HIGHEST COURT REJECTS PLEA OF ATTORNEYS

FIGHT TO SAVE MAN FROM CHAIR IS SUCCESSFUL

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 16. (AP)—Governor Hoffman today announced a reprieve for thirty days for Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

The governor's announcement read:

"The attorney general and I have been in conference on this matter and I have decided to announce a reprieve of 30 days.

"We have agreed that this will not be challenged.

"It is my intention to grant only this one reprieve. There will be no further reprieve."

The governor pointed to 14 previous reprieves as ample precedent for his decision.

The governor added he was giving the reprieve "for diverse reasons known to me."

He said he considered it an act of "executive clemency" and that there would be no extension of the reprieve "unless the evidence warranted it."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to save Bruno Richard Hauptmann from the electric chair tomorrow night.

Apparently the only hope of the convicted kidnap-murderer of the Lindbergh baby lies in a possible reprieve by Governor Harold G. Hoffman of New Jersey.

Hauptmann's petition for a writ of habeas corpus and a stay of execution had been filed shortly after noon by his attorneys.

The decision to deny the petition was agreed upon while the justices ate their lunch from 2 to 2:30 p. m.

Chief Justice Hughes announced the verdict to a hushed audience as soon as the court convened at 2:33 p. m.—three minutes late.

Apparently the discussion had extended over an hour.

The chief justice said merely that the petition for a writ of habeas corpus was denied. Court observers said that action in effect included the petition for a stay of execution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—A charge that the prosecution had "suppressed" important evidence favorable to Bruno Richard Hauptmann was made to the Supreme Court today by attorneys seeking to save the convicted kidnaper and murderer from the electric chair tomorrow night.

"You may submit the papers," Chief Justice Hughes said as a large audience leaned forward to hear his words.

The petition, signed in Hauptmann's own handwriting, said the first ransom note was out of the possession of New Jersey officers "almost immediately after its receipt" by them.

The attorneys said it was testified at the trial the note never had left the possession of the officers.

Letters between Hauptmann and Isidore Fish, who acted as his attorney, were said to have been "suppressed."

The state also was said to have "failed to disclose" at the trial evidence that the kidnap ladder "was materially altered and changed before the time that it was introduced in evidence."

The petition did not claim these contentions had not been presented previously in court proceedings aimed at saving the life of Hauptmann.

Burkinshaw, wearing horn-rimmed glasses, stepped to the lawyers' stand directly in front of the chief justice to make his plea.

Confession Claimed.

A statement from a high source that there had been a "confession" in the Lindbergh murder case gave Bruno Richard Hauptmann hope today to escape the electric chair tomorrow night.

The information concerning a confession that came from a source close to the leading figure in the case was: "There has been a confession and it is by some one other than Bruno Richard Hauptmann."

There were several details. In some official quarters there was much skepticism as to the merits of such a confession.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman's office here said the governor had "no knowledge of a confession."

The governor, who has not been at his office for several days, was said to be in New York in conferences the nature of which were kept secret but which were presumed to be in connection with the Hauptmann case in which the governor has shown marked interest.

Mayor LaGuardia's secretary said that the governor was expected to attend a conference in the mayor's office this afternoon with J. Edgar Hoover of the department of justice.

Senators Approve McNary's Measure To Pay Farmers On Outstanding AAA Contracts

From the Cradle to the Grave

From crime to punishment, these four pictures trace "the crime of the century" from the crib in the Seaside mountains home from which the Lindbergh baby was stolen nearly four years ago to the foreboding brick deathhouse of the New Jersey state prison, where the convicted kidnaper, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, stands to the end, comes to his doom in the electric chair.

Seed Loan Bill Also Voted By Senate

CHICAGO, Jan. 16. (AP)—The sum of $55,000,000, in AAA processing taxes put in escrow by Chicago packers, was ordered returned to them today by Federal Judge John P. Barnes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—The senate agriculture committee today approved the McNary bill to authorize an appropriation of $300,000,000 to pay farmers on outstanding AAA contracts. The committee also approved a $60,000,000 seed loan bill.

Cotton phases of the agricultural tangle were scheduled for emphasis at the White House meeting. Besides Smith those to attend included: Attorney General Cummings, Secretary Wallace, Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, Senator Bankhead (D. Ala.), Chairman Jones (D. Texas), of the house agriculture committee and Chester Davis, AAA administrator.

The Bankhead compulsory cotton control act has been challenged in the courts. The Supreme Court has not ruled on its constitutionality but the AAA decision generally was believed by administration leaders to doom the Bankhead statute.

In advance of today's meeting, the White House said no plan on a substitute for the AAA so far has reached the president from the consultations of Secretary Wallace and farm leaders.

Only Few Days To Pay Poll Tax

Only 13 more days left in which to pay your poll tax.

Only a week left to avoid a rush which will be increasingly annoying as the January 31 deadline approaches.

Most poll taxes paid to date are those accompanying property tax payments, which have been very good, according to P. E. Leech, county tax assessor-collector.

Persons living in cities of 10,000 or over, including Pampa, who are eligible to receive poll tax exemption certificates, must obtain these certificates by January 31.

Navy's Request For Funds Seen

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Navy requests for new funds to build and modernize American war craft were foreseen today in authoritative quarters as the capital studied the effects of Japan's departure from the London naval parity.

Movements in congress to bolster both army and navy were reported underway as prospects for continuation of current naval limitation pacts vanished with the withdrawal of the far eastern empire's negotiators.

ROME—Fierce fighting along the entire southern front engaging more than 100,000 warriors continued. Italian sources at Rome said, with the Ethiopian defenders "in full retreat."

SENATE WILL STUDY BONUS ON TOMORROW

WILL CONSIDER BILL ON SATURDAY IN NEW PLAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—The senate agreed today to start consideration of the baby-bond bonus payment bill tomorrow after Republican Leader McNary had urged a day's delay under the rules.

Chairman Harrison (D. Miss.) of the finance committee sought floor consideration to lay. But McNary said "all farmers" to members who have not read the bill and the committee report submitted only late yesterday, the full-payment measure should go over until tomorrow.

The senate then agreed to Harrison's unanimous consent request that debate begin tomorrow.

Senator King (D. Utah) introduced a substitute bill providing for payment now of only the cash surpluses of present value of the 20-year adjusted service (bonus) certificates which he estimated would save $1,000,000,000.

Plane and Man Are Sighted in Little America

LONDON, Jan. 16. (AP)—The captain of the Discovery III, searching for the missing explorer, Lincoln Ellsworth, indicated in a report today that an airplane had been sighted in Little America and that a man had been seen on the Bay of Whales.

The report did not identify the man or the airplane.

The committee in charge of the Discovery II's rescue expedition announced officially:

"A message has been received by the discovery committee from the master of the Discovery II reporting that the plane arrived safely at the Bay of Whales at 10 p. m. Jan. 15. The message indicates one man was sighted from a plane and also a machine at Little America."

Part of the wireless message from the Discovery was garbled, making complete decoding impossible. Officials are waiting for a repetition of the message.

Majors Demand Allowable Based On Acreage Plan

AUSTIN, Jan. 16. (AP)—Major oil companies renewed a demand at the monthly production hearing of the railroad commission today that acreage be considered in fixing allowable production of the East Texas oil field.

Inquiry as to the method of which the federal bureau of mines decided on the market demand for Texas crude also was voiced with the suggestion that other states might be receiving more than their share of the authorized national production.

R. E. Hardwicke of Fort Worth, attorney representing a group of large companies, told the commission that "something ought to be done about East Texas."

The companies several months ago introduced voluminous testimony at hearings in efforts to show that the present system of basing allowables on potential producing ability of wells was inequitable and ought to be changed by the Supreme court.

"What do you think should be done?" asked Ernest O. Thompson, commissioner chairman, recently returned from Washington.

"I think the commission should quit granting exceptions to its general spacing rule," Hardwicke replied. "Every tract in East Texas has a well on it. There should be adjustments of allowables."

Admiral Laughs as He Boasts of Prowess

TOKYO, Jan. 16. (AP)—Cabinet protestations of Pacific aims mingled discordantly today with the martial declaration of naval chief Taka-hashi, commander-in-chief of its delegates to the international naval conference.

Premier Keiske Okada declared: "I do not believe a naval building race is coming, but the people of Japan must be prepared to meet whatever the future holds."

"Whether we have naval limitation treaties or not, Japan will respect the principles of non-menace and non-aggression in the world unaltered."

On the other hand the attitude of naval authorities was expressed typically by Vice Admiral Sankichi Takahashi, commander-in-chief of the battle fleet, in an interview given prominence by the lesser vernaculars.

"If the Japanese navy is called upon to fight the combined power of America and Great Britain," Vice Admiral Takahashi said, "I am confident we will win; even if the ratio is 10 to 1."

"If such a combat came tomorrow, this could be proved. The Japanese people need not be afraid. . . . The Washington treaty was nonsense."

"Japan has its own ideas of methods of fighting and we can build what warships we need without watching other nations."

"If we are compelled to use the short word to combat a foe brandishing the long sword, I still am sure we have a skill and spirit to win."

The vernacular newspapers said Takahashi laughed frequently during the interview.

The newspaper Nichi Nichi published prominently a statement by an unnamed navy spokesman, arguing that Japan has nothing to fear from the United States.

RUSSIA CLAIMS GREATEST ARMY IN THE WORLD

Warms Germans, Japs She Can Defend Borders

BY JOHN LLOYD,
Associated Press Foreign Staff.

MOSCOW, Jan. 16. (AP)—The statement that Soviet Russia has so organized her military machine that she can throw "formidable forces" into action at a moment's notice on either the eastern or western frontiers marked today's published reports of a new army increase.

The statement was a part of last night's discourse by Mikhail Tukhachevsky, assistant commissar of war, before the all-union central executive committee.

Tukhachevsky declared also the Soviet Union is prepared to wage "simultaneous and independent" defense on both frontiers, which are 6,250 miles apart.

Speaking of the "vast war preparations of German militarism," the assistant commissar said Russia was forced to "take a serious view" of the question of protecting western borders.

"Similarly serious is the situation with regard to our far eastern borders," he added. "Japanese imperialism is presenting us each year with more and more evidence of its far-from-peaceful intentions."

Premier Molotov, in a previous speech, had accused the Japanese of "quietly making their way to our borders and gradually preparing for war."

The official press dealt with a reported German-Japanese military alliance as either already a fact or soon to become one, and Molotov

PLANES WRECK ETHIOPIAN RED CROSS STATION

SEVEN WOMEN KILLED AS ITALY CLAIMS VICTORIES

By ROY P. PORTER
Associated Press Staff Writer

Three Italian bombing planes destroyed a Red Cross unit headed by a British officer at Wadisa on the northern Ethiopian front, an official communique from Addis Ababa reported today.

Seven women and seven old men died in the aerial assault Tuesday morning, the government said, and 35 others were injured. Major Gerald Burgoyne, the hospital director, was reported unhurt.

Along the entire southern front more than 100,000 warriors rushed into fierce engagements in what was described as Rome as the "most important" battle of the Italo-Ethiopian war.

At Paris, radical socialists demanded resignations of party members holding cabinet positions, forecasting downfall of Premier Pierre Laval's government and elimination of the peace advocate in approaching League of Nations war parties.

The air raid on the hospital, midway between Dessye, Emperor Haile Selassie's field headquarters and Makale, spearhead of the Italian drive in the north, resulted in destruction of half the town by fire, the Ethiopian report said.

"Three Caproni planes made the raid," the communique reported. "Six big bombs, of 330 pounds each, were dropped in the court of the Red Cross unit which was mainly marked with the Red Cross flag. "Tents and surgical instruments were destroyed."

The Red Cross unit was established by Major Burgoyne at the request of the Ethiopian emperor. A military instructor had been stationed at the camp. The government previously has protested fascist bombings of hospitals and towns. Sweden and Egypt for specific attack and Ethiopia against an Italian policy it termed "merciless extermination."

The battles along the southern front were reported Sunday, drew 30,000 native dthibts from Italian Somaliland into conflict against 60,000 Ethiopians under Ras Desta Denta, the emperor's son-in-law.

The Italian report described the defenders "in full retreat" after running lights down the valleys of the Gamale Doria and the Dawa Parma.

Stocked with provisions for three months, French battleships, cruisers and destroyers steamed away from the Brest harbor for maneuvers off the northwest coast of Morocco.

The ships followed in the wake of 14 submarines which put out to sea yesterday. British ships were congregating off the coast of Spain.

STAGE ARTISTS WILL ENTERTAIN JAYCEE GROUP

Torch Singers and Dancers To Be At Banquet

Secrecy shrouds plans of the special committee making arrangements for the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce installation ladies' night banquet to be held in the dining room of the Schneider hotel on Wednesday night.

A colorful program, including brief but interesting talks, and entertainment by nationally known performers, will be presented. The talk by the national president of the Jaycees will also be heard as part of a radio wide program. Only the president's address will be heard, other parts of the program being replaced by the entertainers.

The program is being made interesting to the ladies, who, in the past, had been forgotten, and had to sit through long and boring speeches. This time there will be more and better entertainment. The committee members met last night and accepted offers of three artists who have Broadway experience behind them. Names have not been divulged but the information leaked out that the program will include

Morgan Resents Charge 'We Were Bought Into War'

Says English Money Didn't Cause Entrance

BY PRESTON L. GROVER,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Resentment at what he said was an insinuation that "we were bought into the war with English money" was expressed by J. P. Morgan today at the senate investigation of the war-time finances.

Chuckling but nonetheless positive in his assertion, the elderly financier swung upon Senator Clark (D. Mo.) with this:

"You are saying that we were bought into the war with English money and I don't like the insinuation."

An investigator for Clark and the other committee members had just contended that this government, before entering the world conflict, tried to keep American banks liquid and ready for war but not to stop trade with the allies.

Morgan puffed furiously at his pipe as he once again disputed the committee's view that American interest in trade with the allies, rather than submarines, led this country into the war.

At the close of today's hearing an extract from the diary of Col. Edward M. House, confidential advisor to Woodrow Wilson, was introduced to show Secretary of State Lansing wanted the war-time president to break with Germany early in January of 1917.

It was not until February 1 of that year that Germany began unrestricted submarine warfare. The WORDS by O.E.H.

Words are things

Twinkles

Pampa's public health has been so good this winter that we've had little to blame on the dust-storms.

It looks as if the republicans may have to pick one of those ex-democrats as a presidential candidate if Mr. Borah won't do.

Direct relief is one service Uncle Sam proposes to end without the assistance of the Supreme Court.

It appears that Americans have to foreign-ize their names to sing grand opera. Which explains some more of opera's failure to please millions.

Fame sometimes backfires—Amarrillo now is known nationally as a dust bowl center.

Musing of the moment: The most widely adopted traffic control policy in existence is to do as little possible, make as few enemies as possible, and hope for the best. Out of such policies grow appalling death tolls. Isn't it about time for Pampa to study her traffic problem, set up a traffic control plan, teach her officers and citizens its requirements, and stand hitched on its provisions?

Brevitorials

THIS IS AN age of plans. Most talked, perhaps, is the Townsend Old Age Pension plan—a scheme destined to cause more than a little stir in politics this year and to be some trouble to democrats and republicans alike. And of course AAA must be replaced. Scores of plans will be offered for this.

Letter from a former classmate: "By congratulations to you, old rebel! I am indeed happy to hear that you have knowingly started your family and unknowingly started your education."—Mitchell Jones, Canyon.

Townsend plan advocates, or at least some of those breaking into print, take the position that AAA would not be necessary if the plan were operating, because the farm market would absorb all that the farmers could produce. The different lines, are not likely to get on this bandwagon except as an auxiliary to some more definite AAA substitute.

The end of AAA brought splits in both parties. In the Supreme Court, we find Stone, a republican, and liberal, bitterly matching wits with McReynolds, a radically conservative anti-new deal democrat. McReynolds has been unanimously against new deal moves. In Congress, the chief danger to passage of any workable plan is in fights within the parties. In the end, however, we believe the administration-favored plan.

SENATOR TOM CONNALLY of Texas writes THE NEWS that he is reviving the export debenture farm relief plan, linked with other remedial legislation. The export debenture for farm products is based on the same principle as the protective tariff except that it is made applicable to exports rather than imports. Since the farmer must pay a tariff on manufactured goods and must sell his exportable surplus in a free world market, it is the senator's theory that on the exportable surplus of farm products the farmer should receive compensating benefits in order to lift the price of farm commodities to a fair level of parity with manufactured and industrial goods. The plan would have the U. S. treasury issue certificates for cotton, wheat, and other farm products which may be exported. These certificates would be redeemable by the treasury and could be used for payment of duties on imports. The amount on the certificate on each pound of cotton or bushel of wheat would be fixed with a view of giving the farmer an increase of his price.

Senator Connally's plan would increase production, give employment to handies of the increase, help the railroads, and generally stimulate business. The objection is being raised that it would be equivalent to shipping American soil fertility abroad at a certain price. But most observers can agree with Senator Connally that "agriculture is entitled to permanent legislation which will put the farmer on an economic level with industry and manufacturing groups."

COPIES OF THE Townsend National Weekly are being distributed here. The old age pension plan is more than a pension scheme. It is a movement, financed by payments now running into many thousands, and a campaign offering promises to utopian that many persons believe it would cure every economic ill and prevent future de-

TWO HOSTESSES COMPLIMENT HOLIDAY BRIDE WITH BRIDGE PARTY AND SHOWER OF GIFTS

CLEVER PARTY HAS THEME OF AMATEUR HOUR

Guests Take Part in Stunts Before Microphone

Amateur hour, most popular radio diversion at present, was chosen as the theme for a clever party when Mrs. Joe Skerl entertained Merry Mixers bridge club and guests at her home Tuesday afternoon.

The room was arranged to resemble a broadcasting studio, with pictures of radio artists on the walls, and a real microphone. Mrs. Skerl impersonated Major Bowes and Mrs. Fern Bain took the role of Graham McNamee when each guest was asked to present an amateur stunt.

Awards for these went to Mrs. J. D. Appling and Mrs. Bert Howell, club guests. Mrs. Walter Sill, after her "act" was presented with a shower of handkerchiefs from the club, as she expects to leave Pampa soon.

Bridge appointments suggested the radio theme. Mrs. Howell made high score for guests. Mrs. Tony Balch high and Mrs. H. O. Simmons low for club members.

Pineapple salad arranged to resemble microphones, sandwiches, and coffee were served to Misses F. H. Meskimen, G. J. Colton, Otto Patton, B. C. Fahy, P. C. Cooksey, Sill, Simmons, Balch, Howell, Appling, Bain, and the hostess.

Awards in the games went to Mrs. R. E. Kolner, Mrs. Wiley B. Pearce, and Mrs. W. B. Stinson of Amarillo, who presented the baskets all to Mrs. Shirley. The bride was also given a huge basket decorated with pink bows and silver bells, filled with packages from a large number of friends.

Couple Marry at Home of Brother

A ring ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Caskey yesterday evening united in marriage Mr. Caskey's sister, Mrs. E. D. Caskey, and H. G. Bennett, of Dallas. E. C. McKenzie, minister of Francis Avenue Church of Christ, read the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett left for a week's trip to Wichita Falls and other cities downstate, and will be at home later at Dunas. The bride for the past three years has been employed by the J. C. Penney company of Amarillo, and Mr. Bennett is county attorney of Moore county.

Mrs. Barton Is Honored After Recent Wedding

Several friends assisted the Friendly Ten Sewing club of Phillips Production camp northeast of the city, in a miscellaneous shower Wednesday honoring Mrs. W. B. Barton, the former Miss Lucille Bell.

The party was held in the home of her sister, Miss Wilma Bell. Games were enjoyed, the most amusing a contest to make three-letter words from letters in the honoree's name.

Mrs. Remo, who received the prize, presented it to Mrs. Barton, as did Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Parker, winners in other games. A number of lovely gifts were presented the bride, including a bedspread from the telephone department of the Phillips company.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Westbrook assisted Miss Bell in entertaining and serving the dinner program and to Mrs. Barton, Jones, Gibson, Howard, and Lewis, club guests. Mrs. Barton, Remo, Stalls, Patterson, H. Gibson, Howe, Romines, Street, Jones, members of the club. Gifts were sent by Misses Calvert, Vaden, Partridge, and McCartney.

Young People to Have Evening at Revival Friday

"The world is full of lies," declared the evangelist, Dr. George Davis last night at First Christian church. That statement will keep ringing out of war. Every war can be traced to the building up of armaments. The thing that is dragging us close to war again is that the nations are building up great armaments.

"Pick up your newspapers and see pictures of beautiful young women smoking cigarettes. Ten years ago it was planned by the tobacco companies to put a cigarette in the mouth of every girl in China. That has almost literally come to pass. This year I saw cartons of whiskey being sent out with pictures of three wise men on them."

Five large delegations were present last night competing for the picture by Howard House. The largest delegation was invited by Mrs. Howell. The picture made last night, "Sunrise Tomorrow" was shared by many to be the best one that Mr. House has made so far in the meeting. This picture will be given away tonight.

The sermon subject tonight will be "Love at First Sight." The crayon picture will be "A Rainbow on the Cloud for You."

Friday night there will be special features for the young people, followed by a social hour at nine o'clock in the church parlors.

2,000 Workers On Bridge Are Doomed, Claim

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—A forecast that few of the 2,000 workers employed on the Gauley Bridge, W. Va., power tunnel would escape death from silos was made to a house labor sub-committee today by Philippe Allen, New York social worker.

She testified she had spent the last four summers at Gauley Bridge studying "what we call the Gauley Bridge tragedy."

"I found," she said, "when I went to Gauley, Bridge men were still dying like flies in 1934. They went to the work because they thought it was steady work at steady wages not involving so many of the hazards of mining."

"There seems little doubt that few out of those employed will escape silicosis."

The social worker said the rock through which was cut No. 1 tunnel for the new Kanawha Power company consisted of 97 to 99.4 percent pure silica and added that "the contractors neglected to provide workmen with any safety devices."

Miss Allen said silica poisoning in the lungs as a result of breathing the dust, was considered by doctors "a lung disease that can't be stopped."

Gotham Is Dark As Power Fails

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—Electric experts worked feverishly today to complete the repair of a mysterious power plant breakdown which in terrifying fashion plunged a million or more New Yorkers into darkness and crippled transportation facilities.

Officials estimated 90,000 persons were caught in the dark labyrinth of one subway system when the power shut-off at the height of last night's rush hour, brought the underground cars to a standstill.

All of Manhattan north of 99th street and most of the Bronx, was affected. Lights in skyscrapers, homes, and hospitals went off. Telephone service was shut down for a time.

Mayor F. H. LaGuardia mobilized 18,000 policemen and 7,000 firemen to clear the street levels and on other subway lines was demoralized. Street lights were extinguished. Surgeons completed operations by flashlight. Profiteers sold candles at 50 cents each.

The power trouble developed from a short circuit in the Bell Gate station of the New York Edison company.

PREDICT CAGE SCORES TONIGHT WILL BE SEPARATED BY ONLY FEW POINTS

SANDIE GRID STARS TO BE SEEN IN TILT

TERRIBLE TURKS ARE GUNNING FOR CITY CAGERS AGAIN

The Harvester basketball team should give a good account of itself tonight in the game here against Panhandle's snarling, revenge-ridden Panthers, simply because it will be one of those "must-win" games that the Pampa cagers cannot afford to lose if they expect to go anywhere in the district tournament here.

The first game between the reserves will start at 7 o'clock, the second at 8 o'clock.

Panhandle and Groom will likely fight it out to represent Carson county in the tournament. The Panhams will enter the game as favorites, largely because they doubled the score on the Panthers early in the season at Panhandle. However, the game was played on the second day of the Panthers' practice. Coach Pat Gerald's quietest is almost certain to make the contest close tonight. It is predicted that no more than two or three points will separate the scores.

Sandies Are Threats

After the Panhandle game, the Harvesters can look forward to their hardest games of the season. They have won 21 games all right, but Coach Odus Mitchell has told them that if they win the next six games they play they will have something to brag about. The first of these five games will be played Saturday night on the local court, and the foe will be the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm.

At center for the Sandies will be Ray Cochran who played on the state championship football team and who is expected to show up in Pampa that he will "show up" Junior Strickland, Pampa's tree-top high-jumping center. Other 1935 footballers on the starting lineup will be Karl Rice, forward; Noble Hargrove and Joe White, guards. Of course, it would be a pleasure for the Harvesters to throw the Sandies for a big loss Saturday night, in view of the Thanksgiving day incident. Amarillo will open the cage season tonight at Berger.

Turkey's Supermen Coming

Highly-rated and skulking like supermen on the horizon are the Terrible Turkey Turks who beat the Harvesters here one point last year and who expect to do it again this year. The Turks will play at Pampa Jan. 23. The Turks are undefeated, having beaten Crowell, perennial district champions.

Here's the sort of news that comes daily from Turkey.

"The Turks went to Matador Tuesday night and trimmed the Matador cagers 32 to 12. The Turks led by Captain Young played steady ball, scoring eight points in each quarter. The score at the end of the first half was 16 to 3. Young was high-point man with 14. Bass, fast guard, had 9. The starters were Young and Bass, forwards; Coker and Yarbrough, guards, and Lipscomb, center, with Hill and Parley as substitutes. Coach Al Duncan expects to have the boys in excellent shape by the 23rd when they go to Pampa. Their next game will be at Crowell."

The note came from Bobby Meacham sports editor of the Turks' Gobbie, school paper.

Ayer's Ankle Injured

After the Turkey invasion, the Harvesters must face Lubbock and Plainview which have the strongest teams in history.

The Harvesters practiced yesterday without the services of Albert Ayer who was unable to run signals and plays because of a sprained ankle. It was not indicated whether he would be able to play tonight, but it was expected that he would see some service.

Basketball Over The Panhandle

LUBBOCK, Jan. 16.—The Lubbock Westerners, already a leg up in the District 1, Class A, or Panhandle League basketball race, make their second road trip of the season Friday when they go to Amarillo to play the Sandies.

Victorious in their league-start, 32 to 31, over the Plainview Bulldogs, the Westerners are considered improved after two more weeks of practice, and enter the Amarillo game a slight favorite over the charges of Coach Howard Lynch.

Coach Keyes has not named his road trip squad, but is expected to take about ten players to Amarillo. The squad is sure to include Murray Venable, Orvalde Oden, C. L. Storrs, Bruce Chant, Otho Upton and Ralph Lettsfield, who have done most of the Westerner playing so far.

Leveland Tournament

LEVELLAND, Jan. 16. (Special)—At least a dozen recognized high school basketball teams of the section will be ready Friday for first round games in the second annual All-West Texas tournament conducted here.

Coach Bill Stevens of Leveland high school, host to the tournament, said that some of the outstanding teams of the section had entered, and that, territorially speaking, it would indeed be a "West Texas" tournament. From Canyon on the north to Snyder south, teams have filed entries.

Stevens said that the tournament would welcome the application today of four additional teams in order to make a complete bracket of 16 for the starting round.

Clubs so far entered are Canyon, Ropesville, Snyder, Abernathy, Shallowater, Morton, Wilson, Spring Lake, Friendship, Whiteface, Brownfield and Leveland.

QUAIL BOYS WIN

QUAIL, Jan. 16.—Last Saturday, the Quail F. A. boys won their first silver loving cup at Clarendon poultry judging contest, which incidentally is the first trophy that has come to the newly consolidated high school since it has been formed. The Quail boys won first place as a team with 899 points against McLean, which placed second with 886. Tulsa was third with 844 and Claude fourth with 834.

E. Palmer of Quail was second high scorer with 307, losing to J. D. Back of McLean by only one point. K. Allen of Quail scored fifth with 300. R. Hooker scored 298, H. Creed 294, and J. Eiland 292. It is indeed an achievement for all five of these Quail boys to score so near the top. These five boys were in the first ten high ranking students in the entire contest.

K. Allen of Quail also was the highest scorer in the American standard of perfection with 100, a perfect score on the 50 questions. J. Eiland of Quail was second on exams with 96 and E. Palmer of Quail was fifth on exam. The Quail team had a total on exam of 288 points out of a possible 300. They also received $2 cash for having the highest team.

SPORT SLANTS

by Pap

The annual national junior and boys' indoor tennis championship tournaments offer a "preview" of possible Davis Cup stars of tomorrow. It is most interesting to watch these youngsters return each year with added experience and size, to grow from the boys' class to the junior group and then on up into the senior ranks.

Take the case of Alfred Jarvis, the new national junior champion. Alfred now is 17 years old and probably the tallest tennis player in the game. Six feet, 4 1/2 inches—and still growing strong. In 1933 Jarvis won the national boys' title and last year moved up into the junior class. He was runner-up to Gilbert A. Hunt Jr., of Washington, then. Last year he returned vastly improved to give an impressive exhibition and defeat the favorite, Donald Leavens of Milwaukee.

He Has the Heart

Jarvis showed enough to make the experts hark back to the golden days of "Big Bill" Tilden. The youngster has the natural build, ability and enthusiasm for tennis. He has plenty of heart, too. It took

Fight Will Be Held On Tomorrow Night

CHICAGO, Jan. 16. (AP)—Joe Louis sat around today waiting for the call to action, while his foe of tomorrow night in the Chicago stadium, Charley Retzlaff, sat and listened to a familiar refrain.

It goes something like this: "The first guy who goes right out there and slugs with Louis will beat him."

Whether there is anything to the advice remains to be determined. The refrain was sung to Primo Carnera, King Levinsky, Max Baer, and Paulino Uzcudun. They either forgot all about it upon taking a look at the Brown Bomber's dead pan or didn't take much stock for none pushed out by slug. What happened to the quartet and a number of others, is well known.

Retzlaff's advisers sought to convince the North Dakota farmer that his only chance with Louis lay in making a fight of it. He, like Louis, was finished today with the physical exams of trainer for the 15-round engagement, but the campaign to get Retzlaff steamed up and keep him that way was to last until fight time.

Both fighters had made the customary pre-battle statements.

"I am ready for Retzlaff," Louis said. "I will be in there to give my best. The quicker I score a knock-out the better I'll like it. What's the use of foolin'? I want to get it over as fast as I can."

Stevens said that the tournament would welcome the application today of four additional teams in order to make a complete bracket of 16 for the starting round.

Clubs so far entered are Canyon, Ropesville, Snyder, Abernathy, Shallowater, Morton, Wilson, Spring Lake, Friendship, Whiteface, Brownfield and Leveland.

LINDSTROM TO PLAY IN 1936 WITH DODGERS

FREDDY EXPECTED TO BE BIG HELP TO BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, Jan. 16. (AP)—The news that Freddy Lindstrom, recently cut adrift by the Chicago Cubs, will play with the Dodgers next season today cast a new light upon Brooklyn's 1936 prospects.

Lindstrom announced at Miami that he had accepted the Brooklyn offer of "within a few dollars" of his Cub salary, and would report at the training camp March 1.

The acquisition of Lindstrom may mean that Jersey Joe Eppard, the useful veteran who has been holding down third base for the Dodgers, is on his way out.

In the infield or outfield, however, Freddy is expected to be a big help to the club. Despite his lower batting average last season, he is regarded as a more dependable hitter than Stripp and due for a comeback this year.

Although just about as useful as an outfielder, Lindy seems slated for third. The Dodgers have plenty of good-looking outfield material to jolt last year's lineup, including Oscar Eckhardt, leading Coast League batter, Johnny Cooney, Buster Mills, and Gene Moore.

Except for Sam Leslie, who may yet be sold or traded, the infield is youth with Jimmy Bucher or Vince Sherlock on second and Linus Frey short.

In Casey Stengel, Lindstrom also can expect to find a sympathetic manager. Casey still can remember when he was suddenly traded by the Giants after swatting his way to world series heroism in 1924.

RUPPERT WILL NOT PAY HIGH FOR PLAYERS

SAYS HALF MILLION IS TOO MUCH FOR MYER

BY ALAN GOULD.

Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16. (AP)—There may be additional bartering in major league baseball "ivory" before the boys start ganging up in Florida for the coming season but it's a far market from now on, with no bargains in sight.

The tipoff today is that Colonel Jacob Ruppert, perhaps the wealthiest owner in the major leagues, has paid millions for the players who helped produce seven pennant winning clubs in a dozen seasons. The deal for Babe Ruth in 1919 alone involved close to $500,000, including a mortgage on Red Sox property.

"It isn't that we are not willing to pay high for what we want," explained the colonel, "but the other fellows seem to think that I've got a lot of extra money to burn since prohibition ended. Why, I'd go broke if I paid some of the prices they have asked for ball players."

It was assumed that the colonel referred to the $500,000 asked for Ruddy Myer, American league batting champion and infield star, by Owner Clark Griffith of the Washington club. Ruppert reportedly declined to pay a proportionately heavy price for Frank (Pinky) Higgins, star third sacker of the Athletics.

Higgins—also Wally Moses, sensational young outfielder of the A's—yet made up with the Yankees, but only if Connie Mack compromises on the price or the colonel goes the limit.

The Yankees virtually were boycotted in the big league player markets after capturing six pennants in eight years under Miller Huggins. But now other American league club owners, fearing the effects of a turbulent slump in the Yankee stadium, trade willingly.

Hauptmann Son Is Brought to Prison

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 16. (AP)—Manfred, the small son of Bruno Richard Hauptmann, was brought to Trenton during the night to remain here until after the hour set for the execution of his father for the Lindbergh baby murder.

Mrs. Hauptmann went to the prison this morning for another visit—perhaps her last—with Hauptmann, but she did not take the child with her. Hauptmann told her yesterday: "I do not want to see the baby here. I will see him somewhere else."

WHEELER WINS 17TH GAME OF CAGE SEASON FROM BRISCOE

WHEELER, Jan. 15.—The Wheeler Mustangs played their 17th game of the season here last night in defeating Briscoe, 38 to 19. The team has lost only four games this season and is perched on the top of the district race, having lost only a single game, to Mobeetie.

Shamrock and Magic City have forfeited their games to the Mustangs which leaves only four more conference games to be played, two with Lela and two with Keilon.

Three members of the Mustangs have been lost to Coach Bob Clark, one by graduation and two through scholarship difficulties. Curtis Weeks graduated at mid-term.

The present squad is composed of Conner, Cain, Ford, Pace, Jolley, Norman, Young, Tillman, Weeks, Page.

The Mustangs and Cowgirls will meet the Lela teams at 7 o'clock Thursday night in the new Wheeler gymnasium. The Cowgirls defeated Briscoe last night after dropping a game to them in the Wheeler tournament.

The Wheeler football banquet will be held on the night of Jan. 30. A captain for 1936 will be selected at that time. Prospects for a strong team are bright, according to Coach Clark.

BIG SPRING MAKES STRONG PROTEST AGAINST TRANSFER

AUSTIN, Jan. 16. (AP)—The executive committee of the University of Texas Interscholastic League will meet Jan. 20 for a final decision on a proposal to redistrict schools in the league's class A football championship race.

The committee considered the plan yesterday in a closed session after hearing objections from school representatives and voted to defer action until all members could be present. Only five of the nine members attended. Schools were requested to file supplemental briefs and arguments before next Monday.

Strong protest was made by Big Spring against placement in the Amarillo district, officials stating they preferred to remain in their present district or go in the "oil belt" district.

Denison, Gainesville, Sherman, Denton, Highland Park and McKinney, all members of the present district No. 6, protested against transfer of three of their members to district No. 7.

Under the redistricting plan Denison, Gainesville and Sherman, with Bonham and Paris would constitute district No. 6 and Denton, Highland Park and McKinney would be placed with Greenville and Sulphur Springs in district No. 7.

Cleburne requested transfer from district No. 11 to district No. 4, the Fort Worth grouping, but E. S. Farrington, Fort Worth director of physical education, opposed the change, saying the district would be increased soon by addition of Riverside high school and could not conveniently take another team.

Temple proposed that Bryan be replaced in district No. 11 with Mexia, scheduled to continue in district No. 10.

Roy B. Henderson, executive secretary of the league, said Goose Creek probably would be placed in district No. 13 with Beaumont, Port Arthur and Galveston instead of in the Houston district as originally intended.

Counties Agree On Dust Program

AMARILLO, Jan. 16. (AP)—County judges and agricultural agents of nine Texas counties have a program today to present to a five-state "dust bowl" committee here Saturday.

The officials of the nine counties approved at a meeting yesterday a cooperative agreement suggested by the Texas extension service and the soil conservation service calling for the hiring of an assistant farm agent to direct conservation work. They also approved a proposed survey of erosion conditions, and suggested that if any loan or grant is made to farmers to carry out soil conservation, it be handled by county organizations already set up and made on the condition that practices advocated by the soil conservation service be followed.

The nine counties are Deaf Smith, Oldham, Hartley, Daliam, Moore, Sherman, Ochiltree, and Lipscomb. Each has created a district conservation district and is using re-eroded state taxes to combat soil blowing. Parker Hanna, district agricultural agent, said the program may be expanded to take in all the area affected by wind erosion.

Horned Frogs With One Win Take Lead

(By The Associated Press.)

Texas Christian, which got off to a late start due to the prolongation of its football season, was alone today in the 1,000 per cent class in the Southwest conference basketball race.

T. C. U. has played but one game so far, winning that from another related starter, Southern Methodist, last Saturday. The Horned Frogs took the lead by default last night when Rice Institute and Southern Methodist toppled the favored Arkansas Razorbacks and University of Texas Longhorns from the ranks of the undefeated.

The tall Porkers from the Ozarks seemed headed for the conference title after their 33-26 victory over the Rice Owls at Houston Tuesday, but last night the Owls, with a whirlwind second half rally, gave their hopes a jolt by winning, 35-29. Rice was one point behind at half-time, but "Spot" Owen and Harry Witt each caged a pair of baskets in the second half and inspired their teammates to help them score 11 more points.

S. M. U. led the Longhorns 17 to 13 at half-time in the game at Austin, but in the closing seconds of the second half the University of Texas five came from behind to tie the score at 25-all.

In the first of two overtime periods, Blanton sent the Mustangs into the lead with a long shot, but a free throw by Taylor and a field goal and free throw by Butler put Texas ahead. Then, with less than a minute to play, Tipton tied the score again with a field goal.

Texas jumped into the lead in the next period, but Bellamy, Mustang guard, evened things with a shot going away from the basket, then scored the winning field goal. Blanton took scoring honors with five field goals and four free throws.

WHEELER WINS 17TH GAME OF CAGE SEASON FROM BRISCOE

WHEELER, Jan. 15.—The Wheeler Mustangs played their 17th game of the season here last night in defeating Briscoe, 38 to 19. The team has lost only four games this season and is perched on the top of the district race, having lost only a single game, to Mobeetie.

Shamrock and Magic City have forfeited their games to the Mustangs which leaves only four more conference games to be played, two with Lela and two with Keilon.

Three members of the Mustangs have been lost to Coach Bob Clark, one by graduation and two through scholarship difficulties. Curtis Weeks graduated at mid-term.

SOLONS FIGHT SHY OF MORE TAX SCHEMES

BONUS BILL WILL ADD TWO BILLIONS TO PUBLIC DEBT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Despite the gaping holes torn in the Roosevelt budget there was little disposition on capitol hill today to provide new taxes at this session unless the administration demands them.

Within ten days, developments have arisen that threaten to knock the Roosevelt fiscal program from $2,500,000,000 to $3,500,000,000 out of the AAA decision by the Supreme Court left huge gaps in revenue and congressional plans for paying the bonus would add to the expense. More damage to the president's estimates may be forthcoming later.

But administration leaders on the hill remain non-committal over the prospect of new taxes, or go further and forecast there will be none except to finance a new farm plan. Opposition forces are critical, but are not yet demanding new taxes.

Determination of the tax question depends to a large extent upon administration plans for a new farm program. It is generally believed by members of congress that this will involve new taxes, and that they may to some extent cover up the hole in the budget created by the Supreme Court's AAA decision.

Administration chiefs have taken the position the bonus will not require new taxes. They have worked out a system for paying the veterans which they contend will slow down the demands on the treasury.

Other legislators say the proposal of that, the bonus bill, if it passes in its present form, will cost more than $2,200,000,000 to the public debt.

COURT OUTWARDLY UNRUFFLED BY CLAMOR OVER DECISIONS

BY ALEXANDER GEORGE.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Seemingly oblivious of the clamor created by its invalidation of AAA and other "new deal" measures, the supreme court of the United States moves serenely from case to case in the most momentous session since the time of its Dred Scott decision.

Still cloaked in the tradition of great power, preeminent integrity and detachment from political squabble, the "nine old men in black" continue to function in a mysterious atmosphere of aloofness despite their prominent position in the national spotlight.

While the justices in their fateful roles as "guardians of the constitution," personally abstract justice beyond the realm of ordinary political or personal influence, they remain quite responsive to ordinary human impulses even in their attitude toward their work.

"Privately Interested."
Veteran court observers say that a number of the present members of the court have privately manifested intense interest in the reaction of the public to their decisions in important cases and in the various suggestions for curbing their power or changing the status of the court in the American scheme of government.

Justices have asked friends confidentially about "outside" appraisal of opinions they personally had written and they privately have explained and defended their positions on various questions of broad public interest.

But the court remains a sanctuary of great privacy, and for 18 years there apparently never has been a "leak" as to a decision to be returned. In 1918, a law clerk of a justice and an employee of the department of justice were dismissed from the government service after there had been allegations someone had been "tipping off" court opinions to certain parties in New York City.

Monday Is "Opinion Day."
The opinions are known to the law clerks of the justices and to a

FARM PARLEY TO 'BLOW UP' SAY LEADERS

DISSENSION AMONG ITS MEMBERS GROWING DAY BY DAY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Flat predictions that the national agricultural conference would "blow up" were heard among men high in its councils today as the five major farm groups composing it met to discuss a substitute for AAA.

These organizations, which leaders say represent 3,000,000 American farmers, originally planned to meet here for unified action to offset the Supreme Court's invalidation of AAA. Their session was superseded by Secretary Wallace's conference of 100 invited agriculturists who last week unanimously adopted principles for reviving crop control on the basis of subsidized soil conservation.

Since then a majority of the senate agricultural committee, following the lead of Senator Norris (R., Neb.), have expressed fear that proposed re-adoption of AAA principles might fail in a constitutional test.

The national Grange immediately seized the opportunity to declare publicly for a "permanent and constitutional" national farm program. It drafted a 10-point platform emphasizing export subsidies and tariffs to exclude the competition of foreign farm products in American markets.

Almost simultaneously the National cooperative council, another extremely individualistic member of the national agricultural conference, declared for the strengthening of marketing agreements as the foundation of a new farm economy.

The American Farm Bureau federation, largest and wealthiest member of the conference, reiterated its determination to support the administration's plan to make additional benefit payments to farmers who cooperated in a program of balanced production.

The National Grain corporation was reported in step with the government plan to supplant "purchased compliance" with "rewarded performance" as a constitutional basis for continuing the principles of AAA.

So far a conference holdout, the militant Farmers union clamored for a cost of production program the American Agricultural Editors association, completing the conference membership, had not announced its position as the meeting convened.

Fundamentally, each separate unit of the conferees reverted to its historic policies and privately expressed determination to be guided by them now that the whole question of federal farm aid seems to have been reopened.

Predictions the conference would "blow up" were based on the mounting evidence of dissension among its members and the fact that conference by-laws require unanimous approval or complete discard of any action brought before the organization.

Washington printing firm which has been handling them on a confidential basis for about 35 years, but outsiders (and the term includes the president of the United States) do not have an inkling of their nature.

Monday is "opinion day" of the court but on what Monday a particular opinion will be handed down is never definitely known even by the press. The "biggest" opinion may be the last of a hatch handed down on a given Monday. Seniority is reversed in the order of presentation, the youngest justices with opinions to read being heard first regardless of the relative importance of the various cases.

If Chief Justice Hughes is one of the majority in a case which has been decided, he designates the justice who will prepare the opinion if he does not do it himself. The justice on the minority side who ranks senior in service chooses the justice who will present the dissenting opinion.

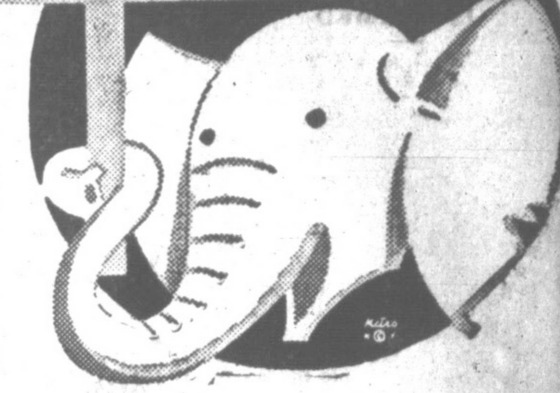

Effort To Be Unanimous.
Particular effort is made to reach a common ground upon which a unanimous decision can be based. The court regards a 5 to 4 verdict as unfortunate since the almost unanimous opinion tends to diminish the strength of the court's verdict and its prestige as the supreme arbiter of the nation.

Chief Justice Hughes, long famed for his celerity of mind, has speeded up the processes of the court. He himself can turn out an opinion very rapidly and is particularly adept in assisting counsel before the court to get down quickly to the "meat" of their contentions. Associate Justices Roberts, Stone, Cardozo and Butler also are rated fast in preparing opinions.

With its session, the court sits daily, excepting Saturday and Sunday from noon until 4:30 with a half-hour off for lunch. The justices have luxuriously comfortable chambers and conference rooms and a well-equipped library in the new palatial building but they do a large share of their work in private offices at their homes.

FIRST CLUES ARE FOUND IN PLANE WRECK

BODIES OF DEAD ARE ROBBED; INDICATOR IS JAMMED

GOODWIN, Ark., Jan. 16 (AP)—Investigators dug a jammed speed indicator today from the muddy swamp where 17 persons died in the crash of a luxury airliner and thereby found their first clue to the cause of the nation's worst plane travel disaster.

The official inquiry, headed by Eugene L. Vidal, assistant secretary of commerce for aeronautics, must depend on mute evidence to fix the cause of "The Southerner's" plunge Tuesday night.

None aboard the giant plane when it ripped down into the wooded Arkansas swamp was left alive.

The pitifully torn bodies of the four women, 12 men and a child were being returned to their families today while state Rangers stood guard over the twisted wreckage to prevent further looting.

The air speed indicator, jammed at 180 miles an hour—nearly three times the plane's landing speed—was enigma as well as clue. With it buried deep in the mud, were found the ignition switches, which were on, and the switch controlling the landing lights. It was off.

The big twin-motored Douglas had a top speed of about 200 miles, cruised at 180-190 and landed at 65-70. Thus if the broken instrument showed the speed at the time of impact, "The Southerner" was thundering along at full cruising speed when it smashed into the trees.

Vidal, dispatched by Secretary of Commerce Roper to head the official inquiry, will act with five others in efforts to fix the cause.

Other members of the board were Major R. W. Schroeder of the department of commerce; Colonel Harold L. Hartney, technical adviser to the senate committee on aviation; Lake Littlejohn, air line inspector at Little Rock; B. M. Jacobs, Chicago inspector; and J. B. Jones, Fort Worth inspector.

The unofficial theories on the tragedy were:

1. Shortly after the "all well" sent from 2,000 feet at 7:15 o'clock Tuesday night some mechanical trouble developed swiftly. Pilot Jerry Marshall came down and was heading for an open water-covered rice field some 200 yards from the crash spot when the ship was dragged down by the trees.

2. Through some unexplained failure of mechanical aids he was unaware that he was so close to the ground and tore into the trees at full speed with no previous warning of the peril.

The jammed speed indicator and the fact the landing light switches were off lent support to the theory that the ship crashed without warning. It was argued, however, that the speed indicator and switches might have been shifted by the impact.

The distance the plane traveled through the trees—about 350 yards—after it first began hitting them was cited by some as indication that the ship was flying at high speed and in a nearly horizontal plane at the time of accident.

State Rangers watched near the wrecked ship to prevent parts of the plane being removed by thousands of sightseers who flocked to the area.

What Future Students Will Be up Against

The Rangers were sent to the scene after reports that clothing of one or more of the victims had been looted.

V. L. Pray, federal revenue officer stationed at Forrest city, said that robbery of the victims started soon after the wreckage was discovered. He said he saw an unidentified man seize what appeared to be a roll of bills from the pocket of one of the mangled passengers and flee.

"I would have shot at him but I was afraid of hitting someone else in the dark," Pray said.

The discovery of empty pocketbooks on the ground was reported by other officers.

pressions. Politicians for generations have been making promises. The Townsend group promises so much that the politicians must either get on the Townsend bandwagon or fight it. We find many of them going one way and many the other.

The strength of the Townsend movement, which is becoming well-organized, is beginning to astonish national leaders. While most of them think it will run its course and leave adherents wiser and somewhat sadder, they concede that it will be a factor in many sectional races. The current issue of the magazine claims that all parties are losing followers to the Townsend plan. It claims that believers in reduction of production are turning to the Townsend theory of increasing production and distribution. The support now shown by the plan shows definitely that its appeal as an economic panacea far outweighs any sentimental appeal it has as aid for the aged. As an economic theory, it appeals to all ages who hope for an economic Santa Claus as an aid pension plan. It offers to help the aged as a means to an end. The new deal pension plan is referred to as a pouper aid system.

MORGAN

United States broke off diplomatic relations February 3 and declared war April 6.

Evidence of Lansing's position was read into the record during questioning of J. P. Morgan and his partners. It immediately renewed controversy between the Morgan group and the senate committee on whether submarines or allied trade forced the United States into the war, dated January 4, 1917, said:

"Lansing besides the president to press the submarine issue and to send Bernstorff home. He has written the president a note urging him to take a firm stand. He believes the president will not do this as the president told him the other day that he did not believe the people of the United States were willing to go to war because a few Americans had been killed."

Jack Vances Will Move To Houston

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vance and two sons will leave tomorrow for Houston where they will make their future home. Mr. Vance is being transferred to the Houston office of the Frick-Reid Supply corporation after being in the Pampa branch for nearly six years. His place here will be taken by R. E. Dowell of Wichita, Kan. Mrs. Dowell and children will not move to Pampa until after school year. Robert McCoy, Jr., of Tulsa, has been here for a few days.

A. E. Vance of LeFors transferred business in Pampa this morning.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Jan. 16 (AP)—Utilities, coppers, steels and a number of specialties stiffened a rather characterless stock market at the finish today.

Oils lost their recent leadership as profit-takers got to work. Communications issues were active and higher. American Telephone advanced sharply to a new high for 1935-36. The closing tone was steady. Transfers totaled around 3,000,000 shares.

Republican Chief Has Radio Fixed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16 (AP)—A pleasant interlude in Henry P. Fletcher's argument with the broadcasting chains occurred today, Columbia Broadcasting system sent an engineer around to the republican national chairman's home to repair his radio set so he could pick up anti-new deal programs better.

And the engineer, of all people, was Clyde Hunt, who handles all of President Roosevelt's broadcasts.

A local Columbia official learned that Fletcher, chairman of the republican national committee, could get nothing but dance tunes when he tried to listen to the anti-new deal sketch, "Liberty at the Crossroads," Tuesday night. The sketch was broadcast from an independent Chicago station after Columbia and National Broadcasting companies had banned it.

"I understand," he said, "that you couldn't pick up Chicago with your set."

"No," replied Fletcher, "I couldn't. It must not be much of a set," suggested the Columbia man.

"That's wrong," said Fletcher, "it's a good one."

"Then it must be broken. How'd you like someone to fix it, someone who really know how?" Fletcher said he thought that would be fine.

He said the "lack of a treaty will not necessarily result in a construction race, but if it does come the Japanese navy has planned counter measures."

The statement argued that America's frequent efforts to restrain Japanese expansion by means of naval conference demonstrated "a distinct distaste for actual naval competition."

It also contended that America's advantage in wealth over Japan has been greatly exaggerated, and that United States wealth has been much diminished by successive depressions.

Mrs. Hauptmann Sees Husband in Death Cell Today

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 16 (AP)—Anna Hauptmann today saw her husband, perhaps for the last time alive, and came from the death house far from hopeless and far from any demonstration of grief.

"I am sure the state will not take the life of an innocent man," she said. "I am hopeful, and so is Richard."

"Richard seemed actually happy when I told him our son, Manfred, was here in Trenton. But I won't take the baby to see him. Richard and I decided he should never see this place (the prison)."

"I didn't ask for permission to see him again today."

This statement was considered significant of her confidence that he would not be electrocuted tomorrow night for the Lindbergh baby murder, since prison authorities said yesterday that Mrs. Hauptmann would not be permitted to see the condemned man after today if the execution should be as scheduled.

"Most of our conversation was about the baby," she said.

"I have not seen Governor Hoffman, and have no present plans to ask to see him."

"If you know anything about a reprieve being granted, you know more than I do."

The baby was brought from New York during the night and is staying at a hotel with his mother.

HAUPTMANN

Col. H. Norman Schwartzkopf, head of the New Jersey state police, and Lewis J. Valentine, New York city commissioner of police. The purpose of the conference was not disclosed.

Hoover said he was unable to throw any light on any confession Hoffman might have.

Governor Hoffman's press aide, William Conklin, after saying the governor had no knowledge of a confession, added that the governor had yet made no decision as to a reprieve.

Before the governor also was a new affidavit by Samuel Small, a professional penman of New York, to the effect that Hauptmann "could not possibly have written" the ransom notes which were a great factor in the conviction of the Bronx carpenter at his trial at Flemington.

Small drew his conclusion from general methods of writing.

Another governor, Horner of Illinois, came into the case today. Chicago advices said that Governor Horner was looking into the story of a Chicago Bridewell prisoner that he had been offered $22,000 worth of the Lindbergh ransom money at 40 cents on the dollar, and that he had taken some and distributed it "here and there."

PROBE TO LONGVIEW

LONGVIEW, Jan. 16 (AP)—The oil investigating committee of the Texas house of representatives moved to Longview today to inquire into gasoline tax bond practices of refineries. "A refinery can operate 50 days on a $25,000 bond before making a report, then declare itself out of business and out of tax money," said Chairman Augustine Celaya. "All the state can do is collect the $25,000 bond."

Woman Guilty of Kidnaping Hubby

PORT WORTH, Jan. 16 (AP)—Mrs. Estelle Crum stood convicted today of kidnaping her estranged husband, Harvey Crum.

She was jailed last night pending a ruling by Judge Willis McGregor on a motion for a new trial after a district court jury brought in its verdict, assessing a sentence of five years in the penitentiary. She had been free under bond.

Crum testified he was held prisoner, tied to a bed, and alternately whipped and threatened until he signed a quit-claim deed to certain property.

Four other persons are under indictment in the case. They are Mrs. Maurine Hyde, Milton Adams, Billie Farish, and Celeste Adams.

Mrs. A. E. Sitor underwent an operation at Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

RIPLING WORSE

LONDON, Jan. 16 (AP)—Rudyard Kipling lost today some of the ground he had gained toward recovery from the emergency operation he underwent Monday for a perforated stomach ulcer. "Kipling's condition is not quite so satisfactory this morning and still gives rise to great anxiety," said a bulletin.

J. E. Tillery was able to leave Pampa-Jarratt hospital this morning.

INTERNATIONAL BANKER M'WHUFFLE BARES ALL

Mr. Eustace McWhuffle, the eminent international banker, took the witness stand before the Senate Munitions Committee and testified with great frankness. His words were as follows:

"Yes, I am the man who financed the allied powers in the World War, and I made a very good thing out of it indeed."

To begin with, I loaned the allies enormous sums of money. For making these loans, I collected the customary banker's commission—and if you don't believe that it was a handsome one, I'll show you the figures.

"Then I acted as purchasing agent for the spending of the money thus loaned. In all, some three billions were spent. For the spending of it I naturally collected the customary agent's commission—which, like the other commission, was a handsome one."

"On top of that, I bought a $360,000,000 piece of the factories from which these purchases were made. So, naturally enough, I collected the dividends which these purchases made possible. Need I say that they, too, were right handsome?"

"Of course I believed heart and soul in the allied cause. From the very first my partners and I were determined to help the allied nations in every way we could. That we were well paid for our attitude is only incidental."

"The work that we did built up an unparalleled prosperity in the United States. Every farmer, every worker, and every business man had a direct interest in seeing the allied nations win the war—for if they lost, this great burst of prosperity would be painfully and swiftly deflated, although I might add that my loans were safe enough."

"That being the case, need I say that I never asked the American government to go to war, back there in the spring of 1917? Bless you, I didn't need to."

"Somehow, all this money that was being tossed around just sort of seeped into every compartment of American life. When the pinch came there wasn't any question about what the government would do. Money talks, without any prompting."

Of course, Mr. McWhuffle is a character of the imagination and nothing like the above discourse was ever heard, for no international banker would be as frank as Mr. McWhuffle; but if you read the current dispatches from Washington carefully you will see that they are frank enough to give you a pretty clear picture of the way in which we let our neutrality collapse, 20 years ago.

We let ourselves become banker, granary, and workshop for the allied nations. We sold them anything and everything they wanted to buy. In the end, naturally enough, we sold ourselves right down the river.—B. C.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Jan. 16. (AP)—The democratic donkey kicked up its heels at the Jackson dinner here.

The reception committee made preparations for 500 guests but about 700 came and the hotel management was hard put to find steaks for all.

Mayor Tom Miller sounded the keynote with the declaration that a lot of talk had been heard about the warlike destruction of hogs but there was still enough bacon to encircle a filet mignon.

Veteran politicians and other wise ones came early and chose seats near the elevators.

When the crush became so great waiters could not get between the tables some food for the unfortunate in the center of the hall had to be passed hand to hand and the good pickers had all the advantage.

"I thought that $4 of the $5 plate was to go to the national committee and $1 for our grub," said one hungry man. "As far as I'm concerned the committee got it all."

Gov. Allred had gone to Nashville, Tenn. for a similar dinner and Gov. Paul V. McNutt of Indiana was the guest speaker here.

One aspirant for governorship honors was greeted with some hand-clapping and backslapping. He was Senator Roy Sanderford of Belton, recently announced candidate.

"Come right in, Governor! Howdy, Governor!" and similar calls met him as he entered the hall.

Gov. McNutt is no stranger in Texas. He was stationed at San Antonio during his world war training days and has made frequent trips to the state since.

Moreover, he told the democrats to applaud. "I met the woman who presides over my destinies in Texas," Mrs. McNutt was a San Antonio girl.

Gov. McNutt's speech, dealing for the most part with achievements of President Roosevelt and the Democratic party, was written before the Supreme Court decapitated the agricultural adjustment program, but despite the changed situation, "stood up" well.

The governor merely added extemporaneously that the decision should not be taken to mean that "the American government as now constituted cannot serve these people through another method."

OUT OUR WAY ----- By WILLIAMS

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON.—Along with its other troubles, the administration must certainly face a battle over relief in this session of Congress.

Its program apparently isn't meeting the problem. Surveys by the American Conference of Mayors, the International City Managers' Association, and national welfare groups all show that the plan to put the "employables" on WPA work relief and the "unemployables" on local direct relief without federal aid just isn't working out.

About a million "employables" haven't been covered by WPA, although that federal agency has about reached its quota of 3,500,000 put at work, it is estimated by Paul V. Better, secretary of the mayors' organization, on the basis of partial results of a survey covering 188 cities and 48 states.

That would mean a load of from three to four million men, women, and children on community direct-relief facilities which was not contemplated in Roosevelt's work-relief program.

Nearly all city officials insist they can't handle that added load. A few say they can get by if the federal government will do its promised part. Others say they can't handle their "unemployables" even if PWA does take over the rest.

Few realize it, but the $1,082,000,000 allotted to PWA will be about gone by April and Harry Hopkins will need about half a billion more if the program is to carry through the fiscal year to July.

Some or all of this may be snatched from other allotments from the $4,000,000,000 work-relief fund.

Meanwhile, WPA has no intention of expanding its program to take in the "uncovered" employables. Like many of the Community Chests at this time, it figures its money will run out all too soon. Anyway, there's no other explanation of why it insists on counting in 500,000 CCC workers among its 2,500,000 instead of adding another half-million of bonafide employables now on relief.

Another year of WPA, employing 3,500,000 would cost about two billion dollars. The demand for further federal aid, both for the present fiscal year and next, may be effective enough to spoil Roosevelt's budget dreams even more than the AAA ruling did.

Notes while gazing in great fascination at Mr. J. P. Morgan before the Senate Munitions Committee: Still reminding you of a great big nice old papa bear, Mr. Morgan—his large bald dome fringed with gray, his black bushy eyebrows and his hook pipe—seems to be having fun as his huge frame shakes in frequent chorles. He has an almost English accent. Partner Tom Lamont, impeccably dressed, with what looks like an honest Irish face, and quick to explain everything in the most innocent possible way. Partner George Whitney, always managing to look elegantly bored even when tense. Partner Russell Leffingwell, tucked away behind marble pillars with the Morgan lawyer, John W. Davis, who presumably avoids the spotlight lest his many cases against New Deal laws be tied in too closely (in popular imagination) to his Morgan connection. Great host of Morgan partners, clerks, lawyers, bodyguards (six), and other retainers. Also one spots six Secret Service men and a couple of "G-men."

"Lindbergh seeks peace in England." And if he stumbles upon it, won't John Bull's face be red!

"Charley Retzjaff to go 15 rounds with Joe Louis." As Hashimura Togo would say, Retzjaff.

LAMP POST CARTOONING

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Norman Rockwell, the artist, depends on a lamp post when he's stuck for an idea for a cartoon.

First he draws the post on a blank sheet of paper. Then he sits and looks at it.

Pretty soon a sailor passes the post, or maybe a drunk," he said. "The sailor may carry me out to sea or the drunk may suggest a 'Sweet Adeline' quartet. One thing leads to another until I get a usable idea."

SCOUT NEWS

In one of the most elaborate and impressive Boy Scout ceremonies ever held in the Adobe Walls section, the 1935 charter was presented to troop 80 at the First Methodist church last night. At the same time credentials were presented to troop committeemen, scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster.

Lloyd B. O'Neal, deputy regional executive for Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, presented the charter to R. S. McConnell, chairman of the troop committee. Mr. O'Neal was introduced by the Rev. W. C. House pastor. The national council representative explained the organization and needs of local and national scouting to the large crowd. More than 30 boys and about 75 parents and members of the church were present.

Mr. McConnell accepted the charter, and delivered his charge to the scouts and their leaders. He outlined the duties of the scoutmaster, scout committee, and scoutmaster's council. Mr. Clark, scoutmaster, gave them their certificates. Mr. Clark also administered the vows of their officers.

The scoutmaster then mentioned that Troop 80 was the oldest troop in the city, and had more eagle scouts in its records than any troop in the council. Prolonged applause was given Mrs. L. H. Sullins who accepted the annual re-registration certificates for the 12 and national eagle scout, and now a student at Texas Tech. Sheriff Earl Talley was also present to accept the certificate of his son, Robert (Buck) Talley, Texas university student, and an Eagle scout. The mention of his name was also given.

The Tenderfoot candle ceremony followed. The room was placed in total darkness. The scoutmaster followed by the assistant scoutmaster, Claude Roberts, and the Senior Patrol Leader, Travis Lively each held one of the 12 candles on a table on the stage and repeated and explained a scout law. Nineteen Tenderfoot scouts then marched to the stage, one behind the other, and repeated and explained a Scout law. After this the lights were turned on and the scoutmaster, assistant scoutmaster and patrol leader presented certificates and badges to the boys, each scout dropping out of line one pace and saluting while Mr. Roberts gave him his certificate and the scout handclasp. Travis Lively then pinned the badge on each boy.

At the close of the ceremony the Scouts and the audience, led by Travis Lively, gave the pledge of allegiance to the flag which has been brought into the room and placed on the stage when the Scouts marched into the room. The color-guard, Dr. Doyle and the band, led by Charles Shelton, preceded the boys to the Scout room in the church where the regular meeting was held. The scout benediction, led by Mr. Clark closed the meeting. The troop will meet next week on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Tenderfoot scouts who were given certificates and badges were Bill Coons, Jack Croft, Ed Terrell, Aubrey Green, Jr., Joe Crisler, Geo. Guthrie, J. J. Howard, Maxie Lee Roland, Everett Westbrook, Francis "Swind" Johnson, Schwind, Ray Boyles, G. V. Patterson, Norvel Hughes.

Second class Scouts: Charles Shelton, D.yle Auld.

Star scout, Travis Lively.

62 PER CENT OF NATION IS AGAINST FOR

SO SAYS FINAL VOTE OF DIGEST'S NEW DEAL POLL

More than three of every five voters are opposed to the new deal according to the final report of The Literary Digest's nationwide poll, which is tabulated in the current issue of the magazine.

A grand total of 1,907,681 ballots are reported received of which 37.34 per cent voted "yes" and 62.66 per cent voted "no" in answer to the question: "Do you now approve the acts and policies of the Roosevelt 'new deal' to date?"

The tally shows a complete count of 1,195,313 voters opposed to the new deal while 712,369 cast affirmative votes, making a majority of 482,945 against the administration's acts and policies.

Utah and eleven southern and border states give a final verdict in favor of the new deal, while the other thirty-six states register majorities against it.

A possibly close vote is indicated in only five states and all others give over a 55 per cent majority for or against the new deal.

Twenty-two states representing more than half the population of the United States and casting 280 of the 351 electoral votes give a final majority of more than 60 per cent against the new deal in the poll. Eight states, all in the south and representing 96 electoral votes, cast approximately the same ratio in support of the administration's policies.

The balloting in support of the new deal has shown a steady decline each week since the first report of the poll was published.

In a similar poll conducted by The Literary Digest eighteen months ago "to practically the same list of names" the final return then was 61.15 per cent in support of the new deal which reverses the outcome of the present referendum virtually a complete reversal of public opinion as gauged by unofficial referendums.

The heaviest negative vote of the country as a section is registered by New England where the anti-new deal vote is 77.98 per cent of the total.

Next heaviest in the balloting against the administration's policies is the Middle Atlantic group, from New York to West Virginia, where the new deal opposition is shown polling a 68.89 per cent vote.

The Middle Western States in the farm belt indicate a ratio approximately the same as the nation at large, 3 to 2 against.

The Rocky Mountain States show a final vote also of 3 to 2 opposed and the three states on the Pacific coast total 58.04 per cent against the new deal.

"The country's answer to the question what it thinks of the new deal today is supplied in the final report of The Literary Digest's great 1935-'36 poll," the magazine states in its current issue.

"The intense, country-wide interest in this latest Literary Digest test of public sentiment is emphasized by the hearty response from every state, every city and town, and every rural district.

"More than 1,907,000 voters, representing a huge cross-section of America, join in giving the verdict on New Deal acts and policies.

"A national jury weighing the question propounded by The Literary Digest, they recorded their opinions by secret post-card ballots."

"Week by week their hundreds of thousands of votes piled up at poll headquarters while suspense over the final outcome increased.

"Now the last of the jurors has been heard from and, in this, the ninth and final report of the poll, the verdict is returned.

"The verdict will be considered by many a startling reversal in public sentiment since 1934. The poll will be challenged and indexed, denounced and praised, according to viewpoint.

JAPAN DENIES INTENTIONS OF STARTING RACE

JAP DELEGATES WALK OUT OF PARLEY AT LONDON

By LLOYD LEHRBAS
(Copyright, 1936, by The Associated Press)

LONDON, Jan. 16.—Japan disavowed today any intention of precipitating a costly competition in fleet construction, despite its historic self-elimination from international naval affairs.

While its withdrawal from the five-power naval conference was being communicated officially to the delegates and the other four powers drafted plans to continue their efforts to achieve fleet limitations Japan's chief delegate, Admiral Osami Nagano, announced:

"Japan has no intention of engaging in a naval race, despite the absence of a limitation agreement, and I sincerely hope no competition in building of warships will develop between Japan and the United States."

William Phillips, United States undersecretary of state, also decided to leave after today's session of the depleted conference, to catch the liner Manhattan for home and deliver a first-hand report of the developments to President Roosevelt.

Admiral Nagano announced his delegation's bolt from the conference in an official statement last night, but the other delegates' first formal information of the move was contained in a Japanese note to Viscount Monell, first lord of the British admiralty.

The conference was called to reconvene today to hear this communication.

Delegates and experts of the United States, Britain, France and Italy decided then to survey the wreckage of the conference, caused by the Japanese withdrawal, and to determine their next move in an attempt to reach a fleet limitations agreement on a four-power basis.

"Tobacco Road" Is Coming January 22

AMARILLO, Jan. 16.—Reservations are being received from every section of the southwest for "Tobacco Road," which will be presented here next Wednesday night, January 22, in municipal auditorium.

Because the company will arrive here late, the curtain on the first act will not go up until 8:45 o'clock. Mail orders for tickets are being filled by Miss Lois Black at the News-Globe office in Amarillo. The prices range from 55 cents to $2.20.

Seats in the first parquet and boxes are $2.20; in the second parquet and loges, $1.65; in the balcony, $1.10 and 55 cents.

Stamped, self-addressed envelopes should accompany mail orders so tickets may be returned to avoid a wait at the box office.

"Tobacco Road" is the much discussed, much publicized play, which now is on its third year in New York.

The story of "poor whites" in the back country of Georgia is startling, yet it is humorous. Everywhere this show has been appearing before capacity crowds and advance reservations indicate the spacious auditorium will be packed next Wednesday night.

Sets New Style

George Dahl, above, is the architect who is designing all buildings for the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens at Dallas June 6. A native of Minnesota, Architect Dahl attended the State University there, won a Harvard Fellowship and later designed a $5,000,000 building layout for the University of Texas. He calls his Centennial architecture "modern-classic."

The PEOPLES COLUMN

THE TOWNSEND PLAN
At the request of the Pampa Townsend Old Age Pension club, the following comments by former Governor R. C. Dillion of New Mexico are printed:

ENCINO, N. M.—Three principal reasons for membership in Townsend Old Age Pension club were outlined here by R. C. "Dick" Dillion, former governor of New Mexico.

The reasons were set forth in the principal speech delivered before a Townsend club meeting. Ex-Governor Dillion said:

"I am convinced the Townsend plan would end this depression."

"The Townsend plan would prevent depressions in the future."

"The Townsend plan would prevent the dreadful fear of becoming dependent upon charity for the necessities of life in old age."

"We are told from Washington that the depression is over," continued the speaker. "I am glad to say business conditions are better than they were a year ago and they give promise of being still better in 1936. But we are also told from Washington that eleven million men and women who would work if they could find work are out of employment. No definite promise of job in the future is held out to them."

Emergency Jobs

"We are also told that three and a half million people are holding emergency jobs that are paid for with emergency federal money. There is no employment in sight for them when the emergency money is exhausted."

"With fourteen and a half million workers out of permanent employment, I insist that the depression is still with us, and that its end is not in sight."

"The Townsend plan would take out of employment all persons sixty years of age or older who have incomes of less than two hundred dollars a month, provided they agree not to engage in gainful occupations and provided further that they spend all their pension money in the United States for commodities and services and for the purchase of homes or equities in homes.

Employment Bettered

"The turnover of two hundred dollars monthly by each of about eight million people would insure the employment at high wages or salaries of every person in the United States capable of holding a job. That would end the depression as effectively as a good dinner ends hunger."

"The same conditions that would end this depression would prevent depressions in the future."

"Under the Social Security act the federal government cooperating with the state may pay destitute persons who are sixty-five years of age or more as much as thirty dollars a month. That is better than nothing, but it does not provide the pensioner with enough to pay for food, clothing and shelter, to say nothing for medical treatment as necessary for persons of advanced years."

No Other Plan Offered

"Neither the democratic nor the republican party has ever offered a plan that it was even claimed would prevent depressions. They have assumed that depressions come with something of the regularity of the seventeen year locusts. A number of good years in which we can earn and save for old age only to have our earnings and savings wiped out by a succession of bad years."

"Opponents of the Townsend plan say people should save while they are able to work and there would be no destitution in old age. A vast majority of the people do that very thing, only to have their savings wiped out by a depression. Then they have to start all over again working and saving only to be wiped out by the next depression. The Townsend plan offers a remedy against the coming of the seventeen-year locusts."

Another Objection

"Another objection urged by the opponents of the Townsend plan is that it would produce a dangerous inflation. They do not talk of the deflation that reduced prices and credits more than sixty per cent in about three years. The new deal has inflated prices and credits an average of about thirty-five per cent. Experts estimate the inflation from the Townsend plan would be about twenty-five per cent from the deflation level. That would bring prices back to about what should be normal."

"It was urged against the bonus for the ex-service men that it would lead to a dangerous inflation. But the ex-service men kept at it. They voted only for their friends in both parties and we are told from Washington that the bonus bill will be the first bill to pass this Congress. The ex-service men had to become a political power through organization. The Townsend plan people must become a political power through organization. It is more important to them than any political party is or can be."

On Present Session

"Let me suggest in conclusion that the Townsend plan clubs in New Mexico center their attention on the present session of Congress. Let them get every possible voter into the clubs. Let every voter understand that the plan is more important than any political party or than any job that can be given by any political party."

"If the bill should fall in this Congress carry the fight into the election, just as the ex-service men carried their fight into the elections, voting always for candidates for the Senate and House who promised to stand by the bonus and for men

SENATORS DECLARE U-BOAT WAR CAUSE THEORY IS DEMOLISHED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Senators delving into world war documents argued today they had proved to the hilt one of their principle theses: That economic links with the allies, not U-boat "outrages" were the primary cause of America's entry into the war.

The argument of Senator Clark (D. Mo.) and some others on the senate munitions committee, is that trade with the allies so involved the United States that it could not escape joining them as belligerents regardless of any efforts Germany made to render submarine warfare "humane."

Clark read documents to show that while President Wilson grew angry at British blockade tactics which interfered with American commerce, he never pressed retaliatory trade measures to stop these tactics. The reason, Clark held, was the United States' deep involvement in trade with the allies.

The result was, he contended, that Germany, which considered itself a victim of American favoritism toward the allies, had no alternative they believed would keep their promises.

"The Townsend plan is important to the young as well as to the old. Those who have not reached the age of sixty are moving towards it with every tick of the clock. The Townsend plan will give them security in old age. It is worth working for and voting for."

but to use her submarine power to attempt a blockade of her own.

Chairman Nye (R., N. D.) stirred a sensation in yesterday's hearing when he charged that President Wilson "falsified" in declaring before a senate committee that until after the war he knew nothing of secret treaties, in which the allies had agreed to partition Europe.

Technically, J. P. Morgan and partners are still the witnesses before the committee but they have had little part in the proceedings in recent days. The time has been spent in recording state department and other documents, some hitherto secret.

TAXI ROBBER

CINCINNATI (AP)—Peter R. Heim told police his home had been invaded and robbed—by a cab riding thief.

The loss, Heim reported, was $122 taken from a purse with this note left behind:

"Sorry I had to do this, lady, but I need cab fare."

BUSY BURGLAR

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bert M. Redman rode around the city with Police Sergeant Charles E. Zans and Delbert E. Bates, pointing out 103 houses he had robbed since last July.

"That's about half the houses I broke into," he said, explaining he couldn't remember all of them.

ENACTMENT OF BONUS BILL IS NOW CONCEDED

MORGENTHAU EXPLAINS TASK FACED BY TREASURY

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. (AP)—Enactment of the Harrison bill to pay the soldiers' bonus in blocks of $50 cashable bonds was conceded today by a prominent opponent of the measure despite Secretary Morgenthau's testimony about the financial task the treasury faces.

A southern senator not wishing to be quoted by name said he himself would vote against the measure unless it provided for payment out of existing appropriations.

But he said the Morgenthau testimony before the senate finance committee would have little or no effect on final passage, even over a veto. Morgenthau said in effect that enactment of the bill now would increase to $11,300,000,000 the new treasury financing necessary for the next 17 1/2 months.

The Harrison bill would pay the full face value of the 3,500,000 adjusted service certificates in special bonds equivalent to demand notes.

The bonds would be redeemable at local post offices beginning next June. If redeemed the first year, no interest would be paid. Three per cent interest would be paid to those holding them as an investment. They would mature in nine years.

Chairman Harrison (D. Miss) of the finance committee, whose name is attached to the coalition bill along with those of Senators Byrnes (D. S. C.) Steiwer (R. Ore) and Clark (D. Mo.), wanted to start senate debate today. But republican leader McNary of Oregon said he would ask a day's delay so senators could study the bill more thoroughly.

No one professed to know definitely what President Roosevelt would do once the bill is plumped on the White House doorstep. Some senators up for reelection were fretting, leading observers to believe they were not very hopeful of presidential approval.

CROSS OF GOLD

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Arkansas City ministers started a campaign today against a Sunday "bank night" in a local theater. The ministers, complaining the feature interfered with church attendance, asked City Attorney Tom Pringle for ruling on legality of the prize drawing.
