Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER FOUR ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 4, 1962.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 46 proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of Texas by adding to Article III a new Section to be known as Section 49-d, authorizing the Texas Water Development Board to acquire and develop storage facilities in reservoirs and to dispose of such storage facilities and water upon such terms as the Legislature shall prescribe providing for the use of funds received from the disposition of acquired storage and water; providing that any enabling Acts shall not be invalid because of their antiquity or because of their antiquity or because of their antiquity or because of their antiquity...

State bonds issued shall likewise apply with respect to payment of principal and interest required to be paid by such contracts. If storage facilities are acquired for a term of years, such contracts shall contain provisions for renewal that will protect the State's investment.

The Legislature shall provide for the acquisition of such storage facilities and the disposal of same, but in no event shall the amount of such facilities exceed the Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) in bonds authorized by said Section 49-c of Article III of this Constitution.

The Legislature shall provide terms and conditions for the Texas Water Development Board to sell, transfer or lease, in whole or in part, any acquired storage facilities or the right to use such storage facilities for a price not less than the direct cost of the Board in acquiring same; and the Legislature may provide for the sale of such facilities to sell any unappropriated public waters of the State that might be stored in such facilities. As a prerequisite to the purchase of such storage facilities, the applicant therefor shall have secured a valid permit from the Board of Water Engineers or its successor authorizing the acquisition of such storage facilities or the water impounded therein. The money received from any sale, transfer or lease of storage facilities shall be used to pay principal and interest on State bonds issued or contractual obligations incurred by the Texas Water Development Board, provided that when moneys are sufficient to pay the full amount of indebtedness then outstanding and the full amount of interest to accrue thereon, any further sums received from the sale, transfer or lease of such storage facilities may be used for the acquisition of additional storage facilities or for providing financial assistance as authorized by said Section 49-c. Money received from the sale of water, which shall include standby water, may be used for the operation and maintenance of acquired facilities, and for the payment of principal and interest on debt incurred thereon.

Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory character.

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at the General Election to be held on November 6, 1962, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon:

"FOR the Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of Texas by adding a new Section to be known as a State program of acquiring conservation storage facilities in reservoirs"; and

"AGAINST the Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of Texas by adding a new Section providing for a State program of acquiring conservation storage facilities in reservoirs."

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

REWARD: Come in and claim your reward! Let our low Ford Pickup prices put savings into your pocket right off! And low price is only the start of Ford's full-time economy. You save on gas! Ford's modern Six and V-8 engines squeeze every mile from every gallon of gasoline. Short-stroke, low friction Ford engine design makes maintenance stops few and far between. You save on oil—go 4,000 miles between changes thanks to the efficiency of Ford's Full-Flow oil filter. You save on tires because Ford's truck front suspension keeps tires tracking true. We'll gladly show you certified proof of how a Ford Pickup can save you money every day! Ford Pickups ride and handle easy, too! You get wide, soft-riding seats that smooth out the miles... long wheelbases, easy springing, extra sound and shock insulation to make hauls seem shorter, to make the chassis last longer. Ford's tough deep-channel frame is built for high-crowned western roads, built to stand up in off-road ranch work. Come in and compare. It's the Law in TEXAS

Nations often punish their own people for crimes beyond its borders. Nations can punish aliens for crimes committed against that country when they later come into that country. Nation can also punish an alien for piracy under international law.

What about war crimes done on order of superiors? The World War II allies have declared that certain nazi leaders committed punishable crimes against nations.

Now and then some nations may allow a court to try a person "in absentia." Such trials without the accused present were once popular, but little comes from such trials, and they are not as highly regarded as trials in which a person has a fair chance to defend himself.

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Rock Leake has gone to Corpus Christi to be with his sister who is seriously ill.

The colorful pirates of old captured your imagination but not that of the shipowners or the government that lost their cargoes and treasures.

Pirates were "enemies of mankind." Their acts became crimes against that government as well as against the "law of nations." A government would try to catch and to punish them no matter how and where the piracy took place.

From these early days, a rule of international law called "the piracy principle" came into being, as to crimes against mankind. Any nation might seize and punish such a person. He did not need to be one of its citizens. The crimes could be committed inside or outside its territory. Jurisdiction is worldwide.

TWITTY NEWS

By J. Lloyd Rice

This is Monday morning, Aug. 13, 1962. That cloud last night did come over bringing great relief from the heat wave. The damp earth and cloudy skies this morning are a relief from the burning heat of yesterday.

We saw a lot of Wheeler people at Lubbock over the weekend. No, it was Friday and Friday night, Aug. 10. They were at Lubbock Christian College attending the closing program of the wonderful music conducted there.

Among those from Wheeler and vicinity were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunn, Mrs. Finsterwald, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daughtry; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George Weems from Shamrock area were Mr. and Mrs. Hester Dodson and mama and me. Oh, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Booth of the Wheeler area were there also, and Mike Goad was there as a student.

Students came to the camp from many points in Texas and from seven other states. Classes were conducted in both band and chorus. The closing program was truly great. Mrs. Katie Finsterwald expressed the feeling of many when she said:

"That was out of this world, a little bit of heaven."

It seemed sad to me to realize that the great chorus of youngsters singing together would never assemble again. They will be scattered to their several communities and all of them will never return. Next year there will be many of the same ones, but some will be missing, and new ones come in. Perhaps that little bit of heaven they experienced on their last performance together will linger with them to bless them through all their life.

Ed Johnston returned home Sunday night from McKinney where he and Ella had been staying with their daughter, Mrs. Martin, who has had surgery. Ella remained down there for a few days or until her daughter gets better.

Mobeetie News

Mrs. G. B. Dunn

Everyone keeps in mind that September 1 is the labor day picnic at the "Old Jail" in Mobeetie. Barbecue, coffee and bread will be furnished, and everyone is asked to bring a basket lunch. There will be a lot of old friends to see and some new friends to make everyone come.

Mr. and Mrs. Puck Scribner have been here visiting for a few days. They now live in Plainview. A good time was reported last Monday night, Aug. 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scribner, friends and neighbors gathered to give them a going away party. The Scribners are moving to Olton where they are both employed by the school.

Everyone is glad to see Charles Walser on the street again visiting. Charles has been in the hospital in Amarillo.

Mrs. D. C. Read's father has been quite ill in Baylor Hospital in Dallas with a stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller and Mrs. Tommie Tyson have all gone to Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tince Williams have returned from a fishing trip to Creel, Colo., and reported the fishing good. They brought quite a few home with them.

Glen Renter of Dimmit was here last week visiting with friends.

Morea Bowles' mother, Mrs. John Cornelius fell and broke her arm Monday evening. She is in the Shamrock Hospital.

Visiting the Don Earneys over the weekend was Mrs. Earney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snyder of Clinton, Okla., and Mr. Earney's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Duncan who remained for a week.

Something you should think about if you're about to buy a truck:

If all trucks were built the same way, cost the same to keep up, were worth the same at trade-in . . . then probably the price tag would be your only concern. It can't be, of course, because some trucks have more quality than others. And marks of quality are the real keys to low cost.

Chevrolet trucks, for example, have double-wall construction, which gives bodies and cabs more strength. Cabs are insulated against heat, cold and noise. A big part of road shock, which shortens truck life, is damped out by Chevrolet's suspension system; it also makes riding in the truck a pleasure. Pickup bodies and cabs are separated to eliminate stress between them.

Value such as this has induced more people to invest in Chevrolet trucks every year since 1937.

This can be a good time to buy a modern new Chevrolet truck

Late summer traditionally is the season for all-around savings on a new Chevrolet truck . . . selection is still good . . . deliveries are prompt . . . and Chevrolet dealers are doubly anxious to put you into a new vehicle in order to make way for next year's models. Coupled with the efficient performance a new Chevrolet truck will give you, it seems evident that you couldn't buy at a better time.

Come in and take full advantage of it!

Research and its application are the keys to agricultural progress and to more and better products for consumers. Experiments at Pennsylvania State University reveal it is possible to change a cow's milk fat percentage and fat composition. Researchers are now trying to learn whether milk composition can be influenced in any particular direction. Success, says Dr. Robert McCarthy of Penn State, could mean cows could produce milk for ice cream, cheese, or specific diets. He and his associates are experimenting with control of bacteria in the rumen, key to development of tailor-made milk. The rumen, one of four stomachs, is a versatile fermentation vat where bacteria are influenced by the type of feed a cow eats," Dr. McCarthy explains. "When you change food materials, sometimes you favor one bacteria over the other. The change in feed may strengthen certain bacteria and weaken others. This changes the products of fermentation, likewise changing the material available for milk production. Such chemical changes in nutrients will influence composition of the milk."

Tailor-made milk may some day be a reality.

A mobile packing unit developed by a Salinas, Calif., corporation helps get lettuce to market in a hurry. The unit consists of a huge truck with its own generator. Wings attached to the sides can be spread out to operate as conveyor belts. The truck follows workers cutting and trimming the lettuce. Other workers walk behind the conveyor wings, pick up the cut heads, and put them on the conveyor. The conveyor moves the lettuce inside where a crew on one side wraps each head in a sheet of "Polyflex," and thrusts it through an opening. On the other side, workers heat-seal the film and direct the packages to a heat tunnel where the film is stretched tight. The heads then go to the packers. Lettuce cut and trimmed in the field reaches the home-maker crisp, moist, and with color intact. Each head is trimmed and ready for use.

Lettuce is now wrapped in the field.

Farm Facts

Americans in 1961 spent $16 billion on beef, pork, veal, and lamb. That was about a fourth of all money spent on food and added up to $277 per family. This news comes from the Economic Research Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture which notes that we spent more on meat than on household utilities, television sets, and radios combined. In the early 1920's the annual meat bill per person amounted to about $34 for 154 pounds of meat. In 1961 it was $90 for 161 pounds. Only 45% of our take-home pay, however, was needed for meat in 1961, as compared with 67% in the 1920's. About half the meat dollar goes for processing and marketing, though this varies depending on the type of meat. There are two important reasons for a drop in the percentage of income spent for meat. As consumers earn more, their buying is more diversified. The percentage spent on meat declines although dollars spent increase. Second, due to greater efficiency, farmers are able to provide more meat to consumers at a reasonable price.

We spend 1/4 of our food money on meat.

Farm Facts

According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, there were 14,803,000 people living on farms in the United States in 1961, or about one person out of every 12 in the total population. This is the smallest farm population of recent record. From 1960 to 1961, the number of farm people decreased by about 830,000 as the movement away from farms more than offset the growth that would have taken place from births. Non-white farm people number 2,346,000. They account for 1/6 of the total but because of their concentration in the South make up 3/10 of all Southern farm residents. The farm population has a high percentage of children and teenagers; 43% of all farm people are under 20 years old. Farm people of late middle age or older outnumber young adults, however. In 1961, there were 109 farm males for every 100 females, compared with 97 males for every 100 females in the non-farm population. Farm people are defined as those living on places with 10 or more acres of land and selling $50 or more worth of farm products per year.

14.8 million people live on U.S. farms.

REPORT FROM CONGRESS

By WALTER ROGERS U.S. Representative 18th Dist. THE NATION'S CAPITAL. The City of Washington in the District of Columbia is the Subject of daily conversation throughout the world, some pro and some con, but I doubt that there is anyone in a civilized or semi-civilized country who has not heard of the Capital City of the United States of America. In this city and in the surrounding territory there are marvels of interest, both historic and otherwise. The Capitol Building itself, is, of course, the Number One attraction. It occurred to me that there are many, many people throughout the country, especially in our District, who have never had the opportunity to visit in Washington. Each year thousands of tourists, including many children of school age and those graduating from high school, come to see the Capitol Building and the other points of interest. However, even a visit to these points does not always provide the sightseer with all of the information that is of interest. Hence, it occurred to me that it might be in order to include in a newsletter some of the data about our Capital City. The site was originally a 10-mile-square, consisting of a part of Maryland and Virginia and was fixed on April 15, 1791. However, in 1846 the Congress transferred to Virginia the portion of the district that had been furnished by that state. Hence, the present District of Columbia consists of that portion originally donated by Maryland. It was chosen in an effort to get away from large population centers of the time. An offer of a price of $500 or a medal of the same value was to be awarded to the party coming forward with the most approved plan for a Capitol Building. Some 14 to 16 plans were submitted but none was satisfactory. It was the plan of Dr. William Thornton of Tortola, West Indies, that was accepted on April 5, 1793. On Sept. 18, 1793, the cornerstone was laid with Masonic ceremonies. The plan provided for a central section nearly square in area, surrounded by a low dome. The central section was planked on the north and south by rectangular buildings. The north wing was finished in 1800 and the south wing in 1811. A wooden passage way connected the two buildings. This condition existed when the interior of both buildings was burned by the British on Aug. 24, 1814. Restoration proceeded but was not actually completed until 1829. The original Capitol as completed was 352 feet 4 inches in length and 229 feet in depth. The cost of the building, including the grading of the grounds, repairs, etc., up to the year 1827, was $2,433,841.13. The building of the House and Senate wings was commenced in 1851. The Capitol has a floor area of 16 1/2 acres, and 540 rooms are devoted to offices, committees, and storage purposes. The dome as presently constituted is of cast iron and was completed in 1865. The exterior diameter of the dome is 135 feet 5 inches. The influence of the sun upon this vast iron structure is great. Old Sol ways this tremendous weight of approximately 4,455 tons, or 8,909,200 pounds, causing it to oscillate a distance of three and four inches. The motion is south, southwest, then west and as the retiring sun declines and finally disappears, north, northeast and returning to its original position. The Capitol Building is situated on a plateau 88 feet above the level of the Potomac River and covers an area of 153,112 square feet, or approximately 3 1/2 acres. Atop the building is a statue which has caused guesswork on the part of many as to identification. The true fact is that this is the Statue of Freedom. It is entirely of bronze and weighs 14,985 pounds, is 15 feet 6 inches high and cost $23,796.82. It is a figure of a woman clad in flowing draperies with her right hand resting upon the hilt of a sheathed sword and her left holding a wreath and grasping a shield. At the waist a brooch bearing the letters "U.S." holds the drapery in place. The head is covered by a helmet encircled with stars and surmounted by a crest composed of an eagle's head and a bold arrangement of feathers, suggested by the costume of our Indian tribes. As a protection from lightning, 10 bronze points, tipped with platinum, are placed as follows: one on the head; six on the feathers in the head-dress; one on each shoulder; and one on the shield. Among the other items of interest in the Capitol Buildings are the Senate snuff boxes, Washington's tomb and the catafalque, the rotunda frieze and statutory hall. There are several publications concerning these matters that might be of interest to many of you who plan a trip to Washington. If you will write me well in advance I will be happy to send them to you, and you may be better versed when you get here than the guides who will take you on tour. VISITORS Visitors to the Nation's Capital last week were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Welker and sons Joe and Richard.

AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S NOTES

By CHARLES D. JACKSON County Agricultural Agent Cotton prospects are looking good over the county even though many farmers had to replant several times in order to get a stand. The recent rains will aid cotton, vegetables and feed grain growth as well as pastures, but by the same token the insects will be increased. Insects are showing up more in the older cotton than the younger cotton at the present time, but it would certainly be advisable to keep a close check on the younger cotton for bollweevils and bollworms.

Begin treatment when bollworm eggs and four or five young worms are found per 100 terminals or 5 percent of the small squares and bolls have been injured by small bollworms. Apply dust or spray at five-day intervals. The same insecticides recommended for Bollworms are recommended for Bollweevils also.

MID-WEEK DEVOTION

By: Rev. Mrs. L. V. Grace PRAISE, KILTON, TEXAS PRAISE AND PRAYER Never Weary in Prayer. When one day man sees how marvelously his prayer has been answered then he will deeply, so deeply, regret that he prayed so little. Prayer changes things, prayer re-creates, prayer is irrestable. So pray literally without ceasing. Pray until you almost cease to pray, because trust has become so rock-like. Then pray on because trust has become so much a habit that you can't resist it. And always pray until prayer merges into praise. That is the only note on which true prayer should end. It is the Love of God that is turning your prayer the right direction. Prayer and praise will be the results as to what attitude you have had toward God your Father and towards mankind. Slow me down Lord. Ease the pounding of my heart by quieting my mind. Steady my hurried pace give me calmness amidst the confusion of my day. Break the tension of my nerves with something music that lives in memory. Help me to know the magical restoring powers of sleep. Teach me the art of taking minute vacations of slowing down to chat with a friend, to read a good book, to look at a flower. Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and tortoise, that I may know that there is more to life than speed. Let me look upward toward the branches of the towering oak and remember that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly. Slow me down Lord, Slow me down. —Author Unknown

Noticed where some Doctor over in England is tryin to get folks to censor the Bible. Seems like he feels there is too much in there that ain't nice to read such as the things about how the Romans done folks and how brutal and Bloody it wuz. He mentioned the sex angle and all of the things that shouldn't be read by Children.
As far as Im concerned that is the last straw trying to take away from the only book of truth we got. Findin out that Paul Reverse wuzn't a hero shook me purty hard and findin out that Billie Sol wernt the nice fellow he appeared to be frintin but durned if they are goin to get a chance to change the wordin in our family Bible just to suit the public. THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	1 Samuel	1	26-28
Monday	Luke	1	38-40
Tuesday	1 Samuel	3	17-19
Wednesday	Luke	4	46-49
Thursday	1 Corinthians	13	2-5
Friday	Psalms	37	3-6
Saturday	Deuteronomy	7	9

Mrs. Thompson is a "modern" mother. She wouldn't think of neglecting her baby's regular visit to the doctor. She knows that these early check-ups plus proper diet, rest and care, are vital if her child is to grow up into a strong, healthy boy, ready to take his place in tomorrow's world.

Nor will she forget an even more important factor in his development—his spiritual check-ups. When the time comes and baby is old enough, his tiny footsteps will lead him into Church School where another kind of ministry will be given to him. Later still, he will worship with his parents, and the importance of the family unit together at work, at play and in worship will be engrained in his mind.

In tomorrow's world he will be well equipped to take his place physically, mentally... and spiritually,
