CWE CHAT WITH EDITOR

By Louis C. Stas

Such beautiful weather; but rain would be nicer. The sun comes out and this creature of habit just can't wait to get out and turn over some soil. Got to have the garden ready to take advantage of any moisture we do get.

-cwe-

The seed catalogues are also arriving. I notice in one that castor beans will help in the control of gophers and moles. Don King, county agent, is trying to find out the details for me, but has had no luck yet. If anyone out there knows, please enlighten me. I would just as soon get the biggest share of the peanuts this year.

-cwe-

It is time once again for the Chamber to recognize the outstanding individuals for the past year. A form can be found in this edition for you to make your nominations. A lot of time the individual most deserving manages to remain in the background while doing his/her good deeds.

-cwe-

Stopped in for a visit with Mrs. Guthrie Monday morning at the hospital. I was informed that Icy had been up and wanted to see me. It seems she was upset about her name and morgue being used so close together last week.

-cwe-

Icy had a visitor—another individual who had reason to be upset with me. Mary Risner has been in business for about a month and a half and I had not been down to take her picture for a "Chamber welcome". As you will notice, that has been taken care of now.

-cwe-

While at Stitch and Chatter, I was reading the information about the antique sewing machine belonging to the Lee family. Mary has this all 'stitched up' and framed. She then told me this information was sewn by machine. Her computerized 'New ghome' machine—same brand as the antique—can be programmed to sew letters and words. You program in your wording and turn it on. Some more of the marvels of modern technology.

-cwe-

Doc Wilhelm commented on my error in the first paragraph of -cwe- last week. I referred to this being the last decade of the twenty-first century. One of these days maybe they will have a computer that types what I mean.

-cwe-

Monty Kinnard seems concerned that the first paragraph of the last two weeks chats has not rhymed. Maybe one of these days I will get poetic and surprise him.

-cwe-

The school is finishing up the first semester this week; the year is half over.

-cwe-

We decided to go visit the relatives in Oklahoma this past weekend. Jennifer, Liz and I continued on to Calumet and challenged Rodney to a game of Tripoley. Jennifer is fascinated that her and a second cousin can be so much alike.

-cwe-

The Gene Arnolds and their granddaughters, Cassandra and Amber, came to Hinton Sunday morning. Melba brought mother some information on the White and Wreather (Rather) branches of the family tree; this is our connection to newscaster Dan Rather. I am glad she can keep all these branches straightened out.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO NOMINATE OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUALS TO BE NAMED

The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce is once again taking nominations for the five outstanding individuals, who will be recognized at the annual Chamber of Commerce Installation banquet.

It is the desire of the Chamber to recognize the most deserving individuals in each of these categories. Please make your ideas known and also list the reasons why the individual should receive the honor.

Your nominations will be considered by the committee appointed to select the respective individuals to be named.

It is necessary that the nominations be returned by Tuesday, February 6. This will give the committees time to consider the nominations and gather additional information, if needed.

To: Wheeler Chamber of Commerce
P.O. Box 221
Wheeler, Texas 79096

I would like to nominate the following for the outstanding individual in their respective category:

1. Woman _____
2. Man _____
3. Employee _____
4. Teenager _____
5. Farmer/Rancher _____

Signed: _____

NEW BUSINESS: Mary Risner is the owner and manager of Stitch and Chatter, located at 105 West Texas Street in Wheeler. The business offers selection of craft items and sewing notions. Mary will also do sewing for the public, either alter or make the complete garment. It is hoped in the near future to offer sewing classes. Mary invites you to come in for a visit.

Bob McCain, Chamber of Commerce president, extends a welcome to the new business, opened the latter part of November.

Chamber of Commerce Regular Meeting

The Wheeler Chamber of Commerce met Thursday, January 4. Election of directors and the upcoming annual banquet were the topics of discussion.

A date, the last of February or the first of March will be selected. The school calendar will be consulted for the choosing of the date.

A committee will be appointed for the nomination of directors and the officers will be elected from the board.

The new directors and officers will be installed at the banquet.

Once again it is time to nominate the man, woman, employee, teenager and farmer and/or rancher. A committee will be appointed for the final selection of the individuals to be honored. Nomination should be accompanied by a brief statement as to the reason the individual deserves the recognition. The number of votes and/or nominations does not determine the recipient.

The Chamber has received a number of membership dues, but several remain to be collected. Chamber members were notified by mail the first of December of the amount due and are asked to send in their dues.

It was suggested that the Chamber have "Gift Certificates" printed. These certificates could be used individually or combined and spent with any Chamber member. An example would be graduation; several smaller gift certificates could be combined by the graduate for the purchase of a larger item from one of the local members. No action was taken on this proposal to give the membership a chance to discuss the topic.

These and other topics will be discussed at the next meeting of the Chamber on Tuesday, January 16, at noon at Maxey's. Lunch is "Dutch".

We nearly had a calamity on New Year's Day. Just as we got up from the dinner table, I realized I'd forgotten the black eyed peas! Joe was quite ready to forget them for good but I was afraid to risk it. Put a half cup in the chili for supper. Should be just as good.

supper at the Elk Creek Primitive Baptist Church. Saw a lot of friends, among them Bobby and Jackie Jones of Elk. Some many years ago my brother and I sat with them and watched the Jimmy Carter program on the TV while Joe and Bobby's parents Guy and Rosa Jones attended the program in person. It was my birthday and Joe won the ticket to get in. Still frets me. Nearest we ever came to meeting the president.

New Year's was such a lovely day that we went to Texas to see about cousin Johnny Reed. He was doing very well after surgery at Houston. His sister Ona Black is in the Wheeler hospital. She fell some time ago and broke her hip. Hadn't been home at Allison very long when she fell again and broke her other hip. Her daughter Doralee has been here from Muskogee.

Several managed to have birthdays on New Years. Some I knew were Flossie Maddoux, Joe Mong, Dorothy Best, Richard McEntire, and Roger Miller.

Misty Keathley and Lisa Tucker have been selected for the 1990 Who's Who in High School. Jo Marie Hagerman will be in the College Who's Who in America. She goes to SWOSU and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Butch Hagerman. Misty is the daughter of James and Sue Keathley, Lisa's parents are Tommy and Nelda Tucker.

Visiting the Mike Kahoa's during the holidays were their children Becky, Steve and Crystal Settlemoir, of St. Louis, Dennis Gragert of Springfield, and his fiancée Shannon Jackson of Stors, Conn. Others dropping in were Junior and Mary Ann Kahoa of Collinsville, Gary and Virginia Roller, James and Natalie, Clinton, Con and Virgie Kahoa.

Charles and Naomi Hagerman.

On New Year's Day they had a Christmas with the Hagermans. Also they had an early birthday dinner for Dennis whose birthday is the 9th. That reminds me. We are having a 52nd anniversary on the 8th. Joe better get to practicing the Eighth Day of January. Not many folks have a song written for them.

Guests of Ray and Doris Smith were Bob and Martha Berry of Longdale.

Ain't It The Truth

By Ab Gunter

As I wuz tellin Mama we would get to see this and that and go here and there and so forth but since I hadn't been in Houston in many years I didn't figer it was one of the largest cities in the US of A so we missed a bunch of them things that we thought we wanted to see. What we did get to see was what I hoped we would and that was our nephew and his wife that I have spent so very little time with and we got to visit and break bread with a cousin of ours and his family and that bread breakin was the clincher, boy we had some of the best eatin you could imagine and then dessert that Jackie Jolly had made, that gal loves to cook and all of us loved her cookin, even with the bunch of kids she and Mac have all of us got too durm much to eat.

Bill and Billie and Mama and I went over to the Jollys (the cousins) home and all the Jolly kids were there with their little ones and we enjoyed a very pleasant visit. One nite we got to visit with Bill and Billies family and watch Bill make over the grandkids and we had more than a Christmas being down there, in the couple of days we tried to make up for the many years that we didn't even keep up with the other. Bill and I stayed up late visitin bout folks that we knew and places we had been and Mama and Billie got to get acquainted with each other. I know there are many things we missed and many that we would have enjoyed talking more about but there is just so much time and it just flies by.

I felt so sorry for Bill and Billie they are going to have to go out to Las Vegas, San Francisco, Dallas and Orlando to what they call the Market and show their hats and hobknob with movie stars and all kinds of celebrities and put up with all that good eatin and entertainment just so folks can see them hats and take orders for future deliveries. I am glad they are gettin to take off from work as they deserve it and honestly I bet they will be glad to get back home and sort of rest when its over.

We were glad to get back home and sort of let down cause as my Mother used to say, "There's no place like home".

Enjoyed the visit with all of you and see you next week.

Love,
Ab and Mama

I'm just mighty glad to be home after all those days at the hospital. Of course if I hadn't had such careful and continuous care I probably wouldn't have made it at this time. But two days at home has helped me a great deal, I'm spoiled to my rocking chair. So after browsing about awhile I rest in my chair again. The days aren't nearly so long.

Today I've been scanning a dozen or so old Capper's magazine. This is not a glossy, colored, bold advertising publication, but there's a lot of information in it. Wish my poor brain could retain more of what I have read.

One thing, though, that I read today, said that January 23 is National Handwriting Day. It was proclaimed by John Hancock to encourage more legible handwriting. I think we should encourage the observance of that day. It is amazing how much of our handwriting, especially among the younger generation, is not easily read. Who wants to join me on Jan. 23 to improve our script?

A few weeks ago I mentioned that President Bush is asking us to plant trees to "green up" the earth and "clean up" the air. I think it is about time for tree planting. So let's get the shovel ready and select a tree. However, I read in Capper's today that late August and September is the time to plant evergreens. Keep that in mind for a few months.

Several years ago I belonged to a garden club here in Wheeler. I remember that on one of our programs, one of our staunch and beloved members, Mrs. H.M. Wiley, said: "It doesn't take a great deal to be a good gardener. Mostly a stout back and a weak mind will do it." Well, why can't we have some good gardens around here? Another thing that I remember from that Garden Club is that we adopted the redbud tree, the crepe myrtle shrubs, and the zinnia as the flower for this area. There are a lot of beautiful redbuds and crepe myrtles in this town. The trouble is so many people have moved to our town in the last 40 years who do not know that these plants were adopted for our area. Is there anyway to publicize the idea? Would some of our organizations like to take up the project?

'Way To Go' Booklet Given 6th Graders

The students in the schools listed below will receive a gift-book titled The Way To Go.

Presented to them by civic-minded leaders in this community, The Way To Go, is the centerpiece of the Youth Development Program. Many communities throughout the nation are participating in this Program.

The Way To Go, handsomely bound and illustrated in full-color is a collection of eight short stories. Written to appeal to young people in today's world, the stories reinforce traditional moral values. For instance, one of the stories emphasizes the importance of being a responsible person; another shows how highly honesty should be valued; another focuses on the danger of drugs and alcohol.

The Program is described as being a response to a growing concern felt by parents and others throughout the nation. Too often, it is maintained, young people are the innocent victims of harmful influences that undermine the sound values parents are trying to teach their children in the home. National statistics on drug and alcohol related accidents involving teenagers, on missing children, teenage pregnancies, teenage suicides, are cause for alarm. The great majority of parents do not have these problems. Nonetheless, they worry about them: peer pressure is a strong influence on young people.

The response of the local sponsors of this Program, when asked why they are participating in it, can be summed up as follows: "This community means a lot to me. Our young people are our most precious resource. They are our future. This Program is good for our young people, their parents, and our community."

The schools involved are: Wheeler E/S, Grade; Sixth.

The sponsors are: Thriftway Supermarket, Ben Franklin Variety and KPDR-FM.

PATIENT'S POEM EXPRESSES RECOVERY FROM ALCOHOLISM

Under going treatment in the Alcohol Treatment Center at Community hospital for the past month has been a young woman who is due to be discharged this weekend, according to Joe Wilmeth, director of the Center.

Wilmeth says the woman who is in her 30's, divorced and mother of two, has reached a time in her treatment when she can live a normal productive life. The patient has written the following poem of peace and hope for the future:

Each individual here has touched my heart

In a different way.

I've learned to listen to others without judging

Even a new way to pray.

Old wounds have been opened Then sealed back with a tender hug Childhood fears and bad memories Have been swept underneath the rug. New seeds of ambitions and goals Have been planted in my head.

A new found peace awaits me Every night when I go to bed. I've heard true life stories.

Some happy, some filled with gloom But never before have I felt so much love

In such a tiny room 'Cause it really doesn't matter

What you've done, or where you've been

The only concern, within these walls Is for us losers to learn how to win. So each evening from eight till nine And the afternoons from four till five These two precious hours, can help keep us all alive

Through sharing problems with each other

And grabbing hold of an outreached hand

We can rid the nasty poison.

That we all understand. Now today as I walk out those front doors

I can look back with a smile Thanks to a wing and my Higher Power

I can walk a straight and sober mile So instead of saying goodbye That's just not me.

I'm gonna say adios, arrivederci and a big selavil!

Wilmeth notes that the poem expresses the fact that people can recover from the disease of alcoholism and turn their lives around.

Woman Discovers Shopping Mall in Her Front Yard

Finds hundreds of businesses on doorstep

Local resident Gladys Whirlee revealed on Monday that the city's largest shopping mall is right at her front door. "Every business in town, every bargain in town is right here," she proudly proclaimed while holding a copy of the local newspaper.

"I don't have to get in the car to go shopping anymore!" Mrs. Whirlee remarked. "I read the newspaper, so I don't waste gas and my time driving all over town looking for the best bargains or finding what I need." She said all her neighbors did the same, and considered the newspaper the best shopping mall in town. The Newspaper Advertising Bureau indicates most people agree with Mrs. Whirlee, confirming 8 out of 10 shoppers find it easier to compare prices in the newspaper.

Mrs. Whirlee was later heard to comment "Without the paper, I wouldn't know where to get the best buy. I can't imagine shopping anywhere else." A recent Consumer Data Service report disclosed that the Whirlee woman was typical, with 10 times more people choosing the newspaper over radio or television for "Best Buy" shopping information. The report also revealed that almost 60% of shoppers decide where to shop from the newspaper, and 82% say newspapers allow them the best comparison of goods and prices.

"It's the smart thing to do," Whirlee said. "Why even my boss shops the paper. And he's wealthy." Mrs.

Woman confesses she would rather shop close to home with newspaper

"I found I could save time, and even more money, by making my shopping decisions at home with my newspaper."

Whirlee is employed by Clyde Perkins, a noted local philanthropist and businessman. When confronted with the fact that newspaper readership increases as income increases, Mrs. Whirlee replied, "About all Perkins does is read the paper. That must be why the rich get richer." Perkins was unavailable for comment.

"TEXAS" A Musical Drama - 25th Anniversary

"TEXAS" rings in the new year with shining plans for the 25th silver anniversary season of the famous musical drama set beneath the towering cliffs of Palo Duro Canyon State Park near Amarillo and Canyon.

In honor of the occasion Director Neil Hess with the help of Disney consultants has added new surprises whose mysteries are not yet unveiled.

Instead of just one opening night, four nights of celebration will kick off the 1990 season from June 13 through June 16. "TEXAS" will continue June 18 and play nightly except Sundays through August 25, 1990.

Special events and receptions will include the dedication of a new silver anniversary patio honoring all donors who are helping with the half million dollar restoration of the theatre area.

Slashed into the season is a medley of festivities including a cast reunion, fourth of July extravaganza, a time capsule burial and a tribute to media.

A chow-cow triangle traditionally given to the visitor from the farthest distance will appear silver this year, and every 250th, every 2,500th guest will discover an assortment of prizes to take home. The triangle has not been awarded to anyone in the continental United States since the show's beginning in 1966.

Over two million people have seen "TEXAS". They came from every state and over 100 different foreign countries each summer. Half have seen the production but return to catch the unusual musical drama whose star remains the 600 foot cliff backdrop that is scaled, ridden, spotlighted and struck by lightning.
