CWE CHAT WITH EDITOR

Congratulations, to the thinclads headed for regional competition! Good!

— cwe —
Don't forget the Cystic Fibrosis Benefit Friday evening.

— cwe —
Have you started cleaning out that closet, garage and/or attic? You need to get your name on the Garage Sale Map.

— cwe —
Wheeler received 2.38" of moisture over the weekend and it was needed.

— cwe —
The moisture was followed by cooler weather. The bank thermometer showed 48 Monday morning and was down to 46 later in the day.

— cwe —
The temperature showed to be 44 Tuesday morning.

— cwe —
Now everyone should have enough moisture to get their gardens in the ground.

— cwe —
And, I notice Thriftway has their plants in and ready to go.

— cwe —
The Ja'Nae Goad Tournament had to be postponed due to the loss of the clubhouse at Shamrock.

— cwe —
That means you still have time to buy some chances on the items being raffled. They are presently on display at Wheeler Banking Center.

— cwe —
We were in OKC the latter part of the week. Seth had another round with an ear infection.

— cwe —
Cards were played Monday evening with Patsy and Mike unable to get into the win column. Dwight and I managed to win all three games.

STORM REPORT

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
First Grade Student

Dear Friends, You can't believe it! Gus is home!!!

One day after school my mom was very serious. She said, "Stormie, we need to go to the vet clinic." Some ladies by Dr. Mike's office (Parkview Home Health) found a cat. He is at the clinic. All the way to the clinic I was thinking I do hope it is Gus. I know it's my Gus when I saw him. He was a little skinny and a little scared. He put his head on me and purred. I was so excited, but I had to be a little still so I won't scare Gus. I took him home. He is so happy to be home. He purrs and snuggles on me every day. I can't believe I missed him for a long time. Now he's home forever! I am so happy the ladies found my Gus and he is my cat.

One day Aunt Melba and Uncle Gene came to Baba and Pop's house. I was thinking, maybe

Twelfth Annual Ja'Nae Goad Memorial Golf Tournament Rescheduled May 15

Dear Friends,
While we hosted tournaments in windy conditions, in the rain, in the cold, and in the rain/cold/sleet/wind we've never had to host a tournament without the luxury of a clubhouse to come into to get out of these elements. When we heard the Shamrock Country Clubhouse had burned to the ground 2 days before our tournament, we pooled our thoughts and with the help of the Board of Directors of the club we thought the tourney could go on. As the weather conditions grew worse, it became evident that this was going to be impossible.

Because we enjoy the fellowship that the day of the tournament brings, we have decided to reschedule for May 15. We know that this will not work out for everyone who was originally entered, and we are saddened that this turn of events has caused a hardship. We will be glad to refund all entry fees.

If someone on the tournament committee has not contacted you, please call or e-mail us to let us know if you will be able to join us on May 15th or if you would like a refund:

Bulah Grimes Rites Read Sat., April 17

Bulah B. Grimes, 92, went to her Heavenly home Wednesday, April 14, 2010, in Amarillo, Texas, where she resided at The Arbors healthcare facility.

Services were held at 2:00 PM Saturday at First Baptist Church of Mobeetie with Rev. Johnny Crawford, pastor of Reydon Community Church, Reydon, Oklahoma, officiating. Burial followed at the Mobeetie Cemetery, Mobeetie, Texas, with arrangements made by Rector Funeral Home Osage Chapel, 2800 S. Osage Street, Amarillo, Texas.

The family received friends from 5:00 PM-7:00 PM Friday at the funeral home.

Mrs. Grimes was born September 9, 1917, in Sunset, Texas, to Jeff and Mary (Vawter) Brewer and had been a long-time resident of Mobeetie, Texas. She married the love of her life, Doyle Grimes, on July 9, 1938. They lived on a cattle ranch for more than 65 years in Wheeler County. Mrs. Grimes loved to quilt at the old Totty School House Quilting Club with all of her friends. She was a wonderful wife and mother. She loved her family and loved to work and do all the things a farm wife did. Mrs. Grimes loved to garden, raise chickens and all kinds of fruits and vegetables.

She lost her sight in later years. She was said to have had the worst eyesight, but the "best vision". She loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She was a long-time member of the First Baptist Church of Mobeetie. Mrs. Grimes was a faithful witness. She was never satisfied until she knew a person had received Jesus as their Lord and Savior.

She was preceded in death by her husband of more than 70 years in February, 2009, and by her parents.

Mrs. Grimes is survived by two sons, Jerry Grimes and his wife, Beverly, and Gary Grimes and his wife, Marilyn, all of Amarillo, Texas; one daughter, Phillis Tucker and her husband, Jerry, of Guymon, Oklahoma; nine grandchildren, Marvin Grimes and his wife, Kelley, and Darren Grimes and his wife, Wendy, all of Lubbock, Texas; Brent Grimes and his wife, Gina, of Piedmont, Oklahoma; Kelly Adams and her husband, Jason, and D'Wan Grimes, all of Amarillo, Texas; Shanna Ackers and her husband, Scott, of Houston, Texas; Derenda Aranda and her husband, Auden, of Keyes, Oklahoma; Dixie Purdy and her husband, Chris, of Guymon, Oklahoma; and Kendra Cantrell and her husband, Jason, of Dimmitt, Texas; 17 great-grandchildren and three sisters, Audrey Alexander and Mary Sue Lynn, all of Amarillo, Texas, and Betty Talley and her husband, Sid, of Miami, Texas; and one brother, Orvel Brewer and his wife, Rosa, of Pampa, Texas.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorial donations be made to the Mobeetie Cemetery Association in care of the First State Bank of Mobeetie, P.O. Box 8, Mobeetie, Texas 79061.

The family would also like to extend a heartfelt "Thank You" to the doctors and staff of The Arbors and BSA Hospice.

Cori Emmett and Chelsey Emmett

we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose. Romans 8:24-28

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise the Lord, O my soul. While I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that ver day his thoughts perish. Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever. Which executeth judgement for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The Lord looseth the prisoners: The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind: the Lord raiseth them that are bowed down: the Lord loveth the righteous: The Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upsidedown. The Lord shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the Lord. Psalm 146: 1-10

The weather on this Tuesday morning is beautiful as always today. Its cloudy and a breeze and a few sprinkles. That seems to be the usual thing each day now days. Allison has received a lot of rain as of late and it is making the grass, trees and shrubs and flowers just look so beautiful. Everything is greening up and looking like spring, but its cooler than what we usually have I think. But Praise be to Jesus. For he supplies our needs and blesses us daily!!

Roma and Billy June Brown have been having to see the doctor alot lately and Juanita is thankful that she can take them, but she prays and believes that they will be better soon. The Lord is our healer and provider and our keeper and soon coming King!! Praise the Lord!! We are praying for you both and know others will also. Praise God!!

Sunday, Gary Boydston, Shirley Chadwick and Louise Boydston visited Pearl Harrison in the Elk City Nursing Home. She needs our prayers also as she stays dizzy alot and has been in some pain. So I know she covets our prayers. God can change all this for he is our healer! The greatest physician there is. Praise be to Jesus!! Gary Shirley and Louise enjoyed a delicious meal at Western Sizzlin Steakhouse.

Pete Gilmer and sister, Peggy Chandler went to Elk City, Oklahoma for Peggy to see her foot doctor and while they were in Elk they enjoyed a delicious meal at Western Sizzlin Steakhouse and then enjoyed some shopping before returning back to Allison.

Opal and Juanita Boydston have been enjoying visiting in the home of Louise Boydston and Shirley Chadwick. Enjoy visiting them and snacking with them and sometimes eating a meal. Good to have nice visits and sometimes a game of Spinners. Opal won the first game she played since she was in the hospital and then another game was played and Louise won that time. So thankful that Opal feels like playing games again and is gaining her strength and feeling better. Praise be to Jesus!! There is power and healing in the name of Jesus!!!

Bret Begert and Richard Meadows were at the Region 16 Education Service Center last Tuesday evening, representing Ft. Elliott CISD at the Panhandle Area Association of School Boards Meeting and Training Session. Thanks for representing our school and all that ya'll do! Thanks again!!

God Bless and Keep ya'll till next time!!

For anyone who has never heard of Dr. Jekyll, I'll kind of fill you in. . . . When I was a kid, one of the scary movies was called, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Jekyll was a mad scientist who made up a potion and had the bad judgement of drinking it himself, because his assistant wasn't dumb enough to do it for him. Anyway, it transformed him into a monster, right before my very eyes! They called the monster man, "Mr. Hyde." That may sound like a mighty fancy name for a monster man, but that's the way it was.

One of our neighbors who lived down close to Sweetwater Creek, had a sow that was just about ready to have a litter of pigs. Dad, was wanting a few more hogs, so he bought her from the man. We brought her home and sure enough, in a couple of weeks, she had five or six pigs. Dad kept her in a small pen all to herself. The baby pigs seemed to be doing very well, but she started to change. . . . She began to get skinny, her nose seemed to get longer; reminded me of the Arkansas razorbacks.

The pigs continued to look good as long as they were still nursing, but as soon as Dad weaned them, by moving them to another pen, they started to develop the same features as their mom. No matter how much we fed her and them, they stayed skinny. As if this wasn't problem enough, the old sow decided she really preferred chicken, over any other food we were feeding her.

It was just about suicide for a chicken to get in the old sows pen. She'd let it walk around in the pen, pecking at stuff on the ground until it began to feel comfortable, then she would sidle up beside it. In the blink of an eye, she'd grab the chicken. She probably ate more chickens in three or four months, than the coyotes did all year.

Dad, finally gave up on getting her fattened up and "took her to town." He didn't keep the young pigs very long after weaning. He said he didn't want to put up with five or six little chicken-killers; just wasn't worth it. . . .

Guynes Family Gathering

Sharon and Jack Helton were hosts April 15-16 to guests who, along with Sharon, are great or great-great grandchildren of Juliet Jolly Morris Rowe.

Juliet immigrated to America in May 1901. She had six children; William, Annie, John Hender 'Andrew', Beatrice, Frederick, and Matthew. The two older boys, William and Andrew, had preceded the rest in coming to America, and Annie stayed in England. But Beatrice, Frederick and his new wife, Ada, Matthew and Juliet's granddaughter Margaret Morris Kendall, daughter of Annie, all accompanied her.

Coming via New York's Ellis Island, they traveled to Dallas where William and Andrews awaited. They lived in Wilbarger County for a time, but eventually all except William moved to Wheeler County where they made their home the rest of their lives. It has recently been learned that William made his way to British Columbia and farmed with his family there until his death.

The gathering of Juliet's descendants was prompted by a visit from England of David Richard Kendall and his wife Jeanette, also a great-great-grandson of Juliet. David's great-grandmother, Annie, the daughter who remained in England, had three children: Uncle Frank and Aunt Elsie and Margaret, the oldest daughter who came to America with her grandmother Juliet. Frank and Elsie remained in England with their mother, and Frank is David's grandfather. David has been interested in genealogy and in seeing some of the places the English immigrants lived after they came to America.

David and Jeanette arrived in Amarillo April 14th and were met by Edith Guynes Stanley and traveled to Borger. James Woosley, grandson of William and Beatrice Rowe Greenhouse, and his wife Pat enjoyed meeting David and Jeanette for dinner.

Sharon Helton and Lynda Wallace served a Mexican pile-on lunch for the guests when they arrived on Thursday after a motor tour of Borger and Wheeler to see some of the places family mem-

Uncle Gene made some jerky for me. I didn't ask him. I waited and waited and then— Wah-Lah - he gave me a bag of jerky! It is sooo good! Aunt Melba gave me a dozen cartoon DVDs and a very special breakable tea set. It's real and I will be very careful with it. I will keep it for my little girl someday. I love to see Aunt Melba and Uncle Gene; it's just like Christmas!

The music program is going to be awesome! It's almost time. That's it.

Those at dinner in the evening at 7H Ranch, in addition to David and Jeanette Kendall, included: Florine Guynes Beaty, Jack and Sharon Beaty Helton, Richard and Lynda Beaty Wallace, Craig Helton, Gene and Sheila Guynes Watson, Doyle and Sarah Jane Goad Pond, Robert and Marla Pond Ford, Spencer Ford, Mitchell Ford, and Edith Guynes Stanley.

David and Jeanette were delightful and interesting guests and all enjoyed the opportunity to meet our cousin and hope some day to visit them in England.

Craig Helton prepared 'camper's surprise' for brunch on Friday. After brunch and before leaving Wheeler to return to Borger, Spencer Ford took us on a tour of the Wheeler Fire Department, where he is a Junior Fireman.

Twila Guynes Lehmann came to Borger from Austin Friday evening to meet David and Jeanette and accompany Edith to Amarillo on Saturday to see them off as they continue their trip. They are on a cruise from Galveston to Barcelona, Spain and then home to Falmouth, Cornwall, England.

Nerve & skin damage Cold Therapy

Ice cooler devices, prescribed by surgeons and podiatrists for pain and swelling, may cause frostbite-like injuries to the skin and underlying nerves. Manufacturers like Donjoy Iceman, Breg Polar Care and EB Ice, often chose not to provide adequate instruction or warning that would have avoided these permanent, life-altering injuries. If you or a loved one has been hurt by a cold therapy machine, please call today for professional insight.
