Merry Christmas

CAROLERS OF YESTERYEAR PERFORM in their quaint furred costumes (above), in an illustration from a greeting card of the 1880's. From the Hallmark Historical Collection.

Yule Lives In Legend And Lore

Twinkling on trees, glowing from windows, glittering everywhere, Christmas lights reflect, today, the candles of an earlier time.

A candle in the window can light the Christ Child on his way, says Irish legend.

Nativity scenes in homes and churches depict the animals of the Manger—and on Christmas Eve, the cattle, the sheep and all the animals present at the Nativity are given the gift of speech.

So says the lore of Christmas.

Blossoming on the holiday scene, greens and flowers spread their beauty and fragrance, reminding all of the living wonder of Christmas.

In legend, all flowers bloom at midnight on Christmas Eve, just as they did more than 2,000 years ago.

The legend and lore of Christmas expresses the simple faith that lies at the heart of this happy, holy time.

Some of the most delightful of legends are told in carols.

From France comes the "Carol of the Birds." Its words recount how the birds flew to Bethlehem to behold the Christ Child. Each bird, as it flew, sang a special song of praise and rejoicing.

'Greetings' Say It's Christmas

All the merriment, all the magic, all the glory of Christmas comes now to the people of this community, like a wonderful package of gifts they can share and enjoy. The wrappings on the package glow with brightest promise—joyful music in the air, gleaming lights and gala decorations, fun and festivity, trees and greens and all the trimmings for a Christmas just brimming over with the good things and glad times that the season inspires.

Now that the long-awaited moment has arrived, what does this community Christmas package hold? The tag gives a clue. It reads, "Greetings, good will and good wishes—Merry Christmas!"

In the community, in the home, in business and social relations, the true spirit of Christmas begins and grows from greetings.

The greetings may be—as evidenced by this special Christmas Greetings Edition—an expression of good will and gratitude from business people of the community, who are sincere in their desire to impart special appreciation of their patrons' confidence and trust.

But whether it's a cheery "Merry Christmas" to a new acquaintance, a warm exchange of season's best wishes with an old friend or still deeper exchange of felicitations with a loved one, the holiday greeting embodies the guiding spirit of "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Enchanting as they are, gifts, parties and other such gaieties are but the outer wrappings of the holiday package that means Christmas, with its message of fellowship, friendship and love.

Christians Celebrate Holy Day With Prayer and Thanksgiving

For those who celebrate Christmas as a holy day, the holiday is greeted with rejoicing, with prayer and thanksgiving, in church and private devotions.

The word "greeting" has a special significance here, for herald angels singing to shepherds in the fields and a star shining in the heavens truly brought greetings—according to the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, "good news of great joy which will come to all people."

Long before the December 25 birthdate of Christ was celebrated in devotions, it had marked a season set aside for another kind of greeting. In Northern Europe, Teutonic tribes of pagan times greeted the rebirth of the sun, of the winter solstice.

Earliest celebrations of Christmas combined some of the ancient pagan traditions. By association with Christian beliefs, old customs of greeting the sun became symbolic of a recognition—a greeting of faith, hope and life eternal.

Intangible Gifts Are Bringing Best Blessings, in Abundance

Among the treasures and pleasures of Christmas, gifts loom large—as all who greet the Yuletide as a season of laughter and a time to be glad of heart well know.

Tangible gifts, large and small, have their place in the holiday scheme of things. They're the outgoing expression of the generous Christmas spirit.

It's the intangible gifts, though, that seem to shine most radiantly, Christmas after Christmas.

The delighted smiles of children and the wonder in their eyes, the privilege of aiding the less fortunate, the opportunity to cherish and strengthen friendships and family ties, the renewed spirituality, the solid foundations of health, happiness and love, faith and hope—these are the intangible gifts.

Blessed indeed is the Christmas that brings an abundance of such gifts!

Well-Loved Carols Ring Out Everywhere

"Joy to the world! The Lord is come!"

"It came upon the midnight clear, that glorious song of old."

"Silent night, holy night, All is calm, all is bright."

"Oh come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant."

Throughout Christendom, the words of these well-loved carols are familiar even to little children, and they'll be heard this Christmas wherever carolers get together.

"Joy to the World" was written by Isaac Watts (1674-1748), English hymnist.

Watts, who is known as the creator of the modern hymn, wrote nearly 600 hymns. Many of these still appear in Protestant hymnals, says the Encyclopedia Americana.

"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" is the work of Edmund H. Sears, a Unitarian minister in Massachusetts, more than a century ago.

Perhaps the most famous of Christmas carols, "Silent Night" was first sung on Christmas Eve, 1818, to guitar music.

Mice in the bellows had silenced the organ of a tiny Austrian church. Father Joseph Mohr met the challenge by writing "Silent Night." His organist composed a melody for guitar.

DON BARRON

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By Armo Chambers

Cheerful voices, sad voices, young voices, old voices, soft and loud voices are once again saying, "Happy New Year." It is a pleasant tradition. But just exactly what does Happy New Year mean? A wish for continued good health, or better health? A better job? More money? More comfort, more conveniences? Or perhaps less worry? Less fear? Less uncertainty, less anxiety? Whatever it means to you, your friends wish you well when they say, "Happy New Year."

But, as the saying goes, "Wishing won't make it so." Your friends can try to help you be happy, but they can't guarantee it. It depends on you, not them. The reason is clear and known. GENUINE happiness can never be found in self centered thoughts. If we would make and keep a New Year resolution to think less of our private satisfactions . . . to more willingly think and act in a way to bring happiness to those whose lives we touch . . . then, and then only can we be truly happy. Impossible? No! Improbable perhaps for some, but not impossible for most of us Our voice joins others in wishing you a Happy New Year

Thought For Food

For a familiar yet delicious taste treat, combine liver and bacon en brochette style. Cut sliced liver in 1 1/2-inch squares. On each of four 12-inch skewers, thread 6 to 8 pieces of liver, 4 mushrooms, and two slices of bacon, weaving bacon between liver and mushrooms. Broil 3 to 4 inches from heat for 5 minutes, brushing occasionally with Italian dressing. Turn, broil 3 to 4 minutes longer, continue brushing with dressing. Serve on a bed of hot fluffy rice.

A thrifty, family-sized scalloped dish can be easily made by combining a cream sauce and any left-over vegetables that are not enough to serve by themselves. Top with buttered bread crumbs and bake until bubbling and brown.

Agriculture is still the nation's biggest industry. It employs more people than the steel, auto, utilities, and transportation industries combined.

SCHOOLING . . . Youngsters in Vienna, Austria, learn to obey traffic rules in special classes under supervision of the Austrian Traffic Police. The school system makes traffic education a part of the curriculum.

MAYBE YOU DON'T NEED INSURANCE
If you don't own a home, furniture, jewelry or a car, you can get along without the services of an insurance agent. But for the most of us, life is not that simple. Modern living has become so complex that the protection of property and personal liability is a major problem and we must be insured. The individual you can always depend on for accurate solutions of your insurance problems is your local agent.

about area contestants in the Reporter-News Most Typical Cowboy or Cowgirl in the Big Country Contest. Final competition will be held Dec. 30 in Abilene.)

The selection committee of Cisco High has submitted the name of Caddye Lee as candidate for the typical young cowgirl title.

Caddye, 16 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lee, lives on a ranch. Her qualifications are many and varied. She can sew and cook; she's an athlete and still thoroughly involved in the business of ranching.

This young lady was named Gold Star Girl for 1971-72, was a winner in the state Dress Revue for '71-'72 and a county food show winner. Active in 4-H for seven years, she has held many major offices in that organization.

Through FFA, she showed the champion ram at Houston and the reserve champion Charolais steer. She won 2nd and 3rd places in Fort Worth and Dallas with calves. In addition, she has participated in livestock judging teams.

And in the field of athletics

She has been outstanding. She is a three year basketball letterman. In school activities she has been a leader. Popularity has come her way, as evidenced by the fact that she was chosen FFA chapter sweetheart, a cheerleader at school and a class officer. The administration at Cisco High feels that this young lady meets the qualifications and requirements for a typical young cowgirl in the Big Country.
Ethel Mae McClelland, owner and manager of the Longhorn Cafe, treated the City Policemen, their wives, and dispatchers, to a Christmas dinner Monday night, Dec. 21. The policemen have been enjoying this treat from Ethel Mae for many years. There were 21 reported present
