Thanksgiving To Be Observed With Special Service

MINISTREL TO BE PRESENTED

The Wheeler American Legion Post is staging a Negro Minstrel at the Wheeler Gymnasium Friday night, December 2 with a completely local cast and the show is entirely locally directed so every penny of the proceeds of the show will be used by the Legion to pay for some furniture which they recently installed in the building.

The boys have been working on the show for approximately three weeks and have their parts in good shape. Some of the local men you will see on the stage in blackface will include: A. D. Speck, Junior Jamison, Joe Rogers, Buddy Vanpool, Albert Gunter, Chester Lewis, Ralph Wheat, Wayde Frey, Jack Garrison, Wendell Meek and many others whose names we do not have at present.

The show will include many typical negro jokes, a negro sermon, several highly entertaining musical numbers and a full round of entertainment for the entire family.

The minstrel is under the direction of Dr. H. E. Nicholson with assistance from Junior Jamison and other legionnaires. Everyone in this vicinity is urged to make plans now to be on hand for the big show which will take place Friday night, December 2 at the Wheeler Gymnasium. Advance ticket sales will begin the first of next week.

1,708 BALES OF COTTON GINNED

Since good weather has been prevailing the past few weeks, the farmers in this vicinity have really been getting their crops out of the fields according to reports from local ginners and grain buyers.

Up to noon today (Thursday), the two local gins report a total of 1,708 bales of cotton ginned. Barney Burgess, manager of the Wheeler Co-Op Gin, reports he has ginned 784 bales and the Paymaster Gin reports a total of 924 bales ginned.

L. P. Fort Manager of the Texas Employment Service Office at Pampa reports there had been 7,569 bales of cotton had been ginned in Wheeler County up through Tuesday evening.

Mr. Fort states that the greatest need for pullers is around Wheeler and Kelton. According to Mr. Fort, farmers in this vicinity believe they have out 60 to 65 percent of their cotton.

B & B Grocery Begins Series Advertisements

Boyd Beck owner of the B & B Grocery at Mobettie is beginning a series of advertisements in this week's edition of the Times listing a number of specials each week.

Beck invites the public to take notice of these advertisements each week and shop his store for the specials listed along with other items which will be priced comparably low.

The B & B Grocery and Market ad appears on page 5 of this issue.

Legion Auxiliary To Hold Food Sales Sat.

The local American Legion Auxiliary Post is holding two food sales Saturday, one at Puckett's Food Market beginning at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and one at the W. E. Pennington & Son store beginning at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

The ladies will have all kinds of baked delicacies on hand for the sale including pie, cakes, candies and other items. Everyone is invited to stock up.

Duane Bradford is in Cheyenne, Wyo. working with the United Geophysical Co. which was located in Wheeler until just recently.

Members of local churches and benevolent organizations are planning a special Thanksgiving service for Thursday morning, November 24 at 9:30 at the Wheeler Baptist Church. The affair is a community service and members of all faiths will take part in the service. Everyone in this vicinity, regardless of what church they lean to, is cordially invited and urged to attend.

The service is under the direction of Mrs. Lee Guthrie and Rev. Darris L. Egger, pastor of the Me-

STORES TO CLOSE:

It is usually the custom of all places of business with the exception of drug stores, cafes and service stations to close in observance of Thanksgiving and it is supposed that the custom will be followed out this year.

The Times did not make a complete survey of the business establishments of the city but those queried all stated unanimously that they planned to close and A. D. Speck, manager of Puckett's Food Market, stated in his advertisement that he planned to close.

When Wheeler merchants close their stores in observance of a holiday they always humbly ask that residents of the trade territory will try to foresee their needs in advance and buy accordingly in order that their closing will not inconvenience anyone.

Methodist Church, will be the speaker for the occasion.

There will be a special song service by a community choir which is under the direction of Mrs. Wayde Frey. There will also be some special numbers by individuals.

Since Thanksgiving is a day set aside especially for giving thanks for the good things that have befallen all during the preceding year it is quite appropriate that everyone should take out a few minutes Thanksgiving morning and attend a service of this nature some of the leaders pointed out.

CHILD PHOTOS TO BE PRINTED

The Wheeler Times today announces the forthcoming publication of a series of local children's pictures yet to be taken. Arrangements have been completed with the Woltz Studios of Des Moines, Iowa, a nationally known firm who specialize in children's photography for newspapers to take pictures and furnish the engravings. Expert children's photographers for the studios, with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Monday, November 21. The studio will be set up at the Wheeler Hotel and will be open from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.

There is no charge to the parents! There is absolutely no obligation to this invitation. There is no age limit. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain them by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the Wheeler Times.

You will be happy, afterwards, if you let your child or children participate, and very sorry if you don't. The kiddies will have fun and mother and dad will be very proud to see their pictures in print later. Many will clip them out and preserve them until junior grows up. The Times wants as many pictures as possible, so don't forget the date, Monday, November 21, 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Violet Guyute and children of Amarillo visited their grandmother, Mrs. Sue Cowden, and father and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cody Cowden over the weekend.

Lindon Sanders' Gilt Has Strayed And It Is Feared Coyotes Got It

James Clepper, local vocational ag teacher, reports that Lindon Sanders, local FFA boy, did not get to keep his registered Poland China Gilt, which he received from the pig circle, very long due to the fact that the little porker jumped from his pen and disappeared.

The gilt was last seen last Thursday and since no one has reported his presence in this length of time it is feared the coyotes have made a nice juicy meal of her, but if anyone does know the whereabouts of this little black pig Lindon Sanders would surely appreciate it if they would notify him.

"We have consistently, since coming to Wheeler, attempted to make the school and athletic department something of which the town can be proud", Coach Bernie Smith stated this week.

Smith goes on to point out that he is in need of assistance from another source, individuals, who because of their sacrifice on the gridiron for their school, should be interested are asked to meet and help organize a lettermen's association.

All men in and around Wheeler, who wear the school's letter, are asked to meet at the Wheeler High School on Monday evening, November 21, for the purpose of forming a lettermen's organization to promote a better understanding of sports and improving the field and other athletic facilities.

BANK DEPOSITS UP, LOANS DOWN

Call statements of the Citizen's State Bank which was published in last week's edition of the Times and the First State Bank of Mobettie which appears in this week's edition show that customers' deposits are up while loans are down as compared with the figures of June 30, this year. There is no comparison with the same season last year since the banks were not required to run a call statement at that time.

Total deposits for the two north county banks are reaching up near the two million dollar mark and probably will surpass that figure between now and the first of the year. With $1,261,790.00 on deposit at the Citizen's State and $638,321.03 on deposit at the First State Bank in Mobettie the total for the two banks is now $1,900,111.83 as compared with $1,732,663.60 as of June 30, 1949 which is an increase of $167,448.23 over a four month period.

Loans at the First State Bank of Mobettie have picked up $17,094.55 while they have fallen off $29,864.83 to make a total drop of $12,426.98 in the amount of money the two banks have out now as compared with June 30, 1949. Total loans of the two banks as of June 30 was $464,564.94 as compared with $452,137.96 as of November 1, 1949.

These figures prove that the people of this area are getting out their crops, paying off their debts, and putting the money in the bank all of which points to a high rate of buying between now and Christmas. National experts have predicted that retail sales will reach an all-time peak this Christmas season.

Mobettie Happenings

By Rev. James M. Bryant

Your reporter had the pleasure of visiting with Gary Morris and his parents at the Plainview Sanatorium last week. We were pleased to learn that Gary's condition is improving. Gary was cheerful and optimistic and Mr. and Mrs. Morris were encouraged over his condition. He had spent over three hours outside the iron lung that day and they were hoping to begin some mild exercises before long. Mr. and Mrs. Morris expressed their gratitude for the many thoughtful things that friends have done for them while they have been at Plainview, and Gary was enjoying the cards and letters, along with a number of gifts, that he had received.

The Kimbell Co. elevator at Mobettie was out of storage Wednesday morning, but five cars were expected at any time which would relieve the shortage. The grain is drying out well now with the moisture content testing below 13 in most cases.

The Mobettie American Legion Post gave a banquet Wednesday night, November 16 honoring the Gold Star Mothers of the community. Johnny (Uncle Jay) Lynn from Amarillo was the principal speaker. The ladies of the Mobettie Methodist Church prepared and served the meal.

Employees of the Southwestern Public Service Company who had been with the company five years or more attended a banquet at the Herring Hotel in Amarillo Monday, November 14. Service pins and certificates of merit were awarded. Those attending from the Jowett plant were: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Alexander, and Guy Holliday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brandon of Mineral Wells returned home last week after visiting in the homes of their daughters, Mrs. J. R. Patterson and Mrs. Willard Godwin, and their families. Another daughter, Mrs. El J. Ware, came from Mineral Wells to take them home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Q. Thorn from near Canadian visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Godwin Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Errington and family, Mrs. Viola Atwood and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Atwood visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wallace Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Quintis Godwin spent the weekend with relatives in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Andrews and daughter of Alamogordo, N. M. visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. St. John and other relatives in Mobettie over the weekend. Mr. Andrews is Mrs. St. John's brother.

Editorial
URBAN AND RURAL ECONOMIC TRENDS
 The skidding of hog prices Thursday added to evidence of the weakening market for farm products. The situation developing in the national economy today seems to be paralleling that which developed during the twenties. There were some erratic upsurges of farm prices during that period but, as a whole, the farm industries suffered a consistent deflation throughout the entire time of stock market boom prosperity.

It is more difficult to maintain a seller's market for farm products than for any other class of American goods or services. The reasons are clear. We are a farm products exporting country. Normally we produce a surplus of most staple crops. More than any other country, we have the natural resources, the skills, manpower and machinery to do so.
 A crop surplus is a hard thing to argue with. We can go on increasing wages in a vicious circle. Eventually it will lead to disastrous inflation, but it can continue a long time. The same is true of the stock market if the public psychology is right, as it was during the twenties. The same can be done with practically all lines of services. The production of even industrial goods can be carried along on the flood. There is greater flexibility in both supply and demand of consumers' goods. But elevators full of wheat and warehouses choked with cotton can not be denied.

During the twenties we continued to inflate most industrial and commercial values while permitting farm values to deflate. The divergence between the two was one of the principal causes of the disaster that came in 1929. Since the war we have tried to prevent it primarily by government purchases of farm surpluses. We have about reached the end of this sort of expedient treatment. The necessary job is to hold other costs in line with what farm prices are going to be regardless of whether we will it or not. We will be getting nowhere with the problem so long as parallel newspaper columns tell of slipping hog prices and rising industrial workers' wages.—From Dallas Morning News

One of the newest and most time-saving hammered rather than stitched on. They are well-suited to sport or work clothes, and the little gadget to hammer them on comes with the fastener.

Long-time deferred grazing, no grazing for one or more years, is a good practice to follow and range land that has been severely over-grazed. It gives the best forage plants a chance to re-seed, gain strength, develop a good root system and produce the leaves necessary for greater production and food storage.

Enlightenment...

Bringing the advantages of electricity to more and more rural schools, is just ONE of the many vital ways that the seventy-seven Rural Electric Cooperatives of Texas benefit the people, in the many areas they serve.

Bright light when and where it's needed—educational films—manual training machines—a host of other aids to teaching and learning—all become available when electricity comes to the school-house.

Truly, the seventy-seven Rural Electric Cooperatives of Texas are SERVICE organizations, that in countless ways help build a better life in a better rural Texas.

The seventy-seven Rural Electric Cooperatives of Texas are each owned and managed on a non-profit basis by the very people they serve. They are not operated with state or federal funds, but on the contrary, are local, tax-paying, private enterprises that play an ever-greater part in the progress of our state.

SERVING the Gulf South

... through our payment of TAXES

A public school education for our boys and girls is one of the great benefits of the American way of life. The cost of that education, as everybody knows, is defrayed through the payment of millions of dollars of taxes by individuals and businesses.

Last year our Company paid out more money in taxes than the gross amount we received for the natural gas we sold to all our 288,000 residential customers. Much of that tax money went to support your schools, your highways, your courts and other essential functions of local government. This is another example of the way the American Business System works to bring better living to your community.

SENIOR NEWS
 The seniors had a class meeting last Wednesday at the close of English class to plan a party. Thursday at noon we had another to see if the party would go on as planned. We will let you know next week how it all came out.

We have a class of invalids. All the senior boys who play football can be seen limping or holding their backs. They will be alright for basketball, though.

WHAT'S NEW
 Winnie pulling her rib tissue loose while playing ball.
 Charlotte lost her purse but later found it.
 Gena is playing forward this year.

Gene has some new boots.
 Doyle went to Austin to see a football game.
 Boll puller of the year: Margaret Holdeman.
 Dorothy has some bright red shoe strings.
 J. T. had quite a hard time with the poem, "Oh, Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast," during English period.
 Garland has a new cowboy hat. He found it.
 C. R.: (after football practice) this lintment makes my leg smart.
 George: Try using some on your head.
 End of joke. Laugh here.

JUNIOR NEWS
 The juniors had a party Tuesday night. We met at the cafeteria at 7:30 and played games. Refreshments of sandwiches, cokes, and cookies were served. Everyone reported a good time.
 Our junior pens, bracelets, and necklaces have come in, but at the moment we haven't collected enough money to get them out of the Post Office since they came C. O. D.

WONDER WHY?
 We never have much news to write?
 Maurice enjoys English class so well?
 Glenda has lost interest in boys?
 Dale hasn't been to school?
 Annie was in such a hurry Wednesday?
 Bill, Bonnie, and Glenda have been so careful with their ears?
 Smiley doesn't care for girls?
 Dick wants to forget about women?
 Maurine didn't come to the party?

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS
 We are sorry to hear that one of our class mates is sick. He is Gerald McCormick. We look forward to his return to school.
 (Remainder of this school news will be in next week's edition.)

Good Posture Essential To Good House Work

By Emma May Hastings
Home Demonstration Agent

Using the body correctly in doing ordinary household cleaning jobs can make one very tired. Practicing good posture while doing these same jobs can lessen tension that causes fatigue, help banish figure faults and give one gracefulness and poise.

Instead of stooping over to take up trash squat down. Squating gives leg muscles needed exercise and firms the waistline as well as sparing your back muscles. Remember this when picking up objects off the floor.

For jobs that require reaching up and stretching use both arms and arrange equipment so you don't have to reach too high. Relaxed knees act as shock absorbers for stretching up. Stretching evenly with both arms such as to hang curtains, hang out clothes or making beds straightens posture, helps reduce the waist.

Surface work, on such as sinks, cabinet tops, and ironing boards should be the correct height so you can work without bending over.

Sitting down to work takes less energy than standing, so consider sit-down ironing boards, and cabinets with lap boards of the proper height for peeling vegetables, etc.

If you must carry packages home from town, remember two light bundles (one in each arm) are less tiring than one heavy one. A heavy bundle in one makes the figure lopsided, throws one shoulder too high.

For jobs done kneeling, such as waxing floors, sit back on your legs.

Change shoes several times a day to rest the feet, and give your whole body a lift.

If a person will handle her body correctly as she works she will need no special beauty exercises.

PMA COTTON MARKETING LAW IS EXPLAINED

The new cotton marketing quota law (Pub. L. 272, 81st Congress) approved by the President on August 29, 1949, constitutes a major revision of the cotton marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The new law gives recognition to trends in cotton production during the past few years when acreage and marketing restrictions were not in effect. The new law also permits the establishment of quotas more in line with current consumption and export requirements. The only limitation in this respect is the minimum national marketing quota which is the smaller of ten million bales or one million bales less than the estimated domestic consumption and exports for the marketing year ending in the calendar year then current, except that for 1950 such quota must be large enough to provide a national acreage allotment of 21 million acres.

National Marketing Quota
The Secretary of Agriculture is required to proclaim a national marketing quota for cotton whenever in any calendar year he determines that the total supply (carryover from previous year, plus estimated production during calendar year plus cotton imports) for the marketing year beginning in such calendar year will exceed the total normal supply (estimated domestic consumption, plus estimated exports, plus 30 per cent of the normal supply as a carryover allowance) for such marketing year.

Referendum
Between the date of issuance of the proclamation of the national marketing quota and the following December 15, the Secretary is required to conduct a referendum to determine whether farmers favor or oppose such quota. Approval by at least two-thirds of the farmers voting in the referendum is required to make such a quota effective.

TOO LATE
Zoole—Today I met a girl had never been kissed.
Kulper—I would like to her.
Zoole—You're too late now.

Fertilizer supplies for the coming year are expected to be considerably higher than for the past year but to be on the safe side farmers are urged to make their purchases early. This will aid in solving the transportation problem.

Don't overlook the importance of planning for future electricity needs or uses in the new farm buildings or in those that may be remodeled. Be sure that you're using the right size wire and that plenty of circuits are included to take care of future needs.

Using both hands will work wonders in cutting down actual time required for doing household and farm chores. Practice makes for perfection.

A statement from the Tax Collector's Office regarding your--

POLL TAX

The voters of Texas decided to keep the poll tax as a requirement for voting in the Special Election which was held Tuesday, November 8; therefore, it will be necessary for every voter, who is not otherwise exempt, in the state of Texas to pay his poll tax in order to be eligible to vote in the elections which will be held during 1950.

You are urged to pay your poll taxes now so that you will not overlook them later. You have until January 31, 1950 to pay these but it would be much better if you will pay them earlier.

To those of you who find it more convenient to pay your poll taxes in SHAMROCK, you can now pay them at the office of—

Before a new garment is worn, touch the center of each button with transparent nail polish. It seals the threads so you won't have to re-sew so often.

Research workers of the Rhode Island Experiment Station have found the penetrating seal finish for floors is the most satisfactory method to use for re-finishing floors. It is easier to apply, floors can be used sooner and it retains its finish better under heavy usage.

TEXAS HISTORY PERSONALITY

The answer to last weeks personality is Stephn F. Austin.

This weeks personality was a U. S. politician, born in Virginia, March 2, 1793. He entered the army, but soon turned to politics, was elected to Congress and in 1827 was made Governor of Tennessee. Two years later he settled among the Cherokee Indians. In 1835, when Texas revolted against Mexico, he was chosen as the leader of the Texan army, and in April, 1836, he won a crushing victory. He was its president until 1845, then he represented it in the U. S. Senate. In 1859 he was elected governor of Texas. He died July 26, 1863.

WHAT IF?

What if the eighth grade reported news instead of gossip?

What if Sam came to school?

What if Mr. Bumpas could have his Bookkeeping students all together for once?

What if the Homemaking II class could finish the childrens garments they are making?

What if Imogene knew how to flirt?

What if Kenneth could keep a girl friend?

What if Wanda wasn't always sleepy in Bookkeeping class on Monday mornings?

What if everyone was perfect?
