New Red Proposal Motive Studied

$3.5 BILLION House Approves Bills For Medical Training

WASHINGTON (AP) — Taking what were termed "the first major steps in attacking the nation's health crisis on a systematic basis," the House has passed innovative bills authorizing $3.5 billion for medical training.

With votes of 343 to 3 on a health-manpower measure and $2.8 billion comprehensive health-manpower measure and 323 to 0 on its companion $710-million nurse-education bill, the House sent the three-year plans Thursday to the Senate—which has a similar package, covering five years and $6.9 billion, on its calendar.

The House-endorsed program, said Chairman Paul G. Rogers, D-Fla., of the public health subcommittee, aims at "shortening the curriculum for physicians, gaining at least five more medical schools, graduating more family doctors, helping financially shaky medical schools, and having doctors go to critical shortage areas."

After inserting provisions prohibiting discrimination based on sex, the House accepted the measures basically as developed by the subcommittee—containing key provisions that go far beyond what the Nixon administration had sought.

Rogers said the bills would seek to satisfy the "needs in the manpower field by 1978," with a major new idea being a so-called capitation grant to medical schools based on the number of students in various classes.

In addition, family-doctor training provisions are included, which, supporters said, wipe out major objections President Nixon raised last year when he vetoed a family-medicine measure.

Once approved, the authorization bills would be subject to later legislative funding through appropriations measures.

The manpower bill's formula for capitation grants would provide up to $12,500 per graduate—more than double the Nixon proposal. There would be $750 million for grants to build classrooms, laboratories and libraries for health schools.

Special project grants worth $412 million would be provided to encourage innovative methods of training and to make better use of health workers.

Child Drowns In Farm Pond

Robert Wayne Jackson, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jackson of White Deer, died at the Groom Memorial Hospital Friday after falling into a pond on the farm home.

The child fell into a tailwater pond on the family farm home between Panhandle and White Deer and was taken to Groom Hospital by ambulance Friday evening. Cause of death was listed as drowning. Panhandle Sheriff's officers investigated and assisted with rescue.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First United Methodist Church in Groom with the Rev. Marvin Roark, pastor of the White Deer First Methodist Church, officiating. The Rev. Joe B. Allen, pastor of the Groom First Methodist Church, will assist.

Entombment will be in Llano Mausoleum in Amarillo directed by Carmichael-Whately Funeral Directors.

The child was born April 24, 1967, at Groom.

Survivors are the parents, one sister, Kristy Lynn of the home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack West of Groom, Mr. T. C. Jackson of White Deer, Mrs. Tom Anderwald of White Deer, and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Johnston of McLean, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. West of Groom.

Issue Of Americans Held In Red China Resurfacing

WASHINGTON (AP) — With attention sharply riveted on the plight of American prisoners in North Vietnam, an older problem of U.S. citizens held on mainland China is resurfacing, although its focus is slightly fuzzy.

Four Americans are in Peking's hands, including two civilians arrested in 1952 when their plane went down on a flight from Korea to Japan. The others are military pilots shot down in separate incidents in 1965 and 1967.

The situation of the four came up again last week during Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings on U.S. China policy. Sen. J.W. Fulbright, committee chairman, asked Harvard University law professor Jerome Cohen his thinking on the prisoners.

Cohen indicated not enough was being done regarding the two civilians, John Thomas Downey and Richard Fecteau, and new efforts should be made to secure their release.

Downey, of New Britain, Conn., and Fecteau, of Lynn, Mass., were civilian employees of the Army when taken prisoner in November 1952 during what the United States said was an official flight.

At first thought dead, the Chinese disclosed two years later the two were alive and in prison; Fecteau for a 20-year term and Downey for life. They were charged with espionage-dropping Nationalist Chinese agents on the mainland.

Cohen suggested a possible answer to freeing Downey and Fecteau might be in a new investigation of the charges made by the Chinese.

He said John Foster Dulles, secretary of state when the two were captured, took the position the charges were trumped up. "But this is a different era," Cohen told the committee, "and it might be appropriate for the United States to make another inquiry into the

3 Alternatives Being Considered By U.S. Officials

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration's immediate concern over the newest Viet Cong peace plan appears not so much whether to accept or reject, but to determine the motive behind the proposal.

The official White House and State Department stance is the seven-point plan contains "positive as well as clearly unacceptable elements" and will be given serious study.

The new ingredient and apparently the positive one in official U.S. eyes is the proposal made Wednesday by Viet Cong Paris delegate Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh:

"If the U.S. government sets a terminal date for the withdrawal from South Vietnam in 1971 of the totality of U.S. forces and those of the other foreign countries in the U.S. camp, the parties will at the same time agree on the release of the totality of military men of all parties, and of the civilians captured in the war, including American pilots captured in Vietnam so that they may all return rapidly to their homes."

Administration officials have agreed the United States should, at the outset, determine the meaning of the Viet Cong's gesture and whether it indicates a serious intention to negotiate.

Among alternatives U.S. officials say privately are being considered are these three:

—The time has come in North Vietnam's mind to negotiate total withdrawal of U.S. forces, including advisers, out of the South.

—Recent defeat of congressional efforts to legislate a withdrawal has led Hanoi to attempt to pump new blood into the antiwar drive in the United States.

—The peace plan may be an effort to generate bad feelings between the United States and the Saigon government at a time of the impending South Vietnamese presidential election.

Beyond the troop withdrawal-prisoner release part of the plan, the United States found other elements in the seven points more obviously troublesome.

A Viet Cong demand restated Wednesday is that "the United States government must ... stop the policy of 'Vietnamization' of the war."

Mrs. Binh also repeated her oft-stated demand for a coalition government which, in the minds of the Nixon administration, means a try at ultimately controlling the South.

While not going into detail, presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the United States will continue to reject any proposal that would turn "17 million South Vietnamese over to the Communists."

Unemployment Down In June, Officials Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's unemployment rate dropped sharply in June to 5.6 per cent of the labor force, even though more than a million more workers lost their jobs, the government said today.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics attributed the sharp decline in the jobless rate to a statistical quirk. It said the drop "may be somewhat overstated" because more young workers than usual were still in school—and not seeking work—when the unemployment survey was taken the week of June 6 through June 12.

Nevertheless, the fall was moderately good news for the Nixon administration, which has set a goal of reducing unemployment to 4.5 per cent of the labor force by the middle of 1972.

The Labor Department said the number of unemployed persons climbed by 1.1 million over May, to 5.5 million last month. In May, the unemployment rate was 6.2 per cent.

The department noted the unemployment rate usually increases sharply between May and June, but added the rise was much less this year as a smaller than usual number of young people entered the labor force at the end of the school year.

By using a statistical method of adjusting unemployment for seasonal influences, the department figured the level of unemployment was down by 530,000.

It was an inconclusive report in terms of the economic expansion pursued by President Nixon in an effort to reduce joblessness. The statistical quirk in June possibly meant the unemployment rate would show a greater rise next month.

The six-tenths of one per cent decrease in unemployment was one of the sharpest in this decade. It returned the unemployment rate to the level of last October, when the nation was undergoing a strike in the automobile industry.

Most of the decline in unemployment occurred among teenagers and young adults, the department said, with the jobless rate for teen-agers dropping from 7.3 per cent in May to 15.8 per cent in June.

BY FUNERAL HOMES Ambulance Service To Be Discontinued

Pampa's two local funeral homes announced today they will discontinue ambulance service effective at midnight, Aug. 15.

City and county officials were notified by letter from Duenkel Funeral Home and Carmichael-Whately Funeral Directors that each firm will terminate ambulance service on that date.

In announcing the decision, Paul Carmichael and Charles Duenkel, heads of the two funeral homes, told County Judge Don Cain and Mayor Milo Carlson they recognize it vitally affects Pampa and Gray County residents.

The discontinuance, the announcement stated, was made because of continually rising operating costs and new state and federal regulations.

The two firms explained that in order to maintain ambulance service it is necessary to pay for the ambulances, purchase modern emergency equipment and employ first-aid trained attendants to be on call 24 hours a day.

They said the expense of maintaining comprehensive ambulance service is rapidly becoming prohibitive.

"With continually rising costs," they said, "it would inevitably become necessary to increase costs of other services to compensate for the expense of providing ambulance service."

They stated further that time previously given to ambulance service will be given to the firms' first responsibility, funeral service, at no increased cost.

The funeral home officials said Pampa is the last major city in the Texas Panhandle where funeral homes provide all ambulance service.

In other major cities, they said, City or County governments provide service for the community.

In the letter to city and county officials, Duenkel and Carmichael stated their funeral homes still will provide vehicles in extreme national emergencies or major disasters in the area.

City Manager Mack Wofford said today the city plans to make a study of what alternatives are open to provide ambulance service.

"Right now," Wofford said, "we do not know what course will be taken."

County Judge Don Cain said the county will take no action pending a report from city officials.

Pampans Ready To Celebrate Fourth Of July

Pampans today were preparing for observance of a three-day July Fourth holiday.

With the 4th falling on Sunday the Independence Day period will run through Monday, a legal holiday.

Most Pampa businesses and professional offices will be closed Monday.

City, county, state and federal offices will close down for the day. There will be no regular mail deliveries.

Many residents will head for lakes and other recreational spots.

Highway patrols will be increased to handle the heavier than usual holiday traffic flow.

The principal attraction at home for Pampans and other area residents will be the annual fireworks show scheduled Sunday night at Recreation Park.

Advance study of weather prospects for the three-day period indicate fair and warm with a slight possibility of scattered showers.

Patriotic organization officials urged residents to display the American flag Sunday and Monday.

Mayor Milo Carlson, in a proclamation, called upon Pampans to join in the nationwide observance of "Honor America Day" to make Independence Day a time to rekindle the American spirit and respect for individual liberties, as "we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

FIREWORKS DISPLAY Annual July 4th Observance Scheduled For Sunday Night

Pampa will join in the nationwide Honor America Day observance Sunday night with its annual Top O' Texas fireworks display and program at Recreation Park.

Thousands of persons are expected to fill the rodeo grandstand for the big July Fourth celebration that will get under way with a contest for cowgirls at 8:45 p.m.

Mayor Milo Carlson has proclaimed Sunday "Honor America Day" in Pampa and calls upon all citizens, organizations, churches, school and lay groups to recognize the special day by attending the Recreation Park program which will not start until after Sunday night church services.

"Honor America Day," the mayor stated in his proclamation, will give Pampa and other communities throughout the nation an opportunity to unite Americans at a time "when our patriotism and respect for the nation's purposes should be encouraged by all responsible citizens."

Following the 30-minute cowgirl contest, which will end at 9:15 p.m., Kay Fancher, president of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, will open the program.

Presentation of the colors will be by Leather & Lace Riding Club members, Mrs. Gwen Caughey, president.

Following the pledge of allegiance, the invocation will be given by the Rev. Jimmy Phillips, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church.

At the conclusion of the singing of the national anthem the colors will be retired and a welcome address will be given by Mayor Carlson.

An "Honor America Day" address will be given by the Rev. Marty Hager, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Immediately following the Independence Day address, the fireworks will start with fiery ground pieces and aerial bombs.

Residents are invited to bring their lunches and come early. Concession stands will be available at the park.

The annual fireworks celebration is made possible by the contributions of Pampa merchants and professional people under Chamber of Commerce sponsorship.

July 4, 1971, will mark the 150th anniversary of the nation's founding.

U.S. Jets Attack Gun Positions In North Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command disclosed today that American fighter-bombers attacked gun positions in North Vietnam's half of the demilitarized zone two days ago.

A spokesman said one 37mm anti-aircraft gun was destroyed, seven North Vietnamese troops were killed and 10 secondary explosions were triggered in the raids Wednesday morning by a dozen Air Force, Navy and Army strike and support aircraft.

"There was no damage to U.S. aircraft," the spokesman said. "As the command has often stated, protective reaction is the inherent right of self-defense."

Bernadette Devlin Expects Baby Soon

DUBLIN (AP) — Bernadette Devlin, Northern Ireland's Roman Catholic firebrand, expects a baby in the fall, a Dublin newspaper reported today.

The pregnancy was reported by the Irish Times. Mary Cummins of the paper said Miss Devlin told her in London: "My morals are a private matter. When I'm a member of Parliament, I represent a political program."

Miss Devlin is 23 and the youngest member of the British House of Commons. She represents an Ulster district.

Police Searching For Container

Police are searching for a black 15-gallon metal container stolen sometime last night from the rear of Coronado Inn. The can has contained acid and poses a danger to persons handling it.

Coronado Inn spokesmen advised police of the theft and requested that an alert be issued. If water is added to the can, it could explode.

Usually kept near the rear entrance of the Inn, the can is periodically serviced by a chemical company police said. The amount of acid or residue in the can is not known.

Police should be advised of the location of any container fitting the description.

Canadian Man Injured In Gang Fight Here

A Canadian man required treatment by a Pampa physician following a gang fight outside the Peppermint Lounge, 715 S. Gray, last night police reports said today. Elcie Gene Purcell, 36, Canadian, was injured in the fight which ended with eight persons being arrested and charged with disorderly conduct, three of them also charged with intoxication.

Police units responding to the call reportedly found the eight arrested persons involved in a fight. Investigation did not determine the cause of the fracas, and it is not known which of the arrested men was responsible for the injury to Purcell. Police reports said 32 stitches were required to close the cut on the man's back.

Purcell was charged with disorderly conduct, and seven other men were arrested as a result of the incident.

Others charged in the affray were Marvin Petree, disorderly conduct; Hoyt L. Welch, disorderly conduct and intoxication; Roy Don Wilson, disorderly conduct and intoxication; Raymond H. Welch, Canadian, disorderly conduct and intoxication; Ronnie Wilbon, disorderly conduct; Donny Wilbon, disorderly conduct; and Jerry Bowers Oliver, disorderly conduct.

All of the men had posted $25 bond on each charge and had been released from jail early today.

2 Small Kidnaped Sisters Reunited With Mother

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Two small kidnap victims, so thin from malnourishment that their mother didn't recognize them, were recuperating at a hospital today.

Trini Esquivel, 6, and her sister, Paula, 3, were reunited with their mother after police found them at a residence here. Officers said they were kidnaped nearly a year ago near Chicago and had had scars on their wrists where they apparently had been bound.

"I couldn't recognize them. They look like they never ate," said Mrs. Victoria Esquivel, 23.

When she first saw them at a hospital here, Mrs. Esquivel told attendants that they were not her missing children. But Trini apparently recognized her mother and began crying.

Mrs. Esquivel pushed back Trini's hair and found a scar, then realized the children were hers and began crying with joy.

Police said the youngsters were kidnaped last August in Aurora, Ill. Their mother said she moved there to get away from a man here who "kept bothering me."

A hospital spokesman said the two children had scars a fourth of an inch wide on their wrists, and that they were badly malnourished and frightened.

He said Trini told officials their wrists and ankles had been bound with ropes.

By Thursday, both were listed in satisfactory condition.

Police said they located them Wednesday after a man was arrested here June 20 on traffic warrants.

Charged in the case was Jose Aureliano Sifuentes, 35, who police said has 11 children of his own.

House Speaker Albert Praises Nixon's Effort To End Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Carl Albert, citing confidential information from President Nixon, says "things are moving" in the administration effort to end the war.

Albert thus joined his Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield in praise of Nixon's apparent behind-the-scenes efforts for peace.

Mansfield said "full credit should be given to the President for the initiatives he has undertaken."

Albert, at a news conference Thursday, urged Nixon to take the American people into his confidence and give them more information about the move toward peace.

"I think he should be a little more specific," Albert said. "There is a gap between the President's knowledge of where he is and where the people think he is. I hope a way can be found without disturbing negotiations of taking the people more into his confidence."

The speaker, who had a private breakfast meeting Monday with Nixon, said he came away convinced the President's optimism about future success of his plan for ending the war is well-founded.

"I don't want to get too deep into this," Albert said. "But we are getting communications from Hanoi, directly and indirectly, from Paris and otherwise, that indicate things are moving."

Albert would not say whether the latest Viet Cong proposal at the Paris peace talks—for a simultaneous withdrawal of U.S. forces and release of U.S. prisoners by North Vietnam—is related to information he received at the White House.

He said that on the basis of what he heard of the new offer it "sounded" like a possible basis for a withdrawal agreement but plans to study it more closely.

Albert, D-Okla., has strongly supported Nixon's Vietnam policy, although a majority of House Democrats now oppose it.

Tobacco Firms Given 6 Months To Agree On Health Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. tobacco companies have been given six months to agree on a health warning to accompany the bubbling brooks, pretty girls and cattle roundups in their cigarette advertising.

The Federal Trade Commission wasted no time in its ruling Thursday. The 3-1 vote with one abstention came as a congressional prohibition on cigarette advertising expired.

The tobacco companies were given six months to sign a legally binding consent agreement requiring them to include in advertisements a "clearly and conspicuously displayed" note saying: "Warning! The Surgeon General has determined that cigarette smoking is dangerous to your health."

That warning already is required on cigarette packages and cartons.

All cigarette advertising has been banned from radio and television since Jan. 2 this year.

Some provisions of the proposed consent agreement still open for negotiation, including the standards for "clear and conspicuous display," such as the size of type that would be required.

However, Gerald Thain, assistant director for food and drug advertising in the FTC's Bureau of Consumer Protection, said the advertisements should not be "a symphony of seduction with only a flute of warning."

The FTC action Thursday accused two of the six tobacco companies of alleged deception by failing to include any warning message in print advertisements and charged the other four with inadequate caution messages.

American Brands and Liggett and Myers, the FTC said, include no health warnings at all in their advertisements.

Brown and Williamson, R.J. Reynolds, P. Lorillard and Philip Morris advertisements show a cigarette package with the warning printed on the side, Thain said.

All six proposed complaints charge it is "unfair and deceptive" for the firms to advertise without the disclaimer because they should know or at least have reason to believe that

Some provisions of the proposed consent agreement still open for negotiation, including the standards for "clear and conspicuous dis-

stock of NBL and RIC, the federal agency said.

NBL is now in receivership under the State Insurance Board and RIC is being reorganized in U. S. Bankruptcy Court. Both firms were controlled by Sharp before they were shifted under government supervision.

The debtors of the majority of the loans backed by more than $6 million in stock "are and will be unable" to pay back the money, the FDIC said, resulting in a "complete loss to SSB and its depositors and creditors."

Fraudulent schemes or conspiracies as described in the private suits were "not revealed on the books."

Break-In Reported; Nothing Missing

Police were unable to determine if anything had been stolen in an apparent break-in of the Pampa Clinic, 102 N. Hobart, when they investigated an early morning burglary report today.

Officers were alerted at 7 a.m. there was a possible burglary at the clinic.

Investigation turned up a wood chisel inside an office. It apparently had been used to break a window on the southeast side of the building.

Another chisel was found outside the building.

Police reports said nothing in the building appeared to have been tampered with or disturbed, however.

Mary Norton, 2010 Charles, reported the burglary of her home to local police yesterday.

Mrs. Norton said that one case of vodka and about $20 worth of fireworks had been stolen from her basement.

Officers investigating the incident reported the complainant believed someone had entered a basement window while the family was sleeping Wednesday night or early Thursday.

Total value of the stolen goods was $80.

Dallas Financier Sharp Accused Of Maneuvering 2 Firms' Stock

DALLAS (AP) — The Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. accuses Frank W. Sharp and maybe one other man of maneuvering much of $6 million in now worthless stock of two Dallas companies into his Sharpstown State Bank before its collapse.

In federal court papers filed Thursday, the FDIC claimed the Houston bank was the "victim" of a conspiracy existed to artificially inflate the value and manipulate the stock of the Dallas companies and a third firm.

The FDIC for the first time publicly stated its views about what led to the failure of the bank last January. This was done in answers to two private damage suits naming the bank among the defendants.

The FDIC noted that Sharp "and-or" Joseph Novotny caused SSB to make "numerous loans" secured by a pledge of stock of National Bankers Life Insurance Co. and RIC International Industries Inc., both of Dallas.

The FDIC is now holding notes for loans of more than $6 million made by SSB and secured by the now "valueless"

BETTY LOU TOLBERT

Funeral services for Betty Lou Tolbert, 19, of Miami, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Miami High School Auditorium with burial in Miami Cemetery directed by Carmichael-Whitley Funeral Directors.

The Rev. E. E. Bridwell, pastor of the First Christian Church of Garber, Okla., will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Albert Stanley of the Miami First Christian Church.

Miss Tolbert died Thursday at Highland General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

She was born Oct. 14, 1951, in Pampa. She was a member of the First Christian Church of Miami, and was a graduate of Miami High School. She attended Tasheton State College until Easter when she became ill.

Survivors are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tolbert, one sister, Mrs. Joe Pierce, and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tolbert, all of Miami; and H. O. Durrett of Lancaster.

The body will lie in state at the auditorium from 1:30 p.m. until service time. The casket will not be open at the service.

The family requests memorials be sent to the American Cancer Society or to a favorite charity.

Heroes' Funeral For Cosmonauts

MOSCOW (AP) — The bodies of the three Soyuz 11 cosmonauts were cremated during the night in preparation for a heroes' funeral later today in Red Square.

The open coffins lay in state for eight hours Thursday as thousands of Russians filed past in tribute to the men who died in their spaceship Wednesday as it returned from their record-breaking flight in the Saluta space laboratory.

After the cremation, the urns containing the ashes were taken back to the Central Army Hall and the public file-past continued. Meanwhile, mourners began converging on Red Square for the afternoon funeral. Burial was to be in the Kremlin Wall, traditional resting place of Soviet leaders and heroes.

How Much Do You Know About New Tax? Is Horse Trainer Psychologist?

By GARTH JONES
Associated Press Writer
The cost of living went up Thursday in Texas.
New taxes passed by the recent legislature will result in effective July 1—two months ahead of the beginning of the state's new business year on Sept. 1.
With this two months head start and tax collections in the next two years, state officials expect to bank a net total of $579.5 million to pay the costs of state government.

Actually the first 14 months of tax collecting will result in a temporary surplus in the state treasury because Gov. Preston Smith vetoed the legislature's spending plan for 1973.
However, that surplus will disappear quickly when Smith calls the legislature back to Austin some time in 1972 to appropriate money for second year operations.

Almost everyone, from the housewife to the corporation president, will feel the pinch of the July 1 tax increases.
Here's how:
The increase in the state sales tax from 3.25 to 4 per cent— which means that taxing starts at 9-cent purchases instead of 12—will cost the so-called average Texas family another $21.69 each year. The internal revenue service last year allowed a Texas family of four with an income of $10,000 to deduct $94 for the 3.25 tax. The same family will get to deduct $115.69 under the 4 per cent tax.

The increase in the motor vehicle sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent ups the price of a new $4,000 car, with a $1,000 trade-in, about $30. The state tax will jump from $90 to $120.
The new 4 per cent tax on motor vehicle rentals means that an average rent car transaction of $32 for two days will be taxed about $1.20.
Smokers are due a 3 cents a pack increase, from 15.5 to 18.5 cents, but actually cigarette vending machine prices will jump from 50 to 55 cents a pack. This increase, on top of a 4.5 cents increase two years ago, easily makes the Texas cigarette tax the highest in the nation.
Drinkers will get even a heftier hike. The increase of the liquor tax from $1.68 to $2 per gallon adds up to about 7 cents a fifth. However, the liquor industry says most stores will up prices considerably more, about an average of 20 cents a bottle, to take care of recent increased operating costs, particularly higher freight rates. Some liquor stores in Austin posted signs saying that all prices on fifths would be increased 25 cents on July 1, and 40 cents on half gallon bottles.

The increased beer tax of $4.30 to $5 a barrel means higher prices by the six-pack or case but likely will not cause higher prices per bottle over the bar. The actual per bottle increase is only about a quarter of one cent.
In bars serving newly authorized mixed drinks and in private clubs there will be a separate and additional liquor tax of 10 per cent of all such sales. Most places will just add a dime tax since most mixed drinks sell for about $1. The mixed drink tax replaces the nickel-a-serving tax for private clubs.
Shortly after July 1 all Texas corporations will be getting bills for franchise tax payments from the state comptroller showing an increase of 38 per cent, from $3.25 to $4.50 per $1,000 of capital. The tax will have to be paid by the end of July. Next year the increase is about 41 per cent.
But that's not all the surprises the legislature arranged for taxpayers. There's more in September.
When students register at state colleges and universities for the fall term they will find tuition higher—about $10 more for resident students and about $400 more per semester for out of state students.
Then there is the "surtax" on traffic tickets effective Sept. 1. Traffic law violators, except for overtime parking, will be charged $2.50 for each offense, in addition to the fine assessed, with the money going to the state criminal justice council. All other law breakers are supposed to pay $5 for each conviction of a misdemeanor and $10 for each felony violation.

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A horse cannot consult a psychologist about his problems but a psychologist can help a horse with his training, says an expert.
According to Jack Brainard, horse trainer at Diamond B Ranch, Rochester, Minn., every horse trainer is an amateur psychologist.
Brainard was an instructor for the Horse Science School sponsored by the Agriservices Foundation at Sam Houston State University this year.
He lectured on the techniques and methods of training horses with emphasis on the psychology of the animal.
"If you can understand the horse, you can design training methods for faster learning."
Regarding a horse's IQ, Brainard said, "A horse can think, but he is probably not considered to be smart."
"No particular breed of horse is superior in intelligence to the others. Each breed of horse is especially developed for his work."
"Some horses do their jobs better than others because of the particular horse's physical makeup and disposition. It is not necessarily due to the training. In fact there are some good horses in the field in spite of their training, not because of it," he declared.
"A horse's disposition is the name of the game. Horse trainers don't like to work with a nervous or sullen animal. Naturally, we would much rather

U.S. Stakes Destiny On Religious Premises

NEW YORK (AP) — From the first, the United States staked its destiny on religious premises.

They were the cornerstone of the American Revolution, which the nation celebrates this weekend, July 4, and the basis of its founding manifesto, the Declaration of Independence.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights..."

Liberty, said Thomas Jefferson, is "a gift of God."
Yet just what part religion should play in governmental operations has been a keenly sensitive issue ever since, as shown again this week in the U.S. Supreme Court ruling barring state payments to church schoolteachers.

While forbidding what was called "excessive entanglements between government and religion," Chief Justice Warren E. Burger said the Constitution does not demand "total separation between church and state."

This "is not possible in an absolute sense," he said.
It is a fine, difficult and variable line, rooted distinctively in the tensions of American history.

While the country found justification for its founding revolt from British domination in the greater sovereignty of God, the new nation also embraced another basic concept that has permeated the world.

It is the idea of religious freedom, that men's faith must be free of governmental controls. "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof," says the First Amendment.

The U.S. Constitution set a new pattern of religious freedoms (See U.S., Page 7)

Man Believed To Have Died Turns Up Alive And Well

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP)—Michael Wayne Hubbard, sought intensely after he disappeared in his airplane 12 days ago, turned up alive and well in Lubbock Thursday.

The 3 p.m. Friday memorial services to mourn his death were hastily canceled.

Hubbard did splash down in Lake Bridgeport where the search had centered. And, yes, his plane is still there.

But he crawled out, swam out, walked nearly to Decatur, got as far as Oklahoma City, then went to Dallas.

It was from Dallas, a family statement said, that Hubbard made his existence known in a telephone call Wednesday night.

The family said there would be no further information on wanderings of the 27-year-old co-owner of an educational consulting firm in Lubbock.

Hubbard was reported missing on a flight from Fort Worth en route to Lubbock June 21.

It was a bad night for Hubbard, the family stated between the lines in a typed memorandum to reporters.

First he couldn't find any help by radio. It was lightning and raining, the skies were turbulent. The clouds closed in.

He dipped down to get below the clouds and there was Lake Bridgeport just below him.
The statement said he was preoccupied by business problems and the weather frightened and disoriented him.
He ditched the plane.
Hubbard had been so preoccupied that he had forgotten to fasten his seat belt, which probably saved his life, for the plane flipped over.
Hubbard managed to climb onto a wing, which didn't remain above water long. The whole thing sank.
He swam 150 to 200 yards to shore. He tried to stop a pickup truck, and Hubbard thinks the driver waved gaily to him but didn't stop.
Hubbard trudged nearly to Decatur. The family did not say what happened "nearly" to Decatur. It did say he reached Oklahoma City "where he sought professional help after wandering for several days."
Acting on advice of doctors and lawyers, the statement reported, "he traveled to Dallas, from where he contacted members of the family in Lubbock."
Hubbard's wife, three daughters, father and mother, and two brothers reside here.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

Woman's Page

Wanda Nieburger, Women's Editor

PAMPA DAILY NEWS PAMPA, TEXAS 65th YEAR Friday, July 2, 1971

DEAR ABBY: I am only in the 5th grade but I have some strong feelings about life and death. Today while walking down main street in our town I found a bird's nest that had fallen out of a tree. There were some baby birds in the nest that looked like they were just born and couldn't fly yet.

I asked some people who were walking by what I should do with the birds and one said, "Shove them down the sewer." Another man said, "Step on their heads." And someone else said, "Either feed them to a cat or get a B.B. gun and when the mother comes, use it on all of them."

Please tell me, Abby, what is the matter with people? What would you have done?

FIFTH GRADER

DEAR FIFTH: Some people think it's smart to talk a cruel game, but they wouldn't actually behave that way. I would have borrowed a ladder and with the help of an adult put the nest and the birds back in the tree. Or called the human society.

a 22-year-old girl should be expected to keep a kosher kitchen for her husband?

DEAR ROSALIE: Only if he's Jewish.

DEAR ABBY: A lonely widow of 57 wrote to you for advice on how to bring some excitement into her life and you told her to get involved with volunteer work for some charitable organization, political group, or service club.

Abby, what have you again: these organizations that you would wish a woman like that on them? If a woman hasn't become involved with her community by the time she's reached her early forties, she is a "taker," not a "giver," and she'll become the kind of deadwood these organizations get bogged down with.

I like the song, "People who need people are the luckiest people in the world." They are also the busiest. Sign me.

BUSY

DEAR BUSY: Some "givers" have been so busy giving to their families they haven't had the leisure to get involved elsewhere until they're widowed. Widows are people. There are all kinds.

DEAR ABBY: I have a terrible problem. My son who is 23 and is taking his master's degree in psychology came home last week and told me he intends to marry the girl he has been going with for a year. She is a registered nurse, intelligent and refined, and seemed like a very nice person, but in the course of the conversation I learned that she is 30 years old.

How can I keep my son from marrying this old woman who is no doubt trying so desperately to get married to a man regardless of his age?

CONFIDENTIAL PLEASE

DEAR CONFIDENTIAL: There is nothing you can — or should do. Any interference on your part might permanently damage the relationship between you and your son. Perhaps your suspicions are wrong. They could be perfect for each other.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Solution Makes It Easy To Clean Wood Paneling

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY:—Nowadays there is so much wood paneling in our homes but I have an ideal solution for cleaning it that is also easy on the hands and leaves a nice finish on the paneling. Mix four tablespoons vinegar, two tablespoons olive oil and one pint of warm water.

DEAR GIRLS:—I found this not only worked well on wood finished in natural wood tones but was great used on white painted wood paneling. Of course, after cleaning a small area you rub it dry with a clean soft cloth.

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY:—After many years of waxing my blond furniture with both liquid and spray wax of various kinds it is getting yellow. Can anyone tell me how to remove the old wax? Water cannot be used on this furniture as it has no special coating.

MARJORIE

DEAR POLLY:—My Pet Peeve is with magazines that say turn to page 100 to continue a story or article and then have to go through A, B and perhaps C series until you finally stumble on page 100. Thanks for letting me get this off my chest.

MARTHA

DEAR READERS:—Mrs. T.R. also has a Pet Peeve with magazines that start a story in the middle of the book and continue it in the front as she does not like to go backwards.

POLLY

DEAR POLLY:—While having to use hot applications on a sprained knee I discovered the easiest way was to fold and wet two bath towels and put them in the top of my double boiler while the water in the bottom part was kept boiling. All I had to do was lift out a hot towel with no wringing and folding or burned hands. When one cooled the other was hot and ready.

MRS. J.B.

DEAR POLLY:—The camping season is here again so I want to pass on a Pointer we used while camping last year. Take two sleeping bags the same size and with identical zippers. Open both to a large flat size. Keep the outside of bags on bottom and top and both insides facing each other. Hook zippers together and zip into one large double bag where three children can sleep comfortably but when using them as two singles they would only accommodate two children.

Better Seeds Make Quality Products

By Sheila and Allan Swenson

Pick the best seed and mother nature will reward you with tastier meals. Horticulturists have developed amazing new varieties that feature disease and insect resistance, drought hardness and higher yields than were possible 10 years ago.

Big Boy tomato remains the best selling, vegetable seed, but Big Early, Burpees VF tomato have added disease-resistant qualities. Pixie is a hybrid designed for pot, window box or flower border... wherever space is scarce.

Grow tall with Kentucky Wonder pole beans; bushels of beans that grow on vines climbing six feet high. Bush beans require no staking, so Tenderpod or Bush Romano are good bets.

Everyone loves sweet corn, the sweeter the better. Illini Extra Sweet combines both earliness and top flavor. Silver Sweet is a new white corn, both early and tasty. Burpee's Honeycross, Golden Bantam and Golden Cross Bantam do well in home gardens.

A few cucumber plants supply summer salad abundantly. We recommend trying M and M

Hybrid Burpless and Spartan Valor Hybrid, an All-American selection that is resistant to mosaic and scab disease.

In lettuce, try several varieties, Oak Leaf, Greenhart and Iceberg that stands hot weather.

Hybrid zucchini squash yields well. Three plants supply a family all summer. The more you pick, the more they produce. As a bush, it takes less space.

If you like melons, try Early Hybrid Crenshaw, the only crenshaw that thrives in northern gardens. Ice Box midge watermelon produces 10 pound fruits 30 days earlier than other varieties and has fewer seeds. A real space saver.

And in the exotic line, try some delights from the Orient, celtuce, tampala and Malabar spinach. Celtuce combines uses of celery and lettuce. Tampala is a "green" that stands hot weather and Malabar spinach is a good hot weather substitute for spinach, cooked or in salads.

First Church Of Nazarene

You will enjoy attending the Church of The Nazarene in Pampa. The Sunday School will hold an attraction for you. There is a class for each age group. We invite you to come and worship with us this Sunday. In the absence of the pastor, the speaker for the morning service will be Coach Harold Moore. For the night service, Rev. Herb Land will be speaking. On the first Wednesday night of the month is the monthly missionary meeting. We invite you to come and share in the missionary banquet this coming Wednesday night.

Christian Science

What are the rights of man? What is the source of liberty? These are questions to be explored at Christian Science church services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon entitled "God."

"Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppression," one of the citations to be read from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy states. Scriptural passages include the insight: "Now the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."

Central Baptist Church

Members and guests of the Central Baptist Church, under the leadership of their pastor, Bryan Halliburton, will move to Central Park Sunday for July 4 worship services. The morning worship will begin at 11 a.m. with S. L. Tate, Jr., directing the music. The songs will include "The Star Spangled Banner," "America," "America the Beautiful" and the choir will present a special arrangement of "America the Beautiful." Tate will also lead the congregation in the pledge of allegiance to the American flag.

The pastor will preach an Independence Day sermon entitled "America at the Crossroads." Lunch will be served on the grounds at 12 noon. The members and guests are asked to bring a basket lunch, which will be spread together. The church will furnish plates, iced tea, napkins, tableware, etc. After lunch, recreation has been planned for everyone. All are asked to come dressed comfortably and for recreation — men in short sleeved shirts and no ties, and etc.

Sunday School will meet at the regular time at 9:45 a.m. at the church building and then at 10:45 a.m. will adjourn to the park. Rides will be furnished for everyone and special provision for our senior members. Seating at the park will be provided by the church. Folding chairs will be set up at the park and the children will sit on the ground. There will be a closing devotion at the park and the evening church services will be dismissed.

First Baptist

Rev. Dan B. Cameron, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Pampa, will be in the pulpit for the eleven o'clock Morning Worship Sunday. He will announce his sermon subject. This service is broadcast over radio station KPND and televised from Channel 12 cable TV. David Campbell, minister of music, will direct the Sanctuary Choir in the call to worship. "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" Arr. Warwick and the Choral Worship, "From Sea to Shining Sea" by Ward. The special music will be a duet sung by Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell. Miss Eloise Lane, organist, has chosen "O Rest in the Lord" by Mendelssohn for the offertory. The seven o'clock service will be the first service with Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Amarillo, preaching for the revival. Dr. Moore will preach

Monday through Friday at 12 noon and at 7:30 p.m. Joe Duncan will be in charge of the music for the revival. He is Minister of Music for the First Baptist Church of Duncan, Oklahoma. The public is cordially invited to attend these revival services. The Wednesday evening fellowship supper will be served from 5:30 until 6:15. Visitation follows until time for the revival at 7:30.

Barrett Baptist Church

Pastor Waylon Bruton will be in the pulpit for both services Sunday. Sunday school will be conducted at 9:45 a.m. preceding the morning worship hour at 11 a.m. Music will be under the direction of Butch Rogers who will also present special music. Choir practice will be conducted at 5 p.m. followed by Training Union which begins at 6 p.m., preceding the 7 p.m. worship service. Activities during the week will be Wednesday prayer meeting as well as Girls Auxiliary, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams are all conducted at 7 p.m. Visitation this week will be Thursday at 7 p.m. The Barrett, Hobart and Calvary Baptist churches are planning an old fashion tent revival in August. Much prayer and preparation are going into this. Joe Murray and his team will hold the revival. Joe Murray held a revival at Barrett two years ago. There is always ample parking space at Barrett and a nursery is provided for all services.

Calvary Baptist Church

Rev. Johnny Thames of Higgins will preach the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services Sunday for Calvary Baptist Church, 824 S. Barnes. Church members will sponsor an ice cream social at 7:30 p.m.

Saturday in the Fellowship Hall for members to meet Rev. Thames. Rev. Thames will preach at Calvary Baptist in view of a call to pastor the church.

He graduated from Baylor University and attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He has pastored the Higgins First Baptist Church three years.

First United Methodist Church

The service of Holy Communion will be observed at 8:45 and 11 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church, Dr. Lloyd V. Hamilton will be leading the services. His Communion Meditation is entitled, "When You Cannot Say It With Words."

High Choral Group will sing "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory" by Howe, arranged for brass instruments by Morris Kille, director of the Ministry of Music. Tracy D. Cary is organist and other instrumentalists are Lynn Hart, Bill Sargent and Roy Anderson.

At 11 a.m. the Sanctuary Choir will sing the anthem, "America the Beautiful" arranged by James Allen Dash. Evening Vespers will be at 6 in the Sanctuary with Dr. Hamilton preaching. Youth Fellowship group meetings will follow at 7 p.m.

At the 8:45 service the Junior

The Weekly Message of Inspiration...

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Dr. Lloyd V. Hamilton, Pastor

Next Sunday, July 4th is one of our great national holidays with roots running as far back as the story of Genesis which said, "God created man in His own image." July 4th, 1776 is a symbol of man's desire to be free. I think the very experiment itself has deep religious roots. If you read the Bible you soon discover that it is not a total success story. It also tells about man's failures. The old prophets were always trying to get people to return to the Lord.

A few years ago I left Fayetteville, Arkansas, to come to Big Spring, Texas. I left at 2:00 o'clock in the morning, now there is only one or two legitimate reasons for anybody leaving at 2:00 o'clock in the morning, one is to go duck hunting and the other is to go fishing. There were no ducks or fish involved but the bishop and the cabinet were to meet at our house the next day, and we had left a junior in high school at home all by himself. He was putting in a full day's work at a men's store and leading the singing for a revival meeting in a county seat town a few miles away from Big Spring. He had already called me and told me that the lawn mower was broken down and he couldn't get it fixed. So I had some kind of a mental picture of the yard that had been growing for about ten days. I began to wind through those Ozark foothills. When I got to the main highway it was soon obvious that I had taken the wrong turn, and for the first time in my life, the sun came up in the west. Now when the sun comes up in the west it is good evidence that you're going in the wrong direction. I have talked to a lot of people in the last fifteen years who really believe that the sun is constantly coming up in the west. If it is, we need to turn around, and this is the glory of the 4th of July because our form of government always gives us the opportunity to change our course. This is never easy. I had traveled a total of 164 extra miles but it was the only way to get on course.

When I got home my mental picture of the yard was inadequate, it was considerably worse than I could dream ten days could do for a lawn. I walked into the house and I also had an inadequate picture as to what a junior in high school, with a little help from his friends, can do for a house in ten days. It looked like a place where four drunks had been housed up for about a week. I called a neighbor boy and said, "Hollis, what are you doing?" he said, "nothing." I said, "get your lawn mower and get over here and cut my lawn." It was almost a command and he said he'd do it. I got on the telephone and finally found a cleaning lady who would help me at that time of day. She and I got started on that house about 5:00 o'clock in the afternoon. At 9:00 that night I could have entertained any body because the house was clean.

To me this is something like what the 4th of July means. We have got to constantly be looking for the right road and constantly cleaning up. As we celebrate the 195th birthday of our nation, I am most optimistic about the next 195 years because we have a way of life, motivated by the spirit of God, that says we have got to continue to restore and correct. There are low times when it does seem like the sun always comes up in the west and it seems like we always have a mess on our hands, but thank God for the ability to get on the right road and to clean up.

Skellytown Community Church Plans For Revival Crusade

Community Church of Skellytown will host evangelistic crusade beginning July 18 with John Donaldson as guest speaker.

Donaldson, a football coach for 15 years, is a San Marcos resident and active in the Global Harvesters Inc., a missionary service organization. Services will be conducted nightly at 7:30 with Friday night devoted to the youth and drug problems facing their generation. Sunday evening services will be held at 7 p.m. Prayer groups during the revival will convene at 10 a.m. daily.

Donaldson is a noted speaker in the area, addressing churches of all denominations. Youth groups and the drug problem are given special consideration by the missionary, the fourth of a group of brothers to go into the Crusade for Christ campaign. He is married and the father of four daughters and one son.

JOHN DONALSON
... guest speaker

Singer Jeff McGowan, a Corpus Christi College student and avid worker in youth groups dedicated to Christ's teachings, will be music director for the services.

Outreach Meet To Open July 1-7 At Area Church

GLORIETA — Dale Cowling, pastor of Second Baptist Church, Little Rock, Ark., is featured speaker for an Evangelistic Outreach Conference at Glorieta Baptist Assembly, July 1-7.

Sponsored by the Sunday School department of the Southern Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., the week-long program will include general and age-group conferences dealing with Sunday School work. Emphasis will be placed on outreach and evangelism.

Special conferences will deal with vocational guidance, kindergarten and day care leadership, church library work, bus outreach, family life and learning to write for adults with reading limitations.

Eugene F. Quinn, secretary of the church music department, Kentucky Baptist Convention, will serve as minister of music for the week.

Nixon Administration To Propose Global Talks On New Trade Rules

By STERLING F. GREEN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Aware that the United States has reached a crossroads in foreign economic policy, the Nixon administration soon will propose global negotiations to write new rules for world trade.

To cope with a deteriorating trade position, the threat of economic warfare among rival trading blocs, and rising protectionist sentiment at home, the White House is planning an initiative which it likens in scope to the Marshall Plan that followed World War II.

It is determined to pry open European and Japanese markets closed to American products. These barriers are widely regarded as contributing to the declining U.S. balance of payments, and to encouraging the rush of American corporations to go multinational. Harassed at home by cut-rate prices on foreign products, and facing limited markets abroad, American corporations are moving production facilities to foreign shores where they too can get the low wages, tax benefits and favorable tariff arrangements available to their competitors.

The exodus has reached such proportions that American industry-in-absentia now rivals Japan as the world's third greatest economic power.

As the United States moves to deal with the decline in its exports, the multinationals pose two complications: Sales of U.S. subsidiaries abroad already contribute 10 times more to the payments balance than the surplus of goods exported over those imported; the foreign facilities of multinationals are sitting ducks for retaliation by any country that deems its trade injured by U.S. actions.

Fully aware of the problem, the Nixon administration nonetheless is determined on tough bargaining.

"I no longer see any excuse for our not having fully reciprocal access to markets," said President Nixon's top foreign economic adviser, Peter G. Peterson, in an interview.

"It is time to revive the tradition of the tough Yankee trader."

Basically, President Nixon is seeking "a strategy to insure American competitiveness and leadership over the next two decades," Peterson said. It would involve measures designed to:

- (1) support a continuously advancing industrial technology
- (2) assure long-term access to raw materials and clean energy sources,
- (3) develop new relationships between the government and industry to foster exports, and
- (4) restore a steady rise in productivity.

Some tough talk already has been heard. Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally has been quoted as suggesting the United States withdraw the Sixth Fleet from the Mediterranean in retaliation for European trade practices that obstruct American exports.

The planned presidential statement on foreign economic policy can be expected, said Peterson, "within the next few months."

Nixon signified his concern over the trade outlook, and the possibility of competition between blocs, by establishing in January the Council on International Economic Policy with Peterson as executive director.

The decline in American trade competitiveness, attributed by many to persistent inflation and blamed by some for the European "dollar crisis" in May, stirred deep concern within the administration.

A real blow came in April when the United States ran an actual trade deficit, the first in two years.

While the cold statistics of weakened trade competitiveness have convinced both free traders and protectionists of the urgency of the problem, it may be a year before White House strategy is fully charted.

Some essential studies have only been begun. And even if plans were ready, the time seems inopportune both here and abroad.

Europe's mood of the moment is not conciliatory. There is resentment at the United States over the dollar crisis, which added currency complications to the Common Market's difficult internal negotiations over the entry of Britain.

Europe also accuses the U.S. of exporting its inflation to Europe along with the oversupply of dollars.

Meantime, the administration has stepped up enforcement of anti-dumping laws which permit imposition of extra tariffs on goods sold here at less than the price charged in the manufacturer's home country. It also has considered wheeling up the seldom-used countervailing duty law permitting extra tariffs on cut-rate imports if the foreign government subsidizes the manufacturers.

In considering what initiatives are required of the United States and its trading partners, the White House has sought advice from industry both formally and informally. A Commission on International Trade and Investment policy was named a year ago. Its 27 members include a number of executives of multinational corporations.

The commission's report was scheduled for May and is overdue.

American labor prescribes different cures. Having abandoned its traditional free-trade posture, the AFL-CIO in February called in effect for mandatory import quotas, urged the repeal of specified tax and tariff preferences which encourage companies to set up subsidiaries abroad, and advocated tighter controls on direct foreign investment.

Fourth Of July Tough For Rodeo Competitors

DENVER — The upcoming Fourth of July weekend will be the most grueling part of the professional rodeo season, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said here today.

More rodeos are scheduled around the Fourth than at any other time of the year, and prize money runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

There are 25 association-sanctioned rodeos across the country beginning Wednesday. From Madison Square Garden in New York City to Travis Air Force Base, Calif., cowboys will compete in as many rodeos as possible. Some may enter six or eight in a five-day span.

They will arrive in towns shortly before competition, pinch-faced and drawn from lack of sleep. Immediately after they ride they will jump into planes or cars and head for other rodeos.

Some cowboys may try to compete in Greeley, Colo., Cody, Wyo., Red Lodge and Livingston, Mont., Belle Fourche and Moberge, S. Dak., and perhaps St. Paul, Ore.

By next Monday the men leading in each event for world championship titles may have dropped behind or lengthened their leads. The titles are awarded at the end of each season on the basis of prize money.

The winningest cowboy so far this year is Phil Lyne, George West, Tex., who has gathered $21,901 in bareback, saddle bronc, bull riding, calf roping and steer wrestling. The top money-winner for the past five years, Larry Mahan, Brooks, Ore., is trying to catch Lyne.

AAODC Passes Resolution On Oil Gas, Production

DALLAS (AP) — The board of the American Association of Oilwell Drilling Contractors has passed a resolution asking the federal government to share with coastal states its income from offshore oil and gas production, a spokesman for the organization reported Thursday in Dallas.

The action was taken at a board meeting in San Francisco June 22 and copies of the resolution sent members of Congress and others.

The association pointed out that the government shares revenues from its land with the states where the land is located.

The board said this ranged as high as 90 per cent for Alaska and 37.5 per cent for federal lands in other states.

The resolution was signed by the contractors' president, H. B. Harkins, and the executive vice president, Warren L. Baker.

The board noted that offshore crude oil production has risen from 133,000 barrels per day in 1954 to 1.57 million barrels in 1970.

Citation Against CBS Proposed By House Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee voted 25 to 13 to recommend a contempt of Congress citation against the Columbia Broadcasting System and its president Frank Stanton, who refused to supply subpoenaed material involving the televised documentary "The Selling of the Pentagon."

The full committee thus accepted the unanimous recommendation made Tuesday by a special five-man subcommittee.

The case will go to the House floor, where approval of a contempt citation would send the matter to the Justice Department for prosecution.

Maximum punishment on conviction would be one year in prison and a $100,000 fine.

Chairman Charles C. Stenholm of West Virginia and the subcommittee Republican William L. Springer of Illinois joined in accusing CBS and Stanton of obstructing the congressional inquiry involving material related from the prize-winning program.

Although Stanton maintained the 1st Amendment's freedom-of-press guarantee protected broadcast as well as newspaper and magazine journalists from government scrutiny over news and editing judgments, the subcommittee said it is trying to protect the public from deception on televised programs.

dom which gradually has spread through much of the world. It is what Jefferson first called a "wall of separation between church and state."

"We are a religious people whose institutions presuppose a Supreme Being," Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas has said, although he is one of the strictest interpreters of church-state separation.

Through the years, the stress and pull of both values, both prime rudiments of the nation, have produced varying approaches. Schools themselves remained largely under Protestant auspices with state support, until 1840 when public schools got started.

But in the last quarter-century, with growing diversity in America, the issue has brought a continuing line of court battles.

Your Horoscope

SATURDAY, JULY 3
YOUR BIRTHDAY Saturday: Curiosity, research, discovery mark the year ahead. This is the season of your life for turning on your persuasive talents to draw others into sharing your goals and philosophies. The friends you develop now are with you always. Saturday's natives follow aries' habits, present a vivacious surface to the world.
ARIES (March 21-April 19): Resolve difficult questions by listening carefully to the complaint, seeing the main cause, and correcting or discarding it. Weekend plans are not firmly settled until the last minute - patience!
TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Check details yourself, even where it takes added time, mainly to keep plans within modest limits.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Use this weekend for soul-searching on what you are doing with your life. Material gains, if you've been overdoing your efforts, seem increasingly difficult.
CANCER (June 21-July 21): Look at old things in a new light, take a tour of unfamiliar haunts, see how the other fellow lives. There's much to learn and think about.
LEO (July 22-Aug. 22): Let nobody off the hook for outstanding obligations or responses, whether material or abstract. Assert your firm views, help convince the less-informed.
VIRGO (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Personal property does not promise a high life just yet - be satisfied with moderate achievements and have a sound base from which to move when it suits you.
LIBRA (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Anything you do or promise Saturday sets a precedent, particularly among younger people. With clear understandings about what is coming your way, you can make concessions, gain freedom for future movement.
SCORPIO (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Much can be gleaned and long future paths tentatively laid out on the basis of this weekend's experience.
SAGITTARIUS (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Finding remains more out of season than ever. Simply make do with current conditions.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Be sure that what happens now paves the way for a "rainy" day. You have about two weeks to assess your basic situation.
PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): The choices you make in casuals end have broad outlines for the future. Let your deeper nature and genuine preferences guide you more than ordinary logic.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The $4 million Titian painting "Death of Actaeon" will reside in the J. Paul Getty Museum, although it will have "visits" to Britain, its new owners say.

The painting was purchased in London Monday on behalf of the luxurious museum, a Mediterranean-style villa, in a canyon just off the Pacific Ocean in suburban Los Angeles, where Getty lives.

French and Co. of New York, acting for the museum, said it paid a "purely nominal sum" above the $4,032,000 that London art dealer Julius Weitzner paid when the picture was auctioned last Friday.

"Actaeon" depicts the legend of Actaeon disturbing the goddess Diana, partially unclad, at her bath. The legend says she turned him into a stag and his dogs tore him to bits.

Davis Cup Nations Agree On Proposals

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Representatives of Davis Cup nations voted Thursday to agree on a new format, but decided against another proposed change.

The Challenge Round, where the defending champion is required to play only one match against the winner of the zone finals, has been abolished.

But a move to open Davis Cup competition to contract professionals has once again been defeated.

The Challenge Round has been a Davis Cup fixture since competition began in 1900. But when the United States, last year's winner, competes in the Challenge Round in Charlotte, N.C. in October, it will be the end of the old format.

Beginning in 1972, the defending nation will have to play its way through the tournament from the first round, just like any of the challengers.

A steering committee, whose purpose was to examine the future course of the Davis Cup, recommended earlier this year that the Challenge Round be abolished. Thursday's meeting simply approved the proposal.

The meeting also voted to continue to bar contract professionals from Davis Cup competition. This had been another recommendation of the steering committee.

Donohue Still Looking For His First Indy-Type Win

MOUNT POCONO, Pa. (AP) — Super road racer Mark Donohue, looking for his first triumph in Indianapolis-type championship competition, takes on the famed Unser brothers in another head-to-head duel Saturday in the Schaefer 500-mile race at the tough, tough Pocono International Raceway.

It is the inaugural race at the new $6 million facility built in the heart of Pennsylvania's Pocono Mountain vacation land. And it is expected to draw at least 100,000 to an area served by two-lane roads that obviously were not built for traffic jams.

The race gets under way at 12 p.m., with Donohue, the Media, Pa., protégé of ex-racer Roger Penske, starting his Sunoco-sponsored McLaren on the pole. The 32-year-old two-time U.S. road racing champ posted a four-lap qualifying speed of 172.383 miles per hour.

The Unseers, Bobby and Al, have the other front row spots. But even without Donohue's presence, the two brothers have had their own battle for USAC supremacy going for almost two years now.

Bobby, driving for the now retired Dan Gurney in an Olsonite Eagle, was the No. 2 qualifier at 171.847 m.p.h. Bobby hasn't won an event since June 16, 1970, but has finished second to his brother no less than five times since then. He also was runnerup to Al for the USAC driving title last year.

Al, two years younger than Bobby at 32, is the hottest driver presently in American racing. The stocky, dark-haired speedster won his second Indianapolis 500 in a row on May 29, and comes here with five triumphs in six starts. He also is among auto racing's biggest winners, taking home almost $750,000 in 15 months.

He qualified one of Parnelli Jones' Colt-Fords, the No. 1 Johnny Lightning Special, at 170.365 m.p.h. and on Wednesday turned laps over the 2.5 mile triangle-shaped course at speeds near that figure with a full load of fuel.

TROPHIES FOR FIRST PLACE were awarded to Pete Blanda, left, Elmer Wilson, center, and Jay Hollinsworth (not shown) by Lette Jackson, right, for winning first place in the Red Cup matches sponsored by the Red Raider Club of Texas Tech in Lubbock. A check for $1,500 was presented to the club by the Pampa Chapter for the scholarship fund at the Noon's Lions Club meeting yesterday afternoon. (Staff Photo)

Track Meet Will Build More Than Good Will

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — United States men's track and field forces aim to build a solid lead over the Russians today and avoid a repeat of the defeat they suffered last year in the Soviet Union.

Coach Dave Maggard's team counts heavily on the 100-meter dash, which the United States did not win last year, the 110-meter high hurdles, the pole vault and the shot put during the opening program of the USA-USSR World All-Star Meet at the University of California's Edwards Stadium.

Scoring will be on a dual meet basis between the United States and Russia, and the United States and the All-Stars. The Russians objected to a play for a triangular meet scoring system, and it was abandoned.

In the Men's competition, most observers figure the meet will be close, with an advantage to the Russians in the gal's division.

The World All-Stars, with some great individual performers, are not figures as strong over-all.

Dr. Delano Meriwether, the 28-year-old hematologist, and Jim Green provided the United States speed in the 100, facing Russia's Valeriy Borzov, who won the event a year ago, and Aleksandr Korneliuk.

Rod Milburn, who last week cracked the world-record with a 13.0 in the 120-yard high hurdles, and Ron Draper, who placed second to Milburn in the collegiate and AAU championships, are favored strongly in the 110-meter high hurdles.

Jan Johnson and Dave Roberts hold the hopes in the pole vault. Johnson, the 1970 NCAA champion from Kansas, won the AAU meet last week, clearing 17 feet. Roberts, of Rice, had the same height but more misses getting to it.

Russia's vaulters, Yury Isakov and Gennady Gusev, have bettered 17 with Isakov holding the Russian record at 17.5. Both Johnson and Roberts have gone higher than that.

World shot put record holder Randy Matson was so upset when he lost the AAU championship that he returned to the ring late in the evening to work on his form last Saturday.

Matson, with a lifetime world record best of 71-5/8, teamed with Karl Salb of Kansas, the collegiate and AAU champion, facing Romas Plunge and Valeriy and Volkov of Russia.

Salb has thrown 67-2 1/4, while the Russians have best marks of 63-7 and 64-2 1/2 respectively.

Today's program lists five decathlon events plus 10 finals for the men and seven for the women.

In the women's 100, both Iris Davis of Tennessee State and Pat Hawkins of Brooklyn have better times than Nadyezhda Besfamilnaya and Marina Nikiforova of Russia.

Stan Smith Will Face Newcombe In England

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Stan Smith, the lanky soldier from Pasadena, Calif., will face John Newcombe Saturday in a bid to break Australia's hold on the Wimbledon tennis title. But he will be the underdog.

Most players and critics predict the final could be a long match, with sets perhaps going to 8-8 and a tie-breaker. Newcombe is favored to win for the third time in five years.

Australians have won the title nine times in eleven years.

Ken Rosewall, the little 36-year-old Australian master who lost 1-6 1-6 3-6 to Newcombe in the semifinals Thursday said "Smith is a dangerous player and he must have a chance. But Newcombe is much safer off the ground, and I make him favorite to win."

Smith reached the final Thursday with a 6-3, 8-6, 6-3 victory over Tom Gorman of Seattle, Wash., who was handicapped by a back injury.

Today was women's finals day.

Fans slept all night on the sidewalks outside the All England Club, hoping to see Evonne Goolagong, the 19-year-old Australian dethrone the reigning queen, Mrs. Margaret Smith Court.

If Mrs. Court wins today and Newcombe wins Saturday they will make Wimbledon history. Since the challenge round was abolished in 1922, and the champion has had to play through from the first round, the two reigning singles champions have never retained their titles in the same year.

Murren Elevated To Higher Position In WTSU Football

CANYON — Bill Murren has been elevated to the post of assistant basketball coach at West Texas State University for his roll this past season as a graduate assistant coaching the freshman team, according to athletic director Gene Mayfield.

Murren replaces Lonnie Nichols, who resigned recently to become head basketball coach at Tarleton State College.

The 36-year-old Murren played for head Buffalo basketball coach Dennis Walling at Decatur, Texas Baptist College and earned Junior College All-American honors.

Murren, whose hometown is Atlantic City, N.J., played service basketball at Fort Meade, Md., prior to enrolling at Decatur Baptist College in 1960.

During his sophomore season (1961-62) at Decatur, he earned all-state and All-American honors, was most valuable player in the Howard County Christmas Tournament and was team tri-captain.

He scored over 1,000 points in his two years of playing for Walling. While at Decatur, he played forward and post man. At Texas Tech he was a ball-handling guard.

Murren started two years for Texas Tech (1963-64) and averaged 10 points per game over the two-year period. He graduated from Tech with a B.A. degree in business in 1964. He attended Tech for one more year to receive his teaching

New Do's, Dont's For Hunters

AUSTIN — There are some important new "do's and don'ts" for the Texas hunter.

The Parks and Wildlife Commission has enacted several state-wide changes, and the 62nd Legislature added numerous other modifications to existing hunting laws.

Two of the new changes might be considered "liberalizations" of present laws — but they still carry certain limitations. One allows the removal of shotgun plugs to give the hunter more than three shots in succession.

However, the three-shot limit will still apply to migratory birds. These include ducks, geese and doves.

So if a hunter's main targets are doves or waterfowl, it probably wouldn't be worth his money to have a gunsmith remove the plug.

The other change allows hunting from cars. But this does not mean that hunters are allowed to shoot from public roads, rights-of-way or other prohibited areas.

Hunters may shoot native game animals and birds from a car on private property, but they aren't allowed to take migratory birds with this hunting method.

Hunting from aircraft is prohibited by a provision of this law.

One legislative bill makes it unlawful to take deer, elk, antelope, wild aoudad sheep and wild desert bighorn sheep with .22-caliber jethorn and rocket gun in general law counties. This change, in effect, makes this prohibition statewide, as the two cartridges already were outlawed in counties now under the department's regulatory authority.

Some of the changes doubtless won't affect the average sportsman. One of these is a law prohibiting the shooting or taking of wild turkeys from the roost. Most hunters avoid molesting the birds' roosting sites, and landowners usually try to protect them.

Another change repeals the requirement that a permit be obtained from the Parks and Wildlife Department before killing a buffalo (bison). This change was prompted by the feeling that all the buffaloes in the state are actually domesticated and confined to fenced enclosures.

All the changes in game laws will be compiled in the department's annual Hunting Guide, which should be available to hunters before the 1971 hunting season gets underway.

A careful check of regulations in the particular area to be hunted is always a good procedure for any sportsman who wants to make the most of his hunting trip.
