Several more days will be needed, we think before our new building is ready for us. Installation of the auditorium furniture, the stage furnishings and the cafeteria equipment begins this week.

We commend our parents, their children and all others who have attended our games in the new gym for helping us to keep it clean and sanitary. Thank you for your courtesy.

By now you should have a good idea of your childrens weaknesses as shown on their report cards. Surround them with an environment for study at home, encourage them by your understanding of their special needs; keep a wide variety of reading materials for them to enjoy at their leisure. They will read for enjoyment only if you also read for enjoyment and only if, when they were very young, you read to them and told them stories.

We will have a number of games at home now that the gym can be used. Come out and see our fine teams play.

We have agreed to our neighbor schools using the gym for their District 2-B Tournament Feb. 9-10-11.

HUNTER NAMED ALL-STATE

Villard Hunter, Wheeler's 175 lb. Senior Mustang End, was named to the Fort Worth Star 1966 Class 2-A all-state school boy football team.

The only other name from the Panhandle area which appeared on the list was Vernon Marlar of White Deer.

RIFLE MATCH WINNER: Mike Conner, grandson of John Conner, shot a perfect score in the prone position at the Hub City Smallbore Rifle Matches at Texas Tech College in Lubbock to win the rifle match and a large trophy. His score of 100 with nine X's was the best of the ninety competitors firing in the two days of shooting, January 14-15. The matches were held at the US Army ROTC indoor range on the Tech campus and was sponsored by the VFW Junior Rifle Club.

Mike has been shooting since the age of twelve and is a distinguished expert rifleman with the National Rifle Association. To date he has won nearly 100 trophies and patches in rifle matches. He is a member of the 4 man team that holds the Junior Outdoor Championship of the state of New Mexico.

Mike is a senior student at Coronado High School in Lubbock and plans to enter college in September as an Army ROTC Cadet. He has received invitations from several colleges who want him on their rifle teams.

His next match will be at New Mexico Military Institute on February 11 and 12th.

13 ACCIDENTS IN NOVEMBER

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 13 accidents on rural highways in Wheeler County during the month of November according to Sergeant J.W. Wilson, highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one death, 7 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $9,320.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first eleven months of 1966 shows a total of 141 accidents resulting in three persons killed, 61 persons injured and an estimated property damage of $103,790,000.

The 1966 December traffic cloud hangs very low and dark over the Texas streets and highways horizon. What does the traffic picture look like for this year end holiday season? If it is anything like the repeat of the past it is going to be a very sad one for Texas history.

Since 1960 traffic deaths in Texas have risen from 2,254 to 3,028 in 1965. At the beginning of this present month, the traffic fatality count in Texas was 2,921. Motorists are now driving during the most deadly month of the year. December, 1965 was the most deadly month in this history of this state with 363 traffic fatalities.

What kind of picture could this year end with? The 2,921 traffic deaths already

THE FAMILY LAWYER

"... And Nothing But The Truth"

The famous phrase has a rolling rhythm: "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." But does the witness, having uttered the words, obey their command?

It is an old, old problem. Almost 2400 years ago Euripides said: "The tongue hath sworn, but the mind is unsworn."

How can we persuade a man's mind to deliver what his tongue has promised? In an earlier day, the law relied mainly on the witness' dread of immediate divine retribution. But few people nowadays are kept honest by the fear of a heavenly thunderbolt.

Accordingly, the law now seeks to harness the power of the witness' own conscience. To that end, the form of the oath may vary somewhat to fit the particular creed of the individual.

Thus a Christian may swear on the New Testament, a Jew on the Old Testament, and a Mohammedan on the Koran. And a Quaker to whom swearing is abhorrent may merely "affirm" that he will tell the truth.

On occasion, courts have even allowed such exotic procedures as blowing out a candle ("If I do not tell the truth, may I be snuffed out as was the candle.")

The modern oath has a further use, beyond engaging the conscience of the witness. It also serves to convert a lie into a crime. Lying under oath is the crime of perjury.

It is not often that a witness is convicted of perjury. The requirements for such a conviction are strict. For the law fears that, if the club of perjury is wielded too freely, it could frighten even an honest witness into silence.

Thus, it is not perjury to give false testimony without realizing its falsity—even if there is a degree of negligence on the part of the witness.

But if there is sufficient evidence of a deliberate lie, told with evil purpose, the courts take a serious view indeed of the matter.

For the witness who commits perjury not only offends his own conscience. And he not only breaks his own oath. He also, in the words of a federal court, "pollutes the stream of justice at its source."

From The County Agent

By Charles David Jackson
 Beginning the first week in February, Production Guidelines on each major crop and livestock operation in Wheeler County will be mailed to each community group. This represents a continuing effort by your local Extension Service office to be sure that all producers have the up-to-date information that will enable our local farmers and ranchers to continue to improve their level and efficiency of production. These guidelines are concerned with wheat, grain sorghum, beef cattle, cotton, sudan and sorghum hybrid grazing, stocker calf production and range management.
 The guidelines include the latest information from research and local result demonstrations. The information was pulled together from many sources with the assistance of our Extension Service Specialist of Texas A&M University. The local farmers and ranchers that are members of the sub-committees had an active part in developing each guideline. Everyone connected with farming and ranching should find at least one phase of each guideline that will benefit his farming or ranching interest.

630 million pounds. The quota quantity for 1965 was 848.7 million pounds.
 Imports can be expected to increase or decrease as the U.S. market becomes relatively more or less attractive than other foreign markets. High cow prices of the last year, plus anticipated strength for the next two years should stimulate imports of beef. Any increase, of course, depends upon whether sufficient supplies are available in the meat exporting countries for shipment abroad.
 This newsletter was obtained from information presented in "The United States Meat Import Law Functions," Foreign Agriculture, F.A.S., U.S. Department of Agriculture, December 12, 1966.

Program Building Committee

By Vivian Warminski
 James C. Murphrey, Area 1 Farm Management Specialist, was the main speaker at the Wheeler County Program Building Committee meeting, January 18. The purpose of this meeting was to present PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) to Wheeler County, evaluate the report and work with sub-committees to get action to involve all the people in Wheeler County to increase the level of income. James Purphrey explained that Wheeler County needs an active water committee, community improvement committee (involvement to keep 18-21 year old youth in Wheeler County); beef cattle special committee and a consumer economics committee.
 Purphrey also stated that Wheeler County needs to study resources in the smaller towns since inefficient stores means inefficient towns if consumers have to go out of county to buy goods.
 Two main sub-committees were formed: Grain Pellet Committee, Tom Britt, Chr.; and Community Improvement sub-committee, Frank Walker, Chr. Other committees are Raymond Moore, chr. Livestock; Clarence Zybach, Family Living, Mrs. Milton Finsterwald, chr. and Youth Development, Mrs. Grady Dodd, chairman.
 Wheeler Chamber of Commerce furnished coffee and rolls.
 Those attending this meeting were John Daberry, Raymond Moore, Louis Grayson, Elbert Zybach, Frank Walker, James Reneau, Clarence Zybach, Wendall Morgan, John Manning Bill Brooks, Arling Cordell, Charles Grega, Johnnie Burrell, Tom Britt, James Verden Jim Wright, Judge George Hefley, Mrs. Milton Finsterwald and the County Extension Agents, Vivian C. Warminski, H.D. Agent and Charles David Jackson, County Agri. Agent.

The main objectives of a home demonstration club are to develop an ability to use democratic processes; to develop as leaders' and individuals and most important to learn the latest techniques in home management, interior design, cooking, clothing design and many more.
 The home demonstration clubs today are designed differently than they were forty years ago. In other words they are social clubs that don't cost anything or much to be a member.
 Several homemakers have expressed a desire to form a club in Wheeler. If you are interested please fill out the questionnaire and return to the home demonstration office and attend the first home demonstration meeting, Monday, January 30 at 2: p.m. at the home demonstration agents office.

1. Would you be interested in participating in educational programs for homemakers that would help you and your family and also help you improve your home?
 2. If answer is yes, please list some information you would like to receive.....

 3. If you would like to participate in a home demonstration club, please give your name and address below:

LEWIS M. GOODRICH RETIRES FROM BENCH

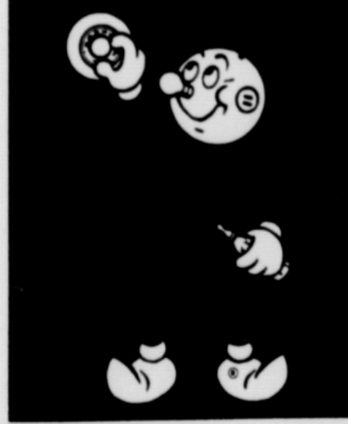

At the conclusion of a hectic court day Friday afternoon, December 30th, Judge Lewis M Goodrich, stood in the circle of friends in the jury room of the Gray County Courthouse in Pampa and said goodbye.
 The farewell party signaled the close of 20 years on the bench as 31st Judicial District Judge of Gray, Lipscomb, Roberts, Hemphill and Wheeler Counties.
 The party was given by close friends and legal associates. The hostesses were his clerks and court-reporter, Mrs. Helen Sprinkle of Pampa, Miss Adelia Craig of Miami, Mr. Tom Hill of Canadian, Mrs. Lena Glasscock of Lipscomb, Rena Sivage of Wheeler and Bob Baker of Pampa. At some time during the late afternoon every employee in the courthouse dropped by the jury room for a cup of coffee a few cookies and to exchange "good luck" wishes with the retiring judge.
 It isn't exactly retirement for Judge Goodrich, however, he will still be available in the capacity of auxiliary district judge for any vacancies occurring over the state of Texas.
 But there will be more time for his favorite hobby, if you can call mental gymnastics that--working work and number puzzles, some of which take two or three years to solve.
 And there will be more time to spend at home in Shamrock where he has been a resident since 1905. He and his wife, Lara live at 428 East Second Street.
 There also will be time for visits with his daughter and family, the B. K. Neels, in Menard. Here, Judge Goodrich can keep in touch with courtroom affairs, since his son-in-law is a county attorney and has been for more than 20 years.

 His two grandsons, Ben K., 19, is a sophomore at Baylor University and Gregory is a senior in high school.
 During the afternoon friends presented the judge with a gift certificate of substantial amount. Judge stated at a later date that he went shopping at one of the men's stores in Pampa and had lots of fun shopping with the gift certificate.
 At a previous party in the Pampa Country Club, hosted by the Gray County Bar Association, he was presented with an oil portrait of himself which will be hung in the 31st District Courtroom along with other distinguished judiciaries.
 Among the out-of town guests attending the December 30th party were district clerks, Rena Sivage of Wheeler, Aaelia Craig of Miami, and Guy Hardin, County Attorney of Shamrock.
 The Judge spent a busy day Saturday, December 31st clearing the docket for the incoming judge.
 In the esteem of his co-workers, Judge Goodrich took with him a gavel, which although seldom used, he said, had great sentimental value. It was handmade and presented to him by a juror on one of his cases--"Oh, maybe 15 or 30 years ago," the judge said.

MEAT IMPORT LAW:
 P.L. 88-482 enacted in August 1964 has now been in effect for about two years. It was designed to limit imports of beef and certain other meats in the U.S. if they exceed a certain quantity.
 The Secretary of Agriculture is required to estimate at the beginning of each calendar year what the total U.S. imports of certain meats will be during that year. This estimate is reviewed and revised quarterly during the year.
 A formula for establishing the level of import quotas is available in the law if the year are necessary. Quotas are to be imposed when the import level estimated by the Secretary for any calendar year equals or exceeds 110 percent of what the quotas would be.
 The President may suspend or increase the quota levels if he determines that such action is required by underlying economic or national interests of the U.S.
 Fresh, chilled or frozen meat if cattle, goats and sheep (except lambs) are covered by this law.
 About 87% of our imports of these meats have been fresh, chilled or frozen, while the balance was largely canned meat plus small amounts of sausage. During 1965, 92% of the chilled and frozen meat imported was beef and the remaining 8% was mutton, veal and goat meat.
 In the calendar year, 1966 the U.S. production of beef, veal and goat is estimated at 19,488 million pounds. The import quota is 890.1 million pounds. Last year, imports of these meats were actually 614 million pounds and the final USDA estimate was

Even the ash tray rides smoother in Chevrolets
 When you're down at your dealer's trying out a new Chevrolet, be sure you pull out the ash tray. Notice how nice and easy it glides, never hanging up or even scraping. The reason is, it rides on ball bearings. Four shiny little ball bearings. (Take the tray all the way out and you'll see them.) You say you don't even smoke? Then look at it this way. That ash tray is a symbol of the way we make cars: Paying extra attention to the little things as well as the big ones, as a way of making extra sure your '67 Chevrolet gives you juror, like each person in a New England town meeting, plays a direct and vital role in a basic process of government.

It is true that jury duty service can be demanding. Within the jury room, in most cases, the first ballot is not unanimous. As the debate goes on, passions may ignite, voices rise, even tears fall.
But in what worthier, more satisfying cause could that effort be spent? Here is pure public service, untaunted by financial reward or political ambition. Here are 12 fellow citizens, brought together in one brief encounter for but a single purpose: to do the work of justice.
There is another plus to jury duty, not always spelled out in the citizenship books. You become an "insider," with all sorts of fascinating information about the workings of the courts.
It is an experience you can talk about afterward, like an operation. And it doesn't hurt.

What magic in the jury box causes this transformation?
No doubt part of the magic is simply an easing of fears of the unknown. The procedure turns out to be not that complicated, the responsibility not that frightening, the law not that mysterious.
But, besides the negative magic of relief, there is a positive magic of participation. Each individual

THE FAMILY LAWYER
Magic in the Jury Box
To bring out the liar in man's nature, few situations can compare with a call to jury duty.
"I can't serve because my wife is sick and I have to take care of the children," said a man who had no wife and no children.
"Sorry, but I'm practically deaf," said a man who had no trouble at all hearing a quiet footstep behind him.
"I just can't afford the loss of pay," said a man whose company paid full wages to any employee serving on a jury.
Such reluctance to serve on juries is common. But it is common only among those who have never tried it. According to a recent survey, no less than 94% of those who

GAYLE GLADMAN- BOB RILEY VOWS EXCHANGED AT PLAINVIEW

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Miss Gayle Gladman and Bob Edward Riley of Tulia in ceremonies performed in the Chapel of the First Methodist Church of Plainview. The Rev. Dan Solomon of Amarillo officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gladman and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Riley of Wheeler are parents of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal wedding gown of candlelight peau desoe. The empire style gown was fashioned with portrait neckline and short sleeves. The chapel train was attached to front bodice with a fabric bow. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a peau de soie pillbox and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. Morris Steen of Canyon, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Mrs. Van Tarver of Amarillo was bridesmatron.

Best man was Sam Ellis of Canyon. Neil Rogers of Canyon was groomsman. Marshall Watson of Canyon and David Keith of Dimmitt served as ushers.

Reception guests were received in the parlors of the church following the ceremony.

The bride attended West Texas State University. Mr. Riley, a graduate of W.T.S.U. is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha.

The couple are at home in Tulia.

from a popular fiddler who played for dances in the early days. Or it could have been for the Keller Oil Lease upon which the settlement and school were located.

Another source said that Kellerville was named for P.M. Keller, who owned the land.

KELTON: Kelton was founded on a part of the Kell (Frank) Ranch. It was therefore named Kelton in his honor.

LELA: The first town at Lela was named Story for the man who owned the land. The town was flooded and a new location was selected, but instead of "New Story," Mr. Story suggested the name "Lela," after his wife.

LITTLE HACKBERRY CREEK: Perhaps it is called this because of little hackberry trees along its banks.

LONE STAR CENETERY: No explanation could be found for this name.

LONG DRY CREEK: It was probably called this because this creek was long and dry. It runs from near the town of Heald to the Elm Fork of the Red River.

MAGIC CITY: Magic City developed when oil was discovered in 1926. A large oil field sprung up in this location overnight, as if by magic; therefore the town was called "Magic City."

MURTAUGH CREEK: The origin is unknown.

NEW MOBEETIE: New Mobettie developed in 1929 and it was named for the old town of Mobettie.

NORRICK: The origin is unknown.

NORTH FORK OF THE RED RIVER: Obviously, this tributary received its name because it is the north fork of the Red River.

OAK DRAW: Possibly this name logically evolved because of the many oak trees in this area.

OLD MOBEETIE: A post office was applied for in the name of Sweetwater; but because there was already a town in Texas by the name of Sweetwater, another name had to be selected. A group of men got together and decided on the Indian name for Sweetwater, "Mobeetie."

OSBURN DRAW: Possibly this draw was named for an early settler who settled near it.

PAKAN: Pakan was named for Sam Pakan who, in 1902, came from Chicago to settle and farm the land.

PANHANDLE OIL FIELD: This field was probably named this because it is located in the panhandle of Texas.

REED CEMETERY: The origin of this name is unknown.

RUSSELL CREEK: Possibly this creek received its name for the man who originally owned the land.

SALT CREEK: This creek probably received its name because the water had a salty taste.

SAND CREEK: Possibly this creek has a sandy bottom and therefore acquired the name "Sand Creek."

SHAMROCK: Shamrock was named by the first postmaster, and Irish immigrant named George Nichols. He offered this name for good luck and courage.

SHAMROCK AIRFIELD: Shamrock Airfield was named for the town of Shamrock.

SILVER CREEK: No authoritative explanation was given for the name.

SWEETWATER CREEK: Sweetwater Creek was called this because the water was so pure and free of chemicals that it was described as "sweet."

TWITTY: It was named for Mr. Asa L. Twitty who was a prominent citizen and landowner and who established a school on this site.

WHEELER COUNTY: It was named for Royal T. Wheeler, who was the Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court in the 1850's.

WILLIAMS CREEK: The origin of this name is unknown.

ZYBACH: This town was named for John Zybach, who owned the general store when the post office was established.

Dr. Tarpley is interested in adding other Wheeler County geographical names and accounts of their origins to his study as well as variations of the name explanations given above.

Each of us have a little bit of time and often a great deal of talent. Let's be free with it and maybe next year we will have more resolutions that go like this, "I will share myself with others," and maybe then we will not have some of our best workers having to make resolutions of, "I will learn to say No."

Ft. Elliott Study Club Meets

Mrs. Carrie Willis was the leader of a program on "The Lost City of the Incas" when the Ft. Elliott Study Club met Tuesday January 17, in the home of Mrs. Edith Dunn.

Mrs. Willis described the ruins of this mysterious city and told how the explorer, Hiram Bingham became interested in searching for it and the difficulties and hardships he and his party endured during their long search.

Mrs. Margaret Trout, as program assistant, continued with some unusual facts concerning the city known as Machu Picchu. The architecture of the ruins shows a high degree of knowledge and was carved out of granite like stone. Other signs found indicate an early knowledge of a type of brain surgery.

The ruins were discovered in 1911 but very little of the background of the people who built and abandoned the city where they came from or what caused them to leave is known.

In a short business session, Mrs. Nita Jackson was elected first vice-president to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Euline Walsler, who resigned. Mrs. Pat Johnston announced that she had been requested to send in a list of persons in the community who were interested in any cultural activities or had collections of items of antique value.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Thelma Dunn and Mrs. Gazelle Patterson and Mrs. Elnita Atkins will lead a program on "Famous Women"

The hostess served refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Elnita Atkins, Nita Jackson, Thelma Dunn, Carrie Willis, Esther Lee Dyson, Gazelle Patterson, Pat Johnston, Billie Dunn, Esther Eberling, Margaret Trout and the hostess.

Clean Lies

For Watson, it was a painful duty.

"I'm the manager of the office where your sister works," he began. "For the benefit of all concerned, I wish you would convince her to resign."

"Why?" demanded the other man. "Has she done something wrong?"

"I'm afraid so," replied Watson. "She has been stealing from the cash box."

As it turned out, the girl had done no such thing. In short order, Watson found himself facing a lawsuit for defamation of character.

But the court held him not liable, ruling that his mistaken statement was "privileged" by the circumstances. The court pointed out that Watson had had good grounds for believing the girl guilty, and had spoken to her brother with decent purpose.

Defamation law, like the Ninth Commandment, forbids you to bear false witness against your neighbor. But it also forgives what might be called the clean lie—told in all fairness, on reasonable grounds, without malice.

Thus, in another case, a man was excused for wrongly blaming a schoolboy for indecent conduct during recess. His statement, made privately to the principal, was based on seemingly reliable information from his own daughter.

But, to be privileged, the statement must be made in the line of duty. It must be one which the speaker has a legitimate interest in making, and the hearer a legitimate interest in hearing.

A court found no such interest, under the following circumstances: A middle-aged woman heard a report, later proved false, that a certain prospective bridegroom was an ex-convict. Although she was not a relative of the bride, or even a close friend, the woman took it upon herself to pass along this tidbit.

Sued later for defamation, she was held liable for having been too quick to soil an innocent man's good name. The court saw no reason to wrap the mantle of privilege around something so close to plain and simple gossip.

Highlighting the 90th birthday event will be the promotion of 52 key values, one to be featured each week throughout the year at a very low price. Announcement of these special values will be made in this paper throughout the coming year.

Mr. Daughtry also explained that the local Ben Franklin store is participating in a 90th Anniversary nationwide sweepstakes being sponsored by all Ben Franklin stores. First prize will be a two-week, all-expense trip for two to anywhere in the world, plus eight second prizes of all-expense trips for two to anywhere in the Continental United States. Winners will be announced in early November of 1967.

"The merchandise division of our Ben Franklin headquarters has come up with some outstanding merchandise values to be offered each week during 1967," Mr. Daughtry announced. HISTORY OF WHEELER CO.

Commerce--The colorful history of Wheeler County is reflected in its place names. Many things influenced these place names. Most of the names can be traced back to early families in the area. Also, the geography of the land often determined the name.

Wheeler County is included in a survey of Texas geographical names being compiled by Dr. Fred Tarpley of the Department of English at East Texas State University. A study of Wheeler County names was undertaken as an English class project by Mrs. Anna Tinsley of Commerce.

Residents of the county who provided information for Mrs. Tinsley's study are Mr. Ray D. Brown of Allison, Mr. John Cullers of Shamrock, Mrs. Lou Dean Douthit of Briscoe, Mr. Arval Montgomery of Shamrock and Mrs. Sallie B. Harris of Wheeler. Mrs. Harold Hill of Wheeler was also very helpful in this study.

The following alphabetical list offers explanations for the naming of Wheeler County communities and streams.

ADOBE CREEK: Adobe Creek is located in the northwest corner of Wheeler County near Old Mobeetie. It received its name from the soil along its bank which is suitable for making adobe brick.

ALLISON: Allison was named for R.J. Allison, the former general manager of the Panhandle and Santa Fe railroad.

BELL CO: I was unable to find a reason behind this name, but perhaps it was named for Bell Telephone Co. or a company by the name of Bell.

BENONINE: Benonine is a small town in the southeast corner of the county. Two stories offer reasons for this name. One source said that soon after the settlement, there were a few men gambling one night. One of the cards from the deck had been lost-number nine. So, a card was made and used for that number. They gambled almost all night. One man kept winning so much that he was accused of winning because he had that marked card. He replied, "Well, it's been-a-nine all night." The name caught on and it holds today.

Another source said that the town was named for Benonine Oil and Gas Company. It was established when the Chicago, Rock Island and Gulf Railroad built through the area in 1902.

BRISCOE: Briscoe was named for J.B. Briscoe who was superintendent of the plains division of the Santa Fe railway company at Amarillo, Texas.

BRONCO: Bronco is the name of a school that was built near the creek of Bronco.

BRONCO CREEK: Bronco Creek was probably first called this because of the wild horses that roamed the area and came here to drink.

CASSINO CREEK: Cassion Creek was probably called this because a lot of gambling might have been done here by the cowboys. Thus, the creek was called "Cassino Creek."

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILWAY: This name came as the result of a merger of three companies. The Chicago, the Rock Island and the Pacific.

COBURN CREEK: This creek was probably named for the man who originally owned the land upon which it runs.

CICKLEBUR CREEK: Although no reason for this name could be found, it could be because "cuckle-burrs" grow in this area, and "Cocklebur" is a slight misspelling of the word.

COLE CREEK: Perhaps the creek was named for the pioneer family in the area.

COWBOY CREEK: This creek possible got its name for the great number of cowboys in this area.

DUBBS CREEK: This creek was probably named for the man who originally owned the land.

ELM FORK OF THE RED RIVER: This tributary of the Red River possible received its name because many elm trees grow along its banks.

FULLER: Fuller probably got its name from a popular man in the community.

FORT WORTH AND DENVER RAILWAY: This railway is the result of the merger of two companies. The Fort Worth and Denver Railways.

GAGEBY: A store and Post office was erected near the creek of Gageby. As a result the town was called Gageby.

GAGEBY CREEK: The origin of this creek is unknown.

GOODIN CREEK: The origin of this creek is unknown.

HOLT AIRFIELD: It was named for Mr. R.J. Holt who bought a private plane and later made a landing strip on which to land it.

HEALD: The natives of Wheeler County are uncertain as to the origin of this name.

HOSELY CREEK: The origin of this name could not be determined.

JENKINS-JONES CREEK: This creek may have received its name from the two men whose land it separated.

KELLERVILLE: Kellerville, according to one source, was believed to have originated from a popular fiddler who played for dances in the early days. Or it could have been for the Keller Oil Lease upon which the settlement and school were located.

Another source said that Kellerville was named for P.M. Keller, who owned the land.

KELTON: Kelton was founded on a part of the Kell (Frank) Ranch. It was therefore named Kelton in his honor.

LELA: The first town at Lela was named Story for the man who owned the land. The town was flooded and a new location was selected, but instead of "New Story," Mr. Story suggested the name "Lela," after his wife.

LITTLE HACKBERRY CREEK: Perhaps it is called this because of little hackberry trees along its banks.

LONE STAR CENETERY: No explanation could be found for this name.

LONG DRY CREEK: It was probably called this because this creek was long and dry. It runs from near the town of Heald to the Elm Fork of the Red River.

MAGIC CITY: Magic City developed when oil was discovered in 1926. A large oil field sprung up in this location overnight, as if by magic; therefore the town was called "Magic City."

MURTAUGH CREEK: The origin is unknown.

NEW MOBEETIE: New Mobettie developed in 1929 and it was named for the old town of Mobettie.

NORRICK: The origin is unknown.

NORTH FORK OF THE RED RIVER: Obviously, this tributary received its name because it is the north fork of the Red River.

OAK DRAW: Possibly this name logically evolved because of the many oak trees in this area.

OLD MOBEETIE: A post office was applied for in the name of Sweetwater; but because there was already a town in Texas by the name of Sweetwater, another name had to be selected. A group of men got together and decided on the Indian name for Sweetwater, "Mobeetie."
