Trial Opens In U.S. 84 Wreck Suit

Trial in a $32,950 damage suit growing out of an auto mishap on U.S. Highway 84 in April, 1958, continued in 15th District Court Wednesday after getting under way earlier in the week.

The suit was filed by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grimsley of Fruita, Colo. Named as defendants in the suit filed in June, 1958, were J. W. (Wallace) Gosdin of Amherst; Alvin Ackers, Eddie Perkins, both of Clovis, N.M.; William Curry of Sudan and Forbes Tatum of Littlefield.

The Grimsleys are seeking damages in a four-car accident in which Mrs. Grimsley, 50, was injured on April 24, 1958. The mishap occurred about 7:45 a. m. that day eight miles west of Littlefield when dense smoke driven by high winds piled across U.S. 84. The smoke came from the Gosdin farm, the Grimsley suit alleges.

Ackers and Tatum were drivers of two truck-trailers with semi-trailers, both of which were involved in the mishap. Perkins runs the firm for which Ackers was a driver. Mrs. Grimsley suffered broken legs, a fractured pelvis and contusions. Curry, who was driver of the other vehicle involved in the mishap, suffered internal injuries, cuts and bruises.

City Manager J. W. Harrison said Tuesday he had received a letter from the League indicating the resolution will be discussed. The resolution was approved by the city council here last month after it was presented by City Attorney Bill Street.

Street, in presenting the resolution, said a League utility rate expert would be the only way a "small city can afford help" in a rate squabble. The League will hold its annual meeting Sept. 20-22 at Dallas.

Highway Department Begins U.S. 84 Survey

NEW PARK IN FLATS—Work got under way last week on a new recreation area in the Negro section of town. City workers and several residents of the section are shown working here to clear away rocks and other debris from the area. The park will be on land owned by Littlefield School District, on which Dunbar School was located. Negro residents went before the school board to request use of the area and later the Woman's Club and the city joined in the effort to set up the new park. The park is being prepared mainly for children of the section, although all Negro residents will use it. (STAFF PHOTO)

Road East Of City Surveyed

Texas Highway Department workers this week began the job of surveying property involved in the U.S. Highway 84 widening program, approved last July by voters in landslide fashion.

Rhea Bradley, resident engineer, said surveyors had gone to work on the section between Littlefield and the Hockley County line—the first section in the order set up by the highway department shortly after the election.

"This will be a tract-by-tract survey," said Bradley. "Its main purpose is to establish property lines and improvements so that we can prepare right-of-way field notes."

These notes later will be forwarded to Lamb County officials, said Bradley, so that the county can begin the job of acquiring right-of-way.

After the county has acquired right-of-way for four-laning the road across the county, then the project must wait until construction money is available before any actual road building can begin.

Once the surveyors complete a tract-by-tract survey in one section, they will move on to another. While this is being done, other highway men will prepare schematic layouts showing where the road will go, taking one section at a time.

The order of importance set up by the department includes the area east of Littlefield first, the Littlefield bypass second, between the Bailey County line and Sudan third, and from Sudan to Littlefield fourth.

The schematic layouts prepared by the highway department here will go to the Bureau of Public Roads for approval. They also must meet the approval of the State Highway Department at Austin.

The detailed work on the widening program is expected to take several months before negotiations with property owners can begin.

7 Area Elevens Start Grid Wars Friday Night

By ALEX DUGGAN
Although school has barely started in the area, football has been in the air for several weeks.

In face most area football teams hit the field for their first contests this season Friday night.

Except for Littlefield, which doesn't start its schedule until next week, and Spade, which has an open date this week, all area teams will stage non-district games.

In the top area contest Dave Smith's Anton Bulldogs will journey to Amherst for battle with Neal Chastain's Amherst Bulldogs. Both squads are building and the teams look to be evenly matched. Due to the ability and experience in Anton's backfield, the Bulldogs will be a six-point favorite.

Sudan will spot Morton over 30 pounds per man in the backfield in the encounter between the two powers at Sudan this week. Both teams are running behind new head coaches. A strong backfield and more experience makes Morton a 10-point favorite.

Always-tough Olton (2AA) will clash with Petersburg from District 4A, and ought to win handily at Petersburg Friday. Joe Turner's Mustangs will be gathering momentum for a shot at the district crown later in the season. Whitharral will be host to Lorenzo in a game that either team could win. Lorenzo defeated the Panthers last year, 19-6, but Whitharral won District 3B, and might be enthusiastic about compiling a better non-district record this season. Whitharral is now under the reins of Max Dickerson, a newcomer to area coaching circles.

Bula will collide with Roaring Springs in an eight-man contest at Roaring Springs. The Bulldogs, under the direction of Coach Melvin Howard, are light and inexperienced. They will assume an underdog's role in this battle.

Don Townsend's Springlake Wolverines will open the season against an out-of-state foe. The Wolverines will entertain Portales, N.M., Friday. Springlake will be trying to improve on a 3-7 record from last year, but Portales is a bigger school and the Wolverines will find the going rough.

Nine hole matches will be played over the par 36 course. A covered dish supper will top off the day that evening.

Country Club Tourney Set
A Scotch Foursome golf tournament is being planned for Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at Littlefield Country Club, according to Bob Hickson, club pro.

Against Andrews, Williams had Boots Barker, shifted from quarterback, and Jerry Marsh, a regular tackle, playing the ends.

Mickey Montgomery and Ronnie McWilliams, had the starting tackle posts, while Bo Roberts and James Blackwell held down the top guard spots. Jerry Brantley is the top center.

In the backfield, Williams had De Pierce at quarterback, Jerry Koller at fullback, Max Ball at one halfback and Ronnie Rice and Bobby Heffington alternating at the other. Koller and Heffington, with Pierce as the trigger, were the scoring guns for the Wildcats against Andrews. Koller scored once on a long sweep, and Heffington snagged two touchdown passes. 500 Attend PCG Annual Meeting; Area Men Receive Appointments

LUBBOCK—More than 500 delegates and visitors attending the third annual meeting of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. Aug. 28 in Lubbock, heard directors elect W. O. Fortenberry as president, and adopted a 1959-60 budget of some $174,000, and heard three top leaders of the textile industry.

Also returned to office were Wilmer Smith, New Home, vice president, and Roy Forkner, Lubbock, secretary-treasurer. Fortenberry and Smith have headed the organization for the three years it has been in existence and Forkner was re-elected to his second term.

The key to the future of the nation's cotton industry is "in the hands that fashion government policy on imports," J. M. Cheatnam, president of Dundee Mills, Inc., Griffin, Georgia, and first vice president of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, told the PCG membership. He said the long-range outlook for both raw cotton and textiles is favorable if textile imports can be brought under "fair and reasonable control."

Bill Foreman, public relations manager, National Cotton Council, Memphis, told the group that the public generally has a distorted image of the farmer. He said the farmer is suffering a loss in prestige and influence as a result. He urged a "grassroots campaign" to achieve better understanding of agriculture. He said that in the eyes of many of the 88 per cent of the population that doesn't live on the farm, farmers are "hayseeds, bandits and the biggest hogs at the public trough."

Actually, he declared, farmers are good businessmen, efficient suppliers of essential commodities at a reasonable cost and good citizens.

F. Marion Rhodes, director, cotton division, Commodity Stabilization Service, USDA, Washington, D.C., told PCG members that the cotton legislative program is moving in the right direction.

"This year we have more flexibility in both production and pri-

LIPSTICK LOGIC

When we hear a married couple bickering, it would be so easy to tell them what's wrong! He's selfish with her about an occasional meal out, or extra help in the house, even though she holds a job to ease his financial worries.

She nags at him about his driving, or makes him seem ridiculous by laughingly reporting his blunders.

He entertains the party with descriptions of all the good-looking women he knows, while his rather plain wife has lost interest in her appearance because he constantly preaches economy.

She plays bridge all afternoon, then wants to take the family out for hamburgers because she's too tired to cook.

It would be so easy to correct their problems! But we aren't because they probably wouldn't listen, and we'd only lose their friendship. But when it comes to seeing our own faults - that's another matter. Analyzing the spouse's shortcomings is easy enough; really too easy. But in doing so, we forget he may have been holding back about some of our irritating habits. Once we begin to put him straight, it's only natural that "while we're talking" he should mention a few errors.

A good clean argument now and then clears the atmosphere. But constant bickering is habit-forming. Since we know all the answers for other couples - but can't afford to speak up - wouldn't it be handy if we could apply this wisdom to our own household?

When we hear Jack eat Jill out for buying a new lamp when he has just purchased a motor boat, for instance, could we make a quick check on our own fairness with money? If it's a tone of voice that's causing the trouble, could we listen to our own with the ear of an outsider?

Sure we could, but will we?

Doctor Of Medicine Practices Business

By JACK LEFLER LOS ANGELES (AP) — Medical student Armand Hammer worked his way through college. By the time he graduated, he had earned a million dollars and was thinking of retiring. Today, 38 years and many more millions later, he's still going strong and isn't thinking of retiring. He's recognized as one of the world's greatest salesmen. And he's a doctor who has never practiced medicine. At 61, he's getting his feet wet in the oil business after amazing successes in international trade, selling art objects in quantities never known before, distilling, raising cattle. Why Success? He has two explanations for his successes: "Grab opportunity by the forelock." "One thing leads to another."

ARMAND HAMMER... doctor of success

New York City-born Armand Hammer entered Columbia University, intent on being a doctor like his father. In his freshman year, he and his brother, Harry, a chemist, formed a business, Harry manufactured industrial chemicals and pharmaceuticals. Armand sold them. "I started out with a small place," Hammer says. "I went around calling on dealers and getting orders. We came to the conclusion there was going to be a great demand for chemicals and pharmaceuticals. We felt that with World War I over only a short time, the whole world would be starved for these products. We expanded while other people, expecting a slump, contracted. We put in big inventories and the demand developed overseas."

TOPS IN HIS CLASS "I worked during the daytime and studied at night. I got my lecture notes from my roommate and was able to keep up with my studies (he graduated at the top of his class) and my business. "By the time I was 23, we were employing several hundred persons. I had a medical degree and a million dollars."

ENTERED OIL FIELD "An accountant friend told me about the tax advantage of drilling for oil," he says, explaining his latest venture. He invested in Occidental Petroleum Co., a 40-year-old firm with depleted wells, and became its president two years ago. "When I came along the company was worth $120,000," he says. "I agreed to loan the company some money if it would drill wells for itself and for me. I guess I had beginner's luck. Both of the first wells came in."

HERO OVERNIGHT "After I had worked among the Russians for a while, I asked them how much grain they needed to get by until the next harvest. They told me. I said I'd bring over tons filled with grain if you will fill the boats with something you want to sell. "I found myself a hero overnight. I was invited to Moscow to meet Lenin. I obtained the first foreign trading concession granted by the Communist government. "I came back to the United States and arranged a contract with Ford Motor Co. and 38 other American firms to sell their products in Russia. I organized Hammer Industrial Co. "I found out that the government was selling art treasures from the Czarist palaces. With my brother, Victor, who had studied art, I started buying. Sold Art Objects With the art treasures they brought back, Armand, Victor and Harry established Hammer Galleries in New York City and started selling the art objects through department stores. This shocked art circles. "But we figured that if you give people bargains, they will buy," Hammer says. "We opened what we thought would be a two-week sale at Marshall Field's in Chicago. It went on for two years."

POTATO ALCOHOL PLANT "I got government approval and bought a plant at Newmarket, N.H., and potatoes in Maine. It was the first potato alcohol plant in the United States. "I ended up with 11 distilleries and sold out to Schenley Distillers for 6 1/2 million dollars in 1933. "Once again one thing led to another. "We were selling a distillation by-product as cattle feed," Hammer says. "I established Shadow Isle Farms at Coltenick, N. J., and raised cattle so I could show buyers how good our feed was. We raised black Angus cattle and had the first million-dollar cattle sale in the country."

Barber Put Autom Into Flattop Haircut

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Did you know it takes the average barber 25 minutes to give a flat-top haircut? Dennis A. Norton can do it in less than 10 minutes. Norton has an invention which looks like a combination space helmet, neck brace, do-gad and thingamajig. He began working on the idea about 18 months ago. Some of the design originated from the neck brace his wife wore after she was injured in an automobile accident. Norton got a mechanic to help him turn the idea into a practical device which is fast and safe. It has a leather man's head. Mounted in the leather band are four adjustable-level metal posts about four inches long. "The clips are mounted so that they can move without jarring from right to left. The entire top of the head can be cut at the desired length in a matter of seconds—and as flat as a pancake. "The clips are mounted so that they can move without jarring from right to left. Police Jail One During Weekend City police jailed only one man in light weekend activity. The man was fined $50 after pleading guilty in corporation court to being drunk in a car, resisting arrest and simple assault on an officer. In addition, police issued five tickets for no driver's license. one with an oil field. The company now has a value of 12 million dollars. "The oil business is romantic," Hammer says. "It gets into your blood. I like it better than anything I have ever been in."

But Hammer likes to dream, too, about the one career he passed up — medicine. "I think I would like to make a pretty good doctor," he grins. "I have always renewed my license to practice every year. If anything ever happens, I'll have something to fall back on."

America's first practical gas-oline automobile was built by the Duryea brothers in 1892 in Springfield, Mass.

Sudan Hornets Facing Tough 1959 Schedule

By ALEX DUGGAN
SUDAN - The Sudan Hornets finished second in District 3A in 1958, but Head Coach Hank Brown, in his first year as Sudan head coach, lost six starters from that team.

ghlyn Todd and Roy Engram will probably start at guard. Three boys mentioned by Brown will see action at the ends. These are Jimmy Hunter, Max Lynch, and Charlie Nichols. Ronald Powell and Edward Fisher will round out the Sudan line at the tackle slots.

White Oak is considered the greatest menace to White Deer's hopes. Many believe White Oak would have been the champion last year had it been able to remain eligible. White Oak though was kicked out just as it began to move into state play. One of the boys was found to be too old. Terrell finds itself the big favorite in Class AA. Terrell lost to Stamford on penetrations last year.

CATE HURT
Sudan senior letterman Rodney Cate suffered a broken wrist in Tuesday's workout, and was hospitalized in Medical Arts hospital in Littlefield. Cate will miss the first several games for the Hornets this season.

Roster and Schedule
Ends - Jimmy Hunter, 150, 2 letters; Max Lynch, 140, 2 letters; Charlie Nichols, 145, 3 letters; James Parrish, 130, junior high; Dale Masten, 139, B Team; Jimmy Ford, 170 B-team.

Wade Family Reunion Held At Lubbock
WHITHARRAL - The Party House at MacKenzie Park at Lubbock Saturday and Sunday was the scene of the regular Wade Reunion.

Our schedule is tough," he continued. "We will be lucky to win the two non-district games, and we will probably finish third or fourth in the district."
Brown, who served six years as assistant coach at Sudan before being moved to head coach this year, is running his team from the Split T and the Wing T on offense. Sudan has worked considerably on its passing attack.
Since there was only one returning starter in the backfield, Brown has experimented considerably with his back.

Guards - Hughlyn Rodd, 160, 2 letters; Roy Engram, 160, 2 letters; Mike Masten, 115, junior high; Jackie Van Ness, 130, 2 letters; Raymond May, 130, B-team; Damon May, 135, B-team; Durrwood White, 120, junior high.
Centers - Randy Humphery, 135, B-team; Bobby Smith, 140, 2 letters.
Quarterbacks - Paul Galvan, 145, 2 letters; Scrapy Wingo, 160, B-team.
Halfbacks - John Humphery, 140, 3 letters; Gary West, 140, 2 letters; Rodney Cate, 130, 2 letters; Joe Bellar, 110, junior high; Jimmy Savage, 115, junior high.
Fullbacks - Jackie Wilson, 145,

West Texans Dominate Tech Starting Lineup
LUBBOCK - West Texans dominate the starting lineup for Texas Tech's Red Raiders, who complete their first week of practice with a scrimmage Saturday afternoon.
Coach DeWitt Weaver's Red Raiders are just two weeks away from their opening contest, against Texas A&M in Dallas, at 8 p.m. Sept. 19.
Running first string as practice began Tuesday were ends Don Waygood of Sundown and Tommy Pace of Amarillo, tackles Jerry Selfridge of Borger and Bobby Cline of Belton, guards Fred Weaver of Cooper and Jere Monahan of Panhandle, center E. J. Holub of Lubbock, quarterback Glen Amerson of Munday, halfback Ronnie Rice of Lefors, split back Dan Gurley of Fort Worth, and fullback George Fraser of Llano or Herbert Pearce of Monahan.
Tech's list of returning lettermen went to 16 with the reporting of Pampa's Ed Strickland. A letterman guard in 1957, he did not play last year. Strickland may be placed at right end in the Raiders' new multiple offense.

Writer Rates Andrews, Levelland In Top Ten Of Class AAA In 1959

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Texas AP Sports Editor

Another Texas schoolboy football race opens Friday with three of four champions expected to repeat. And the other one isn't being counted out of the picture entirely.

Wichita Falls appears to have what it takes to again win Class AAAA. Breckenridge is the same in Class AAA. White Deer is a top favorite to capture its second Class A state title in a row.

Stamford, the kingpin of Class AA, will be rebuilding. It reportedly has some good material for it, but after all, it isn't tested in championship competition, thus must be classed as an unknown quantity until it shows its muscles.

Wichita Falls will have plenty of teams aiming at it from the floor. It could run into Highland Park of Dallas again in the semifinals. Highland Park poses a stronger threat.

Breckenridge could swing along unbeaten until the finals and occasion no surprise. In the finals it probably will meet Cleburne and they believe over there that they have the team to stop anybody.

White Oak is considered the greatest menace to White Deer's hopes. Many believe White Oak would have been the champion last year had it been able to remain eligible. White Oak though was kicked out just as it began to move into state play. One of the boys was found to be too old.

Terrell finds itself the big favorite in Class AA. Terrell lost to Stamford on penetrations last year. As it is customary to rate the teams before the race starts to that some basis can be established.

of spraying, dusting and defoliating.
We've complained quite a bit lately about there being no nursery in Littlefield (not the baby kind) and we're happy to announce that the Littlefield Nursery is open for business. Willard Hedges is the owner and operator. Willard is well known in Whitharral as a former superintendent, he's well appreciated in Littlefield for his good work with baseball. With all the new houses that are being built we believe that many folks are interested in landscaping and the place to go is the Littlefield Nursery.

John has some good wrestling matches set for Saturday night out at the Sports Arena. You'll enjoy seeing Tony Morell and Cowboy Carlson. . . they're both good and I'll pick Cowboy to win.
Another stamp redemption center opens in Littlefield this week. It is the S & H display and is opening in the north side of Dickson's Apparel Shop.
If you're interested in a real closeup view of what's going on during a football game, you'll want one of the binoculars that Staggs Drug offers this week. . . and if you go on to one of the bowl games, they are a must! Sure hope we can beat Plainview on that very first game.

We've always wondered just how much water our city uses. . . we've been concerned about the amount that Lubbock pipes through here from the sand hills. We find this interesting note from the "Cross Section" plains water magazine. It states that now there is a total of 47,275 irrigation wells in use on the High Plains of Texas and that municipal and industrial use equals less than 2 percent of the total annual amount pumped in the area for all purposes.
No doubt about it, there's a huge lake or river down under. . . we hope it continues to run brim full for at least fifty years!

The International Council of Nurses, founded in 1899, is the oldest international organization of professional women in the world.

Daryl Fortmeyer, (that's Mr. Hawkeye to you farmers) has a new spray airplane. It is a Snow Brand, manufactured at Olney, Texas. Daryl says this new type of plane will fly more slowly over the crop and will do a better job

It's nothing unusual for Bob Roden to get up at five in the morning for a round of golf. . . but it's really unusual when he gets up around four to get his young first-grader off to school. That's what happened Monday morning. The Roden's younger child, Dana was up and getting the family up at four in the morning. . . just to make sure she wasn't late to school. . . her first day of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDaniel, Mr. and Mrs. Max Jones and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Givens, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Wade and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker and daughter, all of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wade and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Kaufman and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Kuffman, all of Levelland.

WHITHARRAL - September 6 through 13 is the date for a series of revival services to be held at the local First Methodist Church, whose pastor is Rev. Elmer Ward. Rev. Noah Arpriester of Nolan, Tex., will conduct the services at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The general public is invited to attend.

Stamp Collecting King Of Hobbies Says Postmaster

"Philately is the king of hobbies." So says Postmaster Arbie Joplin.

"Not only is stamp collecting the number one hobby throughout the world, but it is growing in popularity at a remarkable rate. There are, for example, just about as many stamp collectors in the United States as dog owners, possibly more."

The Post Office Department realizes that its first job is to deliver the mails, now more than 61 billion pieces a year. The Department realizes also that the fundamental purpose of postage stamps is to prepay postage. Beyond these first purposes, however, the Department is aware that its "miniature billboards" have been effective silent salesmen of American cultural and economic life, Joplin said.

"It's well known," says Postmaster Joplin, "that stamp collecting offers our school children a most pleasant way to learn about the nation's famous men and women, the great events of our history, and the organizations and natural wonders of the United States. It is well known also that through commemorative stamps American ideals are disseminated abroad."

The Post Office Department's Philatelic Sales Agency in Washington carries selected stocks of recent regular stamp issues and commemoratives for sale across the counter or through the mails. Post offices of all sizes and in all parts of the country have stamp items of interest. If collectors cannot find what they want at their local post office, they should write Washington at this address: Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D.C. Anyone interested in postage stamps can obtain a copy of the Post Office Department's booklet titled "Postage Stamps Of The United States, 1847-1957" from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C., at $1.00 per copy. This 248-page booklet describes and illustrates every United States postage stamp ever issued and gives a wealth of other information of interest and importance to collectors. Persons should call for additional information about stamps or about any other postal service matters.

New Littlefield Nursery Now Open For Business

The Littlefield Nursery is now open for business and is owned and operated by Willard Hedges. Hedges, former superintendent of schools at Whitharral, has opened the nursery, which is located three fourths of a mile west on the Bula highway.

Hedges reports that he already has many plants of shrubbery growing and if the customer wants something that he does not have, he can get it immediately from his out-of-town suppliers.

The new nursery will offer all kinds of trees, shrubbery, flowers, bulbs and greenery. Hedges is also equipped to spray trees and shrubbery and will offer pruning services at the proper time of the year.

The nursery will offer complete landscaping service. Hedges is interested in estimating a complete job or he will take care of a part of the job from yard leveling to the complete landscaping. He has several types of grass seeds or plants for the homeowner who wants a new lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedges invite everyone out to visit them in their new business.

S & H Stamps Display Open

S & H Green Stamps announces the opening of its Littlefield redemption display at Dickson's Apparel Shop, 321 Phelps Avenue.

The purpose of the store is to serve residents of the area who save the S & H stamps, making redemption of the trading stamps easier, according to Arthur Jones, Sperry and Hutchinson Co. representative.

A variety of premiums that can be obtained with S & H Green stamps will be on display at the store, and an attendant will redeem stamps for the premiums on display or select from the company's premium catalogue and turn the order into the stamp attendant.

There are at present four stores in Littlefield that feature the S & H stamp plan. Included are Dickson's Apparel Shop, Piggly Wiggly Super Market, Reeves Conoco Station, and Wilmon's Cosden Super Service.

Southwest Conference 45th Campaign Starts

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Sports Editor

The Southwest Conference launched its forty-fifth campaign last Tuesday. It might be the finest of all. The strength of the field indicates the league should be a national leader.

Admittedly the conference was down in ability last year yet it made a good showing. It should be 25 per cent better this campaign.

The annual Southwest Conference roster - record book has just come off the press. It shows there will be 143 lettermen in camp when the seven members open practice.

Texas Tech also is a member but won't compete for the championship in football until next year. Last season the league had 117 lettermen, thus will have 26 more this time. The average per team will be 20.4 lettermen. That means plenty of experience.

Also, there never was a better sophomore crop coming up. Texas Christian, Southern Methodist and Texas rank in that order from the standpoint of experience. There are 29 lettermen at TCU, 25 at SMU and 22 at Texas.

Southern Methodist, because it has the great Don Meredith back, will undoubtedly rate as the favorite for the title. Obviously SMU has what it takes to win the championship and possibly be the No. 1 team in the nation.

The only school with fewer lettermen than last year is Rice. It is three off. Even Baylor, the two seasons, has more numerical men—16 to 14.

Texas Christian has the most all-conference players back—Don Floyd at tackle, Marvin Lusater and Jack Spikes in the backfield.

There are three outstanding All-America prospects—Floyd, Meredith and Charley Minstead, the Texas A&M quarterback.

The squad with the most veteran material is, of course Texas Christian, which is two and three deep at all positions. There are six ends and 13 backs. Southern Methodist is at least two deep in all places except guard.

The conference will find out early how it ranks nationally.

Rice opens the season against Louisiana State, the undefeated national champion of last fall. LSU has even more material this time. Texas Christian plays LSU the second week of the campaign and Baylor tackles the mighty Tigers the third week. Texas will play Oklahoma and Arkansas will play Mississippi. Those teams should be the top three in the nation, at least at the start.

It should be a year for the Southwest Conference to reach the heights it knew in 1955 when it had the nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams—Southern Methodist and Texas Christian.

Labor Day Weekend

Friday at 6 p.m., the dash will start—a frantic dash for fun during summer's final, lonk-weekend. Normally won't return before midnight Monday.

During these 78 hours, a large percentage of Texas and a quarter million passenger cars will be on the streets and highways. Accidents, according to the Texas Safety Association, will inflict injuries in life, limb and property if history repeats itself in traffic.

Crashes, too, will take their share of lives, as will people do wrong?

Will drive too great a distance in too little time, impatient with other motorists, and make themselves by combining drinking and driving.

Of course, they will drive too fast for conditions who will miss the traffic slaughter will drop out when taking part in other pastimes that make a holiday pleasant (if it is safe).

Drivers, for example: too many will go in water and swim after dark, and some will take in waters that are unfamiliar to them.

Help a few Texans avoid many of these mishaps. List of do's and don'ts that are designed to increase degree of safety for anyone—they are:

TRAFFIC—Don't try to drive too far—400 miles a day is the limit, and a lot less than that after work-hour day.

Don't cut your speed at least 10 miles an hour after work.

You'll be surprised how much more relaxed you'll be if you drink.

Don't get burned up at other drivers. Good driving is behind the wheel.

Don't exceed the speed limit.

WATER SWIMMING—Never swim alone, even at a public beach. When swimming, an adult should be present.

Don't swim till exhausted—rest often.

Enter water gradually, and wait an hour after eating.

WHERE—Use courtesy and common sense. The more you know about safety, the less YOU will read about it.

Roads

What lies ahead in American medicine?

Louis M. Orr, President of the American Medical Association, dealt with that in his inaugural address. There are two possible roads that can be taken. One, to deadening uniformity, and to the loss of individualism and vitality which have made American medicine a pacesetter in the world. This road is not taken.

The other is the road of the free spirit, of dedication and women voluntarily working together, and heartening progress in the never-ending struggle against the killers and cripples of mankind. This is the road we have followed. This is the road we follow. For in this way—and in this way only—can we continue to make medicine a faithful servant to man.

Danger lies in legislative proposals which to free, in one way or another, would give government a controlling hand in the practice of medicine. These proposals, like that which would provide hospital and nursing care to people drawing security benefits, may seem attractive. But this is the kind of precedent that "puts the camel in the tent"—and opens the way to socialized medicine in which compulsion replaces voluntary cooperation.

Quote Dr. Orr again, "We believe that freedom, to live and grow, can never be placed on a shelf for a day, but must be fought for again and again, by men and women willing to stand up and be counted." Freedom, if it is to endure, must be fought for.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Vern Sanford

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — During the next few weeks young Texans by the thousands will troop back to their classrooms.

Many will be entering a brand new world. There'll be some 250,000 first-graders, some 28,000 college freshmen. In cities and towns across the state, children will take their last swim in the city pools. Parents will re-set their alarm clocks and re-figure their budgets.

Parents of the incoming college freshmen — most of whom got their own schooling at rock-bottom depression prices—face what most will regard as an appallingly expensive future. Average cost for a Texas college student is $1,100 a year — not including a car, clothes, dates, etc. In the larger cities it may run $1,500 a year.

For four years the average is about $5,000. But hardly any other investment can be expected to return such handsome dividends. Statistically, the college graduate can expect to earn $100,000 more in his lifetime than the non-graduate.

Aside from the students and the parents and teachers who are affected, "back to school" has a wider impact on the economy. Employment will jump as many of the jobs are absorbed into the operations of the dormitories, boarding houses, lunchrooms. Retail stores look to the brisker sales since Easter in the annual re-outfitting that ranges from blue jeans to book satchels, calluses to crayons.

Real estate, customarily, also has a flurry as families try to "get located before school starts."

WHY GO BACK? — Why go back

when you can stay out and earn some money?

Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles has some sobering answers. Its annual report shows that of 1,186 prison inmates released during the past year, only 119 had completed high school. Only six were college graduates.

Percentage is about the same for those persons still in prison. Overall, the Board feels that people who complete their educations and are therefore able to get useful, better-paying jobs are much less likely to run afoul of the law.

ALL BUT THREE — Gov. Price Daniel signed the huge new state appropriations bill, but he exercised his constitutional prerogative to scratch out some items.

Daniel vetoed appropriations for (1) a $216,000 home for old folks; (2) a $200,000 tourist advertising program by the State Highway Department; and (3) $1,033,500 for interim legislative expenses.

He vetoed the old folks home, said the governor, because "the hospital board does not have responsibility for seniles and... state policy should be to get these unfortunate people into private rest homes near their families rather than making them permanent patients of the state hospital system."

As to tourist advertising, the governor said that the Highway Department already is spending twice this much from other funds.

and the appropriation would reduce activities.

Daniel said he saw no need for the interim legislative expense money inasmuch as $330,000 had been appropriated in a separate bill for future legislative expenses.

Legislative leaders replied that perhaps the state isn't supposed to be responsible for housing the aged, but the fact is it has some in its hands. They're now housed in the 50-year-old Confederate home in Austin. It has been labeled a fire trap.

Legislative expense money was to be used to put a new carpet in the House, refinish desks and provide offices for House members. Rep. Bill Healy of Paducah said he felt it was "unprecedented for the executive branch to tell the legislative branch how to finance itself."

DIVIDING IT UP — Now that all state agencies know how much money they'll have for the next two years, governing boards have been busy deciding how to make the most of it.

STATE HOSPITAL BOARD, with an appropriation that jumped 8.9 per cent to $83,142,340, plans to spend $4,500,000 for new buildings. This will include a new 300-bed unit at the Denton State School and a new home for older patients at Denton, a new ward building at Terrell State Hospital and numerous road building and renovation projects.

TEXAS YOUTH COUNCIL, with a kitty that jumped from $7,767,441 for the 1958-59 period to $10,112,450 for the new biennium, plans to add both dormitories and personnel to the two correctional institutions, Gatesville School for Boys and Gainesville School for Girls. Sandhills Philosopher He Favors Price Sticker For Eggs, Like On Autos

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm has another idea he won't get anywhere with this week.

Dear editor:

It's not that I'm in the market for a new car. I'm waiting for the new models, have been for years, though it doesn't seem to make much difference, as fast as they bring out a new model they turn around and start to work on an even newer one, never can seem to make up their minds, but what I started out to say does concern cars.

I read in a newspaper last night that a new law is now in effect requiring car manufacturers to put a sticker on every car showing the list price — what it ought to sell for, what the extras on it should cost, etc., and there's a $1,000 fine if a car dealer removes the sticker.

As I understand it, this was done to keep some sharp dealers from running the price way up, allowing you a lot more for your trade-in, and still making a satisfactory profit. What they were doing was taking a $50 cat in on a $100 dog, still getting the $50 they wanted in the first place for the dog, which is pretty high for truck lines reduced their rates 50 per cent for the drought relief feed shipments. While felt that this would mean that the federal government would then pick up the remaining 50 per cent of the tab. But USDA charges it should have paid only 50 per cent of the reduced rate.

are planned for the homes for orphaned children.

TEXAS A&M BOARD OF REGENTS has allotted a substantial portion of the $1,969,666 increase in its $44,174,865 appropriation for salary increases on a merit basis. All in all, some 10 branches and services are a part of the A&M system. New student apartment buildings on the main campus are in the offing.

VET LAND PROGRAM SLOWS — Texas Veterans Land Program will have to be stopped down to a trickle from now until after November, 1960.

State is running low on money for this program. It has authority to sell bonds to raise more money. But with the interest rate on the bonds limited by the law to 3 per cent nobody wants to buy the bonds. In the general election in 1960, the voters, may, if they choose, raise the interest rate to 4 per cent.

Of course, if the state has to pay more interest on its bonds, it will have to go up on the interest it charges veterans — probably 4 per cent.

Under the plan, the state buys land and re-sells it to the veterans on a long-term, low-interest contract. It's the only "bonus" to Texas veterans. But it has resulted in the purchase by veterans of 1,997,404 acres of Texas land at an average price of $69.39 per acre.

SUIT OVER HAY SEEN — In the midst of plentiful rain, State Agriculture Commissioner John White has a problem arising from the 1953 drought-relief program.

White says the U.S. Department of Agriculture plans to sue Texas for some $162,670 which the USDA claims, it overpaid for shipping hay to Texas farmers and ranchers.

White says the federal government agreed to pay 50 per cent of the cost of shipping the hay. About that time the railroads and a dog, but so are cars and everything else.

The new law is intended to put a stop to this.

Now there's an idea that ought to be carried over into farming, but sort of in reverse. While the car sticker law is aimed at keeping some dealers from hornswoogling the public, the farm sticker law would be aimed at keeping the farmer from hornswoogling himself.

For instance, say a farmer has a dozen eggs for sale, and the going price is 20 cents. The government ought to require the farmer to put a sticker on the eggs showing they cost him 30 cents to produce.

I'm not sure how this would keep a farmer from selling 30-cent eggs for 20 cents, but it at least would bring the thing out into the open. It just takes too many eggs these days to buy a new car or a new tractor, even one with a government-guaranteed price sticker on it.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

HUMBLE OIL & REFINING COMPANY

Says Charlie Challenge:

turkey it begins November 16 and lasts until December 31, with date variations depending on county law. Quail shooting becomes legal December 1 until January 16.

It's a satisfying time, with man in quiet communion with a bountiful nature. But all too often a n ominous note creeps into the happy symphony.

Thirty-seven hunting enthusiasts ranging in age from 12 to 65 won't be going out this year. And for the very best of reasons: They're dead...killed by their own hand or by others during last year's season.

Four hunters killed themselves in attempting to clean or repair loaded guns. Six others virtually committed suicide by crawling through fences with gun in hand.

In other deaths the victims were mistaken for game, or made errors in judgement while unloading guns, or stalking game or otherwise mishandling weapons.

A 12-year-old lad, a novice deer hunter, was killed instantly when his dotting father - carrying a "ready" rifle - tripped over a log and accidentally discharged the weapon.

And in another incident the situation was almost exactly reversed. A boy tripped on a wooded trail. His father was felled with a bullet in his back.

Be smart this year and follow these basic rules of gun safety:

Never mix fire water with fire power, and never point a gun at anything you don't intend to shoot. Remember that only a knuckthead would pull a gun through a fence. The safe way is to put it over first, making sure it is standing steady before you climb through.

Keep the safety catch ON until you get ready to shoot, and be positive you actually see what you're shooting at.

Remember, too, that guns are death traps for curious children. Unload yours before you get home. (A weekly feature of the health education division, State Health Department.)

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) - Robert Catron, 54, avoided a charge of drunken driving, but he was fined $5 and costs for public intoxication after police caught him careening down the middle of a street in his wheelchair.

District Reports Water Waste

High Plains position should be advanced in Texas. Conservation of water is a national problem. The District reports that in other states that have doctrines of public ownership of water resources, municipal and industrial water uses are generally deemed to be more necessary uses than are agricultural uses. Consequently, waste of agricultural irrigation water is dangerous because it weakens efforts to maintain private ownership of underground water, the district says.

The High Plains Water District asks that each irrigator think about these implications of waste and then devise a plan whereby he can use for beneficial purposes all the underground water pumped to the surface from beneath his land.

Wool Vote Ballots Are Mailed

Ballots for voting the September referendum on the lamb and wool marketing development program have been mailed to producers in Lamb County. Chairman D. C. Terrell of the Lamb County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced.

The referendum will determine whether or not deductions will continue to be made from producer payments earned under the wool incentive program. Funds collected are used by the American Sheep Producers Council to carry out a program of advertising, promotion, and related activities under an agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture.

The agreement, which has been in effect since the 1955 marketing year, will be extended for 3 years.

JOE BALDRIDGE, vice president of Baldrige Bakery, Lubbock, has revealed the bakery's installation of a Batter Whipped bread making process which represents the baking industry's most recent production achievement. The new Batter Whipped process virtually assures the constant production of a vastly improved loaf of enriched bread. "Batter Whipped Baldrige Bread," he explained to bakery employees, their wives, and special guests attending a banquet-sales meeting held at the Caprock Hotel, "is the ultimate in the mass production of bread. No air holes—of silky and even texture, batter whipped Baldrige Bread actually provides the consumer with two extra slices—the end slices are equivalent to the center slices." Batter Whipped Baldrige Bread was available to area home-makers through local food stores starting Monday.

if approved in the September referendum. Producers having two-thirds of the volume of production represented in the referendum must approve if the agreement is to be extended.

Deductions from wool and lamb payments under the new agreement would not exceed 1 cent per pound for shorn wool and 5 cents per hundredweight for unshorn lambs. Deductions at these rates have been made from payments for each marketing year since 1955.

Producers may vote throughout September. The entire month has been designated as the voting period to encourage as large a turnout as possible. Any producer who believes he is eligible to vote and does not receive a ballot within the next few days should get in touch with the county ASC Office.

To be counted, ballots must be received by the County ASC Office not later than September 30. Chairman Terrell urges producers to mark and return their ballots as soon as they are received.

Stokes defeated James St. Clair of Levelland, 2-1, to win the third flight consolation.

Roland Adams of Lubbock won the championship flight with an 8-under 136 for 36 holes.

31 Texas Traffic Deaths Expected This Weekend

AUSTIN - The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety announced today 31 persons are expected to be killed in Texas traffic accidents during the three-day Labor Day weekend.

Col. Homer Garrison, Jr. said the official prediction - which is seldom far off - would "serve as a challenge to all Texans to make a concerted effort to stem the tide of highway tragedy next weekend."

He pointed out that during the Labor Day weekend last year there were 30 traffic deaths, one more than the Department had predicted. He noted, however, that the forecast for the 1959 Fourth of July holiday - 26 fatalities - turned out to be accurate.

"We would like to make a special appeal to the citizens of Texas to consider the facts about holiday driving and do their utmost to reduce the tragedy of death, suffering and economic loss next weekend," Garrison said.

"Department of Public Safety patrolmen and all other law enforcement officers in our State will do everything in their power to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers - but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

He cited the following facts and figures on last Labor Day weekend, compiled by N. K. Woerner, Manager of Statistical Services: Of the 30 traffic deaths in the State, 26 occurred in rural areas as the result of 18 accidents. Ten of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

Two of the three rural fatal pedestrian accidents involved pedestrians who had been drinking. Seven of the 10 drivers who had been drinking in rural fatal accidents were exceeding the legal speed limit.

Thirteen of the 18 rural fatal accidents involved only one motor vehicle.

In 12 of the 13 rural fatal accidents involving only one car, the drivers had no "other driver" to blame. In the other case, a pedestrian - victim was at fault.

"Perhaps the most significant thing in the analysis of last year's Labor Day statistics is that in every rural fatal accident, at least one violation was apparently a contributing factor," Garrison said.

"So it might follow that if we can stop the violations, we can stop the death and destruction on the highways of Texas."

their direct joy in work or play; or the future—their plans.

Why not use all three dimensions of time? Past experience to guide, the present for zest, and the future to realize dreams.

Lawyers report a sharp shift in the way people regard time and the law: Of old they thought of law in terms of past facts like failures to meet legal duties, misdeeds, etc. — facts useful chiefly in lawsuits.

You still have to think of the record, since you may have to go to trial some time. So keep good records of your affairs.

But more and more people now also think of the law in the future tense—in terms of built-in safeguards for plans which they want to go through without legal hitches.

Our heavy income and death taxes have made people plan ahead legally, rather than wait for the ax to fall.

Any time you buy or sell a home or a business or make an investment you have choices of how you may do it—some wise, some not, in view of your circumstances. Should you insist on an abstract or accept or offer instead a title insurance policy? (Your lawyer has a definite part to play in either event.)

Should you do business as a sole proprietor, a partnership, or corporation? Do your contracts set out ways of meeting unexpected events? How best may you serve your estate (and also carry out your wishes)—by a will or a trust, or by direct gifts?

While all of these things point forward, the past in the form of court records can serve you by showing where trouble may come from.

As more and more people know the symptoms of legal trouble where to look for legal hitches in plans before big trouble starts, there will be fewer law suits and better human relations.

And where does trouble sometimes start? Most often where you lack a clear grasp of your relationship, your rights and duties, and your own and the other fellow's resources—in transactions involving large personal or financial stakes.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)
