SIT-DOWNERS LEAVE FLINT AUTO PLANTS

SPRIT OF ARMISTICE PREVAILS IN MICHIGAN

FLINT, Mich., Feb. 12 (AP)—An armistice spirit, exuberant and joyous, held full sway today in embattled Flint, capital city of General Motors strikes that have ended at last.

The "war" was over, taut nerves relaxed, and 1,600 "staying" strikers were reunited with their families.

Cheering crowds that watched jubilant strikers march from three General Motors plants late yesterday looked forward to another march next week—parade of 43,000 idle workers back to jobs.

First demobilization orders for 3,300 national guardsmen, most of whom had been on strike duty here for a full month, were expected hourly. Officers said, however, that some of the troops probably would remain until full production was resumed in General Motors plants.

A legal disarmament also impeded as General Motors attorneys prepared to ask for a dismissal of a court injunction and a writ of attachment calling for the arrest of the strikers.

A spontaneous celebration that dwarfed all demonstrations during the six tense weeks of recurrent battles began at Fisher body plant No. 1. The participants carried balloons, flags, horns, confetti and paper streamers.

"Sit-down" strikers whose occupation of three key plants at Flint—the Fisher body Nos. 1 and 2 and Chevrolet Motor assembly No. 4—had a spectacular part in the parallelization of operations jubilantly marched out last night.

Greeted by their families and throngs of union workers and sympathizers, the strikers paraded from the factories six hours after General Motors executives and the United Automobile Workers of America had signed in Detroit an agreement that ended the prolonged dispute.

Knudsen said as many as possible of the corporation's factories would reopen the first of the week. Inventories of parts and materials have been built up during the strike.

As soon as bodies reach the assembly line, the output of cars and trucks will be speeded up to the 225,000-a-month schedule.

A pay increase of five cents an hour becomes effective when workers return to their jobs. Alfred P. Sloan Jr., corporation president, estimated this will add $25,000,000 to General Motors annual payroll.

Homer Martin, U. A. W. A. president, called representatives of every local union in General Motors plants to meet here today to consider demands to be presented to the corporation in the collective bargaining conference to open in Detroit Tuesday.

Gov. Frank Murphy will not participate in the forthcoming negotiations unless requested by both sides.

Gov. Murphy, commended earlier by President Roosevelt for his conciliation efforts, received a telegram from Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins expressing her "appreciation of your brilliant and statesmanlike handling" of the labor conflict.

Richard T. Frankenstein, organization director of the U. A. W. A., said several companies have "deliberately discharged and otherwise discriminated against union people in the knowledge that we did not wish additional trouble which the General Motors situation existed."

WAGE HIKE ANNOUNCED DETROIT, Feb. 12 (AP)—Packard Motor Car company officials announced today a wage increase of 5 cents an hour, affecting approximately 12,500 employees and aggregating approximately $2,000,000 yearly. It is effective Sunday, Feb. 14.

Oil Activities Boom As 8 New Wells Are Tested

PIONEER BALL SOON BECOMES DANCING DUEL

Hutchinson County Is New Hot Spot Of Area

Activity in the Panhandle oil field gained momentum last week following announcements that the oil industry would show even greater activity than in 1936. The local office of the Texas Railroad Commission was flooded with another deluge of intentions to drill and tests reached a new high for the year with eight wells given a potential of 4,474 barrels.

Hutchinson county, which showed a remarkable comeback in 1936 but which lagged in activity during January of this year, again came to the front in both completions and new locations.

Five of the wells tested were in Hutchinson county. They were given a total potential of 2,935 barrels. Included in the list was the best producer of the week, the Power Petroleum Company (S. N. McDaniel) No. 1 Halle in section 5, block M-21, TC&RR survey, which was gauged at 722 barrels a day.

Carson county had two completions with Gray getting the other. Seventeen intentions to drill were filed during the week with Hutchinson county registering nine of them. Gray county reported five new locations, Carson county two and Moore county one.

Eleven companies or individuals registered intentions to drill. Most of them were in the midst of proven territory. J. R. Phillips made a location for his first test in the Twitchell survey, block 22, in Hutchinson county, and the Phillips Petroleum Company registered a location on its Lucas lease in section 7, John M. Swicher survey, also in Hutchinson county, for tests that will be watched with interest.

Oil wells tested, by counties, last week: Hutchinson County, Drilling & Exploration Co. Inc. No. 9 E. E. Watkins, section 13, block M-21, TC&RR survey, was given a potential of 663 barrels with pay in lime formation from 2,860 to 2,965 feet, total depth.

HELLO AMERICA HOUR WILL BE CELEBRATED BY FOREIGN WAR VETS

Pampa Veterans of Foreign Wars are planning an elaborate celebration of the annual "Hello America" hour Monday night. The veterans will gather in the basement of First Baptist church at 8 o'clock to hear a local program which will include orchestra music, vocal selections and two brief talks.

Between the local program and the nation-wide radio program, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, refreshments will be served. Commander H. P. Lusby will preside at the meeting.

Orchestra music will be furnished by Roy Tinsley and his orchestra. Mrs. Bruce Peek will give vocal selections and Mrs. Jeff Guthrie will play the accordion. A talk on youth activities will be made by Edmaster C. H. Walker, who is president of the Adobe Wells Boy Scout council. Supt. E. B. Stisher of the Pampa Schools will speak on Americanism.

High government and veteran officials will speak during the radio broadcast. Music will be by nationally known bands and orchestras, playing in different parts of the country.

BRITISH BIG STICK LONDON, Feb. 12 (AP)—Great Britain was reported in informed circles today to be preparing war expenditures of between $6,000,000,000 and $8,000,000,000 in the next five years as a "big stick" to enforce peace in Europe.

The huge drive for armaments, launched by the government yesterday, according to indications in parliamentary circles, would be used as a visible and invisible club over the heads of bickering European nations.

Tank Contract Is Let By City

The Panhandle Tank company of Dallas was awarded the contract for removal of the city's new water storage tank from its present location on a Magnolia Petroleum company lease near LeFors to Pampa. City commissioners in session last night, accepted the company's low bid of $10,297.50.

Seven companies entered bids for the tearing down, moving and reconstruction of the tank. Bid of the Larsen and Williams company of Longview, $11,720.00, was second low with the $12,000 bid of the Pittsburgh-Des Moines company of Dallas third low. Others asking for the contract were Feddicord and Simmons of Pampa; Panhandle Steel Production company of Dallas; Steel Tank Construction company of Dallas; John Tancord of Wichita Falls. The successful bidder will be given eight weeks to have the tank ready for storage. It was agreed at the time of purchase that the tank would be removed from the lease by April 1. When constructed, the tank will give the city of Pampa an additional 80,000 barrels of water storage. It will be set up north of the water wells in west Pampa.

The tank was purchased from the Magnolia Petroleum company for $6,000 cash. It has never been used.

City commissioners believe fear of another water shortage will be solved with construction of the new tank.

SCOUTS WILL TAKE OFFICES ON SATURDAY

Boy Scouts will manage city, county and federal offices in Pampa for an hour tomorrow and will, by virtue of their various offices, be "kings for a day." They will also visit business places in the city.

Beginning at 11 a. m., the boys will take office in city hall, county house, and federal building. They will be shown the workings of the offices and carry out the duties that fall to their lot during the time they are in charge.

The office-taking ceremonies will follow a downtown parade scheduled for 10 a. m. and which will pause for a time in front of the La-Nora theater at 10:45. At this time keys of the city will be turned over to the Boy Scouts by Mayor W. A. Bratton.

WHEN GOOD SCOUTS GET TOGETHER

Officialing in the dual capacity of honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America and President, Franklin D. Roosevelt joined with other Scouts in observation of the organization's 27th anniversary. The boys are pictured around him at the White House as they re-dedicated themselves to the Scout oath. The President issued an invitation to members to attend the International Jamboree in Washington, starting June 30.

BIRTHDAY OF ABE OBSERVED

Thousands gathered today at the tomb of Abraham Lincoln in tribute to the man who epitomized democracy.

While elsewhere in the nation others paused to commemorate the birth of the Great Emancipator 128 years ago, a privileged assemblage stood bare-headed beneath the portals of his final resting place and heard extolled his work and ideals.

American Legionnaires, headed by their national commander, Harry W. Colmery of Topeka, Kas., were in charge of the ceremonies.

Colmery's address was prefaced by the remarks of Governor Henry Horner. Floral tributes were laid upon the sarcophagus. A squad of Spanish war veterans fired a salute to the soldier dead and taps were sounded.

The program marked for Springfield the centennial of the year Lincoln moved here.

Gov. George H. Earle of Pennsylvania said in a speech last night Lincoln would have approved President Roosevelt's proposal for reorganization of the Supreme Court.

GOV. ALLRED'S BROTHER SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

Raymond Allred said he would take his brother home this afternoon if his condition permitted.

Young Allred, Dallas attorney, was in the office of Claud McDonald, oil operator, when he became dizzy. He attempted to raise the window and collapsed. As he fell his head struck the edge of a desk and the blow cut a small gash.

Raymond Allred said he would take his brother home this afternoon if his condition permitted.

ALASKAN GLACIER IS MOVING TOWARD HOUSE

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Feb. 12 (AP)—Black Rapids glacier roared steadily toward a roadhouse, where a family of three today watched and felt the slow, irresistible advance of the mountain of ice.

Gigantic ice blocks tumbled from the glacier's face, 200 feet high and two miles across. The impact shook the earth, and made the heaviest timbers quiver in Black Rapids roadhouse where Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Revell and their son, Harry, waited, hoping they would not have to flee their home.

The face of the 30-mile long glacier was only a mile from the roadhouse and Alaska's main highway today. Two weeks ago it was six miles away and imperceptibly receding as it had for centuries.

Then an earthquake shook the glacier out of its role as a scenic background into a roaring monster of ice.

FARMER WANTS STATE TO REGULATE HOUND RAISING

AUSTIN, Feb. 12 (AP)—P. P. Curry, Ellis county farmer, told a legislative committee the government's slow-under cotton program several years ago started him on a lucrative side-line of raising greyhounds which has helped "feed my five kids."

Curry, a well-dressed rural Will Rogers, advocating state regulation of dog racing, had the committee laughing by his breezy informality. He was a share-cropper then. The government required slow-under of so much land "there wasn't much left" for the farmer; so by chance

NEW FRONT IS ESTABLISHED NEAR CAPITAL

SLAUGHTER IS HEAVY AS SHOUTING MOORS ADVANCE

By The Associated Press

Spain's see-saw of war tilted back and forth today for both fascist insurgents and the socialist government—one up and the other down, then the other way. Death stalked earth, sea, and sky.

Shouting Moorish troops in the ranks of Madrid's fascist besiegers pointed an insurgent drive which established a new 10-mile front along the Jarama river southeast of the city at a heavy cost of life for the defenders.

The move left still unsettled the question of which side controls the Madrid-Valencia road. Each claims it. Complete encirclement of Madrid is the fascist objective.

Socialist artillery sought to break the incomplete fascist ring on the northwest with a bombardment that failed to dislodge insurgents from fresh positions in the University City section. The government reported its air fighters shot five fascist planes out of the skies on the outskirts of the city.

Insurgents streamed back into the west park section of Madrid after low-flying planes raked the sector with machine gun fire and socialist infantrymen "mopped up" with hand grenades. This was but one of several struggles over the barricades of the city.

Only two and a half miles north of Valencia, temporary seat of the socialist government on the Mediterranean, insurgent warships poured more than 30 shells into the village of Alboraya—a forerunner perhaps of a fascist drive on Valencia by land and sea.

Government reports said the boats fired at the approval of the socialist warships and that damage to the village was slight. Citizens found refuge in bomb shelters. There were no known casualties.

A fascist-controlled radio station at Seville broadcast that insurgents had captured Francisco Melba, president of the popular tribunals of Valencia, who, the announcement said, was responsible for more than 5,000 executions.

The German government raised the status of its mission to the Spanish junta from legation to embassy. The reich and Italy recognized Generalissimo Francisco Franco's junta as the de facto government of Spain some months ago.

MALE HEIR TO THRONE BORN

NAPLES, Feb. 12 (AP)—A boy who may some day rule the Italian empire was born today to Crown Prince Carlo and Crown Princess Marie Jose in the seventeenth-century royal palace overlooking sparkling Vesuvius bay.

Naples and Italy began festive celebrations in honor of the newest member of the royal family who follows his father, Crown Prince Umberto, directly in the line of succession.

The birth, characterized by palace officials as "most easy," occurred at 2:15 p. m. (7:15 a. m. CST). The first announcement was made almost an hour later when a palace aide, following Italian custom, hung a blue and white ribbon on the door of the royal residence.

Although a birth is usually announced by only a white ribbon, the blue was added today because it is the color of the royal house of Savoy.

The crown princess, attendants said, was resting comfortably and "rejoicing because she had given Italy an heir."

Even before booming cannon signaled the royal birth and newspapers rushed extra editions, the news spread quickly among neapolitans. Crowds before the palace cheered the royal family.

Congratulations sped swiftly from Rome from the baby's grandfather, King Victor Emmanuel, Premier Mussolini, Pope Pius and others. The king prepared to leave for Naples tonight.

The new baby takes royal precedence over his two-year-old sister, Maria Pia, born at Naples, Sept. 24, 1934. His father is the only son of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena and his mother a former Belgian princess.

Sources close to the royal family said King Victor Emmanuel would decree nationwide amnesty for Italian prisoners in celebration of his grandson's birth.

Hundreds of children born today in Italy will receive insurance policies, savings accounts and a variety of gifts offered by large companies to babies born on the same day as a royal prince.

Queen Elena arrived in Naples from Rome yesterday to be with her daughter-in-law. She immediately instructed an aide to telegraph the news today to the king.

KEY WORDS OF FORCEFULNESS TOPIC OF TALK

Principal Speaks To Sam Houston P-TA

Forcefulness was the subject discussed by Principal A. L. Patrick at the regular meeting of Sam Houston P. T. A. He said: "There are six key words which serve as the basis of forcefulness: Attitude, what we think about a thing and how we react to it; backgrounds, economic, social, religious, organic difference in ability and intellect, and many others; facilities, interest in things; knowledge, not solely accumulation of facts but the art of living and the art of living together, as well as the art of making a living; faith, confidence in our ability to achieve; release, freedom that will allow the individual and the social order to reach the maximum of life.

Students represented the six key words of the discussion. In the executive meeting preceding the meeting a nominating committee was named: Mrs. W. Mullinax, Mrs. Earl Eaton, Miss Florence Jones and A. L. Patrick.

Plans were made for an old-fashioned box supper to be held soon. The secretary was asked to send cards to the representative and senator endorsing the proposed child labor amendment. The date of the P. T. A. play was tentatively set for March 19. Mrs. J. M. Dodson is to direct the play.

Scout Troop 14 sponsored by the association gave an interesting demonstration of bandaging, knot-tying, and explained the Scout laws. This was directed by the Scoutmaster, Walter Stein, who also gave the yearly report to the association.

Mrs. H. G. Myers arranged the founders day ceremony. Mrs. J. M. McDonald gave a short history of the national congress. Mrs. R. B. Fisher lighted the golden candle of faith. Mrs. Earl O'Keefe lighted the blue candle of oneness of purpose. Mrs. Bert Curry lighted the red candle of sympathetic understanding. Mrs. L. L. Sone the white birthday candle commemorating the 40th birthday of the national congress.

Mrs. L. K. Stout lighted a golden candle of dedication. Mrs. Sherman White a blue candle of education. Mrs. R. B. Lawrence, a red candle of recreation and Mrs. Sam Irwin a white candle.

A birthday cake was served at the close of the meeting and a founders day offering taken.

Mrs. John I. Bradley's room had the largest per cent of parents present and received the picture for the next month.

Club Expresses Regret at Death

In memory of Mrs. Frieda Baer, member who died recently, Kingsmill Home Demonstration club at a meeting Tuesday dedicated to her a poem by Edgar A. Guest which begins "I'd like to think when life is done that I had filled a needed post."

Members expressed sympathy to her family, recalled her valued service to the club, in which she was active for a number of years, and praised her unselfish work for her community.

A number at the Phillips plant have been sick this week. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gibson are much better. Lucille Horn, who has been sick since last Friday, is better. Mrs. Seth Horn has also been sick. Gene K. Smith has been quite ill with bronchitis. Mrs. Homer Gibson of the Bowers Plant who is in the Pampa-Jarratt hospital, is reported improving.

Mrs. C. E. Sturdevant entertained with a 9 o'clock breakfast in her home Wednesday morning. Friends dropping in were: Mmes. John House, Karl Rippel, Emmet Edwards, Deacon Jones, Sam Holding, Johnny Wells, and Ray Hulm.

Better Be Safe

(Editor's Note: The following article on safety was written by a member of the high school journalism class in connection with the safety campaign being sponsored by the Kiwanis club.)

By FRED A. BELLOWES Traffic rules and regulations are very seldom if ever given thought. In fact if a survey were made my estimate would be that not 1 percent of the population of a town would give them thought or use them.

Here in Pampa there are some hand signs to use when stopping or turning. These rules are not used because the officials do not enforce the laws. It has been learned that people will not do anything unless they are forced to; so why don't you so called citizens of the United States take it upon yourself to use these signs and prevent many of the accidents that occur through the disregarding of traffic laws.

It really isn't difficult or you are not exerting yourself too much when you take time to hold your hand outside of the window and make a slight motion to show the pedestrians and other drivers that you are going to make a certain move and after all what is a little effort, in comparison to the loss of a life?

MRS. CRAIN IS HEARD ON P-TA FOUNDERS DAY

High Aims of Units Discussed by Visitor

Not the three R's, but the three C's—character, culture, and citizenship—are of most importance to children, Mrs. J. M. Crain of Amarillo stressed in her address to Horace Mann Parent-Teacher association yesterday.

"Never has there been a time when Parent-Teacher workers should take a more serious accounting of our thoughts and doings, and place the emphasis where it belongs—on things that make for truth and beauty for right and noble living for our children," she concluded.

An unusually large attendance marked the meeting, which celebrated national founders day. Mrs. E. L. Husband directed a founders day pageant in which Mrs. H. L. Boynton and Mrs. C. E. Cary lighted gold candles signifying faith and dedication. Mrs. K. W. Bunch and Mrs. W. M. Brace blue candles for love of childhood and education. Mrs. Y. E. Turnbo and Mrs. H. E. Stevens red candles for understanding and recreation. Mrs. Emory Noblitt and J. K. Longacre white candles for the national organization and service.

Appropriate songs were interspersed by the school sextet: Donald Childers, Duane Thomas, Naomi Van Huss, Therolene Devore, Mary Jane Davis, Eva Dean Bennett.

A chorus from the Treble Clef club sang two songs; Mrs. W. Purviance presented the devotional, and Miss Tabitha Adkinson led group songs.

The birthday cake was served by Mmes. L. C. Lockhart, R. F. Pauley, Dublin, Noblitt, and John B. Reed. A silver founders day offering was taken.

Mmes. Noblitt, Longacre, and Miss Josephine Thomas were elected as a nominating committee. The board planned for a play and a Horace Mann centennial program to be given soon. Mmes. Thomas, Frances McCue, Mmes. C. W. Moot and Husband were named as a committee in charge. Another committee, for campus beautification, includes Mrs. Eurl Graham and Miss Thomas.

The attendance award went to Miss Margaret Baldwin's room.

Bridge Party for Friends Enjoyed

Mrs. C. I. McLemore entertained a group of friends with bridge at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Lowell Fendrick made high score and Mrs. H. B. Combs low in the games. Others playing were Mmes. Hank Walter, Lelah Fern Morris, Olivia Allen, Hale Smart, and Miss Garnita Eystad. Sandwiches and hot chocolate were served.

More than 200 miles of bicycle paths have been built recently in Berlin, Germany.

SANDBOILS GIVE NEW ORLEANS FLOOD TASTE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 12 (AP)—Forces of rehabilitation followed a sluggish crest down the Mississippi today while sandboils gave New Orleans a taste of flood troubles. The valley's largest city felt the first effects of the Mississippi's record burden late yesterday when water bubbling through a large sandbill submerged three square blocks of wharf area to a depth of 18 inches. Hundreds of laborers hurriedly sandbagged the leak and no major levee threat was seen in the flow caused by river pressure forcing water through loose soil area strata beneath the dikes. Meanwhile, the big river crept toward record heights along the lower valley but created no major crisis.

Exercise Given Club Women for Better Posture

A straight spine and expanded chest puts the body into position for deeper respiration, better digestion, and a graceful carriage. Mrs. Robert Brown told Hopkins Home Demonstration club members in a program at the home of Mrs. J. Davis Tuesday.

Lifting the body up and down on the toes several times a day strengthens the spine and helps correct rounded shoulders she said as she suggested several exercises for better posture. Opal Franklin demonstrated good and poor postures.

Mrs. C. P. Couts was appointed chairman of food exhibit and Mrs. B. V. Brummett chairman of the expansion committee, in a business session.

Delicious refreshments in a Valentine motif were served to Mrs. Jim Haden, a new member, seven other members and three children.

Public Invited To Book Review

Mrs. Ruth Midyette is to present the review of "Wake Up and Live" by Dorothea Brande. She will be introduced by Mrs. Christopher. The program is open to the public.

Black-Draught High In Quality Without Being High In Price

Black-Draught is "easy to pay for" because it is so economically packaged and so reliable. But as to quality, there's nothing "cheap" about it. For instance, its principal active ingredient is the leaves of a certain species of plant that are brought 10,000 miles from where they grow to the factory where the medicine is made. These leaves from far, far away, help to give Black-Draught its well-known "laxative reliability." They could not be left out, or substituted, with out real loss of good medicinal quality.

For a good, purely vegetable laxative, insist on Black-Draught. About 25 doses in each 25-cent package.

TALK TO GIRLS PRESENTED AT VALENTINE TEA

College Dean Tells of Education for Vocations

Mothers of high school girls were included as guests at a Valentine tea yesterday, one of a series of meetings sponsored by the vocational guidance group of the A. A. U. W. for senior girls. Mrs. Ethel Travis Shaw, assistant dean of women at West Texas Teachers college at Canyon was the guest speaker.

Girls should be educated for vocations, not just trained for mechanical work, she emphasized in her informal talk. Mrs. Shaw met a number of girls for individual conferences during the day she spent here.

Mrs. Ed Wagner introduced the speaker and Miss Marjorie Simpson played piano solos while tea was being served. Mrs. Howard Man chairman of the vocational group, made arrangements for the meeting, assisted by Mrs. Leo C. Dodd.

Mrs. L. L. Sone poured tea at a table in Valentine motif, lighted by red and white tapers in silver candleholders. Members of the A. A. U. W. assisted in serving the tea with white cake, red and white heart mints.

Band Club Will Conduct Sales

Movies Shown at Safety Meeting Of Phillips Men

By Helen Partridge HOPKINS No. 2, Feb. 12 — Probably one of the most interesting programs Chapter 77, Phillips Safety Club, has had the privilege to enjoy was the one presented Wednesday evening in the Community hall at the Phillips Pampa plant.

Harry Markee from the safety department at Bartlesville, showed a moving picture of the life on Frank Phillip's Woolaroo ranch in Oklahoma. Ranch life is a hobby of Mr. Phillips, president of the Phillips petroleum company.

Mr. Markee also gave a talk on his version of "What are classed as accidents, and what are classed as personal injuries."

C. E. Sturdevant read a personal letter from C. P. Dimit, vice-president in charge of production on percentage-standing of accidents in the production department.

Mr. Maisel furnished further entertainment by presenting the girls' quartet of Pampa high school. Refreshments were furnished by Seth Horn's garage department, and served by Red Owens, Mike Hunt and Lewis Neyland.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hardy and baby of Kiowa, Kas., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reed of Sawyer, Kas., are new families at the Phillips Pampa plant. The Reeds have two children. Mr. Hardy and Mr. Hood are employed with the Phillips Co. here.

A number at the Phillips plant have been sick this week. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gibson are much better. Lucille Horn, who has been sick since last Friday, is better. Mrs. Seth Horn has also been sick. Gene K. Smith has been quite ill with bronchitis. Mrs. Homer Gibson of the Bowers Plant who is in the Pampa-Jarratt hospital, is reported improving.

Mrs. C. E. Sturdevant entertained with a 9 o'clock breakfast in her home Wednesday morning. Friends dropping in were: Mmes. John House, Karl Rippel, Emmet Edwards, Deacon Jones, Sam Holding, Johnny Wells, and Ray Hulm.

SNOW-BLINDED YOUTHS SOUGHT BY RESCUERS

BLACKFOOT, Idaho, Feb. 12 (AP)—Highway crews struck out into southern Idaho's drifted lava desert today to rescue two snow-blinded young men and a band of hungry, coyote-harassed horses.

Thirty miles from the nearest railroad or telephone line and 80 miles from their homes at Shelley, Sam Bradshaw, 22, and a companion called "Webb" awaited the rescue party.

Scattered near them, over an area of several miles, were 31 starving horses, pawing the deep snow for bitter sprigs of sagebrush. And surrounding the horses, patiently circling with dripping jaws, were the thin gray coyotes.

This was the tableau pictured by pilot Ralph Knapp of Pocatello who darily landed with supplies yesterday.

Leonard Cox Jr., 23, companion of Bradshaw and Webb, returned late yesterday to his home in Shelley, 17 miles northeast of Blackfoot. He had left the other two in a desperate attempt to go for help.

The three young men drove their sleigh into the heart of the lava desert last week to round up the horses.

'HEY, BOB!'
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Coach Harry Newman of Collinwood high school doesn't yell, "Hey, Bob!" any more when he wants to talk to one of his basketball players. He did it once this year and five boys trotted over to listen.

The five Bobs on his first team, all playing different positions, are Bob Vogel, Bob Lickers, Bob Jones, Bob Greenwood, and Bob Maxwell. All the first stringers aren't Bobs, however. There is a Walter, a Don, a Joe and a Felix. Newman calls them all by their last names this year. It saves time.

LOVELOCK AT LEISURE.
LONDON (AP)—Jack Lovelock, New Zealand, middle-distance ace, who has returned to London after a tour around the world, says he will not run this year. He is continuing his medical studies.

The cotton consumption in the United States increased in 1935-36 over that of season before and was somewhat above the average consumption for the period 1923 to 1933, government records reveal.

In 1936 North Carolina produced 464,895,000 pounds of tobacco as compared with 577,435,000 pounds in 1935.

International Sunday School Lesson

JESUS THE GOOD SHEPHERD.
Text: John 10:1-16.
BY WM. E. GILROY, D. D., Editor of Advance.

Coming in the month of February, this lesson on Jesus, the good shepherd, has an appropriateness that was not in the minds of the compilers of the lessons at the time they were planned.

This is the fact that the centenary of the birth of the great evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, is being celebrated throughout the world. Moody was born on Feb. 5, 1827. Associated with him in his evangelistic work was Sankey, the singer; and the song or hymn that was most typical of Moody's evangelism was the beautiful "The Ninety-and-Nine," based on the Parable of the Lost Sheep.

In our lesson the aspect of the shepherd is somewhat different, but it is the same essential fact that is emphasized; namely, the shepherd's care for his sheep, and his willingness to lay down even his life, if necessary, to defend and care for them.

The references that Jesus makes to Himself as the "door" are not easily understood, but the emphasis that Jesus puts upon the character of the shepherd, his care for his own, his patience, his love and his courage are unmistakable.

We are told that the figure of the shepherd as the "door" is taken from the sheepland of the East, to which there is a very narrow entrance. The shepherd stands in that entrance, closing the fold, or he stands to one side, leaving an opening for the sheep to come in or go out. So it is that Jesus is the "door."

He symbolizes the protection of the sheep, and the exclusion from the fold of all that is dangerous and harmful. The character of the good shepherd is contrasted with that of the hireling, the man who has sense of responsibility or of devotion.

The figure of the good shepherd as he tenderly carries the lamb on his arm, while his staff or crook symbolizes his protecting care for the older sheep, has been enshrined in art. But there is something even deeper than that symbolism. It is the willingness of the shepherd to sacrifice his own life, and that is what Jesus did for humanity.

The reference to sheep that are not of His particular fold is somewhat obscure, like earlier portions of the parable; but the one thing that is clear and sure is that all

175 FASTEST SKATERS TURN UP FOR CONTESTS

SARANAK LAKE, N. Y., Feb. 12 (AP)—More than 175 of the fastest skaters in the United States and Canada turned up today for the North American speed skating championship on this Adirondack village's 6-lap rink.

Local sentiment favored national champion Marvin Swanson, of Minneapolis, to win the men's title.

Challenging the men's competition for interest was the four-cornered battle anticipated in the women's senior division. Saranak Lake's Janet Milne will carry the hopes of home towners against the national women's champion, Maddy Horn of Beaver Dam, Wis. Dorothy Franny of St. Paul and Helen Bahill, winner of the Silver Skates derby.

Dog's Howls Lead Rescuers to Boys
SAN BERNARDINA, Calif., Feb. 12 (AP)—A dog's howls led rescuers early today to two little boys, lost since yesterday afternoon in the snow-blanketed canyons of the San Bernardino mountains.

Robert Allen, 7, and Sandy McPherson, 8, were found huddled in a hole they had dug in the snow and covered with brush. A cocker spaniel they had met and befriended in a trap through the Rim of the World park was standing nearby. They had wandered from a mountain resort.

The boys, frightened, cold, fed and scratched by brambles, were carried back to camp and given treatment for exposure.

Read This Answer To WHAT'S BEST WAY TO LOSE FAT

It's the slender, vivacious woman—no matter her age—who gets the best things out of life—admiration, stylish clothes that'll fit—EVEN BETTER HEALTH.

But modern women are fed up with freak diets, hopeless exercises and harmful drugs. They are at last very intelligently going in for gradual, safe reduction—a method like the following that not only helps regain normal weight but improves health and physical attractiveness—

Just take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water first thing every morning. Cut down on fat meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets—wonderful to help kidneys, liver, bowels and gall bladder function properly. Just watch fat vanish! Jar lasts weeks and costs but few cents.

Mrs. J. Miller of Portsmouth, N. H., writes: "I lost 11 1/2 lbs. in a month. Wore size 46 dress, now wear size 40."

HARVESTER-SANDIE CAGE CLASSIC TO BEGIN AT 7:30 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

SANDIES FEEL CONFIDENT OF WINNING TILT

AMARILLOANS TO TRY DESPERATELY FOR VICTORY

Desperate for just one cool drop of victory on their parching tongues, the defeat-tormented Sandies will take the floor against the Harvesters at 7:30 o'clock at the local gym tonight.

The Sandies have not won over two games this year, and they have been knocked around, hither and yon, until they are ready to commit mayhem or something in order to win a game. Now they figure the Harvesters should, would and ought to be ideal victims for their victory-hungry appetites.

The last three or four games the Sandies have played they lost by only a few points. They are the hard-luck team of the Panhandle in that they lose by only one or two points. They have improved miraculously in the last few weeks, and breathe there a Harvester fan who thinks that the Pampa cagers will have a walkway tonight, he's as wrong as a blind chauffeur.

The Harvesters' physical condition had not improved any today. Their aches and pains are the kind that do not improve. They sprained ankles, swollen knees, nailless big toes, swollen tonsils cannot get well in a day. The only news from the tape and bandage department was that Cox' ankles were worse and that Heiskel came back to school after spending a day in bed.

Coach Odus Mitchell may have to send his second string early in the game, and again the first may get to play the whole game as they did the other night.

The Sandies haven't beaten the Pampans in basketball in three years now. The last time they met was at Amarillo several weeks ago when the Harvesters won by about six points.

39 UNIFORMS ARE ISSUED TO PANTHER CLUB

PANHANDLE, Feb. 12.—Coach Pat Gerald issued 39 uniforms to prospective Panther football players yesterday and spring practice got under way.

The Panthers were 1936 regional class B champions. Coach Gerald will have four of his championship eleven back—N. Sparks, Crawford and Smith, backs, and Barrett, giant tackle who has added weight since the season ended. The youngest now weighs 240 pounds.

Coach Gerald and his assistant, Lefty Fowler, will work with the "greenies" for a few weeks before calling out their 11 lettermen.

PERRY, VINES TO PLAY 3 MATCHES IN DALLAS

DALLAS, Feb. 12 (AP)—The touring tennis professionals headed by Ellsworth Vines and Fred Perry will play three matches here tonight.

Vines and Perry meet in the headline singles attraction. Vines has won nine matches and Perry eight since their pro rivalry began. George M. Lott, Jr., and Bruce Barnes play in another singles match, then team up to meet Vines and Perry in doubles.

SKATING MEET OPENS CHICAGO, Feb. 12 (AP)—The National figure skating championships opened at the Chicago arena today, with Robin Lee, 17-year-old national men's titleholder, and Mirabel Vinson of Boston, women's champion, defending their crowns against formidable opposition.

YELLOW JACKETS WIN SHERMAN, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Howard Payne Yellow Jackets used a fast-breaking offense last night to defeat the Austin college Kangaroos 44 to 33 and sweep their Texas conference cage series. Wedeman of the Jackets was high scorer with 15 points.

Basketball Over The Panhandle

BORGER, February 12.—Retaining their goal massaging finesse, the Borger Bulldogs sloughed the Spearman quintet into the short end of a 29 to 20 court contest here Tuesday night. The girls' teams of the Borger school fared unsuccessfully by a 16 to 24 shortage against the Spearman girls in the opening tilt of the evening.

Pacing into a lead in the middle of the second quarter, the Bulldogs added to their precedence for the meeting against the Phillips five at Whittemburg Friday night by playing the game with sufficient nicety to retain control of matters throughout. Bob Kendrick, reserve forward, entered the game late and did more than his assignment, ringing 3 field goals and a free toss to lead the Borger scoring.

GEHRIG IS TOLD WHY HE CAN NOT GET $50,000 THIS YEAR

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Draw up a chair, and get an earful of the howls. The holdout season gets under way officially today.

Signaling the open season on salary squawks, Dizzy Dean, contract should reach his home in Bradenton, Fla., and the expected resultant roar should be heard at all way points to St. Louis.

In the east, the boys jumped the gun by a day when Lou Gehrig, number one world champion Yankee bawler, and owner Col. Jake Ruppert, exchanged pleasantries on why the Iron Horse couldn't get $50,000 this year.

An Associated Press survey disclosed the only clubs not bothered by unsigned contract troubles at the moment are the Boston Bees and Philadelphia Phillies—and the only reason they haven't touched is that their contracts haven't been in the mails long enough.

Otherwise, the list is as long as a three-bagger, comprising some 50 veterans and youngsters, including Joe DiMaggio, Lefty Gomez, Frank Demaree, Augie Galan, Jimmy Fox, Lefty Grove, Wes Ferrell, National League batting champion Paul Waner, Zeke Bonura, American League batting champion Luke Appling, Rip Radcliff, Van Mungo and Wally Moses.

MORE CLASSES FOR QUARTERBACKS. COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP)—Prospective quarterbacks on the University of Missouri's 1937 eleven are taking a required course this spring.

Coach Don Faurot has inaugurated a school for quarterbacks. Faurot, who is challenging Frankie Frisch for the honor of America's No. 1 year-round warrior, conducts classes for future field generals once a week.

The objective is to find one student who will make "A" plus. Faurot needs a man to replace retiring Signal-Callers Jack Frye and Al Londe.

Answering Tex DeWeese. Personally I don't particularly appreciate the slanderous remarks made toward the men of Pampa. Just because you had difficulties in cooking and was frightened a time or two while your wife was water-bound in Ohio is no reason that the rest of the men in Pampa are so helpless. I really don't know the starboard from the port side of a horse and haven't had a great deal of experience in cooking, but if I can't take a team of horses, a wagon, and provisions as you specify and rough it for four days, I'll sell papers on the street until I turn over $2.00 to you that I have made selling them. . . . providing you ride a horse at the head of a parade when I return at the end of four days.

Set up your rules—pick your representative to check on my activities and I'll start bright and early Tuesday morning.

In order to get excused from my duties at the Rex Theatre and as a method of financing the venture, it will be necessary for me to advertise "The Plainsman" while enroute on my four day journey. This is the only condition I ask in the deal. Kenneth Blackledge

500 REGISTER AT HARDWARE STORE SMOKER

ALL KINDS OF FISHING TACKLE VIEWED BY VISITORS

Who says there isn't fishing interest in the Panhandle? Yesterday, the occasion of the Pampa Hardware & Implement Company's sixth annual fishermen's smoker, more than 500 persons registered to see displays at the store and it is estimated that nearly the same number failed to register.

Every kind of fishing tackle on the market was on display by five well known companies. Rubber footwear, camping equipment, etc., were also represented in the display.

Representatives of nearly every town and city in this section of the Panhandle viewed the equipment according to the registration book. Company officials last night gave an informal dinner for visiting representatives and a few local citizens in the Eagle buffet. Guest of honor was Gene Howe of Amarillo, recently appointed a member of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. Mr. Howe said his visit was strictly informal and that he had nothing to say. Charlie Smith of Canadian, game warden for this section, was another special guest.

Others present included T. J. Templeton, Jerry Ratcliff, G. M. Mikesell and Arnold Attebury, all of Amarillo; E. H. Reedy and W. G. Richardson, both of Dallas; Dick Rankin of St. Louis, Mo.; and Judge W. R. Ewing, Judge Ivy E. Duncan, Mayor W. A. Bratton, V. L. Boyles, Harry E. Hoare, Travis Lively, Raeburn Thompson and Rufe Thompson, all of Pampa.

LOUIS MAKES CRACKS ABOUT BROWN FIGHT

CHICAGO, Feb. 12 (AP)—Joe Louis, who, until he met Max Schmeling, used to name the round in which he would put opponents to sleep, is making life miserable for sparring partners these days, but saying no word about his prospective tilt now here next June with Champion James J. Braddock.

The Brown Bomber is working out daily for his 10-round match next Wednesday night at Kansas City with Natto Brown of Washington, and Louis' sparring partners are leading Joe a merry chase—a la Bob Pastor—before getting flattened.

"No, I'm not saying anything about Braddock," Joe grunted as he worked on the heavy bag. "but I'm kind of burned up about cracks I can't knock out Brown. I'm going to prove I can whip him in less than 10 rounds (Brown once stayed 10 with Joe at Detroit) and if I ever get the pasteur in the ring again he'll have to have more than a by-cycle—he'll need a motorcycle to keep out of my way."

Joe's sparring partners are instructed to back peddle. They are making Joe step around and he has been catching and flooring them regularly.

SMU IS EXPECTED TO DEFEAT RICE TONIGHT

DALLAS, Feb. 12 (AP)—Southern Methodist's Mustangs, pace-setters in the Southwest conference basketball race, will be favored to gain their sixth victory in seven starts when they meet the crippled Rice Owls here tonight.

Campus reports at Houston said Capt. Harris Lodge, Spot Owen, Red Steele and Jack Hayes of the Owl squad had fallen by the scholastic wayside and would not make the trip.

The Owls play Texas Christian at Fort Worth tomorrow night.

Lash And Deckard Plan Clean Sweep In Distance Races

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Indiana University's enduring trackmen, headed by Don Lash and Tommy Deckard, are planning a clean sweep on distance honors at the National A. A. U. championships in seven starts when they meet the crippled Rice Owls here tonight.

Coach E. C. (Billy) Hayes in a letter to A. A. U. officials today warned the Hoosiers are after everything from the 1,000-meter run up, and even may try to take some of the shorter distance laurels such as the 60-meter dash and 600-meter run. Lash will concentrate on the 1,500-meter crown.

In his place over the longer route will be Deckard. He will go after the 3,000-meter steepclimb title.

Sports Roundup

BY SCOTTY RESTON.

(Pitch-hitting for Eddie Brietz.) NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Colonel Jake Ruppert foresees an attempt by Lou Gehrig to get into the Babe Ruth salary class, and he'll stop it now, even if he has to trade Gehrig. . . . One look at the colonel while he's discussing the Yankee holdouts and you're convinced. . . . Before Gehrig gets $50,000, Ruppert himself will play first base. . . . Major Ralph Base calls from Memphis requesting we spike rumors he'll quit the army. . . . Okay, major, they're spiked. . . . "Ginboat" Smith (remember how he socked Dempsey in 'Frisco?) is guardian of the gallery at Madison Square Garden. . . . Which is to say he's the bouncer. . . . During the day he's a Wall Street runner. . . . Eddie Brietz gets out of the hospital tomorrow, but it'll take him another week to learn to walk again.

Max Schmeling will be a free agent after the Braddock bout. . . . He'll let the boys dicker for his services if he wins. . . . So far the dicker's not heavy, because of that Braddock-Louis thing and because the rumor persists he'll never defend the title even if he fights wins.

The bell-boy said Alice Marble was at the Roosevelt. . . . So we rushed to the phone. . . . Would Miss Marble see the press? . . . Miss Marble would. . . . So up the boys rushed and rapped at the appointed door. . . . A handsome, little grey-haired woman opened it. . . . "We've come to see Alice Marble," said a reporter. . . . "Well, come in," said the lady, "I'm Miss Marble."

It took an embarrassed minute to explain we wanted the national tennis champion. . . . The A's will train higher above the sea level than any other major league club, and probably will finish farther below it than anybody else.

MARSHALL DEFEATED PARIS, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Paris junior college Dragons led all the way last night as they handed Marshall College its first defeat in seven starts in the north bracket of the district one basketball race. The score was 44 to 25.

ALAN REED AND LEFORS PLAY THIS EVENING

COUNTY CAGE CROWN WILL BE AT STAKE

LEFORS, Feb. 12.—The LeFors Pirates can clinch a county championship and the right to participate in the district tournament in Pampa next week-end with a victory over the Alan Reed Longhorns here tonight. A loss would throw the county race into a three-way tie with McLean the other team.

The two quintets will clash immediately following a game between the Pirate Lassies and the Alan Reed Cowgirls which will be called at 7 o'clock.

LeFors holds one victory over the Longhorns this season and split games with McLean. The record crowd of the season is expected to witness the games tonight.

WHEELER TOURNEY TO BE HELD THIS WEEK. WHEELER, Feb. 12.—Wheeler county's basketball tournament will be held here Friday and Saturday with both boys' and girls' teams participating. Garrison Rush of Shamrock is county chairman.

Wheeler, Mobeetie, Shamrock, Briscoe and Kelton will enter teams. The boys' games will be played by straight elimination, but the girls' will be played by the round robin process. Francis Smith of LeFors will officiate.

The Wheeler boys were county champions last year. SCORES 53 POINTS. CORPORA, Feb. 12 (AP)—What is believed to be a record for points scored by one player in a basketball game here, was made last night when Josephine Watkins of Barry high school chalked up 53 points as her team defeated Currie high school, 55-23. She accounted for 25 field goals and three free shots. The game was one of the final in a Y. M. C. A., sponsored county girls' league.

HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS MEET TO BE HELD IN PAMPA DURING MARCH

Invitations to high school tennis teams to complete in an invitation meet here next month will be mailed by E. G. Gordon, in charge of tennis.

March 6 has been set for the date when boys' teams will compete. The girls' tournament will be staged on March 13. Play will be on the courts at Central park.

Mr. Gordon is working out a limited number of local prospects.

Bolivia is the only country in South America without a seaport.

4 BASKETBALL GAMES PLAYED IN WHEELER

WHEELER, Feb. 12.—Four basketball games were played in the local gymnasium Tuesday night with three victories going to Wheeler teams and one to the Lela entry.

Wheeler grammar school girls opened play with a 16 to 8 victory over the Lela sextet. The Wheeler grammar school boys then swamped Lela's entry, 23 to 3. Lela's junior girls team won over Wheeler 22 to 8 but the Wheeler senior boys "g" team swamped Lela 51 to 10.

Two weeks ago the Wheeler grammar boys team took the only victory in a series with Lela. The team is undefeated this year.

AMELIA EARHART TO BE OWN GUINEA PIG SOON

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Amelia Earhart will assume the role of "guinea pig" next month in a globe girdling air trip in which she hopes to "find out more about reactions of human beings to flight."

The only woman to fly solo over both the Atlantic and Pacific announced her plans to start in March on a 27,000-mile westward flight around the world.

"I am going to be the guinea pig this time," she laughed. "I want to know what food is best for long flights to find out what happens to us humans after hours and hours of flying and why."

Her plane, she said, will carry a maximum of 1,150 gallons of fuel,

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12 (AP)—New crop positions received most demand during the morning, but even this was held to small proportions as business fell off to low levels. Near months were inactive.

Postings on the weather map disclosed that dry weather with normal temperatures was expected over most of the belt. Colder weather in Oklahoma was an exception.

Dull trading was reported from foreign markets. Liverpool said dealings there were quiet. Egyptian futures lost one to nine points, while Indian spots were unchanged.

Speculation over the new agricultural policy of the administration occupied much attention in the trade. Uncertainties in this respect discouraged important speculative activity.

WOOL MARKET BOSTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "The wool market is distinctly quiet. This is true both in the east and the west. Heavy arrivals of foreign wool are affecting the price at which business can be done in domestic wools, which have been at a premium for several months."

"Business in piecegoods is reported at low ebb and the topmakers and spinners are forced to accept lower prices in order to get business to keep their machinery running, especially with the stopping of specifications on yarn and tops."

"The foreign markets are mostly irregular and easier, again is the chief support of the Australian market at the moment, where prices are fairly steady."

"Mohair is in light supply and in sufficient demand to hold steady."

PINKERTON ORDERED TO PRODUCE RECORDS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—Chairman La Follette (Prog., Wis.) of the Senate civil liberties committee today ordered Pinkerton detective agency officials to "produce immediately" a set of confidential reports kept under guard in a Washington hotel room.

Robert Pinkerton, president, at once sent Ralph Dudley, Pinkerton vice president, to obtain the documents.

La Follette, after being told by several Pinkerton officials that they did not know where the records were, finally learned from Robert D. Blazier, a New York office employee, that they were locked in a Washington (Carlton) hotel room.

Earlier in the hearing Robert H. Peterson, a Pinkerton official in Detroit, disclosed he had removed confidential papers from the agency's files a few minutes after learning they had been subpoenaed by the committee.

He told the committee a Senate agent served the subpoena on the Detroit headquarters August 12, 1936, and that a clerk at once passed "a few papers" through "a little cubby-hole" in a door connecting two rooms in the office.

LEGISLATIVE MEMBERS WILL VISIT LUBBOCK

AUSTIN, Feb. 12 (AP)—The legislature enjoyed a brief breathing spell today at the end of the fifth week of the four-month regular session. Many members journeyed to Lubbock to inspect Texas Technological College. Traveling in three special buses, they hoped to reach Sweetwater in time for dinner at 6 p. m. and Lubbock at 9 p. m.

House and Senate committees which this week buckled down to a long schedule of hearings passed along to floor consideration several important measures.

The Senate state affairs committee approved a bill by Sen. Weaver Moore of Houston to legalize sale of liquor by the drink under local option.

It also sped nine other bills toward floor debate, including one by Sen. Ben O'Neal of Wichita Falls authorizing temporary commitment of the mentally ill without trial by jury. It was approved by the House judiciary committee.

The criminal jurisprudence group of the same branch referred to a sub-committee for further study an enabling act to another amendment providing adult probation.

The House state affairs committee, after a lengthy hearing, postponed action on a proposal to regulate and tax dog racing. It preferred to await outcome of a measure proposing repeal of the law legalizing pari-mutuel wagering on horse races.

The same group postponed until Feb. 24 consideration of Rep. G. C. Morris' bill to abolish the department of Agriculture and transfer its functions to Texas A. & M. College.

GUARDSMEN EVACUATION OF FLINT IS AWAITED

FLINT, Mich., Feb. 12 (AP)—The "capital" of the recent General Motors strike awaited today a second evacuation—that of 3,300 national guardsmen—to hasten a return to normal after six wearying weeks.

Departure of hundreds of "stay-in" strikers from three plants—late yesterday, six hours after an agreement ending the strike was signed in Detroit, brought this city to full realization that the stage of worry, idleness, restraint and privation was ending.

Reliable sources said it was possible some of the troops would be sent home today but that demobilization would be gradual.

"Sit-downers" in Fisher Plant No. 1—where the first strike in Flint began Dec. 30—were the first to march out after a unanimous vote on the agreement. Their withdrawal started a parade, accompanied by the din of auto horns, which moved on to Chevrolet plant No. 4, seized by strikers Feb. 1, and to Fisher plant No. 2, across the street, occupied on Dec. 30 along with No. 1.

JACK GIBBONS RETURNS TO RING.

ST. PAUL (AP)—Young Jack Gibbons is going to the fight wars again. The son of old "Phantom Mike" Gibbons won all but three decision bouts in approximately 70 fights.

After winning his last battle, Jack collapsed as he was leaving the ring last spring. His father-manager, Mike, thought the youngster's career was ended.

But Jack, a light-heavy, started an easy training program. After a checkup old Mike said he was ready to go again.

Inventors in American colonial days never knew whether they would receive patent rights for their discoveries or be burned for witchcraft.

Passing on Hill Dangerous

A large number of accidents, a great many of which result in death, occur each year because some impatient motorist tries to pass the car in front of him on a hill. Safety authorities are unanimous in condemning this practice as one of the most dangerous of all traffic sins. Stay in line and be safe. It may take a few seconds more but it will be well worth the delay.

CAPITOL JIGSAW

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL

AUSTIN, Feb. 12 (AP)—Former Speaker Coke Stevenson of Junction was sitting at the press table in the hall of the house of representatives glancing through old age pension records.

"I can't find any of my kinfolk on the rolls," he complained. "That looks like rank discrimination."

Stevenson, only man since reconstruction days to serve twice as speaker, is glad to have again the simple status of representative without the responsibilities of a presiding officer.

"I am enjoying this session," he said.

Sometimes the House of Representatives tires of prolonged debate, and then there may be shouts of "Vote! Vote!" as someone attempts to make a speech.

Rep. Alfred E. Petch of Fredericksburg recently heard such shouts when he sought to talk on distracting old age pensioners.

"Keep right on hollering," he told the representatives. "I have no quarrel with the man who sits in his seat and hollers 'Vote!' I've done it a few times myself."

After the tumult subsided he made his speech.

If a bill by Rep. Lon E. Alsop of Carthage passes the House will not have to worry about committee rooms, as it has this year and several years gone.

The bill would provide a new office building at a cost not to exceed $1,000,000. Little opposition has been heard because the need for additional space is recognized generally, but whether the legislature will appropriate the money remains to be seen.

Committees had to scratch energetically to find rooms in which to conduct hearings on legislation. The state auditor was forced to give up part of his quarters and the railroad commission hearing room also was utilized.

The state is paying several thousand dollars annually in office rent simply because its government has outgrown the original plant.

The end of the first three weeks of the general session found little achieved in the way of legislation enacted, but persons familiar with legislative machinery were not alarmed. Knowing they had plenty of time in a four-month session, the legislators organized very deliberately, held short floor meetings, heard what the governor had to recommend and started public hearings before committees. In special sessions they work more rapidly.

One view is that the state would be as well off if the business was restricted mainly to passing appropriations and other strictly essential bills.

Authors of legislation intended to reduce the number of motor traffic fatalities may find supporting statistics at the department of public safety.

The department reported recently 194 children under 15 years of age died in motor vehicle accidents in Texas last year while 16,169 were injured, many so seriously they will be crippled for life.

Proposed "safety" legislation includes bills to increase the penalties for drunken driving, require examinations for drivers, and shorten hours for operators of commercial vehicles.

The first three weeks of the general legislative session found the House of Representatives unusually subdued. Then someone discovered the reason.

The microphone in the center of the hall, cut off and hidden in the midst of uproarious debate at a special session last fall, had not been restored. Rep. Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill said he would offer a resolution to have the microphone, connected with the loudspeaker system, set up again.

Rep. J. E. Winfree, Sr., of Houston was arguing in connection with a bill he had introduced. He turned to face Rep. Clarence Farmer of Fort Worth.

"Now, Mr. Carpenter!" he began, shaking a finger.

Farmer popped to his feet. "Don't call me Carpenter!" he shouted.

There was a big laugh.

Farmer had a resolution at the speaker's desk asking Carpenter to resign because he advocated taking the ballot from old age pensioners.

Gov. James V. Allred shied away from a question as to his views on not allowing old age assistance recipients to vote. He was queried the morning after Orville S. Carpenter, state pensions director, made the startling declaration to a House committee.

"What do you think of the idea?" someone asked.

"That's your question, not mine," laughed the governor.

Carpenter's position is that the number of pensioners is so great they can wield tremendous political influence and might be guided by their interest in pensions.

Gov. Allred disclosed after a visit to Amarillo why he appointed Gene Hines, publisher of that city, a member of the game, fish and oyster commission.

The governor attended a banquet in Amarillo at the height of a controversy over policies of the commission.

"How was toastmaster," Allred said, "and in his remarks said if I would appoint him I wouldn't have all the trouble I was having."

"On the way back to Austin I thought it over and decided to do that very thing."

The senate did not have a quorum, only 11 of the 31 members being present. Everyone was standing around waiting for the arrival of tardy ones.

"I'll tell you what let's do," shouted Senator Gordon Burns of Huntsville. "Let's have a sit-down strike. Sit down and do nothing until the rest get here."

ICKES FIRST WITNESS IN HOT OIL HEARINGS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—A Senate finance subcommittee called Secretary Ickes today as the first witness in hearings on a resolution to make permanent the Connally "Hot Oil" act which expires in June.

Ickes, administrator of the petroleum code under the NRA, planned first to endorse the resolution formally and then discuss the broad question of crude oil proration with the subcommittee members—Chairman Tom Connally of Texas, Senator John G. Townsend (R-De) and Senator Augustine Lonergan (D-Conn). Lonergan replaced Senator Joseph Guffey (D-Pa) on the committee.

The committee planned to adjourn over the week-end, resuming its sessions Monday when it will hear testimony from a number of officials from oil states.

Among those who have agreed to appear are Attorney General William McGrath of Texas, E. O. Thompson, of the Texas Railroad commission, J. W. Steele of the East Texas federal tender board and George A. Hill, Charles F. Roeser, J. D. Collett and W. B. Hamilton, Texas oil men.

The Connally act, enacted more than a year ago, was intended to prohibit interstate shipments of crude oil and its products in excess of state allowances.

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—John Scott, burglary suspect, slipped from the grasp of Probation Officer Henry Crowley, ran down a courthouse corridor, and lunged against one side of a double door leading to the street.

The door was locked. Scott, detected, submitted to recapture. Then Crowley led him back to jail through the other side of the door—the unlocked side.

BOY SCOUT FUND DRIVE

Generous Pampans have indeed given liberally to several finance campaigns in recent months, and it is safe to predict that they will not close their pocket-books until Pampa's quota of $3,500 for operation of the Adobe Walls Boy Scout council in 1938 has been raised.

Solicitation was necessary to raise the fund for aiding Pampa's needy, but the quota was oversubscribed in a few days. It is to the credit of the generous and sympathetic nature of the people of this community that the flood relief fund quota was many times oversubscribed without any solicitation.

The attention of Pampans this week is directed to the Boy Scout program which has been eminently successful this year. Boy Scout week has impressed upon the citizenry that the Scout movement has become entrenched here, and has made great advances.

LeFors is a definite part of the Pampa community; its citizens, the scores of residents in camps near that town, regard Pampa as their trading center. The LeFors community is as much a part of Pampa as the various oil camps located in a radius of a few miles of Pampa.

Pampans should see to it that the Scout program is continued and that the budget is raised—or at least Pampa's part of it. Pampans of course are to be praised for lending a helping hand to the flood victims, but they should and will practice the ancient law of giving, "Charity begins at home."

For giving money to build the character of boys and produce honest, and good citizens is certainly as humane and civilized as giving money to save human lives and rehabilitate property menaced and lost through the flood.

Although not advocating that you throw your ambitions out of the window and settle down to the life of a Mississippi river valley negro, we point out that Dr. Porter Vinson of the Medical College of Virginia faculty, as well as other authorities, believe if you have ambitions which your ability-limits will not permit you to satisfy, you may become ill.

In this swift-moving, "speed-mad" age, our advice is to be ambitious but be ambitious while still keeping in mind that every man's ability is limited. And some men's abilities are limited more than others.

WASHINGTON LETTER

By RODNEY DUTCHER

WASHINGTON—Here are the chief angles of the inside story behind Roosevelt's sudden recommendations for revamping the Supreme Court, the rest of the federal judiciary, and certain phases of judicial procedure insofar as they can be revealed at this time:

1—The presidential message was rushed to Congress at a critical moment in the General Motors strike, and, whether intentional or not, it was so carefully timed as to be an assurance to labor and to the economic royalists "that the New Deal did not intend to permit its guarantees of industrial democracy to be torn to pieces by the Supreme Court."

2—The President himself had gradually evolved this scheme, and finally went the whole hog for it after reports had reached Washington that his Wall Street opposition was raising a war chest to use in state legislatures against ratification of any constitutional amendment which would curb any powers now asserted by the court. The alternative which he finally decided to drop was a constitutional amendment proposal which would have given Congress a final veto over the Supreme Court on questions of constitutionality.

3—Justice Harlan Fiske Stone, barring extremely unlikely accident, will be the next chief justice—probably before the end of the year.

4—According to secret calculations high in the New Deal, Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, Justice Willis Van Devanter and Justice Louis D. Brandeis will promptly resign if Congress votes to permit Roosevelt to appoint an extra federal judge for every sitting federal judge over 70 years old. It is believed that Justices Sutherland and Butler would soon feel compelled to follow them.

New Dealers think Justice McReynolds, bitterest and most implacable foe of progressive legislation, would stick to the bitter end.

Thus, the only liberal resignation would be that of Justice Brandeis, the oldest member, at 80 years. The five conservative justices eligible for retirement have refused to quit.

5—Administration leaders feel tremendously reinforced from a strategic standpoint by the fact that McReynolds himself, as attorney general, urged appointment of an additional federal judge to serve with each one who refused to retire at 70, that the late Chief Justice Taft urged automatic retirement at 70, and that Hughes has written in favor of retirement at 75—an age he will reach in April.

6—Chief danger to the administration proposal will be found in the Senate, where many Supreme Court ambitions bloom. The prospect of six possible jobs from which the occupant, after a few years' service could retire for life on $20,000 a year is of course certainly attractive.

Some liberals gravely doubt that Roosevelt's program is the right plan, and the opposition has yet to form its lines. This dispatch attempts only to explain how it happened, and not to criticize or forecast. Discounting a certain amount of Roosevelt optimism, however, the program seems very likely to become the law of the land.

TEX'S TOPICS

After four telephone calls, several letters and one out-and-out threat about the statement made here a day or so ago that men of the Panhandle are no longer the rough-and-ready pioneer, type of the early days, we have come to the conclusion that, perhaps, it was a mistaken idea.

Fact of the matter is—we issued a challenge that has been accepted by Kenneth Blackledge, popular young man-about-town, who says he can disprove what we said. He insists men still are men and that he can go out and rough it in the open without the aid of modern gadgets, do his own cooking and get along without buying food, services or lodging.

The indignant Mr. Blackledge will have for his mode of transportation a covered wagon, drawn by a team of horses. . . . He will take along a gun to shoot part of his food, will leave Pampa with supplies and will not be permitted to make a purchase of any kind while out on the trip. That is part of the bargain.

Perhaps, we led with our chin. . . . Mr. Blackledge being a theatrical man, we have a slight hunch he has accepted the challenge in order to gain some publicity. . . . But, we are warning him here and now that if he doesn't live up to the rules he'll have plenty to account for. . . . We will just naturally "pour it on" the man if he is caught cheating in the slightest degree.

If it's publicity he is after he had better be man enough to pay for it by doing just what is expected of him while out on this back-to-pioneer adventure. . . . We have talked with Mr. Blackledge about the matter. . . . It has been arranged to have him leave Pampa next Tuesday morning. . . . He is to remain out on the plains for four days.

He's trying to stick us for the cost of the supplies and the rental of the horses and covered wagon. . . . However, that is just one of the many details yet to be worked out. . . . We are a bit behind the eight-ball in this matter, inasmuch as when the idea first popped into our head, there was no suspicion that the challenge would be accepted. . . . It just goes to show you what one can get into by popping off.

Be that as it may, we will find a way to carry the thing through from our end of it, and boy-oh-boy, we are going to see to it that Mr. Blackledge lives up to his part of the bargain, or else. . . . Yes, indeed, the life of a newspaper columnist becomes a bit involved at times.

To the man who phoned us yesterday to say that we were taking in too much territory when we said all men are sissies, we wish to say that we did not expect ourselves in that statement. . . . Fact of the business is, we know doggone well we, personally, wouldn't accept a challenge like that. . . . Along this line, we might add, too, that Mr. Blackledge must have nice in his belfry, or else he is a downright smart publicity man.

Well, this won't be the first time we have been taken in. . . . So there's no history being made in that respect. . . . Taking it all in all, it is going to be fun to follow the adventures of Mr. Blackledge from day to day when he gets out into the stark reality of what probably appears to him now as a nifty little lark. . . . We shall see.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Here are a few do's and don'ts in case you plan to visit New York in the near future. (Note: This is really supposed to be a letter to a pilgrim in Montana, who has requested this information, but I am sure he is willing to share it with you.)

If you have any particular shows in mind, wire for reservations now. . . . Some of them are selling seats three months in advance. . . . The expensive night clubs are not always the ones with cover charge. . . . Those with "minimum" tariffs can present you with some startling sums. . . . Two, most night club waiters are careless with their arithmetic, and so you are advised to consult the menus carefully before you order, and to check your bill just as carefully afterward.

Those who enjoy seeing celebrities in their native haunts might take a change on dropping into the lobby of the Warwick. . . . Dean Cornwall is doing the waltz there and you never can tell when he will blow in.

Don't accept a taxi driver's advice on which clubs to visit. . . . The manager of your hotel can supply you with the best advice on such matters. . . . Rockefeller Center is a thrilling sight to include on your tour. . . . Be careful how you cross the street at that particular corner. . . . With the tremendous attraction the sector carries, it has become one of the worst traffic problems in the city.

Dining in famous restaurants or hanging around stage doors is the best way to encounter celebrities. . . . They usually leave the theater half an hour after the curtain goes down. . . . Harlan no longer carries much appeal—indeed, most of its "lights" have departed for Broadway. . . . If you must go, however, observe extreme care. . . . Patronize no club or restaurant which isn't advertised in the newspapers.

Chinatown, too, despite its aura of oriental mystery, is no longer important. There exist several streets and a dead-end of shops operated by Chinese, but the place is only a suggestion of its former self. . . . By all means see Manhattan at night from Brooklyn Bridge. . . . And, if you have time, take a nickel ride on any of the Hudson river ferry boats at dusk, and see New York through the haze of mist and blue water.

A stroll up Fifth or Park avenue about noon is interesting, and the hotel lobbies in late afternoon are always fascinating—you never know whom you will run into. . . . If a show orders you to "bet along," it shows more care in crossing street corners, he means it. . . . But he is the most generous of fellows with information, and he will go out of his way to help any stranger in distress.

TEMPERAMENTAL BARBER CHICAGO (AP)—When Leonard McCue asked for a mirror in which to view his newly trimmed pate, the barber became affronted. But when McCue said, "No mirror, no pay," the barber, Harry Lidus, chased him out of the shop to the clicking of an unloaded revolver. Police held the barber for questioning, inspected McCue's hair cut, and told him he wouldn't have to pay.

ALL FOR ONE CLAYTON, N. M. (AP)—Party lines just don't seem to mean a thing here. Faris Roberts was re-elected vice-president of the school board by a vote of 231 to 0. P. H. Moxom was re-elected mayor by a vote of 758 to 0. Roberts is a Democrat, Moxom a Republican.

People You Know

By ARCHER FULLINGIM

Little Margaret Price who is 6 years old and in the first grade was the envy and delight of all eyes at Sam Houston school the other day when she took her pet lamb to school with her. . . . During the Christmas holidays when Mary, one of the older sisters, came home from Lubbock, they went out to the ranch of their father, Willis Price, and there saw the little doggie lamb. It had had the misfortune to be a twin and its mother cherished one, but turned a cold shoulder to the other. So it was left out in the cold.

Mary and the other girls took her to school with her. . . . Price said, and brought the lamb into town. . . . Margaret took it to school with her. But first, she had to beg a couple of days, and then she had to ask the teacher. So one morning she put a string around the lamb's neck and took along a nursing bottle full of milk, and one of those with whom Margaret and her little lamb made a great hit was Prin. A. L. Patrick, who had not enjoyed anything so much in a long time as watching Margaret feed the lamb from the bottle and watch the woolly creature wiggle its tail.

So all this goes to show that the old rhyme about Mary and her little lamb would not be against the rule in our modern schools.

Talks to parents

BACK TO DISCIPLINE

By Broderick Peters Church

The other day a group of young women recently graduated from college were comparing notes on what they were doing or about to do. One of them remarked that she was preparing to teach. A chorus of voices shouted, "But not by any of these self-expression, 'go-as-you-please' methods. I hope!"

Most of the girls had come from well-to-do homes and were the products of "the latest thing in education." One and all they were in favor of the disciplinary methods of former days. Their children were to be taught, not permitted to choose and follow the line of least resistance.

The world has always gone in waves. For every flow in one direction there is a corresponding back flow. Children generally take to the ways of their grandparents, not their parents.

Certainly many of the products of the school of "freedom" plan a very different training for their progeny. They are surfeited with freedom. For as they have begun to reap the fruits of their upbringing they have found the fallacy of the freedom theory.

There is no freedom without self-discipline, and self-discipline must be learned when young. Where discipline is lacking, what is one man's freedom involves another man's slavery, and the slave seeking his freedom in turn takes away his master's.

The only way a child can learn this is by experience in home and school. If he is permitted at home to do as he likes with no regard for the rights of others, he is being unfitted for a world where real freedom depends on considering the other fellow. If he studies only what and when he likes, he will be unable to take his place in a world where one usually does what one is permitted, not what one chooses, to earn a living.

SCALP HYGIENE

Good scalp hygiene is indicated for cosmetic reasons and because it may help retard the development of baldness. The principal elements of good scalp hygiene are washing, combing and brushing.

In addition, however, some attention must be paid to the fitting of head gear. For it is believed, though not proved, that a tight-fitting hat may contribute to the loss of hair, presumably by constriction of the superficial blood vessels.

No specific rule can be offered on how often the hair should be washed. Those with an oily skin should wash the scalp more frequently. Those living or working in a dusty atmosphere will need to wash their scalp more frequently than persons otherwise situated.

Neutral soap, one free of excess alkalis, should be used. Whether it is liquid, flaky, or in cake form is of little significance. A good hair shampoo may be made of tincture of green soap, to which is added 2 per cent of resorcin.

After producing a good lather, it is most desirable that all of the soap should be washed from the hair. Hence one should use plenty of warm water. A warm towel should be employed to dry the hair and it is preferable to "pat the moisture out of the hair rather than to rub it out."

Brushing is generally advised as a desirable measure to keep the hair in good shape and to stimulate the scalp. Combs and brushes should be kept clean and should be disinfected as strictly personal articles, not to be used by anyone else. It is desirable to pay attention to the combs and brushes used in barber shops. These should be washed and cleaned after each use and before they are employed again.

Message of scalp is believed to be beneficial to hair growth in that it stimulates blood circulation in the scalp. Massage may be part of the hair brushing exercise or it may be more deliberately applied to the scalp with the fingers tips, palm of the hand or mechanical vibrator. Sometimes it may be noticed that during massaging a large number of hairs come away from the scalp. This loss, however, is usually temporary.

Hair tonics, or more correctly scalp lotions, should not be used indiscriminately. Certain of these contain irritating ingredients that may do more harm than good. It is well to have one's scalp lotion or ointment prescribed by a dermatologist.

LOVE IS WONDERFUL

NEW YORK—Then there is the sixth man. He asked to be delivered to the home of his lady love on Park avenue in a wheelchair on St. Valentine's day. The idea was that a telegraph company messenger boy would push the wheelchair and announce the sixth man was a woman. Company officials refused when they found the suitor weighed 250 pounds. The other five will be delivered by messenger boys at the usual district rate of 50 cents an hour.

GREASE REMOVER

KELSO, Wash. (AP)—The populace of Scantycress has gone dignified. Citizens are tired of being "Scantycressers" and furthermore, they believe the name of their community do no longer is accurately descriptive. So they have petitioned county commissioners to rename the town "Telameter." The region won its name half a century ago because fat was so scarce housewives used turpins to grease their frying pans.

This, That and Everything

By JESS KELLEY

Did you read in the papers about that unusual duel those fellows had in which six shots were fired by each man and neither was hurt? The men chose 22-caliber revolvers. It was decided that both contenders were to fire as nearly at the same time as possible in the hope that the killing might be both mutual and simultaneous. At the first two shots, neither man received a wound. They fired the second time, the third, and on until all six shots had been fired; still neither of the contenders had received a scratch. Suspecting that something strange had happened, they began work on the theory that they had timed their firing so accurately that their bullets met between them. That was exactly what had taken place. The bullets had met so accurately head-on that they welded into one solid piece of lead and dropped straight to the ground. Just half way between where the men stood when shooting, they found six flattened pieces of lead stacked upon each other like so many pancakes.

You say you did not read that in the newspaper? Well, I didn't either, but I could not keep from thinking what an interesting news item it would make if it were truly true.

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By ROBBIN COONS

Peggy Wood is always being mistaken for Frieda Inescort and vice versa. It may be because both once played in "Trelawney of the Wells" and one followed the other as Portia with George Arliss.

That was how Miss Wood (being gracious) explained it on the set after, knowing both, I'd talked to her five minutes under the impression she was Frieda Inescort. Adventures like this are disconcerting, and possibly dangerous. What, for instance, if the actress you think is somebody else happens NOT to be the actress you think she is?

Roger Pryor's birthday present to his bride, Ann Sothern, was a book of round-trip tickets—Hollywood to Chicago—so she can visit him.

Stars—And Babies

Ray Jones, one of the best of studio still photographers, attributes his success in snapping stars to eight years of training as a photographer of babies back in Superior, Wis. "The technique is the same," he said. "You've got to catch a baby at the exact moment or you've lost your picture."

What I'd thought he was going to say was you can't reason with a baby, either.

Preston Foster has a photograph of "guest book" for visitors at his home. Instead of signing, the guest records a greeting—and anything else he wants, with no censorship fears.

Shirley Temple Rival

Patsy Lee Parsons, five and a half, is here from Parkersburg, W. Va., ready to hurl her threat at Shirley Temple's crown. Patsy Lee, very cute, is set for "New Faces of 1937," which should be warning enough for People Who Hate Child Actors.

On the Warner lot is a picture called "Public Wedding." They could film a sequel to that and call it "Public Honeymoon," confining the story merely to what was made of Dick Powell and Joan Blondell's. But they won't be sure of that.

"Maid of Salem," the Colbert-Murray witchcraft movie, is a well-done piece but many of us thought the ending lacked zest. What it lacked, we decided, was an "old-fashioned D. W. Griffith finish" with the hero riding to rescue in the nick of time.

Well, Frank Lloyd says they made that finish, and were afraid of it—afraid audiences would laugh.

INDIANAPOLIS PRIZE FOR GAS ECONOMY

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Race drivers will have plenty of time to be ner—and worry about—rules governing the fuel supply for the annual Indianapolis speedway classic, May 31. The speedway has announced that any gasoline available at a public pump may be used provided it has been on the market at least a year prior to May 1, 1937.

Each entrant may select his own fuel, but he must report the brand to the race technical committee eight days before the first qualifying trials and use the same brand in qualifying that he does in the 500-mile race.

A $2,500 prize is offered the driver who finishes the race with the least fuel.

A New Testament

England developed the idea of an edition of the New Testament with the sayings of the Saviour in red. This unusual volume had great vogue in both the old country and the United States, but not many of the present generation of religious-minded people in this country have ever seen one of the special volumes.

The Pampa Daily NEWS has a similar edition of the New Testament ready for distribution to those of its subscribers who might be interested.

It contains 254 pages printed on thin Bible paper, and is bound in a flexible black cover. In the back of the book is a special section that gives the names of the trees, waters, mountains, musical instruments and the birds mentioned in the Bible.

It is a decided novelty that will appeal to everyone interested in the Scriptures, and any reader can secure a copy for the mere cost and handling charge of 20 cents.

Advice to a young wife who wants to keep her husband happy — real domestic happiness begins in the kitchen. Or rather it begins in your grocery and meat market. Because even if you are the best cook in the world, you can't achieve tempting meals if you have poor foods to begin with. Don't make the mistake of buying for the sake of "price" only. Assure yourself from the start that you are getting foods of high quality that are fresh, flavorful, and that will keep. In this is embodied the secret of true economy and of successful meals, and the best way to achieve this success is to do all your shopping here. For our groceries and meats are brought up to a standard and not down to a price. Yet they are sold at prices that, day in and day out, are never more than you would pay elsewhere.

Churches Opened By Mexicans in Peaceful Revolt

ORIZABA, Vera Cruz, Mexico, Feb. 12 (AP)—The "peaceful rebellion" of Orizaba's Catholics for freedom of worship spread today throughout the state of Vera Cruz.

Reports reached here that at Cordoba, among other towns and cities of the state, 14,000 persons paraded, broke into long-closed churches and defiantly rang the bells.

Some observers were fearful whether the populace would wait quietly for an official decision, promised after this city's embattled Catholics forcibly reopened its 14 darkened churches Tuesday.

Pilgrims from surrounding villages, including many Indians, poured in steadily to join the fight.

The churches here were closed again unexpectedly yesterday by police who had watched without interfering when the enraged crowds first broke into them.

The aroused Catholics' hopes for release from the anti-church laws—more rigidly enforced in this state than almost anywhere else in Mexico—were buoyed by handbills which indicated President Lazaro Cardenas was considering lifting the ban on religious services by turning over the edifices to "laymen's committees."

SEVEN BOODIES SOUGHT AT SCENE OF CRASH

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12 (AP)—Grappling hooks and drag nets grappled through muddy waters of San Francisco bay today for bodies of seven missing air crash victims while a shattering hail of new transport plane to solve the mystery of the crash.

The terrible nature of the tragedy was intensified as examination of the four recovered bodies indicate the eleven persons aboard were still alive when the United air liner crashed its nose into the muddy bottom of the bay Tuesday night.

R. W. Schroeder, department of commerce airline inspector who flew here from Washington, said he planned to "sit in" on a United States Airlines' investigation into the tragedy.

When that is completed, probably then Schroeder will call a public inquiry, starting possibly tomorrow.

Coroner William Crosby of San Mateo county, off the shores of which the big plane crashed, set an inquest for 2 p. m. next Tuesday.

He would impanel a jury of aviation authorities and "go through" all phases of the crash thoroughly.

THIS 'CURIOUS WORLD' By William Ferguson

DENSE FORESTS ARE NOT SUITABLE FOR BIRD LIFE! CONTRARY TO POPULAR OPINION, EVEN TYPICAL FOREST BIRDS PREFER THE EDGES OF THE FOREST AND CLEARINGS!

ABRAHAM LINCOLN ERRED IN HIS GETTYSBURG ADDRESS!

HE SAID: "THE WORLD WILL LITTLE NOTE NOR LONG REMEMBER WHAT WE SAY HERE."

YET IT WAS BOTH NOTED AND REMEMBERED.

BIRD LIFE is closely associated with forests in the minds of most people, yet, the farther that one penetrates a densely wooded area, the scarcer the birds become—in both numbers and variety.

DETECTIVE OFFICER NEAMES'S SHORTHAND NOTES OF DETECTIVE OFFICER KETTER'S SECOND EXAMINATION OF HONORABLE MRS. REGINALD JOCELYN.

K: Good morning, Mrs. Jocelyn. P. J.: Good morning.

K: Sit down, won't you? There are just a few more things I want to ask you about the night before last.

P. J.: Thanks—but I have already told you all I know.

K: All Mrs. Jocelyn? I wish I could be certain about that.

P. J.: But aren't you don't know anything about Mr. Blane's death at all?

K: Maybe you don't, but I just want you to think very carefully. Forget anything which you may have said to me yesterday. Put it right out of your head and I promise I won't hold it against you.

Another Maritime Strike Threatens

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12 (AP)—The threat of another paralysis of shipping, growing out of marine union opposition to a federal maritime act, hung today over Pacific coast ports, just recovering from a 98-day strike that cost an estimated $68,000,000.

Officials of three unions comprising unlicensed personnel involved in the recent strike informed President Roosevelt and Secretary Roper that marine commerce "will again be paralyzed from the Pacific coast" unless enforcement of the Copeland act is delayed.

Specifically what action the unions would take was not stated in telegrams to the chief executive and Roper. Some union workers have threatened "sit down" strikes if enforcement is begun before maritime leaders present proposed amendments.

The act provides that seamen must carry books showing records of their employment and ability. Sponsors contend it will protect efficient workers and assure them of jobs. The unions declare it furnishes employers information from which they can blacklist men for union activity.

Enforcement of the provision regarding ability has been suspended until Feb. 20 and the union officials asked last night that the date be extended to March 25.

100 WPA Workers Refuse to Budge

NEW YORK, Feb. 12 (AP)—Cheered by feminine exhortations to "stick it out," about 100 WPA workers took possession of a New York City park department garage in central park, and began a sit-down strike early today.

The workers, protesting against a recent order reducing their pay and lengthening their hours, "seized" nine trucks in the garage and cheerfully puffed cigarettes, ignoring requests to leave although warned that all men recognized would be stricken from the WPA rolls.

Acting police Commissioner Harold Fowler strategically ordered the nine trucks driven out of the warm comfort of the garage into the noisily open air in what the strikers charged was an attempt to freeze them out.

Fifty went to a police station and the others "held the fort."

Tobacco Specialist, E. Y. Floyd of North Carolina State college says a hundred square yards of bed, or a bed 10 yards long and 10 yards wide, will produce from 10,000 to 15,000 seedling tobacco plants.

at that time and I asked her what time it was as she came into the cabin.

K: And she told you 7:45? I find that very interesting.

K: Why?

K: You'll find out, friend before this inquiry is over.

DANGER SEEN BY NORRIS IN COURT PLANS

FDR TO PUSH ADOPTION OF REORGANIZATION POLICIES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—Persons close to the administration expressed belief today President Roosevelt would let fundamental labor and farm policies simmer until the court reorganization problem is settled.

Mr. Roosevelt's series of conferences with democratic congressmen, they said, apparently indicated he was pressing for adoption of his judicial proposals as a prelude to any other recommendations during this session of congress.

Some of his supporters gave notice of no compromise with opponents of the most controversial of his suggestions—enlargement of the Supreme Court if justices over 70 do not retire.

Their declaration was made in the face of a statement by Senator Norris (Ind-Neb) whom Mr. Roosevelt supported for re-election last year, that the proposal entailed "danger" because it would permit a President to create a new court overnight.

Administration forces had hoped the veteran Nebraskan would line up in favor of the reorganization program. Instead, he said after talking with the President late yesterday he would support Supreme Court enlargement only as a last resort.

Norris proposed legislation to require that more than a majority vote in the Supreme Court be required to hold laws unconstitutional. Nebraska, he pointed out, requires a 5-2 vote to hold a state act invalid.

Senator McCarran (D-Nev) was drafting a resolution asking all government agencies to report to Congress the court injunctions by which congressional enactments have been restrained in the last four years. He said this would be only a factual report.

Opponents of the President's program were endeavoring to form a united front in both House and Senate. Republicans said the minority party's members were cooperating informally with Democratic dissenters to frame opposition tactics.

The Republican titular leader, Alf M. Landon, will express his views tonight in a Lincoln Day speech in New York.

Among opinions voiced in a radio forum last night of persons for and against the proposals was this: Rep. Maverick (D-Tex): The present court has "knocked out almost everything the mass of the people want and must have if we are to survive as a democracy. * * * We cannot wait for an amendment."

3 Objectives of Relief Are Cited

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (AP)—Fitting the unemployed for jobs in private industry, Administrator Harry L. Hopkins said today, has been one of three principles of the federal work relief program.

"We had to give the jobless the kind of work which would preserve, restore or increase their working ability, and thus make them better competitors for private jobs," he said in making public a 110-page

World's Greatest Pianist Says: "I Hated Piano"

Preferred Pony; Writes Memoirs

EIGHTEEN years ago this month the greatest Polish pianist became the first Prime Minister of Poland. Caught in the swirl of post-war events, Paderewski gave all his fortune to help Poland gain independence, and his sharp intelligence gained world-wide recognition among the powers at Versailles.

Today, Paderewski, 78 years old, has retired. But this month from his mountain retreat in Switzerland the old gentleman speaks again, not of politics, but of his own dramatic and often amusing experiences since his early childhood in war-torn Poland.

The autobiography, as told to Mary Lawton, distinguished actress-writer, and put together by her with infinite charm and sympathy, appears in the Saturday Evening Post, beginning with the January 23rd issue.

The bare facts of Paderewski's life are common knowledge. How at four he saw his native village wiped out and his father carried away to a Russian prison; his persistent struggles to fight against the handicap of an early musical education so limited as to be of no real use to him later; his studies with Leschetizky; his tragic first love affair that left him a widower and a father at the end of one brief year, these are as well known as his sacrifice of art and fortune for the cause of Poland during the later years of the World War, and his election as first Premier of United Poland, January 12, 1919.

In the memoirs these facts are set off by a series of anecdotes both tender and serious, which bring the titan of the music world within delightful understanding of every layman. Paderewski, at seven, preferred his pony to his piano! Stranger still, for many years during his adult life, he actually hated the instrument and brought himself to play only by terrific pressure of will power.

Of chief interest to Americans may well be the large portion of the work that deals with his impressions of the United States and his American friends. His first American tour with practice so strenuous that he has never entirely recovered from the strain on his arms and fourth finger; his strange two weeks at the Chicago Fair, when he slept in rooms at the Fair Grounds where the plaster that was days walked again and they broke out into battle cries and Rebel yells in the midst of the concert, frightening the poor pianist who thought the wooden hall was on fire; his first sight of a skyscraper, in Chicago—not New York—on and on march the anecdotes.

More than once Paderewski points out the sacrifices of time and energy necessary to the making of a pianist.

summary of information on which officials based the program.

The other two objectives of the Works Progress Administration, Hopkins said, were "to give people work and to give each community the sort of public improvements and services its officials wanted."

The summary showed 6,402,000 persons were eligible for WPA jobs at the start of 1936, when it was prepared.

Hopkins said it was being made public now to show how operations had been guided by facts developed in the social research division.

This total, he said, does not mean the WPA could have employed all 6,402,000, even if appropriations were sufficient, because of rules which forbid more than one worker in any family.

ing of such a career. There was little time for friends, and at times animals seemed more sympathetic than human beings. There was the musical spider, for instance, and the impertinent dog at the German Spa. And there was "Cockney Roberts," the Australian parrot! Out of all those pages, if the reader walks away with one friend besides Paderewski, that friend will be surely Cockney Roberts!

That impudent, raucous, sentimental parrot traveled with the Paderewskis for fifteen years. He hated sea trips and Paderewski's stateroom would resound with cries of "wretch, wretch!... Go to hell!" as the poor parrot in his cage slid up and down the swaying stateroom and regarded the seasick artist with baleful eye. But Cockney Roberts loved music. When Paderewski practiced, hour after hour, he sat perched on his foot, crying from time to time in his hoarse voice, "Ah, how beautiful, how beautiful!" It was "touching."

He had a vocabulary of over 1000 words, did Cockney Roberts, and a voice so ugly that Paderewski was finally forced to leave him at home to escape the rasping sound that was never still from morning till night.

Yet with a curious telepathy Paderewski tells how that voice cried in his imagination again and again the night Cockney Roberts died, alone in a hen house in Switzerland.

And, if one would pay tribute to the frank and charming life story of the great man, one could find no more fitting phrase than Cockney Roberts' words—"How beautiful!"

Abandoned Car Wrecks Train, Kills Fireman

SELMMA, Calif., Feb. 12 (AP)—An abandoned automobile wrecked the Southern Pacific's southbound "Owl" passenger train, killing the locomotive fireman and injuring five other persons here early today.

The heavy locomotive jumped the rails as it struck the automobile and turned over, pinning Fireman R. E. Brown in the wrecked cab. Two baggage cars, two coaches and three sleeping cars left the rails behind the locomotive and jolted to a stop, tearing up rails and ties. The locomotive and baggage cars were a twisted mass of wreckage.

Under-Sheriff C. A. Tarr said F. K. Ritchie, 48, of Forterville, Calif., driver of the automobile, and his wife, jumped from the car as it rolled in front of the oncoming train at Selma's Main street crossing.

The injured were: J. F. Miles, locomotive engineer, badly scalded; W. A. Smith of San Francisco, express messenger, possible broken back; Mrs. Mozella Hannah of Fresno, a passenger, wrenched back; J. D. Buchanan, a passenger, scalded, and Frank Bradford of Los Angeles, who, train crew members said, was riding "blind baggage," dislocated shoulder.

Ritchie was arrested and held on an "open" charge.

research. In 1912 he received the Nobel prize for research in suturing blood vessels and transplanting organs.

Presentation will be made Feb. 21 at the University of Illinois.

"Dr. Carrell has achieved world eminence for his pioneer work in developing a technique for transplantation of limbs and organs, and for the preservation and growth of organs outside the body," the citation read.

Department of agriculture figures show the total production of Irish potatoes in the United States in 1936 was approximately 332 million bushels compared with 388 million bushels in 1935.

A recapitulation of Christmas holiday business throughout the Louisville (Ky.) area shows sales in some lines ran as high as 30 per cent above sales a year ago.

REGULARITY HELPS YOU AVOID COLDS

As a protection against colds, a healthy body is even better than umbrellas or overcoats.

But so many people let common constipation get them in a "run-down" condition—where they are likely to catch the first cold that comes along.

Keep feeling well this winter. Avoid constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day. It furnishes corrective "bulk," as well as vitamin B to tone up the intestines. Also iron for the blood.

In the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forms a soft mass, and gently sponges out the system. Just eat two table-spoonfuls daily. In chronic cases, with each meal.

How much better to eat this food instead of taking weakening pills and drugs! Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or fruits, or cook into recipes. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

NEWMAN AWARD GOES TO DR. ALEXIS CARREL

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 12 (AP)—The Cardinal Newman award for 1936 will go to Dr. Alexis Carrel, New York scientist and surgeon, for his "notable contributions to medical science," the Newman Foundation announced today.

The award, a gold medal, is conferred annually for outstanding contribution "to the enrichment of human life in the fields of literature, art, science, or humanitarianism."

Dr. Carrel, 53 years old and a native of France, is associated with the Rockefeller Institute for medical
