Jewel Holloman Celebrates Birthday

On Saturday, March 7, 1992, Jewel Vise Holloman celebrated her 90th birthday (which actually occurred two days earlier) in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church, Wheeler. This occasion brought together some 53 nieces and nephews and other relatives. Friends brought the number to 72 people who sat down to dinner. Everyone of Mrs. Holloman's 9 brothers and sisters was represented by one or more of their children.

The excellent brisket came from Sparlins and nearby relatives and friends provided delicious salads, vegetables and other needed items.

At 2:00 the Hall was opened to Jewel's friends and acquaintances from the Wheeler area. 46 of the dinner guests returned to make a total of 75 for this second half of the celebration.

Evelyn Meek, a niece from Gageby, provided the delicious punch and the birthday table and guest book table settings. Elva Wood prepared the lovely cakes. Jean Pollack and Evelyn Meek organized the two events and are deeply grateful for the many who assisted in endless ways.

In addition to Jewel's daughter, Jean, and her husband, Stan Pollack, of near Baltimore, Maryland, her grandchildren, Bry Pollack, and her husband, Ray Weiss, of Falls Church, Virginia, and Reece Pollack of Gaithersburg, Maryland, were in attendance.

An album of the 80 birthday cards has been prepared by her son-in-law and has already provided hours of enjoyment. Several video tapes and still cameras recorded the two very special gatherings.

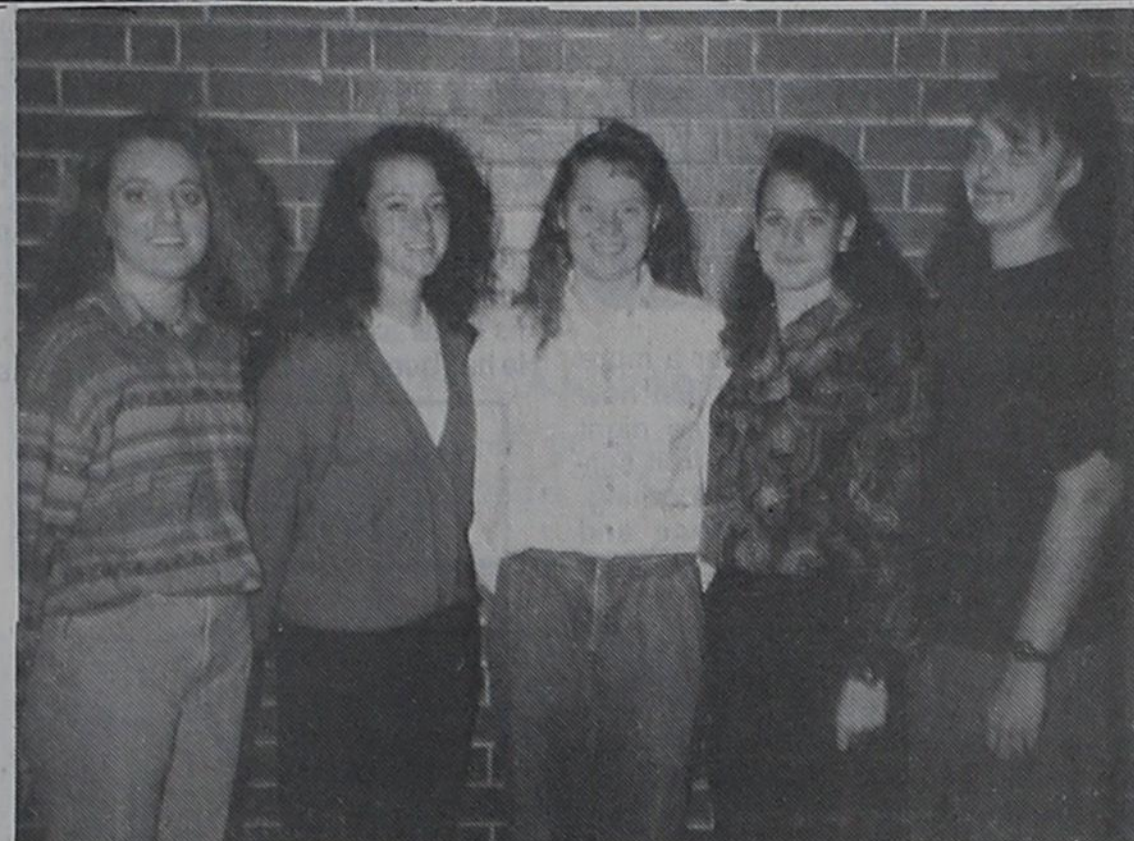

Mustang Boosters Meeting

There will be a Mustang Boosters meeting Monday, March 23rd in the school cafeteria at 7:00 to discuss and make plans for the two track meets in April. Anyone who would like to help is encouraged to attend.

American Cancer Crusade Set For Thurs., April 2

The American Cancer Society has announced the formation of the Community Crusade. On April 2 volunteers will be calling upon Wheeler County residents to tell them about the Society and what it does and to raise funds. The donations will support the American Cancer Society's programs of research, education and service to cancer patients and their families.

During the 1990-91 year, north Wheeler County received the following dollar value of services:

Patient Services	$3,661.
Public Education	$12,646.
Professional Education	$50.
Total	$16,357.

In the same time, North Wheeler County raised a total of $2,914 for the American Cancer Society through the Crusade or Memorials. Therefore, for every dollar raised was returned to the county as $5.61 in services. Many residents have received letters from Cancer Fund of America asking for your help in a crusade. This is NOT to be confused with the American Cancer Society, which is the only organization in our area that has provided the residents of our communities with education and services. If you want to help in the community crusade, contact Maurita Stribling or Sharon Wright.

The Sword of Hope is the symbol of the American Cancer Society. We are the nationwide community-based volunteer health organization dedicated to eliminating cancer as a major health problem. For more information about the American Cancer Society and its programs contact Maurita at 826-3573 or call the Society's toll free number at 1/800-ACS-2345. Shamrock's 46th St. Patrick's Celebration

"Celebrating 46 Years of Irish Galas" is the fitting theme selected by the Irish Micks and Lassies to celebrate the 46th St. Patrick's Day Celebration in Shamrock, Texas.

With most of the donegals beginning to take shape and the ever present lovely colleens, the stage has been set for the best Irish Celebration yet.

A special feeling of pride and community closeness has prevailed this year as the people make final preparations for a festival that will draw thousands of people from throughout the county on March 20-22.

Shamrock was named by early-day postmaster George Nickel who was homesick for his native Ireland.

The Celebration began when the late Glen Truax, a Shamrock High School Bandmaster, made the suggestion that a town with such a fine Irish name should capitalize on it with an annual St. Patrick's Day Celebration. Truax wanted the celebration to be so grand that it would draw thousands of people back each year, and so it has.

Forty-five celebrations have been held in Shamrock since the beginning with interruptions for World War II and the Korean Conflict and each festival providing more fun than the last.

This year will be no exception! In preparation for the big celebration the Irish are rolling out the green carpet as the whole town turns green. City officials have donned their green undergarments. The Shamrock Texas will print its annual green edition, and as usual Bill Howe, the past publisher of the local paper, has started taking his pills that turn his beard green for the week-end.

The top Irishman for the 1992 Celebration is Sonny Hilburn who will be elected by Assistant General Chairman Kenneth Campbell.

This year there will be more events than ever. The people of Shamrock are working to assure that they keep the bragging rights for the biggest Irish Community Celebration this side of the Emerald Isle itself.

Festivities will begin Friday, March 20, with the pre-St. Patrick's Celebration banquet, featuring Tom DeFrank at the National Guard Armory.

There will also be a Carnival that will last all weekend and a Chili Cook-off welcome party beginning Friday.

The Irish will be out in full force Saturday as the celebration begins early and ends late. The Dignitaries' Invitational Breakfast hosted by El Paso Natural Gas will be first on the agenda followed by TRA Team Roping and the Old Settlers Reunion at City Hall Annex.

During the day visitors will witness and enjoy the Donegal Beard Judging, Parade, Golf Scramble, Sheep Dog Trials, Bull Buck Out, Chili Cook-Off, Miss Irish Rose Pageant, Teen

Recon everybody has been six years old some time or another. Many of them never admit it though. I wuz six years old fer durn near a year and helped around the Hotel that my Mother owned. I watched Miss Oma get the food ready and watched as she placed the napkins at each place settin and recon I wuz trying to learn the business uv runnin a Hotel. Well one day I wuz makin my usual rounds of the town square and as I passed Miss Dempsey's Racket Store (learned it wuz a Variety Store) and as I glanced in the window I noticed a sign that said Sanitary Napkins one cent ea. I walked a few steps past the window and turned back in the store and Miss Dempsey wuz waitin on a young lady customer an I interrupted and told Miss D I wanted one of them sanitary napkins. She got it, put in the sack an I paid her the penny and as I left I said if they are what Mama wants I will be back and get a dozen uv them. As I left the store I got the napkin out uv the sack and quickly found it wasn't what I figerd it wuz, I was expectin to find a linen table napkin for the hotel an after that I never did quite trust Miss Dempsey's advertisin. If you think Im kiddin ast that Retired District Judge in Wheeler if it aint true. He wuz standing in front uv his father's grocery when I unrapped the durn thing.

A friend, I have known all of his live, called and we got to takin about things that happened many years ago an this friend mentioned a book that he had read about a Bank robbery that happened in Pampa, an oil town in the Panhandle. As the friend talked I sort of chuckled and he ast me why I chuckled. I told him that one of the bank robbers was wounded and did some of his time in the hospital there in Pampa. The friend wondered why I knew of all this and I told him: John Topper, a deputy and I were talking and John said he had just brought in a vagerant from the railroad depot. The vagerant had been knocked in the head and apparently thrown from the East bound during the past night and the feller wuz skinned up an needed a bit of attention. We decided I should take him to the County Jail 16 mi north of us. As I was taking the elderly feller to jail he mentioned his name wuz Pendleton and was a retired bank robber. As this little gent talked he mentioned Mrs. Clay his nurse. I told him I knew her and she was a grandma now. I got the feller to jail, the Doc patched him up and some days later found I happened to think a friend uv mine mite have some duds that would fit this retired robber. I went to a friend an as he wuz gatherin duds for this gent Mr. Crump ast who the vagerant wuz. I told him and he says lawsy yes I knew of him. He was a bank robber an all banks around dreaded the thought uv them. Mr Crump (a retired

Spring weather, spring winds, spring weeds. Altogether it means spring work. Enjoy the weather, ignore the winds, spray the weeds and before you know it—it's next week. Time flies!

But didn't you enjoy the jasmine, the forsythia and the japonica? That is until our frost night withered the blossoms. But the tulips are doing quite nicely now. We will enjoy them until the frigid weather comes in this weekend.

I've had a good time today as Melinda and Tim left this morning about 4:00, I thought I'd have a long day, but Patricia Forrester came by at 8:30. A little later Steve came. Then Steve and Pattie (grandchildren) took me out to lunch. When they left, I sat down to read—and went to sleep in the rocking chair. Then I did something which is unusual for me. I cooked supper! Steve and Pattie and Kelley McNeil ate with me. Pattie washed the dishes and now everyone is gone. I'll just read and write until I want to go to bed.

As I said, Tim and Melinda left early this morning to take Joe Guthrie (my grandson) to Dallas to take a 12:00 noon plane to wend his way to Germany, for a three year stint under the direction of the U.S. Army. Joe was with us and other relatives about ten days. Last Friday he went to Fairview, Okla., and brought his mother, Lydia Guthrie, here so we would all visit together for a few days. Lydia returned home on Sunday, taking Joe's car to keep until he is ready for it again.

Melinda and Tim Whorton will spend Monday night in Dallas, with Tim's sister and family and return home on Tuesday.

Steve and Pattie Guthrie and Steve's brother, Joe, visited with their aunt in Berger Saturday and Sunday.

I enjoyed a drive to Shamrock a few days ago. Lavelle Stephens had some business there and she asked me to go along. Had a nice time.

John Rankins of Pampa visited his sister, Florence George on Monday. He took her out to lunch.

Novella Vanpool and her son, Bobby, attended the funeral of her sister-in-law, Varnell Vanpool String in Chickasha, Ok., last week. Mrs. String lived in this community a long time ago.

Banker) gave me a suit and all the fittings an I think five bucks to give the gent. Mrs. Clay, the nurse gave me ten bucks and me and the sheriff contributed a bit. When I let the ex vagerant out of jail he looked at me an said if he didnt look a bit like a banker with a bit of gettuss in his pocket. The little feller wuz in his late 60s and I bet he had retired from both robbin and riding frieghts.

Who wuz this friend that called? Well it wuz Sonny Ried, a boy I know. One Halloween he an a bunch of the boys wuz going to do some meanness down at the cotton gin and I told the boys to head fer home as Sonny sort of chuckled an said What you goin to do about it Ole man an some how this Ole Man sort uv handcuffed the youngun to a big shade tree there on the courthousesquare. His father came up a while later and ask what kind of criminal I had caught.

This sonny has two grown boys and fine family an Sonny still wonders how I got him handcuffed to the tree. Shucks if I knew I would tell him, must have been The Good Lord helped. Ab an Mama

SWEETWATER NEWS

By Mrs. Joe Flowers

Friday the 13th, and never a more beautiful day. Can't tell yet just how much damage the 18 degree night did. Have hopes that some fruit survived. At least the tulips are blooming.

Everyone around Cheyenne and Roger Mills Co. are getting excited about the big Cheyenne-Arapaho Celebration coming up April 18. Happens every five years. We have a lot of things for the folks to look at. New Courthouse, Veterans' Monument, Old Time Roll school in the Park, Black Kettle monument, Lakes, Antelope Hills where Coronado camped.

My folks didn't make any run but my mother was born in the Love community near Marlowe in 1891. Indian Territory. They were in Western Oklahoma by 1896. My grandad Haag came down from Kansas and bought a section of land in 1906. We now own the quarter that my dad had and where my brother and I were born.

We made it up to Demsey for the Super Tuesday. Almost didn't make it. Joe lost his billfold but we finally found it under the bed snuggled against Imalda's shoes. Elma Henson, Louise Perry and Wilma Fowler were in charge, showing everyone how to mark the new ballots and feed the results into the machine.

E. L. Fowler told me he got a bread maker for Christmas and has been spending his spare time making bread to give friends. E. L. and Basil Doss attended a Ham Festival at Elk recently. They enjoyed seeing a lot of friends they talk to on short wave.

The Fowlers are very proud of their grandchildren. Jamie Heinsohn has been named high school valedictorian this year and Hope McCord scored exceptionally well on the ACT test. Amber Molsenbocker is salutatorian.

The Erick Kitchen Band, the Fabulous Strings and Things went on to entertain at Grand Place. Had a large turnout and the help and residents were soon dancing along with the Rockettes. Lynnette had baked all morning and we all enjoyed the delicious doughnuts, twists, and pop. Band members were Basil and Billy Doss, Donna Mercer, Raymond Snider, Margaret Hiller, Mabel Holland, Richard Crawford, Roy Swagger, Hazel Francis, Rose Abila, Bessie Perkins, Lloyd Addis, Leonard Taylor, Murray Orgain, we three and Old Five String.

We went by the hospital to see Clella Myers but she had been taken on to OKC, Baptist Medical Center, Room 984 bed 2. Faye Lewis is back at Sayre hospital. Visited with Angie Hartman, Mary Katy Burch and Faye Vernon were with her.

We visited with Flossie McAdoo, Antone Rashid, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Estes, Lucille Hardy and her grandson Jim from Houston, Alva's Boy. Alva is with NASA. Myrtis Phenix, Mary Bollen, and Bob Hardin. Bob hasn't planted me any watermelons yet.

Margaret Hiller spent the weekend at Amarillo with her son Roy and family. Iona Miller had company from Sallisaw stop by on the way to a funeral at White Deer.

After the Nixon and Watergate scandal, most folks thought the GOP was out of it, forever. But along came a handsome movie star with charisma and they were in again. After 12 years of trickle down economics and broken promises, we are in a recession, the president says. But the millions who are jobless might call it the D word.

The national debt has gone from $900 billion in 1980 to over $3,000 billion making us one of the greatest debtor nations in the world. Not only the nation is in debt, the people also are heavily in debt. I lived during the Great Depression And I well remember that the people who did not owe money fared very well. It was those who owed their souls to the company store and the bank who had a hard time.

Most people are willing to buy American, but how do you do it? There's an awful lot of stuff that America doesn't make any more. A good part of the fruit and vegetables in the store come from Mexico and South America.

Norma Zellmer and Ollie Anderson are home from Amarillo where Norma spent several days in the hospital.

To the Editor
The Wheeler Times

As I Remember Mr. "D."

Back in the late sixties and early seventies there was a T.V. show called "Hazel". Shirley Booth was the maid with same name of show. Don DeFore was her boss, Mr. Baxter, she called him Mr. "B". My co-worker and friend, the late Mrs. Edna Wright called our boss, Mr. T. J. Daughtry, Mr. "D", when we worked at Ben Franklin. He became Mr. "D" to Ina Mae Anglin and me. One weekend I decided to Mop and wax the floor. This was no small floor, it covered 25 ft. across and 140 ft. in length. It took me three hours, three string mops, three sponge mops for waxing to finish job. I called Mr. "D" and asked him to bring a buffer to work on Monday. He could not believe I had the floor clean and ready to buff. He showed me frayed wiring on buffer, gave me a long extension cord, and left the store with Lewis Lancaster to have coffee at Lillian Lee's. I had worked some six ft. to back door, when sparks started flying from frayed wiring to extension cord, than all lights went out. Edna called out, "Dean, what happened?" I said "Not to worry, I'll fix it shortly" I went to Mr. "D"'s work area and got a big screw driver and started prying two cords apart. That didn't work, it chewed and burned end off screw driver, and knocked me down. In the next second, I saw Mr. "D" and Edna standing over me. In my silly state, I had confused them to be two tall snow capped mountains. I heard myself saying "I'm sorry about the screw driver", and they very gently helped me up. Then he began a sober lecture with "Dean, don't you know you can be killed and be just as dead, from a 110 volt as well as a 220 or 17000 volts from lightening? Have you every been struck by lightening?" I said, "No sir". He laughed and said "Well you have now" He insisted I go to hospital, but I told him I was fine. Later that morning a tall, dark, good looking man came in wearing a bright plaid navy dress shirt with shocking royal blue pants. Edna and I exchanged glances and she stepped aside as I approached him with "May I help you sir?" He said, "I look." So I returned to Edna, "Who's he?" we both asked. He went from front aisles to back looking. He smiled and as he was leaving the store we both asked him to come back. He did, that afternoon with a bright purple polka dot shirt on, with mustard yellow pants. He was foreign to Edna and me, but with his wild color scheme, we both agreed on him it looked good! I determined to look with him, as I followed him down each aisle he explained the item he wanted was for press 'ponts'. I showed him a steam iron, he smiled and shook his head no. I showed him an ironing board, and he laughed and said no. Then saw some wooden pants hangers. He laughed and said: "These are for press pants." He bought five, and came back by closing time and bought five Mr. Mr. "D" was pleased that I had sold the pants hangers that had been in the store forever. I told them as we were closing that he was the new doctor in town, and his last name was "Mennendeaiola."
Mr. "D" and I shared our faith in God, our love of merchandising and same rare blood type, R.H. Negative (c,d,e) How ironic, the day of 12-24-91; I had a get well card to send him, reminding him if he needed a blood transfusion, the Cherokee was ready. I did not know at the time he had suffered a stroke, and that surgery would not be an option.
Wheeler has lost its most loyal supporter.
The Church of Christ has lost one of its own to heaven.
Ken has lost his loving daddy.
Opal has lost her beloved, near-perfect husband.
I have lost a friend!

APPLY
HERBICIDES
EARLY

If you have winter weeds, such as mustard and Henbit, Herbicides should be applied as early as possible. Herbicides & Fertilizer can be applied in one application. Fertilizer should be in place early to get all advantage to young wheat. Herbicides such as Glean and Ally should be in place so that rainfall will activate chemical. DuPont Co. recommends you mix small amounts of 2-4D or Banvel with Glean to help kill resistant weeds.
