

R. T. Badger, manager of the Yellow House Land Company, spoke briefly on the services rendered by the Federal Land Bank, and the National Farm Loan Association, to the farmers and stockmen.

J. T. Elms, Committeeman of the Farm Security Administration, gave a brief talk relative to the services rendered by the Farm Security administration to the tenant-farmers in their efforts to purchase homes.

V. F. Jones, County Agent of Lamb County, talked briefly relative to the activities of that office. Mr. Jones also mentioned the drive for scrap iron for defense production, and urged the people to bring in every possible piece of scrap iron to help win the war.

J. H. Ware talked on the home service of the Red Cross in connection with the boys in service; also commented on the activities of the Local Draft Board, and urged that everyone cooperate with the Board to the fullest extent.

R. L. King, Vocational Agriculture instructor in the Littlefield High School, addressed the meeting on the activities of his department; with particular reference to the work that is being done by the boys' organization, Future Farmers of America, and the efforts that are being made in production and conservation of farm products.

Pat Boone, prominent rancher and stockman of Littlefield, and chairman of the Lamb County War Bond Committee, made a talk relative to the services rendered the farmers and stockmen by the Federal Land Bank and National Farm Loan Association; and also thanked the people for their response in the purchase of war bonds, urging that all set aside every possible dollar for that purpose.

During the past year many new loans were made to families seeking to protect their homes and business against the uncertain future through long-term low-rate amortized loans on the basis of normal agricultural values rather than temporary sales trends, as report from the Federal Land Bank of Houston showed.

Members elected as directors were: H. L. Woody, re-elected for three years; and E. O. Tunnell, elected for two years to fill out the unexpired term of R. L. May of Amherst.

to give way. This was the second accident suffered on this railroad division the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. James were instantly killed and their daughter, Jo Ann, was critically injured, at 4:55 o'clock Saturday afternoon when their automobile was reported to have been struck by a fast Clovis-bound Santa Fe passenger train at a grade crossing five miles northwest of Lubbock. The tragedy was reported as occurring during a driving rainstorm. James, 40, and his wife, 39, were returning to their farm home four and a half miles north, and one mile east of the crossing after a shopping trip to Lubbock.

Late Tuesday the girl had not regained consciousness.

Her parents' bodies were sent to Farmersville Sunday afternoon where funeral services were held and interment took place Monday.
