3 Reasons To Celebrate

BY BILL TURNER

(GRAMPS) HALL will age length of a new baby is around 18 or 19 inches, and Debbie Lynn's 21 inches long.

Came the quick reply from "Gramps": "That just means she's that much above average all over."

Although Father's Day and his birthday are of lesser importance, Mancil had time to think about those two occasions over a cup of coffee this week.

"If every thing works out the way I want it to, I'll be starting the second half of my life Sunday he said.

Bob Manley, sitting across the table, said something about that making Mancil 80 when he's through.

Mancil thanked Bob for intimating he thought Mancil would be 40 Sunday. He explained that he'd be 50 and wanted to see 100.

The conversation continued along that line, and that reminded Mancil about a story on the "age" that people look.

"AYOUNG FELLA" came in to my place a couple of years ago and told me his grandfather had told him that if he ever bought a car to come to see Mancil Hall," said Mancil.

That was enough to make Mancil's eyes light up and he was considering making the boy a real good deal.

After all the trading was over, and the two were ready to close the deal, Mancil suddenly realized he didn't know whether the young man was over 21.

"You know, I couldn't make a trade with him by himself if he wasn't 21, so I asked him his age."

The "boy" replied "I'm 27."

Mancil said he turned a little red and confessed that he hadn't been sure whether the young man was "of age."

The young fella said he understood, and that "lots of folks look younger than they are."

Then he told Mancil: "I imagine plenty of folks couldn't guess your age. You're probably older than you look."

"Well," asked Mancil, smiling, "How old do you think I am?"

Mancil's smile faded when the fella replied, seriously: "I bet you're not a day over 55."

Caprock Fertilizer Hit

Officers Investigate Burglary, 2 Car Thefts

A break-in which netted burglars "about $50" from Caprock Fertilizer Company and the theft of two autos kept city and county officers busy early this week.

County officers investigating the Caprock burglary said the break-in occurred sometime Sunday night when the intruders smashed the glass in the office door and walked in.

"About $50" in bills and change was taken from a desk drawer.

Police Chief F.A. Fitzgerald and County Deputy Elson McNeese teamed up to arrest a 15-year-old Littlefield boy in a stolen car chase Monday.

The vehicle, a 1954 model owned by James E. Woods, 209 E. 16th, had been taken Sunday night while it was parked at the Missionary Baptist Church, where Woods was attending church services.

Officers said the boy admitted taking the car and driving it to Denver City, where he had car trouble and abandoned it. Woods and Asst. Police Chief James Cox drove to Denver City Monday to pick up the auto.

The boy had caught a bus to Lubbock and then returned to Littlefield after leaving the car at Denver City.

Officers Wednesday were still investigating another car theft here early this week.

A 1949 model car owned by Charlie Clark was stolen about 4 p.m. Monday while it was parked near Garland Motor Co.

In other activity, city officers picked up five teenage Littlefield boys Sunday about 1:30 a.m. after finding 66 cans of beer in the car in which they were riding.

The boys were fined $25 each, Police Chief Fitzgerald said.

Hearings in the case of the 15-year-old boy nabbed in the car theft and in the case of another 15-year-old who was arrested last week in a rash of burglaries here will be held later, County Judge Fat Boone Jr. said.

Candidate Gets 2nd Interview

A top candidate for Littlefield's city manager post has been called back for a second interview with the city council and indications are the council may make its decision at a regular meeting tonight.

Mayor E. J. Foust said Tuesday he planned to show the applicant around town today, then have him meet with the council at a 7:30 p.m. meeting at the city hall.

The move to bring the candidate back for a second interview came after two councilmen visited the town where he is now working and brought back "good reports" on his abilities and qualifications.

The council has been studying applications for the job the past two months. After a review of 15-20 applications, they brought in three men for personal interviews.

Littlefield voters approved the city manager plan in adopting a charter for the city in an election Feb. 20.

The council, in its first two months of work since the charter was adopted, has been making the changeover to the council-manager plan from the commission-type government.

In interviewing applicants for the city manager post, the city has studied candidates from numerous viewpoints, including age, salary requested, and an "ability to work with city employees and citizens."

The council has agreed in its discussions that the man who gets the job will be "under the gun" as the first manager under the new charter.

They said the new manager's "ability to work with people" will be paramount in making the changeover.

A report made by Councilman Rip Elms at a recent council meeting indicated area cities are paying their managers from $6,000 to $8,000 annually.

Bank Deposit Gains Recorded

Still receiving the blessings of last year's bumper cotton crop, the six banks in Lamb County showed substantial gains over last year in statements issued Tuesday.

At the close of business on June 10, the six banks had combined total deposits of almost $22,500,000—a gain of $3,000,000 over the combined deposits at this time last year.

Banker after banker contacted Wednesday morning attributed the gains to the abundant 1958 crops. Most bankers also expressed optimism over this year's crop.

The First National Bank of Littlefield recorded a gain of more than $1,200,000 over last year, showing deposits of $6,081,901.61 as of June 10, compared with $4,816,851.02 for this time in 1958.

Littlefield's Security State Bank also showed an increase over 1958, with $5,570,886.30 on deposit in comparison to $5,453,375.91 for this time last year.

Other deposits by banks in the county (with 1958 figures in parentheses) included: First National Bank, Amherst, $3,203,515.45 ($2,798,136.08); First National Bank, Sudan, $1,953,371 ($1,618,901); Citizens State Bank, Earth, $1,675,136 ($1,477,822.42); and Olton State Bank, $3,928,979.96 ($3,642,891.77).

Eleven-year-old Buddy Duggan was the envy of his elders Monday as he fired a hole-in-one on the par three, 136-yard fifth hole at Littlefield Country Club.

Buddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Duggan Jr., used a five-iron in recording his ace, the first of his short career.

He was playing with Doug Yarbrough, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Yarbrough.

He finished the nine-hole round with 55 strokes—19 over the par of 36, but still good enough to beat plenty of the grown-ups.

Progress Being Made In Using Lakes To Recharge Underground Supply

LUBBOCK - A major problem in using wet-weather lake water for artificial recharge results from the high percentage of clay and silt particles suspended in the water. When raw lake water is drained into a well and subsequently into the underground aquifer, the coarse-grained suspended particles are filtered from the water by the sand and gravel but the fine-grained particles move with the water into the underground formations.

Periodic pumping of the recharge well for an hour during a recharge cycle recovers a large percentage of the coarse particles but only a small percentage of the fines. Consequently, it may be assumed that permanent clogging ultimately might be the outcome.

In an attempt to overcome this major recharge problem, the High Plains Undergrnd Water Conservation District is presently conducting tests at several High Plains lakes to determine the practicability of various distribution methods used in introducing a flocculating chemical to the water in the lake before recharge. The chemical when properly mixed with the lake water causes the ever present suspended clay and silt particles to adhere to each other and the large masses drop to the lake bed. In a relatively brief time, normally about twenty-four to forty-eight hours, approximately 85 per cent to 90 per cent of the particles originally suspended in the water have combined and dropped to the bottom of the lake, leaving the water in a more desirable condition than it was originally for recharge into underground storage.

Methods of application that are being used to introduce the chemical to the lake water are:

1. Dusting the chemical onto the lake surface by airplane.
2. Dusting the chemical onto the lake surface, using a mechanical hand broadcast spreader, while wading in shallow water, and while riding in a boat.

Extensive experimentation has been carried on in Castro County by the Water District under the direction of W. L. Broadhurst, Chief Hydrologist. This work has centered on the Bill Sutton farm near Dimmitt. The same flocculating chemical was used in these tests except in solution. Although diluted to one-half per cent strength the solution was exceedingly thick like honey. The chemical was pumped in varying proportions to a point in the lake where the water entered a concrete pipeline and flowed into a large earthen settling pit. The chemical commingled with the lake water before reaching the pit; however, no flocculating action took place until the water reached the pit and slowed in velocity. From the pit, the water, relatively free from silt and clay, then moved on into the recharge well.

Continuous sampling of the raw and of the treated lake water at the Sutton lake was maintained to determine the results obtained through treatment.

Results from various methods of treatment together with the costs involved will be released by the Water District when all data have been compiled and analyzed.

The flocculating chemical, called Separan AP-30, is being contributed to the Water District by the Dow Chemical Company. Many other companies and individuals have contributed their time, ma-

After the talks were completed, a portion of the meeting was devoted to questions and answers.

About Your Health

According to the calendar, summer doesn't start until next week. But according to the weather, summer has been here for quite some time now.

For those of us who must battle the heat, a few simple health rules will go a long way in making the hot Texas summer a little more bearable.

First of all, avoid heavy meals. They are difficult to digest in hot weather. Fewer protein foods such as eggs, fish and meat should be eaten, with more emphasis on fruits and vegetables.

Perspiration causes much fluid loss during the day and must be replaced. Fruit juices or two or three glasses per day - make a pleasant way to make up the loss. But don't gulp down large amount of ice water when overheated.

The body also loses salt through perspiration, so that if your work or exercise causes you to sweat profusely salt should be replaced with salt tablets - about one every half hour with a glass of water.

Parents can place extra salt in the children's diet with salted nuts or crackers plus a little added salt during meals.

Clothing plays an important role in keeping cool. Loose, light is highly recommended. Summer-time wear. As temperatures are deep, the evaporation of moisture from the skin should be avoided. Also, remember that white colors are cooler than dark colors. They do not absorb heat so readily.

It's smart to get your teeth checked all year round. But it's even smarter to get your teeth checked during the summer months. Periods of hard yard work and active games of tennis should be followed by the cooler days of the summer.

Miss Betty Sue Hutton became the bride of Freddie Wayne Parkman in a double ring ceremony Sunday at 4 p.m. at the Enoch Church of Christ with Leon Kessler officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hutton of Three Way and Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Parkman of Bula.

The church altar was decorated with an arch covered with white wedding bells and satin bows, flanked on either side with baskets of pink roses and greenery with 28 cathedral tapers in the background. The white carpeted aisle ended at the white satin kneeling bench. The pews each held large white bows.

The bride, giving in marriage by her father, wore an original gown of imported French Chantilly lace and tulle over net and bridal sash. The elongated bodice was designed with an escalloped neckline embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The long pointed sleeves were also edged with pearls. The bouffant skirt was inset with a panel of tulle ruffles accented by an overlay of escalloped lace which swept into a cathedral train. Her trailing veil of imported silk illusion fell from a tiara crown of pearls and was carried by Beverly Chisholm of Sudan, niece of the bridegroom.

The bride carried white orchids and stephanotis on her Rainbow Bible. For something old she wore her mother's wedding band, something new were the pearls given by the bridegroom, something borrowed was a white handkerchief from Paula Kindle, for something blue a garter, designed by Virginia Klutts, and for luck she wore a six-pence in her left shoe and a dollar bill in her right shoe.

Maid of Honor, Miss Virginia Klutts, and bridesmaids, Misses Paula Kindle of Maple, Wanetta Hutton, cousin of the bride of Shallowater, Shirley Lee, cousin of the bride of Cotton Center and Mrs. Wayland Altman of Muleshoe wore identical dresses of pink silk organza, styled with bubble skirts sprinkled with satin bows and seed pearls. Headpieces and mitts of tulle, pearls and sequins were designed especially for the occasion by Mrs. Jack Lowe. Ivory fans adorned with a single rose completed their ensembles.

Terry and Sharon Hutton were candlelighters. She wore a floor length dress identical to the bridesmaids with a similar headpiece and mitts. Flower girls were Carol Ann Chisholm and Barbara Parkman, nieces of the bridegroom. Randy and Patricia Parkman were ringbearers, using a satin pillow and a cane. The girls wore identical dresses of pink with pink headbands and white gloves.

The Morton Rainbow Assembly.

of which Betty is past worthy advisor formed in a capella choir, Denise Rose of Morton sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Whither Thou Goest." Bill Gibson of Brownwood sang "The Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt and also "The Lord's Prayer."

Bobby Foley of Littlefield served as best man, John Henry Parkman of Littlefield, D. V. Parkman of Levelland, brothers of the groom, Jimmy Foley of Littlefield and Durwood Chisholm of Sudan served as groomsmen.

Jerry Hutton, brother of the bride, and Durwood Chisholm of Sudan ushered.

As the bride came down the aisle she stopped to give her mother a rose and a kiss and as she was leaving she stopped to present the groom's mother with a rose and a kiss.

Mrs. Hutton wore a champagne lace dress over ivory satin with bone colored accessories, a brown velvet hat and a brown orchid corsage. Mrs. Parkman wore navy with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Nan Johnson of Goodland registered the guests.

At the reception in the bride's home following the ceremony, the table was laid with a fluffy pink net cloth over pink satin. A five tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal pair and crystal appointments with favor matches saying "Betty and Freddie, June 14" completed the decorations. Miss Gayle McKelvey of Stegall and Mrs. W. A. Hardin of Earth served the guests.

For the wedding trip to Cheyenne, Wyo., the bride chose a tulle suit of light weight wool with brown lizard accessories and a picture hat of red velvet. Her corsage was the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

When they return they will be at home on Park Avenue in Littlefield.

Parkman attended the Sudan schools and is now employed at the Littlefield Butane Co.

The bride graduated from Three Way High School in May. She was basketball captain, head cheerleader for the Eagles, most beautiful senior and president of the 4-H club. She received her state homemaker degree in Dallas in April.

Legion Team Preps For Nazareth With 12-2 Victory Over Earth 9

Littlefield's American Legion team posted its fourth straight district victory here Tuesday night in defeating Earth 12-2, to set up a showdown battle with Nazareth there Friday night.

The club now stands 83 for the season and 41 in district, with the only loss coming at the hands of Nazareth.

The battle at Nazareth is the big one for Coach Jimmie Chapman's crew. A win would put the Legion team in a tie for the league lead, while a Littlefield loss would just about sew up the title for the unbeaten Nazareth nine.

Larry Pollard hurled Littlefield to the win over Earth Tuesday night, although he got relief help from Tom Lewis in the seventh.

The game was a tight one for 4 1/2 innings, with Littlefield taking a 2-1 lead.

Littlefield scored once in the first on successive doubles by Jerry Bradwell and Ronnie Rice. Then added another run in the third on a homer by Bradwell.

Earth paced up a run in the bottom of the fourth when Hudson singled. Ellis got on through an error, and the next two batters walked.

Littlefield then used a 7-run fifth frame to ice the game. After an error and two walks, Rice doubled. Two more walks then put Earth deeper in trouble.

Littlefield added three runs in the sixth to run its lead to 12-1. Bradwell hit his second homer of the night and then Roland and Bull hit back-to-back singles after Rice walked.

Earth got its final run in the top of the seventh off Lewis when Don Clayton homered.

Pollard allowed Earth only two hits in his six-inning stint, striking out 11 and walking only three. Lewis allowed the homer to Clayton, then settled down to retire the side. He walked one and struck out one.

Littlefield's American Legion team will take on Abernathy here Saturday night at 8 in a practice game. Coach Jimmie Chapman said this week.

TOWN AND COUNTRY BY WENDELL TOOLEY

Just looking down main street Monday, we could see a lot of people shopping "Giveaway Days"...we noticed a big town full on Tuesday...and we checked back to the registration count on Monday and found that a whopping 11,000 registered that day. And listen to this, ten registration cards were signed by persons from Lubbock!

We always figure our area people shopped in Lubbock just a little bit...but we didn't realize that Lubbock people shopped Littlefield...they know a good town when they see it!

One of the clowns who wandered around main street giving away gum and balloons during giveaway days was Dale Howard. He reported that evidently there was some "story-telling" going on, because he met a lot of the children two or three times. He'd ask them if he had already given them some and they would always shake their heads, "no".

"Just what we need" is the frequent comment on the present hot weather. Last week's 105 degree reading here was welcomed as a boon to farming in general. Hot weather is a good time to kill weeds, it ripens the wheat and barley, and is what cotton, set back by cool weather, last week's rain and hail, needs most.

Most of the cotton that was replanted is already up and the "hated out" farmers are back in business. Farmers are in the fields...the outlook is good and everybody is making hay while the sun shines.

Hot weather is good for the swimming business, the air conditioner business...and we'll rationalize a little further and say that sweat takes a lot of poison out of the body.

An Indian petitioned a judge of an Arizona court to give him a shorter name. "What is your name now?" asked the judge.

"Chief Screeching Train Whistle," said the Indian.

"And to what do you wish it shortened?" asked the judge.

"The Indian folded his arms majestically and grunted, "Tools." (The Texas Outlook)

A clerk was handed a gay envelope which, by error, contained a blank check. The astonished clerk looked at it and moaned: "Just what I thought would happen. My deductions have at last caught up with my salary."

Here's another good one from the Texas Outlook: The young New Yorker out on his first trip to the West was especially impressed with the skillful way one cowboy rolled his cigarette.

ARTISTIC SHERIFF—Deputy Sheriff Jess McYan, who has shot it out with criminals and driven back to his home with a truckload of prize-winning cattle, is shown here in his greatest pleasure in art work.

Aside from its major products of vegetables and citrus fruits, Florida is becoming an increasingly important cattle-raising state.

The shops are full of handsome and efficient hamper and containers for carrying food to the picnic. A favorite is a new round basket from Korea, sturdily woven of straw and bamboo, in giant size.

As to a menu, a picnic meal that's top for ease and taste is the smorgasbord meal. Choose from a range of cold sliced meats—liverwurst, ham, bologna and salami. Add an assortment of sardines, anchovies, herring, dill pickles, green onions, raw carrot strips, radishes, celery, pimiento, cucumbers, stuffed eggs, an assortment of cheeses and a bag of crisp salad greens, plus all the condiments. Line up everything on the picnic table and let the guests help themselves.

A variation of the smorgasbord picnic is the do-it-yourself sandwich meal, in which you line up the makings, and let everybody build his own sandwich.

With colorful paper plates and cups and throw-away napkins, the picnic is a breeze.

ASC Sets Date For Wheat Vote

Lamb County wheat producers will go to the polls July 23 to decide by referendum whether or not marketing quota will be placed on the 1960 wheat crop.

If quotas are approved, the law provides that farmers who comply with their wheat acreage will be eligible to market all their wheat without restriction. A grower who exceeds his allotment will be subject to marketing quota penalties on his excess wheat if he has more than 15 acres of wheat at harvest as grain.

If quotas are not approved, there will be no restrictions on wheat marketings.

Should quotas be approved for the 1960 crop, it would mark the seventh consecutive year they have been used for wheat. Wheat quotas and acreage allotments apply only in the 30 commercial wheat states, of which Texas is classified as one.

Every wheat grower in the county will be informed of the individual wheat allotment for his farm in advance of the referendum date.

The Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee will set up polling places throughout the county for the convenience of farmers. Locations will be announced later.

Marketing quotas for the crop have been proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture, as required by legislation whenever the available supply of wheat is more than 20 per cent above the normal supply. However, quotas will not become effective unless they are approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting in the referendum.

The present law states that

The Texas Land Boom...

Texas farm land prices have been booming for 10 years, and the six percent dollar-value increase shown from 1957 to 1958 indicates that the peak has not yet been reached.

What are the factors forcing a continued inflation of Texas land prices? A 25-county study to determine some of these factors was made last year, and the result was an interesting picture of what generally is happening in the Texas agricultural land market today.

The first and most obvious strengthening factor in the market both in Texas and elsewhere is the increasing population as opposed to the fixed amount of land available. This is a simple supply-demand situation which is intensified in our state because of its above-normal population increase.

Another major price-determining factor for land has to do with land characteristics, such as its fertility, soil texture, water supply, cover, wildlife and subsurface minerals—such as oil. Most of these are agricultural characteristics, however, and the present market price of farm land generally is higher than can be justified by its value for crop or livestock production. For the answer as to why farm land prices are out of reason for farming purposes, most people concerned have named mineral activity. Mineral value in land for sale, however, is mostly speculative, because once minerals are found on a parcel of land, production begins and the land involved is practically frozen in ownership and is removed from the land market.

Next to being mineral-rich, perhaps the most fetching quality of land on today's market has to do with its location. During the past two decades, improved urban working conditions and reduced working hours have made it possible for city and townfolk to enter the farm land business. More than a few town dwellers have gone to the country in search of acreage and a profitable sideline in farming. And, the closer in the land is and the better the roads getting to it are, the more the newcomer is willing to pay for it.

Also on the location value side of the picture is the tremendous conversion of agricultural land into a real estate gold-mine. This has been especially true in Texas where every city of any size has sprawled its housing developments and industries over pastures or cotton patches.

All these market improvement factors combine to make one other total factor: more and more land is becoming tightly held and taken off the market altogether, ever lessening the amount of land available to a greater number of people. So long as our economy is sound, it seems inevitable that the value of useful or potentially useful land has only one way to go—up.

David-Goliath, Financially

Consumer credit has grown rapidly in the past 10 years, both in the number of debtors and in their average indebtedness.

One of the factors involved in the expanded use of consumer credit is the rapid development of the credit card. This idea is represented today by such giants as the Diners' Club, the American Express and the Hilton-Statler Carte Blanche. Daily these entrepreneurs are expanding their field so that it not only is possible to get hotel and travel credit, but to visit Broadway shows, baseball games and other sports events or to buy a new tie in a strange city on credit.

But every action has its reaction, as the physicists say, and so perhaps it was inevitable that the opposite of the broad-based credit card should come into existence—the broad-based cash card.

An organization calling itself the Discount Club of America is being launched, seeking, like the credit card giants, hundreds and thousands of co-operating firms of many types. Its aim is to enroll family memberships at $5 a year for which it is undertaking to obtain 5 to 10 per cent discount on goods and services where cash is paid.

This sounds like a financial David faring forth into the field of credit Goliaths. It will be interesting to see how the battle for memberships progresses.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association AUSTIN, Tex. - When tax bills finally were passed by both the Texas House and the Senate, it was not dollars, but ideas that delayed agreement. House bill was designed to raise $150,000,000 over the next two years; Senate bill, about $160,000,000. Big difference was where the money could come from. House bill was divided evenly between selective sales taxes and taxes on natural resources and corporation franchises. Senate, which heard a long string of witnesses on the dangers of shutting prosperity-making industries out of Texas, changed the ratio. In its version, natural gas and corporations pay about 18 per cent of the tab; selective sales taxes, 82 per cent. Senate voted a 15-15 tie on its bill, with Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey breaking the tie in favor of the bill. Named to a free conference committee to adjust differences were Sens. R. A. Weinert, Seguin; Dorsey Hardman, San Angelo; Charles F. Herring, Austin; Jimmy Phillips, Angleton; Bruce Reagan, Corpus Christi. Also Reps. V. L. Ramsey, Beckville; W. T. Oliver, Port Neches; Don Kennard, Fort Worth; Alonzo Jamison, Denton; George Cook, Odessa. HOW THEY STACK - These industries were hit, in varying degrees, the House and Senate bills that went to conference committee: CORPORATIONS - Senate, raise $10,800,000 by hiking the franchise tax from $2.25 to $2.75 per $1,000 capitalization. House, raise $12,000,000 by a new two-factor tax on interstate corporations. NATURAL GAS - Senate, raise $8,000,000 by increasing the production tax from 7 to 8 per cent. House, raise $36,500,000 by lowering production tax to 5 per cent and adding a 5 per cent severance beneficiary tax. MOTOR VEHICLE SALES - Both houses agreed on increasing sales tax from 1.1 to 1.5 per cent to bring in an additional $7,000,000 to $8,000,000. CIGARETTES - Senate, raise $31,500,000 by boosting tax 3 cents a pack. House, raise $10,500,000 (estimated) by a 1 cent a pack increase. UTILITIES - Senate, increase the tax on water, gas and electric utilities by 20 per cent, for an estimated $2,600,000. House, increase all other utilities to the telephone company rate of 2.3 per cent for an estimated $8,000,000. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES - Senate, increase liquor tax from $1.40 to $1.65 a gallon, to raise $2,000,000. House, increase it to $2.25 a gallon for $7,000,000. Wine, Senate increased tax by 20 per cent, for $201,000. House doubled it for $1,000,000. Senate also tripled fees for selling beer and wine, doubled permits for liquor selling, for an estimated $1,600,000. House bill does not include this. TOBACCO PRODUCTS - Senate, could tax all such products, except snuff, by 12.5 per cent, to raise $5,400,000. House tax is twice his. SULPHUR - Senate voted to retain present rate. House would raise from $1.40 to $1.03 per ton, here is disagreement as to whether production increase would offset the tax increase in total revenue received. THEATRE ADMISSIONS - Both Senate and House lopped this by about $120,000 a year. SOUND EQUIPMENT - Senate added a 2.2 per cent sales tax on radios, televisions, hi-fi and stereophonic sets for an estimated $3,200,000. BOATS - Senate added 1.5 per cent sales tax on boats and motors for an estimated $5,000,000. PROPERTY BILL NIXED - For the second time this year, the House of Representatives has refused to sweep uncalmed property into the State Treasury. The vote of 66-65 killed efforts in the Special Session. Vote that killed the bill earlier in the regular session was almost as close. Gov. Price Daniel had urged the measure as a means of raising an estimated $25,000,000 for the State's ailing general fund. It would have required banks, oil and gas companies, insurance companies and others to turn over to the state any property belonging to persons who have been missing for more than seven years. Bank lobbyists were blamed by Daniel for defeat of the bill. He said they must accept responsibility for the state's having to raise, through new taxes, the $25,000,000 the bill would have produced. Bankers have contended the escheat procedure would undermine depositors' confidence in the safety of their deposits. LICENSE PLAN STUDIED - Economy forces are taking a good look at whether or not the state's licensing practices might be unnecessarily expensive. Historically the state has issued licenses annually. There's now some thinking that a lot of the licenses could just as easily be issued permanently, subject to cancellation for cause. Fees would still be collected annually, but a lot of time and money possibly could be saved by not having to type out and mail a new document each year. Such a procedure was authorized by the Legislature in regular session for insurance companies. Some licenses probably couldn't be adapted to the permanent policy. Among these would be drivers licenses, hunting and fishing licenses, and auto inspection stickers. SEVEN RUN FOR SPEAKER - Now the count is up to seven in the House speakership race. Seventh man in the lineup is Rep. Frank B. McGregor of Waco. His announcement was made at a luncheon sponsored by the Waco Chamber of Commerce. Six already in the race are Reps. Ben Glusing of Kingsville, Wade Spilman of McAllen, W. T. Oliver of Port Neches, L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, Jerry Sadler of Palestine and James A. Turman of Gober. SHORT SNOOTS - Radar traps must be test-checked for accuracy before a speeding ticket is valid, the Court of Criminal Appeals has held. Expert testimony in the case before the court had contended that as much as a 20 per cent error can occur if the radar machine is not set up properly..... Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Ben Ramsey's new daughter, Maribon, born June 8, officially became "princess of the senate" in record time. By unanimous vote, the honor was bestowed when she was just one day old.

Sandhills Philosopher

Maybe We'd Better Get Out To Space In Hurry

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm must have bills he can't pay, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor: From time to time I have poked a little fun at all the excitement some people work up over exploring outer space. I've been contending that when we finally get a man out into space, he may find there's nothing out there, at least nothing half as interesting as what he already had on earth, and all that money we're spending may be in vain.

But now I wish to revise my opinions a little. After long thought and meditation, I have figured out a reason why we ought to go ahead and explore space. I thought of it the other afternoon while I was reading a newspaper I picked up a day or two before. Some people think if they don't read a newspaper the day it's published, it's not worth reading, but I've found you can wait two or three days and read it and sometimes get more out of it than you could the day it was printed, especially if you've read another one or two in the mean time and subsequent reports have corrected the earlier ones.

According to this article, nobody knows how much money the world owes. They have a pretty good idea what a given country owes, nationally, but nobody has figured up all the debts of all the states all the counties, all the cities and towns, all the school districts, water districts, etc. And also, nobody has figured up how much individual families owe. But everybody agrees if you added up all of it, the figure would be overwhelming, flabbergasting. In fact, some people are contending the world if it keeps going in debt will wind up bankrupt. Now here's where exploring space comes in. I'm not a lawyer, but I understand that when a man goes bankrupt, and wants to settle his debts by pleading bankruptcy, he has to at least find a court that's solvent to hear the case. If we can just find a space that's solvent, the world's bankruptcy that's just what we're looking for. Instead of feeling space, we'd better get in a hurry.

Letters To Editor

My dear Mr. Turner: May I take the time to tell you how much I enjoy your paper? I do not know Mrs. Turner, but would you be so kind as to let me know how to get in touch with her. I keep close check on your paper, especially the Keeling team. Paul Keeling is a great-nephew. Baseball is a wonderful sport. Estelle L. Davis, P. O. Box 630, Alamo Heights, San Antonio, Tex.

State Board Takes Action To Better Teacher Training

AUSTIN - The State Board of Education has taken three-way action to improve the training and certification of teachers for Texas public schools. Similarly the move was based on three things: Recommendations of a special board committee after a one-year study, four years' experience under the 1955 teacher certification law, and in part upon recommendation of the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education, an advisory professional group. The continuing increase in student population, accompanied by a shortage of qualified teachers which required the issuance of 4,300 emergency teaching permits last school year, focused the spotlight on the role of certification in meeting this emergency. The education board did these things:

1. Effective immediately, established more practical regulations for issuance renewal or emergency teaching permits, and placed certification of out-of-state applicants in the hands of the Texas Education Agency instead of teacher training colleges.
2. Asked the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education to consider immediately possible changes in: (a) The number of professional courses required for a teaching certificate; (b) conversion of certified teachers to other teaching fields; (c) an accelerated program in teacher education for the exceptionally able students; and (d) certification requirements for persons already holding college degrees.
3. Called for extended study of several other problems in this field. The special board committee praised as "basically sound" the teacher certification program set up under a 1955 law and said it found many strong points. However, experience now indicates a need for revisions, it reported. The committee, headed by R. W. Byram of Austin, emphasized the "great importance of the Texas public school system" of having teachers prepared under present state standards. These include a balanced program of approximately 40 per cent liberal arts, 40 per cent subject matter courses he will teach, and 20 per cent professional education courses—including one-fourth devoted to student teaching in the field.

one-fourth of the deficiencies each year, whichever is less. In extreme hardships, this requirement could be waived for the next year. And it would be waived entirely for persons qualified to teach in high school but assigned to the sixth grade in elementary school, if they teach subjects for which they are trained. Teachers trained in other states have heretofore been referred by the Texas Education Agency to a Texas college for evaluation of their college credits and recommendation for certification or additional college work. Because requirements vary with each college this has led to "shopping around" by out-of-state applicants. This evaluation was placed in the Texas Education Agency to simplify matters. Four other problems were referred to the State Board of Examiners for Teacher Education. First, professional education courses required of teacher trainees. These include six semester hours of pre-professional courses, usually an introduction to education and a course in introductory psychology; 12 semester hours of professional courses, generally related to method, advanced child or adolescent psychology, public school curriculum, and history and philosophy of education; and a final six hours of intern experience in a regular teaching situation (student, or practice, teaching). The board suggested that the six hours pre-professional courses be optional with the student, if the content was available in other courses; that the 12 hours of professional courses and the student teaching requirements be continued and strengthened. It did suggest further, however, that a person with three years' experience under an emergency permit be allowed to substitute that experience for the six semester hours of student teaching. Next, it recommended that a way be found for teachers to change from high school to elementary and vice versa, or from special areas such as art and music to regular classrooms, and vice versa. Third, the board recognized the need for teacher training programs for the exceptionally able student, to parallel those in other fields. Fourth, a plan whereby persons with college degrees but who have not completed teacher preparation could become certified with a minimum of additional requirements.

Newest State Inspires Home Sewing Designs

THE HAWAIIAN INFLUENCE now moves into the home sewing field, producing wonderful, colorful casual clothes to wear at home or on the beach.

A bright new idea borrowed from the 50th state is a gay flowered tunic of quilted cotton satin, to wear at home with skinny pants or even on the beach for a swimsuit cover-up.

It's easy to make. Local sewing center experts suggest that you can use a basic pattern for a sheath dress, and adapt it to the tunic look by slitting the seams to hip length, and making the sleeves short. Waistline darts can be adjusted for an easy fit.

It's important to select the correct binding for your tunic. Pima cotton bias tape is best for fine fabrics, since its luster goes with such things as cotton satin.

A rose printed cotton satin tunic can use three shades of binding—pale pink, crimson and black. These three rows of tape can be ingeniously stitched so that no stitches show on the outside. Here's how to do it:

Open one fold of the inner (pale pink) bias binding. With raw edge toward hem of garment and fold line approximately one inch from hem, stitch along fold line and allow tape to fold over naturally. Follow the same process for the crimson row of tape, catching the bottom of the pink tape in this second row of stitching. Repeat with the black tape. Finish by hand-stitching black tape in place on wrong side of garment.

HAWAIIAN TUNIC—Easy to make at home, fun to wear.

The pattern used for this tunic was Vogue Printed Pattern 9439.

Commemorative Stamp For Conservation Slated

A 4-cent postage stamp saluting progress in soil conservation in the United States will be issued Aug. 26 by the Post Office Department the U. S. Department week.

The nation's first soil conservation stamp will be formally released at the annual meeting of the Soil Conservation Society of America at Rapid City, S. D., Aug. 26. It will go on sale the following day at post offices throughout the country.

The stamp, which was developed in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, portrays a modern farmland setting signifying that conservation farming brings beauty as well as bounty to rural living. Soil conservation practices portrayed include contour stripcropping, terracing, pasture improvement, tree planting, and a farm pond. In addition, the silhouette of a city in the background symbolizes that urban as well as rural people are highly dependent upon the care and wise use of land as a principal source of food, water, shelter and clothing. The stamp will be printed in three colors, yellow, green and blue.

A total of 120 million stamps has been ordered. The artist is Walter Hortens of New York, a native of Vienna.

Issuance of the stamp, officials said, is a tribute to farmers and of the Department of Agriculture rangers, their local soil conservation districts and to the professional conservationists and other agricultural workers who have helped make the United States a world leader in soil conservation.

Observances are planned in most of the Nation's 2,840 soil conservation districts in cooperation with civic and conservation groups.

First-day "covers" containing the stamp are available through the Postmaster at Rapid City, S.D. Upon request and receipt of addressed envelopes and a remittance to cover the cost of the stamps, abolished," Sen. Aiken said. "Only the fact that some surpluses are produced holds retail food prices as low as they are today. Even a slight shortage would result in skyrocketing consumer prices. A major portion of the costs charged to farmers actually goes to benefit consumers."

"Do the millions of mothers in our cities realize that the lunches which their children receive at school are charged in part to the farm program?"

"Do our internationally minded citizens know that billions of dollars worth of foreign aid and military assistance programs are paid for with farm commodities, the cost of which is charged to long-range benefits?"

"Does the housewife realize that much of the research work that goes into the preparation and handling of food for her benefit is charged against farm programs?"

"How many people realize that we are planting over a billion forest trees a year on eroded and fire-damaged land, and that farmers who plant those trees will in all probability never live to harvest a single one of them?"

"How many urban dwellers know that the millions spent to conserve water supplies help prevent floods and provide water for city and industrial uses that make jobs for them?"

"Nearly 40 per cent of our gainfully employed people are engaged in making farm supplies, producing crops, and in processing, transporting and handling agricultural commodities."

"There is plenty to eat and wear today, indeed, more than enough, but two short crops in succession could throw our economy into a panic. Speculation and inflation would follow. Food costs would rise. Unemployment and depression would follow."

"I hope the seriousness of the situation will come home to all those who talk solely in terms of costly handouts to farmers and oppressive burdens on taxpayers. I hope they will take the time to read the credit side of the farm program ledger."

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Miss Mildred Mason, who pounds a typewriter all day in an office, also plays the typewriter for the Richmond Symphony Orchestra.

THIS WEEK In Washington

With CLINTON DAVIDSON

It takes a brave man to stand up in Congress and defend farmers and farm programs in the face of the national flood of adverse criticism being heaped on the heads of farmers.

Any congressman who speaks out for farmers risks his political career. That is one reason why a recent speech by Sen. George Aiken deserves wider attention than it got at the time.

Sen. Aiken has served as a member of the Senate Agriculture Committee for almost 20 years, both as chairman and ranking minority member, and has had a major role in writing most of the farm legislation now in effect.

The Vermont Republican noted that "some government officials, newspapers, magazines, business organizations and individuals are attacking the farm programs" and creating public resentment against farmers.

"The furor over farm programs, he told the Senate, has become so intense, so biased and so unreasoning as to cast confusion and suspicion into the public mind."

Abolish Farm Programs?
There are some who advocate that all farm programs be abolished. They believe lower farm and food prices would benefit consumers. Sen. Aiken contends that farm programs benefit consumers as much or more than farmers.

"It is not the farmer so much as it is the public that would pay dearly if farm programs were Don't take it from us—take it from independent experts and from facts and figures that are now a matter of record. POPULAR SCIENCE sums up Chevy's unmistakably modern style this way: "The fact is, in its price class Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling. . . . This is one more reason your new Chevrolet will bring a higher allowance at trade-in time, as Chevy has over the years. A look at last year's used car prices* shows Chevrolet averaged up to $128 more than comparable models of the other leading low-priced two.

*Guide Book figures of the National Automobile Dealers Assn.

PLUS 5 MORE BIG BESTS OVER ANY OTHER CAR IN CHEVROLET'S FIELD!

Best Brakes. Chevy showed the best brakes of the leading low-priced three in repeated highway speed stopping tests conducted by NASCAR.* No wonder. Chevy's brakes, built for up to two-thirds longer lining life, are the biggest in its field.
*National Association for Black Car Advancement and Research.

Best Engine. Every motor magazine has given Chevy's passenger car and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Economy. No doubt about this: a pair of Chevrolet sixes came in first and second in their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run—getting the best mileage of any full-size car.

Best Room. Dimensions reported to the Automobile Manufacturers Association make it clear. Chevy's front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

Best Ride. No doubt about this. MOTOR TREND magazine sums it up this way: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

NO WONDER MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING CHEVROLETS IN '59 THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Judo Recommended For Hothouse

By GERALD MILLER
BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) —Judo, a killer skill once used only by commandos, seems fast becoming as popular as party games.

Viola Maciejewski, a shapely housewife is a happy part of it. With 40 other men and women from the middle walks of life she attends a night course at a suburban high school here under the tutelage of a burly ex-Marine lieutenant.

She and her classmates are head over heels in the trend as they crash to the mats with many a bone-jarring thud, and most speak highly of what they're learning.

"Personally, I think everybody should learn judo," declares Mrs. Maciejewski. "Believe me, nothing cools off a wise guy like a toss on his ear."

Equally enthused, for other reasons, is William J. Moran, a white-haired, wispy gentleman of 76.

"Wouldn't guess I was that old, would you?" he asks, executing a quick dance step to demonstrate his spryness.

"Exercise and diet, that's the ticket. Key to health. Judo's wonderful exercise and I love it. I'll tell you something else, too, sonny. It's an art. Why, you could break a man's arm like a matchstick if you wanted. Wonderful."

Youngest in the class is Victor Drzakowski, a serious 17-year-old
