Mules ride wind to 2nd-straight win

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

TULIA — Muleshoe won two straight games for the first time this decade, but not without a scare.

Manuel Campolla ended a furious fourth-quarter Tulia rally with a late interception, helping the Mules to hang on a for a 28-21 win Friday in a District 1-3A game.

"It was full of tricks and treats," Muleshoe head coach David Wood said in obvious reference to Halloween about Tulia's 14-point fourth quarter rally. "But, a win is a win. I don't care how we got it."

Muleshoe tailback Gilbert Vela rushed for 147 yards and two touchdowns for the Mules, his fourth-straight game 100-yard effort.

Junior Matt McClanahan passed for one touchdown and ran for another as Muleshoe improved to 4-5 overall and 3-3 in district.

Roy Gonzales was the workhorse for Tulia, rushing for 150 yards and one touchdown on 29 carries.

But it was Aaron Scarborough who provided the fourth-quarter spark for Tulia.

The Hornets (1-8, 1-5) actually held a 278-243 edge in total yards, but Muleshoe took advantage of four costly Tulia turnovers.

Wood said turnovers and taking advantage of a stiff north wind that blew in during half-time were the keys.

"We didn't make the big mistake," Wood said. Muleshoe had no turnovers.

Muleshoe rode the wind to a 21-point third quarter, scoring three times within the span of five minutes.

Clinging to a 7-6 halftime lead, Muleshoe forced Tulia to punt into at least a 25-mile-per wind.

Muleshoe went after the punter and blocked a punt for the second-straight game.

Douglass Field got a hand on the punt and Rodney Alanis scooped up the bouncing ball,

MHS THEATRE DEPT. PRESENTS 'INTO THE WOODS'

Nov. 3-4 at 7:30 p.m.

The Muleshoe High School Theatre was buzzing with excitement and anticipation Thursday evening as drama students made final refinements in preparation its Fall Show.

The performance of "Into the Woods — a series of fairy tales" will begin at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 3 and Tuesday, Nov 4 in the high school theatre.

The play, chosen by the students, rolls several well known fairy tales into one story. However, this play takes a different and more realistic look at the lives of the characters.

"It tells the romantic side that we are used to hearing, but it also tells the dark side— what happens at the end of their lives. We find out that they don't necessarily live 'happily ever after,'" said MHS theatre teacher Dr. Kerry Moore. "Instead the play reveals how life itself offers obstacles for everyone."

The play has created a different challenges for Moore compared to plays he has directed in the past. First, only four of the 19 cast members have stage experience, so the basics had to be taught and mastered in a short time.

A second obstacle has been finding a time that all of the students are available, as well as, a place to meet since many nights the auditorium has been utilized for other school events.

However, Moore said that by having good seniors, they can help direct the Teamwork is behind the construction of a baseball field in the new city park, according to the head of the Muleshoe school system.

The plan to build a regulation size baseball field to be shared by the high school baseball program and city youth teams was finalized earlier this month when the City Council and Muleshoe school board signed a joint use agreement.

Superintendent Bill Moore said the project would have been nearly impossible without cooperation of the Muleshoe Independent School District Board, City Council and the Muleshoe Athletic Booster Club.

"I think it's a great benefit for everybody in the community," said Bill Moore, Muleshoe Independent School District superintendent. "For one thing, it's a more efficient use of tax dollars."

Muleshoe grad national beauty spokeswoman

By TERESA STONE
Journal staff writer

Four years ago, the "Donahue" show caught Crystal Isaacks' attention, as beauty experts dispelled the myths between expensive brand and drug store brand skin care products.

The 1983 graduate of Muleshoe High School could have never guessed that one day she too would be on national television promoting Alpha Hydrox, the product that the experts were so adamantly recommending. But, that is exactly what Isaacks did this past August.

Isaacks not only tried Alpha Hydrox, but was so pleased with the quality that she wrote the company a letter. Last year she was contacted by the company and asked to participate in a national commercial — actually four commercials and one testimonial.

"It was the best thing I ever did," said Isaacks, who stays busy keeping up with her energetic four-year old son Kane and teaching third grade in the Levelland.

Wiseman attends H&R Block tax convention

Kay Wiseman, owner of the H&R Block franchise in Muleshoe, was among more than 100 franchise owners attending the annual H&R Block satellite franchise convention held in Dallas Oct. 22-25.

At the top of the convention's agenda was the Tax Relief Act. of 1997.

"With 114 new tax law provisions going into effect in 1998, and 36 being retroactive, taxpayers are going to need help understanding the changes," says Kay Wiseman. "Even though this new legislation contains the most sweeping changes in years, we will be prepared to answer our clients' questions and advise them how these changes will affect their personal tax situation."

Also attending the convention was Chris Meck, Vice President of Franchise Operations from the H&R Block's World Headquarters in Kansas City, Missouri and Ken Treat, Executive Vice President from the regional office in Dallas, to repeat it again, and again, and again," said Isaacks.

In August, Isaacks, along with five other women from across the United States and Canada, were brought to Denver to film the commercials. But this wasn't any ordinary commercial. There were no lines to memorize or parts to learn. The ladies were asked to just naturally visit and share their opinions on the Alpha Hydrox products.

"We not only talked about how pleased we were with Alpha Hydrox, but we also shared stories about our families and lives. We came to know each other like best friends. I had so much fun," said Isaacks.

Isaacks' West Texas accent makes her quite easy to spot in the commercials. In fact, company representatives say that Isaacks is becoming quite famous for her "Go git ya some" line. The commercials can be seen on network and syndicated stations across North America throughout 1997 and 1998.

She is the daughter of Kathryn Taylor of Muleshoe.

JACK'S CREATION KIT

BAXTER
BLACK
ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

I can remember the first time I saw Jack. It was then I realized human beings came in kits. . . ready for assembly.

I appreciate the blessings I've been given; a sense of humor, a good . . . no, uh, a full . . . no, um, a quick . . . no, hmmm... a sense of humor. So please don't think I'm ungrateful.

I can watch a good veterinary surgeon C-section a heifer in twenty minutes and admire her. Although it does bring back a memory where in I'm stripped to the waist, on a windy knoll, my knee in the incision to keep the intestines contained, whilst wielding a four-inch suture needle and ten feet of umbilical tape whipping in the breeze. But it doesn't bother me.

I can attend a horse training class in which the trainer takes a 12 year old Belgian/Arab stallion that's never been touched by human hands and in fifteen minutes that same horse will be driving a crew cab pickup with manual transmission. As I listen, I see flashbacks of lashing lunge lines, broken poles, steel panels bent double, concrete posts upended, rope burns on the palm of my hand and the emergency room ceiling. But I'm not jealous.

At rodeos good ropers effortlessly cast their silken strings around speeding beasts while visions of tangled lines, duck-out horses, balky steers, dust clouds and thumbs the size of a polish sausage flit through my mind. But I feel no envy.

Everybody's good at something, I always say. But when I saw Jack standing on the stage with a guitar in his hand, he looked like a Greek statue of Hercules. Broad across the shoulders, narrow at the hip, tall, a face chiseled from marble and a full head of hair. Surely, I thought, he can't sing. He opened his mouth and a deep booming operatic note came rolling out. Well . . . the guitar must be a prop. Then he played a rippling set of passing chords up and down the neck. I soon found out he was a magnificent song writer, sincere, God fearing, modest and impossible to dislike.

It was then I realized humans came in kits. Each kit with equal parts comes trundling down the giant assembly line in the sky. My kit had the misfortune of being next to Jack's. "Let's make this one special," said the angel in charge. "Let's give him calves like an ostrich thigh. Where can we get 'em? Well, how 'bout this box? He's supposed to be a cowboy poet. He won't need calves, or shoulders, or hair for that matter."

"Jack needs a voice that sounds like heaven's announcer. We can take most of this poet's vocal cords and just leave him a big nose, he'll get by . . ."

So by the time Jack and I reached the finish line, together we had the makings of two complete, average humans. But they'd robbed so many parts out of my kit to build Jack, he was really 1.5 humans and I was just what was left over.

Seeing us side by side, it's easy to understand the kit theory of creation. Sorta like comparing the king of the jungle, a magnificent lion, with a hyena-anteater cross. Oh, well, I kinda like ants.

School board discusses roofing project

By TERESA STONE
Journal staff writer

Plans for roof repairs at each of the local schools were officially initiated Monday night by the Muleshoe Independent School District's Board of Trustees.

In the regularly scheduled bi-monthly meeting, the board approved the hiring of architect Bill Adley of Lubbock to oversee the plans for the roofing project.

All four schools suffered significant hail damage last spring and need roofing repairs, Muleshoe Independent School District Superintendent Bill Moore said.

The estimated cost of the project is $900,000 with the majority of it being recouped from insurance claims.

Also during the meeting the board appointed a committee to review textbooks up for adoption by the state.

Textbooks to be considered include core-curriculum classes such as spelling, algebra, geometry, and biology, as well as elective courses such as business computers, computer science, microcomputer applications, and elementary art.

Even if the electives are not currently being offered, the textbooks are reviewed in anicipation that the class may be offered within the six year adoption cycle, Moore said.

The committee, which is comprised of teachers of the subjects under consideration, will review the books and make adoption recommendations to the school board.

In other business, the Board re-appointed Arnold Price to the Bailey County Appraisal District Board which oversees the operations of the central appraisal district. Price, along with Ed Cox, has been serving as the school's representative on the board since June.

The Board also appointed Bailey County extension agents

Curtis Preston and Gail Gladden as Adjunct Faculty members of MISD. They will serve as the official school sponsors of 4-H which allows the club to be conducted as a school sponsored activity.

Also Monday the board officially approved the "joint use agreement" with the city for the new baseball facility to be built at the city park.

Four WJHS students selected to All-Region choir

LUBBOCK—Four Watson Junior High School students were selected to the All-Region junior high choir last Saturday during tryouts at Cavazos Junior High.

Watson students selected were eighth-graders Stephan Shelburne, Laura Wood and Suzanne Messenger, and seventh-grader Cydni Vandiver.

Only 120 singers of the more than 600 that auditioned were selected for the All-Region choir.

"It was fantastic," said second-year choir director David Downum. "It was a great showing."

Downum credited the success to hard work by the students both at school and at home.

The All-Region Choir will perform Nov. 22 at the Lubbock Civic Center.

Muleshoe stings Tulia in 2nd half

Muleshoe exploded for 22 points in the third quarter and whipped Tulia 30-0 Thursday in a District 1-3A junior varsity game at Benny Douglass Stadium.

James Barrett and Jesse Reyes each passed for a touchdown and ran for another as the Mules (6-3 overall, 3-3 in district) won their second-straight game.

Muleshoe scored on its first play from scrimmage in the second half on a 70-yard half-back option pass from Reyes to Jeff Burns, uping the Mules' lead to 16-0.

Barrett capped the Mules' next drive with a five-yard run to make it 22-0.

Late in the third quarter,

Barrett hooked up with John McClanahan for a 40-yard touchdown pass.

Muleshoe took an 8-0 four minutes into the second quarter on Reyes' seven-yard run and Mitch Mason's two-point conversion.

The touchdown was set up by a Tulia fumble that Muleshoe recovered at the 10.

Later in the half, Mason intercepted a pass and returned it 25 yards for an apparent touchdown, but the play was wiped out by a penalty.

Michael Dan Lopez had a fourth-quarter interception to help preserve the shutout.

Muleshoe has given up six points in its last two games.

Muleshoe freshman quarterback Danny Ramirez breaks off a long run during Thursday's 30-0 win against Tulia at Benny Douglass Stadium.

Mules frosh romp over Tulia 30-0

Danny Ramirez ran and passed Muleshoe to a 30-0 win against Tulia Thursday in a freshman game at Benny Douglass Stadium.

Ramirez hooked up with Brandon Broyles for a pair of touchdown passes and scored twice more on option keepers.

The win improves the Mules' record to 5-3 overall and 3-2 in District 1-3A with a game left. Muleshoe finishes with a road game against Canyon Randall at 5 p.m. Nov. 6.

Already leading 16-0, Muleshoe scored on the final play of the first half.

Broyles outjumped a Tulia defender for a Ramirez pass just the goal line as scoreboard buzzer sounded and scored to complete a 17-yard scoring play.

Ramirez and Broyles hooked up for a 31-yard pass play earlier in the second quarter.

Ramirez gave Muleshoe a 8-0 lead, bolting 72 yards for a score on Muleshoe's second play from scrimmage.

The shifty quarterback completed the scoring with a 26-yard run in the fourth quarter.

7th-grade Mules 16-14

Micah Ruthardt scored on a long run with two minutes left, as Watson Junior High rallied for a 16-14 win against Friona Tuesday in the seventh-grade game District 1-3A game at Benny Douglass Stadium.

Ruthardt's 61-yard run tied the score at 14. Philip Field ran for the two-point conversion run, dealing the Chieftains their first district loss. Friona beat WJHS 16-12 earlier this season.

WJHS (2-3-1 overall, 2-3 in district) stopped Friona's final drive, taking over on downs at the Chieftain 30.

The Mules took an 8-0 lead in the second quarter on a 11 pass from Brennan Broyles to Ryan Powell. Field ran for the PAT.

Powell also had a first-quarter interception.

8th Mules romp

Watson Junior High School 8th-grade Mules held Friona to 16 yards and recorded seven sacks in a 28-0 District 1-3A win Tuesday at Benny Douglass Stadium.

Jaime Mendoza ran for two touchdowns and Lincoln Riley passed for another as the Mules (7-1) won their sixth-straight game and remained undefeated in the district at 5-0.

Leading by 12 at halftime, WJHS stretched its lead to 26-0 in the third quarter on a 14-yard run by Mendoza and a 12-yard run by Jesus Tovar.

Stephan Shelburne recorded a safety in the fourth quarter, tackling a Chieftain ball carrier in the end zone.

Riley got Watson on the board in the first quarter with an 11-yard pass to Kyle Atwood. Mendoza made it 12-0 in the second quarter, scoring from five yards out.

Fermin Gonzales had three sacks and forced two fumbles.

rumbling 19 yards to the Tulia four before being dragged down from behind.

After almost self-destructing with back-to-back penalties that set Mules back to the 14, McClanahan scored on a naked bootleg on fourth-and-goal from the five.

Muleshoe scored two minutes later when Vela zipped through the Tulia defense for a 34-yard touchdown. After picking up a key kickout block from Alanis at the line of scrimmage, Vela cut back across the grain to give Muleshoe a 21-6 lead with three minutes left in the third quarter.

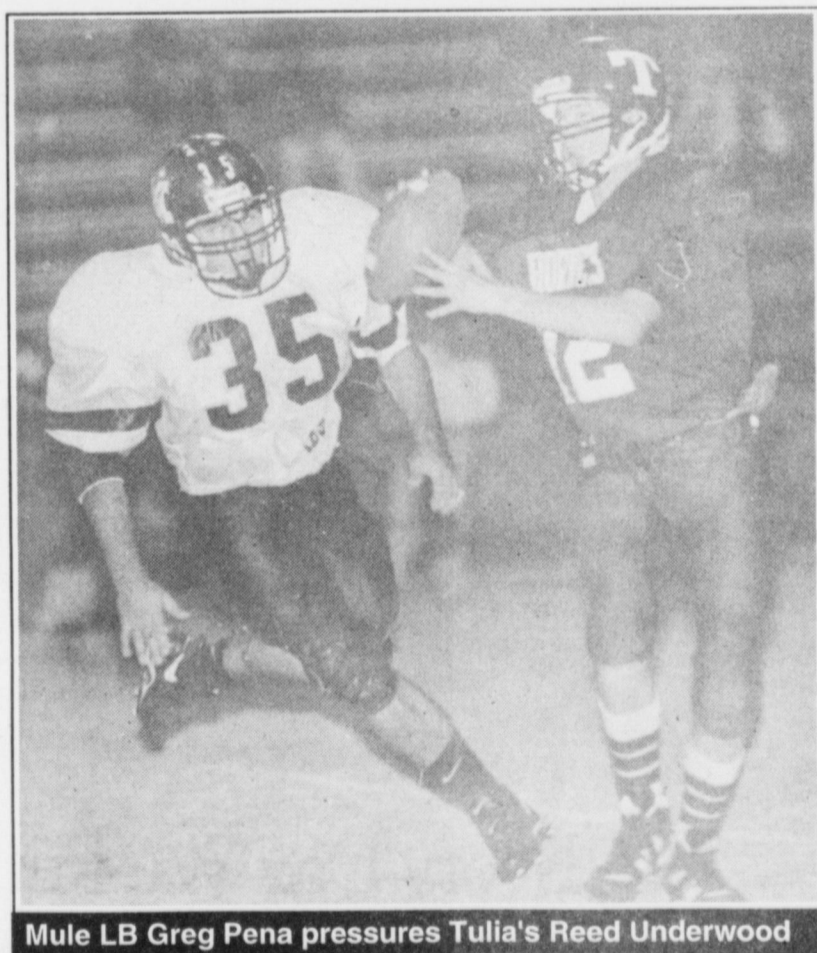

The touchdown was set up by a 13-yard punt that gave Muleshoe possession at the Tulia 34.

After the Mule defense forced Tulia to go three-and-out for a second-straight series, Muleshoe took over at the Tulia 21 after another short punt.

Muleshoe went for the kill and scored on the first play when Larry Pineda jumped over the back of a Tulia defender to haul in McClanahan's pass in the left corner of the end zone with 34 seconds left in the quarter.

"I guess we thought we had it won," Wood said. "Somebody forget to tell Tulia."

The Hornets cut the lead to

Mule LB Greg Pena pressures Tulia's Reed Underwood

28-14 on Scarborough's 43-yard run two minutes into the fourth quarter.

Now it was Muleshoe's turn to buck the wind.

A three-and-out series and a 26-yard punt gave Tulia the ball at its 47.

A 22-yard pass from Underwood to Kevin Gomez moved the ball to the Muleshoe eight. Scarborough scored on the next play, slicing Muleshoe's once seemingly insurmountable lead to 28-21 with five minutes to go.

With a chance to eat up the clock, Muleshoe failed to move the ball, and Tulia took over at its 31.

On second-and 13 from the Tulia 42, Underwood threw long for Gomez over the middle. Playing center field in Muleshoe's prevent defense, Campolla easily drifted over for the interception at the 20 and the Mules ran out the clock.

Wood said he would have taken to start the second half even if it was Muleshoe's choice.

"We knew if we could stop them and force a punt, we could get good field position," Wood said.

show which was apparent during dress rehearsal Thursday, as veteran actor Scotty Mills took charge.

Throughout the evening, Mills gave stage directions, offered advice, and asked cast members to do scenes and set changes over and over striving for perfection.

The play was adapted from a Broadway musical version that was written with quite a tragic and violent end. However, changes have been made for the local production in order to ensure that it will be enjoyable for people of all ages yet still maintaining the playwrights' point, Moore said.

And it's always good when separate entities work together."

The field, located at the east end of the park, is being built on land the city donated with funds from the MISD and the booster club.

Muleshoe baseball coach Brad Hill said the amount of interest the new field generated in the community is amazing.

"After the Portales game (Sept. 5), we must have had at least 20 people help us lay down the sod," Hill said. "And it wasn't just the baseball parents. There were a lot of people I hadn't even met before."

The third-year coach called the new field a big boost for the program.

The school board recently approved the use of $80,000 from the district's reserve fund for the installation of lights, dug-outs and fencing.

Moore said the district plans on building a top quality facility, "something that will be done in stages."

The site already has a huge paved parking lot "which would cost about $100,000 to build" and a concession stand, said Booster Club president Bruce Barrett, who has been a driving force behind the project.

The Booster Club was responsible for building the infield, which was done in the fall.

The school district is currently taking bids on the project and construction should begin the first of the year, Moore said.

Hill said he was approached by Booster Club members last spring about the possibility of building a new field.

"Then the school board took over from there," Hill said. "And the city has been real helpful."

MEDA HUGHES

Meda Hughes, 86, of Muleshoe died Oct. 29, 1997 at Running Water Draw Care Center in Olton.

Memorial services were held Nov. 1 at New Covenant Church in Muleshoe with the Rev. Jimmy Low officiating.

Burial was held at Muleshoe Memorial Park Cemetery under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home.

Hughes was born May 7, 1911 in Oklahoma. She married James Darden Hughes April 26, 1936 in Skelly Town, Texas.

Hughes had lived in Muleshoe since 1985, moving from Mexia. She was a homemaker and a member of New Covenant Church of Muleshoe.

She was preceded in death by her husband James on May 16, 1989.

Survivors include a son, Homer Hughes of Springfield, Virginia; a daughter Lynda Low of Muleshoe; four grandchildren, David Low, Jerry Low, Brian Hughes, Diane Hughes; two great grand-children, Stephen and Michelle Low.

The family requests memorials be sent to Running Draw Care Center in Olton.

We wish to express our deepest heartfelt appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown our families during the loss of our loved one, Robert Garlington. Thank you so much for all the prayers, cards, flowers, phone calls, visits and the delicious food. We would like to say a special thank you to Dr. Mark McClanahan and the staff of Muleshoe Area Medical Center for your patience and understanding. May God richly bless each of you. We will never forget you!

A Shepherd Muses About God's Providence

All taken together, it was not that bad a life, the shepherd mused, guiding his sheep toward the well. The work could be hard, but he was not afraid to bend his back. It was honest work, was it not? And the sheep he governed? Well, they were sheep! Leave courage to lions, cunning to tigers, antics to monkeys, and wisdom to owls. Sheep make no great claim to any of those attributes. They were just like any "run of the mill"

But that was a very long time ago. No one would take him for a prince of Egypt now. He was a shepherd, and he looked the part. He'd traded a scepter for a shepherd's staff. His only subjects were the sheep under his care. Let other men rule kingdoms; keeping his sheep out of harm's way was challenge enough for him.

Well, he'd been lost in thought long enough, sitting on a hillock of grass watching his sheep graze. As he stood, it occurred to him that he was content with his life in Midian, that he liked his shepherd's work and, not least, he liked the time he spent out on the hills far away from others—quiet time, time to think, to ponder, to wonder.

He could live and die a shepherd and that would be fine with him. But he wondered why the God of his fathers had chosen for him such a circuitous route to Midian? Why have him born in a foreign land, a land of slavery in which his first breath might well have been his last? Why have him floated down river in a basket and plucked from the arms of the Nile to become an Egyptian prince? Why let him be chased out of Egypt when his own sense of who he was as a Hebrew flared into deadly force? Surely, Lord, there is a quicker way to put a man in Midian to serve as a shepherd!

No, he didn't understand the Providence that had guided his life. But he knew that now he was a shepherd, and that was enough. And he knew that the sheep straying over toward the south side of the hill needed his care more than he needed to ponder.

Hmm. Looks like something's burning behind that hill. I wonder....

Curtis Shelburne is minister of the 16th & D Church of Christ in Muleshoe.

Focus On Faith

Curtis Shelburne

animal, his shepherd friends might have mused, only more so! More likely to get themselves into the sort of fix it took a wary shepherd to rectify, but more likely to get under your skin with that simple trust they placed in a loving shepherd. More likely to wander off and get lost, but more of a joy to find, too. More likely to need extra attention right at the times you were busiest, but, he figured, maybe more likely to deserve it. No, he didn't mind taking care of sheep. After all, it had been misguidedly taking care of people, not sheep, that had nearly done him in so many years ago.

It almost seemed now like it had been another lifetime. When he had come here to Midian—it was more accurate to say, when he had run here, to Midian—he was running for his life. He'd looked for all the world like the Egyptian prince that he was, the adopted son of Pharaoh's daughter.

ENGAGEMENT

Duncan, Hill to wed Dec. 27 in Portales

Chris and Kathy Duncan of Floyd, N.M. announce the engagement of their daughter, Emily, to Brad Hill, son of Randle and Joyce Hill of Portales, N.M.

The couple will exchange vows at 3 p.m. Dec. 27 at First Baptist Church in Portales. A reception will follow.

The bride is a graduate of Methodist Hospital School of Nursing. She is a registered nurse at Muleshoe Area Medical Center.

The groom is a graduate of Lubbock Christian University. He is a teacher and the head baseball coach at Muleshoe High School.

All family and friends are invited to attend.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE GIDEONS

WHAT DO THESE DIFFERENT PLACES ALL HAVE IN COMMON?

...WHY, A GIDEON BIBLE, OF COURSE!

IN 1908, AT THE SUPERIOR HOTEL, IRON MOUNTAIN, MONTANA, THE FIRST GIDEON BIBLE WAS GIVEN AWAY. SINCE THEN, GIDEONS INTERNATIONAL HAS PLACED THROUGHOUT THE WORLD 211 MILLION BIBLES FOR THE TRAVELER TO READ!

WHY DO THESE DEDICATED MEN, ALL VOLUNTEERS, CALL THEMSELVES GIDEONS? IN JUDGES 6:12, THE BIBLICAL GIDEON WAS CALLED UPON BY AN ANGEL OF THE LORD. TODAY'S GIDEONS BELIEVE THEY HAVE BEEN CALLED TO DISTRIBUTE THE WORD OF THE LORD AS IT IS FOUND IN THE BIBLE!

NEXT WEEK: FIVE FEISTY DAUGHTERS!

Saying thanks
Southwestern Public Service Co. recently donated money to two local volunteer fire departments as a token of appreciation for their efforts in fighting a grass fire near the electric company's Plant X facility last December. SPS donated $1,200 to the Mulshoe Volunteer Fire Dept. and $500 to the Lazbuddie Volunteer Fire Dept. Pictured are (from left) Mulshoe fire chief Donald Harrison, Mulshoe fireman Larry Rasco, Plant X safety specialist Jack Tiffin, Plant X manager Albert Ramirez, Jr., Lazbuddie fire chief Nicky Nickels and Lazbuddie assistant chief Glenn Lust.

NURSING HOME NEWS BY JOY STANCELL

We have been watching videos that Geneva, Mrs. Locke's daughter, sent us. Ray Stevens has been our favorite so far.

The Senior Citizen's Kitchen Band of Clovis entertained Saturday afternoon in the Healthcare Center.

Tuesday afternoon, Claudine Embry, Lanell Stancell, Pat Watson, Mary Jo Burge, Beverly Wagon, Ozell Cherry, Chickie Henderlite and Joy Stancell shampooed and set the ladies hair and gave nail care.

We wish to extend our heart felt sympathy to the family and friends of Nannie Blackman. We too, shall miss her.

Nettie Quesenberry was visited by her niece, Elsie Damron, and a niece from Oklahoma City Tuesday afternoon.

Grace Scarbrough sent the Schwan's man down with ice cream cups Tuesday. Aline Locke has a new little 8-pound great-granddaughter.

Thursday morning, Pastor David McIntire, Clara Lou Jones and Glenda Jennings, directed a memorial service for Mr. Ramiro.

Thursday afternoon, nine of our residents were honored with a party.

Friday afternoon, ladies and men from the 16th and Ave. D Church of Christ baked and served pies to the residents and staff. It was a great time of food and fellowship.

Melvin Griffin called Bingo Saturday morning.

Dana Rempe brought children in costume from the United Methodist church to visit the residents Sunday evening.

The Progress Baptist Church came Sunday afternoon for Church services.

The local AARP made a donation to the Healthcare Center recently.

Boyd Gibbs of Lubbock came Friday to visit his mom, Gaoda Gibbs. They went out for supper he also visited her Wednesday.

Wednesday morning, Buster and Wanda Kittrell, Jane Reeder, Harold and Mary Jo Burge and Loyce Killingsworth served coffee and doughnuts to residents. Buster read several short stories and told a few humorous. Kenneth Martin joined and told a few fanciful tales. Buster, Loyce, Jim Claunch and Brother Ivor Lake lead the devotional sing spiration time.

Glenda Jennings and Jonessa Brockman came Wednesday afternoon for the weekly sing-a-long and puppet show.

The ladies made treats for our "Trick or Treaters Wednesday. They "whipped" up some good looking food.

Betty Ramage brought us a supply of quarters for our Saturday Bingo Bonanza.

J.L. Seaton and Winnie Orcutt returned to the Care Center after being hospitalized.

Welcome back. We missed you!
