'Devil's Squadron' To Be Featured At Palace Theatre

The test pilots, unsung heroes of aviation, are held up for well-deserving pats on the back and recognition of their valorous deeds in a film that is scheduled to open Saturday midnight, continuing through Sunday and Monday at the Palace Theatre.

It is Columbia's roaring drama, 'Devil's Squadron,' and it stars the square-jawed Richard Dix.

Dick Grace, one of the world's foremost aviators, who has come into the limelight for his hazardous stunting and crashing of planes for the movies, wrote the story. Grace, a test pilot himself, is in an ideal position to appreciate the men who are the first to fly new planes, who try them out so that if they have any structural defects the flying daredevils will be the first to come crashing to earth with them.

Test pilots do not take planes up for a gentle, level ride and then land easily. It is necessary for them to put the planes through the most difficult death-defying stunts — tail spins, rolls, power dives, etc. — so that every part of the plane is tested to the utmost.

Featured with Dix in 'Devil's Squadron,' are Karen Morley, Lloyd Nolan, two test pilots, fall in love Henry Mollison, Gene Morgan and Gordon Jones. Most of the players are either licensed or student pilots in real life.

According to the story, Dix and Nolan, two test pilots, fall in love with Miss Morley. Dix, because of an unjust stigma attached to his name and because he refuses to hurt Nolan, superintendent of the airport, who gave Dix his chance to make good again, is unable to tell Miss Morley that he loves her. But close association with death amid flaming planes and strained nerves changes much, and the story goes on from its premise to a dramatic climax.

Large Attendance at Amherst Ice Cream Supper Monday Night

An ice cream supper was given at Amherst Monday night by the Business Club of that city. A booth was erected in the main street. Ice cream and cold drinks were sold and cake was auctioned.

Money raised went to the park improvement fund. Amherst recently created a beautiful park on the main street diagonal from the bank.

A special invitation was sent to candidates to be present at the affair and to meet and talk with the voters of Amherst and section. A large number of candidates were present.

Lee Payne introduced the candidates and auctioned the cakes.

One of the features was the auctioning of a mystery barrel, which brought $15. When the barrel was opened out popped the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Long. The little miss sang 'The Eyes of Texas' and was the recipient of enthusiastic approval.

A number of women are members of the Business Club and they, with other ladies of Amherst, were largely responsible for the big success of Monday night's event.

A Message to the Voters From F. A. LOYD CANDIDATE FOR THE OFFICE OF Sheriff Of Lamb County. STANDING SQUARELY FOR HUMANE LAW ENFORCEMENT. Since I was hired to fill out the unexpired term of the former Sheriff of Lamb County I have found that the duties of that office—along with the countless investigations to be made—occupy practically all of my time—so much so that it has been impossible for me to personally call on as many of the voters as I would have liked. My time is not my time—it is the time belonging to the office of Sheriff and to Lamb County. I have Faithfully, Honestly and Fairly tried to perform my duties without having the policy of this office dictated by any other man or group of men, and at the same time honestly tried to reduce the expenses of the office of Sheriff for the taxpayers of the County. If you like the office of Sheriff to be operated upon that kind of an Honest basis, Then— I Sincerely Ask For Your Vote, and Will Highly Value Your Support. F. A. LOYD

Subscribers who change their addresses, or fail to get their paper, should immediately notify this office, giving both new and old addresses. Communications of local interest are solicited. They should be briefly written, on only one side of the paper, and must reach this office not later than Wednesday noon of each week. The right of revision or rejection is reserved by the publisher.

Advertising that does not show in its text or typography that it is paid for must be marked as an advertisement. All local advertisements remain in this paper for the time specified or until ordered out. All notices, matters not by whom nor for what purpose, if the object is to raise money by admission fee or otherwise, is an advertisement and when sent in for publication must be paid for at the regular advertising rate per line for each issue printed.

Obituaries, cards of thanks, and resolutions of respect will also be charged for at the same rate.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm, or corporation which may appear in the columns of the Lamb County Leader will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the publisher.

In case of errors or omissions in local or other advertisements, the publisher does not hold himself liable for damage further than the amount received by him for such advertisement.

More Money To Spend

It is good news which comes from the Department of Commerce, that the national income of the people of the United States for 1935 was $53,587,000,000. By "national income" the Department means all of the money that was spent by everybody in the United States. It includes wages and salaries, money spent for the purchase of materials for manufacture, and so on down to the last penny paid across the retail grocer's counter.

This figure is not as high as that of 1929, when the total money which changed hands was estimated at over $78,000,000,000; but it is higher than in any of the three preceding years. The year 1933 was the low-water mark, in which only $44,940,000,000 was spent, and in that year a great deal of the money paid out came from previous savings.

There are probably around 50,000,000 persons, men and women, who receive and spend all of the money that is received and spent in the United States. These 50,000,000 carry the other 80,000,000 on their backs. On that basis of calculation, the average cash income of the American family for last year was a little over $1,000 each. The highest it ever reached was a little over $1,500 per family. We never had a total income of as much as $100,000,000,000 in a single year.

Of course, these figures relate only to actual money which changed hands. They do not take into account any of the subsistence which the 6,000,000 farm families got from their own land. If that could be reduced to a cash basis the total and the average income would be considerably increased.

From one point of view this national income of a little over $1,000 a year per person seems very low, but it is practically double the average income of the people of England and of France and nearly three times that of the people of Germany and Italy.

We feel hard up in America simply because we don't handle as much money as we did for a few years, but that feeling of poverty is a matter of standards. At the very depth of the depression the general run of Americans had more comfort and luxury than the average European can ever hope to acquire.

It is good news indeed that we are on our way back toward what we had learned in the 1920's to regard as the American standard of living.

WHEN you allow Headache, Neuralgia, Muscular, Rheumatic, Sciatic or Periodic Pains to keep you from work or pleasure. You can't go places and do things when you are suffering—and the work or good times won't wait for you.

Why allow Pain to rob you of Health, Friends, Happiness, Money?
DR. MILES ANTI-PAIN PILLS have been used for the relief of pain for more than forty years. They taste good, act quickly, do not upset the stomach, nor cause constipation, leave no dull, depressed feeling.

Thousands have used them for twenty, thirty, forty years, and still find that nothing else relieves pain so promptly and effectively.

Why don't you try them? Once you know how pleasant they are to take, how quickly and effectively they relieve, you won't want to go back to disagreeable, slow acting medicines.

How may I find quick relief. Why wait forty minutes for when Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills will relieve you in ten to fifteen minutes?

Visit our store. I have never found anything that equalled Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Mrs. Silas D. Keller, Penfield, Pa. Respondents.

NO. 163
In Equity
All parties having, or claiming to have, any interest in or to any part of the moneys or other property on hand in any of the interest and sinking funds of the City of Littlefield, or to any of the legal or constitutional taxing power of said City, available for the payment of principal and interest on its obligations, or to any of the tax pledges heretofore made by the City of Littlefield, Texas, to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements of the outstanding bonds of said City of Littlefield, Texas, are hereby ordered to appear and file their claims in the above numbered and entitled cause on or before the 1st day of Sept., 1936, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., on pain of being barred from thereafter filing any claim for such interest, if any, in or to any of the taxing power, tax pledges, money or property in the discretion of this Court. Upon final hearing of said cause this Court will ascertain, adjudicate, distribute and allocate the said tax power, tax pledges, moneys and property, among all parties who may be lawfully entitled to any interest therein, and in such proportion and according to such Priorities as to the Court may seem just and equitable, and in the meantime, all persons are warned that any acts or dealings with respect to such matter, and not conforming to equity, will be at their peril.

A copy of this order shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Littlefield, six (6) times, the last of said publications to be at least one week prior to the 10th day of August, 1936, and due return, showing the time and manner of said publication shall be filed with the Clerk of this Court.

A copy of this notice and order may also be published by complainants, at their expense, in any well known financial publication in the United States, and the complainants may send, by registered mail, a copy of the same to any known bondholder or creditor of the City of Littlefield, whose claim may be payable from any interest and sinking fund of the City.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 64th JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS

We have a neighbor who is a candidate for the office of District Judge. In order that those voters who are not acquainted with Judge C. D. Russell may know how his home folks regard him we submit this recommendation and approval of his candidacy, which we are giving without any solicitation on his part. We have signed the business in which we are engaged after our names so that you may be the better able to judge the universality of Judge Russell's supporters, and for the further reason that you may know he has an understanding of the problems that will confront all kinds and classes of people.

Among other qualifications, we believe that the three following are necessary for any candidate to possess before he can properly fill the Judge's Bench:

(1) Personal character and reputation, which includes absolute honesty and integrity, plus the moral courage to decide the questions that will come before such judge, without regard to the expedient or political effects, but solely and wholly on the merits.

(2) Professional ability, which includes learning and experience in all branches of the law; and the further discriminatory ability to apply the law to the facts in such a manner as not to lose sight of the human element always present in any cause.

(3) A judicial temperament. This implies an open mind, and one that is accustomed to a fair and impartial consideration of a question without regard to passion, prejudice, or personal feelings; and having made a decision does not condemn or criticize those who differ with him.

Not all good men, nor all good lawyers will make good judges, because there is not present the proper judicial qualifications.

We know that Judge C. D. Russell possesses all of the above qualifications and we unhesitatingly recommend him to you. On his behalf we ask your influence and support of his candidacy with your friends and neighbors, and your vote for him on election day. We know that you will never have cause to regret such efforts in his behalf.

FIFTH INSTALMENT
SYNOPSIS—Silas Spelle, high-handed, low-principled cattle baron, is out to smash the local band and force foreclosure on the small ranchers of the Kanab desert country so that he can seize their range lands. He is opposed by Ed Spurlock, president of the Cattlemen's Bank, and by San Juan Delevan, prominent rancher who has been crippled by a fall from his horse. Johnny Clehoe and his partner, Tex Whipple and his partner, Johnny Clehoe, are cowpunchers employed by San Juan Delevan to fight the rustlers and protect his interests.

It took Tex a long quarter of an hour to write four telegrams. They were finished finally, however, and paid for. Then Tex went out, took his three jaded mounts to a livery stable, with advice that they were to be fed and cared for until his return. After that he ate a huge breakfast and spent the balance of the time until the train had backed in and made up, dozing on a baggage truck in the sun.

For thirty-two hours Tex rode west and south to the clicking of rail and wheel. It was late afternoon when he swung from the train at Sevier. He had hardly reached the platform before there was a leonine bellow of delight and a huge tawny bearded man caught him by the shoulders, whirled him around and began pumping his hand mightily.

"Tex, yuh old sand hawk—how are yuh? What'cha want? I got yore telegram an' come arunnin'." "Lafe—I need five thousand dollars. Got a chance to buy in fer Johnny an' myself on a regular spread over the sweetest bit of range yuh ever saw. The present owner, name's Delevan, is crippled an' he's fightin' a range grabbin' skunk who bought up all the mortgages on a local bank what went under due to a robbery. This range grabber gets hold of a ten thousand dollar mortgage against Delevan who he wants special to put on the rocks. Delevan told me his story so I'm figgerin' on steppin' in an' takin' up that mortgage for a partnership split. I got five thousand of my own saved up. Been and Crosby and Fortune jogged off around the crest. The better part of an uneventful week passed, and then one day, when out alone, Johnny swung into the upper end of a little park and came upon a rider spurring easily about a group of cattle, apparently studying their condition and numbers. The rider was a stranger to Johnny and instinctively he bristled. He jogged down toward the stranger and reined in warily at a little distance.

"Hello there," he drawled carelessly. "Lookin' fer somethin'?" The stranger faced Johnny coolly. He was a big man, and Johnny didn't like anything about him.

"I asked yuh somethin'," snapped Johnny, nettled by the silence of the other. "Who are yuh and what do yuh want?"

"I'm Silas Spelle," was the even, cold reply. "I'm merely looking of me."

Spelle stiffened and looked Johnny over intently. His surface examination was of a stalwart curly-headed, good looking kid. Good-looking, yes—but not exactly dangerous looking.

"Don't be the fool," growled Spelle. "I'm not interested today." He turned to ride away. The next instant a hissing loop settled over his shoulders and he was dragged backwards from his saddle. Spelle, being a heavy man, hit the ground hard, and for a moment he lay half stunned. By the time he had recovered Johnny had expertly frisked him of weapons and was back on his horse, rolling a cigarette.

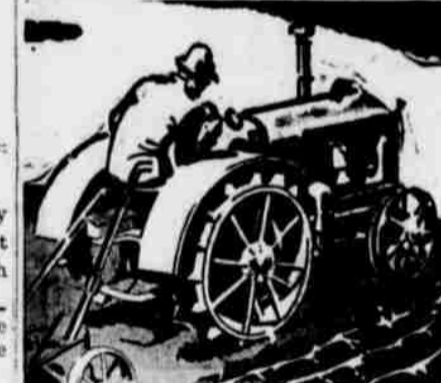

"When yuh're feelin' up to it yuh can fork yore hoss again an' we'll amble in an' see ole San Juan," suggested Johnny mildly.

Spelle cursed venomously. Johnny listened patiently to the tirade, calmly smoking until the cigarette was reduced to a butt. This he crumpled in his palm, tossed away, then reached for his rope once more.

"All right," he snapped, the levity wiped from his face. "I give yuh a chance to ride in like a man. But yuh ain't no man. Yore a stubborn damn fool. When I runs into that waitin' for a chance like this to get Johnny started on somethin' worth while. If you can see fit to let me have the money on a personal note Lafe, I'd shore be obliged."

Lafe Stillman's answer was to draw a checkbook from his pocket and twist the end off an old fashioned fountain pen.

"Five thousand be enough, Tex," asked Lafe. "If yuh want more jest say so."

"Five's plenty, Lafe, an' shore I'm thankin' yuh. We'll go round an' see a lawyer an' have him fix it up legal."

"Like hell we will," growled Lafe. "Yore word's plenty for me. An' lemme tell yuh somethin'. If I hear yuh're scrimpin' an' scratchin' so's to be able to pay that back, I'll be damned if I'll take it. Savvy?"

During Tex's absence Johnny found plenty to keep him busy. Early on the same morning that Tex left Delevan called Johnny and Pink Crosby and Pod Fortune to the ranchhouse and announced that Johnny was now foreman of the Box D. Johnny having already talked the thing over with Tex, knew what was coming, but the other two were somewhat surprised, in view of Johnny's tender years. However, neither of them had ever aspired to the job, so were perfectly content to see Johnny get it.

Pink Crosby was a bright-eyed cheery young fellow with clean features and a peaches and cream complexion. Pod Fortune was hulking and slow going, with a booming voice and a laugh which made the walls of the bunkhouse creak. Both were honest and faithful.

Delevan held Johnny after the other two had departed.

"Son," he said. "Seem' as this partnership is comin' up we'll want a few tallies to know where we stand, mebbe. So I'd suggest yuh take the boys an' comb the plateau, particularly the northeast side an' make a count of the cattle yuh find hollin' up out in the meadows. The wildest critters generally hunt that range. It's good range, too, but more or less deserted."

Johnny nodded and went away to the corrals. A half hour later he over what will shortly be mine."

"Oh—yeah?" said Johnny, openly skeptical. "Well, shore now that sounds pretty thin. Suppose yuh amble on over to the Box D ranch, house an' tell that same story to ole San Juan Delevan. He oughta be plumb interested."

"Doubtless. Only I don't care to talk to him today. My time to talk will be a little later. Then I'll see him."

"Naw," said Johnny. "Caint let yuh get away today without seein' him. Yuh better amble along ahead

SPADE SCHOOLS ELECT NEW TEACHERS

At a call meeting of the Spade School Board, Saturday night, July 18, two additional teachers were employed, Miss Cleone Martin of Lubbock (A.B., Texas Tech) was employed as teacher of the first grade. Miss Margaret Roebuck of Olton, (B.S., Texas State Teachers College) was selected as teacher of the third grade. Miss Roebuck will also have charge of the senior high school girls in major activities, taking the place of Miss Opal Montgomery, who recently resigned that responsibility.

The school also set the date of opening as Monday, August 17. It is traditional in the district that the school begin early so that there may be an interval for crop gathering in the fall without the necessity of holding the school over late the next summer to finish the nine months term. This practice shows a due consideration of the trustees for the community, as almost every patron is benefitted by the crop dismissal.

SPADE TO HAVE HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

The Spade School Board, at a recent meeting, approved plans for the installation of home economics in the high school and for further modernizing the entire school curriculum in courses and in methods.

The grammar school years will consist of only four courses each; namely, language arts, manual arts, applied sciences, perceptive reading. Each of these branches of study will cover a number of the old traditional courses, overlapping in some cases where interest leads and repetition seems profitable. Each will be unfolded with the pupils' interest uppermost, and interest will determine the amount of time given each day to any particular recitation. Play and seat work will be stressed and all material will be presented in a more or less activity unit.

Competent teachers have been secured for this work, and one teacher has been assigned to each grade as a centralized unit of the work as a whole. The schools will have in all eleven teachers next year. Two accredited units have been added to the list for the high school, making a total of 17 credits.

The program of study, as outlined by Supt. Jack D. Wester, and approved for the high school by the board of trustees is given in brief summary below:

SUBJECTS OFFERED BY GRADES IN 1936-'37

Eighth grade or freshman year—seventh diploma required.

Required subjects: General mathematics, English one, junior business training. Choose one: Spanish one, general science.

Freshmen will not be permitted to take over four subjects, except that pupils who are taking the 8th grade for the second year and have one-half credit in a subject may finish the unit in which one half was secured and take four additional subjects.

Each pupil will be expected to take at least four subjects.

Ninth grade or sophomore year—three units required.

Required subjects: Algebra III 1/2, Commercial arithmetic (1/2), English II, World history.

Choose one: Home economics, Agriculture*, Spanish two.

Sophomores who elected science as a freshman course should continue with agriculture; those who elected Spanish one should follow with Spanish two in the ninth.

Sophomores with an A rating may take five subjects if they so desire. Other second year pupils will take four except, as outlined for freshmen, in the case of retained pupils who may take four and one-half. Girls may turn from science to home economics.

*Not required in 1936-'37; Gen. Math. II will be taught — Not required.

Looking to vocational agriculture in 1936-'37.

Tenth grade or junior year—Seven units required.

Required subjects: English three and American history.

Choose two: Spanish one, Spanish two, home economics one, commercial geography (1/2), Texas history (1/2), Plane geometry.

Juniors who have not had a foreign language and will elect to do some language in high school should begin Spanish in the third year. Also, juniors who plan to go to college should, if possible, begin to select a course tending toward some major in college.

Third year pupils will be permitted to repeat a full year course extra of the regular four, in order that they may round out twelve credits by the beginning of their senior year. Also, A pupils may take five new subjects, that is, subjects they have not studied before.

The program will be more flexible for upper classmen, beginning with this year.

Eleventh grade or senior year—eleven units required.

Required subjects: English four, civics, (1/2), economics or Texas history (1/2).

Choose two: Spanish two, Book-keeping, home economics. Any other subject offered if it can be had without conflict and if it is needed for graduation. This is only an emergency measure.

Graduates will be expected to have 16 credits of curricula work and at least one extra curricula credit.

Pupils with an A rating will be encouraged to finish with seventeen or more credits. Every effort will be made to help the pupils to choose such courses that they will not find the break between high school and a vocation too pronounced. Seniors will be allowed to take first and second year courses only as a last resort toward graduation.

Each graduate will be expected to have the following credits: English, 4; Algebra, 1 1/2; Commercial arithmetic, 1/2; World history, American history, Civics, and one other half-unit of social science.

Boy Scout News From Troup No. 25

By David Storey, Reporter

Last Friday evening, July 17, 19 boys of both troup of Littlefield with Scoutmasters Eugene Latimar and Bill Street went out to the Yellow House ranch for a week-end camp. Also in company of the troups were A. B. Sanders and Floyd Croffman of the Littlefield hospital.

After swimming and supper the boys were given a lecture by Mr. Sanders on stars, meteors, planets and constellations which was very interesting.

About daylight Saturday morning we were called out by a bugle call and soon were eating breakfast. Mr. Sanders again showed his ability and genius by a demonstration on "hot cake" making over an open fire and really, he is a wonder. Scoutmaster Latimar remained through the day with the troups. There was hiking about 8 or 10 miles out and back to camp for the morning. In the afternoon, after some swimming a baseball game, and after trying to keep cool around camp, we returned home about dark all hot, tired, but very happy.

We thank Joe Blackwell for letting us use his truck.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains? monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just 'dread around' or sluggish and do-lets. My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

RENFRO GROCERS PLAY WOODMEN TONIGHT

GAS HOUSE GANG MEETS P&E TEN

League Chase Quiet Until Poultrymen Tangle With Renfro's Team

The Renfro Bros., Grocersmen, still claimants to the first position although they are not faring as safely as they were a couple of weeks ago, will be wowed tonight by that uncertain aggregation that the Woodmen line up on their scheduled appearances.

There will be an added attraction if the WOW's send their jittery catcher behind the plate. The Woodmen aren't slated to do the unexpected tonight, unless Troy Howton goes on a wild tangent.

That dynamic Gas House Gang, less spectacular as the St. Louis Gas House bunch but just as uncertain as to what they will be doing next, treats the fans at the local softball field Friday night in another one of those freak ball games which they are so accustomed to playing. The enemy will be the Littlefield Poultry and Egg aggregation piloted by that agile shortstop, A. C. Tremain.

The return of the Gassers' ace hurler, Reverend Luke, who has been out with a sore hand for some weeks, has had remarkable results with the Gassers' sudden winning spurt. They are back in the .500 per cent column once more after seeing every position but first place since the second half opened.

Games next week are of non-importance; but the Littlefield P&E and Renfro game next Thursday is

SOFTBALL CHUNKS

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first of a series of Questions and Answers of interpretations of the national softball rules as set aside by the Amateur Softball Association.)

Q—What are the elements of a legal pitch?

A—The pitcher MUST: (Rule 8.) Face the batsman; Have both feet in contact with the rubber;

Start with the ball held in both hands;

Use a full-arm swing; Follow through until the elbow passes the body;

Keep the hand below the hip and the ball within six (6) inches of the body, or leg.

The pitcher MUST NOT:

Start his delivery until he has come to a full stop, with both feet on rubber;

Snap or jerk the arm in delivery; Let the pitching arm swing across the body, either in the delivery or the follow through;

Q—Is a field permitted to block a runner off base.

A—Only when he actually has the ball in his possession. Otherwise it constitutes an interference and entitles the runner to the base. (Rule 25, Sec. 5.)

DEADLINE FOR TOURNEYS EXTENDED

Commissioners Select New Officers For TASA At Ft. Worth

FORT WORTH — District Commissioners met here Sunday at the Worth Hotel, organized the Texas Amateur Softball Association, and furthered plans for the districts and state softball tournament under joint sponsorship of that organization and the Star-Telegram.

Organization heads also extended the deadline for teams filing their entrance into district tournaments until August 10—rather than August 1. At the same time, teams must file their roster of 15 players which cannot be subject to change before or during the tournament.

Prall President Ed Prell, Star-Telegram sports writer, was named president of the Texas Amateur Softball Association and J. D. Richardson, commissioner of the Port Arthur district, was elected vice-president. State Softball Commissioner Harold B. White of Wichita Falls was selected as treasurer, and Leroy Rhodes, commissioner of the Wichita Falls district, was named as secretary.

A SHORT, SHORT STORY OF FOUR MANAGERS

(By Bob Cannon)

A synopsis of why we disagree with this four way managerial staff for the all-star softball teams: Scene: Any night, just before an all-star game. Circumstance: Four managers of two potential softball teams are in a huddle with pen and paper trying to name the night's ten starters from a list of 25 or 30 players.

First and final act:

Manager A: This Jones kid is a swell egg. He hits pretty well and he can field like h—l.

B: He may be a swell guy, but he certainly can't hit a fast pitch; besides, he makes too many costly errors.

C: Nuts! Both of you are wet. Smith doesn't hit much, but he's a heck-of-a-lot better fielder.

D (Frantically): The whole dang bunch of you are crazy. All Smith uses his head for is a balance for his equilibrium; and Jones, he can't move out of his tracks. Now, this fellow Brown is the man for the position. He can do what Smith can't and what Jones doesn't.

A: But that loco Brown can't throw. Just last night he over-threw first to let in the winning run.

C: O.K. Then let's put Jones down, batting second.

D: In Second place . . . He oughta' bat tenth.

A: Why not bat him in the fourth position?

B: H—l, no! I think Smith is the best fielder, and he bats in third place all the time.

Umpire (Calling from a distance) Play ball! You guys gonna' play tonight, or settle that in Judge Sike's court in the morning?

That, customers, is a sample of the four softball managers trying to pick the starting lineup. Four managers of one baseball club is worse than two head coaches of one football team.

Pud Hanks tells us that he has already withdrawn from the foursome, and Bill Pass is threatening. If the two remaining managers can agree which team they are going to manage and get at it, then Littlefield's softball teams will have a much better chance when the tournament starts. This choose-up business is a lot of hokey in trying to organize two separate teams. It's time to select both squads now, so they can start working ut together, rather than changing players every couple innings or so.

Another question that's going to arise pretty soon that will cause plenty of criticism is WHO will comprise the first team and WHO will play on the second team?

The second club will be nothing but a buffer club as the league officials have announced that the first team is to compose the best players of the league. The buffer team, acting as a dark horse, will attempt to eliminate some of the top notchers from the lower bracket before it is beaten out, giving team No. 1 a better shot at the title. Suppose team No. 1 is eliminated and through some misfortune the buffer team wins the tournament. It will be impossible to strengthen team No. 2 with eliminated team No. 1 stars, because tournament eligibility rules forbid such remedies. So what's to be done in selecting team No. 1

Here, There and Everywhere—

The boys up at Amherst are tournament minded . . . They are betting their hats off that the Reds will cop the Lubbock meet and then win their own tournament early in August . . . This department, after seeing the Reds in action for the last seven or eight games, is convinced that the Amherst team is Hambright and Bennett . . . Without either, it's Katy-Bar-The-Door . . . If Amherst should win the tournament, Hambright would have to work at least four or possibly five games within eight days . . . Gaut is a fair hurler, but that's too many games for any man's chunker . . . We favor Wilson or Lubbock . . . The Hubbers don't act like they have much, but when the tournament arrives, Collier will have the woods scored for baseball talent.

The Littlefield high school football schedule is still on the make, but Supt. Sanders announces that besides the usual conference games, Tahoka, Slaton, Lubbock Cowhands and Post, will probably appear on the Wildcats' card . . . Lamesa was sought, but they have an inflated idea of themselves down in that district.

Repairs on the softball field are coming right along . . . A fence will be up in a few days as will bleachers behind the backstop . . . It would be a swell idea if they would build the press a table to keep score on . . . How'sa 'bout it?

EIGHT TEAMS TO ENTER ANNUAL GO

Reds to Rely on Sturdy Arm of Hambright For Title

AMHERST, July 22 — Although they are scouring the bushes for a relief hurler in case Lefty Hambright gets overheated again, the Amherst Reds are tops for the sixth annual Lubbock Avalanche-Journal baseball tournament which starts Sunday in the new Lubbock park.

Collier Parris, erstwhile promoter and sports writer of the Lubbock paper, gives the Reds the 2 to 1 odds to take the title, mainly because of their impressive season.

The Reds have received two setbacks this year out of twelve starts against some of the best clubs in West Texas and against some of the louisiest. Their most spectacular performance was their double victory over the Big Spring Oilers. The Oilers weren't so hot, but it gave the Reds that much more prestige.

The Amherst team has been defeated by the Amarillo Phillips 66 club and the Wilson club. Wilson incidentally, along with Tahoka, is expected to give Manager Rowland a pek of trouble. Lesser authorities around Lubbock contend that Wilson will be the hottest team in the week's show.

All of the Amherst hopes, if any, rest on the stout arm of Lefty Hambright and their able catcher, Bennett. The left hander has chucked the Reds to four consecutive victories, most of which have been through his and Bennett's efforts. Recent games have proved the weakness of the Amherst team against curve ball pitching.

Drawings were held yesterday at Lubbock for places. Anton, Tahoka, Lubbock, Wilson, Amherst and possibly Enochs will be entered in the tournament.

Treatment Here

Lula Mae Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Parker of Anton, underwent an operation for appendicitis the first of last week at the Littlefield hospital. She was dismissed Friday.

Floyd Pinkerton, who underwent an appendicitis operation about a month ago, and who was released but had to return to the hospital, is improved, returning to his home again Thursday.

Virginia Lee Barber, aged about 7, of Littlefield, underwent an operation for removal of her tonsils Monday of last week.

Geraldine and Billie Howard, children of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Howard, of Earth, had their tonsils removed the first of last week, returning home the next day.

Mrs. C. R. Terrell of Sudan was admitted for medical treatment on Monday of last week, and returned home Friday improved.

Mrs. Ernest Gaston of Sudan was operated on for appendicitis on Tuesday of last week, and is getting along nicely.

Henry Stenson, colored, while working at the new oil mill property, suffered a compound fracture of both bones of the lower part of his leg Tuesday of last week. The limb was put in a cast at the local hospital, and he was then sent to the Santa Fe hospital for further treatment.

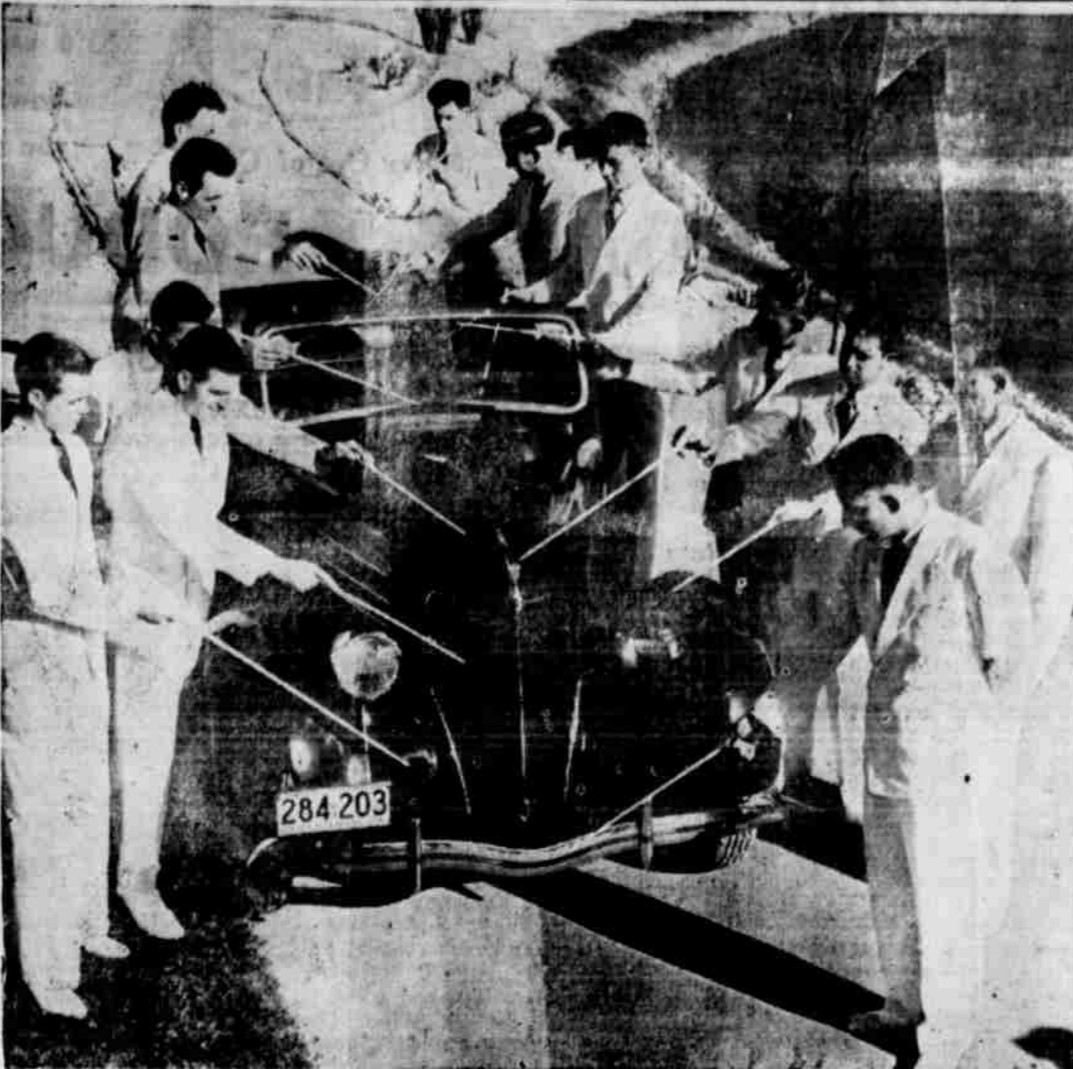

Little Dickie Smith, 13 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith of 3 1/2 miles north of Littlefield was admitted to the hospital Wednesday last week suffering from scalds and shock sustained when he fell into a tub of boiling lye water. He passed away Saturday morning.

Ralph Alexander, Jr., aged 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Alexander, of Kermit, Texas, underwent an operation for removal of his tonsils Friday, returning home Saturday.

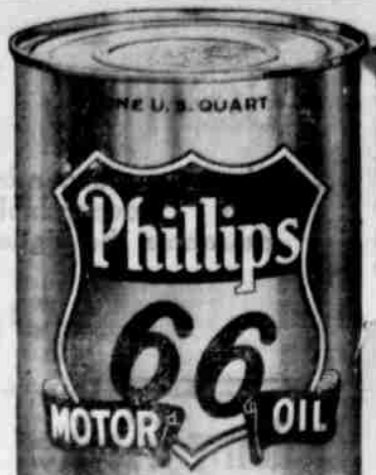

James Howard of Earth had his tonsils taken out Friday, and was released Friday.

Bellomy Pledges Best in Service To Precinct Four

With the exception of the speaking in Littlefield tonight, this will be my last message to the voters of precinct No. 4 previous to Saturday's election.

I have endeavored to see and talk with as many voters as time permitted. If I failed to talk with you I want you to know that, nevertheless, I will appreciate your vote exceedingly, and pledge to you that I will serve our precinct and county to the utmost of my ability.

Permit me to repeat:

"IF I AM ELECTED I WILL DO MY DUTY WITHOUT FEAR OR FAVOR, AND WILL HANDLE THE AFFAIRS OF THE COUNTY AS I WOULD MY OWN."

I pledge to the voters that, if I am elected, I will give all my time and energy to my duties as County Commissioner.

I also pledge that at all times I will be economical in the expenditure of county funds, giving such matters very thorough consideration before taking action.

There is one obligation as a commissioner that I will never lose sight of, and that is this:

In the hands of your commissioner is placed the huge responsibility of handling your money. I have always been careful in the handling of my own money and I will do the same with county money, seeking at all times to get full value received for every expenditure.

I have been a resident of Littlefield since 1925, and a resident of West Texas since 1899. Twenty-five years of my life was spent in the erection of buildings of all kinds and I feel that such a training especially equips me to serve you well as your commissioner.

I am making the race for commissioner strictly on my own merits. If you feel that I am qualified to serve you, I will deeply appreciate your vote at Saturday's election. Your vote and influence will be much appreciated.

If you elect me your commissioner I will not fail to do my duty in any respect.

Sincerely,
J. T. BELLOMY,

Amherst Takes Tough Battle From Hubbers

AMHERST — Besides occasional squabbles over the umpire's numerous bad decisions, the final score, and a continuous flood of booes from the gallery, the Amherst Reds had their most difficult afternoon in sometime last Sunday when the Lubbock Hubbers made them toe the line.

Basing the final score on an eye witness's theory that a runner touched home a fraction of a second before another runner was thrown out by the catcher at second, the final score tallied up, Amherst 4, Lubbock 2. The play was so close that the umpires never made up their minds whether or not the run counted. The fuss over the run didn't necessarily have any bearing on the outcome of the game, but it gave the Amherst fans reason to bellyache and keep up their voluminous amounts of razzing and booes.

Lefty Wins, But is Ailing

Lefty Hambricht was ailing Sunday. Even at that, he managed to eke out his fourth consecutive victory and register his 57th strike-out. The big southpaw was wild and he had much difficulty in trying to break his curves over the corners.

A two-base hit in the third by Holloway, Lubbock shortstop, who was called out at the plate attempting to steal home, caused the first mighty ruckus. The entire Lubbock team foamed and fumed while the Amherst fans got a big kick out of giving them the razz. An error caused the Amherst first run in their half of the third.

Both Hambricht and Doggie Monroe, the Hubber hurler, kept the batters swinging. Monroe, however, weakened in the final frame. The Reds touched him for five hits and three runs.

Capacity Crowd Attends

Another capacity crowd filled the Welch Park and braved the scorching heat.

Dewey Walker got his seventh hit in the last eight times at bat to lead the Amherst attack.

Score by innings:
 LUBBOCK -- 000 100 001--2 8 1
 AMHERST -- 001 001 02x--4 8 0
 Batteries: Monroe and Holloway; Hambricht and Bennett.

Mrs. Dave Hicks Honoree At Bridal Shower Friday

As a courtesy to Mrs. Dave Hicks, Miss Eva Gertrude Chisholm entertained at a miscellaneous bridal shower Friday afternoon at her home on West Third Street. She was ably assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. E. Chisholm, and sister, Miss Louise.

A profusion of beautiful gladiolus and sweet peas adorned the entertaining rooms for the occasion. As guests entered they were favored with soft music, with Miss Myrtle Marion Shaw at the piano. The program also included two songs by Miss Fleeta Eagan, "Sylvia" and "End of a Perfect Day," and a reading by little LaRue Clark, who in a unique way presented the gifts to the bride.

Following the shower of a large array of beautiful and useful gifts, refreshments were served. Favors were corsages of gladiolus and sweet peas.

The guest list included: Mesdames E. H. Timian, Jack Orr, Wm. N. Orr, J. R. Eagan, W. C. Thaxton, B. L. Cogdill, J. T. Elms, Van Clark, G. M. Shaw, C. O. Griffin, Alph Wright, O. P. Wilamoh, Ben Lyman, San. Batton, J. W. Kaithey, J. W. Hendrix, A. C. Tremain, Carl C. Tremain and Misses Lucille Teeters, Dahlia Hemphill, Erna Douglass and Fleeta Eagan, and Mrs. Otis A. Ogden of Andrews, Texas.

Each pattern, available in sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50 includes a detailed illustrated step by step sewing guide. Size 38 requires 5 1/2 yards of 39 inch fabric. Bow requires 3/4 yard ribbon.

ATTRACTIVE TOWN FROCK

Pattern 8710: Very definitely a star production. This model has contrast appeal through a clever insert from neck line to side seams in the waist. Equally distinctive is the two color contrast in belt.

Designed for sports wear, this dress follows the best current ideas. The back is convertible in that the top button may be worn open or closed. When open the back forms revers, revealing a further use of contrast due to a different colored facing. Darts radiating into the waist front lend a novel, smooth appearance. Either long or short sleeves may be worn; the former being of full cut design. Kick pleats are used in front panel ends as well as a center kick pleat in back. Of course this is a good sports dress addition.

Miss Dahlia Hemphill Returns From Six Weeks' Vacation Trip

Miss Dahlia Hemphill, member of Odessa School faculty, has just completed a six weeks' vacation trip.

Miss Hemphill first spent a week in Littlefield, following which she visited in Dallas, where she was the guest for a month of her grandmother, Mrs. C. C. Riddle, and her aunt, Miss Maybelle Riddle, and attended the Centennial.

Miss Hemphill, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Maybelle Riddle, went on a sight seeing trip to San Antonio, Galveston, Corpus Christi and Monterrey, N. M., and coming to Littlefield by way of Rochelle, Texas, they spent three days with Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Hemphill. Rev. Hemphill is pastor of the Methodist church at Rochelle.

They arrived in Littlefield Thursday, and Mrs. Riddle and daughter, Miss Maybelle, left for their home in Dallas Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. Hendrix Leave on Trip to Denver

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hendrix left Monday on a trip to Denver, Colorado. Rev. Hendrix will attend a pastor's school in Hiff School of Religion, a department of the University of Denver, and Mrs. Hendrix plans to take some work on the religious drama in the university. They plan to also attend a conference on Race relations at Estes Park for a few days the first of August.

One of the pleasures to be expected from this conference will be to see and hear such noted men as Sherwood Eddy, Newton D. Baker and others of like note and importance.

They will be joined en route at Santa Fe by Miss Myrtle Rush, a sister of Mrs. Hendrix, who teaches in the high school at Gallup.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller Return From Wedding Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mueller returned Thursday afternoon from a seven weeks wedding tour to points in Colorado, Oregon and California.

They spent a few days at Evergreen Park, near Denver, going from there to Eugene, Ore., where they visited Mrs. Mueller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Holland, for a month. From Oregon they drove the Pacific coast route to Pasadena, California, where they visited Mr. Mueller's aunts, Misses Minnie, Emma and Lena Mueller, and also spent some time in Huntington Park, a suburb of Los Angeles, where they were the guests of old friends of Mr. Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Podmore.

They are now at home in the residence of Mrs. Vernie Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Springer Have Out of Town Guests

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rev. Chester Guinn Conducts Open Air Revival This Week

The Downtown Open Air Revival of the Littlefield Missionary Baptist Church, which is held each night of the week except Mondays on the large plot just south of the Key Furniture Co., on Phelps Avenue, is now well under way with a large attendance at every service.

In the absence of its pastor, Rev. Jno. R. Denning, who is away this week attending church conferences in several towns of the South Plains, Rev. Chester Guinn is occupying the pulpit each night this week. Rev. Guinn is pastor of the Hiway Baptist Church, in Dawson County, and is rapidly becoming known to the people of the Plains as a forceful and interesting preacher of the Gospel.

Evangelist Denning will be back in his own pulpit at all services on next Sunday.

LAST RITES HELD FOR OLTON CHILD

Viola, sixyear old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Starkey of Olton, died Sat. night, July 11, at 12.45 o'clock after a brief illness, the child having taken sick Friday. The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at the Lockney Baptist Church, the pastor, Bro. Shaw, officiating, assisted by Bro. Weather of Cedar. Interment was in the Lockney cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Davenport Return to Littlefield

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Davenport arrived from Las Cruces, N. M., the first of last week, where they have been living for the past six months, and where Mr. Davenport was carrying on the buying and selling of livestock.

Mr. Davenport was very enthusiastic at getting back home, and said: "I have been on the Plains 34 years, including the north and south plains. They look good to me. I have seen lots of beautiful country, but I still like the Plains. I went away intending to stay a year, but I couldn't stay away from Littlefield. Our home is here, and this is where my interests are."

Keep A Good Laxative always in your home

Among the necessities of home is a good, reliable laxative. Don't be without one! Do your best to prevent constipation. Don't neglect it when you feel any of its disagreeable symptoms coming on — "We have used Theford's Black-Draught for 21 years and have found it a very useful medicine that every family ought to have in their home," writes Mrs. Perry Hicks, of Belton, Texas. "I take Black-Draught for biliousness, constipation and other ills where a good laxative or purgative is needed. I have always found Black-Draught gives good results."

J. H. WARE HOME IS BEING REMODELED AND ENLARGED; WILL BE ONE OF FINEST SUBURBAN HOMES IN THIS SECTION

Work is underway in the remodeling and enlarging of the J. H. Ware residence, located on a 40-acre tract just west of the city.

When completed this will be one of the finest suburban country homes in this section.

Some parts of the original home have been razed and several rooms have been added. Completed the new residence will have six rooms and bath, a covered porch, and a large basement, and will be of bungalow design with the exterior of stucco. Materials are being furnished by the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber and Joe Wells is the contractor. Additional rooms added are a bedroom, kitchen, bathroom and base-ment. Virtually all of the partitions of the original home have been changed. All woodwork will be in natural finish. The house will be weather-stripped throughout.

ginal wife and have three children, all of whom I am proud of, and they all join me in my plea for your vote and influence in the coming primary July 25.

I was solicited by numbers of the voters in this district to make the race for Justice of the Peace, but am not a candidate of any particular person or group of persons and am making this campaign strictly on my merits and qualifications and not on the demerits, if any, of my opponents.

Due to the fact that I do not own an automobile it is going to be impossible for me to make a house-to-house canvass of the precinct, and will be compelled to rely on my friends to say and do all they can in my behalf, and I will try to see all of you that I can and make my personal plea to you in town. To those of you who do not know me, will you please ask your neighbor what he knows about me and I will leave the results of your decision to what he tells you.

I have but one promise to make you, and that is to give each and every case that comes before me careful consideration and study and be guided by the law and evidence in the case in rendering a decision. This applies to all cases, both civil and criminal.

Friends, this is my plea to you and if on July 25 you can see your way to support me I assure you that you will not be disappointed in your selection of your Justice of the Peace.

Thanks,
M. W. (MIKE) BREWER.

Gulf Oil Employees Attend Centennial 'Gulf' Day, July 18

A minimum of 10,000 Gulf Oil corporation employees, dealers and their families from all sections of Texas were gathered in Dallas Saturday last to attend the Texas Centennial Central Exposition.

L. C. Grissom, local Gulf Refining company agent, left Friday for Dallas, where he joined the large group of Gulf employees and attended the Centennial celebration.

July 18 was officially designated as "Gulf Day" and the company was provided free admission tickets to the grounds for all employees, dealers and members of the employee's or dealer's immediate family. Special tickets were printed for the event, and an elaborate program planned in honor of the Gulf party.

Headquarters offices of the Gulf company in Houston closed at noon Friday, July 17, and remained closed until Monday, which included all departments, production, pipe line refining and sales.

A majority of the 1,200 employees in the Houston office building, with their families, went by special train, automobile or bus. July 18 was officially declared a holiday for all Gulf employees and dealers throughout the state with the exception of the skeleton crews necessary to the operation of the organization.

The Jockey club, adjacent to the old racetrack grandstand (now used in the presentation of the Centennial spectacle "Cavalcade of Texas") was secured as Gulf headquarters for the day. Registration and information headquarters were set up there.

A special program of entertainment was arranged for by the exposition and several special radio programs originated in the Gulf radio studios on the exposition grounds and through the Gulf Centennial network.

Saturday night was designated as Gulf "amateur night" at the radio studios, and amateur musicians and entertainers from all sections of the state competed for an opportunity to appear in the radio studios during a two-hour program.

W. A. Webb, general manager of the exposition, wrote a letter, addressed to all Gulf employees, dealers and their families, advising them of the official designation of "Gulf Day" and outlining plans for the big oil company party.

In his letter he said, "We want you to see Texas' magnificent $25,000,000 World's Fair. We are particularly anxious that you should see the beautiful radio studios your company has built here; and that you should hear the programs that go out from these studios over the Gulf Centennial network.

"Everyone in any way connected with Gulf should feel proud of the contribution his company has made to the success of the Centennial. The Gulf radio and public speaking system is unique. It is undoubtedly the finest system of its kind ever installed at an exposition. It contributes to the pleasure and entertainment of every exposition visitor; it makes possible many programs and events that would be impossible without it. Further than that, it has been of inestimable value to us in our job of "telling the world about Texas."

Changes in Policy of School Board By Supt. A. B. Sanders

Due to the outlook and prospect for a fair crop this year the school board decided that they would elect enough teachers to complete the faculty as it was last year with one exception. That is, there will be one less teacher this year than last. The board is of the opinion that if the need is great enough they can add this teacher after school begins.

It was decided that the local school would change its policy toward transfers this year. For the past few years the local board has given free school to those folks who transferred before the first of August, but this year the transfers will be allowed as much free school as the state apportionment will finance and after that they will be charged tuition at the rate of $5.00 per month for high school, $4.00 per month for intermediate grades and $3.00 per month for primary instruction. This will be collected in advance and when the pupil has gone delinquent for as much as thirty days his books will be taken up.

The board also decided that the school should accept no unders this year. The schools are already crowded and no room is available for the instruction of those under age. A scholastic is a child who has reached or passed his sixth birthday on Sept. 1, 1936. The rolls will be checked closely and the state birth records will be used in establishing the age of children. Parents are asked to be sure that their children are of scholastic age before sending them to school.

The board also voted to buy a program clock for the school and put the old one in the primary building into running shape. This program clock will operate electrically and will keep the grammar and high school on the same time. Folks who have been delayed because of the differences in time of dismissal in the two buildings will appreciate this service.

During the last few weeks the board has had some construction repairs made on the school furniture. About 500 desks and chairs have been refinished and reworked. This will make them practically as good as new.

During last year the pupils suffered a shortage in room for instruction in typing and other commercial subjects. Monday evening eight more typewriters were purchased for that department. Four of these machines being Underwoods and four Royals. This gives the local schools a capacity of 24 pupils in the typing department. This will enable the school to give instruction to all who desire same during the coming year. The courses offered will be continued through the effort of Mr. Cecil Ramsey, who has been secured as commercial teacher. Mr. Ramsey comes highly recommended and with experience in this field.

Building of Sinclair Wholesale and Retail Plant is Underway

The Boy Scout Hut at the Dallas Centennial

(By David Storey)

While I was visiting the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas, I saw something in the scouting line to write about.

At the Dallas Centennial Exposition I, by chance, came upon the Boy Scout Hut south of the Mobilgas exhibit, and had a very interesting few moments there.

The building is made of logs with a high stockade fence on its north and west sides. As I entered the grounds I saw a short totem pole bearing funny and queer faces. In the hut there were interesting and educational posters and models of health and safety together with a canoe, a miniature camp, a large knot board, scout books, and various other things on exhibition. Also inside the hut there were Indian articles made by the scouts and about three or four other totem poles of which one was named "The Mule." At the exit was a small room which was the scout office.

If you are interested in scouting, an excellent place for you to visit is the Boy Scout headquarters. I have been telling you about. (The Boy Scouts of Dallas and the surrounding towns made and presented the articles in the exhibit.)
