RECEIVES AWARD: Mrs. Gordon Whitener is shown receiving the honorary membership award from the FHA. Also shown are Nancy Watts and Sidney Ann Kenady.

Mrs. Gordon Whitener Given Honorary Membership by FHA

The presentation of honorary membership to the Wheeler Chapter Future Homemakers of America to Mrs. Gordon Whitener, former homemaker teacher, was the highlight of a ceremony conducted by local chapter members as they gathered for a meeting at Wheeler High School, Friday night.

Nancy Watts, president, stated, "Honorary membership in the Future Homemakers of America is granted persons who have made outstanding contributions in our behalf. The Wheeler Chapter takes pride in conferring today its first Honorary membership. It is our pleasure to receive Mrs. Gordon Whitener as an honorary member."

Sidney Ann Kenady, chairman, gave the resume of Mrs. Whitener's activities. Mrs. Gordon Whitener is the oldest and faithful friend of the Wheeler Chapter of Future Homemakers of America known. Her service to the Wheeler community school spans a period of approximately 35 years. She was devoted to teaching the joys and satisfactions of homemaking. Her life exemplified the principles she taught. It was her task of great pleasure to lead two homemaking departments for the Wheeler School. The first was the Homemaking cottage completed in 1935. The second, the beautiful homemaking department in our new plant completed in 1967. Mrs. Whitener started the Degree program in this school. She coached three girls who received State Degrees, the highest honor given to Texas girls in the homemaking program."

Mrs. Whitener, you have been an inspiration to us

YOUTH VOICE WHEELER NEEDS

The youths felt the theater was much needed in Wheeler and felt that the attendance by local teenagers could be increased by the making of a few improvements. They urged the Chamber to take the theatre improvement as a project. The young people were quick to express their opinion that the shows being shown at the theatre were current and the type the teenagers would like to see.

The students had talked with other students on what was needed. Jobs for the summer would help students earn spending money; and a lot of the students would work if the jobs were available. If jobs are not available, give the students something constructive to do which would occupy their time.

It was suggested that the young have something to do with the summer programs. Let the high school students build up enthusiasm in the grade school students for the summer program and let the older students coach the younger ones.

The panelists also felt the parents should show more interest in the activities of the youngsters. Be present when your youngster participates in the summer program.

A committee of three persons was appointed by president Garland Abernethy to work with a committee of three from the Kiwanis Club in figuring out a summer program. Appointed were James Verden, Pete Burton and Paul Topper.

The seniors urged a renewed interest in the Country Club idea which had previously looked into. They asked for youth center facilities to be included.

Committee reports were given during the business meeting. Mrs. Lewis Lancaster reported the near completion of gathering information for the brochure.

TEXAS POLITICS

By Rep. Malouf Abraham

The big rush for introducing bills is winding up Friday was the last day you could introduce bills without any strings attached. Now, except for local bills, it is necessary to get permission from four-fifths of the members to get a bill in. Something in the area of 1,200 bills got in under the wire.

When you think that last session our bill total was about 1,350 it is obvious that we will probably have over 1,500 bills dropped in. So, you can easily see that when you ask about bill number "so and so" the chances are excellent that I don't have any instant idea of what you're talking about. We don't have much chance to look at the bills when they are first dropped in.

Actually, it's kind of a waste of time except for something that you are especially interested in or something that concerns the district. Fortunately about 2/3rds of these bills are killed in Committee and usually the others have a number of amendments tacked on. Often a good bill comes out as a bad bill and a poor bill can become a good one with the help of the Committee.

We have had a pretty hot and heavy session this past week. We passed the Texas Tech Medical School Bill on to third reading with a little heat. We voted down two amendments and were afraid there might be a bunch get started cutting the bill up.

Sometimes a rather un-complicated bill can really stir up a big hassle for no particular reason. The big fight was on the Torts Bill which takes legislative immunity away from the Cities, Counties and Schools,

IT'S GONE!

The spring morning we had Tuesday put Norma Lee Black in the mood to clean house. Loaded down with trash and old newspapers, she went out to burn the trash. Much to her surprise, there was no trash can.

Some time during the night, someone hauled it off.

She stated, "If you (the person who took the trash can) are in such bad need of a trash can; return it and I will buy you one."

In case you don't remember where she lives, the address is 712 Reynolds.

Rural Accident Injures Three

A head-on collision on a dirt road eleven miles west of Wheeler resulted in injury to three people. Melvin May of Mobeetie and H.L. Strebeck of Amarillo were treated and released at Parkview Hospital. Jack Carter of Amarillo was kept overnight for observation.

May was traveling west and met an oncoming car at the top of a hill. At the realization of the unavoidable accident, May fell over in the seat and received cuts on the head, right forehead and right eye. His glasses were smashed flat against his face.

The driver of the Cooper-Woodruff Company car, Strebeck, received chest injuries and Jack Carter received facial lacerations as a result of being thrown into the windshield.

S/S Lula V. Holt Receives Award

Staff Sergeant Lula V. Holt, whose husband, Staff Sergeant Kenneth G. Holt, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Holt, Wheeler, is a member of the Scott AFB, Ill., hospital staff that has earned the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

The staff was cited for demonstrating the highest professional standards during a two-year period.

In addition to providing medical and dental services, the Military Airlift Command hospital is the Air Force referral center for treatment of tuberculosis and operates a 120 bed casualty staging unit channeling patients - including Vietnam wounded - to specialized medical centers.

Sergeant Holt, a medical records specialist, will wear the distinctive service ribbon to mark her affiliation with the unit.

The sergeant is a graduate of New London (Tex.) High School.

Paving, Pickups Council Topics

The Wheeler City Council met Monday, March 17. Mr. Claude Shelton of Texas Security Corp. and Homer Davis and John David of Davis and David, a law firm of Dalhart, met with the council.

Mr. Shelton met with the group to adopt an ordinance for the selling of street paving bonds.

Davis and David met to introduce and discuss the adoption of the ordinance to officially award paving contract to Lewis Construction Co. of Dumas.

Bids were received for the purchase of two city pickups. The low bid submitted by Pete Burton Ford was accepted. A bid was submitted by Ware Chevrolet Co. John Parker, M. D., was appointed to serve as City Health Officer.

The council voted to buy a dump for the new pickup which will be used in the sanitation department.

Inspection Sticker

"With the April 15 deadline for obtaining inspection stickers drawing near, only 40% of the registered vehicles in Wheeler County have been inspected," stated Captain Alan Johnson, Motor Vehicle Inspection Supervisor of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

"Unless there is a rapid increase of inspections, long waiting lines will be forming at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches. The authorized inspection stations are ready and capable of handling the inspection of Texas registered vehicles if owners will not wait until a few days before the deadline," Johnson added.

"Any driver operating a vehicle on public roads after April 15 that is required to be inspected will be operating in violation of the law," Johnson said.

Captain Johnson called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program in 1951, vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 13% to 3%.

Johnson said, "The purpose of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Program is to discover any maladjustment which might become a link in a cycle of events leading to an accident and, by removing the link, prevent the accident."

School Trustees Files Listed

School trustee elections draw interest as the April 5 election day draws near. Wheeler, Mobeetie and Briscoe have more men and women running for positions than are available on the boards.

W. Jones of Comanche, Texas, Mrs. Mary Hartley of Reydon, Okla., Mrs. Betty McCoy of Commerce City, Colo., Mrs. Nell Bradstreet of Wheeler and Mrs. Ruth Haggard and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in the First Baptist Church of Wheeler, Thursday, March 20, at 4:30 p.m. with Joe Dukes of Allison officiating.

ACROSS the FENCE

By Max W. Hatter, CAA

Since March came in like a lion, it must go out like a lamb. At least that is what my grandmother used to say. Fortunately the moisture is in the ground and there is something about snow that really puts the soil in good shape.

We didn't win Grand Champion honors at the Top O'Texas Livestock Show in Pampa. The closest we came was 4th place. Suppose the last Wheeler County to win was Terry McCasland. Besides Richard Kiker from Allison there was Paul Macina from Paken.

In the same class, Bo Dunn of the Mobeetie FFA placed 6th. Lee Fraser Insurance bought his calf for 41¢ per pound.

Wheeler County's entry in the heavyweight Hereford class was Mark Cadra, Lela 4-H Club boy, who won 10th place in a class of 18. Paul Macina, bidding for the Shamrock Chamber of Commerce, paid 39¢ a pound for Mark's calf.

Ronnie Cadra, Shamrock FFA member, showing a medium weight Hereford steer placed 15th in a class of 19. Richard Kiker, Allison, bidding for the Wheeler County Farm Bureau, bought his calf for 37¢ a pound.

Tom Stribling, Mobeetie FFA member, placed 7th in a lightweight Hereford class of eighteen. Southwestern Public Service Co. bought his calf for 41¢ a pound.

Roy Stribling, Mobeetie 4-H club member, placed 9th in the same class. The Wheeler Kiwanis Club represented by Harold Lloyd Lee bought Roy's calf for 41¢ a pound.

KBDN Radio Station in Pampa paid 47¢ a pound for Sam Montgomery's pig. The Wheeler FFA member's pig placed 10th in his class.

Mobeetie Inc. bought Jackie May's pig for 47¢ a pound. Jackie, a Mobeetie FFA member, placed 15th. The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce paid 45¢ a pound for Dana Luttrell's pig. Mobeetie Inc. bought Gary May's pig.

We enjoyed attending the Hereford Breeder's Banquet at the Coronado Inn the second night of the livestock show. Gordon Whitener, a Hereford breeder from Wheeler was kind enough to give me a ticket which we appreciated. Had the opportunity of meeting 'Shot' Childress at the show. The former Allison resident's young son, Romie, won a trophy with his spring yearling heifer. Tanya Dunn, Mobeetie and Mike Bryant, Kelton showed their heifers in the same class with Ronnie.

It's my understanding that they had an outbreak of hog cholera a few days ago in Lipscomb County. This is causing some concern among out hogmen. We suggest that folks keep a sharp eye on their hogs for the next few days. If you detect any disease symptoms, check with your veterinarian.

FASHIONS FOR SPRING

By Brenda W. Hofmann, CHDA

Have you noticed the wide variety of fashion for spring 1969. It ranges from Indian or gypsy look to the more sophisticated Americana look. Emphasis is placed at the waistline with corselets, inset bands empire and drawing waists, tucked, gathered, welt seamed, widely belted, wrapped with a sash. Emphasis is also placed at the sleeves. The many popular sleeves found are log o'mutton, the Juliet, the ball, medieval ball and the right fitted sleeve. Necklines have gained importance and variety. Necklines range from high turtleneck, semi-turtleneck, deep scoop, deep and shallow V and the large U neckline.

Vests at any length are good. Choose the vest length best for your own individual style. The tunic length is worn both with skirts and pants. And speaking of pants! Pants have had the fashion focus for some time and will continue to reign. Pant suits (slacks with suit jacket) are accepted anywhere that a person would wear a suit jacket and skirt. The legs of slacks ranged from straight to a very full bell shape. The tapered pant leg is a fashion of the past.

For just a brief look into fashion for fall 1969, let's look at color. Color forecast slates that 'deep court colors' such as wine reds, ragal blues and purple, forest greens, antique gold and brown will be leading in fall '69.

Paper as we have known it is something to write on, to wrap things in and even to dress in; but combined with other materials, paper is suitable for home furnishings, too.

Paper products currently can be seen in furniture stores across the country shaped, colored and formed like plastic, glass, metal and wood, but usually at a very distinct price advantage. Cost is the key to its use in furniture items. When reinforced with glass fibers, paper is strong and rigid but light weight. Paperboard can be finished with plastic or polyethylene film for a light weight, soil and stain resistant surface.

Today's homemaker may purchase storage units, draperies, rugs, chairs and tables of disposable paper or processed or reinforced paper products, says the specialist. Paper vases, trays, bowls and wall hangings are available in bright solid colors and attractive prints at inexpensive prices.

Should the homemaker tire of the accessories or want to change, she can throw away her small investment. Though the cost is low, some paper furnishings items are well designed and constructed and can be used permanently if given the appropriate care.

Forest product utilization specialists with the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service believe that one of the greatest potentials for paper products is in the child's world. Paper clothes, toys and furnishings could answer an immediate need with satisfaction but without great investment.

what mysteriously hides as it magically performs?

Electric water heaters can be concealed anywhere... in the garage, in a closet, under cabinet tops. And, that's because they do not need flues or chimneys... just the water connection and electricity. If your present water heater is getting along in years... not putting out like a youngster, then it's time to replace with a sparkling new electric. And, if service should ever be needed, just call Raddy Kilowatt... he'll fix whatever's wrong... quick as a magician pulling a rabbit out of a hat!

ACROSS the FENCE

By Max W. Hatter, CAA
January Shakes em', February Breaks em', and March Takes em'! Wheat poisoning is occurring among some of our cattle herds. Some call this grass tetany. The poisoning, in any case, is a lack of magnesium in the cows diet. Prevention by feeding those cows a vitamin supplement that contains magnesium is a real good idea and we encourage it. A product containing magnesium oxide is better than the magnesium sources. My dad, who lives south of Waco, lost five head of grown mother cows, before he got on top of it. He just spreads that magnesium oxide preparation over ground milo. Says that the treatment is similar to that for milk fever.

We like the idea of having maternity pen for expectant cows. Believe this gives the cowman a chance to watch them more closely. Until they get this multiple birth thing off the ground a little further, looks like we'll have to experiment on saving what calves we can for the time being.

By Max Hatter, CAA
If March 20 is the first day of spring, can spring be far behind? One of these days the wet and cold weather will stop, fields and pastures will dry and outdoor activities will boom.

Midland Bermudagrass is a popular permanent pasturegrass in our area. It has proven to be a high producing good quality forage species for hay and grazing. This is a good time of the year for growers to sprig midland since sprigging during the dormant season has proved desirable. Midland sprigs can be dug from the field with a spike-tooth harrow mechanically. A sprigging rate of at least 25 bushels per acre planted broadcast or at least ten bushels per acre when planting in rows should be used. We feel like that the more sprigs planted, the faster the stand and cover.

Weed control is important. We suggest using a pre-emerge chemical to control weeds.

Our 4-H quarter horse judging team'll be in Amarillo this Saturday. The clinic will be held for Extension District 1 county agents, adult 4-H leaders and 4-H members on Saturday, March 22 at Cockrell's Indoor Arena. The arena is located about 1/2 mile east of the city limits on US 287.

The clinic will start at 8:30 a.m. with the judging contest following in the afternoon. The event is being sponsored by the Golden Spread Quarter Horse Association and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The instructional part of the program is open to all 4-Hers, adult leaders and agents. Each of the 22 counties in the district may enter two 4-H teams, one senior and one junior, in the practice judging contest.

Chairman of the overall program is Dale Burnett, youth director of the American Quarter Horse Association, Amarillo. The judging clinic will include sessions on conformation (horses at Halter) and grooming and showmanship and the four performance classes of reining, western pleasure, cutting and roping. Halter and performance classes will also be judged in the afternoon.

Following the judging contest, two of the classes will be discussed and awards will be presented to the top judging teams. Some 250 participants are expected for the day-long event.

We'll be having a meeting tonight, March 20 at Production Credit Office in Wheeler concerning the Texas Brush Control and Range Improvement Foundation. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. We'll be listening to ideas pertinent to the organization of a county brush control foundation. If our county organizes, we will help raise the necessary funds to support basic research and field

We still have time to topdress nitrogen to wheat. Points to consider will be amount of nitrogen applied before planting, amount of forage removed by grazing, residue from the preceding crop and grain yield you expect to make. Irrigated wheat will need 120 lbs of nitrogen to make 60 bushels of grain. Be sure that application of nitrogen be completed before wheat begins to joint.

If you have used only 60 to 80 pounds of nitrogen before planting and have grazed heavily, use of an additional 40 to 60 pounds ahead of joint stage will likely be needed for top grain yields.

Many sources of nitrogen are suitable, including ammonia, liquids and solids. Ammonia shouldn't be applied through a sprinkler. We wouldn't think that phosphate materials would pay if topdressed this late in the season.

up range improvement demonstrations. Folks who have a brush problem are encouraged to come out to the meeting.

New Crop: The process-plant at Vernon wants to buy about 50 million pounds of Guar seed compared to the 15 million pounds bought last year. The propose to furnish the seed and buy back the Guar for $4.60 per hundred. Guar will produce 1,000 pounds to the acre. Bob Calcare, Kelton and Clifford Boydston, Allison grew them about 4 years ago in our Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program. We'd appreciate hearing from folks who might be interested in the idea. It's my understanding that the crop may be planted on cotton land that government payments are not made on. Collingsworth County planted about 5,000 acres last year.

Luttrells Attend Dist. Workshop

By Brenda W. Hofmann, CHDA
Cherry Spoon-Up:
Two of our top 4-Hers, Scott Luttrell and Dana Wheeler County at the District 14-H Council Workshop on March 7 & 8 at the Episcopal Church Conference Center in Amarillo. At this workshop, Scott and Dana received excellent training in leadership, organization and recreation.

One of the newest appliances out is the self-cleaning oven! But you reply, "That isn't new!" Yes, a new self-cleaning oven that has a better cleaning process is out on the market. The new catalytic process of cleaning cost about one-fourth what the original type of self-cleaning process does. This catalytic process is a chemical treatment on the oven walls that prevent soil from adhering or baking to the oven interior. Soil can be wiped off easily.

Manufacturers state that the color white sells best and avocado second in ranges. Another new convenience found on ranges is a hot water tap located on the control panel. The push-button tap produces 185 degree water from a concealed insulated two-quart capacity tank.

Another new item on the market for consumers is a new eyeglass lens that turns from clear to dark and back to clear, depending on the condition. The lenses are available from eye doctors only by prescription.

FHA GIRLS NEWS

The Wheeler chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held its regular meeting March 10, with Nancy Watts, president, presiding. The objective for the month was Objective 1: To help each family member recognize his abilities and strive for their full development.

In keeping with the national project: "Good Health - A Valuable Asset," the American Cancer film "BSE" was shown. Mrs. Vera Rogers, R.N., was in attendance to answer questions. Mrs. Ida Farmer was guest projectionist. The film was viewed by approximately 25 guests and members.

In a brief business session, Brenda Errington, Patricia Jones, Brenda McCasland and Niki Ware were elected to serve as the nominating committee to select nominees for 1969-1970 officers.

FHA has Assembly
The local chapter of FHA was in charge of the high school assembly, March 14.

The first part of the program was devoted to a degree ceremony. The curtains parted and the stage lights were brought up full as the members dressed in red and white, sang, "This Is My Country!" A table laid with a white cloth and bearing the FHA emblem on the front-drap was placed at stage front center. A bouquet of red roses and a lighted red candle rested on the table.

The FHA Creed was read responsively. Nancy Watts, president, lead the ritual. She said, "We have before us the light of home economics. This is the light of our ideals, exemplified through our purposes, which enables us to make our homes, communities, nation and world a happier place in which to live."

The program was concluded with "The Ten Commandments of Good Citizenship" read by Sue Harrison and Carol Holt.

FIFTY YEARS: From left to right are Bob Lane, Mrs. V. A. Goad, Sr., Mrs. Sarah Pond and W. A. Goad, Sr., immediately following a ceremony at the Wheeler Masonic Lodge 1099 in which brother W. A. Goad, Sr. received recognition for being an active mason for fifty years. The recognition was given by Right Worshipful Brother Bob Lane, from Wheeler, who is the District Deputy Grand Master for the 98th Masonic District in Texas.

NEW STATIONS: Bill Atherton (l) and Harvey Davis are shown behind one of the officers' stations for the Wheeler Masonic Lodge. Bill and Harvey built the stations and made all the insignia. These were officially presented to the Wheeler Masonic Lodge No. 1099 at a meeting, Monday, March 17, 1969, in memory of Bill Atherton's father, Floyd Atherton. Brother Floyd Atherton was a long-time active member of the Wheeler Lodge and was also active in the Rainbow Assembly for Girls.

Soil Conservation News

NEWS

Seed from 65 select grass strains are being planted in Texas and Oklahoma this spring for field evaluation as part of a search for superior plants that will solve specific soil and water conservation problems.

H.M. Smith of Temple, State Conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, reports that about 6,000 pounds of seed from the 65 strains are being planted this year. The seed was grown at the SCS plant materials center at Knox City from grasses selected in Texas and Oklahoma.

"We are making progress in finding superior grasses adapted to a wide range of soil and climatic conditions," Smith said. "The individual problems, however, are so varied that it's a tedious job. In fact, we are now evaluating some 1100 strains of more than 100 different grasses at the plant center.

To illustrate some of the problems SCS is trying to help solve, Smith cited a few examples: Blue grama is a top grass on certain drouthy range sites in the western portion of Texas and Oklahoma and should be used in range seedings in that area. The only blue grama seed on the market, however, is harvested on the High Plains and it is not well adapted to other areas.

Twenty native selections of blue grama are being evaluated at the Knox City center to try to find a better, more widely adapted strain. Two selections, one collected at Asperment and one at Waurika, are showing promise but further evaluation work is needed.

A search is also underway to find a strain of western wheatgrass, a valuable winter grass on bottomland, for planting in central Texas. Again, the only seed available is from the High Plains and is not widely adapted. Selections from Tahoka and Floydada are looking good but evaluation work is incomplete.

Work is also underway to find a grass that will thrive on land high in salt content. Such a plant would be extremely valuable for vegetating thousands of acres of bare, "salted-out" grassland in Texas and Oklahoma, as well as oil field areas damaged by saltwater.

Selections of alkali saccation and inland saltgrass appear promising for these purposes. Alkali saccation strains collected in Kenedy County and near Dell City are showing up especially well. Evaluation work on inland saltgrass has been hindered by its failure to produce seed at Knox City.

Other promising collections include several strains of sideoats grama for use in South Texas; a strain of silky blue stem, native to the deserts of Australia, for planting on arid sites in the Trans-Pecos area; and a Havard panic that shows promise for vegetating sand dunes.

After top plants are collected and proven at the SCS plant center, they are grown under field conditions on farms of soil and water conservation district cooperators. After final tests, superior varieties are identified and released to commercial seed growers who produce seed for sale.

A superior strain of cleingrass, called Selection 75, was certified and released by SCS and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station for public use this year, Smith said. Other grass strains proven and put into use by SCS include El Reno, Uvalde and Vaughn sideoats grama; King Ranch bluestem; plains bristlegrass; green sprangletop; and Elida sand blue stem. Other work being done at the center includes a search for better ways to harvest certain grasses; ways to make some grasses, such as vine mesquite, produce seed more consistently; better ways to establish several plants; proper time and rate of fertilizer application; and irrigation efficiency studies for seed producers.

Groups cooperating with SCS in plant materials work include Texas A&M University, Oklahoma State University, Texas Technological College, Prairie View A&M College, Oklahoma and Texas Agricultural Experiment Stations, the Agricultural Research Service and soil and water conservation districts in the two-state area.
