SHIPMENT TO PUERTO RICO...In a first for Watson Alfalfa, Howard Watson and his crew loaded out Sea-Land Piggy-Backs on rail cars Monday afternoon. Loaded onto the cars were several thousand pounds of alfalfa cubes. Watson said he had noticed the cars coming back empty and made arrangements to ship the cubes to Puerto Rico. More shipments are expected in the near future.

Maple, Goodland Hail Damage Toll Increases

Fields Are Saturated In Three Inch Rain

Old Mother Nature unleashed a double whammy against farmhands in the Goodland and Maple areas during the past week, hitting hard with heavy rain, accompanied by heavier hail.

Crops around Goodland were virtually wiped out in a Monday night storm, which left playa lakes filled, along with washed out and hauled out cotton.

Wayland Altman, who lives north of Maple, lost approximately half of his crops in the Goodland area, as well as a large portion of his cotton north of Maple in a Wednesday evening storm.

He said he had not made definite plans as to what he will do about replanting.

It was also reported that Joe Sowder at Goodland lost most of his field crops in the Monday storm and Reuel Kirby was another farmer hard hit by the double storm.

Aaron Lee said he had very little storm damage in the storms which skipped some farms, while devastating others.

Light hail damage was reported by Mickey Sowder, who lives west of Baileyboro, with most of his crop damage being reported as being north of the Three Way school.

At the Sowder home place west of Baileyboro, one half inch of rain was reported, with an inch and a half reported on the farm north of the school. He had no plans to replant.

N. C. Moore, who lives in the Longview community, reported he received 1.25 inches at his home farm, with more than two inches recorded west of his home on another farm. He said he had little to no crop damage from the storms.

Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge said they recorded 1.06 inches of rain Wednesday with no hail, and an additional 1.7 inches of rain was reported around Circleback.

Rain of up to three inches was reported between Muleshoe and Needmore, with water running over highways in the area for several hours.

It was noted early Saturday morning that playa lakes were overflowing, and ditches were full of water. North of Coyote Lake, around 4:45 a.m. Saturday, a tractor was in a field with sandblasting equipment in an effort to save young crops.

Closer to town, 1.20 inches of rain was reported on Rabbit Road Number Two, south of Muleshoe; with up to one half inch being recorded in the city. Muleshoe received the rain in several showers and one brief downpour late Wednesday. Pea to near golf ball size hail accompanied the storm in Muleshoe, but no major damage was reported.

Cotton farmers were unanimous, along with alfalfa producers, that no more rain was needed on their crops at this time. However, corn farmers were elated with the bonus of extra moisture to help produce their crops.

In the three days following the rains, hot, sunny days have quickly dried fields, adding a boost to the growth of the field crops with the temperature hovering around the 100 degree mark each day.

Local Police Have Classes On Juveniles

A local one day seminar for law enforcement officers was conducted at the city hall in Muleshoe Thursday.

Acting Police Chief J.R. Carpenter said the one-day training session was on "Juveniles and Alcoholic Beverages." It was conducted by the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission and a Juvenile officer and detective from Brownfield.

Carpenter said the seminar was coordinated by the South Plains Association of Governments. He said most of the session was on "Drinking on the parking lots and chunking beer cans."

Attending the school were Carpenter, Wayne Holmes, Hal Bynum, Ray lynk and Gary Burkhardt, all Muleshoe City Police Officers; Deputy Sheriffs Monte Phipps and James Williams; Constable Tommy Black and City Manager Dave Marr.

Motorcycle, Car Wreck Injures One

A motorcycle-car accident at mid-afternoon Thursday sent Jeffrey Godwin of San Antonio to West Plains Medical Center in Muleshoe for treatment of a head injury and abrasions.

A hospital spokesman said Friday morning that Godwin, who had received a head laceration in the accident, was hospitalized overnight for observation before being released to return to his home Friday.

Marlin Mills, driver of the car involved in the accident, appeared before Bailey County Judge Glen Williams Friday and paid a $300 fine after being charged following the accident. He entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated, according to the judge.

Unidentified Man Killed In Accident

Bailey County's second traffic fatality for 1978 was recorded around 3:30 a.m. Saturday in southwestern Bailey County.

At presstime, the elderly victim of the accident was unidentified. Officers speculated that the man was a Mexican National. He had no identification papers in his pockets, but did have Mexican coins and a package of Mexican cigarettes.

According to Ricky Lee, 21, of Maple, who was driver of the vehicle that hit the man, the man was walking down the middle of the highway when he hit him and he had no time to take evasive action. The accident occurred about five miles north of Maple on FM1731.

The unidentified man's body was tossed into a ditch on the right side of the highway, while the Lee vehicle ended up in a field on the left side of the highway. The force of the impact knocked a large hole in the hood of the Lee car and the man's body smashed out the windshield of the vehicle.

Lee received slight injuries to his hand in the accident. Investigation into the fatal accident was continuing at presstime. It was being investigated by Department of Public Safety Troopers Larry King and Donnie Thomas.

City Council Will Sponsor Kids Program

The Muleshoe City Council will sponsor a Summer Youth Program beginning Monday, July 10 and continuing until August 18. Registration will be at 8:30 a.m. Monday, July 10 at the west city park parking lot south of KMUL Radio Station.

All young people from 8-15 are invited to participate in the program. The program will be divided into three age groups; eight to ten years old; 11-12 years old and 13-15 years old.

12 Year Old, Claire Brown Win Tourney

Muleshoe Country Club Golf Pro, Jeff Smith said "35 players entered the Men's Division of the Fourth of July Flag Tournament. This competition was designed to allot each player a given number of strokes to hit based on his handicap. When the evening was over the winner was Johnny Maddox, a twelve year old golfer who was the youngest competitor in the event. When he had hit his number of strokes he found himself on the 21st hole. Other players who finished well in this tournament were Raybern Ott, who placed second; Buddy Embry, third; Lionel Lane, who placed fourth; Tom Freeman, placed fifth; and Delbert Berry, who placed sixth. "I feel all six players should be commended for a fine tournament effort as many in this event had their problems coping with the Muleshoe Country Club Course", said Smith.

Eight players entered the women's competition. Finishing at the top was the new bride of Scott Brown, Claire, who won her second consecutive tournament since returning from a year of college golf at Midland College where her golfing merits earned her a birth in the National Junior College Tournament. Finishing a close runner up was Jeanette Precure who is developing a reputation of playing her best golf in tournament competition.

SBR Team Two Coach Don Leak said, "For a first year team, and first year players, this was a good season. "We, the coaches, and the team members would like to express their appreciation to everyone who turned out to support the team."

Thursday evening, the team and coaches ended the season with a swimming party and dinner at Leal's restaurant.

Coch Don Leak presented each player with a trophy and announced that Appy Sanchez and Roland Perez had been chosen for the All-Star Team.

Team members then presented their coaches, Don Leak and Butch Vandiver, with trophies commemorating the season.

"Muleshoe Senior Babe Ruth Team Number Two is looking for a better year next year," said Coach Leak.

Darrell Embry was named coach for the ALMO Senior Babe Ruth All-Stars. First game will be at Plainview, against Plainview on July 10, and the second game will be played in Muleshoe on July 12. If a third game is necessary, it will be played on July 14.

Morton Youth Wins Rodeo 'Top' Prize

Patrick Howard, son of Eugene Howard of Nashville, Ten. and Nonnie Bryant of Muleshoe, was reported to be improving in a hospital in Nashville.

He was struck by a vehicle in Nashville on Monday, July 3, and had his spleen removed.

Bailey County Sheriff Dee Clements continues to show improvement at Lubbock. He has been released from the hospital and is recuperating at the home of his son, Lubbock County Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Travis Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cornelison had all of their children and grandchildren with them over the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dale and children, of Marion, Ky. were here for 10 days. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cornelison and children of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Webb and children, of Lubbock came Sat. and stayed until Tuesday night. The Bill Dales left Wednesday morning, for their home in Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vanatta and sons, Levi, Tyler, and Chad returned home Wednesday after a trip to Lakin, Kansas where they visited family and friends. The boys stayed there to spend a few days with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Eubank, daughter and son-in-law of Jean Lovelady, will be visiting in Muleshoe for the next few days.

It was a thumping big success. Although the annual Muleshoe Junior Rodeo was said to get off to a slow start on Friday night, Saturday more than made up for the slow Friday, with a large crowd.

Contestants entered the rodeo from Muleshoe, Lubbock, Morton, Earth, Clovis, Portales, Dimmitt, Texico, Tulia and other surrounding towns and communities.

Winning the Pee Wee all-around buckle was Jeff Chisum of Earth and the trophy saddle, given to the high point contestant was presented to Kelly Sanders of Morton.

High point girl was Lisa Templeton of Earth and high point boy was Clint Stone from Morton. They were each presented a hand tooled breast collar, contributed by Cliff Allen of Cliff's Saddle Shop.

Lack of Water Closes Bull Lake For Time Being

Bull Lake is now closed. Low water in the lake is making boat docking nearly impossible, therefore, the lake was closed Tuesday, July 4.

According to Buck Ross, manager of the lake for the City of Littlefield, there has not been enough rainfall to keep the water level high enough to prevent accidents.

First place winners in each event received a trophy buckle and the other winners received ribbons.

School Board Will Consider Resignations

Resignations will be on the agenda for the Muleshoe Independent District School Board of Trustees when they meet Monday night at 8 p.m. Also on the agenda will be considering approval of personnel to fill vacancies created by the resignations.

Other items on the agenda will include opening sealed bids on milk for the lunchrooms and gasoline for school bus transportation during the next school year.

Special programs will be discussed; as will the current financial report for the school finances and the tax report.

Board members will review and consider the TASB Board Policy Manuals and will study the 1978-79 proposed tentative official budget and set a tax rate, if possible.

They will review the summer maintenance projects and consider a request from the city to have a youth recreation program with part of the activities to be in the high school gym two mornings a week.

Miscellaneous items will also be discussed.

Touch Dialing Now Available In This Area

New service is being offered to Muleshoe customers by General Telephone in the way of Touch Calling. In making this announcement, O.D. Hearne, division manager, states "this is one of General Telephone's efforts in continuing to provide the latest in modern telephone technology for the customers."

Design of the new telephone service is to provide for easier and faster dialing with push button use. At present 600 lines are being equipped for touch call. Along with this new service, the company is also adding an additional 300 numbers to be installed by the close of 1978 providing for the future growth of Muleshoe.

The new touch call telephones are now available by calling the company's business office.

A BIG DISPLAY...Fireworks lighted up the sky in Muleshoe Tuesday night during the annual July 4th Celebration. Hundreds of people packed the West Avenue D City Park to enjoy the wind-up of a full day of activities. Drawing a lot of attention before the fireworks was the Challenge of the Sexes softball game and the Jaycee frisbee golf tournament.

JUST WAITING...It was very hot Tuesday afternoon during the softball tournament on July 4th. One baseball player, who was waiting for his team to take the field, found an unusual way to catch a little rest. Completely unaware of the photographer, and blissful on his hard pillow, he enjoyed the game in progress.

Watering Practices Can Hurt Vegetables

Improper watering can lead to a number of disease problems, such as blossom end rot in tomatoes, peppers, squash and watermelons.

The disease which develops more rapidly in acidic soils, starts at or near the blossom end of the fruit, explains Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Tomatoes are most commonly affected when they are about half-grown.

The first sign of the disease is a slight, water-soaked area around the blossom end. This area soon darkens and enlarges rapidly as the fruit ripens. The discolored tissues shrink until they become flat or concave. The flesh of the fruit is rotted, brown to black in color, and leathery, describes Tanksley.

Another tomato disease, Buckeye rot, causes similar symptoms on the blossom end. However, this disease produces concentric rings of alternate light and dark gray areas.

To control these diseases, maintain a constant level of soil moisture, advises the county agent. Infrequent watering will encourage the diseases. Mulching will help reduce fluctuation in water supply.

Liming is advised if a soil test indicates an acidic soil. Tanksley cautions gardeners against heavy applications of nitrogen since this results in a rapidly growing plant that requires a constant soil moisture level.

Spraying infected plants with a 96 percent calcium chloride solution helps prevent blossom end rot on other developing fruit. Use four tablespoons of the material in a gallon of water and spray at seven-to-ten-day intervals until four applications have been made. Tanksley cautions against overdoses as they can cause leaf burn.

On Wall Street

By Bob Hill

Your auto repair bills could go up sharply if a recent court ruling prevails. A California Superior Court Judge enjoyed a local automobile dealer from charging fixed rates for repair work when the posted hourly labor rate would have resulted in a lower cost.

Consumer advocates are cheering the verdict in the belief that the injunction will drive repair costs lower. But there are numerous loopholes in the decision. The end result may be higher repair bills with the consumer again on the receiving end.

Almost all repair shops use the flat-rate billing method. The nation's service stations, auto dealers and repair shops charge customers not for the actual time spent repairing a vehicle, but for the time a manual published by the auto manufacturers or independent organizations allocates for the job.

In the San Francisco case, the dealer had prominently displayed a sign stating $37 per hour labor rate. But an investigation by the city fraud unit indicated that out of 540 repair jobs studied, 60 percent of the customers were overcharged. The report found that the average customer of this particular dealer is paying $12 more per hour than the posted rate. It seems the mechanics were spending less than the allotted time on the jobs.

The biggest loophole in the court decision is the wording which says hourly rates will be used "unless the customer is informed at the time the estimate is made that a different charge will apply." The repair shops believe this will enable them to charge the flat rates. In many cases, the repair shops will take down the hourly rate signs.

The rate manuals are the bibles for the repair shops. Without them, the trend will be toward higher estimates for repair shops in order for them to achieve a higher margin of safety.

Kiwanis Find Their Missing Sweetheart

Kiwanis met Friday with good news. Their lost Sweetheart, Fran Berryhill, was found, and was back with the group for their regular meeting. She explained that she had been away at church camp, and wasn't lost at all.

She gave the friendship coin to Junior Mills, who she said looked lonely and needing a friend.

Fran also told the group she was going to twirling camp for two weeks and was assured she would be missed while she was gone.

Kiwanians express their appreciation to everyone who bought fireworks for the 202nd anniversary of this country. They also assured that all proceeds from the fireworks sale would be used for civic projects in this community.

They gave a special thank you to Terry Bouchelle, Ronnie Shafer and Gail Bizzell, who spent long hours working the Attitude...

OF PRAYER

"Give ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation. Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray."
Psalms 5:1-2

God hears and answers prayers, but not everyone knows how to pray. Even the Lord's disciples asked that he teach them how to pray.

Attitude of the individual is important in prayer. Prayer is the opportunity that we have to tell God of our blessings and give thanks. It is an opportunity to petition for help, but above all, our hearts should be willing that God's will be done.

Prayer should be offered individually and in groups.

ATTEND CHURCH AND PRAY WITH OTHERS

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Consumers, unhappy over soaring electrical bills, jammed a Public Utility Commission hearing to demand relief.

"The time has come for this commission to put up or shut up," said Mrs. Angela Moore of Houston, representing the Texas Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now at the special airing of consumer grievances.

Spokesmen for the group (ACORN) called for establishment of lifeline electric rates.

"We are sick and tired of seeing preferential rates given to large electric users, while the people who can least afford it pay the highest per-unit rate," said Mrs. Moore.

Lifeline rates provide a fixed low price for residential use of a stated number of kilowatt hours of electricity.

ACORN representatives argued conservation is difficult when one cent per kilowatt hour is charged for major usage and 10 cents an hour rates are levied on small users of electricity for home essentials.

The commission is studying alternative rate mechanisms.

It will make a report to the legislature as a result of its hearings and studies.

Agencies Aged

The Sunset Advisory Commission tentatively ordered switching regulatory functions of the state nursing home administrators' regulatory agency to the State Health Department after learning the little agency had never cancelled a license.

E.M. Lawrence, executive secretary of the Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators, acknowledged he had investigated none of 660 complaints against nursing homes.

The nursing home board goes out of existence Sept. 1, 1979, unless renewed by the legislature. The Sunset Commission will vote again in September whether to abolish the agency and 25 others set for review. The nursing home regulatory board was created nine years ago to meet federal requirements for licensing of nursing home administrators.

Committees Meeting

Major legislative committees are scheduling hearings on tax relief measures here in preparation for either a special session or the 1979 regular session of legislators.

July 5, 6 and 7 meetings were set by the House Ways and Means and Constitutional Amendments committees on directives of Speaker Bill Clayton. A Legislative Council Property Tax Study Committee and a Joint Committee on Ad Valorem Taxation met last week.

Meetings this week will air proposals to fix state constitutional limits on state and local government taxation and spending.

The Ways and Means panel also will hear bills to eliminate the sales tax on home utility use; increase the inheritance tax exemption to $200,000 and to finance construction at 17 institutions of higher education through other methods than the 10 cent state property tax.

Courts Speak

Upholding a 99-year penalty for aggravated sexual abuse, the Court of Criminal Appeals held that compelling a defendant to display a tattoo does not violate rights against self-incrimination. The same court held a dying man's statement could be admitted in evidence in a Victoria murder case, reversed a life sentence in a Falls County burglary conviction due to improper jury instruction, and affirmed conviction of a Dallas man for aggravated robbery and attempted capital murder.

The State Supreme Court agreed to hear oral arguments in an appeal from lower court decisions that a Gulf Coast Waste Disposal Authority-operated plant is exempt from property taxation. Pasadena Independent School district and Harris County tried unsuccessfully to collect property taxes.

AG Opinions

Attorney General John Hill said Upper Colorado River Authority may buy water from another district for distribution to its own users and store it outside its own boundaries in a reservoir.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: Information submitted to the Office of Consumer Credit Commissioner by a pawnshop licensee is public. And so are financial records of Hidalgo County Jobs for Progress Inc., a community action organization.

Workmen's Compensation carriers have no liability to the second injury fund for death benefits attributable to those deaths occurring after the fund exceeds $250,000 in excess of existing liabilities and before it is reduced below $125,000.

A county tax assessor-collector is required to deposit tax funds in his possession in the county depository pending transfer of such funds to the county treasurer.

Short Snorts

President Carter's Texas visit netted about $550,000 for the Democratic National Committee through a June 23 Houston dinner.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe named Ned C. Butler of Gilmer criminal district attorney for Upshur County, succeeding Harry Heard who resigned.

Roland D. Saul of Hereford succeeds Andy Shuval, also of Hereford who resigned as criminal district attorney for Deaf Smith County.

Charles J. Hearn of Humble will be judge of the 263rd judicial district, Harris County.

Walter C. McFarland, Liberty Hill, assumed duties as agent-in-charge of the Department of Public Safety narcotics service July 1.

The annual auto rate hearing is scheduled July 19th, and auto insurance companies are hopeful of getting a rate increase.

Sixty-one highway projects are scheduled for bid opening at the monthly contract letting set here July 13-14 by the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

The Department of Human Resources is seeking a 68 percent increase in its budget (to $1.5 billion).

Two dozen Texas towns levy no city property taxes, according to Texas Municipal League.

BULLFROGGING

Frogs live almost everywhere in Texas and they are considered quite a delicacy plus the summer nights can be a real adventure for persons stalking or wading after the frog.

The most effective and popular way of collecting bullfrogs is still the old-fashioned method of "gigging." There is a continuous open season on bullfrogs in Texas, but most hunters begin the frog season on a warm summer night in late June or July when the water becomes comfortable for wading.

There are two types of gigs used for collecting frogs. One is the pronged gig which looks much like a miniature pitchfork with barbs. The other is a spring-loaded device which cocks by hand and then grabs the frog automatically when contact is made. This type of gig grabs and holds the frog without breaking its skin.

The bullfrog is a tremendous jumper. It is able to make leaps of four to five feet. Many a wounded frog has escaped its captor with one of these great leaps.

Along with the sturdy gig, a headlight and a stringer or a sack are all that is needed for a night of frog gigging. The most successful hunters stalk the bullfrog at night, but some success has been noted by daylight hunters using a fishing rod and a hook baited with a fly or piece of red cloth. A few hunters have used .22 rifles, but caution should be used when shooting at hard surfaces such as water. A ricochet can mean danger to anyone near you, livestock can be wounded and usually, the invitation to hunt bullfrogs will not be granted again if damage or injury occurs while using rifles to hunt on private property.

Gigging from the bank can be successful, but many frogs crouch in the vegetation on the water's edge facing away from the bank or simply float in the water where they cannot be seen or reached from the bank.

An area that has not been hunted will furnish plenty of targets for the gig. Some areas are hunted hard and the frogs become extremely wary and hard to catch.

Once the frogs are caught there are several ways to clean the frog. The most popular method seems to be to simply cut off the hind legs and skin them. After the frogs are cleaned, a delicious meal awaits the hunter and members of the family. Frog legs can be fried or broiled with a long list of vegetables that can be served to enhance the meal.

Frying the frog legs seems to be the most popular method. Allow pieces to soak for six to eight hours in the refrigerator in a salt solution. To cook the frog legs, coat the pieces with corn meal; or dip them in an egg and milk solution, then coat with a mixture of flour, salt, pepper to taste and deep fry as you would with chicken or fish.

RECIPES

By Sarah Ann Sheridan
Meals for hot summer days can be tasty and nutritious with just limited time spent on preparation. This stew and dessert needs only a simple lettuce salad for a complete meal.

- Quick Stew
3 T butter
1 medium onion, chopped
1 lb. frankfurters, quartered lengthwise
1 T flour
1 1/2 t chili powder
1 t salt
2 15-oz. cans red kidney beans
1 16-oz. can tomatoes
1 12-oz. can whole-kernel corn, drained

In large kettle or Dutch oven, in hot butter, saute onion with frankfurters until lightly browned; blend in flour, chili powder and salt; add beans, tomatoes and corn. Simmer, covered, 15 minutes. This will make 6 or 8 generous servings spooned over cooked rice or freshly baked corn bread.

For dessert we suggest alternating layers of fresh, peeled, sliced peaches, confectioners sugar and flaked coconut in sherbet glasses.

SBA Opens Offices For Texas Farmers

Although nearly 2,400 Texas farmers have either interviewed or filed drought loan applications totaling approximately $28 million, SBA Regional Director, Alicia Chacon, announced the opening of six more offices to serve those Texas farmers who have not yet applied. Bailey, Lamb, Farmer, Cochran and Deaf Smith Counties are among those eligible.

For farmers who suffered drought damage and resultant financial hardship, the filing deadline is October 11, 1978, which is unchanged from the original date established when the disaster was declared. "Before the deadline occurs we expect considerably more applications to be filed and are therefore moving some of the existing offices and opening new locations as well in an effort to be as accessible as we can to the 220 counties that are eligible for drought disaster loans," said Chacon. The disaster offices will be located in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Harlingen, Lubbock, Temple, Laredo, Amarillo, Pecos, Marshall and Abilene. The Laredo, Pecos and Abilene offices will not be open until July 5. Each office will be open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

SBA Disaster Office Managers are recommending that the farmers come in person to pick up an application and then return it in person. This assures that the application is complete, which in turn expedites processing of the loan.

The following information should be submitted with applications for drought loan assistance.

1. A copy of the legal description of the land, i.e., deed, mortgage, real estate contract, etc. (if real estate is to be offered as security).
2. Copies of tax records. The applicant should keep the originals as file copies.

3. A copy of the latest ASCS notice (Form 476) for allotments and yields.
4. If claiming a loss on pasture, indicate type of pasture and the number of months of normal grazing and pasture produced.
5. If land is rented crop share, indicate percentage division (i.e., 50/50, 60/40, etc.) and list only your share among the share of the acres.

Chacon explained that there are other items required if the applicant is in a partnership or corporation which is another reason why coming in person to the offices to initiate the loan application is recommended.

The physical disaster loan program for farmers will include unrecovered production costs on 1977 crops at 3 percent for the first $250,000 and 6 5/8 percent thereafter.

AUSTIN—The latest home outdoor recreational fad to hit Texas is the hot tub, or outdoor soaking tub. The tubs are made of redwood, frequently set into wooden decks, and come in various sizes and price ranges. Usually, they are at least four feet in diameter, have an interior bench, and include a heater and blower that produce pleasantly warm water for a relaxing outdoor soak. Larger tubs are used for family soaking sessions or even special soaking parties, which have replaced pool parties in some areas.

Attorneys in our Consumer Protection Division say the smaller tubs are often successfully installed by individuals, but that the larger ones generally require professional installation. As with any new fad, they caution consumers to be wary of unscrupulous persons or

TAX REVOLT VICTIMS
OAKLAND, CALIF. -- After 21 weeks of training, 16 rookies decked out in new blue uniforms and shiny badges, all graduates of the Oakland Police Academy posed proudly for the class portrait. Half an hour later they were handed dismissal notices—victims of the California property tax revolt.

DOLLAR'S HEALTH
GENEVA, SWITZERLAND -- OPEC oil ministers discussed world petroleum prices recently and expressed continued concern about the health of the dollar, leading to new speculation of possible businesses trying to make a quick buck on hot tub sales.

It's important to check the quality of the tubs that have been installed for previous purchasers before selecting a contractor or installer. Extra scrutiny should be given to equipment and durability of the redwood. In some cases, hot tubs have sold at "special" low prices feature low-grade redwood and inferior blowers and heaters that tend to malfunction.

Hot tubs are very much like above-ground swimming pools and similar safety precautions should be taken with the larger tubs. A well-made hot tub should not have any sharp edges or protruding bolts and the access ladder should be removable, so children and unauthorized people cannot enter.

Like pools, recommended safety measures include:

having sufficient lighting; having ladder steps at least three inches wide made of non-slip material; having a fence that is difficult to climb with self-closing gates that can be secured with a lock. You should also check local ordinances for safety construction requirements.

Our Consumer Protection Division attorneys recommend that you use these rules of thumb when purchasing a hot tub: ask previous purchasers about the tub's features and about the installation and service they received; and avoid "bait and switch" selling, misleading "special" low price sales, or illegal "referral" selling. If you are the victim of an unscrupulous swimming pool or hot tub salesperson, contact our Consumer Protection Division in Austin, Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Lubbock, El Paso, or McAllen. TOWER TALKS

by U.S. Senator for Texas
JOHN TOWER

The Rewards of Mismanagement

WASHINGTON—Way back when people took financial obligations seriously, it was standard practice to haul debtors off to the hoosegow when they let commitments slide.

You had another think coming if you believed anyone—particularly the local governing body—would overlook financial mismanagement. It was the slammer with no ands, ifs or buts.

Debt and its collection weren't laughing matters then. Things are a little different today.

Take the case of New York City. On the brink of bankruptcy three years ago, New York City came to Congress hat in hand, and while promising to end its profligate ways, sought American taxpayer dollars to meet its heavy payroll and creditor obligations.

Years of mismanagement and outright neglect of a worsening financial condition finally caught up with City officials. The day of reckoning had come.

Many of us on the Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee reasoned then—and reason now—that the American taxpayer is not responsible for subsidizing such mismanagement—and cast our votes against long term Federal loan guarantees accordingly.

The loan guarantees New York City officials requested could not meet the test of fiscal responsibility in 1975, and they do not now, as Congress again ponders the City's financial condition, in light of Administration support of Federal help.

What Congress finally granted the City in 1975 were once-only, short term emergency loans with strict repayment requirements, part of a legislative package of seasonal loans to help the nation's most populous city with its most immediate cash flow problems and continue services to its residents.

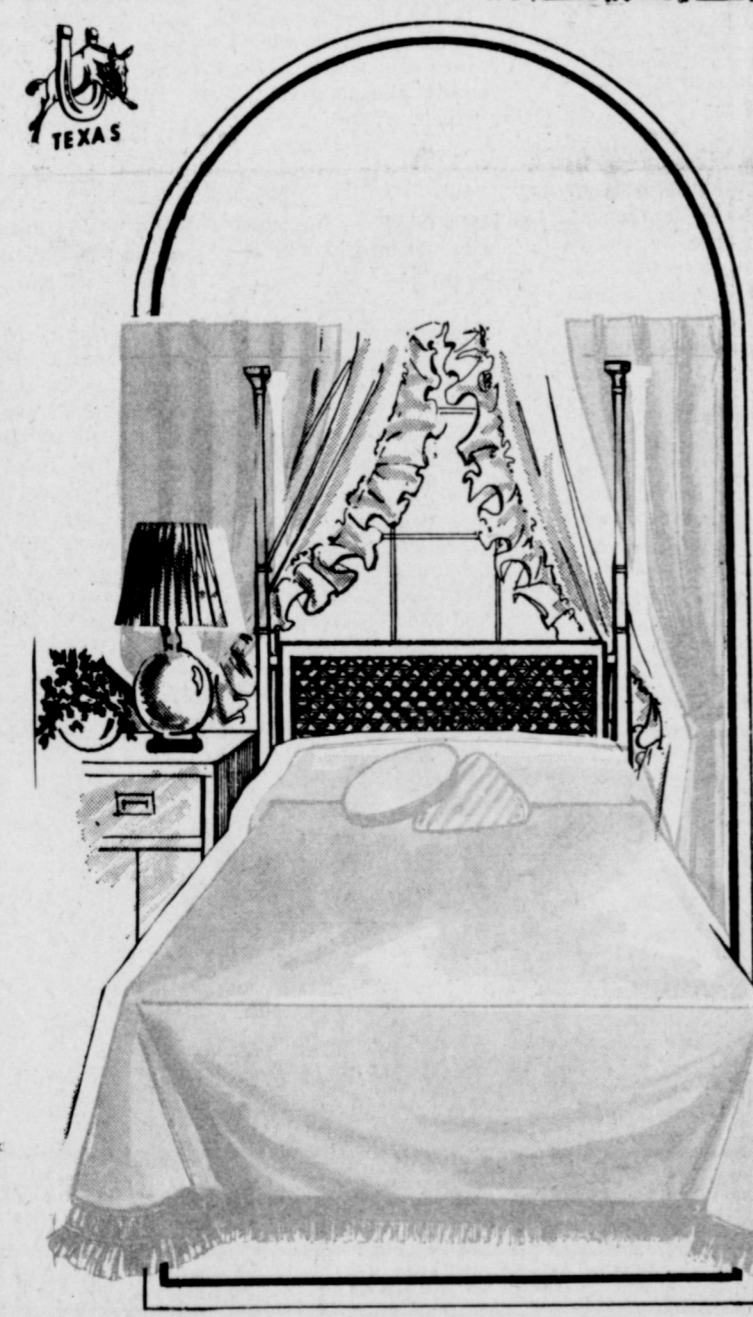

In fact, the stringent repayment requirements netted the Federal Treasury some $23 million because the notes bore interest at one percent above the existing Treasury borrowing rate.

These seasonal loans were granted with the proviso that New York City take stock of its past history of bad financial judgment and pursue a course to get its financial house in order without coming to Uncle Sam again.

The conditions were probably not stringent enough. With the strong backing of the Carter Administration, City officials have again managed to bring the issue of long-term loans up for consideration.

Legislation reported out of the Banking Committee on June 16 provides up to $1.5 billion in Federal guarantees over as long as a 15-year period. Those of us opposed to the idea reduced the figure by $5 billion over what the President's bill would have provided.

Federal help is unnecessary.

Boggs Named New Manager Of PCCA

C.L. Boggs has been named general manager of Plains Cotton Cooperative Association (PCCA), one of the largest marketers of cotton in the U.S. He succeeds Dan Davis, who resigned last month after 22 years as executive head of PCCA. Davis is forming his own company and said he will develop an electronic marketing service for the independent cotton sector in the southwest. PCCA is handling upward of one-million bales of cotton this year for over 20,000 producers in Texas and Oklahoma who use the association's electronic marketing service "Telcot."

Additionally the association is marketing about 300,000 bales to world wide points for American Cotton Growers (ACG), another farmer-owned enterprise whose 3,000 producers also own and operate a denim manufacturing plant at Littlefield, Texas.

Boggs served for 11 years as assistant general manager of PCCA prior to becoming general manager of ACG last Sept.

Based on actions taken by the boards of PCCA and ACG, he will manage both associations.

A native of Quitaque, Tx., Boggs joined the PCCA staff as office manager in 1965 and became assistant general manager the following year. He served the cotton cooperative sector in Texas for nine years as a Certified Public Accountant before moving into cooperative management.

"Boggs has been an integral part of the cooperative management structure in the southwest for many years," said L.C. Unfred of New Home, Texas, who serves as president of the board of both PCCA and ACG.

"He has been a part of PCCA during its most dynamic growth periods, including the development of our electronic marketing system, and has assisted ACG from its outset."

Unfred said Boggs' dual capacity as general manager of the two associations will mean greater efficiency and savings for cooperative producers in the southwest.

Gerald Ford, Former President:

"I believe that Congress has encroached much too far on the prerogatives of the executive to conduct foreign policy."

Meat Import Situation Discussed

Despite the recent increase in the meat import level for 1978, U.S. cattlemen are still the net winners through foreign trade. That is the opinion of Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Uvacek explains that the Meat Import Law of 1964 provides for a fixed level of imports and allows increases or decreases based on domestic production. Most exporting countries, however, have entered into voluntary restraint agreements with the U.S., which keep imports below the trigger levels of the quota.

This past March the voluntary restraint agreement level for 1978 was set at 1.29 billion pounds. President Carter's recently announced increase raised that level by 200 million pounds. In contrast, the trigger level for the Meat Import Law is 1.3 billion pounds.

Uvacek points out that about 35 percent of the total increased level of imports scheduled for this year has already been brought into the U.S. during the first four months. The remainder, therefore, will have to be spread out over the next eight months. The bulk of the increases came in March and April when prices were already in an upward spiral.

Research indicates that cattlemen's incomes are more indirectly affected by imports through the sale of cull cows, contends Uvacek.

"Put into this context, then, it seems obvious that the income effects on producers from the greater imports for 1978 should be minimal," he adds.

The U.S. exports more beef and cattle by-products in dollars and cents than it imports. The majority of exports are hides, tallow, variety meats and by-products which have a low demand in this country. Thus, U.S. cattlemen have more to gain in the game of international trade.

First Time

"Mummy," said little Brian, "Tommy doesn't know how to swim because his mummy won't let him go near the water."

"Well, Tommy is a very good little boy."

"Yes," answered Brian, thoughtfully, "and he'll go to Heaven the first time he falls in."

Teaching Children To Avoid Child Molesters

The sick, sad subject of sexual abuse of children often is ignored because it is so unpleasant. Yet parents need to tell their children more than "don't take candy from strangers" in order to protect them adequately, the Texas Medical Association (TMA) says.

Since a child molester can be almost any age and often knows the child, the stereotype of the dirty old man in a raincoat in the park often does not apply. One survey showed that most females molested were related to the molester by blood or marriage. Most males molested knew the molester but were not related. Other surveys said molesters often were between ages 18-67 (with concentrations in the teens, 30s and 50s), had varied educational backgrounds and often had good jobs. About the only thing surveyors all agreed on was that most molesters were male with only rare examples of female molesters occurring.

Protecting a child from such a shadowy cloud of suspects can be difficult without making the child afraid of all adults. TMA offers these suggestions drawn from sources ranging from Lady's Circle magazine to a handbook by the county prosecutor's office in Minneapolis.

When talking with a child, parents should be open, unembarrassed and willing to discuss sensitive subjects. Honestly answering questions on a child's level of understanding can help keep the atmosphere clear of fear or guilt. Since a child may be too young to understand molestation, parents' attitudes can shape the child's understanding of the subject. Parental hysteria has a greater chance of emotionally harming the child than a calm explanation that some situations and acts should be avoided just like hot stoves or other common hazards.

If the child is too young to understand what sexual perversion is, he or she can be told to avoid situations or actions for common sense reasons. For instance, a parent can say that some body parts should be touched only by specified people such as parents or medical personnel because the parts otherwise may become infected.

Accepting rides, gifts or jobs without telling parents should be avoided, even if the child is acquainted with the person who offers. Parents can tell the child to avoid playing in public restrooms or deserted areas alone because of unsanitary conditions or because no one could help the child if he or she were injured while alone. Checking to see that the child gets home from school safely and knows to go home or to a neighbor's house if followed are two other points to remember. Such precautions can become habits for young children and as they grow older parents can reinforce the advice by explaining that some people should be avoided because of their sexual maladjustments.
