THIS CURIOUS WORLD

The GORILLA
MIGHT BE THE HEAD OF THE ANIMAL KINGDOM, WERE IT NOT FOR MAN.

IN SPITE OF HIS NEARNESS TO THE HUMAN RACE, HE IS THE LEAST KNOWN AND UNDERSTOOD OF ALL THE LARGE ANIMALS. HIS HOME IS IN THE VOLCANIC MOUNTAINS OF CENTRAL AFRICA.

GORILLAS, FROM THEIR EARLIEST DISCOVERY, HAVE BEEN REGARDED AS FEROCIOUS MAN-KILLERS. AS A MATTER OF FACT THEY TRY TO AVOID COMBATS WITH HUMAN BEINGS, BUT WHEN FORCED, THEY LIVE UP TO THEIR REPUTATION. AN UNARMED MAN IS NO MATCH FOR THESE 400-POUND "MEN OF THE WOODS."

THE NORMAL WALKING ATTITUDE OF THE GORILLA IS NOT ERECT, BUT ON ALL FOURS. HIS FOOD CONSISTS MAINLY OF BAMBOO SHOOTS, WHICH HE PULLS THROUGH HIS TEETH, THUS STRIPPING THE BARK FROM THE TOUGH, WOODY STEMS.

WHILE THE FEMALE AND YOUNG GORILLAS SLEEP AT NIGHT IN TREES, THE MALE REPOSES AGAINST THE TRUNK BELOW, ON GUARD.

The GIBBON, A SMALL APE OF INDIA, IS MORE HUMAN, IN POSTURE, THAN THE GORILLA.

PIGGLY-WIGGLY HAS MODERN MARKET

One of the features of the local Piggly-Wiggly store that is responsible for attracting a large number of their hundreds of customers is their modern and sanitary market.

Mr. Harry Smith, Manager of the Market has been connected with the Piggly-Wiggly concern for only a short time but is well known throughout the Littlefield section. He has had over 20 years experience in many of the better markets over West Texas.

Not only does the market department offer fresh home killed meats, but also carries a large quantity of choice corn-fed steaks, roasts, sausages and other cuts.

The market is equipped with the most modern type of electrical refrigerated display counters.

The market is owned by Ellis Foust and has established a wide reputation of giving fair, satisfactory dealings in all of their transactions.

Last Month Dryest October in 20 Years

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Last Month was the driest October in 20 years—that's as far back as the weather bureau records go. During the month there was only .9 of an inch rainfall recorded against a normal for October of 2.71 inches.

Water Carried 480 Miles To Irrigate Rice

WHARTON, Texas, Nov. 14.—(UP)—Rice growers in this section of Texas are completing the harvest of a 62,000 acre-crop which was saved from the drought with water brought 480 miles.

Had the growers not resorted to this experiment in long range irrigation, the crop would have been ruined, they agree.

Growers and the Gulf Coast Water Supply company last June negotiated with operators of Brownwood dam to buy 14,000 acre feet of water for $10,000.

When the plan was undertaken rice fields in Wharton, Matagorda and Colorado counties were suffering heavily from lack of water and drastic action was required to prevent crop destruction.

The water was started downstream from the Colorado river June 27 and began to reach its destination July 4. Pumping stations lifted the water from the river and poured it on fields 480 miles away.

At least three representatives of nationally advertised products will be at the Piggly-Wiggly store Saturday to give special demonstrations on their products in connection with the Third Anniversary Food Sale the store is conducting.

The General Foods company will have a representative in the store serving Maxwell House Coffee to the visitors and demonstrating other products for the company.

The Brown Cracker Company will also have a representative.

Financial Aid for Centennial Doomed

The bills to provide financial aid for the Texas Centennial was killed Friday night in the Texas legislature while strong efforts were planned to salvage a bill to establish the lower Colorado river authority from the wreckage in the closing hours of the session.

Centennial advocates fought doggedly to make headway against the stubborn resistance of well organized forces in the form of an apparently endless stream of amendments, but gave up the ship when the Colorado bill was brought up, which provided extended debate.

BANKHEAD BILL, ROAD PROJECT, RED CROSS DRIVE DISCUSSED AT TUESDAY'S C. OF C. LUNCHEON

In the absence of the President, A. R. Hendricks, J. S. Hilliard, Vice-President, presided at the regular Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting Tuesday.

T. S. Sales gave a report on Saturday's trade day, stating it had been decided at a meeting earlier in the day to continue the plan until January 1.

J. S. Hilliard made a talk on the possible legislature regarding the Bankhead Bill, stating that Congressman Marvin Jones would probably present a bill to amend it in the coming session of congress.

Rev. Joe F. Grizzle made a report on the meeting of the local road committee with the Portales Chamber of Commerce group, the delegation from Bailey County, and State Highway officials, Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Dr. Ira E. Woods spoke on the annual Red Cross Membership drive which will be staged here Tuesday of next week, urging

SPECIAL PRICES ARE OFFERED FOR SATURDAY AND ALL NEXT WEEK

In observing their Third Anniversary in Littlefield the local Piggly-Wiggly Grocery & Market is planning a gigantic food sale, starting Saturday, November 17 and continuing all next week, J. O. Garlington announced.

Every department is preparing for the greatest sale in the history of the store, Mr. Garlington declared. Every department is being checked to see that all stocks are complete, and prices are being marked down to the lowest possible figure.

"This great value demonstration is being staged for a dual reason," Mr. Garlington said. "That we might express our appreciation of our hundreds of patrons for their splendid patronage we have received during the three years we have been in Littlefield, and as an invitation to those we have not had the pleasure of serving to acquaint themselves with Piggly-Wiggly quality and value."

Not only will special prices be given throughout the store, but factory representatives of the various world famous companies whose products are carried in stock will give special demonstrations throughout the day.

Mr. Garlington said that a special effort is being made to arrange the stock in the most convenient manner for the shoppers during this event and extra clerks will be employed to assist the hundreds of visitors expected during the sale.

Farmers to Vote On Bankhead Bill

Compulsory control of cotton production, most radical of the New Deal farm plans, will face the acid test of a popular vote during the second week of December.

After a year's trial of the aBankhead act, which sought to limit production to 10,460,251 bales this year, the farm administration announced Saturday that it will ask cotton farmers: "Are you in favor of continuing the Bankhead act for next year?"

The exact date on which the poll will be taken at 8,000 balloting points throughout the South has not been finally determined. It hinges now upon completion of printing of the ballots, information, and tally sheets.

Secretary Wallace, in a statement accompanying the sample ballot, declared results of the vote will have no effect on the voluntary control program which will be reopened for new signers within a few weeks. Rental and benefit payments for acreage adjustment next year will continue on much the same basis as prevailed this year, he added.

UNSURPASSED SERVICE IS FOUND AT LOCAL PIGGLY-WIGGLY STORE

One of the primary motives of the local Piggly-Wiggly Grocery & Market, besides offering quality merchandise, is to give service to the consuming public of the entire Littlefield section. The store is so arranged as to provide that feature.

Shelves, counters and displays are easy of access at the store, and are so arranged so that a consumer may find his or her needs with practically no difficulty. This is the universal plan of the Piggly-Wiggly organization.

Each shelf displayed with products has a price tag plainly marked and exhibited. Stocks are kept in groups, canned fruits by themselves, canned vegetables, spices, cereals, soups and wash products, canned meats and fish, salads, syrups, flour, crackers, cakes, pickles, etc., arranged in order in the store.

Perishable foods, such as butter, milk, eggs and cream are kept in modern refrigeration units as are the meats.

Baskets are available at the checking counter as the customer enters the store. The checking counter is so arranged that all rushes may be handled with ease.

An ample number of courteous, well-trained clerks are employed to assist the shoppers.

Reduction Program For 1935 Cotton Drafted Thursday

A 1935 program for American cotton crop, which calls for the largest possible acreage reduction and increased payments to cooperating farmers was drafted Thursday by the Agricultural adjustment administration.

As yet the plan is labeled "unofficial" but authoritative quarters report Secretary Wallace almost certainly would order an acreage cut of 25 per cent below the average in the past of around 41,000,000 acres.

The majority of the South's cotton growers already have signed contracts pledging reduction for 1935. Those agreements provide that 25 per cent reduction is the maximum which may be ordered from Washington.

Only the discovery that Funds would be unavailable, one official said, would prevent the increase in payments to southern farmers who are cooperating, or who agree to do so in the future.

At the same time, it was revealed at the farm administration that negotiations are underway with Germany for a deal which would involve exchange of about 500,000 bales of cotton for German goods.

M. T. McKinnon Grows Turnip Weighing 4 Lbs.

M. T. McKinnon of two miles northwest of Littlefield brought to the Leader office Monday a large turnip grown in his garden measuring 21 inches in circumference, and weighing four pounds.

Mr. McKinnon has only a small turnip patch in his garden, in which he has beans, peas, tomatoes, and as he puts it "anything that could be raised in a family garden."

He planted his turnips the latter part of August, and though no rain has fallen, through irrigation he claims to have a splendid garden.
