Which is your attitude?

toward the BIBLE?

Do you have a Bible? Most people do. Do you read the Bible? Most people don't. What is your attitude toward the Bible? It is the most loved and the most hated book in the world. In between these two extremes there are many other attitudes toward the Bible.

Indifference: There are many who neither hate it nor love it. Their indifferent attitude results in ignorance.

Prejudice: Many people read the Bible to prove their point. They use the Scriptures for their purpose (2 Peter 3:16). They do not read their Bible with the sincere desire to find what the word of God is.

Loyalty: In contrast to the extreme attitudes of Jehoiakim and Diocletian, there have been great men like John Wycliffe and William Tyndale. Wycliffe, who lived in the fourteenth century, was dedicated to the proposition that the "Scriptures are the property of the people." He was hated for this attitude, and 40 years after his death people dug up his body and threw his ashes into the River Swift as an expression of their violent hatred for a man who loved the Bible so much. Tyndale was determined that even a plowboy should know the Scriptures. He was forced to work in secret because his life was in danger. As a result of his efforts thousands of copies of the Bible were circulated in England in the sixteenth century. For all of this he was imprisoned, treated shamefully, and finally strangled and hanged.

Ridicule: The atheist Thomas Paine, like Communists of today, scoffed at the Bible and said that it would soon become a mere museum relic. Paine is dead, and yet the Bible is our nation's "best seller" today. The Bible forewarned of such scoffers (2 Peter 3:3).

Superstition: Many people look on the Bible much like a superstitious person who carries a rabbit foot or a buckeye. They do not read it, but feel safer if it is close by. They lay their hand on it when they swear, but they never handle it aright as the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15). They clutch it in fear in foxholes but refuse to read it in times of peace.

YOU DECIDE

On June 3, Texas voters will elect one of two men as the Democratic candidate for Railroad Commissioner:

Jerry Sadler, 70, is a twice-defeated former Land Commissioner. Here's what three of the state's leading newspapers have to say about him:

The Austin American-Statesman: "Voters deserve to know whom they will be choosing between in the runoff June 3. Poerner is not a household name; Sadler is. But Sadler has a sorry record in state government. He is the only person ever censured by the Texas House of Representatives (for failure to cooperate with an investigation). He became notorious for attempting to choke then-State Rep. Jake Johnson. He was defeated at the polls in 1970 and lost to Jon Newton in a race for Railroad Commissioner in 1976. And now he's back again."

The Dallas Times Herald: "Sadler has made Texas government a universal target of ridicule and derision."

The San Angelo Standard Times: "Under Sadler, the Railroad Commission just might become the laughing stock he once made of the General Land Office."

John Poerner, 45, is a respected businessman and rancher. John Poerner was elected to three successive terms in the Texas House before being named Executive Director of the Governor's Committee on Aging and Director, Education Resources of Texas.

His honors include being named "Citizen of the Year" in his hometown of Hondo, receiving a "Distinguished Legislator" award from the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association, and being named to the "Agriculture Hall of Fame" at Southwest Texas State University.

He was recently appointed to the Railroad Commission by the Governor.

"Poerner is a solid, competent individual with a record of 10 years of dedicated public service," says the Houston Chronicle. "(We urge) his election."

VOTE June 3 in the Democratic Primary Runoff

Pd. pol. ad. to elect John Poerner Railroad Commissioner, Ed Ingram, treas., 1037 Brown Bldg., Austin, Texas 78701

IS THERE REALLY ANY CHOICE?

The Railroad Commission regulates the oil, gas and transportation industries in Texas. Our energy and utility rate problems demand vigorous and responsible leadership. We need John Poerner to fight for Texas and protect what is rightfully ours.

SEAFOOD DISHES
 For truly elegant seafood dishes that won't ruin the month's food budget, try shrimp—they're nutritious.

Shrimp provide delightful eating, and are high in muscle-building amino acids, a good source of B vitamins and a rich source of mineral salts, including natural iodine and florine.

They are always a treat because of the sweet flavor of the lean, white meat and the versatility in recipe preparation.

Round out plans for a get-together with this seafood speciality either as a dinner entree or reigning on the buffet for nibbling before dinner.

By Joe Don King CEA

CALVING SEASON ECONOMICS

The Most important management practice to a successful cow-calf operation is the development of a definite calving season.

Many producers in Wheeler County allow bulls to run year-round with cows, resulting in calves born each month. This means the herd will be in all stages of production during the year and creates problems in feeding, marketing and total management. Furthermore, calving out of season or at the wrong time of the year may cost the producer an extra $50 in feed bills and a loss of up to $25 in reduced weaning weights.

Cows that calve from late January to April need little supplemental feed even though their nutrient requirements are high due to milk production. As spring approaches, good lush, desirable pastures produce plenty of forage for lactation, rebreeding and calf growth. Cows that calve in the winter will require about $50 worth of additional hay and supplemental feed.

In addition to reduced feed costs, Texas research has shown major differences in weaning weights between calving seasons. For example, calves born in February, March and April average 478 pounds; those born in November, December and January averaged 466 pounds; May, June and July calves average 430 pounds; and August, September and October calves average 415 pounds. Calves born in the February-April period were worth from $7 to $25 more depending on season of birth.

Producers can gain as much as $75 per cow each year by selecting the best calving season.

The season should allow cows and calves to take advantage of the greatest forage quality and quantity in spring and early summer. Cows calving in late winter and early spring also obtain adequate nutrition to get in good breeding shape and thereby increase conception rates.

SUMMER AG-YOUTH EMPLOYMENT REGULATIONS LISTED

With the summer months fast approaching, potential summer employers of agricultural youth should be aware of certain age and labor requirements which apply to them.

Under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, producers may employ minors 16 years of age and over at any time in any agricultural occupation. Youth 10 to 15 years of age may also be hired but with certain restrictions.

Youth under 16 may not be employed during school hours and may not be employed at any time in an agricultural occupation declared to be hazardous by the Secretary of Labor. Hazardous occupations include the handling or applying of anhydrous ammonia and certain hazardous pesticides; operating, driving or riding on a tractor over 20-hp horsepower; operating, riding or unclogging certain power-driven farm and fieldstead equipment; and working from a ladder or scaffold at a height of over 20 feet.

Examples of some permitted jobs for youth under 16 included operating a truck, auto or garden-type tractor on the farm property, loading or unloading trucks; picking produce and placing them on conveyors or in containers; clearing small brush and trees; hand planting and cultivation; milking cows; raising and caring for poultry; picking cotton; and cleaning barns and other buildings.

The only exceptions to these provisions apply to employment of youth by their parents. Also, certain student learners enrolled in vocational agriculture education training programs and 4-H youth 14 and 15 years of age completing a tractor and machinery safety project may be certified to operate select, but not all, hazardous equipment.

Nonhazardous work may be performed with written parental consent by youth 12 and 13 years of age on any farm. Also, youth under 12 may work only on small farms having less than 500 man-days of labor during any quarter in the preceding calendar year.

LINES from LINDA

CEA — Linda Daughtry

Well-groomed hands and nails contribute toward a charming, lovely appearance.

Daily care and weekly manicures will keep even the busiest hands attractive.

The basis for healthy skin and nails is good nutrition, but surface care is also important.

Keep hands soft by moisturizing frequently with hand lotion. When doing house or yard work, wear gloves to protect against harsh products and possible damage to hands—most tasks can be effectively done while wearing gloves, so make it a habit.

Regular manicures are particularly important during dry weather.

Follow these guidelines to properly manicure nails:

Begin by removing all traces of polish using an oily remover.

Removers which contain acetone can damage the nail surface especially when used often or not properly washed off.

Do not peel polish off—doing so removes top layers of the nail plate.

Shape nails into gracefully curved ovals or ovals squared at the top using a good quality emery board or a fine metal file.

Nails that are extremely long are no longer fashionable.

File in one direction only—not back and forth—from underneath edge. If nails are brittle, soak them for several minutes to soften before filing.

Nails may be filed "gently" across the surface to smooth rough ridges often caused by damage in the cuticle area.

Between manicures, file broken or rough edges immediately.

Before treating cuticles, soak fingers in warm, soapy water for a few minutes to soften.

After drying, massage cuticle cream or oil into cuticles. Push cuticles back with a gentle motion using the cushions of your fingers or a cotton tipped manicure stick.

Carefully clip away dry, ragged edges and hangnails, but never trim the cuticle itself unless damaged. Rinse and dry nails.

Keep cuticles groomed daily by pushing them back with the towel when drying hands.

Also helpful are daily applications of a nail conditioner and lotion.

Use a chamois nail buffer to stimulate circulation, keep nails healthy and promote growth.

A buffer also polishes and shines unpolished nails for an attractive appearance.

Consider leaving nails unpolished for a while to allow them to "breathe". A white nail pencil used under the nails can give a more attractive finish.

Apply nail polish to give color to the nail and cover white spots often caused by hits on the nail or cuticle area—these spots cannot be removed, they must grow off.

To polish nails:

First, apply a base coat to protect nail from discoloration.

Then, apply a fashion color on each nail with three strokes—first down the middle, then on each side. Do the thumb first, then work from "pinkie" to index finger.

At least two coats are usually needed for adequate coverage.

Follow with a tip sealer for longer lasting color and to help prevent chipping—some sealers speed drying.

To discourage chipping, run a cotton covered manicure stick dipped in polish remover along the edge of the nail to remove a thin line of polish.

Also use the stick to remove smudges or "straying" nail polish.

PREVENT MILDEW

Take measures to prevent mildew. Don't wait for the whitish or greenish growths or musty odors to appear.

Mildew is a fungus caused by spores of molds that thrive in warm, humid weather—especially in rooms or houses that are tightly closed.

Some household surfaces and articles will need special care, but, in general, keep things clean, dry and well ventilated to prevent mildew formation.

KEEP THINGS CLEAN

Keep things clean—closets, showers, dresser drawers, basements and anywhere else damp, warm, poorly aired and poorly lighted.

Soil on articles in these areas can supply sufficient food for mildew to grow when moisture and temperature are right.

Don't forget the vacuum cleaner bag. Empty or change it frequently to prevent mildew growth in the appliance.

GET RID OF DAMPNES

Get rid of dampness by removing the cause of the dampness, by drying the air and by adequate ventilation.

Be sure kitchen and bathroom fans and the clothes dryer are vented to the outside to prevent moisture condensation in the house, attic or basement.

Cool air holds less moisture than warm air, so properly installed and operated air-conditioning systems can help prevent mildew problems.

Remember, too, that turning off the air-conditioning when the house is shut up for that three-week summer vacation, could be a big mistake. In non-air-conditioned homes and basements, mechanical dehumidifiers or properly installed and operated exhaust fans may help.

Some chemicals also absorb moisture. Silica gel, activated alumina, and calcium chloride are moisture absorbent.

These chemicals are sold under various trade names by some department and drug stores or by building supply dealers.

However, use these chemicals only as directed—some May damage household textiles or plastics and some may rust metals.

PROVIDE FOR ADEQUATE VENTILATION

In addition, provide for adequate ventilation—air movement is critical in removing excess moisture.

When natural breezes are not sufficient, fans may be needed. Select fans of the required type and size for the job and place them properly.

Poorly ventilated closets and storage areas often get damp and musty. Try to improve ventilation by opening doors or use doors with grills or louvers.

Hang clothes loosely to permit better air circulation and be sure articles are dry before placing them in closets or storage areas.

Cooking, laundering and bathing may add two or more gallons of water to a house in a day's time unless ventilation is adequate.

Thus, it is often necessary to use some type of exhaust fan in the kitchen, bathroom and laundry to provide adequate ventilation to prevent mildew problems.

"You can't mean it!"

It's true. The greatest financial risk most of us face is a liability suit for personal injury or death to others—either mental or physical injury—defamation of character—false arrest—any number of surprise causes. An Excess or Umbrella Liability Policy from Rives Insurance Agency will protect you for pennies a day.

RECEPTION HONORS JEWEL REED

Approximately 100 persons attended the reception, Sunday, May 28 for Mrs. Jewel Reed who is retiring this spring. Mrs. Reed began her teaching career 37 years ago and the last 31 of those years have been in the Kelton School System.

Mrs. Reed, a beloved and dedicated math teacher will be missed when school begins this fall. Some excerpts from letters of tribute that Mrs. Reed received from former students explains why: "... we appreciate the interest and encouragement you always gave so freely. It was just a great privilege to be taught by a teacher who loved her job as you do... you are so patient, yet firm. You make each child feel important and that he has potential and worth." "... although your person may no longer be present in the classroom, your spirit will always be there." "I feel so very fortunate in having you as my math teacher. You not only taught math, but tried to teach the 'whole' student; to instill in us some values, and to prepare us for life". "... I always remember your competence, patience, dedication, and perseverance." "You were an inspiration and a calming influence. Some of your traits that I especially admire are your quiet attitude in a crises, your expectation of the student's finest qualities morally as well as class work." "You should feel a great sense of accomplishment and pride in your teaching career. To touch so many lives as an agent for learning and an example of integrity is truly wonderful. Thank you for touching mine. Love..."

The reception was held in the Kelton School Cafeteria. The table was covered with a yellow tablecloth and centered with a lovely spring bouquet of daisies, spider mums and carnations in a silver compote. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl and silver appointments were used. The cake was also decorated in springtime colors.

Faculty, staff and board member's wives served and registered guests.

A short program was held with Superintendent N. Dean Johnson giving the welcome and Garland Moore senior board member, expressed the boards appreciation for a job well done.

Paula Britt followed with a farewell tribute. Carolyn Buckingham presented Mr. and Mrs. Reed with an Early American wall clock as a gift of love and appreciation from former students, faculty, and friends. H. B.

Krug closed the program with prayer.

Guests attending the reception from Kelton were: Mr. and Mrs. Billy Buckingham, Lacy and Britt; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Killingsworth, Karan and Michael; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hink, Janice, Janette and Jason; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson and Nickey; Mr. and Mrs. Garland Moore, Matt, Teresa, and Julie; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bryant, Elaine and Brenda; Mr. and Mrs. David Britt; Mr. and Mrs. Louie Abernethy; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Clemens, Justin, Kerri, and Kelee; Mr. and Mrs. H. ## Here & There

Laura Guthrie

This week has been so calm. The adage is "there is a calm before a storm." I am aware that the climax is in the offing. Three more days—and then the wedding. Bobby's and Shevon's, that is. We are looking forward to it. I hope to see some of our friends there. Most all weddings are beautiful. I think this one will be so.

I'm sure a lot of you had a holiday on Monday. It was more like "Labor" day to me. I worked all day. Got some things done that had been nagging me for months. So it was a good day.

My neighbors, the Wares took their boat, their mobile home, their station wagon, and probably a few more vehicles and went to Lake Foss. Kent and Gary have been at Tech the past school session, Niki lives at Lubbock and teaches. They as well as Bobby and Deniece, who live here all went along. Don't you know they had fun! Kent is spending the summer working for the Natural Gas Company, Gary is working for Frankenberg's Texaco Station. The Ware kids always seem to find something worthwhile to do.

It was nice to see Lucretia (Lee) and Eddie Davis and children at church Sunday. They have moved back 'home'. I know the Lees, all of them are glad to have them here. Just remember the Davis children are Loyd's and Anna Ruth's great-grandchildren.

Don and Patsy Carlton, Rodney and Shevon, of Shamrock were luncheon guests of her mother, Lucille Burgess Sunday. Bobby and I were fortunate to be included.

Mary Wofford flew to Houston for the weekend to visit a niece, Jane Porter and husband, Todd, and the baby. Joining them there were Janes parents, Frank and Neletta Wofford from Little Rock, Arkansas, and her sister and family Martha and Steve McFerron.

Adrian and Dorothy spent their holidays in Oklahoma City visiting with their daughter Darla, husband, Punk Childress and the children.

Establishing Love Grass

In establishing weeping lovegrass the first and most important factor in getting a stand of grass is seedbed preparation. In very dry years a stand of seeded grass can be obtained if enough care is taken in preparing the seedbed.

Weeping lovegrass, unlike our native grasses, is best established in a clean tilled seedbed if the soil is not to sandy. This can be done in a number of different ways depending on the type of land and equipment available.

On land infested with shine oak the seedbed can be prepared by deep plowing (20 inches or deeper). On land that is in farming shape or old fields without any brush plow in April, allow to firm by rains or by mechanical means and seed during the month of May.

Excellent stands may be obtained by either drilling or broadcasting the seed. The seedbed should be as firm as possible with packing the soil following seeding if broadcasted. Seeding should be fertilized before or following seeding for the best chance of making a stand.

For more information on establishment and management of weeping lovegrass contract the local Soil Conservation Service Office in Wheeler.

en and Susan; Jodie Bomar; John Harris; Bonnie Davidson and Melinda; Barbara Austin; and Dortha Calcote.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hogue; Rhonda, Renee, and Rebecca; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Whitner; Pauline Killingsworth; Bobby Adams Hill and Edna Wright all from Wheeler. Guests from Shamrock were: Era Jo Henderson, Leo Olivarez, Marla Lax, and Lynette O'Gorman.

Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Copp, a brother, from Argyle, Texas; Dora Copp, a sister from Denton, Texas; George Copp, a brother, from Denton, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, Sayre, Oklahoma; Brenda McLeod, Lela, Texas; Doris Newsom and Edith Donaldson from Allison; Earlene Rose, Sweetwater, Oklahoma and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Flowers.

The farwell given by Paula Britt was as follows:

In 1945 when school opened in September, Kelton High School resumed classes with a new instructor in Math. This tall, slender, quiet lady in a print dress and low-heeled shoes brought with her a blonde little pre-schooler who sat quietly in the back of the room while her mother taught.

I was a junior in high school that year and started developing an appreciation for this very special lady that has spanned thirty one years and has included knowing her as a teacher, my children's teacher, a fellow worker, a neighbor, and a good friend.

There are so many qualities necessary to make a good teacher. First and foremost, a good teacher must love children—no just the well-behaved achievers, but also the children with both developmental and learning problems.

Mrs. Reed has cared for thirty one classes of Kelton students and her love and concern has been reciprocated as evidenced by the letters and comments made by all who have learned under her. Read her files and you'll understand what I mean.

Another quality mandated in teaching excellence is the ability to communicate with children and make them understand the mental concept you are trying to convey. It does not come as a result of high I.Q. or a highly trained professional background.

It is an innate quality. Children understand you or they don't. Mrs. Reed has this quality. Children can and do understand her. She easily transmits knowledge to her students.

Mrs. Reed shows a deep sense of serenity in her classroom. I have personally tried to analyze and emulate this quality. It is a strong tranquility that calms and soothes students and allows them to function on a mental rather than a physical plane. This quality is rare and precious in teachers. Mrs. Reed possessed more than anyone I know in the profession.

Another quality Mrs. Reed displayed in large degree is dependability. Her teaching regime has had a few surprises in it. Children knew what was expected of them, when it was expected, the rewards of accomplishment, and the disappointments of failure. "Reed Rules" were time-tested and true. This has given children a basic security that helped them learn.

Perhaps the quality I have most admired about Mrs. Reed is her willingness to give herself, her extra time, to students who need remediation. It's a full time job teaching the state-approved program on any one level during a period. Mrs. Reed did not only that, but she worked with the children who were behind, regardless of their levels or of their numbers. Keeping two the three levels of class going at the same time is a juggling act few teachers can accomplish.

Above all, Jewel Reed has, as long as I've known her, taught in the best manner that she know how to teach. What was easiest-what was quickest took a back seat to what was best. She never counted the cost in time and effort. She operated as if her efforts were minimum requirements rather than maximums of effort.

Basically, Mrs. Reed, I want to express the admiration and esteem I and your fellow professionals feel for you; an excellent teacher. I wish we could run you through the duplicating machine and make more copies of you.

I want, as one of your students, to thank you on behalf of all the students you have taught, for teaching us a solid math course and for caring about our growth and development as people and citizens of our world.

Lastly I want to express the thanks and appreciation of the entire community. Teachers teach so much more than their subjects. They are a molding influence on the environment in which they live and teach. In every life they touch, they teach integrity, morality, honesty, sincerity and caring. So today, I say thank you, in part, for the Kelton community—for you have indeed molded so many of the residents who live and work here. We appreciate you as a teacher and will miss you in that capacity. We salute you for a job well done!

There will never be, however, any retirement for the gracious lovely lady who we have all come to love throughout the years as our neighbor and friend. To that lady we say—"You've only just begun!"

Jewel Reed

Snake Story

Seems that this man was explaining why he had been in the hospital. He said that late last night his wife had brought a bunch of pots plants and hanging baskets in the house to keep them from freezing and it happened that a little green snake had hidden himself in one of those plants and it got carried inside.

When the snake warmed up, it came slithering out of the plant and went under the sofa. Fellow's wife saw it and let out a great scream. He happened to be taking a bath at the time, but he leaped out of the tub and ran to see what the matter was.

Wife said a snake was under the sofa. He got down on the floor to look for it and here came the dog and cold-nosed him from the rear. He thought it was the snake and fainted.

His wife thought he'd had a heart attack and called an ambulance. The ambulance attendants rushed in and loaded him on a stretcher and started carrying him out and about that time the snake came slithering from under the sofa and the ambulance men saw it and dropped the stretcher, breaking the fellow's leg and that's why he had been in the hospital.
