Demos Looking For Vote Boost by LBJ

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The 1966 political campaign moved into its final week today with a batch of hard-pressed Democrats still ready to reach for the LBJ coat-tail.

President Johnson is due back at the White House Wednesday from his Far Eastern trip and the Manila conference and is expected to set out two days later on his final campaign swing.

With the Nov. 8 election only eight days away, there were symptoms of pre-election jitters in both the Republican and Democratic camps.

Some key Democrats admitted they were scared that white backlash against the direction of the civil rights movement would tip victory to the Republicans in close congressional and gubernatorial races.

Others added the Viet Nam war and the cost of living as issues which might push voters into the Republican side.

But the Republicans were still trying to interpret their own polls indicating that more than 20 percent of the voters had not yet decided how to mark their ballots in congressional contests next week.

North Viet Will Accept Volunteers

TOKYO (UPI) — North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh today said he would not hesitate to accept volunteer troop reinforcements from Communist China and North Korea "when necessary."

He told a French journalist "Hundreds of thousands of volunteers from the socialist countries and other countries have declared their readiness to fight the U.S. imperialists by our side. We warmly thank them for their militant solidarity with us. When necessary, we will appeal to them."

Vessels' Formal Sentencing Is Expected Soon

District Attorney Bill Waters said today that he and 31st Judicial District Judge Lewis M. Goodrich would confer today or tomorrow on the next step in the Thomas Ray Vessels recently completed rape trial.

Vessels received the death penalty from a 12-man jury at 11:20 a.m. Saturday.

The verdict was given after a weeklong trial in which Vessels had pleaded innocent to a charge of raping a Pampa housewife on April 28.

Following the verdict Saturday, court-appointed attorney James R. Bowers filed notice of exception and appeal on error. District Judge Goodrich said the next procedure would be for the court to rule on a written motion for a new trial.

Hearing on the motion cannot be made until the Vessels' family hires an attorney or a new one is appointed by the court. Bowers' connection with the case ended with the verdict.

The motion would be heard by the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin. Rumors were rampant in the courthouse during the trial that Vessels faces similar charges on two New Mexico women in 1964, as well as attempted murder of an Amarillo woman and rape of a Shamrock housewife.

An Albuquerque detective said that warrants charging Vessels with these crimes were received eight days before the trial here.

Commenting on the new charges against the convicted man, District Attorney Waters said, "They'll have to get in line and wait until we're finished with him here."

It also invites danger to China itself, he said. "For the leaders of China must realize that any nuclear capability they can develop can—and will—be deterred."

The Johnsons themselves were never in any physical danger but there were ugly scenes in Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Malacca, Ipoh, Klang and Seremban. A total of 127 persons were arrested in Kuala Lumpur and at least 15 hospitalized.

He told a French journalist "Hundreds of thousands of volunteers from the socialist countries and other countries have declared their readiness to fight the U.S. imperialists by our side. We warmly thank them for their militant solidarity with us. When necessary, we will appeal to them."

The Communist leader's statement was the first public declaration of official North Vietnamese attitude toward the offers of Communist China and Communist North Korea to send

Boycotters Hit East Coast Food Chains

By United Press International Organized homemakers in the New York city area today joined the housewife insurrection against high food prices.

A group which called itself Shoppers Against Deception (SAD) planned a week-long open boycott of supermarkets in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, on Long Island.

SAD was another in a growing list of organizations which have gone on food buying strikes against chain supermarkets from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts.

In Washington, D.C., Mrs. Stanton Braverman, head of the Committee for Economic Concern, announced Sunday that the organization has begun a nationwide telephone campaign aimed at enlisting housewives in a coordinated national boycott.

The kitchen uprising spread to Minnesota and Columbus, Ohio, Sunday. Fifty housewives from Aurora, Minn., began picketing the Cop Supermarkets, the largest chain in Minnesota's Iron Range area.

Five women formed a picket line in Columbus at the central point shopping center and vowed to remain "as long as it takes" to get lower prices.

In the Detroit suburb of Wayne, 50 housewives said they would begin picketing this week against high prices. The movement spread to Canada Saturday when pickets marched outside Windsor, Ont., stores.

Large Haul

"This is the biggest haul of weapons and death-dealing material seized in this area in the memory of veteran law-enforcement officers," said Queens County Dist. Atty. Nat H. Hentel.

The prosecutor said the prisoners were members of three bands of six or seven Minutemen who were picked up after they already had embarked on this operation to devastate these camps, identified only as privately owned and located in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Hentel added, however, that the militantly anti-Communist Minutemen organization had dedicated itself to destroying "Communist, left wing and liberal" facilities.

Six of the prisoners were picked up in a Queens diner early Sunday morning disguised as hunters and preparing to leave for upstate New York, allegedly to attack a camp.

Hentel, an interim district attorney up for election next week, held a news conference to disclose the arrests.

Lovett Memorial and libraries in Pampa High School, Robert E. Lee and Pampa Junior High Schools are observing National Book Week, beginning Oct. 30 and continuing through Nov. 5. Each library will have on display new books that are available to students and adults.

Describing the blending functions of the public library and the school library, Mrs. Barbara Cockrell, Lovett Memorial librarian said, "The public library and the school library have distinctive and complementary functions, one serving the child in his school life and the other in his community. For complete library service, there should be continuous joint planning between the two agencies, based on realistic recognition of the functions of each and the needs of the individual student."

"The school library furnishes the student's basic needs," Mrs. Cockrell continued, "text books, basic reference and course-related materials. The public library by comparison, must furnish a wide variety of materials written on many different subjects in order to satisfy the needs of the entire community it serves."

"Both schools and public libraries are bound together by a common purpose in teaching young people how to use the resources of a library in order that they may be prepared to meet a world that demands continuous reading," Mrs. Cockrell explained.

Mrs. G. M. Wajls, elementary library coordinator for Pampa Public Schools, states that "the goal of the library program has been described as putting the (See LIBRARIES, Page 3)

Dear Abby...

A Few Thoughts To Ponder Upon

DEAR READERS—Owing to the overwhelming number of letters I have received last night, I have received lambs-ears. The idea that you may be per-reading the item together with a sampling of the small that follows:

DEAR ABBY: My mother was Jewish, my father was not. I was married a gentle and I suppose there are many people who do not know my background, although I've never tried to hide it.

To get to the point, recently I was a guest at a cocktail party in the home of some prominent and respected gentle people. Another guest started making small talk with me, and in casual conversation he made a very degrading remark about "the Jews." I remained silent, but was deeply hurt. Now I'm wondering if perhaps I should have said something. And if so, what?

DEAR HURT: Bigotry and b-d manners are boorish, whether perpetrated on one who is half-Jewish, or 99.44 per cent Chitewna. Unless one would reveal his own insecurity, the best response is sincere (and silent) pity rather than uttered (and futile) censure. You cannot hope to educate a bigot with one short lecture at a cocktail party.

DEAR ABBY: You've just lost your 5-star rating in our home. By remaining silent, does not one condone bigotry? I find the worst offenders are the nice, quiet people one meets socially.

I don't advocate impassioned speeches, but a quiet, rational, informed rebuttal would inform the bigot that at least one listener does not subscribe.

DEAR ABBY: If one cannot hope to educate a bigot in one short lecture at a cocktail party, one wonders why you even bother to write a column and offer advice. Better you should

Astrological Forecast

By CARROLL RIGTER

FOR TUESDAY, NOV. 1.
GENERAL TENDENCIES: A restless, nervous, and somewhat irritable mood will be yours as well as individuals such as you and it is necessary that a watchful attitude be adopted in which steadfastness of purpose in completing with character what has already been placed in motion is a prerequisite to a successful day's events.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) — Don't be in such a rush to get so much done that you have an accident or cause damage of one sort or another. Some out-of-town letters could be disturbing. Compose your self and you find it will result in more benefits for you.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) — If you use good practical sense instead of getting yourself into a tangle, you will find that matters are handled ideally. Be sure to take care of minute repairs about the house, shop, etc. Have greater faith in yourself.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) — You had better schedule your time intelligently if you get confused and then have a feeling of failure, exasperation. Take more time with your appearance. Avoid even the smallest amount of gaudiness.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) — Although you are altogether too anxious about certain disturbances, conditions of the day if you use true philosophy all is well. Be sure to schedule your time intelligently for situations to resolve themselves. Then you get right picture answers.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 22) — Better rely more on yourself today, since you could be very busy with own affairs and have little time to spend on you. This is not a good day for that personal attainment you have planned.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) — Show meetings or you could most certainly jeopardize good work you have laboriously been building up. Hit on some system that helps you to cut down on errors in your work. Be a perfectionist.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) — Before you schedule your time, consider situations on hand the new and untried, think well your heart set on it. Be sure you have a study more and you find that present set-up is really ideal. Success can be just around the corner.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) — Trying to slough off your work on others or being forceful with them could lead you into much trouble, so be sure to stick to your own work.

Spelling Contest Director Selected

B. R. Nuckols, county superintendent of schools, is the 1967 Spelling Bee director for Gray County.

Sometime before April 1, the Gray County Bee will be held and the champion will go to Amarillo on April 22 for the annual regional elimination for the National Spelling Bee.

Last year, Gayle Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Griffin of Pampa, was the Gray County champion and placed 15th in the Regional Bee. The champion was an eighth grader in the St. Vincent's Catholic School.

The 1967 Golden Spread Bee will be co-sponsored by West Texas State University and the Amarillo Globe-News. L. J. Edmondson, West Texas State University director of public services, will be director of the Golden Spread. Again there will be a unique secondary contest, the Junior Spelling Bee, open only to contestants from the sixth and lower grades. The National Spelling Bee is open to all students, from first to eighth grades.

The Gray County junior champion for 1966 was Meredith Dingman, daughter of Mrs. Joan Dingman of 1105 Cinderella. She was a fifth grader in the Travis Elementary school.

First place winner in the Golden Spread Bee will go to Washington during the first week in June, 1967, to participate in the National Spelling Bee. The winner will also receive several other attractive prizes, and his (or her) school will have a full year of use of the Britannica film-service. A traveling plaque, carrying the names of all regional winners since 1949, will hang at the school of the winner.

STRONG TOES

LONDON (UPI)—Peanut vendor Behr Emin had something to shout about. About seven tons of something, in fact. That's how much the double-decker London bus weighed that rolled onto his foot.

Emin was taken to hospital for treatment, but doctors said he was not seriously hurt.

EDUCATIONAL GAP

ABINGTON, England (UPI)—The spanking new John Mason High School has everything—well, almost everything.

The best language in Britain, the school said. The finest acoustics system in the music room. Every cold weather comfort. Everything, in fact, except books.

So parents said they would contribute $494 to the financially strapped school board to buy textbooks for the school's 600 students.

Mrs. Billie Wilson

Mrs. Billie Wilson, 47, of 228 S. Sumner, suffered a heart attack at Shamrock yesterday afternoon while enroute from Oklahoma and died at 4:50 p.m. in Shamrock General Hospital.

Mrs. Wilson was born Dec. 11, 1919, in Heaton, Okla. She had been employed as an operator by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. the past 19 years. Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Loyd Wilson of the home; a daughter, Miss Sue Ballard of the home; a step-daughter, Mrs. John Kotara III of White Deer; her mother, Mrs. Bill Moon of Amarillo; a grandmother, Mrs. Lela Moon of Hobart, Okla.; two brothers, Earl Moon of El Paso and Johnny Moon of Amarillo; three sisters, Mrs. J. E. Shultz of Dodge City, Kan., Mrs. Jim Bentley of Amarillo and Mrs. Carl Buchanan Jr. of Bakerfield, Calif., and three step-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Schooler-Gordon Colonial Chapel, Amarillo, with Rev. G. Ford, pastor of Amarillo Fairview Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in Memorial Park, Amarillo, under direction of Schooler-Gordon Funeral Home.

Business Firms Are Burglarized

Three Pampa business firms were burglarized over the weekend.

L. A. Barber, owner of a warehouse at 124 Osage, reported to city police that a burglar or burglars entered the warehouse sometime between midnight Saturday and 9 a.m. Sunday and stole approximately $240 in power tools and a 1950 Studebaker truck.

Entry was gained by forcing the rear door open. In connection with the burglary, police are investigating the disappearance of an Amarillo man, who had been hired as a handyman by Barber.

Parker's Blossom Shop, 220 N. Ward, received a visit from a thief or thieves sometime over the weekend, police report.

A sledge hammer and heavy bar was used to gain entry to break out a window on the south side of the building.

An undetermined amount of money was taken, the owner reported to city police.

A neat thick stacked paneling from the lower half of a door, and the instrument used to remove it, outside the back door before entering the Deep Rock Service Station, 329 E. Brown, over the weekend.

Desk drawers and a box of Christmas decorations were ransacked, but nothing was reported missing from the service station.

Bob Fugate reported to city police that someone had hurled a beer bottle through a 60 inch by 90 inch plate glass window of his printing shop over the weekend.

Police estimate the damage at $90.

In 1931, the Treasury Department announced that the financial condition of the nation was so grave that 522 banks had to close that month.

PRETTIES — Mrs. Tommy Grant and Mrs. Melvin Stephens, l. to r., begin assembling a few of the creations they will contribute to the Fine Arts Botique this week in the Coronado Shopping Center.

Pampa and Area Craftsmen To Participate in Arts Botique

A collection of arts and crafts created by Pampa and area artists will be included in the Fine Arts Botique planned for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week in the Coronado Shopping Center.

Plans for the project were started last January, according to Mrs. Fred H. Sloan, chairman of the Design Arts of the Pampa Fine Arts Association.

Artists and craftsmen from Pampa, Amarillo, Dumas, Shamrock and Canadian will have items for sale," she said.

"We are hoping that this will become an annual event since this area needs a commercial outlet for this type of thing. It will, as well, provide extra funds for the operation of the Fine Arts Association.

Items to be offered for sale include copper enamel, boxes, tinware, felt items, glass and agate dice, candles, children's toys and doll clothes, Christmas stockings, flower arrangements and many other items, Mrs. Sloan said.

A few of the persons taking part include Mmes. R. H. Nensiel, Jack Crites, Eugene Olds, Tommy Grant, Sister Joseph Michael, Miss Betty Schwinn of Amarillo, Mrs. Ray Powers of Twitty and several members of an Amarillo art group and a Dumas art group.

The event is being planned by Mmes. Dewey Palminter, Fred Sloan, Ann Heskew, Cecil Shirley, Vernon Hall, Melvin Stephens, W. E. Hinton and Bill Bumpers.

The public is invited to shop the Botique after 4 p.m. daily.

Sheppard Trial Attorneys Seek Alternate Jurors

CLEVELAND (UPI)—Attorneys in the Sheppard murder trial began questioning prospective alternate jurors today. Two must be selected to complete the panel.

The completed jury may visit the murder home, as did the neurosurgeon accused of slaying his wife. Also still to be decided was a motion to move the trial away from here.

It was expected that the alternate jurors would be chosen today. But it could take longer. During the five days it took to pick the regular panel, 12 of the 46 persons questioned—more than one-fourth—said they had fixed opinions and could not be fair and impartial.

Furthermore, the state and defense each had two peremptory challenges per prospective alternate—eight in all. And F. Lee Bailey, chief defense counsel, is said to prefer using all the challenges at his disposal.

Also to be disposed of was a change of venue motion by which the defense seeks to transfer the trial to another county with less prejudice potential.

And there was the matter whether the jury would visit the two-story home in suburban Bay Village, where Dr. Sheppard's first wife, 31-year-old pregnant Marilyn, was found beaten to death on July 1, 1954. Judge Francis J. Tally has issued no final order for it.

MILDBERGER WARNED - ROME (UPI)—European heavyweight champion Karl Mildberger was warned Friday by the European Boxing Union to defend his title against Italy's Piero Tomasoni. The Union said Mildberger, of West Germany, must meet the Italian by Jan. 16, 1967 or forfeit the crown.

Levittown, a name which has become a national symbol for suburbia in the United States, is a mass-produced residential development of more than 17,000 moderately priced houses built by the firm of Levitt and Sons, Inc., between 1947 and 1951. It is located on Long Island, N.Y., and has a population of approximately 65,000 people.

thousands of "volunteers" to Viet Nam to help fight American and allied troops.

Ho's comments came in an interview with French journalist Emmanuel Destier de la Vigerie. The text of the interview was broadcast by the official Hanoi news agency VNA and monitored here.

He also repeated the official Hanoi stand that the war can be settled only by following the four-point Viet Cong edict. Both programs call for prior withdrawal of all U.S. forces before any settlement. Both have been rejected by the United States.

Pampan Dies Of Gunshot Wound In Home of Parents

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow in Odessa for Jim Bill Manley, 33 of Pampa, who died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound in the home of his parents there Saturday.

Odessa police said Mr. Manley shot himself in the right temple with a 22-caliber rifle at 5:45 a.m. Saturday.

The shooting, police said, took place in a bedroom and he was pronounced dead on arrival at Medical Center Hospital in Odessa by Justice of the Peace T. B. Wedgworth, who stated the wound was self-inflicted.

Odessa police said Mr. Manley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Manley, and his wife, Barbara June, were in the home at the time of the shooting.

Mr. Manley, according to Odessa newspaper accounts, had reportedly been in ill health. Mr. Manley had been secretary-treasurer of Frontier Perforators, Inc. here from January, 1964, to February of this year. He was employed by Cabot Corp. for three months from July 1 to Sept. 30 this year when he terminated his employment there. His home was at 107 W. 27th St.

Born Oct. 14, 1933 in Lead Hill, Ark., he married Miss Barbara June Thompson on Dec. 22, 1955, in Hobbs, N.M. The couple moved to Pampa from Odessa three years ago. Mr. Manley was a member of Highland Christian Church and Downtown Kiwanis Club.

Other than his wife and parents, survivors include a daughter, Melody, and a son, Gary, both of the home, and a brother, Don Manley of Valley Center, Kan.

right book in the hands of the right child at the right time. Our desire is for the children to reach for a library book rather than a TV knob.

"A school library is more than a collection of books. The school teaches children how to read, it is true, but it is the school library and the teacher librarian to teach him to like to read for educational, personal and vocational needs of youth that reading can satisfy," she said.

"The possession of real skill in the use of a good library is indispensable in college work. This kind of skill taught on the school level closely related to the curriculum can save a college freshman many hours of laborious struggle in the large college library."

An event being sponsored by the Texas Education Agency, Mrs. Wall pointed out, will be a library workshop for untrained personnel to be held Nov. 21-23 in Sam Houston Elementary School.

Mrs. LaVerne Morrison, library consultant from the Agency, will conduct the workshop for representatives from all public schools in Pampa and surrounding areas.

IT HAS TO BE ROUND — Leymond Hall, owner and operator of Hall Tire Company, 700 W. Foster, MO 5-5755, makes a tire perfectly round on Tru-O-Matic Truer, the machine that quickly takes the bumps out of your tires, and makes them perfectly round. The Alemite Electronic Wheel Balancer completes the operation by balancing your tires. Then you get a smoother ride on longer wearing tires. In addition you have less driver fatigue. Drive into Hall Tire Company for car service. They have new Dayton, Security and Mohawk Tires; also top quality used tires and seat covers, Mobil gasolines and oils.

Get More Wear With Tires From Hall Tire Company

Tires, perfectly round, perfectly balanced, wear longer, give you a smoother ride and prolonged car life.

Those are the reasons why

Leymond Hall, owner-operator of Hall Tire Company, 700 W. Foster, MO 5-5755, urges you to drive in and make sure your tires are in top condition. He can round your tires on the Tru-O-Matic Tire Truer and balance your auto wheels on the Alemite Electronic Wheel Balancer.

Tires that are not perfectly round (out-of-round in car service language) bump and bounce along the highway and cause extra wear on your tires and on your car. In addition, these out-of-round tires cause extra fatigue for the car driver and passengers.

By balancing your tires Hall completes tire service for your smoother, more comfortable ride.

Another one of Hall's car service is the front end alignment for over-all steering ease and longer tire life.

This all-round tire service firm offers you new, top-quality Tires by Dayton, Mohawk and Security and hard-to-get and other sizes in really good used tires.

This fall check with Hall Tire for the snow tires to help you get through the winter with greater ease. These high-traction tires will pull you through snows when you need to go. Check them out.

Adn check out Hall's tire deals. Shop around. Note the quality. Note the prices. Then compare Hall's deal — you'll find he has the best in town.

Leymond Hall takes pride in this selection and variety of seat

Modern Forms Printing For Modern Business at Fugates

Fugate Printing has built a reputation as "The Modern Printers" by supplying hundreds of Pampa business firms with carefully designed forms and stationery that "do the job."

Fugates, while specializing in the printing of business forms, also produce many other printed items—brochures, catalogs, booklets, cards, tags, checks, things printed on paper or cardboard. Each order is carefully produced to give the customer a crisp, clean, well-printed piece.

Bob Fugate, owner, has been known in Pampa for top quality printing and lithography since 1951, and on this reputation has expanded to the present large, modern printing plant at 210 N. Ward St. Regardless of the size or complexity of your printing order—whether it be business cards or an eight-part one-time carbon form—you can be sure it will be produced accurately and quickly at Fugate Printing Company. The highest quality steel die engraving is also available at Fugates. These beautifully engraved wedding invitations, formal notes, business cards, etc. are available in many styles and prices. The more moderately priced, "simulated engraving" is also available for these items.

Fugates stock a complete line of office supplies which include all the popular brand names. Columnar sheets and pads, post and ring binders, filing folders and guides, expanding waiters, typewriter and adding machine ribbons, mimeograph stencils and ink. Duplicator master units and fluid, all kinds of scotch tapes, paper fasteners, staplers and staples, adding machine tape, pencil, ball point pens and refills, and hundreds of other items necessary for the efficient operation of any office. In addition to their printing and lithographing service and supplies, Fugates offer the best copying service in the area. They are used to making copies of almost any type, drawn or printed material. Business people depend on Fugates for copies of charts, letters, reports, price lists, etc. Fugates have 24 hour service on Xerox work and even "same day service" at special prices.

Fugate Printing also has equipment to produce Photostatic copies of Engineering drawings, house plans, maps, charts or any other material requiring large size copies. Maximum copy board size is 36" x 48". Maximum reproduction size is 18" x 24". Photostats are made Tuesdays and Thursdays only.

Come by and see the friendly folks at Fugate Printing located at 210 N. Ward St. or call MO 5-3431 for quick, free delivery—you'll be glad you did, and so will we!

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — William R. White—of Hornblower & Weeks, Hemphill, Noyes says technical behavior encourages the belief that the recovery in the industrial stock market average now may follow the pattern of the utility index in surpassing the September rally top for an intermediate bullish signal.

Bache & Co. says it feels that blue chips are in the process of returning to more historic patterns of price-earnings multiples and the firm says it continues to take a cautiously constructive view of the current market scene.

Newton D. Zinder of E. F. Hutton & Co. says that in another few days the bulk of the earnings reports will have been released and the market "will not have the benefit of what, for it this month, has been an important stimulus." For that reason, Zinder says, it would seem best not to become over aggressive on the buying side at this point.

Tascosa, Lubbock Battle Could Be For South Title

By RON CROSS Sports Editor

They've got two games left in the north zone but Monterey strapped on their safety belt for a good stretch run Friday night. The Plainsmen settled themselves into a one-game lead by downing Amarillo, 28-14. Monterey is now 2-0 in the league and the Sandies dropped to 2-1.

The Plainsmen can wrap up at least a tie Friday night if they can whip Borger at Borger. The Bulldogs played a non-league game at Plainview Saturday night and lost 28-14.

Monterey is 6-2 for the season and Borger, 1-1 in league play, is 4-3-1 for the season.

Pampa won their first conference game, after two losses, 30-18 over Caprock and moved to fourth place in the north zone. Caprock is now 0-2.

In south zone action Tascosa and Lubbock are tied for the zone lead with 2-0 marks. The Revels whacked Palo Duro (1-2) while Lubbock downed Lubbock Coronado, 14-13. Coronado is now 0-2-1.

The south zone championship will probably be decided at Amarillo when these two teams meet Friday.

Plainview still has a slim outside chance with a 0-1-1 record. In all action this week Caprock (4-4) and Amarillo (4-4) meet Saturday as do Monterey (6-2) and Borger (3-4-1).

Friday games has Pampa (4-4) at Coronado (3-4-1); Lubbock (4-4) at Tascosa (8-0) and Palo Duro (2-6) at Plainview (1-6-1).

SMU IN DRIVERS SEAT

A victory by the Tigers would cinch the 2-A title while a victory by Wheeler would mean the Mustangs would have to lose to Clarendon the following week for the Tigers to tie for the district championship.

Another important conference game looms over in district 1-A where White Deer, with a 2-0 league mark and 7-0 season record hosts Gruver, who is in second place with a 0-0-1 record.

A victory by White Deer would assure the Bucks of a least a tie.

In district 5-B Lefors will shoot for their fourth in a row and hope to tie Groom for the district lead when they host Boker, 0-1 in league play.

Lefors downed Follett, 20-6 last week while Groom pounced 30-8. Both are 2-0 in the district. Groom will have the week off, having Miami on their schedule but the Warriors quit 11-man football.

White Deer still leads all area teams in won-loss, most points scored and defense.

The Bucks defensive unit is still unscored on, although two touchdowns have been scored on pass interceptions.

Wheeler proved they are the team to beat in 2-A and the Friday night affair with McLean will probably be to decide who meets White Deer in the first round of the state playoffs.

The Bucks have beaten McLean also, the only loss the Tigers have suffered.

championship. SMU is out in front by a half game over the Aggies and Arkansas and must meet both challengers on the next two week ends if they are to return the hilltop school to the glory it hasn't enjoyed since the late 1940s and the Doak Walker era.

The Ponies are just squeezing by, but for the first time since Hayden Fry moved to the head coaching job, SMU has won three games in a row and all three have been conference affairs. They won two of them in the final seconds—28-24 with nine seconds left against Rice and then last Saturday 13-12 with 18 seconds left against Texas.

Most observers now feel that the championship will be decided in the Ozarks—just as it has been in recent years, but this time on a much later date, Nov. 12—when SMU and Arkansas meet at Fayetteville.

But, first SMU must get by the Aggies, who are sure to be aroused after having their title hopes shattered 34-0 by an Arkansas team that finally appears to have found itself offensively. And, Arkansas must get by spasmodically dangerous Rice at neutral Little Rock in another afternoon clash.

With SMU at 5-1 and 3-0 and Arkansas at 6-1 and 3-1, four other clubs still have a chance at the title. The Razorbacks have won the past two years. The Aggies, of course, also are 3-1 in league action. TCU and Texas are 2-2 and Baylor, beaten 6-0 by TCU last week is 1-2.

Only Texas Tech, 35-19 conqueror of Rice, at 1-4 and Rice at 0-3 are completely out of the running.

But, if SMU gets by the Aggies and the Porkers handle Rice, then chances are good that SMU will win the title outright or share it with Arkansas depending on how they fare Nov. 12.

Dennis Partee's 31 and 32-yard fourth quarter field goals gave SMU its victory over Texas and both were ignited by recoveries of Texas fumbles. Jerry Leivas scored the SMU touchdown on a 10-yard pass from Mike Livingston and that gave the Negro sophomore the conference scoring lead with 36 points.

Bruce Alford's 32 and 48-yard field goals that beat Baylor marked the third successive hear he had kicked Baylor into defeat.

David Dickey scored four times for Arkansas as a sub for ailing Bruce Maxwell, but it was the generalship and pass-run manipulations of Jon Brittenum that proved the wide difference for the Hogs against A&M.

Tech throttled Rice's Robby Shelton, while John Scovell passed and Mike Leinert led a band of strong runners to push the Owls into the conference cellar.

Wheeler, McLean Meet Friday For 2-A Title

By A Staff Writer

There'll be no letup for the Wheeler Mustangs as they step from the frying pan into the fire in area football action this week.

The Mustangs, who played White Deer to the hilt in a non-conference 12-6 loss last week, will try to move a step closer to the district 2-A title when they host McLean Friday night.

In this, the top-area game on the card, McLean will carry a 3-0 2-A record into the game while the Mustangs are 2-0.

They are the only two remaining unbeaten 2-A teams. Wheeler is 6-2 for the season and McLean, 7-1.

A victory by the Tigers would cinch the 2-A title while a victory by Wheeler would mean the Mustangs would have to lose to Clarendon the following week for the Tigers to tie for the district championship.

Dallas moved into a temporary tie for first with St. Louis in the East by mauling Pittsburgh 52-21. Cleveland remained in the East race by whipping Atlanta, 49-17. Washington beat Philadelphia, 27-13 and San Francisco dumped Minnesota, 28-3.

Unitas hit Johnny Mackey with two touchdown passes in the first half, an 89-yard strike on the first Colt offensive play of the game and a 17-yard pass in the second period, and that provided the margin in the game that was scoreless in the second half.

Elijah Pitts, filling in for the injured Paul Hornung, scored three TDs and Bart Starr picked apart the Detroit offense with near perfect passing as the Packers routed the Lions. Green Bay, which has the best record in pro football—7-1—scored 17 points in the second quarter to break it wide open.

Don Meredith threw four touchdown passes to give Dallas its easy victory over Pittsburgh. The Steelers actually led 7-0 at the end of the first quarter as Marv Woodson intercepted a Meredith pass and ran it back 56 yards for a TD. But Meredith then started hitting his own receivers and Lee Roy Jordan ran an interception back 49 yards for a TED and Mel Renfro ran a kickoff back 87 yards for another TD to make it easy.

Frank Ryan also threw four receivers and Lee Roy Jordan ran an interception back 49 yards for a TED and Mel Renfro ran a kickoff back 87 yards for another TD to make it easy.

Unitas Passes Old Giants Y.A. Title

By United Press International

You can almost guarantee that when Johnny Unitas named to the pro football Hall of Fame, he'll say he's surprised.

As usual, he will be the only one.

The laconic, unemotional football genius became the greatest passer in the history of the National Football League Sunday while leading the Baltimore Colts to a 17-3 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. But Unitas acted like his new passing record was no more of a feat than passing bread across a table.

Unitas even admitted he was surprised when the referee handed him the game ball at the end of the third period.

Surprised By Award

"I was surprised to learn I had passed Y.A. Tittle's career passing mark, records don't interest me much and nobody mentioned it before the game," Unitas said.

Unitas, who ranks in the same company with Tittle, Sammy Baugh, Otto Graham, Bobby Layne, Sid Luckman, Cecil Isbell and other illustrious quarterbacks, completed 13 of 22 passes for 252 yards to break Tittle's old mark of 28,334. Unitas now has 28,375.

But while Unitas acted so usually, the guy who caught the 31-yard pass at the end of the third period that put Unitas over the top, Ray Berry, was excited about it.

"John says he doesn't care but it gave me a big thrill. It was an honor to catch the ball that broke the record. I saw it all the way, knew it was the important one and I didn't even think about records, Berry said.

Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

The Keys Are In Your Hands

Although more Americans (numerically, not percentage-wise) are being killed in motor vehicle accidents than ever before, United States motorists are probably the world's safest drivers. Then what are the other nations' drivers like? For the most part relatively unsafe—so much so that in some countries the death rate per 100,000 registered vehicles is many times that of the United States. This was the Health Insurance Institute's analysis of World Health Organization statistics on 20 countries as compiled by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Based on figures for 1963, the United States' total of 52.6 deaths per 100,000 registered vehicles was low for the 20 nations.

New Zealand with a 33.8 average, was the only nation that approached this country's record.

America's longer experience with traffic, its constant refinement of auto regulations, and generally superior roadways, were listed as the main reasons for less tragic mortality statistics. While we might give due credit to the listed reasons, we believe that the main reason for less-traffic deaths can be attributed to the fact that Americans, until recently, relatively speaking, were not burdened down with as many bureaucratic laws and regulatory decrees as people in other countries and were, consequently, more self-responsible individuals.

"Unsafest" country, according to the report, was Japan, whose toll was nearly eight times as high as that of the United States. Finland, Italy and Austria had death rates about five times as high.

The registered vehicle mortality rate in Japan was 404.2; in Finland, 261.2; Italy, 257; and Austria, 242.9.

Canada, with 74.6 deaths per 100,000 vehicles, was third safest, while Sweden, with 76.1, and England, Wales and Scotland, with 76.3, followed.

In many countries where statistics are most grim, blame, according to the report, generally was placed on a too sudden influx of automobiles driven by relatively inexperienced drivers on poor roads regulated by inadequate laws.

Other countries with over 150 deaths per 100,000 registered vehicles—or three times that of the United States—were the Netherlands, West Germany and Switzerland.

In Ireland, the death rate was 104 per 100,000 registered vehicles, while in Northern Ireland, the corresponding rate was 83.1.

Even so, and we are inclined to look with suspicion upon any statistics the United Nations' World Health Organization had anything to do with, there is no denying that the death and injury rate due to automobile accidents in this country is entirely too high.

What is the answer, then? We believe that the keys to at least part of the problem are in the hands of the parents' reading this.

There comes a time in the life of almost every parent when he is faced with the decision to turn over or not to turn over the keys of the family car to that teen-age son or daughter.

If the parent makes a wrong decision at this point, all the traffic laws, driver's tests and licensing in the world will not reduce the traffic toll. Has the son or daughter acquired a sense of responsibility, a respect for the property and rights of others? If not, to place the keys of the family car in their hands is tantamount to handing them a fuzed and ticking bomb.

The parent who has a son or daughter who lacks a sense of responsibility—the awareness that they, and they alone, are responsible for their every act and the consequences thereof—should withhold the keys to the car until they have acquired that quality. To do otherwise is to gamble with the life of one's son or daughter, as well as with the lives of others.

And the parent, in judging the qualifications of the teenager, might avail himself of the opportunity to check his own qualifications. Example, after all, is still the best teacher.

There Is a Remedy

All kinds of schemes are advanced by high governmental officials, as well as congressmen, for putting the lid on inflation. It is interesting to note that so far as is discernible, few of the schemes suggest curbing excessive spending of the taxpayer's dollars—spending that embraces countless welfare programs and is aimed primarily at getting votes.

One congressman recently observed, "I think they (economic advisors) are now convinced that inflation cannot be checked with monetary policies and must be done through restrictions on installment buying and by curbing corporation expansions." So now we have another proposal. Typically, it would restrict the activities of private citizens and apparently limit the ability of corporations to expand and increase production of goods and services to keep abreast of the ever-growing demands of these tax spenders for more revenue.

Until the people realize that there are too many "good-time Charlies" holding public office, and start to retire them via the polling booth, there will continue to be inflation, and the prices of everything we wear and eat will continue to rise.

Here They Go Again

Bertram A. Powers, president of the New York local of the International Typographical Union, predicts that his printers will get the biggest, fattest and juiciest contract ever in soon-to-start negotiations with the city's newspapers. He thinks the nine other newspaper unions should do as well. The reason, he says, is that the newspaper industry in New York no longer has any "p.o.c. cousins to cry poor mouth."

He's right. They're dead. Killed dead. They expired during the last strike, a little weeding-out process of some 140 days.

BIG BUSINESS

(Industrial News Review)

In the current era, people have been educated to the idea that someone owes them damage every time they stub their toe, and the liability for simply living is becoming so great that the average person can hardly afford to pay for adequate insurance. If you give your neighbor a lift to work in your car and have an accident, he can sue you and collect exorbitant amounts. If a friend walks across your property and injures himself, he can sue you and collect. You constantly read of judgments of $10,000, $50,000, $100,000 and up.

pay for all the risks of life has become big business. It is promoted by some of the sharpest mercenary minds who make a profession of litigating damage suits. It's time we all realize that although insurance companies may write the checks to settle outlandish damage claims, we pay the bill in everrising costs of essential insurance coverage.

A thought for the day—American clergyman Reinhold Niebuhr said: "Goodness, armed with power, is corrupted; and pure love without power is destroyed."

Sensing The News

By THURMAN SENSING

The end of the 89th Congress will begin a time of appraisal for the work of the legislative branch in the last two years. Whether its work was constructive or destructive will be fiercely debated, especially in the days remaining before the congressional elections.

Already various groups are giving it marks of one sort or another. The New Republic, a liberal journal published in the nation's capital, says that Congress deserves a B plus mark for its efforts. A spokesman for The New York Times, however—another liberal vice—gives it an even higher grade, saying that the Congress has initiated more liberal legislation than any since the first Roosevelt Congress. The weight of evidence seems to be on the side of The New York Times, namely that the 89th Congress has been a truly radical Congress.

For constitutionalists, the record of the 89th Congress is truly distressing. During the Kennedy years, the United States moved down the left side of the road at a brisk pace. But there has been a tremendous acceleration in a leftward direction during the period of the Johnson administration.

Indeed the 89th Congress should be called the Johnson Congress. It has been a rubber stamp for the legislation that Mr. Johnson has sought. Only in the case of repeal of section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, which permits state right to work laws, did the Congress rebel against presidential dictation. Medicare was enacted. So was the drastic Civil Rights Act of 1964, and other measures which undermine the rights of the states and the self-reliance of the American people.

The Civil Rights Act of 1964 was the most radical legislation enacted by the Congress. It has done more to weaken the fabric of American constitutional government than any other piece of legislation in years. What the Act does is give federal officials unprecedented power to pressure and to harass public school officials, school trustees, and hospital administrators. The freedom of doctors and hospital administrators to make orderly, efficient arrangements for patients has been threatened by federal inspectors who put political requirements ahead of the needs of the sick.

Nowhere is the impact of the Civil Rights Act felt more strongly than in public education. In recent months, school boards have been reporting the ugly pressures exerted against them by the office of the U.S. Commissioner of Education, Harold Howe. They have had orders given to them over the telephone so that no record of the federal ruthlessness would be left to prove embarrassing to the Johnson administration.

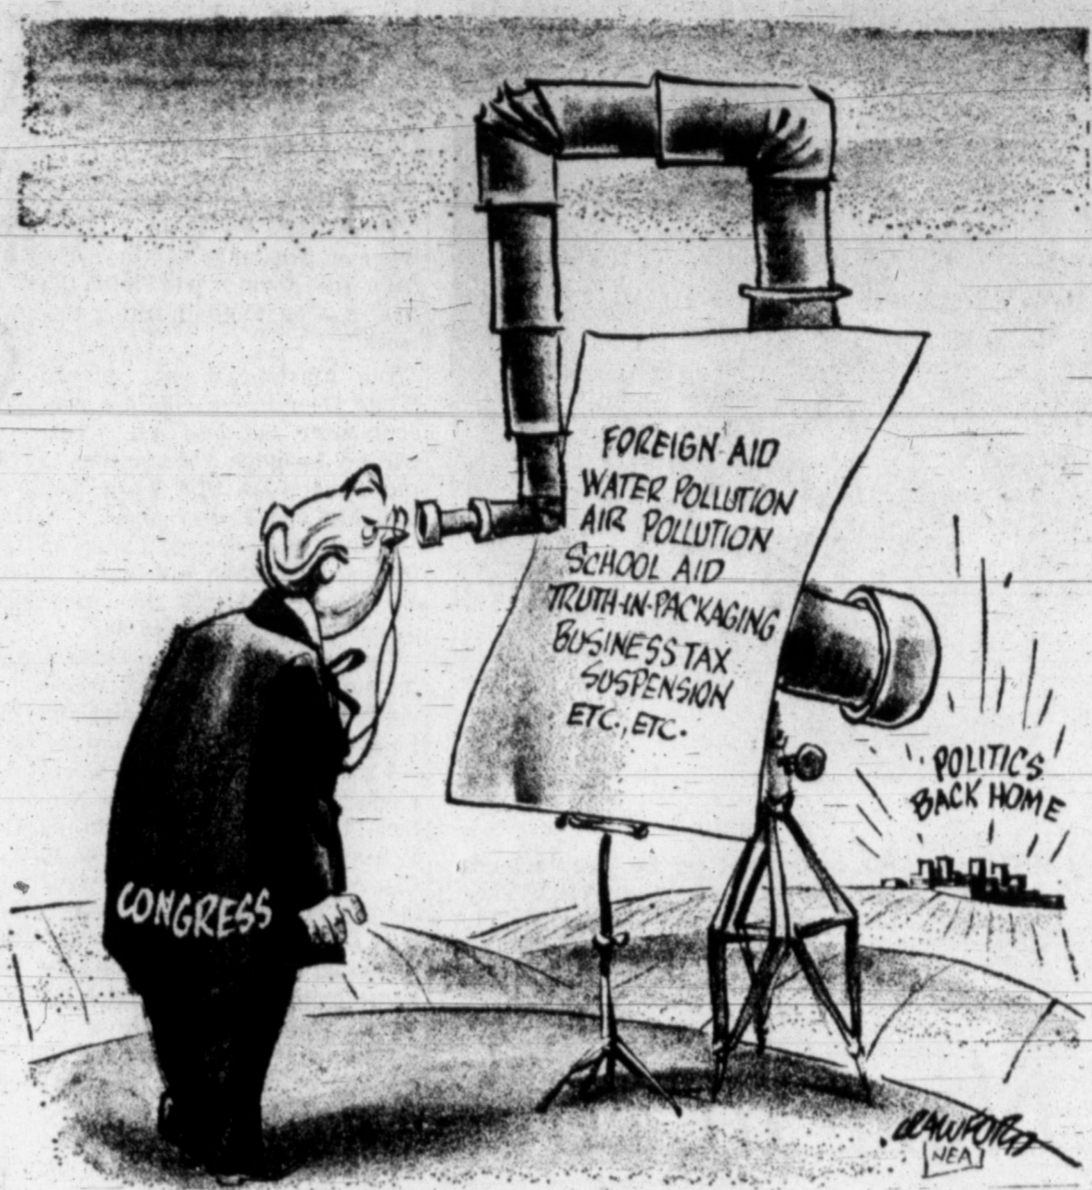

It is very clear that the result of this enactment by the 89th Congress is developing a federal ministry of education such as exists in totalitarian countries. Local control of the education of young people soon may be a thing of the past unless the composition of Congress is changed markedly after the new year. The next step for the federal government, one can be sure, is control over the books and courses of study prescribed for students.

The 89th Congress also should be remembered for the wasteful anti-poverty program. The program was enacted without appropriate controls. The result is that ex-convicts and other undesirables have been employed in the federal anti-poverty program. In a number of communities, public funds have been spent without any accounting. The War on Poverty seems to be exempt from rules and regulations that apply to other departments.

The 89th Congress failed the nation in refusing to take effective action in the air line union strike and in the New York transit strike. It lacked the courage to write effective anti-inflation legislation or to cut back on the federal spending that fires inflation.

The need, it is clear, is a Congress that has a large body of members determined to repair the damage done to the Constitution and to call the bureaucrats to account, as well as to cut the appalling waste. Only by reinforcing the opposition in the Congress, November 8 can the American people end the havoc caused by virtual one-party rule in Washington.

"The Sound of Music" has made a fortune for everyone connected with it from Rodgers and Hammerstein, who created the Broadway musical that is now a hit film, to the lowliest theatre owner who has exhibited it. Even a bus line operator in Austria is cashing in the show's popularity. He offers one-day tours of the "film location," near Salzburg, at $20 per person and the American tourists line up to get aboard. Remember those licorice cigarettes of your boyhood? Well, if you still like 'em, you'll be able to smoke them very soon. One of the big tobacco companies is now test-marketing licorice-flavored cigarettes. It surprises us that it took them so long to get around to it.

Today's smile: A woman customer in a hardware store told the clerk she wanted a particular sized pipe plug. The clerk asked: "Do you want a male plug or a female plug, or both?" "Look," said the woman, "my husband asked me to get it to stop a leak. We don't plan to raise them."

We don't know the reason for it, but $1 bills are printed 18 at a time at the Bureau of Engraving at Washington. The back is printed first and the serial number is the last thing affixed in the printing process. The bills are sized to make them wear longer. A machine counts out 100 of them and puts a band around them. The same machine next counts 40 units of banded bills ($4,000) and seals them in a package. That's the way they're delivered to banks.

Thoughts while shaving: One of the most prolific authors of all time was Felix Lope de la Vega Carpio, a Spaniard. He turned out more than 1,300 plays, poems and novels back in the early 1600's, and still found time to serve on a warship of the Spanish Armada when that fleet attacked England.

A scientist friend, who has worked on some of the space projects, tells us that our space research is a great boon to the national economy. ## HUNT FOR TRUTH

By H. L. HUNT

WILL POLICEMEN STOP WORKING?
In some large cities "citizens review boards" are being set up to decide whether members of the police force are justified in the arrests they make. If an arrested person claims he was taken into custody on fraudulent charges, the review board may summon the arresting officer to appear and defend himself. This may subject the policeman to paying attorney's charges and perhaps the loss of wages during the time he is appearing before the board. Moreover, he must prove the arrest was justified instead of the arrested person having to substantiate his charges.

J. Edgar Hoover has offered a sharp comment on the citizens review boards. "When carefully considered," he wrote not long ago in the Law Enforcement Bulletin, "it is clear this drive for external boards is an ill-advised maneuver. It amounts to the usurpation of authority rightfully belonging to the police commander. It is a practice which could damage effective law enforcement and reduce the orderly process of community life to petty bickerings, suspicion and hatred." Law-abiding Americans will surely agree. Policemen are already harassed enough in trying to do their duty. They are not going to stop working, of course, but they can hardly be encouraged by knowing that every time they make an arrest they face the possibility of being haled before a board of civilians who know little or nothing about police work. The proper role of citizens is to uphold and support the forces of law and order as represented by the police. If discipline of a policeman is necessary, it should be carried out within the police department.

Enough Fulfillment

(Chicago Tribune)

Four lines attributed to St. Francis of Paula, noted for his gifts of prophecy, have been called to our attention by a friend who found in family papers a copy of them made in an English cemetery. In view of the fact that St. Francis of Paula died in 1507, only a remarkably well directed imagination could have enabled him to write.

When pictures look alive with movements free,
When ships, like fishes,
swim beneath the sea,
When men outstripping birds
shall scan the sky—
Then half the world,
deep drenched in blood,
shall die.

Our century has already produced the motion picture, the submarine, the airplane—and savage wars involving to some extent half the civilized world, at least. Despite the bloodshed in modern wars, no prophecy that half the world will die has yet been fully borne out. Yet, however confidently we rely upon the deterrent strategy of preventing the recurrence of large-scale war, we all must realize that mankind has recently acquired the technology that makes the fulfillment of that last line of verse literally possible. Earlier generations may have been as malicious as ours, or even more so, but they lacked our expertise in killing.

It is easier to telephone an order from a catalogue in their own homes instead of filling out an order blank and mailing it. Besides, many of the big stores now offer 24-hour telephone ordering service. . . . On Prevention of Hepatitis
(Last of two related articles)
Since the prevalence of viral hepatitis appears to be increasing and since there is no specific treatment for this disease, doctors have turned their attention to preventive measures. To prevent the water-borne infectious hepatitis it is wise to wash your hands after each trip to the toilet and before each meal. Chlorination of the local water supply is a prime essential.

To prevent serum hepatitis doctors are avoiding transfusions of whole blood or blood plasma except as a lifesaving measure. Plasma substitutes, such as dextrans, are safe. They are used instead of plasma whenever possible. The use of disposable hypodermic needles has helped to prevent the transmission of serum hepatitis which has been known to follow the use of improperly sterilized needles. Since the disease may also be acquired from a tattooing needle, this is an added reason to discourage this practice.

The most encouraging discovery, however, is that of Dr. J. G. Allen of Stanford University. He found that when human plasma hepatitis is stored for six months at a temperature of 89 degrees Fahrenheit, the virus, although not killed, is no longer able to cause disease. Furthermore, when such plasma is given several months before a transfusion of whole blood, there is no danger of hepatitis resulting.

Alien now recommends that, instead of excluding persons who have had hepatitis from being blood donors, these people be encouraged to give blood to be used to make "immune plasma." Not only is any hepatitis virus destroyed, but the recipient is protected against it. Even when our people speak in the same language, Vietnamese traditions are so different from ours that Vietnamese read into what we say different meanings than we intend. This can result in tragedies. A recent incident brings this problem into focus.

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and one of his senior embassy officials met the other day with one of Viet Nam's top political figures, a man who has held high office in a series of cabinets since the end of World War II and certain to be a great influence in Vietnamese politics during the next two decades. They met as friends.

In the course of the conversation, Lodge and his adviser asked this leading man how well he thought he and his fellow Vietnamese could work with Premier Nguyen Cao Ky. This is a natural question in the American way of doing things. But in the present situation, it was explosive.

The close friends and associates of this leading Vietnamese took the question as a delicate American hint that the Vietnamese should be willing to support Nguyen Cao Ky's continuation in office, perhaps even as president of the country in the next election.

It no longer matters how the leading Vietnamese himself took the question, the story, with the ramifications listed above, has now spread through the membership of the constitutional assembly. The word is going around that the United States wants them to co-operate with Ky.

Many Vietnamese like Ky personally and think he is honest politically, but to them he epitomizes military rule. They are determined that military rule end.

This innocent conversation will make many Vietnamese believe the United States is behind military rule. It will, thus, make them wary of U.S. intentions.

When a people has been subject to military rule almost constantly for more than two and one-half decades—under the Japanese, French, Deim and a succession of military juntas, these feelings are easy to understand.

Even more serious is that this innocent question becomes interpreted as an attempt by the United States to determine for the Vietnamese whom they shall have as their president. Americans are blunt. If we want someone to back someone, we say it directly. But in Viet Nam, the simple asking of a question often indicates what you want done. This is the way the ambassador's question has been interpreted.

The suspicion of U.S. intent was all the more believable because it is widely known that the United States has blocked several coup attempts against Ky. There's widespread belief Ky would have been out months ago without U.S. aid.

End to Viet Nam Conflict

May Cause Recession

AUSTIN (UPI)—A sudden end to the Viet Nam war could cause a recession that has taken business activity to its highest September level on record, the Bureau of Business Research said Saturday.

"Despite the problems created by tight money, the pressures of war demand plus a high level of consumer demand in a prosperous, consumption-oriented economy preclude the possibility of a cyclical downturn at this time," the University of Texas-sponsored bureau said.

"A sudden termination of hostilities is the principal factor that might cause a recession in the short run."

The bureau said the seasonally adjusted index of the state's business activity reached a level of 177.4 per cent in September, 16 per cent above September 1965 and the highest value on record for the month.

The report noted the state enjoyed a high level of activity, except in residential construction, during the first nine months of the year, and said it seems very likely 1966 will show

Whooping Cranes Return to Texas

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Interior Department reported Friday that 19 of the 44 rare whooping cranes have returned to their winter quarters in Texas.

The figure included two young whoopers who were born in the Canadian nesting grounds this summer. Their winter quarters is located on the Aransas National Wildlife refuge in Texas.

The department said the first whooper to arrive at Aransas was spotted by refuge manager

Phillip S. Morgan during a survey Oct. 13. The second bird was seen Oct. 16 and five others arrived Oct. 23.

Hero Remains Brave Unto Death

METUCHEN, N.J. (UPI)—Vinnie Utz, captain of the 1941 Rutgers football team, was a gridiron hero and won an All-America mention.

He remained a hero during World War II, earning the Silver Star for bravery and the Purple Heart for a wound that cost him his left arm.

And Friday he died a hero, after rescuing his wife and three children from a fire and then trying to save his elderly father-in-law.

Utz was found fatally injured in a first-floor bedroom of his two-story home.

Authorities said the one-armed hero had all but torn off his other arm in a frantic effort to rip out an air conditioner that was blocking the only exit from the burning room.

Firemen found Utz and his father-in-law, William Thompson, on the bedroom floor. Utz was dead on arrival at Middlesex General Hospital; Thompson was in good condition.
