10¢ EACH

Enjoying Eastland Saturday were Donna, 8 and Kay, 10, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jernigan of Rt. 1, Desdemona. The girls attend school in DeLeon.

WHAT A DAY! New Car Show; Sidewalk Sale; and Auction Spectacular.

Many folks visited Eastland Saturday and it was another fine event. Many thanks to many who helped make it all so great: Chamber President Bruce Pipkin, VP Emmett Lasater, Special Events Chairman Wade Freeman, Manager James Wright, and all the folks who worked so hard to make good things happen in Eastland.

THE TELEGRAM redeemed 153 $20 Auction Bucks in its coupon clipping promotion of the big event.

SUPER, SUPER was the 1974 Eastland County Senior Citizens Bazaar this weekend. What a treat it is to see such beautiful handwork and creativeness offered by our county's elders. County Home Demonstration Agent Janet Thomas and her staff are to be complimented for their part in staging this important event. Mrs. Herweck of Ranger, one of the main stays of the Senior Program, has asked us to announce that the following firms and individuals contributed door prizes for the Bazaar: Russell Neal of Cisco; Davis Upholstery of Cisco; Nix Gray of Cisco; Ranger Rexall Drug of Ranger and Brown Pharmacy of Ranger.

EASTLAND IS getting around. Former resident Dick Dixon now of Denison called this week to find out details of the Eastland's former Old Rip Scrip program as that town is planning such a promotion. The Hamlin Chamber of Commerce called the Eastland Chamber Manager James Wright to find out the details of Eastland's new popular Auction Buck program. Eastland's doing a lot of things right.

VOTER REGISTRATION in Eastland County is up -- and topping the 11,000 mark. According to the County Tax Assessor - Collector's office, here's the breakdown: Eastland, 2,709; Olden, 267; Ranger, 2,127; Desdemona, 254; Gorman, 1,036; Carbon, 285; Rising Star, 1,331; Cisco, 2,951; and Lake Leon, 81; total 11,057.

Biting The Bullet--Locally

President Ford is asking many economies of the American people in the all-out effort to WIN over inflation. We're all asked to be conservative; to save fuel, food, money, energy and a long list of things that will strengthen our economy and our nation.

And certainly it's every American's duty to comply to the best of his ability--even up to and maybe including, surveying our garbage, as the President asks, to see if we can't stop wasting so much.

There's another shortage in Eastland that demands our attention.

It's a shortage of space. Parking space to be specific. Our town is growing, and as it expands as an important trade center, day by day, we're seeing fewer places to park, particularly "around the square" where the central business district is.

It's discouraging to all when potential customers drive "round and round" looking for a parking space, can't find one, then drive off to some other business area--perhaps and probably, in another town.

So--and it comes as no sudden revelation because--we've all known it for a long time--it boils down to this: a lot of us people who work downtown are taking up parking spaces that could be used by money-spending customers.

Let's be honest. My livelihood depends on the merchants in this town doing business. The merchants' livelihood depends on customers being able to get to their stores to do business.

When it's all said and done, just about every job in town depends directly or indirectly on business being done in this town. So no one's really exempt from the responsibility of helping make a better business climate.

Those of us with limited parking permits are probably the most negligent in our parking.

Many of us are short circuiting the system by using parking spaces that potential customers could be using. We're all just really guilty of thoughtlessness probably.

So here's the bullet: Along with the other economies that as an American, I'm pledged to support, I'm going to start economizing on parking spaces in my town.

Unless it's absolutely necessary, I'm not going to take a parking space in the business area.

And further, I'm asking our employees to follow suit. If I can park two blocks away and walk to the office on a sprained foot, others can do likewise.

Maybe other downtown workers will join us in our space-saving effort. Shop and office workers, join the cause.

We could modify President's WIN button to read: WALK and WIN.

Prediction Of Cure For Diabetes Coming Soon

A prediction that a cure for diabetes is coming soon, made this week at the Eastland Lions Club meeting, has been substantiated with a report by a leading medical center in the Southwest.

Speaking for the Lions, Delbert Biggs, a diabetic himself, pointed out that there's some million and a half people who know they have diabetes, and an equal number who do not know. He said he considered himself lucky to know that he had the disease.

With the discovery of insulin in 1921, it was thought that diabetes was controlled, but there's much better news coming, Mr. Biggs said, estimating that the cure would be available in from five to ten years.

A diabetes researcher says a complete cure for the disease probably will be perfected within five years and used on a large-scale basis in 10.

Dr. Holbrook Seltzer, professor of internal medicine at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, made the statement at a recent speech to a diabetes association.

He said several laboratories around the world are working on the cure. Laboratory rats already have been cured of diabetes, he said, using transplants of the islets of Langerhans, the insulin and glucagon-producing cells in the pancreas.

Mr. Biggs estimated that half of the heart attacks, two-thirds of the strokes and as much as 95 percent of amputations result from diabetes-related illnesses.

He strongly recommended that everyone be tested for diabetes.

Services For John Mitchell To Be Sunday

John W. Mitchell, 85, passed away Friday, October 18, in the Eastland Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

Services will be Sunday, October 20, with time to be announced, with the Rev. Meeker of Olden officiating.

Services will be held in Arrington Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will be in Eastland Cemetery under direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Born Dec. 17, 1889 in Blanco County, Texas, he married Renie Fox. She preceded him in death in 1965.

He is survived by one brother Charlie L. Mitchell of Olden.

Homecoming Oct. 25-26

Plans for HOMECOMING 1974 at Cisco Junior College are currently in their final stages. Homecoming Committee Carolyn Goldston has announced. The annual event at CJC is set for the coming week--end, October 25-26.

The two-day program will be highlighted by a Saturday afternoon football game between the Wranglers of CJC and the Wharton County Junior College Pioneers.

The first activity of Homecoming 1974 will be the traditional bonfire and pep rally on Friday night, to be held at the foot of the CJC hill at 8:00 p.m. The cheerleaders, band, and Wrangler Belles will be out in full regalia for a spirit-filled agenda of yells, chants, music, and dance routines as the huge fire blazes away.

Saturday's program of events will begin with a reception and open house on the campus beginning at 10:00 a.m.

Don't Forget Carnival Saturday

October 26, 1974, is the date set for the Elementary School Halloween Carnival. The Carnival will be at the high school brick and tin gyms from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. All proceeds go to the Elementary School. Part of the money pays for the two parties at the school. Christmas approximately $260 and the Valentine party approximately $200. The remaining amount is given to buy something the school needs or wants for all students to benefit from. In the past the Carnival proceeds have bought:

1969-70--2 overhead projectors and tables.

1970-71--2 overhead projectors and tables.

1971-72--3 film strip projectors.

1972-73--1 3M Copy machine and table.

These machines have helped our teachers and pupils tremendously. Also library books and playground slides were bought.

Let's make this a big year and help our children. Public invited.

Lions Club Supper Set

Bigger and better--and more time to eat 'em!

That's the word on the Annual Lions Club Pancake Supper set for Friday, Oct. 25; night of the Eastland-Cisco football clash here.

Club President Otis Coleman and his staff were sampling new flavors of pancake mix this week in preparation for the big event. Tickets for the event will go on sale this week at $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for students.

Site will be the Wendell Siebert Elementary School and hours will be from 5 to 8 p.m.

It's the best feed in town, Lions say, and with the 8 p.m. kickoff for this game, more time for good eating will be possible.

RETIRED--42 Employees of Comanche County Electric Coop Association met at the Kokomo Community Center Tuesday evening, Oct. 15, honoring H.B. (Buddy) Woolsey and his wife Jessie. Buddy is retiring after 27 years of service, 25 of which he was a serviceman and crew chief of the Eastland Office. Buddy was presented a Polaroid Land Camera by his fellow employees. A delicious meal was served by the Kokomo Home Demonstration Club.

Mavericks Lose To Hamilton

BY STEVE HAINES

The second loss of the season confronted Mavericks and Maverick fans Friday night when the Hamilton Bulldogs skinned over the Mavs 17-14.

The game would have to be classified as an upset not only in the score, but also in the way the scores were made, and primarily on behalf of the Bulldogs of Hamilton.

This is because two of the three scoring plays made by Hamilton were the result of two direct Maverick foul ups, stemming from an overthrown center's snap and a fumbled center's snap.

As the first quarter got underway the Mavs took first possession at their 19 yard line.

The Mavs looked good on the first drive as they marched down the field toward their first touchdown with short runs by Tom Morren, and a couple of good ground gainers by End Brent Parker, which brought the ball deep into Bulldog territory, where Parker on a handoff from Quarterback Gary Wheat, rolled around the right side for a 20 yard touchdown run.

Morren's extra point conversion was good and the score read Eastland 7, and Hamilton 0 in the early moments of the first quarter.

Following the kick from Morren after the Eastland touchdown, the Bulldogs managed to keep the ball for only a short series of downs before being forced to punt. The punt brought the ball to Eastland 20 yard line and after two plays by the Mavericks with very little ground movement, they were struck with a 15 yard setback on a third down play, which left them with no alternative.

This punt is where the Mavs made their first miscue. On the snap from center to Tom Morren, the ball was almost put into orbit. It sailed over the heads of Morren and landed in the end zone for an automatic touchback for the Bulldogs making the scoreboard read Mavericks 7 and the Bulldogs 2.

Even with the Bulldogs making a score the Mavs still had to punt the ball, this time the punt reached Hamilton and gave them excellent field position on about their 40.

From the 40 Hamilton started their first scoring drive which was made up almost entirely of one play made by Bulldog running back Dan Hardin, on a 35 yard romp which put the ball on the Eastland 9 yard line.

The ball might not have come to rest on that run if it had not have been for back up Mav Quarterback Brian Haun who made the tackle. But it was to no avail for the Bulldog momentum was up and they rolled in for their first touchdown on a handoff from Quarterback Wendell Geeslin to Back Paul Addison.

Extra point was good and the Bulldogs took the lead with a score of 9-7 over the Mavs at the end of the first quarter.

Both teams rocked along smoothly, both keeping up with its fair share of the penalties that were being stepped off rhythmically all during the night, for almost the entire second quarter. The Bulldogs, however, wanted to put their score a little higher before going in for the half but it didn't look as though they were going to have a chance with the clock reading 30 seconds left and the Mavs in possession of the ball deep in their own territory.

But the Mavs found out that they were not going to be able to keep the ball till the buzzer sounded and the Bulldogs forced them to punt.

This was when the second Mav miscue developed. On the snap from center, the ball went into the hands of Morren this time on target, but Morren was unable to hang on to the ball, thus on the fumble a Bulldog player picked up the ball and staggered ten yards for the last Hamilton TD. The extra point was once again good and the Dogs went further into the lead, Eastland 7 and Hamilton 17 at the end of the half.

The half time performance by the Hamilton marching band was tremendous and the Maverick Marching band was up to its usual high standard, under the direction of Drum Major Randy Frost and Band Director Bobby Bingham.

The third and fourth quarter went by with both teams fighting hard to gain the highest score but in the end Hamilton won the battle.

The only score made in the second half came from the Mavs on a play to Morren for 19 yards just about midway during the third quarter, which gave the game its ending of Eastland 14 and Hamilton 17.

We join to congratulate Tommy Morren for his night's performance, which with field goals and touchdown gave him a scoring record so far this year of over 100 points.

Outstanding players for the Mavs in the game Friday night were Haun who had some great defensive plays for the night; Bryce Garrett, Bert Elliott, Isaac Orsco who sustained a leg injury but it is not known how serious yet, John Marshall, Rex Morgan, Billy Daniel, Clay Wheat, Dennis Lopez, Brent Parker, John Hart and Gary Wheat.

Next week the Mavs host the Cisco Lobos in Maverick Stadium with kickoff time 8:00.

Boyd Promotion Announced

J. Lynn Futch, State Director, Farmers Home Administration, Temple, Texas has announced the promotion of Ormel I. (Jack) Boyd of Chief, Business and Industrial Programs (B&I). Boyd has served as B&I Specialist for the past year, assisting with implementation of new guaranteed loan authorities assigned to FmHA by the Rural Development Act of 1972, Public Law 92-419. Activity in the new program of providing loan guarantees to aid in business and industrial development in towns and cities of up to 50,000 has exceeded expectations according to Futch. He noted that eight conditional commitments to guarantee loans of $29.2 million were authorized in the past fiscal year. Since July 1, 1974, ten commitments for $1.6 million have been issued. Futch said fifty-eight requests for loan guarantees of $16.6 million are presently being evaluated or applicants have been advised to complete formal applications for final feasibility determination.

Boyd has been a member of the State Director's staff since 1968, serving as Community Programs Specialist until 1973. He completed twenty years federal service in 1974. All his service has been with FmHA except for military duty in World War II. Boyd was FmHA County Supervisor in Seguin, Guadalupe County from 1959 to mid 1968.

Boyd is a graduate of Texas A&M University and holds BS and MS degrees in Agriculture Education. The new Chief, B&I Programs, is a native of Chilton, Falls County. He and his wife, the former Marjorie Beasley of Trent, Taylor County, have two sons, Don, a senior Aggie Band member at Texas A&M and Alan, a freshman at Tarleton State University, Stephenville.

Boyd is the brother-in-law of Mr. & Mrs. Lewis Tiner of Eastland.

More Cowboys And Indians

THE INDIAN
The Indian you know, (of course).
Sat upon his beautiful horse.
And then he stretched out both his hands
And thanked God for all this beautiful land.

But then one day the white man came,
And killed all the buffalo just for game.
And he kept on til there were no more left.
And the Indian, just sat and wept.

Then the government came along,
And they were doing about the same.
"Kill the Indian" was now the song.
And now the Indians were killed for game.

And then the settlers took this land,
And this the Indian couldn't stand.
Now they were mad, they didn't care,
They took many scalps of white man's hair.
They went on the warpath
They fought day and night.
And the battlegrounds were a bloody sight.

But the Indian was near his end,
For now the white man was not his friend.
The Indian had to move to little places,
Instead of the wide open spaces.

THE BUFFALO HUNT
Once there was an Apache

Oldest person in attendance at Senior Citizen's Bazaar was Mrs. Minnie Williams, 103 years old. Mrs. Williams will be 104 on Dec. 27, and is a resident at Valley View Nursing Home in Eastland. Kneeling behind wheel chair is Milton "Snooks" Nash, former Eastland policeman, who spends many hours per week in assisting Eastland's senior citizens. (Photo by James Dabney).

Brave,
Who had the name Kio-Kave
But he could not hunt at all.
He just couldn't make an animal fall.
Father let arrows fly,
While Old Joe let Kio fly
When he came down,
On a buffalo himself he found
All the buffaloes did was run and buck
He hoped today he would not be slow
Finally they came to an open plain

whooping and hollering
With Kio and Old Joe a following.

So Kio Kave became
An Apache brave with much fame

Marq Gordon

Kio Kave rode his horse, Old Joe
There stood the buffalo ready to be slain,
Down swooped Father

But on his back Kio Kave stuck
The Buffalo finally tired,
And with his bow Kio fired.

THE COWBOY
I knew this cowboy
His name was Roy
He was rough
He was tall,
He wasn't small,
He wasn't kind,
In fact he was out of his mind
He had no friends,
And that is the end.

Cattle graze on reclaimed land near TESCO's lignite coal operation near Fairfield, Texas. The dragline used for recovering the lignite can be seen just over the hill.

Ten months ago this peaceful Texas pasture was a coal mine.

The lignite coal found here is being used to generate electricity for Texas Electric Service Company in our Big Brown plant near Fairfield, Texas.

Our main fuels are natural gas and oil, and they will continue to be for several years. But new supplies of these fuels are increasingly difficult to obtain.

Using lignite, and by the 1980's nuclear fuel, will help us reduce our dependence on natural gas and oil.

One advantage of using lignite is that it isn't being used extensively for any purpose other than the generation of electricity.

After removing coal from the land you see here, it was reclaimed — the soil was replaced, tilled, fertilized and a variety of grasses planted — to make its productivity equal to or better than before. Now it is used for raising crops or cattle.

At Texas Electric, we're continuing the orderly development of our power system so that you'll continue having the electricity you need.

And we're doing it with full concern for the environment.

200 S. Oaklawn Eastland

To The Editor

The following is a letter from a lady in Eastland who asked that her name be withheld:

Dear Editor
I would like to suggest that the city officials of Eastland need to do something about parking space at Eastland Lake by the bridge.
I went by there a few days ago and a car was sitting on the shoulder of the road. There were three or four children in the car and the parents were fishing. If one of the children had accidentally put the car in gear, it would have rolled into the lake.

What is needed out there is a good parking place and a picnic place for children to play while their parents are fishing.

I think there is plenty of land out there that could be cleared for this purpose.
Thank you.

Kenneth McCulloch
Guest Speaker

The Eastland County Law Enforcement Association will have as its guest speaker Mr. Kenneth McCulloch, Law Enforcement Instructor at Cisco Junior College.

Mr. McCulloch will address the Law Enforcement Association's October 25th noon meeting at the Ramada Inn in Eastland. McCulloch is a native of Cisco and is a graduate of East Texas State University with a master's degree in Sociology. He has a broad background in police and criminal justice experience and returns to Cisco from a recent assignment as a police detective in Greenville, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch now reside in Cisco and have a fifteen month old daughter.

In announcing Mr. McCulloch's appearance, Judge Bailey invited all area law enforcement officials, as well as city and county government officials to attend the noon meeting on October 25.

Accent On Health

ANSWER: That's right, under the law passed in 1943. However, we have seen that the ambulance personnel and the ambulance service operators recognize a need for more advanced training. This is something that has really developed in the past few years.

QUESTION: What levels of advanced training are there?
ANSWER: As an incentive to increase the level of training of ambulance personnel throughout the state, the State Health Department developed a registry of emergency medical services personnel. This registry is broken down into three different levels.

The "C" level includes the standard Red Cross training. Next, there is the "B" category for emergency care attendants, or ECA's. These are people who have attended a training course of from 20 to 24 hours.

The "A" level is the Emergency Medical Technician, or EMT. Because of the recent development of more advanced programs, we have broken down the class "A" level into two categories—the basic EMT, which includes those who have completed 120 hours of training and the advanced EMT, which is those who have gone beyond the basic course for at least 200 additional hours of training. These are the ones often called paramedics.

QUESTION: How is the State Health Department involved in the training of emergency medical personnel?

ANSWER: Until recently, we were directly involved in teaching the ECA, or "B" level, course, and also in coordinating the establishment of EMT courses throughout the state. Recently, we have had to discontinue our direct involvement in the ECA courses and become more involved in the increased demand for the type of training. What we are doing at this time is to concentrate on the training of instructors for the EMT courses, and also providing the final examination for the students as they complete the course.

QUESTION: Does the State Health Department also assist communities in planning and starting up emergency medical services?

ANSWER: Yes. As another service of the EMS Division, these services are made available to the local communities for planning and researching the type of ambulance service that might be best suited for each community.

ARBAB Issued Guidelines For Grants To States And Territories For Bicentennial Programs

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The American Revolution Bicentennial Administration's Board today issued guidelines for and approved matching grants to States and Territories for their Bicentennial programs.

Up to $240,000 is available to each of the 50 States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam and American Samoa.

The Congress authorized $200,000 of the money in appropriated funds under Public Law 93-179, which established the ARBA. The remaining $40,000 per State is from money raised through the sale of official Bicentennial medals. In releasing the guidelines, John W. Warner, Administrator of ARBA, said: "The new Bicentennial Administration is endeavoring in every way to improve and increase its assistance to the State Bicentennial Commissions. The guidelines for the grants provide a wide latitude of discretion and authority so that each State can best accomplish its purpose and aims in commemorating the nation's 200th anniversary."

The ARBA has previously provided $2.1 million in non-appropriated matching grants grams. These grants have gone to projects which have generated an additional $16 million from other sources.

Mr. Warner expressed the hopes "that this new grant money will encourage an equally impressive outpouring on the part of private, local and State entities in support of Bicentennial activities."

Projects to be supported by the grants may be conducted directly by the State Bicentennial Commission or by State of local government agencies or non-profit organizations. All money will be awarded through State Commissions, which will also monitor the grants.

Communities and non-profit organizations must apply to the State Commissions for the grant money, and projects must be officially endorsed or recognized by the Commissions to be eligible for grant support. Determination of eligibility of projects for funding with grant money is primarily within the discretion of State Commissions.

The State Commissions can use in-kind contributions for up to one half of the matching requirement to promote the widest possible participation in the Bicentennial; include youth, minority and ethnic groups, and others who may not have the financial resources to meet a total dollar matching share requirement.

Public Law 93-179 establishes the period of official Bicentennial commemoration between March 1975 and December 31, 1976, and all projects funded must bear a direct relation, but are not confined, to this period.

Texas Judges Operating Under New Code Of Ethics

AUSTIN—Texas Supreme Court Chief Justice Joe Greenhill announced today that Texas judges are operating under a new code of ethics which requires them to file a copy of their federal income tax returns with the State Judicial Qualifications Commission.

The Supreme Court has gone well beyond the requirements of the ethics bill passed by the legislature. Greenhill said of the Code of Judicial Conduct which was published for the first time in the Texas Bar Journal's September issue.

"It requires the filing of judges' income tax returns with the Judicial Qualifications Commission in addition to the disclosure of the Secretary of the State", Greenhill said.

The Supreme Court adopted the new ethics code, the first revision since 1963, to take effect September 1. The Court met September 24 to adopt several minor amendments aimed at exempting county judges from the code's requirements. Greenhill said the county judges should not have been included in the code because they perform so many non-judicial functions as county administrators.

The new code is based on a set of standards adopted by the American Bar Association and

To be eligible, projects must be within one or more of the three basic national themes of "Heritage '76", "Festival - USA" of "Horizons '76".

The guidelines also include accounting and reporting requirements and details on procedures and time limits for requesting funds. Under federal regulations, the guidelines will be open for comment for the next thirty days under circular A85.

Board members attending were U.S. Senators Edward Brooke and Joseph Montoya, House members Lindy Boggs and M. Caldwell Butler, a representative for Secretary of the Interior Rogers, C.B. Morton, Miss Carol L. Evans, Mr. J. Duane Squires and John W. Warner.

The oath of office was read to Miss Evans, Detroit, Michigan, and Mr. Squires, New London, New Hampshire, two of the three state commission members on the board appointed by President Ford earlier in the day. Miss Evans is a member of the Michigan Bicentennial Commission, while Mr. Squires is the Chairman of the New Hampshire American Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The third member, Andrew McNally, III, Chairman of the Illinois Bicentennial Commission was traveling out of the country.

Mr. Warner introduced to the Board, Marjorie W. Lynch, ARBA Deputy Administrator nominee who was announced by President Ford at the same time as the state commission members.

28 other states. Supreme Court Justice Jack Pope was chairman of a committee of the State Bar of Texas Judicial Section which drafted the code.

Greenhill said the code also provides:

1. A prohibition against judges engaging in most commercial and business enterprises.
2. A prohibition against political participation except on his own behalf as a candidate for election or re-election.
3. A ban against holding any office in a publicly-owned business.
4. A prohibition against a judge soliciting funds for a charity.

"This will remove us from political activity except in our own races", Greenhill said.

The financial disclosure requirement would allow the judicial qualifications commission to keep the income tax information sealed until a majority of the commission votes to review the information upon receipt of a complaint about the judge involved.

Adoption of the code by the Supreme Court has the effect of incorporating the code into the standards used by the judicial qualifications commission in its role of policing judicial ethics.

MRS. ALLMAND
FIRST GRADE

We are working hard on our reading and our new consonant sounds. We are learning something new in math this week. We are learning to subtract. We have been busy making halloween decorations for our room. We have made pumpkins, bats and cats. Also we have colored halloween pictures.

We are taking tests to see how well we know our vowel and consonant sounds. Our parents will know the results next Thursday.

We have a new boy in our room this week. His name is Raymond Torres. We now have 24 in our room.

MRS. SIEBERT
FIRST GRADE

We have been very busy this week. There are many things in the room to remind us that Halloween is near.

Our class has learned to add and subtract. We do many problems every day to practice adding. Sometimes we play games using the addition combinations.

On one of the bulletin boards we have a Helper Train. Every day our teacher puts the names of the boys and girls who are to be the helpers that day.

The leaders this week were: Tammy Rose, Leon Latham, Steven Underwood, Tonjia Moore, Jodi Coan, David Crabtree, Kelly Muirhead, Kendra Lindsey, Presiliano Baldillez, and James Patton.

MRS. COATS
SECOND GRADE

A new girl named Candi Creecy joined our class this week. There are 28 second graders in our room now.

Monday was Columbus Day so we have started a study of "Our Country's Story". We found our country was named for a man named Amerigo.

We are learning all about the telephone through materials furnished by our telephone company.

Our room looks scary now! We have halloween pictures pasted everywhere.

We made fire prevention posters the other day. We had our pictures made last week. We got a new pupil. Her name is Dini Torres.

MRS. ADAIR FOURTH GRADE

We have been drawing names for who will write the news report and take out the equipment for girls and boys. I got picked last week for taking out the equipment. But this week you can guess what I am. We have been practicing for Halloween and we are making pumpkin heads with our teacher Mrs. Adair. I said it will take a long time. I hope we get it done some time. We have been studying in reading. The first group got a play out of their reading book. It was called "The Four Seasons". Becky Gailley was Clara. Shirley Housson was the mean step sister, and Valerie Davidson was the mean step mother. Shirley and Valerie had to mess up their hair, but when Mrs. Adair tried it was really messy! They looked funny. Everyone laughed. It turned out happily. James Morton won zone champion in P.P.

Time Brings
Changes

The Thursday Afternoon Club met in regular session on October 17. Mrs. James Horton was program leader and read the theme for the day, "Time Brings Changes" and the quotation from Walt Whitman, "Praised be the fathomless universe, for life and joy, for objects and knowledge".

She led the members and guests in reading the "American Creed" from the yearbook and introduced the speaker for the day, Mrs. H.V. O'Brien, who gave an illustrated lecture on women across the sea, especially women in Soviet Russia, who are the ultimate in the women's liberation movement.

Women in Russia make up 51% of the working force and do all kinds of work, even heavy construction and building. Mrs. O'Brien showed slides, taken on their tour of many public buildings in Russia, Germany and other countries. Her talk was very interesting and informative and very appreciated by the audience.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. C.L. Bigby, H.L. Hassell, Turner Collie and L.E. Corbell. They served delicious cookies, nuts and punch to seventeen members and fifteen guests.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. H.V. O'Brien and Amy, Mrs. Haston Brewer, Marvin Hood, Shirley Thompson, E.M. Grimes, Norman Wallace, Frank E. Day, I.C. Heck and Miss Marjorie van Hoose of Eastland, Mrs. P.M. Kuykendall and J.P. Morris of Ranger, Mrs. Ted Rogers of Cisco and Mrs. J.B. Morris of Dykesberg, Tennessee.

Members present were Mrs. Turner Collie, L.E. Corbell, J.O. Earnest, J.F. Francis, Pearson Grimes, Herman Hassell, James Horton, H.H. Humphries, Marene Johnson-Johnson, D.L. Kinnaird, Guy Patterson, Joseph M. Perkins, Ioyd Robertson, Chas E. Terrell, E.R. Townsend, Roy L. Young, and C.L. Bigby, reporter.

The thorny growth and development of children was program subject for members of the Eastland Parent-Teachers Organizational meeting Tuesday at the Wendell Siebert Elementary School.

President Mrs. Kenny Coghburn presided. She introduced Mrs. Rickie Hobbs who read the minutes and Mrs. M.A. Treadwell Jr., who was program speaker.

Stating that a secure, happy mother produces a secure, happy child, she explained that the pendulum of discipline has swung from the rigid practices of yesterday to the permissiveness of today. "Somewhere in between seems to be the best road", she said.

At our house in raising our children, she said, we tried to practice preventive medicine and a little bit of elementary psychology.

The thorny points in a child's growth are marked at age 2, 4, 6, 8, then switching to the odd number years 9, 11, 13, and 15; budding at 16; and blooming into maturity at from 18 to 21.

Emphasizing over and over again, Mrs. Treadwell said a child learns from patient, repetitive guidance, and touching on each thorny age, from colic up, she urged that parents teach their children to dare to be different, and to teach them not to sell out.

The Sixth grade classes of Mrs. Little and Mrs. Welch performed entertaining musical numbers.

To Celebrate
Birthdays

The residents of Valley View Lodge, relatives and friends helped celebrate the birthdays of William Adams, Annie Bond, Loney Brock, Brittie Carter, Fannie Darlington, John Darlington, Ruby Greer, Mary Marshall, Ulala May, James Ramsey, Andrew Sechrist and Lena Smith.

After being served cake and punch, everyone enjoyed watching the above mentioned open their birthday presents and then visiting with each other.

Montgomery Ward Catalog Agencies Sold

Montgomery Ward Catalog Agencies in Ranger and Eastland have been sold to Shirley and Eugene Frost of Eastland, according to Wallace Gibson, former owner of the stores.

Transactions for the stores were completed Oct. 11 and Mr. Frost will take full charge of the stores after he has completed two weeks of training in Fort Worth, Mr. Gibson said.

Mr. Wallace has owned the Ranger store for the past four years and has owned the Eastland store for three years.

In making the announcement, Mr. Gibson said "Mr. and Mrs. Frost will make a fine couple for Wards. They will take over the stores Nov. 5. Mr. Gibson also said he wanted to thank the people of Ranger, Eastland and Cisco for their patronage while he was owner of the stores."

Mr. and Mrs. Frost have been residents of Eastland for the past seven years. Mr. Frost stated he and his wife will continue to give the same excellent service Wards customers received while Mr. Gibson was owner of the stores.

Mr. Frost also reminds the residents of Cisco they can still call in their orders like they have in the past.

No personnel changes will be made, Mr. Frost added. He and Mrs. Frost will be attending managers' training school in Fort Worth for the next two weeks.

The Light Touch

By Clint Bray

A hypocrite is a man who prays on Sunday and on his fellow men the rest of the week.

The most desirable quality in a nose is not its length or shape, but that it not be found in other people's business.

Principal to small boy: "It's generous of you, Johnny, but I don't think your resignation would help our crowded school situation."

There's one rule in buying roses. The longer the stems, the shorter your wallet.

We don't know why crabgrass should be crabby. It's always winning.

Wonderful World of Books

Most art books either tell you how to draw and paint or how to appreciate the art of the masters. In a new series for children, "Opening Your Eyes to Art", Shirley Hochman does both. First you look at paintings by great artists and find out what they tried to do. Then you experiment with ideas and

INDIANS INDIANS

The following articles were written by Coach Doug Dallas' 7th grade History Class:

INDIANS

Some Indians were smart and brave.

While some Indians lived in the depth of a cave.

Some Indians lived on the prairie land

While others lived on the beach of sands.

They killed the buffalo with their spears.

They used bows and arrows to kill the deer.

They killed in the valleys, they killed in the plains.

They could run for a day; if their deer was lame.

When they stole a horse from the white men's lives

The horse that they stole was especially prized

And their lives from beginning to end

The Indians always hated the white men.

Ken Swift

COWBOYS

The cowboy that roamed the plains,

Came in at night with plenty a pains.

When the cowboys were going to brand,

The cattle made a stand.

There once was a bull named Boxer

That no one could ride.

Then came Tex Lavera with pride.

They put of Tex on the saddle And he rode until he died.

Right before they fought Indians they would

Get a plug and spit in their eye and make um cry

The cowboy didn't know much about trees

All they knew was they had bees.

When they fought the Indians They smelled that gator grease

That's why the cowboys made peace

Brian Lund

INDIANS

Indians are a proud type They are brave and true They hardly ever grieve So different from me and you

Some were great hunters, Some were great riders, Some were great fishermen, Some were great fighters.

They had strange customs. Some that we don't use, But these were very important to them. They could never lose.

Soon the Indians were wiped out

And put on reservations This seems very unfair to me What happened to freedomization?

Scotty Frost

WHAT THE INDIANS WOULD DO

The Indians of the plains, Would dance for the rains When the sun was hanging low

They would hunt the buffalo They would circle a bunch Then kill them for their lunch

If the Indians couldn't catch the fish in time

They'd just run a trot line In the morning while the sun was in the east

They'd gather the fish and have a feast.

Sammie Williams

THE VANISHING AMERICANS

The Indians were a proud race

They'd met anyone face to face

They could bear almost anything

They could bear the ice, wind and rain.

The vanishing native Americans

Used to be many in number, Until the white man came With guns that sounded like thunder.

The Indians looked proud on Their mighty steeds.

They rode like thunder with great speeds.

The red man rode bareback Through many a war, Like a king who sat on his throne afar.

Dawn Underhill

INDIANS [AMERICANS] Indians, Indians, are so neat They wear mokoskins on their feet

They hunt with a bow But never know What they hit, They never know til they fit It into their pouch.

Farmers are they Sometimes they even grow hay

When they hunt, They do a stunt To lure animals closer

They chip out arrowheads And make their beds Out of a buffalo hide.

They hunt the buffalo for its hide

And then shoot it in the side And make it bleed and then lead

It home for supper that night, Johnny Ames

THE INDIANS

The Indians are Americans of long ago.

Who could shoot arrows from head to toe

Who fought the Spaniards of Spain

Who'll never get a pain Who lost their land to English men

Who know would cry to see their land

They that lived on the plains And hunted wild game

Who that will never be there again.

I hate to think of what might happen

Of the land in Manhattan

The Indians were friendly and joyful

Until to think of the men Killing buffalo there was war

Then reservation Then there was no more
