SANTA DAY DRAWS LARGE CROWD

BREVITIARIALS

Musings of the moment: Necessity of decreasing their wants during the depression has shown many persons the easiest way to happiness. . . . Most persons intend to do better, to be more neighborly, to improve their educations, to seek religious adjustment, but many simply "never get around to it."

Our favorite color: A shade of blue we instantly recognize but cannot name. Another pretty color is the shade of green in the Pampa school colors. . . . Man is the poorest observer on the earth, consideration being given to his talents. Most of us cannot offhand describe the wall paper pattern in our bedrooms. Many a man cannot tell the color of his children's eyes. . . . Most citizens are not conscious of the appearance of the outskirts of their city, but they are critical of the appearance of other towns they visit. . . . Queer critters, aren't we all?

Old Man Simmons, fact-finding engineer with office in the Worley building, takes our mind off football today with a letter calling our hang on the use of a word. Wondering whether we can "take" friendly criticism—wonder no more; we can, H. O.—Mr. Simmons cites that THE NEWS repeatedly has used the words "bar pits" in referring to the ditches along the highways. He is right, and the practice is technically

We had hoped the spread of lynching might furnish an inspiration to those folks in Louisiana, but it appears the wave of mob-ry hasn't a single saving feature.

Hi-tory shows Pampa will have to break an old time tradition to beat Abilene. Another new deal is needed, in other words.

Prexy Anderson, Abilene sportsman, notes that the new Harvester uniforms will be green on one side and gold on the other, and remarks that the Eagles ought to find it easy to tell whether a Pampan is coming or going.

Abileneans have the idea that Pampa is far, far beyond Amarillo. Wonder what they would think if they had to go all the way to Higgins—and from Brownsville, for instance.

Reports that Kingsmill, then Amarillo had succeeded in landing the Pampa-Abilene attraction proved erroneous. But the Kingsmill mayor was scrapping for the game, we hear, as a matter of civic pride and chamber of commerce enterprise.

Rumors of a protest of a Baker school football player who moved to Horace Mann a week before he played against Sam Houston also proved to be groundless, although Woodrow Wilson's graders heard several Merten pupils talking about the possibility in conversation with the teacher at Hoover.

The Story of Christmas

When the angel had gone away from them into Heaven, the shepherds said, one unto another, Let us go into Bethlehem and see this thing which has come to pass, let us look upon our Saviour.

Long's Candidate Would Yield Claim If New Election Is Called

CITIZENS HURL CHALLENGE TO HEAD OFFICIAL

GROUP 'DARES' GOVERNOR TO CALL ANOTHER ELECTION

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 6 (AP)—The Citizens' Election League today challenged Governor Oscar K. Allen to call a sixth district congressional election that would allow time for holding of two primaries the election could be held within 21 days, the league asserted.

The league's communication to the governor was almost simultaneous with announcement of the offer of Mrs. Bolivar E. Kemp, "elected" in yesterday's protest Long-Allen balloting, to withdraw claim to the district congressional seat if the governor called another election.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—Senate action against what he described as the use of "dummy candidates" in Louisiana elections was advocated today by Senator Logan (D., Ky.), member of the sub-committee which recently investigated the election of Senator John H. Overton (D., La.).

Logan told reporters he favored filing with the senate a report on the chief charges developed, the most serious of which he said was the use of "dummy candidates" by both political factions.

"The senate, of course, cannot tell Louisiana or any other state how it must conduct an election, but it could refuse to seat in the future any candidates elected through use of 'dummy candidates,'" he added.

Logan said further investigation of the election of Overton, who defeated Senator Edwin S. Broussard, would be "useless and foolish."

The sub-committee closed its hearing in New Orleans last Saturday. "The sub-committee could go on taking evidence indefinitely," Logan continued, "but anyone familiar with the atmosphere in which the hearings were held knows it would be futile."

"I have never seen a situation like it. For every witness produced to substantiate an allegation, another would be presented to refute it. This process threatened to go on forever."

Logan said further investigation of the election of Overton, who defeated Senator Edwin S. Broussard, would be "useless and foolish."

Highway 41 To Be All-Weather Oklahoma Road

Making of highway 41 an all-weather road in Oklahoma as far east as highway 81, or from a few miles beyond Minco to a connection with U. S. 66, is promised by the Oklahoma highway commission in letters to local residents.

However, the ultimate route will not touch U. S. 66, which is already over-crowded with traffic.

The letters, in reply to local inquiries, were written by L. B. Selman, member of the Oklahoma commission.

Existing all-weather highways to Oklahoma City are indirect and much longer than the route of highway 41. Wheeler county has funds on hand to pave to the Oklahoma line and is ready to go ahead with this work as soon as Oklahoma will begin work at the line and continue eastward.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6 (AP)—Fulfilling a threat to "blow" his head off, Dr. William D. Wightman, 38 year old physician, killed himself today, police investigators said, after a quarrel with his wife over his attention to a woman patient.

I HEARD—

Adults who attended THE NEWS open house today, while children from the various schools were present, remarking that times certainly had changed since they went to school. The children were quiet and polite, like little gentlemen and ladies.

Clip the Eagles' Wings—Many Pampanians of many years residence expressing amazement at the size of the Pampa Daily NEWS plant as they inspected it during open house today.

'Open House' Is Visited by 2,000 At Noon Today

MORE than 2,000 persons had visited the Pampa Daily NEWS by 3 p. m. today as the newspaper held its first "open house."

School groups, local residents, and out-of-town visitors were among the guests. Visitors saw members of the newspaper staff at their desks in the production of today's paper, and heard members of the newspaper "family" explain the workings of the big organization. Small souvenir papers were given to every person who registered.

Large vases and bouquets of flowers, sent with the congratulations of local individuals and firms, were placed about in the business offices. Among those who sent flowers were La Nora and Rex theaters, Board of City Development, Mayor W. A. Bratton, First National bank, Lions club, Western Union, Clayton Floral company, and Postal Telegraph, and Junior chamber of commerce, Kiwanis club, Murfee's, Inc.

NEW FINANCING PROGRAM TO BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK—PRICE OF GOLD IS SAME AS TUESDAY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6 (AP)—The $34.01 an ounce government price for newly-mined domestic gold, was posted for the fifth successive time today as the treasury polished plans for big mid-December financing operations.

The London price for bar gold was $32.84 an ounce on the basis of an opening sterling quotation of $5.17 to the pound.

Whether recent stability of the RFC gold quotation was connected with the newly completed plan for meeting $727,000,000 of December 15 government maturities could not be ascertained officially.

THOUSAND TICKETS FOR ABILENE GAME SATURDAY SOLD YESTERDAY

MORE than 1,000 tickets for the Pampa-Abilene football game Saturday were sold yesterday and the demand was continuing strong today.

The total number of seats to be offered will be 9,000, including 4,000 bleacher seats at 75 cents each. Reserved seats are 25 cents extra. The bleachers will not be reserved. Tickets are on sale from 5:30 p. m. through the evening at Pampa Drug No. 1, with W. O. Workman of the high school faculty in charge.

LINDBERGH FLYING OCEAN AGAIN BUT WITH WORST DANGERS GONE

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—Lindbergh flying the Atlantic again—and no one getting very excited about it!

That shows how far aviation has come since the day in 1927 when the Flying Colonel arrived in Paris with his uneaten sandwiches in his pocket and his letters of introduction in his hand.

The gift between the first horseless carriage and the modern motor car is hardly greater than the difference between ocean aviation of 1927 and of 1933. Flying the Atlantic six years ago was high adventure, fraught with peril every mile of the lonely way. Lindbergh's present jaunt, besides being much shorter, lacks daredevil thrills—thanks to science.

Winging from New York to Paris, Lindbergh was lost to the world for more than 36 hours. He had no wireless, and the anxious millions could only wait, with heart in mouth. Flying from Gambia, West Africa, to Natal, Brazil, he communicated frequently with Pan American Airways' wireless stations strung along the South American coast.

In the old "Spirit of St. Louis," he sat cramped in a closed cockpit, squinting at the world through a periscope. Now he and his wife ride in open cockpits with convertible tops, enjoying the tropical breezes.

The earth inductor compass, marvelous gadget in 1927, is obsolete in '33. Now Lindbergh uses a Gatty navigation sight a device which enables Mrs. Lindbergh to peer down through a glass and throw a revolving belt with holes in it to the waves below, thereby determining the Weather

WEST TEXAS: Fair tonight and Thursday; warmer in north portion tonight; slightly warmer Thursday.

A trough of low pressure has followed western high pressure as it moved eastward, and last night was centered over Utah. Low pressure was attended by snow and colder weather from Colorado northward. Temperature is seasonal but skies are clouded over the southwest.

ALL SHOPS IN NATAL CLOSE FOR 'FIESTA'

HUGE CROWDS GATHER TO PAY HONOR TO FLIERS

NATAL, Brazil, Dec. 6 (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived here this afternoon after a 1,875-mile flight across the south Atlantic ocean from Bathurst, Gambia, Africa.

The great monoplane landed on the harbor here at 2:55 p. m. Brazilian time (12:45 p. m., E. S. T.).

The streets and docks were thronged with huge crowds of Brazilians who had waited throughout the day for the arrival of the famous American couple.

By general agreement, all business houses and stores in the city were closed for nearly an hour before the Lindberghs arrived in celebration of the great event.

The streets were gaily decorated for the "fiesta." For more than a week past the populace had been excited by the reports that Colonel Lindbergh and his wife, the former Miss Anna Morrow, would return to the American continent through their city.

He flew the Atlantic again this time, but it was by easy stages this time as he surveyed a proposed north Atlantic air route for the Pan-American Airways, of which he is technical adviser.

Carl Baer Named Noble Grand Of I. O. O. F. Lodge

Carl Baer was elected noble grand of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows at a meeting of the lodge Monday evening. Mr. Baer succeeds E. C. Rupp who was elected secretary, succeeding W. H. Palmer.

Other officers elected were as follows: Roy Kretzmeier, vice grand, succeeding Mr. Baer; Stanley Kretzmeier, financial secretary, re-elected; J. W. Crisler, treasurer, re-elected; Paul Blankenburg, trustee, succeeding W. D. Kinzer.

Amarillo Club To Back Harvesters

Amarillo Lions yesterday went on record urging that Pampa inter-district football games be played at Butler field, and offering the support of Amarillo in all contests.

Mack Graham and Roy Bourland, Pampa Lions, were luncheon guests of the Amarillo club. Spokesmen said they regretted that any hard feelings had resulted between the two cities over the protests of football players. They said Amarillo people were "behind the Harvesters 100 per cent" and hoped the Pampa boys would win a state championship.

Pledge Payments Urgently Needed By Scout Council

Payment of even half of the unpaid pledges to the support of the Boy Scouts of the Adobe Walls council would make it possible to close the current year in excellent condition. It was pointed out today by Gilmore N. Nunn, vice-president of the council.

Re-registration of troops, which could be accomplished if part of the pledges were paid, would give the council a record well above the average for the ninth region.

The organization is supported by the sustaining memberships. Anyone knowing himself to have an unpaid pledge is urged to pay it to Roger McConnell, chairman of the finance committee; J. O. Gillham, or to Executive C. A. Clark at the city hall headquarters.

Mrs. E. W. Crowder of Canadian shopped in the city this morning.

Miss Thelma Callihan of the Bell school visited here today.

Mrs. Clyde King of Groves was in the city today.

Mrs. M. N. Osborn of Skellytown was a Pampa visitor today.

ROME, Dec. 6 (AP)—The Associated Press learned in highest quarters today that diplomatic conversations have begun in the various capitals of Europe seeking reform of the League of Nations. They began several days before the Fascist grand council declared Italian permanence in the league depended upon radical reform of that institution.

BISMARCK, N. R., Dec. 6 (AP)—Governor William Langer today declared an embargo on out-state shipments of beef cattle "intended to be processed into human food" and simultaneously lifted his wheat embargo for 10 days, effective immediately. Sheriffs will be notified to enforce the new embargo by halting loading of the cattle for shipment out of North Dakota.

AUSTIN, Dec. 6 (AP)—Lawrence Westbrook, director of the civil works program in Texas, announced today this state had been allotted an additional 10,000 men for employment on CWA projects. Yesterday he received notice from Washington that Texas had been given 15,000 more employees. With the latest addition, Texas will have 216,000 men for CWA work. They will be taken from the direct relief rolls and placed on wages of $12 weekly.

Pritchard Hunt Centers in Area Around Bristow

WICHITA, Dec. 6 (AP)—The search for the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pritchard, Wichita couple missing since November 23 and believed by officers here to have been murdered, centered today along highways between Sedan, Kan., and Bristow, Okla.

Maness said he had definite information that the bodies of the couple would be found somewhere between Sedan and Bristow. The Pritchards' car, blood-stained and bullet-marked, was found abandoned last week near the Oklahoma town.

Mercury Drops To 24 Degrees

The first real "norther" of the year descended on this section of the Panhandle last night. The temperature at the Santa Fe depot dropped to 24 degrees above zero at 5 o'clock this morning. A heavy frost remained on the ground until the bright sun warmed the atmosphere.

The wind became so cold about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon that the Harvester football practice was cut short. Smaller lakes in this section were frozen for several hours.

Three Officials Of Game Chosen

Three officials for the Pampa-Abilene football game to be played here Saturday afternoon have been agreed upon by the coaches of the two schools. The fourth official will be selected within the next two days.

Bear Wolfe, coach of the Texas Christian university freshmen football team, will be the referee. Marshall May, Centenary, will be the head linesman. Del Morgan, Austin college, will be umpire. The field judge has yet to be named. Coach Odis Mitchell of the Harvesters has submitted the name of Frank Bridges, coach at Texas Military college at Terrell, as his choice for the other official.

Death Penalty To Be Given Another Defendant in Scottsboro Case.

DECATUR, Ala., Dec. 6 (AP)—Clarence Norris, the second of seven negro defendants in the "Scottsboro case," retried on a charge of attacking a white woman, was convicted today by a Morgan county jury. The sentence automatically carries the death penalty.

Norris was the second of seven negroes to be retried and convicted on charges of attacking two white women near Scottsboro, Ala., on a freight train two years ago.

Second Negro Found Guilty

Heywood Patterson the first, was convicted last week and given the death sentence.

Cases of the five remaining negroes under indictment for the attacks have been postponed by Judge W. W. Callahan, pending an appeal in the cases of Patterson and Norris.

OUT-OF-TOWN VISITORS AND PAMPANS FILL CITY STREETS TO SEE SANTA'S BIG PARADE

HUNDREDS ATTEND DAILY NEWS' OPEN HOUSE; RECEPTION FOR EVERYONE TO CONTINUE UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

PAMPA'S third Santa day for the entertainment of children and grownups of this territory today was drawing a crowd from many miles, and the streets were crowded this afternoon as residents gathered to see the parade of historical, religious and patriotic floats which distinguish this event.

The major interest was, of course, the coming of old Santa Claus, whose eventual trip from the northland had been followed gaily in detail by THE NEWS. Children who had read these thrilling stories daily were tremendously thrilled by the prospect of seeing Santa in person.

Local and out-of-town people also were visiting the Pampa Daily NEWS "open house" and hearing members of the staff explain the workings of this big institution. The reception will continue until 10 p. m. tonight. Everyone is invited to visit THE NEWS any time today or this evening.

The tentative arrangement of the parade, announced by Dr. R. M. Johnson, chairman, was as follows: Traffic officer, city commission, Woodrow Wilson police, Woodrow Wilson band, B. M. Baker school pep squad, Horace Mann school pep squad, Sam Houston school pep squad, Woodrow Wilson school pep squad.

C.-Fire Department float with Santa Claus.

This evening, the Christmas spirit will be evidenced again and throughout the season by the lights of various colors in the business section. Holly has been purchased by the Junior chamber of commerce to string with the lights and will be in place by the end of the week. This will give Pampa the most attractive business section of its history.

Many show windows, too, will be gorgeously decorated for the Christmas period.

'Knife Stuck In Back', Judge Is Told by Negro

"We was scuffin' and the knife stuck in his back," a negro woman told City Judge J. H. Blythe this morning when she was arraigned in city court on a charge of affray. She was fined $7.50 by the judge, who may have doubted her story.

The negro was taken to Worley hospital where he received treatment for a serious knife wound on his back. He was able to leave the hospital the next day.

Four Local Men Hurt in Wreck

Four men returning from a construction job were injured when their car ran off the road at a bridge about 14 miles east of Pampa yesterday evening. The driver was blinded by light of an approaching car.

Ray Enocks of Pampa and John R. Davis of Groom received injuries to their backs, and are in Pampa hospital. D. H. Hamilton had a rib and collar bone broken, and Charles Deffer received a cut on the face. The two latter was dismissed from the hospital after emergency treatment.

Mrs. James Wilkinson of Muskogee, Okla., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Drew, for several weeks. She plans to remain through the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Inez Carter, Willis Price, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Husted and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradford, also cut graceful figures in the dance.

OUR SAVING GRACE IS, WE CAN TAKE IT!

The salvation of America lies in its ability to take a licking with a smile. A severe licking it has taken, there is no doubt; as have nearly all other nations of the world.

Imagine a Mussolini, a Hitler, a Stalin in the same situation. A photograph of any one of these dignitaries with a smile on his face is worth as a rarity. An expression of levity is worth remembering for all time.

Perhaps the Italians, the Germans and the Russians have much more cause to be somber and sad than have we in America. To be sure, they have had to suffer the consequences of the last war much more than we.

It is a serious business, of course, to be wanting for clothes and nourishment. But is there anything so serious as to lack a gleam of brightness and cheer somewhere within its folds?

There is misery aplenty in this country, and those of us who are more fortunate than the rest should keep this in mind. At the same time, however, we never should relinquish that sense of humor which distinguishes us from the other nations.

It is our saving grace. It prevents revolution and turmoil. It gives us a point of view apart from our very condition and permits us to judge ourselves from a cool and sane attitude.

It is such that, if we had a Hitler instead of a Roosevelt to lead us, we long ago would have laughed him down.

CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Dec. 6. (P)—Reactions from advances formed the rule in grain values today toward the end of trading, but the market finished with slight gains. Lack of sustained speculative demand was much in evidence, and profit taking by previous buyers developed. Forecasts pointed to likelihood of further moisture relief for domestic wheat territory.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6. (P)—The market ruled very quiet all morning with a narrow price range. Near noon March traded at 10.07 and May at 10.21, off 4 to 5 points from the highs and 3 points under the previous close.

wrong and therefore deplorable. We know it, however, although we had passed no law against reporters referring to the ditches as "bar pits." We down here at the NEWS are not infallible, being somewhat rustic in our western ways and not above referring to a "borrow pit" or a bear as "bar," in the language of Dan'l Boone.

A hard-boiled Missouri highway engineer first called our band on the use of the "bar pit" designation. He took us out to the construction camp and showed how the workmen were borrowing earth along the fences to build the fill. But popular usage, or misusage, has shortened the word borrow to "bar."

Root words in Latin or other languages from which English derived give a clue to meaning. Our smatterings of Latin, Spanish, and French enable us to know the meanings of thousands of words that otherwise would be wholly unintelligible except by memorizing.

Old Man Simmons continues by betting a depreciated dollar that there is not a person in our organization who can tell where the word "haywire," as referring to something gone "kerfouie," originated. We don't, but having lived on a sandy Hemphill county ranch where hay-wire, or baling wire as we called it, protruded in unexpected places to trip the unwary, we have our idea. Hay wire has had a unique place in our Panhandle civilization. With it you could tie the gates, fix the flivver, make a clothes line, mend a single-tree, or do any one of a thousand other useful things. No traveler, car or other-

ITALY WILL LEAVE LEAGUE UNLESS IT BECOMES EFFECTIVE

Texas Allotted 15,000 More Men On CWA Projects

AUSTIN, Dec. 5. (P)—Lawrence Westbrook, director of the civil works program in Texas, announced today receipt of a telegram from Washington allotting 15,000 additional men to this state for employment on projects in Texas.

Texas' allocation previously had been 191,000. This addition will bring the total men to be taken from the relief rolls and given a chance to earn a minimum wage of $12 for 30 hours labor weekly to 206,000.

Westbrook said the addition was made possible through the "uniform success" of the Texas civil works administration in carrying on its program without the necessity of expending funds for materials. He said counties had been cooperating by furnishing materials.

Approximately 3,000 projects have been approved by Westbrook's office.

C. B. Pepper of McLean underwent a major operation at Worley hospital last night.

Emmett Gatlin was dismissed today from Worley hospital after medical treatment.

REFORM NEED IS EMPHASIZED BY MUSSOLINI

BODY MUST BE GIVEN RADICAL, THOROUGH REMODELING

ROME, Dec. 6. (P)—Fascist Italy rallied around the standard of Il Duce today, supporting the premier's threat to leave the League of Nations unless it is given a thorough remodeling.

In every morning newspaper, the decision of the Fascist grand council presided over by Mussolini, to put a stiff fixed price upon this nation's continued support of the League was given big-type display.

The council's decision that Italy would remain at Geneva only on condition that the League is "radically reformed" was regarded as throwing down the gauntlet to the body.

The exact nature of the reforms demanded and whether the demands had been presented to the League was not known, but fascist masses found in the council's general statement ample grounds for enthusiasm.

The council's pronouncement on the League and its companion decision to pay $1,000,000 to the United States on war debt interest due December 15 came yesterday after a long talk in which Premier Mussolini bitterly criticized the League in its present form as "ineffective."

The decision puts the League face to face with a new crisis, since Italy's stand can be viewed only as a threat to follow Germany and Japan unless its machinery is revamped to suit her demands.

The debt interest installment on which the council agreed to pay $1,000,000 amounts in itself only to $2,500,000.

"The council decided to pay $1,000,000 as renewed proof of Italy's good faith, the communique said. "This was done while awaiting definite systematization to close this debt and credit account resulting from the world war."

You must hear them tonight at their first appearance in Pampa. A large crowd is expected and plans have been made to entertain thoroughly. (Adv.)

NO SPECIAL SESSION WILL BE NECESSARY IN RELIEF WORK

AUSTIN, Dec. 5. (P)—It is not harmonious on the relief distribution front.

The first time the commission met Earle Adams, chairman of the industrial ad hoc board and a member of the Texas Relief commission by law, took exception to statements that a special session of the legislature would be necessary in the immediate future to authorize issuance of more bonds for relief work.

Adams contended that close shepherding of the initial fund of $5,500,000, added to federal grants, would prove adequate for a longer period than some members of the commission anticipated.

Next came a mild flurry between James V. Allred, attorney general and chairman of the Texas Bond commission, and Lawrence Westbrook, relief commission director.

Westbrook was quoted as having criticized the slowness in issuing relief bonds.

In a statement answering the criticism, Allred referred to Westbrook as the "flying representative" of the commission and blamed the delay in getting the bonds on the markets on failure of the relief commission to ask for their sale sooner.

In his rush to get around the country, Westbrook frequently has resorted to travel by air.

There is a coincidence in Allred's reference to Westbrook as the "flying representative" and Westbrook's return by train from his most recent trip to Washington.

With the removal of able bodied men from the relief rolls through the civil works program, the funds allotted to Texas to the federal government coupled with the state's relief money will go much further than at first anticipated. Many believed that exhaustion of relief funds would necessitate another special session of the legislature

FINISHING TOUCHES BEING PLACED ON STYLE REVUE PLANS

BRIDAL PARTY PARADE WILL CLIMAX SHOW

LAST MINUTE RESERVATIONS BEING MADE

LAST-MINUTE reservations for the Business and Professional Women's club style revue tomorrow are being made this afternoon, and final touches are being placed in practice sessions for the models.

The dining room of Schneider hotel will be the scene of a fashion parade at the luncheon hour and again in the evening. Committees are working to achieve a beautiful setting that will be a fitting background for the revue.

Models have been chosen to represent every type of femininity—the athletic, the dignified, the languorous, the pert, the sophisticated. Costumes suited to each type and to every occasion will be displayed.

Wedding Scene

Climaxing the revue will be the parade of a wedding party down a carpeted aisle to pose before a simulated altar flanked with cathedral tapers. Mrs. H. Gerhard will sing "I Love You Truly" during this scene. Identity of the bride has been kept secret. Her attendants will be chosen from the group of models, including the children who will display latest styles for the youngest set.

Reservations for the turkey luncheon or dinner may be made today at 75 cents a plate. Mrs. Glen Ford and Mrs. Alex Schneider are in charge of reservations. Mrs. H. Hicks is general chairman of arrangements for the revue.

Stunts Will Be On Program For PTA Pie Supper

Stunts directed by A. L. Patrick, Sam Houston principal, will be an entertainment feature at the old fashioned pie supper which B. M. Baker Parent-Teacher association will sponsor at Baker school tomorrow evening.

The recreation period will precede sale of the pies at auction. John B. Hensley, county superintendent, will be the auctioneer.

Madames Homer Simmons, Roy Holt, and C. S. King, finance committee members of the association, will have charge of the entertainment, to which the public is invited.

Mrs. A. A. Kelly was dismissed from Worley hospital today after a minor operation.

One Sure Way to End Coughs and Colds

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, and attacks the seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Your own druggist is authorized to refund your money on the spot if you cough or cold is not relieved by Creomulsion. (Adv. 3B)

Lame and Velvet Star for Evening

Fond of star gazing? Then look into the future and choose this frock for your formal winter wardrobe. It has everything that it takes to make a 1934 success—flower-like shoulders, smoothly molded lines, swishing back fullness and a general air of elegance that suggests a price five times the amount that the material will cost you.

Whatever you choose and wherever you wear it you are certain to have plenty of admiring attention—it's that kind of a gown.

Don't hesitate to choose the best material. It's so easy to put together that you can't possibly make a mistake. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch material, 1 1/2 yard 36-inch lame. Width about 2 1/4 yards.

PERIOD STYLE SHOW PLEASURES

BIG AUDIENCE Crowd Enjoys The Old Fashioned Amusements

"This show was so good, something like it should be given once every year," a spectator remarked last night while leaving the high school gymnasium where the high school Parent-Teacher association presented "a period style show" before a large audience.

Proceeds will be used to purchase awards for winners in scholastic competitions next spring.

The style show was only a part of the entertainment. There was a singing bee, an old-time dance, a German band directed by the high school's champion comedian, Harry Kelley, acts by the town's funniest pair, Neal Bean and Ben Gull. The applause was plentiful and enthusiastic.

Declaring the show was a financial success, Mrs. J. M. Dodson this morning issued a statement thanking old timers who lent costumes, those who participated in the square dances, the Christian church for the organ which Mrs. Mel Davis played, and all members of the cast. B. G. Harris "called" the square dance.

Those who had charge of the entertainment were as follows: Mrs. J. H. Blythe, chairman of finance; Mrs. O. E. Palmer, chairman of publicity; program, Mrs. C. T. Hunkepillar, Mrs. T. E. Rose, Mrs. Roy Webb; costumes, Mrs. Hugh Isbell, Mrs. H. L. Ledrick, Mrs. E. A. Shackleton, Mrs. Katie Vincent; models, Mrs. J. P. Curtis; tickets, Mrs. S. G. Surratt; stage properties, Mrs. T. H. McDonald; stage arrangements, B. G. Harris.

About 75 persons appeared in the show. All wore costumes from 30 to 50 years old. About 30 wedding dresses of the long ago were modeled in the last act.

Must Submit To Religious Laws Of Soviet Russia

ROME, Dec. 5. (AP)—Maxim Litvinoff, foreign commissar of Soviet Russia, said today that although Americans in Russia may practice their own religion, they still must submit to the religious laws of that country.

During a long interview with eighty members of the foreign press, conducted in English, French and German at the Soviet embassy, he said:

"But these laws guarantee every nation complete religious liberty."

In explanation of the religious situation in the Soviet, he said:

"The American, German, English, French and others have complete liberty to practice their religion but the pastors of their religion do not have the right to conduct propaganda or to proselyte."

Litvinoff gave as his opinion that the disarmament conference is dead and he repeated the statement he made in America that the conference is "a cadaver."

Asked what solution he would offer for disarmament, the Russian statesman replied that the good will of nations would be sufficient to solve the problem "for if the spirit of the Kellogg pact existed in fact it could be solved, but, instead, the nations are preparing for war."

CONFISCATION OF AMERICAN PROPERTY IN CUBA THREATENED

WOULD FORCE REDUCTION OF POWER RATES

TO FINE COMPANY FOR DISCHARGING ANY EMPLOYEE

BY EDUMND A CHESTER, Associated Press Staff Writer.

HAVANA, Dec. 6 (AP)—Ignoring the American-owned Cuban Electric company's threat to shut down its plants if compelled to reduce rates more than 20 per cent, the government of President Grau San Martin declared today that it must reduce rates approximately 34 per cent.

At the same time the government declared a moratorium on consumers' past due bills and threatened to fine the $200,000,000 concern if one employee is discharged or any wage or salary is reduced as a result of its curtailed income.

There were strong indications that company officials might appeal to the American state department at Washington. Officials characterized the decree as "confiscation of property."

If the company wants to abandon its plants as a result of the decree, Dr. Antonio Guiteras, secretary of the interior, said, the government stands ready to take them over.

After the conference, Dr. Guiteras went to Camp Columbia to visit Col. Fulgencio Batista, chief of staff of the Cuban army, but remained at the palace long enough to assure reporters a law would become effective Friday which would make it compulsory that 50 per cent of the employees in all commerce and industry in Cuba be native Cubans.

Saying he expected some trouble in Havana when the law becomes effective, the secretary added that it would provide that the proportion of Cubans be gradually increased to 80 per cent.

Amarillo Grid Receipts Less Than In Pampa

Pampa was invited to "move" to Amarillo Saturday to play the Pampa-Amarillo football game on Butler field, but the kind offer of the Amarillo school board was declined and the game will be played on Harvester field at 2 o'clock.

One of the main reasons for keeping the game in Pampa was that football in Pampa is better supported than in Amarillo. Joe Smith, manager of the Pampa Independent school district, compiled figures which showed that Pampa's gross receipts the two years Amarillo played in Pampa amounted to $5,000 more than the gross receipts the two years Pampa played in Amarillo. Gross receipts in 1930 and 1932, when the games were played in Pampa, totaled $15,118.76, while the gross receipts in 1930 and 1932, when games were played in Amarillo, amounted to only $9,936.75.

Prohibition Received Its Death Blow Here

Utah, long one of the most arid states in the Union, dealt the final blow to prohibition on Dec. 5, as the 36th state ratified the twenty-first amendment. The historic action was taken in the chamber of the House of Representatives in the capitol at Salt Lake City. The building shown above. At the left, inset, is M. H. Walling, secretary of state; at right, Gov. Henry H. Blood. Blood acted as temporary chairman. Walling read the certificates of election and the repeal amendment.

"CIVILIZATION ON FEET AGAIN," SAYS FAMED HEAD WAITER; SPEAK LIQUOR PRICES TAKE A TUMBLE

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—So repeal came, and—so what? Taxes choked the forties and the fifties until 3 o'clock and later. Lights burned in the apartments of the sixties and the seventies, until dawn.

Not a drunk on Broadway, not a roisterer anywhere. The town simply went legal, really legal. Speakeasies said "no"; sent their customers to licensed restaurants or hotels, said "have a good time, come back when we get our license." Hotels served capacity crowds, labored to please the taste, closed promptly at the curfew set by the state alcoholic control board. Restaurants did the same.

Heywood Brown, Bon Vivant known to every illegal bartender from Battery to Bronx, dropped into his favorite 52nd Street speakeasy, paid 75 cents for a martini. That was at 6 p. m., 20 minutes after repeal. He went to dinner, dropped back at the speakeasy—quotation: 50 cents. Out again, back again price 35 cents, 9 p. m.

"I'll be back tomorrow afternoon," he said, with a nickel. The Astor sold Martini's at 25 cents, Manhattans at 30 cents, old fashioned at 35 cents, Bacardi's at 35 cents, side cars at 40 cents, rye and bourbon at 35 cents, Scotch at 45 cents and champagne at $1.50 a bottle and the same prices prevailed generally at all the first class places of the town.

The scene generally in the speakeasies was this: Bartender: "Ya see, repeal came, so we can't serve it." Customer: "Aw, don't give me that stuff." Bartender: "Honest, Mr., we can't do it. I'll call the proprietor." Proprietor: "We ain't takin' no chance, see. Why don't you go over to the Waldorf. It's legal over there." Happiness reigned among bartenders and head waiters. A good bartender, so bartenders say, likes to see people drink and drink, but he doesn't like to see people get drunk. Head waiters, too. They love to serve liquor to people who can hold liquor.

"Civilization," said Tom Farley of Delmonico's "is on its feet again." Tom served a white and black Scotch to Stanford White an hour and a half before he was slain. Curiously enough, Maurice Dore, also a head waiter at Delmonico's served the same drink to Harry K. Thaw an hour before Thaw shot White. Neither, they said, uttered a word as he drank.

All over the town were the words "it's legal now" and all over the town were people, speaks, hotels and restaurants being oh, so legal.

Songs—there were many everywhere. "Happy Days Are Here Again" was the favorite. "Sweet Adeline" sometimes, but not so often. And—New York went to bed sober.

SYNOPSIS: Although Sonya will not tell Curt Tennyson why she must penetrate the land of the hostile Kioshees Indians, Curt's interest in her leads him to try to protect her. He with Paul St. Clair, is on the trail of Igor Karakhan, international crook. At a pass, the Little party is attacked by the Kioshees, but escapes. Now Curt is standing, unprotected at the edge of the water, trying to bring about a truce with the Indians, hiding across a narrow stretch of the river.

Chapter 22. COWARD'S SHOT Curt saw a move or two yonder in the drift, but not an arrow came at him.

Calling across to them in the Chinook jargon, he tried to work up a palaver. . . . His party came as friends. He was not after furs or the yellow gold of the creek beds. He intended to stay only a short moon in the Lilluar ranges. He had ordered his men not to lift the shoot-stick against the Kioshees. Why then should the Kioshees try to kill them? Would they send a man across to talk with him and learn that the strangers brought no harm? The only answer he got was his own echo flouncing back from the wall of spruces.

Byrd To Sail For Pole On Tuesday

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Dec. 6 (AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd probably will sail for the south pole next Tuesday. It was said here where his Antarctic flag ship was in harbor today.

As it is too early for his flag ship to approach the ice barrier, Admiral Byrd plans to carry out his oceanographic work on a wooden vessel which will precede his flag ship through the ice.

The main camp of the expedition will be in Little America, where hope is still held that a plane left by the admiral's last south pole expedition will be found. An advance base will be established 400 miles south of Little America, where two men will spend the winter in the world's loneliest outpost observing weather conditions.

PLENTY OF REASON

MILWAUKEE—Officials of suburban West Allis were relieved of two distressing problems when federal agents raided a huge still on the eve of the legal sale of liquor. Citizens had complained for some time of disagreeable sewer odors. Engineers were wondering about a leak of 50,000 gallons of water a day from the city supply. Federal agents supplied the explanations when they found that by tapping a fire department line the still operators were obtaining 50,000 gallons of free water a day from the city and that the used molasses mash was dumped into the city sewer.

Railroads Cut Fares Down To 2 Cents a Mile

With a complete new scale of fares—the lowest since the war—railroads in the western part of the United States are making a strong bid for the patronage of the traveling public. The new fares will reduce travel costs from 16.87 to 44.45 per cent and are especially important because they represent a general reduction applicable at all points between all points on all railroads.

Since the war, American railroads have been operating upon a basic fare of 3.6 cents per mile. Under the new plan, the mileage rate will be scaled down to 2 cents per mile for travel in day coaches, and 3 cents per mile in sleeping and parlor cars. Short limit round trip tickets, good in all classes of equipment, will be 2 cents per mile, with a 2 1/2 cent rate for long limit round trip tickets. Passengers in sleeping and parlor cars will also benefit by a reduction of one-third in the cost of the space occupied through the elimination of the surcharge formerly in effect. Sale of ticket prices will be continued at the present rate of 2.7 cents per mile.

Railroad officials estimate that the reduced fares will save the traveling public many millions of dollars a year. Furthermore, it will not be necessary to plan trips at special times in order to take advantage of the low rates. The business man, the vacationist and the casual tourist will benefit equally as the new fares apply at all times over all railroads serving the territory west and north of Chicago, St. Louis and the blackness, with a faint light around the rim. A bright moon overhead turned the waters to way silver. He was thankful for that friendly moon; sentry-go was infinitely easier than in darkness.

Five hundred yards north two morganer ducks started calling back and forth. For a time he paid no attention but when they kept it up longer than ducks should have done, he began listening closely. The calls sounded all right, he could detect nothing wrong about them; but he had his suspicions. Maybe it was a pair of ducks out there. And maybe a pair of canoes signaling to each other.

LONG CONTROL OF LOUISIANA APPEARS GONE

CONGRESS CANDIDATE POLLS ONLY TENTH OF TOTAL VOTE

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 6 (AP)—The sixth district congressional election ordered by Senator Huey P. Long in which he picked Mrs. Bolivar E. Kemp Sr., widow of the late Representative Kemp for the office vacated by his death, is over but a fiery memory lingers on.

Hanged in effigy, after which the dummy was soaked with kerosene and burned from the gallows while clad in green pajamas and bearing the placard "in effigy now—in person next," Huey P. Long from his Roosevelt hotel suite in New Orleans took stock today of the rebellion as he counted the returns of yesterday's election.

Governor O. K. Allen issued the election call after refusing for months the demands of rival candidates for the vacant office that he first call a primary to permit them to run.

Mrs. Kemp was nominated by Long-controlled members of the district democratic executive committee who met in New Orleans, outside of the sixth district.

The election was quiet, comparatively speaking, but mass meetings and denunciations of the method dotted the district in terms unheard of even during the impeachment days of Long when he was governor.

The vote in nine out of twelve parishes in the district which held an election in at least some precincts represented about one-tenth of the qualified electors of the parish voting.

Tangipahoa, St. Helena, and Livingston parishes had no election. Judge Nat Taylor, a bitter enemy of the political control of Long, enforced his injunction order against the election which he termed illegal by swearing in more than 1,000 deputies and arming them to enforce his order.

The judge, in grim and foggy darkness, was one of the first to appear with arms at 4:30 in the morning to see that his court order was enforced after orders from the higher up authorities of government in Louisiana had decreed that court injunctions were null and void and would have no effect on the holding of the election.

The count of votes from 100 or more of the 146 precincts in the nine parishes voting gave Mrs. Kemp 4,800 votes out of a total registration of 45,141 qualified electors.

Don Juan of the Sky Ride—Was Wynekoop

Heart breaker of the Sky Ride was Earl Wynekoop, the man of 50 loves, whose amorous entanglements were bared by the murder of his wife, Rheta, in Chicago. So numerous were his affairs that he kept a diary of smitten maidens, listing their characteristics by code. In typical pose as he tried his "line" on Mary Gerken, World's Fair cashier, Wynekoop is shown resting on a bench in all his uniformed splendor during a lull in his day's work as Sky Ride attendant. At right is Flo Conley, another girl friend, who worked in one of the Fair's electrical exhibits. Listed in the diary is "2-4-9-10," translated as pretty, exhibit, sentimental.

WITH THE— HARVESTERS

By HARRY E. HOARE

W. O. Workman and this department "re-weighed" the Harvesters yesterday afternoon. The new weights will appear on the big program being prepared for the Pampa-Abilene game Saturday. Some of the boys have gained considerable, while others are about the same or a pound or two heavier. Bert Stevens and Odell Walker are the only two boys who weigh less than they did at the first of the season.

CLIP THE EAGLES' WINGS

Monroe Owens, Hazel Mackie, Miles Marbaugh, Chubby Stewart, and Leon Noblett are the boys who have put on the most weight during the hard grind. Owens, Stewart, and Noblett are "up" nine pounds each. Mackie has gained eight pounds and Marbaugh seven pounds. J. R. Green is still the biggest man on the team. He tips the scales at 186 pounds. Mackie follows him with 178 pounds.

CLIP THE EAGLES' WINGS

The Harrier starting lineup, with Heiskell at fullback, will outweigh the Eagle's even pound to the man. With Marbaugh at the fullback position, the Harvesters will be three pounds to the man heavier. Pampa will average 156 pounds and Abilene 155 pounds. Both teams boast two or three big fellows in the line and the line average of both teams will be the same, 162 pounds to the man. The Harvester backfield will outweigh the Abilene secondary by one pound—Pampa 146 pounds to Abilene 145 pounds.

CLIP THE EAGLES' WINGS

We have a letter from Sam "Speedy" Keith and Robert "Midget" Woodward who are now students at Baylor university. The "midget" is already out for freshman basketball while "Speedy" is doing late training in track events. They write that the Baylor-Rice football game last Saturday was one of the wildest they have ever seen. "We are pulling for the Harvesters and hope to see them downstate in the next few weeks," write the former Harvesters.

CLIP THE EAGLES' WINGS

Frey Erney, who used to turn out powerful teams at Cleburne, has written a book, "Hip Sports Football." The Cleburne sports writer quotes the following epigrams: "Congratulate the blockers—the papers will star the man who scored." "He who fights and runs away had better keep on running." "Pride goes before a good old-fashioned country licking."

RENO DIVORCE BUSINESS FALLS OFF HALF MILLION IN LAST YEAR

RENO, Nevada, Dec. 5 (AP)—The depression put a $500,000 crimp in Reno's divorce business this year.

Lawyers, the county treasury, hotels, apartments, dude ranches and restaurants were nicked for about that much, all told, as a result of about a 25 per cent decline in the annual Reno-rush of the unhappy-ly wed.

Last year the divorce courts of the "biggest little city in the world" put 3,105 couples back on the single standard. This year, through November, only about 2,300 had gone through the mill, and December 31 probably will see this number not so very much larger.

Other states and their liberalized divorce laws may have had something to do with the decrease, but most folks hereabouts incline to the belief that many who have come here otherwise just couldn't raise the train fare.

As goes the divorce business so goes Reno. Money is plentiful when the nation's misnamed flock herds everybody gets it in the neck, including the lawyer, the landlord, the night club operator, the dude ranches, restaurant owners and the store keepers, the taxi driver, the county treasurer and even the butcher and the baker.

One individual who has been in close touch with the local situation for several years estimated today that on the average each divorce seeker spends around $500 during his six-weeks stay in Reno.

Many, of course, spend considerably less than that, but there are those among the wealthy and scattered the shekels broadcast during their brief residence. Attorneys' fees for some mount into four figures, while few of Reno's 130 lawyers will accept less than $150 from a client even though the work involved might as easily be done by the office Gertie.

NEW FIELDING RECORD IS SET UP BY BRAVES

BOSTON NINE CAPTURES 9 INDIVIDUAL TITLES

NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—All the Boston Braves set up a new club fielding record for the National League during the 1933 season, they captured only one of the nine individual titles.

The Braves wound up with a field mark of .978, the official averages reveal, two points higher than the old record the same club had hung up in 1932.

Burly Frank Hogan was the only Brave, however, to win individual honors. He had an average of .997 to lead the catchers. The Cubs won three of these berths. Manager Charley Grimm leading the first basemen at .968, Elwood English the third sackers at .973, and Lon Warneke the pitchers at 1.000. Twenty fingers turned in perfect records but Warneke accepted the most chances, 80.

The individual winners were: Second base, Hughie Critz, New York, .981; shortstop, Leo Durocher, St. Louis, .960; right field, Harry Rice, Cincinnati, .991; center field, George Davis, New York, .988; and left field, Freddy Lindstrom, Pittsburgh, .987.

Billy Herman, second baseman of the Cubs, set up two new records during the season, making 466 putouts against the mark of 459 Bill Sweeney of Boston set in 1912, and making 11 putouts in a single game. Jimmy Wilson, St. Louis Cardinal catcher now a member of the Phillies, hung up another record when he was credited 18 putouts in the game in which Dizzy Dean, Cardinal pitcher, struck out 17 Cubs. The old record of 17 putouts was held by Hank DeBerry, Dazzy Vance's old battery-mate at Brooklyn, in 1928.

Herman not only set up his two records but also had the most chances among second basemen with 1023, figured in the most double plays, 114, and committed the most errors, 46.

Baxter Jordan of Boston had the most chances among first basemen while Don Hurst of the Phillies figured in the most double plays, 132, made the most assists, 114, and the most errors, 23.

Among the third basemen, Pie Tarylor of Pittsburgh had the most chances, 503 and made the most errors, 27, while Joe Stripp of Brooklyn and Johnny Vergez of New York were involved in the most double plays, 17.

Dick Bartell's 919 total chances led the shortstops and the Philadelphia also led the double plays with 100 while Floyd (Arky) Vaughan of Pittsburgh was charged with the most errors, six.

Happy "Second Honeymooners"

Just a few weeks ago Mrs. Ben Chapman, wife of the New York Yankee's star outfielder, was in court at Birmingham, Ala., seeking separate maintenance. But what she really wanted was a reconciliation. And when her famous mate convinced her he was "in earnest" about making up, the two embarked on their "second honeymoon." Here is the smiling couple as they visited in Nashville, Tenn.

CONGRATULATIONS

NORFOLK, Neb.—A message of congratulation from President Franklin D. Roosevelt warmed the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lederer today as they observed their sixtieth wedding anniversary. How official circles learned of the event is not known by the Lederers. Married on Thanksgiving day of 1873 in Whiteside county, Ill., the Lederers came to Norfolk in 1881.

Among the outfielders, Chick Fullis of the Phillies had the most chances, 435; Chuck Klein, also of the Phillies, the most assists, 21. Joe Moore of New York the most double plays, six, and George Watkins of the Cardinals, the most errors, 15.

Gus Mancuso of the Giants led the catchers in total chances with 682, in double plays, 15, in errors, 19, and in passed balls, 12.

Carl Hubbell had the greatest number of chances among the pitchers, 199, while Lon Warneke of the Cubs was in the most double plays, 7, and Wild Bill Hallahan of the Cardinals was charged with the most errors, six.

INSULL TO BE REQUESTED TO LEAVE GREECE

BUT WILL BE GIVEN A FREE PASS TO NATIONS

ATHENS, Dec. 5 (AP)—The possibility that more chapters may be added to that steadily lengthening story, "the pursuit of Samuel Insull," was heightened measurably today.

Greece, the former American utilities czar's present haven of refuge from extradition, will ask him to leave when his police permit expires December 31, reliable sources said yesterday.

But this, it was indicated, should not be taken to mean necessarily that Insull can be returned immediately to Chicago to face embezzlement charges growing out of the fall of his far-flung utilities domain.

For, it was said, the Greek government is prepared to equip him with a "laissez passer" (free pass) which will give him entree to other countries.

The first chapter in the United States government's attempt to return Insull was written shortly after a Cook county grand jury indicted him at Chicago.

In Paris at the time, he fled to Italy and later to Greece. There court decisions have blocked all extradition moves.

LINE OF BOTH EAGLES AND HARVESTERS WEIGH AVERAGE OF 162 POUNDS

ABILENE AND PAMPA BACKS NEARLY EQUAL

HARVESTER BACKFIELD TO OUTWEIGH BIRDS' ONE POUND

Tradition will ride with the Abilene Eagles Saturday when they dash into bi-district competition against the Pampa Harvesters here at 2 p. m. but a local eleven which has had more than its share of inter-sectional play this season will be building desperately to make a good showing in its first district championship.

Conches Odus Mitchell and Argus Fox concede that there will be no alphas if the Harvesters lose Saturday. Both elevens will have crimples. Fullback Miles Marbaugh will likely be the only Pampian, however who will be unable to play at his best. His infected leg has healed slowly.

Re-weighing of the squads reveals no odds either way. Both lines will weigh 162 pounds on the average, although the Harvesters are regarded as the more powerful. Pampa's sackfield starting line-up will average 146 pounds, Abilene's 145. These are the lightest teams of several years by both cities.

In fourteen years, Abilene has been district champion seven times. Each of these seven times, the Eagles have gone to the state semifinals. Pampa's outfit has been barely nosed out of the district title in four previous successive years. Encouraged by an audience expected to pass the 7,500 mark, the Harvesters are given at least an even chance to break the spell Abilene teams have always had over Pampa eleven.

Abilene is not expected to have much luck through the Pampa line nor running ends, although the deception of Coach Dewey Mahew's boys is something to reckon with. With Captain Jess Patton at right end and Monroe Owens, considered for all-state honors, at the other, Pampa is expected to be able to check the Eagles' running attack.

If Halfback Dunaway is able to break away for long runs as he did against Lubbock, Captain Cogdell and his mates from the Taylor county seat will have a busy afternoon. Dunaway's back injury, and Stevens and Heskell, halfback and substitute fullback, respectively, are stout plungers but largely inexperienced in the Pampa offensive. Gregory, halfback and punter, is in his first year of first string play and local interest centers mainly on Captain Cogdell of Abilene, track speedster and pass snatcher de luxe. His ability to dash beyond the safety man to receive passes frankly has local fans worried. Brookshire is the heavier. Pennington and Galbreath complete the Eagle quartet.

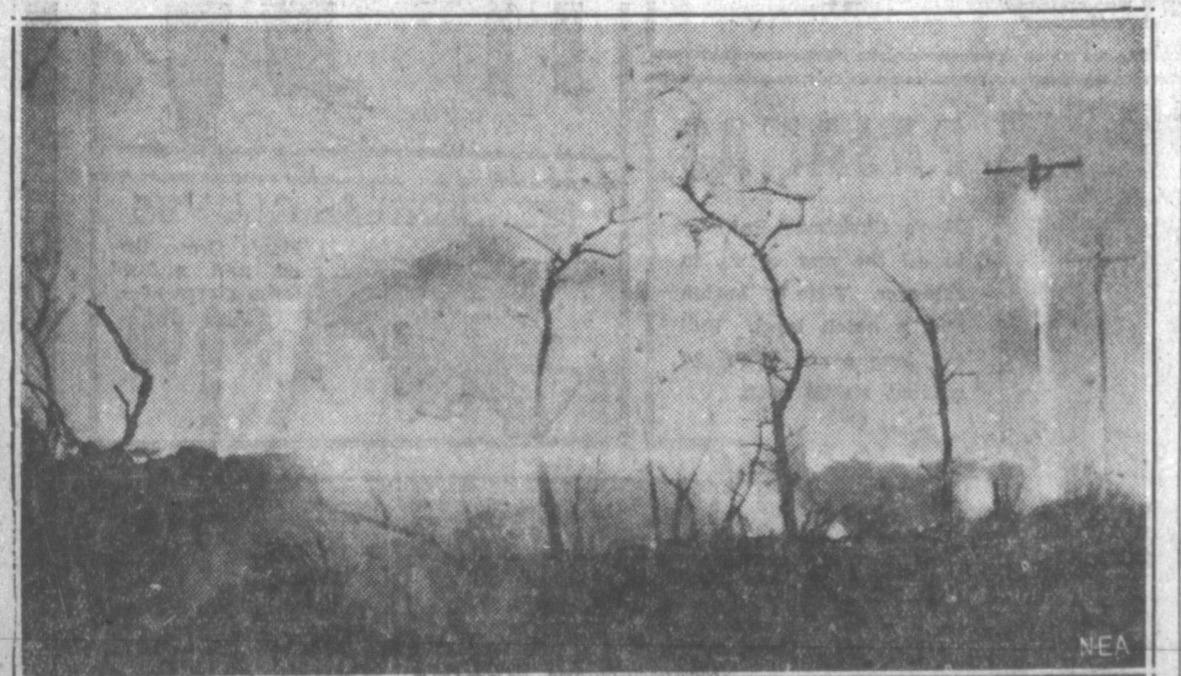

A terrific battle at center looms between Jones of Abilene and Pinnell of Pampa, both outstanding at their positions. Abilene's huge tackles, Robertson at 180 and Lindley at 163, will outweigh the Pampa tackles by 10 pounds or more, but the Harvester linemen have been meeting big men all season. The guards will be more nearly matched physically.

The Harvesters will take the field attired in new suits of green and gold. The Eagles will work out in Amarillo Thursday evening and proceed here by bus Friday morning.

DECATUR, Dec. 6 (AP)—J. A. Morgan, Wise county farmer who "just for a crazy idea" wrote letters to Charles F. When California Town Vanished in Flames

Singed trees standing in grotesque silhouette contributed to this fantastic scene in Tulunga, Calif., as a spectacular brush and forest fire lay waste the entire town. Besides the destruction of thousands of acres of property, La Crescenta winery, visible in the background, and its store of rare wines went up in flames.

GRID CROWDS DECREASE AT TEXAS GAMES

BUT ATTENDANCE ALL OVER U. S. SHOWED BIG GAINS

BY ALAN GOULD,
Associated Press Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, Dec. 6 (AP)—College football finally has turned the corner in a big way, on the basis of attendance figures compiled today by the Associated Press, and regained much of the popularity as well as financial ground lost during the past three years.

The tabulation for 1933, covering all sections of the country, reveals a rising tide of turnstile activity exceeding the most optimistic expectations. It shows that 40 out of 53 colleges and universities registered substantial gains over 1932, ranging in a few instances as high as 100 per cent. Records for attendance were broken in the Big Ten, the Big Six, and Rocky Mountain conferences. Last year there was a general decline of 15 per cent.

Fordham and Princeton in the East, Michigan, Iowa, Ohio State, Minnesota, and Nebraska in the mid-west, Tennessee in the South, Denver in the Rocky Mountain conference, St. Mary's, Stanford, and Southern California on the Pacific Coast, showed the biggest increases over 1932. Their gains ranged from 33 1-3 to more than 100 per cent.

Fordham's first season under Jimmy Crowley was marked by more than doubled attendance. St. Mary's, which beat Fordham before a capacity crowd in New York, showed the next best record by jumping its attendance from 194,000 for eight games last year to 379,000 for nine games this season. Iowa more than doubled its home attendance.

Southern California, playing most of its games in the huge Olympic stadium, attracted more cash customers than any other team. The Trojans played ten games before 563,000 spectators, an increase of nearly 90,000 over last year's total for nine games. They have one more game to play this Saturday so that the 600,000 mark in attendance for one team may be passed for the first time in football history.

Navy was in front in the East with an estimated $50,000 turnout for its complete schedule. Notre Dame topped the list again in the Middle West, with an aggregate of 382,000 but this is a decline from last year's figure of 441,000. Army, with a total of 322,700, was the only other team on the list to pass the 300,000 mark in aggregate attendance.

The season's biggest single game attendance, 93,508 for the Michigan-Ohio State contest at Ann Arbor, set a new high mark for the Big Ten. Other capacity or near-capacity turnouts were 90,000 for Southern California-Stanford at Los Angeles, 79,000 for Army-Navy at Phil-

Frogs Expect Much of Former Harvester

Here are four Horned Frog sophomores who have not only played great football this season, but are being counted on to carry on the tradition of great lines at Texas Christian university. The combined weight of the four is 825 pounds, which is a figure large enough to interest any line coach. Grosseclose, former Abilene high star, and Godwin, all-state man from Hot Springs, Ark., are tackles. Hill, who made a statewide reputation as fullback at Pampa, and Kellow, former Lufkin luminary, are guards. Hill has been out of competition for several weeks because of a broken ankle, but all three of the others saw service against the S. M. U. Mustangs in Fort Worth Saturday.

'RED RAIDER' OF CHILDRESS CALLED BEST BACK IN TEXAS

A FEW TOO MANY
CRYSTAL FALLS, Mich. — After spending a day in the woods, Gus Litchen, game warden, returned to the hunting camp of which he is part owner and found three does and a fawn suspended from trees. He arrested seven of his hunting companions for violating the "one buck" law.

Miss Hazel Massey of Canadian spent yesterday with friends in Pampa.

Philadelphia and 76,000 for Army-Notre Dame at New York.

The Kansas-Nebraska game attracted 31,000, biggest crowd in the Big Six since 1928 and these two colleges established all-time records for total attendance during the season, the Huskers, in five home games, played before 111,343 customers.

Although the South and Southwest districts failed to show gains comparable to the rest of the major football areas, the recovery was strongly manifest in the Rocky Mountains. The University of Denver set a new record for total attendance, 96,883 for nine games, while Utah enjoyed the greatest yielding part of its claim to the conference championship.

Among the few declines reported in attendance, besides Notre Dame, were those at New York university, Pennsylvania, Northwestern, Wisconsin, Vanderbilt, North Carolina State, Colorado college, Texas, Virginia Tech.

Attendance at the University of Texas was 32,387 this season against 43,636 in 1932.

Coach Jefferies of the Wichita Falls team calls him the best high school back he has seen. Coach Weir of Vernon says practically the same thing.

But Friday when the defending Corsicana Tigers go into combat against San Antonio Brackenridge, and when Brownsville battles Corpus Christi in another bi-district elimination championship game—the "Red Raider" will remain at the landing field.

And Saturday when Abilene clashes with Pampa, San Angelo takes on Bowie of El Paso, Dallas Highland Park plays Wichita Falls, Fort Worth Central tackles Dallas Tech, Tyler plows against Greenville, and Port Arthur goes against Houston San Jacinto—The "Red Raider" who struck like lightning—who scored 124 points, and who gave the Wichita Falls Coyotes a chill in their crucial championship game when he tore through for 58 yards and a touchdown, will be the man in the shadow—waiting to make his final bid for stardom—a place on the mythical all-state team.

WHITLOW MAY FIND EQUAL IN CHIEF PARRIS

TWO 4-ROUND FIGHTS TO OPEN BOXING PROGRAM

Eugene Parris, Oklahoma's fighting Indian, will go on the warpath at the Pla-Mor auditorium tomorrow night.

His intended victim will be Allen Whitlow, local favorite, whom he will meet in the 10-round main event of Promoter B. W. Kelly's boxing show which will start at 8:15 o'clock. Instead of using a tcmahawk, Parris will go after Whitlow with padded gloves on each hand, which he intends to throw fast and often from all angles at the elusive, but hard-hitting Whitlow.

Whitlow has defeated the majority of junior lightweights in the country, while Parris is just stepping into the limelight. "It will be my big chance to get somewhere in the fight game if I can beat Whitlow, and I will be in there throwing leather for all I'm worth," Parris wrote a friend here after he had signed his contract to meet Whitlow. The Indian really got started on the ladder of fame when he defeated Chief Cree in Oklahoma City a few weeks ago.

Whitlow has been in Pampa more than a week and is in excellent condition. Whitlow has been boxing in Illinois and Missouri for several months. He came here to get used to the climate. He has much respect for Parris. The two boys are unknown to each other, but both have defeated several topnotchers in their class. Whitlow will weigh about 133 pounds while Parris will be four pounds heavier.

Parris has arranged a good supporting card. Dick Hedgespeth, hard hitting Perryton boy, will meet Mickey Dunivan of Springfield, Mo., in a six round semi-final. Both boys will weigh about 155 pounds. They are hard hitters and aggressive fighters.

Two good four-round fights will open the card. Eddie Zlittis, well known in the local ring, will meet Murrell Reams of Fort Worth in one of the bouts and Kid Stamper, local boy, will clash with Dick Whittington, brother of the late Fred Whittington, the opener.

Advance sale of serve seat tickets has been greater than for any fight this year. Tickets are on sale at the City Drug store for 75 cents. General admission will be 40 cents.

CLYDE LITTLEFIELD RESIGNS AS TEXAS' HEAD GRID COACH

Will Be Retained as Track Coach; Refuses Offer to Coach in 1934-35.

AUSTIN, Dec. 6 (AP)—Clyde Littlefield has relinquished his job as head football coach at the University of Texas, after seven years of piloting the Longhorns, in which they won two Southwest conference gridiron championships and placed second twice.

In a secret session of the university athletic council last night, the council recommended the renewal of his contract for the years 1934-35, but Littlefield, after expressing appreciation of the action, asked that "under the present circumstances" he be relieved of his duties at football coach.

The council, however, acceded to his request that he be retained as track coach—track squads coached by him have won seven Southwest conference meets.

No action was taken immediately on the selection of a football coach to succeed Littlefield and, although Dr. W. E. Metzger, chairman of the council, said it had "four or five coaches in mind," he predicted that no selection would be made until after the national coaches' meeting to be held in New York the latter part of this month.

STORM TROOPERS ARE HITLER'S WATCH-DOGS AND THEY DOMINATE EVERY BRANCH OF GERMAN LIFE

Ernst Roehm Is Next To Chancellor In Power

Editor's note: The Pampa Daily NEWS herewith presents the first of a series of four stories which go to the bottom of Chancellor Hitler's revolutionary construction program for Germany.

By LOUIS P. LOCHNE Associated Press Foreign Staff BERLIN, Dec. 5. (AP)—A clear path to a 100-per cent Nazi Germany is seen by Chancellor Adolf Hitler as a result of the endorsement of 93 per cent of the electorate given him in the unusual election of November 12. While the Reichstag still will contain a sprinkling of non-party members, for all practical purposes the Nazis are in an absolute control. The Reichstag will be not a deliberative body, but a rubber-stamp institution. Even before the election result was known, Hitler had instituted the arrangement of putting special "SA" and "SS" men (brown and black storm troopers) into all government offices. Their job is to watch both the bureaucracy and local or state leaders who might have ambitions of their own—with a view to making them toe the Nazi mark. Hitler has by no means wiped out the whole bureaucracy of pre-Nazi days. He has attempted to use the experience, technical equipment and proverbial fidelity of German petty officialdom for building the new state. However, he has found that the bureaucrat, while faithfully serving every government—from monarchist to socialist, from democratic to Nazi—at the same time clings tenaciously to practices hoary with age. The storm troop office "Z. B. V., as they are known, or literally, "Zur besonderen Verwendung," meaning "on special assignment," are Hitler's watch-dogs in the various government offices. They see that bureaucracy conducts its work in what is termed the Nazi spirit. The "Z. B. V." is not there to run the office himself—he is there to advise and to warn the official if he strays from the Nazi path. It is for this reason that the "Z. B. V.'s" have been subordinated, not to state authorities or even Reich's ministers, but to Ernst Roehm, chief of staff of Hitler's political army, embracing three million "SA," "SS" and Stahlhelm members. Roehm is responsible to one man alone—to Adolf Hitler. He is, next to Hitler, the most powerful man in Germany today. "Roehm is the guarantor of the Nazi revolution," one of his chief lieutenants told the Associated Press. "He is the only man in Germany who says 'du' (the familiar form of 'you' in German) to our leader. The leader knows he can depend upon him." H. G. Coffee of White Deer was a Pampa visitor last night.

DIE IN STORM

SEATTLE, Dec. 6. (AP)—Two storm deaths were marked up today as rains, high winds and snow swept the Pacific northwest. Struck down by an automobile in a driving rain and strong wind last night at Burlington, Eimer L. Wilson, 72, president of the First National Bank of Burlington, was killed. The driver of the car was exonerated.

RAID AT LEFORS

Officers of the sheriff's department arrested L. Strong at LeFors last night and charged him with possession of intoxicating liquor for sale in arraignment in Justice W. S. Baxter's court. He made $500 bond. A small amount of whisky was seized.

Mrs. G. L. Lunsford and baby son, James Harold, returned home from Pampa hospital yesterday.
