Mustangs Will Host Mangum Friday

Meeting Tonight On Watershed Project

A public hearing on the application for an upstream control project on Sweetwater Creek will be held at 8 p.m. today in the Sweetwater School building. Gordon Stiles, chairman of the steering committee for Sweetwater Creek watershed, early this week urged everyone in Wheeler and this area who can possibly attend to be present for the "very important meeting."

"This meeting is being held to give you the opportunity to state what damages you have had from flooding and how you feel about the program," Stiles explained. "If you would like to see this program carried out, then your attendance at this meeting would be appreciated. A lot of local interest must be shown at this meeting for the Sweetwater Creek watershed program to be adopted."

Representatives of the Texas Conservation Board also are expected at the session and landowners will be given the opportunity to express their views concerning the proposed project, which if approved would mean the construction of several flood-detention reservoirs on the watershed.

Upper and Lower Because of the size of the watershed, the project must be divided into two programs — upper and lower.

Two separate applications have been submitted, to the Texas and Oklahoma Conservation Boards. The proposed flood control work has received the endorsement of the Wheeler county commissioners and Chamber of Commerce, and is also being supported by the Wheeler city council.

Oklahoma regulations require that a public hearing be held to determine the amount of local interest before the necessary watershed survey is conducted.

Without local support the watershed project can not be carried out. Efforts to win approval of the project were started to end the damaging floods on Sweetwater Creek. Similar upstream flood control work throughout Texas and Oklahoma has eliminated costly flooding.

TREATMENT OF LAND STRESSED

The investigation to determine a priority rating for Sweetwater Creek watershed will be greatly influenced by the interest of the people in "land treatment measures" in the watershed.

There are several important land treatment measures as follows:

1. What per cent of the landowners in the watershed have a farm plan and are cooperating with the Wheeler County Soil Conservation District?
2. How much of the land has a cover of grass or high residue crops?
3. How much of the needed terraces and other erosion control structures have been built?
4. Are the people interested in soil improving crops?
5. Is the rangeland being used to leave cover for plant vigor and erosion control?

Shows Understanding A farm plan of how the land will be treated for protection and improvement shows that the farmers understand what he needs and that he is working toward solving his erosion problems.

The Wheeler County Soil Conservation District supervisors encourage every landowner to be a district cooperator and have a definite plan to conserve the land.

Protection of the sandy land with some sort of grass or with crop residue living or dead, is the best protection against wind and water erosion. A soil with plenty of organic matter has less erosion, and always produces more crops.

Mechanical control of erosion is necessary in some places. Field terraces, diversion terraces, dams and contour farming will keep the soil and water on the land and prevent erosion.

The management of conservation practices applied is often more important than anything

COMMEMORATIVE STAMP: The Sam Rayburn commemorative stamp goes on sale Sept. 16 with ceremonies at Bonham, Mr. Sam's hometown. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson (center) displays a model of the stamp as Postmaster General J. Edward Day (left) and Speaker of the House John W. McCormack look on. Mr. Rayburn, who died this year, served as speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives longer than any other man.

The exhibit is scheduled in the Spearman Community Center Building.

A special feature of the exhibit will be work of artists from this area exhibited in Burr Galleries, New York City, in June of this year.

Dord Fitz, well known painter, sculptor and teacher, will lecture Sunday at 3 p.m.

Paintings should be delivered to Spearman Friday from 1 to 5 p.m. and not later than 12 noon Saturday. Moulding and hangers will be provided for hanging pictures.

Mrs. Ford Wins

Mrs. K. D. Ford was the lucky winner in a drawing held Saturday night at the Wheeler Drug, according to Hyland Weaver, owner. Mrs. Ford received a Lindy-Lynn Electric Blanket valued at $25.95.

CHAMBER TO MEET TUESDAY

The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce will hold a regular monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday at Nora's Cafe, with a discussion of the Sweetwater Creek upstream flood control project on tap.

President Archie Hibler urged all members to attend.

A film prepared to show the need for the watershed protection program is scheduled for showing at the meeting.

The film was presented for the first time at a meeting of the Red River Water Authority in Shamrock several weeks ago, and drew favorable response from the authority and members of the State Conservation Board present.

Spliced Film

The 8-millimeter color film actually was made by splicing scenes from several rolls of film taken by local and area residents during flooding on Sweetwater Creek.

Boosters of the Sweetwater upstream flood control project hope the movie will present adequate evidence of the need for work on Sweetwater to protect land and other property in this area.

The proposed program has received the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce and county commissioners.

Locals Lose 14-0 In Season Opener

Unsuccessful in their first time out, the Wheeler High School Mustangs try for victory before the home folks Friday night when they entertain the Mangum Tigers. Kickoff will be at 8 p.m.

The Mustangs last Friday put up a stiff fight in the early minutes, but were unable to hold the more experienced Canadian Wildcats, and suffered a 14-0 defeat in the season opener.

Coach Grady Burnett said knowledge of the "fundamentals" of football was the "basic difference" between Wheeler and Canadian, but he felt the locals played well in the first half and would show much improvement as the season progresses.

The Mustangs threatened twice on the rain-soaked field, pushing down inside the 10-yard line on one occasion and then inside the 20 again.

But penalties and fumbles, plus a stubborn band of Wildcats, stopped the Wheeleries short of the goal line.

Rain Comes Down Rain poured down on the fans early in the game, causing many to scurry for shelter. The 75-inch shower left the field soaked and muddy in places.

Coach Burnett didn't single out any particular players as being outstanding in the contest.

Canadian got its first touchdown on a 28-yard pass from Bob Lewis to Gordon Rivers in the second quarter, but the conversion try failed.

Then in the third period Lewis raced into the end zone for the hosts' second score, and passed to Rivers for the two extra points.

Friday's game will be the first of the season for the Mangum, Okla., squad, coached by John Buck. The team runs from the Wing-T and slot formations.

Following are the statistics for the Wheeler-Canadian game:

	Whe.	Can.
First Downs	8	11
Opp. Passes Inter.	1	1
Yards Gained Rushing	70	177
Yards Gained Passing	30	50
Total Yards Gained	100	227
Passes Attempted	3	9
Passes Completed	1	3
Fumbles	7	4
Penalties & Yardage	5-25	10-100
Fumbles Lost	3	1
Punts & Yardage	6-28	5-33
Plays from Scrimmage	50	59

'Your Father' Article Written in 1885 Is Still Timely Today

N. D. Ware Sr. brought the following article to the Times that he had found among some of his personal papers recently. It was written by his uncle, J. R. Bonar, and dated Jun. 5, 1885.

YOUR FATHER

He may wear a last year's straw hat.
His finger nails may need manicuring.
He may wear a little loose.
His pants may bag at the knees.
His face may show signs of a second day's growth.
The tin bucket he carries may be full of dents and doughnuts.
But don't call him "The Old Man".
He's your father.

For years he has been rushing around to get things together.
Never once has he failed to do the right thing by you.
He thinks you are the greatest boy on earth. Lar none.
Even though you powder your hair back.
Wear smart clothes.
Smoke cigars.
And fail to bring home a cent.
He is the man who won the love and life partnership of the greatest woman on earth — your mother.
And not "The Old Woman".
He's your father and not "The Old Man".
If you win as good a wife as he did you will have to go some my boy.

else. Terraces should be maintained.
Crops should be rotated. Stubble of high residue producing crops need to be left on the surface as much as possible. Proper stocking of pastures and rotation of pastures keeps grass for future use.
The Wheeler Soil Conservation District supervisors encourage every farmer and rancher to take advantage of the opportunity being offered. The better the land treatment the better the chance of getting Sweetwater Creek under control. Good land treatment pays dividends.

No 'Pig in a Poke' for 4-H'ers

Young 4-H swine raisers throughout the state gained quite a bit of new knowledge this past year while completing their projects supervised by local club leaders and their county extension workers. Besides going to regular 4-H Club meetings members enrolled in the swine program often have a chance to attend special educational events like the group pictured here.
Dr. L. N. Hazel, of the animal science department at Iowa State University, demonstrates the probing for hog fat covering for Iowa 4-H'ers Terry Hoy, 16, of Adel and Bob Smith, 18, Monticello. Other 4-H'ers are settling down to a demonstration and lecture on swine research. Ultimate goal of the swine program is to teach young farmers latest methods in scientific breeding, feeding and care of swine. They also learn about marketing and consumption of pork.
Members who have done an outstanding job over a period of years have an opportunity to win a $400 scholarship and an expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. In the county as many as four members are cited for honors and a 4-H medal. Sponsoring the swine program for the fifth straight year in cooperation with extension and National 4-H Service Committee is the Moorman Mfg. Co. of Quincy, Ill.

TYPE PONDS

The big problems of ranchers in the Wheeler Conservation District is water supply. An ideal would be watering facted in such a manner that would have to walk a quarter of a mile. Of ideal is not always at many farmers and in these districts can improve the situation by a seep type pond.

Ponds are constructed that has a high water level within four or five feet of the ground. Needs to be constructed of about ten or twelve feet deep. This is water will always be fresh.

Most ponds of this type are constructed in such a way as to keep all rain-fall run-off water out of the pond. This will prolong the life of the pond because there is no silting. This is done by placing the dirt that is removed from the pond around the outside in such a way that is impossible for water to run into the basin.

Do you have a seep on your place or an area that stays wet a good part of the year? If so, you stand a good chance of having an ideal spot for a pond. Technicians for the Soil Conservation Service will welcome the opportunity to assist in checking the pond site and actual staking of the pond. Cost-share assistance may be obtained through the Great Plains Conservation Program, which is administered by the Soil Conservation Service, or through the ASCS Office.

SURVIVAL SUPPLIES such as these stocks for a 50-person fallout shelter are being furnished under the Defense Department's national civil defense program to provide 14-day stores of food, water and other shelter necessities for an estimated 50-60 million emergency occupants of spaces located by a nationwide survey. The supplies are: (1) Ten water containers holding 17½ gallons each—a quart of water a day per person for 14 days; (2) A kit of radiation detection instruments to measure radioactivity outside the shelter, to check for fallout on food, clothing and the like, and to show individuals' total exposure to fallout; (3) Two sanitation kits, each containing waste disposal equipment and water rationing supplies; (4) Seven cases of canned long-life survival wafers or biscuits totaling 10,000 calories for each person, and (5) A medical kit adequate to care for common ailments of shelter occupants for 14 days in the absence of trained medical personnel. (Dept. of Defense Photo)

These are the products of man's labor—and from the moment the seedlings were placed in the warm earth, they have been under constant care.

First came the rain and the sun—and then the endless work of fertilizing, cultivating, and weeding. Last, came harvest time, when the proud reapers gathered the rewards of their labor.

Only by such diligence can we hope for a bountiful crop. God has given the refreshing rain and warm sunshine, but He expects us to do our part.

And so it is with the care and cultivation of spiritual lives. Man is endowed with many talents and qualities, but unless he tends and nurtures these gifts, they will not increase and grow.

Harvest time in the life of every person is at maturity, when men are at the peak of their usefulness and wisdom. By attending the services of the Church and by studying the Scriptures, we realize greater happiness and contentment on earth—and will be preparing ourselves for the RICH HARVEST of a life hereafter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

AGRICULTURAL AGENT'S NOTES

By CHARLES D. JACKSON
... County Agricultural Agent

Eighteen different species of trees or shrubs will be available for planting by Texas landowners, early in 1963, from the Texas Forest Service at a delivered cost of $1.50 per hundred.

The trees and shrubs may be used for windbreaks, soil stabilization, and Christmas trees (red cedar) plantings, but cannot be used or resold for shade or ornamental purpose. All seeding orders will be packed in moss and moisture proof paper and shipped prepaid direct to the purchaser. Orders must be in multiples of fifty and orders for less than one hundred seedlings or seed (black walnut) will not be accepted. Order blanks and guides for planting the trees are available at the county agent's office.

This is the time of year that many cotton farmers are wondering about what yield the cotton is going to produce. Besides the farmers, I'm sure that lending agencies are also thinking if the yield will be good enough for all concerned.

A simple method for estimating yield of cotton is to measure off 7 yards and count the total number of bolls in the 7 yards of rows and then multiply this number by 10. This will give the number of bolls in a row of cotton one acre long. You should then measure off 70 yards across the field and count the actual number of rows in this distance to obtain the number of rows in a square acre. By multiplying the number of bolls in a row one acre long by the number of rows in a square acre, you can find the number of bolls on one acre.

Example: 2100 bolls in a row one acre long X the number of rows on one square acre equals 2100 X 70 equals 147,000 bolls per acre. Divide the number of bolls per acre by the number of bolls required to weigh one pound. The result will give the number of pounds of seed cotton per acre. To obtain pounds of lint per acre, multiply the pounds of seed cotton by the gin turnout of the particular variety. Varieties differ but they usually average about 36% for hand picked cotton and 25% for hand snapped cotton.

Everyone interested in the Sweetwater Creek Watershed, should plan on attending the hearing that will be held on Thursday, Sept. 13 at 8:00 P.M. The hearing will be held in the school building at Sweetwater, Okla.

...how's your lighting?

Light makes the difference in modern living and just as all things have benefited by the hand of the scientist so, too, has the field of lighting. The past 10 years have seen amazing changes in lighting concepts — based on scientific research. Home lighting, business lighting — both have vastly improved in the last ten years.

If your lighting is age 10 — or older — then it's time you enlightened yourself with the facts. Public Service lighting people can help you.

Outdoor Lighting, too!

- READY-LITES
A Ready-Lite, at the front of your home, gives light for just a penny a night — offers protection and decoration — adds prestige. You can have one installed and take 24 months to pay — no interest.
- AREA LIGHTING
Farms and businesses can benefit from a new lighting service that offers lighting-rental at only $4.00 per month. Included is the electricity to operate the light — no investment on your part. Ask your Public Service neighbor.

MOVIE REVIEW

By Laura Guthrie

THREE STOOGES IN ORBIT. Of course this is slapstick antics of Moe, Larry and Curly Joe, but such zany behavior can be down right entertaining. Every body needs a laugh, and in this day of strained expressions, nothing less than these amusing-three can crack the crust on most faces. So why not warm a theatre seat this weekend? Rating: Good.

EXPERIMENT IN TERROR is a nerve tingling thriller set in the city of San Francisco from plush night spots to the suburbs, from Chinatown to the Golden Gate Bridge and the Candlestick Ball Park. There's never a dull minute. Rating: Excellent BRUSHFIRE is another brand new production and a review is lacking. It is a war drama that is likely to be good entertainment for all except the very young.

KING OF KINGS is on its way to your local theatre.

ALL ABOUT YOUR SCHOOL

By Arling Cordell
Wheeler Schools

School activities are setting down to a steady hum of progress. P.T.A., Band Boosters, class organizations, Key Clubbers, Student Council, faculty meetings and other groups have had their planning sessions. It seems that all are full of enthusiasm for the school year.

First home games are being played this week. The junior high vs. Wellington on Thursday evening; and the high school plays Mangum, Okla., on Friday evening. Ticket prices will be the same as last year. If you pay for a parking place please do not get inside those which are reserved. Notice especially the one reserved near the gate on the west side for Mr. Kirk's ambulance and also the one reserved for Dr. Walker.

Kid's Day will be coming up soon, sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis and the Key Clubs. Everyone is planning upon a good display of exhibits in store windows plus the various pet shows and the parade.

Plans are being made for the band and the high school to attend the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo on Monday. Pupils must use this need to give some thought to the day only if they expect to attend.

Parents, teachers, and pupils problem of maintaining the enthusiastic feelings of students on a high level throughout the entire school year. Teachers can do this at all times, provide interesting courses clearly before the classes by keeping the objectives of the materials, and above all, bring to their classes purpose, devotion and patience. Parents can help by using every means at their command to encourage their children to study hard every day on every subject. Pupils need to set their goals at the highest point they are capable of achieving & then work every day toward the very best they can do. If we do these things, this will be the best school year of our lives.

Number Two

Seems the time the three chose to go was right after school started. And with the kids in school... well, there's no time for any trips for the better halves.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

IT MAY NOT BE TOO LATE

How near "down" the clock of time has "run" . . . whether months or years remain . . . I haven't found the answer! Have you?

Could not all who are reading the TIMES find the same worthwhile time to call God (and His MESSAGE) up from beneath the layer of dust that has collected since last year, or month, or Sunday?

What more dynamic mission would God have for a 20th Century Jonah—Than to call Mr. and Mrs. American to attention AT THE FEET OF JESUS. Before God ever expected any man to turn (Repent) to Him and from things of the world, it is unmistakably true that God always illuminated him with his LIGHT—which is found in none other place than HIS WORD—THE BIBLE.

Should I have choice of good deeds to do for you—whether it be money, prominence in city, state or world activities, etc. I'd feel inefficient and of little genuine worth, if I couldn't encourage you toward the effervescent spiritual well of never ending joy and life.

This is true because of many things that God has said; but please consider this one. . . when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ; Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of His power. . . 2 Thess 1:7-9.

I can't afford to plan to stand before God—ignorant of His Will for my life. Can you?

Thank you,
Robert C. Frahm

Ponds are still under construction on Milton Liles' farm south of Wheeler. Three other ponds have been planned on other cooperators. Jim Magruder is planning to build terraces next week.
