

$1,493,776 City Budget Adopted; Tax Rate Set

Pampa's $1,493,776 city budget for fiscal 1964-65 was officially adopted by the city commission today and the tax rate for the coming year was set at $1.47 per $100 property valuation.

The tax rate is an increase of 2 cents over the current year. The rate was upped by the commission to take care of interest and principal payments on the $950,000 sewer system improvement bond issue recently approved by voters.

The tax ordinance adopted today also does away with the split payment of taxes which has been in effect since the so-called "depression days."

The new tax payment plan calls for one lump payment of taxes each year. Taxpayers will have until Jan. 31 each year to pay. Taxes will become delinquent and subject to penalty on Feb. 1 of each year. The plan goes into effect immediately.

Tax officials said the split payment plan was used by only 134 taxpayers out of a total of approximately 8,000. The new system will save a great deal of bookkeeping work, tax officials said.

With passage of the new tax ordinance today, employees in the tax office started work on the 1964-65 tax roll.

Today's commission meeting lasted two hours and 20 minutes, the longest session since the present commission took office in April of 1963.

The vote to adopt the budget and OK the tax ordinance was unanimous only after a great deal of discussion and answering of questions raised by Commissioners L. P. Fort and Leon Holmes.

Commissioner Fort at first wanted to include in the present budget money for the employment of three additional city policemen.

Fort said the matter of an increased police force had been hanging fire for two years and he thought now was the time to take care of it.

Commissioner Holmes said he thought salaries should be equalized. He complained that the chief of police was paid less than a warehouseman and less than the water superintendent.

Mayor H. R. Thompson and Commissioners MacField, McDaniel and Jim Nation said they thought these matters should be discussed in a later meeting.

They stated that it was their belief the questions of more policemen and pay equalization should be given further study.

Mayor Thompson and Commissioners McDaniel and Nation all three said they would be in favor of both requests if the further study of the matter justified such action.

On this note, Commissioners Fort and Holmes agreed to vote for adoption of the budget as an emergency measure.

The commission again postponed action on the application of Dale Greenhouse and Calvin Fraser for a franchise to operate a cable television system in Pampa.

Another application for operating a cable system was received today from Mayor Seibert Worley of Shamrock who operates a similar system in Spearman, Shamrock and Beaver, Okla., in a partnership with his brother, Eugene Worley.

Worley made an application here about two years ago and appeared before the commission today to tell them he was renewing the application. Greenhouse and Fraser made their application on Sept. 2 this year.

Commissioners decided they wanted to study the coaxial cable television systems along with the pay-television system and to determine just what services would be given what the city would receive from the franchise, and whether it would benefit Pampa viewers.

In other business today: The commission authorized the investment of $100,000 in various city funds in U. S. Treasury Bills, approved a routine automatic salary increase schedule for city employees and approved current bills totaling $8,090.80 for September.

The commission also voted to hold next week's meeting at 8:30 a. m. Friday, Oct. 9 to allow city officials to attend the 52nd annual conference of the Texas Municipal League in Dallas. (See COUNCIL, Page 3)

Candidate Questions Records Destruction

Miller Challenges State Department

By LEONARD ADAMS

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Rep. William E. Miller demanded today that the State Department explain why "it has ordered records in 20 major cities on government security risks destroyed."

The Republican vice presidential candidate said the records — which he said the State Department's security office ordered destroyed — "deal with State Department employees, their loyalty and character weaknesses such as drunkenness and homosexuality."

The State Department said Monday that records on government security risks and other information being destroyed in various field offices are duplicates of a master file maintained permanently in Washington. It said the destruction of "investigative reports and investigative backup material" was ordered for greater efficiency.

It denied it had ordered "the destruction of any original security files or index cards or other pertinent security investigative material which are not already on file and available at the office of security headquarters in Washington."

"Why are these files being destroyed?" Miller asked. "What are they trying to hide?"

He told a news conference the congressional internal security subcommittee has learned of the order to destroy the records "but the White House reportedly is pressuring this subcommittee to suppress its findings until after Nov. 3."

"The order to burn these files was given in executive secrecy. It appears that the administration does not want the American people to learn what is being done," Miller said.

"But it also appears that they may not want the Goldwater administration to learn next January what is in those files."

Earlier Miller predicted that a "do or die spirit" would win the presidency for Goldwater.

During the first appearance in a day of campaigning that will take him to Hutchinson, Kan., and Laramie, Wyo., Miller told a Republican breakfast gathering, "there is no great sentiment in this country for Lyndon Johnson."

The vice presidential candidate said, "history has proven that smaller armies defeat larger armies and inevitably free men will triumph."

"The people who are for Sen. Goldwater are do or die and they are going to win this battle," Miller said.

Miller hurled a blanket attack at the Johnson administration, hitting at foreign policy, the budget, the national debt, unemployment, farm problems and corruption.

One of the main issues in the campaign is "corruption versus character," Miller said.

"I consider this not to be a campaign. I consider it a crusade," Miller said. He predicted a Goldwater-Miller victory in November would mean "the dawn of a whole new era. We shall make parks and streets safe for our wives and children."

Cabot Chief New President Of Chamber

E. L. Green Jr., general manager of the Southwestern Division of Cabot, was elected president of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce shortly before noon today. Green will replace outgoing president Aubrey Steele and serve as president for the 1963-64 fiscal year.

Other officers elected this morning were Tom Snow, Pampa attorney as vice president and Norman Henry, manager of the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. as finance director.

The new officers will take office at the annual installation banquet Oct. 19 in Coronado Inn.

The officers were elected by the directors during their regular monthly meeting in the chamber office. Installing officer for the banquet will be Jack Springer, executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

'Collector' Spends $60 to Talk With Russian Premier

NORMAN, Okla. (UPI) — Just as some people collect stamps or autographs, John Norman collects people-over the phone. He figured he had Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in the bag today.

Norman does his collecting by making long-distance phone calls. He called the Kremlin Sunday, and said he was "pretty certain" he had reached Khrushchev person-to-person. He said he could hear the Soviet Premier in the background while he talked to an interpreter.

"I got the impression that everybody was excited about why a little fellow like me was calling. I also had the distinct impression I was being monitored by the Russians and by our own government."

It cost him $60.

Mental Illness Claimed By Mason's Attorneys

ABILENE, Tex. (UPI) — Defense lawyers for Ronney Mason worked in federal court Monday to show that the 24-year-old "model citizen" was mentally ill when he threatened to blow up nine schools, a hospital and the Sweetwater court house unless a bank president gave him $250,000.

Lawyer Charles Tessmer of Dallas conceded that Mason made the threat last Oct. 23 in a letter to the president of the Sweetwater National Bank. The note said 4,300 Sweetwater residents would die in the explosions.

Mason pleaded innocent to the charge Monday. Shortly after the bank president, Wilson E. Guest, testified about getting the letter that brought a small army of FBI agents from Dallas to Sweetwater.

Appeared at Office

A week later, they arrested Mason when he appeared at Guest's office and asked for "money—lots of it." He had produced a letter that matched the first one in tone and style and told Guest that an extortionist threatened to set off bombs already hidden in the buildings unless Mason delivered the $250,000 in cash. The buildings were searched but there were no bombs.

Monday, Mason's physician, Dr. F. F. Suppitt, said he thought the former choir singer was mentally ill when he wrote the extortion letter.

Suppitt said Mason spent seven weeks in a Dallas mental hospital last year after the arrest.

Traces Family History

Mason's father, Jack Mason of Monahans, testified to a history of mental illness on his wife's side of the family.

Other witnesses said Mason set impractical goals and became unhappy when he could not reach them.

Mason was considered such a model citizen that the junior chamber of commerce had named him one of Sweetwater's five outstanding young men only a month before the threat began.

If convicted, Mason could get 20 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Harpo Marx Dies After Operation

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Harpo Marx, the madcap mule of the famed performing Marx brothers, died Monday night after undergoing heart surgery. He was 70.

The zany, horn-honking comedian, beloved for his outrageous blond wig and eye-popping leer, was the harum-scarum member of the troupe which conquered vaudeville in the '20s, Broadway and the movies.

Harpo, whose real name was Arthur, entered Mt. Sinai Hospital Saturday and was operated on Monday morning. After apparently making a strong recovery his condition worsened and he died at 8:30 p. m., PDT.

Lucky Star 4-H Club; Regina Hunter, president of the Pampa 4-H Club; and Mike and Barry Trimble and Mick Richardson, all members of the Top O' Texas 4-H Club. The proclamation was signed yesterday after noon in the Gray County Court Room.

Castro Blames 'Deadbeats' for Economic Crisis

MIAMI (UPI) — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro indicated Monday night that his government is in the red economically almost as much as it is politically. He blamed his plight on "deadbeat" tenants living in confiscated houses and apartments.

Castro said the Cuban government, as landlord of the dwellings seized by the thousands from their rightful owners during the past four years, really should evict the delinquent tenants.

"The revolution can never evict a family for not paying the rent," the premier said in a 2-hour speech broadcast by Radio Havana. He indicated, however, this generosity wasn't due entirely to sentiment.

Welfare Index Aided By Pampa-Lefors UF

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles about participating agencies of the Pampa-Lefors United Fund. The articles are written by the head or director of the agency and will appear every other day in the News.)

By BILL LEONARD
President, Welfare Index

The Pampa Welfare Index was organized in 1952 for the purpose of coordinating the welfare effort of agencies of the community and to prevent the duplication of assistance to welfare cases.

All civic clubs, lodges, women and men's clubs, youth organizations, church groups, United Fund agencies and all other agencies and organizations that participate in community welfare are members of the Welfare Index.

The Index meets officially four times a year and calls special meetings when necessary. Most of its coordination is done by telephone or personal contact.

This year the Index is officered by Bill Leonard, president, Mrs. B. G. (Betty) Ward, vice president, Mrs. R. A. Mack, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. M. Stafford, warehouse administrator and Mrs. Jerry Shultz, coordinator.

The United Fund has allocated the Index $500 for the next year, this money is used for administrative purposes, rent of clothing warehouse and office supplies. The Index does not employ any full time personnel and is operated entirely on a voluntary basis.

One of the major programs coordinated by the Index is the Thanksgiving and Christmas Basket program. At these times families in need are allocated to the various organizations of the Index for assistance. Last year at Christmas 132 baskets were distributed to unfortunate families.

The Index is a unique organization not available in many other communities and has proven its worth many times over by a concentrated effort on the part of the people of the community towards helping their fellow man.

Rewards Offered In Attempt to Curb Bombings

By United Press International
Rewards totaling $3,500 were offered today in an attempt to curb terrorist bombings in two areas of Mississippi.

A citizens group in McComb, Miss., put up $2,500 for information leading to the arrests of the persons responsible for recent racial bombings in southwest Mississippi.

Jackson Mayor Allen Thompson said $1,000 would be paid for information leading to the arrest of the nightriders who have struck at least twice in the capital city area.

"We are no longer dealing with a question of segregation," the McComb citizens group said. "We are faced with the definite possibility that the life of this community is at stake."

Thompson made a similar plea.

Within the past month, there have been at least 10 bombings in McComb, Miss., and two in Natchez, Miss., including the house of the mayor. The blasts largely involved Negro homes or churches.

Aaron Henry, Mississippi president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), wired President Johnson Monday, asking for federal protection for Negroes in Mississippi.

Two grand juries held separate investigations in Mississippi Monday of the deaths of three civil rights workers. In Philadelphia, Miss., the Neshoba County grand jury heard testimony from four state troopers, while a federal grand jury at Biloxi heard from two prisoners who had shared jail cells with the workers.

Elsewhere: Atlanta: Segregationist Lester Maddox pushed four Negroes away from his reopened restaurant Monday and he was ordered to appear in federal court Oct. 2 to show cause why he shouldn't be held in contempt.

Washington: The Justice Department said in a brief filed with the Supreme Court Monday that interstate travel and commerce are restricted by hotel or restaurant discrimination.

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst
Of all the satellite Communist leaders, none has shown more cat-like agility nor himself to be the possessor of more political lives than Walter Ulbricht, the grim and scratchy-voiced leader of Communist East Germany.

Repeatedly rumor has had it that Ulbricht, East Germany's top Communist since the end of World War II, was on his way out.

Yet, while purges hit the regimes of Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union itself, Ulbricht survived.

Now the rumor of Ulbricht's early demise as a political leader has been revived. And this time there might be something to it.

It arises from Nikita Khrushchev's planned visit to Bonn, capital of the West German Republic, and a meeting with Chancellor Ludwig Erhard. Khrushchev is supposed to have discussed his West German trip with Czech leader Antonin Novotny and the foreign ministers of Poland, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia during his recent visit to Prague.

Ulbricht Could Retire
If the purpose of these discussions was to seek means of easing tension between Moscow and Bonn, one effective measure would be the retirement of Ulbricht.

The death of East German Premier Otto Grotewohl on Monday would appear to raise figure-head position, but the possibility of kicking Ulbricht upstairs into that largely word from Berlin was that Grotewohl would be succeeded by Willi Stoph, who has been acting premier. Grotewohl's death, it appears, will have no major effect on the East German power structure or policy.

Since Ulbricht's triumphant return to Berlin aboard a Red army plane in 1945, his ceaseless attacks against free West Berlin and against the Bonn government have made him so detested that West German leaders have declared that no chance of fruitful contacts with East Germany exists so long as he remains in power.

His removal would apply a powerful balm also to the frequently ruffled relations between Moscow and Bonn.

Khrushchev wants the West German machinery and equipment which could help speed his own industrialization program but how far he is willing to go in the matter of concessions remains a question.

The West Germans at the least will want Soviet recognition of West Berlin as an integral part of West Germany and guaranteed access to it through the Communist zone.

At the most, they want reunification of Germany through free elections in both zones. This they are not going to get.

Moscow Eases Pressure
Yet Moscow has shown signs of willingness to ease off the pressure on Berlin into the indefinite future.

Moscow's recently signed 20-year friendship pact with East Germany made no mention of a separate peace treaty which would place control of Berlin access in East German Communist hands.

A number of the satellites have signed trade agreements with West Germany recognizing the special status of West Berlin as a part of West Germany.

As for Ulbricht, he is now 70 years old and age alone might make him susceptible to stepping down.

As a one-time hard-line Stalinist and the man who built the Berlin wall, he may also have outlived his usefulness in an era of Khrushchev-style co-existence.

Against such speculation is Ulbricht's proven loyalty to Moscow and the fact that as yet no trained successor has appeared on the horizon.

Turnout Big For Fish Kill

Approximately 1,000 persons were on hand at Lake McClellan today for the complete kill of all fish.

The Lake was sprayed with Rotenone, a chemical which paralyzes gills of fish, causing them to surface.

Fish biologists had invited the public to come to the lake and pick up as many fish as they want. The chemical does not harm the fish for human consumption.

The fish kill is being accomplished in preparation for a complete re-stocking of the lake with game fish only.

Oct. 15, the lake will be restocked with 50,000 channel catfish and 10,000 black bass.

Also, construction still is under way at the lake on the new spillway and dam. When completed the lake should have 400 surface-acres of water. Presently, there are 100 surface-acres of water.

P-TA City Council Slates Second Session of Study Course Thursday

The second session of the P-TA City Council study course will be held Thursday morning in the Lamar Elementary School auditorium from 9:30 until 11:30.

Mrs. Bruce Riehart, Council study course chairman, has announced that the title of the second session will be "Together We Help a Child by Creating a Love for Learning." The remaining three meetings will be held weekly at different schools.

Sam Begert, principal of Horace Mann Elementary School, will discuss ways in which parents and teachers can work together to create in the child a desire for learning and how a child develops attitudes toward learning.

The second speaker will be Miss Mary Lee Cooper, librarian at Lovett Memorial Library. Her subject will be "Does the Ability to Read Well Contribute to the Love for Learning?" She will also emphasize the place of the public library in the school story.

Following the coffee break, Tracy Cary, instructor in piano, organ, voice and theory, will speak on the place of the creative arts in the education program and what we can do in our local schools to strengthen this phase of the education program.

A guest artist, Mrs. John (Evelyn) Price, will perform following Cary's talk. Mrs. Price is a local violin instructor and is a member of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra.

The Rev. Donald Hauck, pastor of First Presbyterian Church and president of the Pampa Ministerial Alliance, will discuss factors or conditions existing in our homes, schools and communities which act as deterrents to learning.

A nursery for pre-school children will be provided during the study courses.

Mrs. Zebbie Land is study course chairman for Sam Houston P-TA and Mrs. Al Ferguson is chairman for Lamar P-TA, which will share host duties.

Each P-TA member who attends four or more sessions will receive a study course certificate. All P-TA members who did not attend the first session are urged to attend the remaining four.

Credit Women Plan Banquet to Install New Club Officers

An installation banquet to be held in Pampa Hotel's Koni-Tiki Room on Oct. 30, was planned by members of Pampa Credit Women when the group met in the home of Mrs. Edna Day, 1208 W. Bond.

Officers to be installed are Mrs. Lydia Gilchrist, president; Mrs. Ruby Crocker, first vice president; Mrs. LaVerne Bayliss, second vice president; Mrs. Virgie Wesner, treasurer; and Mrs. Vi Dunham, secretary.

During the business meeting, plans were discussed for the upcoming credit meeting to be held Oct. 17-18 in Wichita Falls. Pampa members planning to attend are Ruth McQueary, Virginia McDonald, Jerry Hodges, Sharon Johns, Vi Dunham and LaVerne Bayliss.

Members attending the meeting were Ruby Crocker, Vergie Wesner, Virginia McDonald, Lily Walton, Elizabeth Lewis, Vi Dunham, Sharon Johns, Jerry Hodges, LaVerne Bayliss, Ruth McQueary and Edna Day.

News on the fall campus coat scene revolves around a 100 per cent cotton that looks and feels like leather. Supple and soft, the new leather-like cotton is washable, porous, water-repellent, and beautiful. One of the smartest is a single-breasted reefer coat with a shirt-placket front that makes fashion sense on two counts: it's shown in this season's pet shade, claret; it's lightly fitted the figure the skimming way. One manufacturer—uses camel-colored leather-like cotton to interpret the classic polo coat, wrapped close to the body via a tie belt. Four flap pockets complete the sporty air of this casual design.

Dear Abby... Believe Girl if She Shows up Dressless

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What would you think about a girl who told you she was sorry she couldn't go to a certain dance with you because she didn't have anything to wear, and then she showed up at the dance with another guy?

JUST WONDERING: DEAR WONDERING: If she showed up without a dress, I'd believe her.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 18. He is 6 feet tall and weighs 190 pounds. He has good character and has worked after school and on week-ends ever since he was 16. He bought himself a car and pays the upkeep and insurance himself. He also buys his own clothes. His father and I have just started our own business and I work every day so we won't have to hire a cashier. I also like to keep my home nice, so I do all my heavy housework on the week-ends in addition to the regular washing and ironing.

When I tell my son to scrub the bathroom and kitchen floors and to wash the windows and woodwork, he gets real ugly and says that's MY job, not HIS. We have had some very hot battles over this. Am I wrong to demand that a healthy 18-year-old son help me?

TIRE D MOTHER: DEAR TIRE D: Your son sounds like a good boy who would probably give you a hand with the heavy work if you asked him—not told him. Teenagers become hostile and negative when commands are fired at them. If you were to make him feel like a man whose help you needed rather than a little boy who had better take orders from his mother, or else, he'd probably sail right through the chores without a gripe.

DEAR ABBY: My wife reads your column every day and I read it when she makes me. We have been having an argument about something I hope you can settle for us. How should a woman wear her wedding rings? My wife puts on her diamond engagement ring first, and her

Mrs. Walker Feted At Farewell Party

Mrs. Ray H. Walker was honored with a surprise going-away party at 1 p.m. Friday in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jim B. Wilson, 320 N. Nelson.

Assisting with hostess duties were Mrs. Dewey Wheat and Mrs. Walter Bonnell.

Mrs. Walker has been a Pampa resident since 1955, at which time she and her husband were transferred to Pampa by Cities Service Oil Co. Walker retires this month, and the couple will return to their former home in Barnsdall, Okla., where a lot of fishing is planned.

Attending and presenting gifts to the honoree were Mrs. Dewey Slaton, L. F. Batson, I. U. Bryant, E. S. Cantrell, G. H. Elmore, G. C. Gillespie, A. W. Griggs, W. R. Hardin, L. C. Isom, A. N. King, A. S. Largin, M. Sillyman and E. P. Templin.

A "must" for every woman's winter wardrobe: something velvet. Velvet is featured in practically every new collection of the top designers. Most frequently it's in the shape of a little theater suit with collarless, short-cropped jacket. Black's the favorite color, although forest green and ruby red make a strong showing, too. Almost always, the little velvet suit has a pastel satin blouse. Jackets are lined to match the blouse.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. O. A. WAGNER

Guests of Mrs. Frank Yealey this week are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Runkle of New York, N.Y., old friends of the Yealeys. Mrs. Yealey brought them to the Center and they were enjoying a game of bridge. Guests are always welcome.

Another guest at the Center the latter part of the afternoon was Mrs. Joe Looper, who enjoyed a game of forty-two, and is a local resident. We hope she gets time to come often.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill of Tulsa were guests two days this week of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dilley.

A guest this week of Mrs. Lona Webster was her sister Mrs. Carrie McBride of Amarillo.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Henderson the past two days was his brother, Ward Henderson and wife of Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moseley have returned from a weeks visit with relatives in Oklahoma where they visited a son and family at Cyril, Okla., Moseley's sister, Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Perrin at Ada.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Burgin spent one day last week with a daughter in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parr of McKinney and Dr. and Mrs. Woodard of Dallas, were house guests of Mrs. Myrtle Enloe over the weekend. Mrs. Woodard is a niece of Mrs. Enloe. They all gathered at the home of Mrs. Enloe's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Braxton, with other members of the family locally, for lunch Sunday after all had attended church and reported a wonderful time.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Norris and other relatives here is Mr. Norris's son, H. M. Norris and wife from Los Angeles, Calif. They made a brief call at the Center where mother and dad were enjoying an afternoon at the Center.

Mrs. D. H. Porter of Shamrock spent Saturday in town with her mother, Mrs. C. G. Miller and her brother Bill.

Mrs. Mary Puckett has returned from Riverton, Wyo., where she has been visiting her son, David Shoup and family. A grandson David Lee Shoup was home on leave from the Navy so her visit was complete. They went elk hunting while there, and saw plenty of moose, deer and antelope, but no elk.

Word has been received that P. G. Turner, who is in the Anderson Clinic in Houston, is being built up for an operation soon.

This has been a busy day, making two meetings in one afternoon. Went out to the Court House annex for the 50th anniversary celebration of the Extension Service in Texas; full report will be found elsewhere in your local paper. Stayed until Miss Edith Lois Wilson gave an interesting report on the 4-H and Home Demonstration Clubs. Having been a member of the Worthwhile Club for 29 years was interested in attending a part of the meeting at least. Then went on to the Senior Center for the rest of the afternoon. Was accompanied by Mrs. Joe Looper to both meetings. Mrs. Looper has been a member of Home Demonstration clubs in Gray County longer than anyone present—42 years.

Highlights

By United Press International
DETROIT — General Motors is threatened with what UAW President Walter Reuther calls a "selective strike." Reuther said that even if an agreement is not reached Friday, the union will not strike all GM plants. There was a wildcat strike at the Cleveland stamping plant early Friday by workers dissatisfied with the progress of the protracted talks.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.—Futures trading in beef cattle will start on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange Nov. 2. Exchange President Everett Harris announced at the annual Texas A & M College livestock show. He said it would be a revolutionary concept in meat marketing.

NEW YORK — Laird & Co. and Francis I. DuPont Co. have withdrawn from one of groups bidding for the $700 million plus assets of Pure Oil Co. This apparently leaves Crichon & Co. with the problem of finding a new partner if it continues to press its bid.

NEW YORK — Cinerama, Inc., announced it may be forced to seek the protection of Chapter 11 of the Federal bankruptcy law unless it can win extensions from its creditors and arrange new financing. The largest creditor is the company's president, William R. Forman. The company is owed $1,275,000 by its chairman, Nicholas Reisini.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — A 30-year electric power expansion for nine western states at a cost of $10.5 billion will be undertaken by ten private utilities. The project was described as the largest of its kind ever planned in the utility, and possible any other industry. The huge expansion will be financed entirely by private capital with no help from federal funds.

Price Says Opponent 'Absentee' Lawmaker

DIMMITT (Sp) — Bob Price, Republican candidate for Congress, speaking here Monday evening, described his Democratic opponent as "our absentee congressman." Price, a Pampa rancher and businessman, spoke at his Castro County kickoff rally.

Price stated "our Congressman has missed 20 per cent of the critical votes during the 88th Congress," Price said. He often pairs with members of opposite view, rather than take the trouble to hear the debate. He lives in Maryland, works in Washington, and votes 1 out of 5 times from anywhere except the floor of the House. ... or, doesn't vote at all.

ask what are we paying our Congressman $30,000 a year for when any secretary would do what he does for one-fourth the pay?"

"My opponent comes to the Panhandle only when it is politically helpful to do so," Price said, "and he dodges issues wherever he goes. Even casual reading of his record shows you he is prone to absenteeism."

Price campaigned in Vega, Adrian, Friona, Farwell, and Dimmitt Monday. Today he is campaigning in Sunray, Dumas, and Miami, where he will address his Roberts County kickoff at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

ROSE RESIGNS
AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — Howard Rose, executive assistant to Gov. John Connally, has resigned to practice law in Midland with the firm of Stubbsman, McRae, Sealy and Laughlin. Austin station KTBC said.

"If all a Congressman had to do was pair on votes in the House of Representatives, then any competent secretary could sit in the halls of Congress," Price continued. "The people of this district have the right to

Phillips vs. BR in AA

By United Press International
Forays by San Saba, Gladewater and Katy against one perfect record foe and the beginning of title play in talent-crowded District 5 highlight Texas schoolboy football's Class AA schedule this week.

San Saba hosts Class AAA Lampasas, Gladewater travels to Crockett and Katy goes to Humble in three games matching undefeated-untied teams.

But, most interest will be centered in 5-AA which boasts four undefeated-untied teams and two others who stack up creditably against the better teams around the state.

Anson, Ballinger, Hamlin and Haskell own the perfect records, while Stamford and Winters are s'around teams despite their 2-2 records. Ballinger is idle this week, but Anson entertains Winters, Hamlin is at Stamford and Haskell plays the district's weak team, Colorado.

The division's top-ranked Phillips Blackhawks also open district play this week, but figure to have another romp against Boys Ranch to fatten their 41-point scoring average. Dalhart (3-0-1), Sanford-Fritch (4-0), Shamrock (3-1), Spearman (3-0-1) and Stinnett (3-1) also look dangerous in this district, 1-AA. Dalhart plays Stinnett and Sanford-Fritch meets Shamrock in two other features.

Iowa Park, the state's No. 2 team which whipped AAA Wichita Falls Hirschi 28-7 last week, takes on another AAA foe, Burk Burnett this week.

Alpine, the only unscored-on team in the division, probably will lose that distinction this week against AAA Odessa.

Tascosa Bigger, But Not Tougher

"They are bigger even than Palo Duro, but they're not as tough," reported coach Brown Smith of Pampa after scouting the Tascosa Rebels of Amarillo. The Harvester first assistant said, in his opinion, that "we can play with them if we play ball." Pampa goes on the road for the first time this season, playing at Dick Bivins Stadium Friday night in an attempt to rebound from their first loss in three starts, a 26-0 shutout at the hands of powerful Palo Duro.

Tascosa and Borger were the pre-season district favorites, but with the advent of Palo Duro, Borger's lopsided defeat by Dumas and Tascosa's close call over Lubbock, the picture has changed drastically. Although unbeaten, the Rebels have escaped defeat by the skin of their teeth, edging Midland Lee, 7-6, and having to come from behind Saturday night against Lubbock, previously rated a weak sister in the loop. Quarterback Ted Pospisil, throwing his only completed pass of the night, hit end Billy Hobbs with a fourth-quarter touchdown pass to pull out the win.

Smith reports a number of familiar faces in the Rebel lineup from last year's state semi-finalists. Chief among them will be half-back Richard Ross, 170

Lone non-returnee on the starting unit is right half Jimmy Bennett, 180. Quarterback Ted Pospisil, 180 understudied all-state Pat Harkins last year and saw a lot of action in the post-season games. He lacks Harkins' "scrambling" ability and passing arm, but is a smooth ballhandler and clever playmaker.

With the backfield averaging 171 pounds, the line is mammoth, averaging in at 200 pounds. At left end is Hobbs, 175, whose pass-receiving and kicking hurt last year; at left tackle Ronald Woodard, 210; left guard Abbott; center huge Garren Thompson, 255; right guard Bo Cannon, 208; right tackle Bill Deane, 206; right end Doug Valois, 190.

The defensive team piles in at 196. The line from left has Hobbs, Thompson, Gergeni, Deane, Billy Henley 155, Woodard and Abbott, with Bennett and Vance Brack, 170 at linebackers and Chris Simmons 170 and Pospisil at the halfbacks.

"Summing it up, I would have to say that Tascosa is bigger than Palo Duro, but they are not as quick and not as tough. We can play with them," Brown concluded.

McAdams scored an unusually high 90 per cent on defense despite four missed tackles. He figured in 72 defensive plays against the Trojans.

He has now won the "UG" four times in the last seven games, getting it in the Colorado and Oklahoma State games last year and both contests so far this fall.

Texas Edges Trojans For Number One Spot

NEW YORK (UPI)—The defending national champion Texas Longhorns edged Southern California today for the No. 1 spot among major college football teams in the first 1964 ratings by the United Press International board of coaches.

Returning to the top 10 were one-time football giants Notre Dame, Ohio State, Michigan and Army, who in recent years have been missing from the weekly ratings.

Texas, unbeaten in 13 consecutive games dating back to 1962 and the only major undefeated team last season, received 15 first place votes to 12 of USC while gaining a slim 294-285 margin in total points on the 10-9-8-7-6-5 4321 basis used for votes from first to tenth.

Other first place vote getters from the 35 famous coaches who comprise the UPI board were Alabama, four, Ohio State, three and Auburn one.

Pittsburgh, Nebraska, Mississippi, Oklahoma and Michigan slipped from last year's upper echelon out of the top 10.

Bama's Crimson Tide rolled to its second straight win last Saturday and took third place 219-213 over Illinois. Navy, 2-0 with an injured Roger Staubach and the only team other than Texas to get a first place vote in the final 1963 ratings, was fifth with a second place mention the highest it could muster this week.

Ohio State, Notre Dame, Auburn, Michigan and Army finished out the top 10 of the ratings which are generally accepted as the most authoritative in the country.

The second ten was composed of Nebraska, Kentucky, Washington, UCLA, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, Northwestern, LSU, and Florida with Mississippi and North Carolina State in a 20th place tie.

Green Bay Nips Lions

DETROIT (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers broke one of the basic rules of pro football Monday night, but got away with it.

The Packers rolled to a 14-3 halftime lead against the Detroit Lions, then played ultra-conservatively in the second half attempting to protect the lead and hung on for a 14-10 triumph before a record setting crowd of 59,203.

"We looked good in the first two quarters," Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said. "But then we threw our game plan aside and tried to protect the lead. That's wrong and we shouldn't have done it."

Actually, the Packers may have had no choice. No. 1 quarterback Bart Starr, who led the Green Bay offense past the highly-touted Detroit defensive unit in the first half, suffered an injury and sat out most of the final two quarters. Zeke Bratkowski replaced Starr.

Hurts Shoulder
"Starr suffered an injured left shoulder mid-way through the second period," Lombardi explained. "He's not injured seriously, though. He'll be in the starting lineup Sunday."

Starr completed 12 of 18 passes for 160 yards in the first half, scored one touchdown and connected with a long pass that set up the second TD. In the final two quarters Bratkowski tried to run out the clock with running plays and the move almost backfired.

Early in the second period Starr hit Paul Hornung with a 46-yard pass to the Detroit four. Two plays later Hornung ran over left guard from the 2 for the six points and added the conversion.

After a 45-yard field goal by Detroit's Wayne Walker, Starr directed the Packers on a 58-yard scoring drive late in the half. With a third and goal situation, he faded back to pass, then ran up the middle five yards to score.

Whereas Starr threw 18 passes, Bratkowski tried five. Starr called 18 running plays, Bratkowski 25.

Cards Move Up Past Phillies

By GEORGE C. LANGFORD
UPI Sports Writer

If the Cardinals win the National League pennant, there will be more red faces in St. Louis than in Philadelphia.

St. Louis owner August Busch, searching feverishly for the first Cardinal pennant since 1946, pressured General Manager Bing Devine out of a job last month and reliable sources said, prior to this week, that field manager Johnny Keane would also get the ax.

But the Cardinals, taking advantage of the reeling, fumbling Philadelphia Phillies who have skidded from a 6½ game lead to third place Monday night, are only one game behind the front running Cincinnati Reds with a 5-1 victory over the Phils.

(After the victory, Branch Rickey, the Cardinals player development consultant and the person some observers believe is responsible for the front-office shakeup, pumped Keane's hand and called him "a gosh-danged fine manager.")

Wins Eighth Straight

Bob Gibson, who won his eighth straight, and reliever Barney Schultz, pitched the Cardinals to their sixth consecutive victory as the Phils committed two errors, a wild pitch and a late throw to home plate.

Schultz, one of Devine's many player acquisitions in the last two seasons which have turned St. Louis from an also-ran into a contender, balled out the Cardinals for the fourth straight game.

The St. Louis knuckleballer relieved Gibson with two on and none out in the ninth inning and threw a double play ball to Clay Dalrymple, then retired pinchhitter John Herrnstein.

Five of the nine starters for the Cardinals Monday night came to St. Louis in deals engineered by Devine. They include Curt Flood from the Reds, Lou Brock from the Cubs, Dick Groat from the Pirates, Bill White from the Giants and Julian Javier from the Pirates.

Devine also gave 17-game winner Curt Simmons a tryout with the Cards after he was cut by Philadelphia in 1960.

Estelle (1-1).

Gibson allowed five hits in gaining his 18th victory against 11 losses, beating a Cardinal nemesis Chris Short, who had defeated St. Louis three times this season, but failed to last six innings Monday night.

Mike Shannon drove in three runs with a sacrifice fly and a single, the latter coming after Johnny Briggs dropped White's routine fly ball in left field and a wild pitch by Jack Baldschun in the eighth.

The Cardinals, probably in the best shape of the three contenders as far as the schedule is concerned, have two games remaining with the Phils and finish with three games against the New York Mets, all at home, while the Phils and Reds clash head-on at Cincinnati in their final two games. The Reds open a three-game series with Pittsburgh tonight in Cincinnati.

Smallest Crowd Record

The smallest Dodger crowd in the history of Dodger Stadium—11,808—saw Los Angeles break a 1-1 tie on a looping single by pinchhitter Dick Tracowski in the eighth inning to defeat Dick Ellsworth (14-17) and the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in the only other major league game.

Tracowski's hit scored Bart Shirley, who had opened the inning with a single and advanced to second on a sacrifice. Howie Reed (3-4), with relief help from Ron Perranoski in the ninth, was the winner.

The Panma Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper
EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Panma News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Thurmond—Man of Principle

Those who have known a d admiring Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina for years are not surprised at the step he took when he announced his departure from the Democratic party and his support for Barry Goldwater.

Thurmond for years has been a Jeffersonian Democrat, one who has voted consistently against expansion of the federal government, and for allowing people to be self-responsible and not reliant on the bureaucrats.

Mr. Thurmond said he realizes he is taking a political risk by switching from Democrat to Republican in a Southern State and that "my chances for re-election might, because of this step, go down into oblivion." But he says for him, "there is no other course."

Too many politicians think more about retaining a lucrative position than to stand for what they think is right. But Thurmond has stood for what he regarded as right in the face of possible loss of votes and influence. It is interesting that Thurmond has been rated 100 per cent "conservative" by the Conservative Society of America; 90 to 100 per cent by the Americans for Constitutional Action, and zero by the big-government promoting Americans for Democratic Action. His voting records with those three organizations are a great deal similar to those of Goldwater.

As Sen. Thurmond bowed out of the Democratic party, he gave a bill of particulars—an indictment—against that party. Here is what he told the people of South Carolina:

"I have no choice but to speak openly, frankly, and fully to the people of South Carolina on the crisis that confronts us."

"The Democratic party has abandoned the people. It has turned its back on the spiritual values and political principles which have brought us the blessings of freedom under God and a bountiful prosperity. It has breached the trust reposed in it by the people. It has repudiated the Constitution of the United States. It is leading the evolution of our nation to a socialist dictatorship."

"The Democratic party has forsaken the people to become the party of minority groups, power-hungry union leaders, political bosses, and big businessmen looking for government contracts and favors."

Government Spending

It reminds some folks of milk production records from the standpoint of the cow each time the Census Bureau issues its report on government expenditures. This report shows what taxpayers have yielded in the last year, and how much debt has been incurred in our names and on our credit.

The latest issue of this sobering report shows that federal, state and local governments in fiscal 1963 got their hands onto the sum of $185.2 billion, and spent it. This comes to more than $3,000 for every family in the United States.

All admitted government debt last year went up to $384.6 billion—or more than $6,000 for every family.

Solution Is Obvious

One might think that this tired, old cliché would have been laid to rest long ago:

"Federal aid is all right if it doesn't bring federal control."

But, the fact is that government "aid" does bring government controls and regulations. The principle involved is not unlike that which governs the finances of a family.

So long as the father supplies the son with spending money, it is proper for the father to have something to say about the spending.

It would be the height of irresponsibility for any unit of "The Democratic party has encouraged lawlessness, civil unrest, and mob actions. The Democratic party has violated its trust by using the power of government to suppress information on scandals and corruption of its leaders in government and party offices."

"The Democratic party has succeeded and assisted our communist enemies through trade and aid at the expense of the American people."

"The Democratic party has established and pursued for our government a no-win foreign accommodation, and appeasement."

"The Democratic party has demonstrated a callous disregard for sound fiscal policies and practices."

"The Democratic party, while hiding behind the deceitful gimmick of a darkened White House, has increased deficit spending and squandered, at home and abroad, billions of hard-earned dollars taken from the American people."

"The Democratic party has utterly disregarded the disastrous effects of the resulting inflation on people with fixed incomes, such as retirees, pensioners, Social Security beneficiaries, and those who have their savings invested in insurance."

"The Democratic party has nominated for vice president a key leader of the Americans for Democratic Action—the most influential socialist group in our nation."

"The Democratic party has encouraged, supported, and protected the Supreme Court in a reign of judicial tyranny, and in the court's effort to wipe out local self-government, effective law enforcement, internal security, the rights of the people and the states, and even the structure of the state governments."

Some people believe Mr. Thurmond's move may lead to a long-predicted re-alignment of political parties, with conservative Democrats becoming Republicans and "liberal" Republicans switching to the Democratic party, giving people a real choice between parties as well as between candidates. It will be interesting to see.

But regardless of whether that happens, individuals who believe principles are important will salute Strom Thurmond as a courageous man of principle and convictions.

May his tribe increase.

Our respected and leading citizen, M. K. Brown, did not choose to die as he did. It was caused by careless and unthinking people. Perhaps lack of highway and street planning.

Hobart Street is, of course, a continuity of death traps. Cook, West and Hobart Streets are places of danger where people may die from wrecks coming from various directions.

With a maximum of cold nerve, wide awake maneuvering you can make your way into Coronado Center if God watches over you. A State Engineer gave me some of his personal ideas concerning Hobart, Brown, East Frederick and South Cuyler Streets. I did not mention to him Alcock Street (Borger Highway) because there the need is glaringly obvious as can be imagined. On Brown, Frederick and Cuyler Streets, with good sized rains, which we do receive, boat riding would be more practical than ground motoring.

The Engineer had this to say, "traffic on Hobart is like trying to get five gallons of liquid into a three gallon can. Traffic medians are not the answer." Medians are those concrete dividers which in a street or highway of proper WIDTH keep us from killing one another sometimes.

On Hobart it is thought that to narrow the street by a median would cut down dodging rain."

The Engineer thinks (again personally) that traffic would need to be routed on another street. But where? As for stop signals and the like, the engineer says that traffic is like rainfall, you can dam it up but this does not decrease the supply.

The engineer is also of the opinion that if Panma is to progress, then steps will have to be taken to make some systematic improvements both internally and externally on streets.

It may be remembered that a few years back bond elections were offered to make needed improvements to streets approaching downtown Panma and leaving the city as well. There was a hue and cry by a powerful block of citizens with radio announcements that "The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce oppose such a bonded indebtedness." "You can not afford this raise in taxes" was another of their announcements on the radio. This raise in taxes was to have been VERY LITTLE. So many bitter personalities entered into the matter that it failed twice. One chief executive of a large financial firm stated at a meeting, "The trouble is we don't know what the situation will be in Panma in three or four years from now." Well, that man knows now. He can look out his window and see vacant buildings and a downtown approached by dangerous and rough streets. Blight is well on the way.

A local attorney twists me for once saying that the renewal of streets and bringing safer conditions might control the future prosperity of Panma and its citizens happiness. I think now the attorney can find others to have fun with about the situation. He should talk to an engineer and citizens that I could name.

Sometimes soon we must drop our cross purpose play and political hussling and get down to finding what is needed in Panma and do it. If we look at traffic in Borger, even Stinnett, we can see that we are woefully lacking in highway matters. Have we waited too long?

We might note that Mr. D. C. Greer, State Engineer, will be here in early October to address the Chamber of Commerce. Perhaps that would be a good time to launch out on a start at to just what Panma needs in streets and highways.

City Commissioner L. P. Fort.

Editor:

This is an election year of unusual opportunity for all Americans to make certain that historians never have a reason to refer to us as gullible or perhaps naive in our thinking about politics.

It is time to think hard and to vote hard. There have been too many years already of soft thinking and soft voting.

Up to this place in history, no nation, once on its way, ever has turned back from that wide gate end broad way that leads to destruction.

Therein lies the opportunity for all self reliant people of all classes and colors to set an example that just might cause all of America to pause, to take stock, and to find that "strait" gate and "narrow way" which leads to life's fulfillment. This is good for all races and religions, and classes and causes.

Samuelli Citizenship Case Touches Off Bitter Battle Over Refugee Shakedown Racket and State Dept. Attitude

ROBERT ALLEN

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Nora Isabella Samuelli, a stateless refugee from Rumania, is the living example of what happens to a person, accidentally caught in the web of international pay-offs, Communist intrigues, and heartless State Department officials.

Her extraordinary citizenship case, now pending before Congress, has touched off a bitter backstage battle that reaches into the highest levels of government in Bucharest, London and Washington.

An employe of the U. S. legation in Bucharest from 1945 to 1949, the 50-year-old Miss Samuelli was jailed for 12 years on trumped up espionage charges of "spying for the U. S."

With her sister, who was jailed on the same phony charges while working for the British Embassy, Miss Samuelli after her release in 1961 from prison was able to leave Rumania when a relative paid several thousand dollars to a mysterious Rumanian with offices in a fashionable London apartment district.

Since gaining her freedom, Miss Samuelli has tried unsuccessfully in meetings with U.S. officials in Paris and London to regain employment with the State Department or compensation for the time spent in jail.

As a last hope, she came to the U. S. on a visitor's visa to stay with friends and plead her case.

Almost penniless, Miss Samuelli got nowhere in countless meetings with State Department officials, but her case was brought to the attention of Senators Thomas Dodd, D-Conn., Senator John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky., and Representative Michael Feighan, D-Ohio.

THE BATTLE — Together, these legislators are waging a publicized battle in Congress to see that the U. S. pays the moral and financial debt that this country owes this former U. S. employe.

They are pushing legislation granting Miss Samuelli "permanent residence" in the U. S. and $55,000 in compensation due her in back pay for the time spent in a Communist prison.

In the Senate, where the legislation was approved by the Senate Judiciary Committee, the battle has moved to the Senate floor, where both bills are on the calendar waiting only the call of Senate Democratic leaders.

In the House, Representative Michael Feighan is investigating Miss Samuelli's case. He plans to hold immediately hearings on her citizenship bill after it is approved by the Senate.

The veteran legislator, who never ducks a fight, has asked Representative Emanuel Celler, D-N. Y., chairman, to have the House Judiciary Committee act promptly on Miss Samuelli's compensation claim.

Already Representative Feighan has received calls from "friendly" members of the House warning him that two of the most powerful members of that body are against giving Miss Samuelli either asylum in the U. S. or a single dime.

Representative Feighan has passed this warning on to Senators Dodd and Cooper and all three are preparing to "smoke out" any congressional opposition to the legislation and the reasons for it.

To build up support in Congress for Miss Samuelli's case, the three legislators are now circulating to all members the Senate Judiciary Committee's report detailing the ordeal that she has gone through since being tossed in a Communist prison in 1949.

THE INSIDE STORY — Highlights of this shocking treatment as outlined in the Senate report include:

"Nora Isabella Samuelli was born in Rumania on July 9, 1914, and is a stateless person. She graduated from high school and attended law school for 3 years in her native country. Miss Samuelli, who has never married, resides in Paris, France. She is presently in New York City pending action on her claim and is not employed. She has no income or appreciable assets."

"Miss Samuelli in December 1945 became an employe of the U. S. Information Service at the American Legation in Bucharest, Rumania. She continued in this employment until on or about July 25, 1949, when without warning she was seized by Rumanian authorities and accused of high treason and espionage in favor of the U. S. Thereafter, she was incarcerated in two penal institutions until her release in July 1961."

"Her sister, Annie Samuelli, MORE—MORE—MORE—who was employed in the same city by the British government, was also arrested on a similar charge and detained during the same period. Upon her release, she was granted British citizenship in recognition of her service. In September 1961 the entire family was stripped of its possessions and, upon payment of a "ransom" by a distant relative in the West, was allowed to proceed to France where they were granted residence."

"Almost immediately after her arrival in Paris, Miss Annie Samuelli, the sister of Nora, was met by a representative of the British government and taken to London together with her mother. There she was debriefed, accommodated in a good hotel, given a lump sum for re-outfitting, and finally at the end of 1962 she was granted an award equivalent to her salary from the date of her imprisonment."

"In the case of Miss Nora Samuelli, the Department of State displayed a total indifference that defies understanding. After her arrival in Paris, no one from the department came to see her. No one troubled to debrief her."

"Although Donald Dunham, Miss Samuelli's immediate superior in the Bucharest legation prior to her arrest, wrote to the department on Oct. 5, 1961, strongly recommending that the department help Miss Samuelli, no action was taken by the department."

"Finally, on August 31, 1962, Miss Samuelli received a letter informing her that the department had terminated her employment on July 23, 1949, that is, 2 days before her actual arrest and that the Department lacked legal authority to pay her back salary or any other compensation after that date."

"As established by testimony and affidavits placed before the select committee, Miss Samuelli, in fact, continued to work until the day of her arrest and never received any notice of termination of employment prior to her arrest."

"The difference between the treatment accorded Miss Anna Samuelli and the treatment accorded Miss Nora Samuelli by the Department of State is not our national credit.

"Both sisters stubbornly refused to cooperate with the Communist regime despite the pressures to which they were subjected, and unlike other people who have been brought to trial before Communist courts, they made no statements that could be used for propaganda purposes by the Communists."

The Samuelli case is one rare where Representative Feighan is fighting to publish testimony his immigration subcommittee has taken in secret, showing an international refugee "shakedown" racket.

The boomerang is a curved throwing stick used chiefly by the natives of Australia for hunting and for warfare. Hunters spin it above flocks of ducks, parakeets, and pigeons to imitate a hawk and to drive the birds into nets strung from trees. Non-returning boomerangs were used by the ancient Egyptians and are still used by the Indians of California and Arizona.

Wit and Whimsy

Seeing a tramp hurrying away from a large house, a fellow professional asked him what luck he had had. Tramp — It ain't no use askin' there, I just had a peep through the window. It's a poverty-stricken house. There w' a actually two ladies playin' w' on one planner.

Judge — Have you anything to say, prisoner, before a sentence is passed upon you? Prisoner — No, your lordship, except that it takes very little to please me.

Although the older person is most often pictured as being friendlier, it is the young person who is most likely to be lonely.

Psychologists of the National Institute of Mental Health have found that friendships are not only more numerous as age increases, but also more stable and enduring.

The Nation's Press

FARM INCOME AND POLITICAL DEMAGOGS (Chicago Tribune)

The department of agriculture has disclosed that farmers this year will receive about 2.25 billion dollars, or 17 per cent of their net realized income, in direct government payments. Both the amount of payment and the percentage are new records, and the payments may be as much as 25 per cent above the 1.7 billion dollars in payments farmers received in both 1963 and 1962.

Such payments are mostly for idling land to curtail surplus production, but they also include payments of so much per bushel to encourage participation in crop control programs, and payments for engaging in certain soil conservation practices. In 1960, the last year of the Eisenhower administration, direct government payments totaled 683 million dollars, or 5.9 per cent of the 11.6 billion dollars of net income that year.

It is interesting to note that the Johnson administration chooses to increase payments to farmers by 25 per cent in a Presidential election year. It is even more significant that 17 per cent of net realized farm income now comes directly from the government. This is in addition to the billions of dollars spent on other types of price support activities, such as buying and storing crops to guarantee artificially high prices, distributing foods to schools and the needy, subsidizing exports, and shipping commodities abroad at cut-rate prices or as outright gifts under the food for peace program.

Democratic campaigners no doubt will go into the rural area hailing all this as an "achievement" and as an example of the administration's concern for the economic welfare of agriculture. Farmers, however, are not likely to be fooled. They know it is not healthy for such an important segment of the economy to be so dependent on the taxpayers' largess.

They are well aware, moreover, that what the government can dispense this year it can take away next year, and whenever a shift in the political winds dictates a change. Farmers already have lost considerable clout in Congress, and they are destined to lose more through reapportionment of congressional districts. As we have pointed out before, there are now about 300 members of the House without a single major farm interest in their districts, compared with perhaps only 135 members who can be classified as representing farm or real interests.

The American farmer does not deserve to become a ward of the government. Moreover, he doesn't want to be. And he is not likely to sell his vote to political demagogues who seek to make him one.

BROTHERHOOD (The Freeman)

In a materialistic society which denies the existence and authority of God, the appeal for human brotherhood is a curious contradiction in terms. The battle cry of the French Revolution for "liberty, equality, and fraternity" was thus shrewd but none the less deliberate demagoguery on the part of its socialist leaders. The slogan was calculated merely to capitalize upon the misery of the poor and set them apart as "a class" against the hated "Aristocracy."

In the ensuing terror of the class warfare which these revolutionary leaders generated, "Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity" were conspicuous by their complete absence.

Engineers Plan Amarillo Parley

Approximately 200 civil engineers, including 10 from Pampa, are expected to attend the convention of the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers Thursday through Saturday in Amarillo.

"Responsibility of an Engineer to His Community and His Country" will be the theme of the convention.

Speakers for the affair are B. P. Bellport of Denver, chief engineer of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, and Frank Lyons, director of the highways for Oklahoma.

Publicity Chairman A. A. Lewis, said that, in addition to business meetings, there will be meetings of technical divisions of the society, where papers on assorted technical engineering matters, will be presented.

Gene Barber of Pampa, co-chairman of the convention, said any civil engineers of Pampa interested in attending should contact him.

Taking part in the convention from Pampa are Wayland Merriam, chairman of the budget and finance committee of the society, and Benard Shields, chairman of the technical sessions.

Memorials to Be Accepted by Wheeler Hospital

WHEELER (Sp) — The County Hospital board has reported that memorials and gifts would be accepted to be used in furnishing hospital rooms for Parkview Hospital.

Tom Puryear, board chairman, emphasized that these contributions are not a necessity. The rooms will be furnished regardless of the monetary response to this project, however, if enough people respond to this opportunity it may be possible to finance an area for paved, off-street parking which is at present time not included in the contract.

The cost of furnishing each room has been set at approximately $750. Any organization, family, or community desiring to furnish a complete room would be recognized by placing a metal plaque on the hospital door they furnished, listing the donor or to whom it is to be dedicated. The furnishing will be standard equipment selected by the hospital board. Those wanting to make small contributions will be recognized by placing their names, amount contributed, and to whom it will be dedicated in a "Memorial Book."

Those interested in donating are urged to contact Mrs. David Britt, Mrs. Lewis Lancaster or Mrs. F. L. Davidson.

IF WE ELECT BARRY GOLDWATER

FREEDOM STILL HAS A FIGHTING CHANCE!

IF all Americans who believe that public office is a sacred trust will join together we can elect Barry Goldwater and begin a wholesome new era of morality in government and rid ourselves of the brazen crooks and wheeler-dealers who have exploited public trust for personal gain.

IF all Americans who are alarmed at the rise of lawlessness across our land will join together we can elect Barry Goldwater and start the job of clearing our streets of bullies and marauders, and the restoration of respect for law and personal property rights.

IF all Americans who want peace for everyone in this land and in this world will join together we can elect Barry Goldwater and stop seeing peace and freedom torn away from this great nation through lack of will, weapons, or leadership. We can keep peace and keep faith with freedom at the same time.
