PRECISION

BAYTOWN, Tex. (UPI) — L. J. "Bud" Marsh, operator of a 45-ton crawler crane at Humble Oil and Refining Co.'s refinery, is a precise worker — but he was particularly "eggsac" on one project.

During the time it took for the crane to complete a tank roofing project, a couple of scissor-tailed flycatchers made their home in the 120-foot boom of the crane. But while the boom swung back and forth hoisting heavy steel boiler-plate sections into place, not an egg was lost from the four laid in the nest.

STEAL FLOOR POLISHER

Foreign Commentary

By DAVID DUGAS

United Press International
CAIRO (UPI) — Iraqi President Abdul Salam Aref was in a strange position this week when he tried, unsuccessfully, to bring the United Arab Republic into a tripartite union with Baghdad and Syria.

On one hand he had long been considered an ardent supporter of his host, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the U.A.R., but he is now titular head of an anti-Nasser Baghdad government controlled by the Baath party.

Iraq, Syria and Egypt signed an agreement here last April 17 pledging federation of their three countries within six months. Nasser pulled out of the pact last month claiming the Baathists had set up one-party dictatorships in Syria and Iraq and had ignored his insistence that other nationalist elements (including his own supporters) be included in their governments.

On Monday, Nasser made it clear to Aref that he wanted no part of the union.

The Baathists in both Damascus and Baghdad accused Nasser in turn of trying to dominate the proposed federation.

Baghdad Radio said Aref's visit to Cairo "gives rise to hopes for pulling a gun on Kassem. He was sentenced to death but Kassem spared his life and in 1961 set him free.

Aref remained in obscurity until the army revolt that overthrew Kassem Feb. 8. The new rebels, mostly then unknown members of the Baath party, quickly chose him as president of the republic. One of his first acts was to refuse Kassem sale passage out of the country. Shortly afterwards Kassem was captured and executed.

Aref is almost the only prominent figure in the present Iraqi government who is not a Baathist. Baath party members make up most of the rest of the delegation that accompanied him here.

Aref was considered a loyal and trusted officer of Iraq's Hashemite monarchy until July 14, 1958, when he and Kassem led the overthrow of King Faisal II. It was Aref who led his forces into Baghdad that morning while Kassem waited on the capital's outskirts.

The older Kassem named Aref his deputy premier in the new Iraqi republican regime but Aref soon earned Kassem's disfavor by his personal campaigning for Iraq's inclusion in the then recently formed union of Egypt and Syria.

Kassem banished Aref to the Iraqi embassy in Bonn but Aref turned around en route and returned to Baghdad. There he was arrested — allegedly for pulling a gun on Kassem. He was sentenced to death but Kassem spared his life and in 1961 set him free.

QUIET EVENING
NEW YORK (UPI) — A new twist in fund raising was tried at a medical research foundation in Chicago recently, says Card Commentary, when 500 families with a sense of humor gave $100 each to enjoy a Quiet Evening at Home. Promoters of the scheme figured that these 500 families would save $225 each by NOT going to a benefit ball (new gown, baby sitter, parking fee, etc.). Before dinner time, each contributing family received a bottle of champagne, a deck of cards and a score pad to provide a party night for the stay-at-homes.

Minor Accident Start, Ends in Death of Child

GRAND PRAIRIE, Tex. (UPI) — Robert McCoy, 26, failed to pull off the road after a minor traffic accident Friday night and it cost the life of his three-year-old daughter, Connie Lou.

A car driven by a 17-year-old girl collided with the back of McCoy's car. McCoy stopped his car, where it was hit in a traffic lane and got out to see what the damage was.

The girl driver pulled off the road. She said McCoy told her the damage was small and she went to get her brother. While McCoy was standing beside his car, an automobile driven by Hollis Young (Rte. 6), Dallas, hit his car a second time in the rear.

The driverless McCoy car plunged into a westbound traffic lane where an automobile driven by Alice Holderby, 20, Dallas hit it broadside.

Connie Lou was fatally injured. Her mother, Mrs. Lucille McCoy, 26, and her five-year-old brother, Bobby, were critically injured. Connie Lou's father, Young, and Miss Holderby were treated at a hospital and released.

The 17-year-old girl turned up long after the accident to tell about her role.

She said that while she was getting her brother the other collisions happened and she did not know anything about them or that she was wanted until she heard about it on television.

Making An Air Thermometer

You can easily make an air thermometer by following these simple directions from the Young People's Science Encyclopedia:

1. Locate two empty ink bottles or similar containers. Purchase a one-holed stopper for one of the bottles, or make one by drilling a hole in the center of a cork. It will be necessary to put wax around the hole after a piece of glass tubing has been inserted to make the bottle airtight.
2. Fill the second bottle with colored water. Invert the bottle with the stopper over the second bottle, and immerse the end of the glass tube into the solution.
3. Fasten this apparatus to a wooden support.
4. A scale may be calibrated from the readings of a commercial thermometer. When the temperature drops, does the fluid go up or come down in the tube? Does it expand or contract when it gets colder?

Center Wrap-Up

George Smith Director
Pampa Youth and Community Center

Featured at the Center this year are several clinics for boys and girls who are interested in learning to play basketball. Yes, girls too. During the week-days George Smith, Center director, will be conducting classes for grade school, Junior High and Senior High age boys and girls. Fundamental basketball will be taught so that boys and girls might know how to play basketball and let them enjoy the game more abundantly.

On Saturday mornings, for boys only, coaches Culley and Keavill will conduct a basketball clinic. This will be for boys who are not interested in football and will run from 9-10:30 each Saturday. Our high school coaches are very sincere in their offer to help any boy interested in basketball. As long as one boy shows up Coach Culley says the clinic will go on. Assisting him will be some of the fighting Harvesters.

The activities offered are varied and appealing to all age groups. Offered is tennis, badminton; basketball, volleyball, shuffleboard, boxing, wrestling, judo, tumbling, trampoline, ping-pong, pool, and several quiet games such as cards, dominoes, checkers, chess, scrabble, and many others.

Another change at the Center is the rearrangement of the meeting room. The shelves have been removed, nice chairs installed from the recreation room and the TV has been placed in the room. This makes a nice meeting, reading and TV room. Several magazines are available for your use.

The Center calls your attention to the trampoline schedule. The trampoline can never be used unless it is properly supervised by Center employees. This is done to protect all interested parties.

Trampoline must be supervised very strictly and will be under the close supervision of the Center. This is why center members may not use the trampoline but as listed on the schedule. It will be under lock and key to insure the policy.

CONNIE BURDICK
... new sales manager

New Sales Manager Is Named

Morris Fell of the Bradford Co., Tulsa, Okla., has announced the appointment of Connie Burdick of Tulsa as sales manager for the firm's cement pipe lining operations.

The Bradford Co. specializes in cement lining the inside of pipe for areas where water or product corrosion present a problem. Permanent installations for the process are located in Pampa, Andrews, Tex., Tulsa and Lindsay, Okla.

Burdick joined Bradford in June after five years engineering and sales experience in the cement lining industry. He is a graduate of Oklahoma State University and is working on his master's degree. He will travel in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas territories that are in the company's area of operations.

Fell also announced Fred Branham has been named superintendent of all plant and field operations and Ben Springer will assist Burdick as sales coordinator.

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI) — A new castorbean variety called "Lynn" has been landing high yields for farmers.

Texas A & M College said its Agricultural Experiment station and the U. S. Department of Agriculture developed Lynn under a cooperative research program. Developers of the new variety report yields on the Texas High Plains have ranged from 2,200 to 3,400 pounds an acre in field trials. Lynn has also been a high yielder in Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska trials.

MIGHTY MOLEULE

CHICAGO (UPI) — Molecules of hydrogen gas actually can crack hardened steel, says Alloy Rods Company. Hydrogen present in gas around a welding arc is turned loose in the steel as individual atoms which diffuse through pores in the metal then unite to form molecular hydrogen. Since the hardened steel cannot stretch to relieve the pressure of the expanding hydrogen, enough accumulated gas will crack it.

Judge Issues Warnings Against Wildcat Strike

CHICAGO (UPI)—A U.S. district court judge today issued a stern warning against any plans to stage a wildcat ground crew strike against United Air Lines Friday.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry extended a temporary restraining order banning any walkout after he was told strike pickets were already being distributed at Chicago's O'Hare International airport.

"If there is defiance of a court order, these men are headed for being discharged from their jobs," the judge said.

Mechanics and ground crewmen belonging to the International Association of Machinists (IAM) went on strike Aug. 21 against United at airports from New York to Portland, Ore.

The strike was stopped when U.S. district court Judge Bernard Decker issued a restraining order effective until Friday. At that time, a federal court was to hear arguments on United's request for a preliminary injunction.

The union came into court early today asking that the order be vacated and United attorney Stuart Bernstein restored with a charge that strike notices were being distributed at that moment.

Perry told IAM attorney Louis Poulton "I know you give the assurance that the union will not call a strike, but discipline is required here and you take that back to the men."

He then extended the restraining order banning any walkout until 6 p.m. Sept. 5.

The one-day strike last week forced United, the nation's largest domestic air carrier, to cancel more than a dozen flights originating in Cleveland, Seattle, Portland and Denver. There were other delays ranging from 15 minutes to several hours across the nation.

MORTGAGED

NEW YORK (UPI) — Want a good bet? Next time five home owners under 45 years old congregate, the chances are that four of them will be paying off mortgages.

They will be among some 9 million heads of families in their age group living in mortgaged single-family houses. This information comes from William J. Levitt, president of Levitt and Sons, Inc., who says "the young man with a mortgage on his home is right in step with the housing economy of our times."

HOUSING GOAL

NEW YORK (UPI) — About 17 million new homes will be needed during the 1960's to maintain present U. S. housing standards, according to housing authorities at Allied Chemical's Barrett Division. About 75 per cent of the houses will be roofed with asphalt shingle and 80 per cent will have interior drywall construction.

CRIME CLOCKS 1962

TIME FOR CRIME—A total of 2,048,370 crimes of murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and auto theft were committed in America last year, according to the FBI's annual Uniform Crime Reports. There were 525,600 minutes in the year. Divided by the number of crimes, the result is the "crime clocks" in chart above.

Spotlighting Servicemen

First Lieut. James H. Ayres of Pampa, was one of the top marksmen who represented the United States Air Force in the National Rifle and Pistol matches held at Camp Perry, Ohio this month.

The lieutenant is a pilot permanently assigned to James Connelly AFB, Tex.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ayres of 923 E. Browning, he received his B.S. degree in mechanical engineering from Texas Technical College, Lubok. Ayres is married to the former Brenda J. Stephenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perkins of Tracy, Calif.

Lieut. Col. Hubert W. Ogilvy, son of Mrs. Jo-Able de Lefors, has joined the staff of Headquarters, United States Continental Army Command (USCONARC) at Fort Monroe, Va.

Col. Ogilvy came to Fort Monroe from Fort Leavenworth, Kans., where he was a student at the Command and General Staff College. He has been assigned to the Office, Deputy Chief of Staff for Individual Training, (USCONARC), the army's largest single command, which has the responsibility for United States ground defense.

He was graduated from Burk Burnett High School, Burk Burnett, Tex., and from Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, College Station.

TRAIL CONTRACT

TAOS, N. M. (UPI) — An unusual road contract to be let this fall calls for construction of a trail eight miles long and three feet wide on the Wheeler Wild Area in the Carson National Forest.

Forest supervisor George Proctor said usually such work is done by the U. S. Forest Service, but the trail is being constructed to help the local economy. The trails are used by hikers and horsemen. No vehicles are allowed. Expected cost of the work is about $27,000.

FADE THEM OUT

Weathered brown spots on the surface of your hands and face tell the world you're getting old—perhaps before you really are. Fade them away with new ESOTERICA, that medicated cream that breaks up masses of pigment on the skin, makes hands look white and young again. Equally effective on the face, neck and arms. Not a cover-up. Acts in the skin—not on it. Fragrant, greaseless base for softening, lubricating skin as it clears up these blemishes. At leading drug and toiletry counters $2 plus tax. If you have these age-revealing brown spots, blotches, or if you want clearer, lighter skin, use ESOTERICA.

DANCE OF LIFE—Dancing red beads suspended in a plastic tube can alert anyone to radioactive fallout in the atmosphere. In new detection device shown above, the beads are usually held in suspension by static electricity produced when the instrument is gently shaken. But if any radioactivity is present, the static electricity is neutralized and the beads fall to the bottom of the tube.

Darkness Halts TOT 1st Round

Darkness closed out the first round of the 26th annual Top O' Texas Tournament at the Pampa Country Club and halted action of three four-somes, including most of the favored contenders in the championship flight, postponing the winning of medalist honors until this morning.

Caught on the 16th hole was the foursome containing the top two favorites in the tournament. Last year's runner-up John Paul Cain of Houston and University of Houston ace Marty Fleckman. Also in the quartet were highly-regarded Max Hickey of Pampa and Jerry Abbott. Cain had been three or four strokes under par going into the 16th.

Caught on the 17th hole by nightfall were two other top contenders, John Parquhar of Amarillo and Rives McBee of Denton, along with Jack Williams and Don Kaplan. Symmed on the 18th hole were Buster Carter of Pampa, Eugene Mitchell, Hugh Rufford and Bobby Sanders.

The three groups will finish their rounds at 9 a.m. this morning and will tee-off for the second 18 holes at 10:30.

Currently leading in the race for medalist honors is Steve Le. One of Texas' best, with a two-under-par 34-35-69. One stroke behind him is Jimmie Lee, who while four players are bunched at 71—Jack Foster of Pampa, Eugene Mitchell of the University of Texas, Mike Norman of Tulsa, U. and Cameron Roach of Amarillo.

Butts Lawyer Attacks Post After Motion

ATLANTA (UPI) — The Saturday Evening Post's move to upset a $1,000,000 libel judgment was attacked Saturday as "reckless and irrelevant" by an attorney for former Georgia coach Wallace Butts.

The Post motion for a new trial reveals the same malice the jury already has condemned. Attorney William Schroeder said in a statement. "More reckless and irrelevant charges made under the guise of court procedure only deepens the magazine's libel."

In asking for a new trial, the Post charged that the court erred in excluding evidence dealing with an alleged woman companion of Butts. The magazine said such evidence was relevant in order to refute Butts' testimony that he had never done anything that would injure the University of Georgia.

A federal court jury returned its judgment against the Post Aug. 20 in a $10 million libel suit sought by Butts. The former coaching great contended he was libeled by a Post article in March that said he gave vital Georgia football secrets to rival Alabama before the two teams played last year. Alabama won 35-0.

Dragsters Top Speed Records

SMITHFIELD, Tex. (UPI) — Two dragsters surpassed the existing A-fuel class speed records at the American Hot Rod Association's annual fall-national championship Saturday.

The Stelligs & Hampshire car, driven by Jeep Hampshire of Los Angeles, Calif., turned the quarter mile strip at Green Valley Raceway in 8.35 seconds and was clocked at 208.32 miles per hour.

Connie Swingle, driving the Duet - Swingle Swamptr III from Houma, La., was clocked in 8.29 seconds and 207.36 miles per hour compared with the recognized mark of 196.40 set last February by Bob Sullivan of Muncie, Kan.

The speeds are unofficial until the drivers back them up with another run within two percent of the record clockings.

FISHY GOAT STORY

TRENTO, Italy (UPI) — Fisherman Nicolo Simon, 35, caught an 80-pound mountain goat Saturday. Simon was fishing in a mountain stream when the goat fell from a ledge and was killed. He hauled it out with his tackle.

BREAKING OUT — Smashing through as the 1953 football season opens are star Pampa linemen, Donnie Rexroad (left) and Ricky Goodwin, while quarterback Kenny Hebert socks the ball to onrushing speedy Eugene "The Bandit" Madrid. The quartet are expected to bear the brunt of the offense as Pampa goes into District 3-AAAA action this season. (See story on page 7).

248 Games Will Open Football Season This Coming Friday

By United Press International — Graduation weakened state champions Jackboro of Class AA and Rotan of Class A make their debuts next week when the Texas Interscholastic League's far-flung high school football campaign gets underway with a 248-game program on Friday night.

Teams from every division but Class AAAA will be in action on the opening weekend, but competition will be fairly limited in Class AAAA where only 37 games are scheduled.

Class AAAA teams, which have spring training and were not allowed to start practice until this past week, will not start competition until a week later.

Jackboro, with only two regulars among its 15 lettermen, will open against perennially-dangerous Class AAA Breckenridge, while Rotan — returning only three regulars — hosts Class AA Hamlin.

Class AAAA titlist Dumas, with 16 lettermen and four regulars around which to build what looms as another title contender, won't start play until Sept. 14 when the Demons play Amarillo Palo Duro.

Top game in the state the first weekend will be unreeled at McKinney, where the always-tough Lions will entertain Hurst-Bell in a repeat of their state playoff game of a year ago.

But, state finalist Pharr-San Juan-Alamo, again a title threat, will also figure in one of the inaugural main events when the Lower Rio Grande Valley team travels all the way up the coast to meet rugged Nederland.

The AAAA slate also finds San Antonio Sam Houston and South San Antonio, both district favorites, colliding in the opener.

McKinley Wins First Despite Back Injury

By STEVE SNIDER UPI Sports Writer FORK HILLS, N.Y. (UPI) — Wimbledon champion Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., slowed to half his normal speed by a painful back injury suffered in the first set, fought grimly from behind Saturday and defeated sharpshooting Eduardo Zuleta of Ecuador in the first round of the U.S. tennis championships, 4-6, 3-6, 8-6, 6-3, 6-1.

Crippled by muscle spasms after executing a routine backhand shot in the sixth game of the match, McKinley obviously was in distress but after medical treatment between the third and fourth sets he stormed back with confidence the injury was not permanent and quickly ran out the victory.

"He pulled a muscle in his back, low on the right side," said Dr. Charles Blair, who treated him in the players' rest shack under the stands during the third set intermission. "I gave him a muscle relaxant and a pain killer."

Fourth-seeded Rafael Osuna of Mexico, seventh-seeded Gene Scott of St. James, N.Y., and eighth-seeded Hamilton Richardson of Dallas all rolled into the second round with 'straight set' victories.

Defending champion Margaret Smith of Australia and second-seeded Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., runner-up last year, moved into the third round of women's singles, along with seventh-seeded Christine Truman of England.

Osuna, a stish Davis Cupper who defeated McKinley in the recent cup series at Los Angeles, had to call up all his savvy to down 18-year-old Jean Rouyer of France, 6-1, 8-6, 6-3.

Quarter Race At Ruidoso

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N. M. (UPI) — The richest single-track quarterhorse race in the world will be run here Monday but it will take only a matter of seconds.

For not only is the fifth annual All-American futurity one of the richest races in the world, it is one of the shortest—400 yards.

The horses, including three unbeaten juveniles, will parade to the post in this mountainous resort town for the highlight of the 1963 season, which ends next weekend.

A capacity crowd is expected, including a liberal sprinkling of Hollywood stars.

Gross value of the futurity is $284,915, making it the richest single track-sponsored quarterhorse race in the world.

White Sox Back In Second Place

Chisox Homers Down Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS-St. PAUL (UPI) — Consecutive ninth-inning homers by Jim Landis and Floyd Robinson Saturday paced the Chicago White Sox to a 2-0 win over the Minnesota Twins and a return to second place in the American League.

The homers ruined the stout pitching effort of Dick Stigman, who had a three-hitter going into the final frame.

Landis led off the inning with his 12th homer of the season and Robinson picked on the next pitch for his eighth.

Detroit Squeezes Win Over Tribe

CLEVELAND (UPI) — The Detroit Tigers rallied for three runs in the ninth inning to beat the Cleveland Indians, 9-8, Saturday with the winning run scoring on Bubba Phillips' "suicide" squeeze bunt.

Catcher Bill Freehan hit two homers for the Tigers, who gained their ninth win in the last 10 games, but they trailed, 8-6, with one out in the ninth inning when Norm Cash singled with the bases loaded to drive in two runs and tie the score.

Then, with baserunner George Thomas racing from third base in an all-or-nothing effort, Phillips laid down a bunt in front of the plate. Thomas was across the plate before the ball was fielded and Phillips reached first with a single.

Cincy Blanks Pirates, 6-0

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Southpaw Jim O'Toole picked up his 17th victory and first two runs batted in of the season Saturday as the Cincinnati Reds blanked the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-0.

O'Toole allowed four hits in the six innings he worked. He was pulled in the seventh when his arm stiffened and Don Zanni pitched the final three frames.

O'Toole's bases loaded single in the fourth inning counted two Red runs. Tommy Harper drove in two more with a third-inning single and a lead-off into the park homer in the seventh.

Defending champion Margaret Smith of Australia and second-seeded Darlene Hard of Long Beach, Calif., runner-up last year, moved into the third round of women's singles, along with seventh-seeded Christine Truman of England.

Osuna, a stish Davis Cupper who defeated McKinley in the recent cup series at Los Angeles, had to call up all his savvy to down 18-year-old Jean Rouyer of France, 6-1, 8-6, 6-3.

Bill Cross Moves Up At Western

EL PASO (UPI) — Bill Cross, who at 5-6 and 155 pounds was one of the early "mighty mites" of pro football fame with the Chicago Cardinals, Saturday was promoted to assistant athletic director at Texas Western College.

Cross, defensive backfield coach last season, succeeds Billy Bob Plumbley, who resigned to join the Ysleta High School system.

The tiny halfback starred at Canadian, Tex. High School and West Texas State College before going to the Cardinals in the early 1950s.

Cardinals Win In 11th Frame

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Ken Boyer's 19th homer to the roof of the leftfield stands in the 11th inning gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 7-5 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies Saturday.

The winning rally was started by Dick Groat with a single to center off loser Johnny Klippstein. After Bill White flied out, Boyer unloaded his homer, his third extra-base hit of the game.

The Cards were sailing along with a 5-3 lead going into the ninth when Ernie Broglio hurling a four-hitter, Roy Sievers was hit by a pitched ball to open the inning and then Gay Dalmryple walloped his ninth-homer to send the game into overtime.

Harvester Home Game Tix Sell

Season tickets to Pampa Harvester football games are currently on sale at the School Business Office at Pampa Junior High.

Business manager Homer Craig announced that a book of tickets to Pampa's five home games — Phillips Sept. 20, Tascosa Oct. 4, Monterey Oct. 18, Amarillo Nov. 8 and Borger Nov. 23, will cost $7.50.

"We have sold more seats already than at any similar time in the past six years," said Craig, "and those wanting choice seats are advised to get them as quickly as possible. There are still some seats available in the 'M' section (between the 40-yard lines) but I don't expect them to last too long. All seats are reserved, and season ticket holders are entitled to choice of seats in following years."

Harvester Coaches Pleased With First Football Workout Despite Bad Weather

Pampa High football coach Otis Holladay and his assistants declared themselves well pleased with Friday's opening football workouts, despite heavy rains that drove the Harvesters and Shockers from the field at one point, and left the ground slippery and difficult to run on.

"I am well pleased, despite the rain," said Holladay. "If the ground had been dry, I think the scrimmage would really have opened people's eyes. The boys looked very good in their first workout."

Assistant Brown Smith declared "we got a lot more done than we thought we would, in spite of the rain." Ray Howard said "the boys really had fun in the workout. They enjoyed it and they did a lot of good work."

Coach Earl Ramsey stated that perhaps the rain was a blessing in disguise. It really cooled things off and it enabled the boys to last longer on a hot day.

Fifty-one hopefuls came out for the varsity, which lost two players before the season started. Clive Seymour, 165-pounder who came for the first time in spring training, had impressed at full back and was slated to be a regular in the Harvesters' plans. Seymour's family, however, moved to Amarillo during the summer, and Clive may wind up wearing the uniform of ancient rival, Amarillo High this season. A returning starter, 190-pound guard Keith Reimer, also was lost to the team through scholastic ineligibility.

Two sophomores and a number of former Carver High athletes impressed in the workouts and bid fair to take up the slack. Contending for Seymour's spot are 155-pound sophomore Lewis Meers and 145-pound Derrel Cash. Both impressed the coaches with their quickness, and may share action with Red Griffith.

Billy Quarles, 220-pound, 6-1 sophomore, put in a bid for a tackle berth and impressed. Jesse Washington, all-around athlete at Carver, was tried out at both end and defensive halfback. "Although he has had no experience, we were impressed with his reactions, and the way he caught on," said Holladay.

Howard pointed out 150-pound junior Larry Watson as one of the youngsters who impressed him. Looking good as a punting guard, Ramsey, working with the quarterbacks, said that both Larry Johnson and Kyle Johnson looked impressive. Johnson, understudy to Kenny Hebert, handled the ball well, and ran his plays nicely. Vann, who worked out at the position for the first time this spring, has caught on excellently and looked good.

Ramsey and Holladay also praised Ronnie Oler's work at tailback, and Holladay expressed himself as very, very pleased with the work of Jerry Garrison at wingback.

Perry Thompson at defensive tackle was a standout in Howard's book, while other linemen coming in for praise from Howard and Smith included offensive tackle Gary Thurman and guard Bill Campaigne. End Mike Bridges showed improvement, they reported, and Jim Arthur looked like an outstanding candidate for the starting-center's berth.

Despite 57 good-looking candidates for the B team, coaches Don Myers and Norm Phillips sounded like the misery twins. "Pitiful condition," moaned Phillips, and "pretty bad shape," echoed Myers.

"The rain and no spring training hurt our timing," mourned Phillips. "It's too soon to tell anything," insisted Myers.

The two stopped their Jack Benny-Fred Allen routine long enough to admit that the B team hadn't really looked that bad, and, although it was too soon to single out any individuals, there was a possibility of the Shockers providing several varsity candidates before the season ended. The players' attitude was good, even in the rain and the spore drills, admitted the pair.

It was painfully felt by Brown Smith, the Harvester coach inadvertently wandered too near the Shocker practice, and was promptly dunked in the mud by a hard-hitting and over-zealous blocker, Smith, a former outstanding lineman at Howard Payne admitted that if a B team boy could dump him as neatly as that, there was definite promise on that team.

Pampa will continue two-a-day practices, with scrimmages in the afternoons, until further notice.

Groom Top Contender for District Honors Return Eight Starters From 1-B Co-Champs

By JEFF COHANE
Pampa News Sports Editor

GROOM — "Groom is always tough", is the comment of every football coach in the Top O' Texas area, and this year appears to be no exception, as the Groom Tigers return eight starters and one of the biggest backfields in Class B ball from last year's district 1-B co-champions.

New coach "Sobbin' Jack" York, although bidding fair to eclipse Dunnie Goode of Lefors, Colie Huffman of White Deer and Johnny James of Clarendon as the area's worst blues-cryer, is forced to admit that the Tigers will be a point-threat to Wheeler in the district race. In 1962, the Tigers swept through loop play and then lost a 6-0 squeaker to the Mustangs, tying for the title, with Wheeler representing the district on the basis of that win.

Last year the Tigers ran up a 5-5 season record as they opened a season with five straight Class A powerhouses, losing 31-0 to Lefors, 24-0 in an abbreviated game to Gruver, 24-8 to McLean and 12-6 to Panhandle, then upsetting Clarendon 21-6 and beating Vega. The Tigers downed Claude, 15-4, Follett, 29-8, lost to Wheeler and finished off Texline, 36-6.

York explains the switch as being able to have a double-barreled passing attack and take fuller advantage of Craig's speed. "With this attack, Craig can still do plenty of passing, and we'll be able to run him more than as a T-quarterback. Roberts has great potential," and passes well. This way we'll have two passers in the backfield, more running opportunities, and two big men as well."

Two comparative lightweights will be bidding for the other half-back post, letterman junior Alton Vaughn, 145, and junior Keith Black, 150. Both are speed merchants, especially Vaughn, an outstanding dash man.

All - State? The smiling-faced but sad-talking York is admittedly high on his fullback, Jerry Quirk, who could be an All-State candidate. A two-letter senior, Big Jerry is currently around the 150-pound mark, but is expected to be between 180 and 185 when the season starts. Quirk, a smashing ballcarrier and a hard-hitting blocker, could go far, says York.

Tommy Talley, 6'0", 155-pound three-letter senior, will be a returning end, having been an outstanding blocker last year. Moving up to the other end will be letterman Terry Cornett, a 150-pound, 5-8 junior, who, despite his lack of height, has the potential to be the best pass receiver on the team. Cornett did Groom's kicking last season.

Tough Tackled
Groom has a pair of outstanding tackles in two returning starters, senior James Koetting and junior Rob Garmon. Koetting, a two-letter senior, carries 170 pounds into the fray, while the 175-pound two-letter junior Garmon is another potential all-honor candidate, the hardest hitter on the team.

Two starters return at guard, Bud Fields, 155-pound, two-letter senior and Larry Lamberson, 150, one-letter junior.

Butch Brown, 150, two-letter senior, returns at center, but is getting hot competition from junior letterman Kenny Babcock, who weighs in at 170.

Eight newcomers will be out for the team, with the outstanding candidates to see varsity action in sophomores guard Glen Britton and freshman tackle Jerry Littlefield.

Can Be Tough
York will be aided this year by two returning Groom coaches, Don Hunt and Bill Dalton, and Arnold King, who comes to the Tigers from Boys' Ranch.

York admitted that the striped cats have excellent size and speed for a Class B team, pointing out that their major weakness was depth. With 24 candidates out for the team however, he appears to match his district foes in manpower. "Our main problem is getting past those first five games," said Sobbin' Jack. "Five A teams in a row is rough, to put it mildly. It's hard to learn if you don't have possession of the ball. If we can get through the first half, however, these boys could be tough."

Groom always is.

Claude second, with Miami, a new school in the conference, a question mark. Our boys should be rated third, and we could upset either Wheeler or Claude if we get the break. Last year we lost 6-0 on Wheeler's field, this year we'll have the home advantage and it could make a difference."

Lots of razzle-dazzle, wide-open play and plenty of passing seem in store for Groom fans, as York admits the Bengals will throw the ball 40 to 50 per cent of the time. York, a former freshman football coach at West Texas, plans to utilize plenty of coach Joe Kerbel's "circus" attack, as well as throwing in a number of formations learned at college coaching. York plans to switch from coach Dwain Currie's wing-T and single-wing offenses to a straight-T basically, but plans plenty of variations along the way.

Potent Passing
In order to utilize a potent passing attack, York is taking a big gamble as he switches an all-district quarterback, Dan Craig, to a left halfback slot. Craig, 155 pounds, a three-letter senior, was an outstanding passer and a potent runner out of the wing. Moving into the quarterback post will be a 6'3", 165-pound sophomore, Jerry Roberts, who was an end last year.

Plowboys Down PP In Tourney

Graham Plow of Amarillo won the championship of the Pampa Invitational Softball Tournament Friday night, topping the Panhandle Packers, 3-1.

Mickey Fletcher won a tight pitching duel with Raymond McKinney as the Packers committed three errors to allow all the Plowboys runs. Fletcher won his fourth straight game in the tournament, having pitched 25 scoreless innings before the Packers tallied in the fifth inning. He allowed three singles, struck out 11 and walked two. McKinney struck out four and walked one, allowing four hits.

Bill Gunner got the first hit of the game when he beat out a squibber to the mound to open the bottom of the third inning. Bobby Schantz followed with a single, moving Gunner to third, where he tied to score on Matty Masiar's grounder, being thrown out at the plate. The Packer defense committed two errors at that point, allowing Schantz and Masiar to score.

Gunner again singled in the fourth and scored on errors. Panhandle threatened in the fifth as Ronnie Mills was safe on an error. McKinney followed with the first Packer hit, moving Mills to third. George Ganit laid down a bunt to score Mills, and moved around first to second when the third baseman misplayed the roller. McKinney tried to come in on the error and was thrown out and got the next two batters.

Panhandle never got a man past first base after that as Fletcher continued his great clutch pitching. Packers 0 0 0 1 0-13
Graham 0 0 2 1 0 0 X-34

Bowling

By MAXINE HAWKINS

A double-singles tournament was held last Tuesday afternoon for junior bowlers. Doubles champions were Charles Clifton and Max Barnhill, posting an 1180. Max rolled a 217 game and Charles a 204. Singles champion was Ernie Gilbert with a 599 handicap score. Trophies were awarded at the close of the sessions.

The winter leagues are now forming, and holding meetings this week and next week. There are openings in many of these leagues. Any interested persons are invited to contact either Garden-Lanes or Harvester Bowl for complete details and to register for league play.

A first for women's bowling in Pampa is the new Classic League. President LaVerne Henson and secretary Irma Beck are contacting women bowlers with averages of 140 and better to form eight three-member teams.

A Labor Day Classic in the form of mixed doubles will be held at Harvester Bowl Monday from 1 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. Contestants may enter anytime before 6:30.

Wayland Will Offer Track

PLAINVIEW (Sp) — This year track will be offered at Wayland for the first time since the school became a four-year college, and perhaps for the first time in Wayland's history.

Coaching the sport will be Vernon Hilliard, former Plainview High School grid coach who went on to the college ranks at McMurry.

"We want any boy who ran track in high school and would like to continue, and even boys who have never participated but who think they would like track," Hilliard says.

He pointed out that Wayland will have no track scholarships available this season, but that in the 1964-65 school year 12 scholarships will be available and boys participating this year will have a crack at them next season.

He asks that any youngster interested in running track, and not yet committed to a particular college, contact him at Wayland.

'Flag-A-Tag' Grid Program Is Scheduled

The "Flag-A-Tag" football program for grade school youngsters will be held for the second year, announced Pampa athletic director Weldon Trice.

The program will be sponsored by the Pampa Kiwanis and Optimist Clubs, and will be for the purpose of teaching youngsters in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades the fundamentals of football.

Boys between nine and 13 years of age are invited to play. "Flag-A-Tag" football is touch football only with no bodily contact. Permission of parents is required to play.

It is hoped to organize 20 teams this season. Registration will be held at the Optimist Boys Club on Sept. 5 and 6 at 7 p.m., and on Sept. 7 from 9-12 noon. All boys who wish to play must register on one of those dates. Boys must bring with them a copy of the form below, which can be clipped from the News and used, or can be obtained at the schools.

The program will start shortly after registration and will run through mid-October.

America's 'Foreign Legion'

By ZANDER HOLLANDER
United Press International

EULDA, Germany (UPI)—They call themselves the "Foreign Legion" but their flag is the Stars and Stripes. They have never defended France in the Sahara or steppes of the Orient. They defend the United States on the free world's border with the Iron Curtain.

This Foreign Legion consists of 105 soldiers of the U.S. Army's 3,000-man 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment guarding a 300-mile stretch of the Communist-barricaded boundary between East and West Germany. They are not American citizens, but they chose to defend the United States by enlisting in its Army.

"The Berlin crisis made up my mind," said PFC. Raul M. Guzman, who enlisted after graduating from high school in Los Angeles three years ago.

Time To Prove It

"I know I had to get military service out of the way sometime," said Guzman, the driver of an armored personnel carrier. "But I figured if America was really going to be my country, that was the time to prove it."

Like almost all the "Foreign Legionnaires" in the 14th, Guzman aims to become an American citizen. So does Spec. 5 Joseph Petri, 23, of Detroit, Mich., a Hungarian freedom fighter who escaped to Yugoslavia when Russian tanks crushed the 1956 revolt and went to the United States.

"Once I'm a citizen," said Petri, crack gunner of an M-60 Patton today. "It should be easier to bring my mother out of Hungary. I'm not married yet but I do want my children to grow up Americans."

From 24 Countries

The 14th's 105 "Foreign Legionnaires" come from 24 far-flung lands including the Pacific isle of Samoa, Estonia, the Ukraine, Norway, South Africa, Guatemala, the Dominican Republic and Switzerland.

Germany was home for most—41. Ten come from Canada, 10 from Mexico and nine from Hungary, most of them like Petri, former freedom-fighters.

Six come from Ireland, six from Italy, five from Britain and two from the Netherlands. The rest are sole representatives of 16 other countries.

Col. Wallace L. Clement of

Cambridge, Mass., commander of the tradition-proud 14th, rates his "Foreign Legionnaires" as "among the best soldiers we've got anywhere in the world."

The Army imposes only one restriction on their service with the 14th: No non-citizen is assigned to the mobile patrols or observation posts which maintain a round-the-clock watch at the border 365 days a year.

The reason: If the Communist ever grabbed a non-citizen in a border incident the United States might not be able to persuade the Russians—and still more the East Germans—to return him, especially if he were born in what is now Communist territory.

Sales Reported Up 5 Per Cent in July

DALLAS (UPI)—The Dallas Federal Reserve Bank reported today that department store sales were up 5 per cent in July in the 11th Federal Reserve District.

Dallas and Houston topped the July increase with a 7 per cent rise. Corpus Christi and El Paso were up 6 per cent. San Antonio was up 2 per cent and Waco was 1 per cent higher.

Fire Destroys Parking Garage

FORT WORTH (UPI)—A three-alarm fire punctuated by explosions swept through a four-story car-parking-garage next to one of Fort Worth's main downtown hotels Friday.

Fire authorities requested ambulances be sent. The blaze was in the Biltmore Garage, a four-story brick building which can hold about 200 cars. The garage houses the exhibits area of the neighboring Hotel Texas.

There was no indication how many cars were in the garage when the fire started. Fire authorities said the blaze began in the basement, where explosions may have been caused by cans of paint and oil.

"Ducks? Ducks? I thought this was a fish restaurant!"

English Clean Up The King's English

By TOM A. CULLEN

Newspaper Enterprise Assn. LONDON (NEA)—Americans who would hear cockney—spoken by the natives had better come running.

For such cockney terms of endearment as "luv," "dearie" and "ducks" are on their way out. So are other forms of familiar "and" "mate."

The Charles Forte chain of restaurants, which is one of Britain's biggest, has forbidden its employees to use any of these expressions in speaking to customers will be addressed as "sir," and "madam."

The argument runs that foreign visitors resent the easy familiarity of the cockney, considering it is sloppy speech. Besides, sloppy speech betokens sloppy service, doesn't it? The waitress who calls you "ducks" is just as apt to have her thumb in your soup when she brings it to the table, isn't she, guv?

The catering firm of J. Lyons, which boasts that it is the world's biggest, opened war on "luv" several years ago, and now claims the word has been stamped out among its employees.

"Now all of our customers are known as 'sir' and 'madam,'" says catering manager Harold Young.

Not all the cockney citadels have fallen into enemy hands, however. The London transport system, for example, remains a notable holdout against officialdom. Its women bus conductors, who are known as "clippies," still address total strangers as "though they were intimate friends."

"That will be one-and-tuppence, luv," says the clippie as she collects your fare. "Next stop is Piccadilly, ducks," she announces in a loud, cheerful voice.

In contrast, British Railways is the soul of aloofness and respectability. It's always, "The train is running an hour behind schedule sir." Or, "I'm so sorry, but all the seats have been booked, madam."

Most Americans to whom I have talked feel that the British are being supersensitive about cockney speech. They welcome the various cockney forms of endearment as coming from a warmhearted, alive people.

One elderly American confesses that every time he comes to London he rides the buses in preference to taxis just in hopes that some clippie will address him as "luv." "When she says 'luv,' it shows she cares, doesn't it, mate?" he says.

BIG TRACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—Not content with having outstripped New York in population, California now is planning to out-Indy Indianapolis—the famous Speedway, that is. According to Car and Driver magazine, a $17 million auto race track will be built conveniently close to Los Angeles and its 13 million auto-oriented residents. Scheduled to be completed in 1965, California's answer to Indianapolis will sprawl over a 731-acre site, will accommodate 250,000 spectators and have parking space for 60,000 cars.

Taylor-Willis Exchange Vows

Mrs. Gerald Edward Willis
(Photo, Quail Studio)

Miss Vickie Sue Taylor and Gerald Edward Willis were married last evening in the Central Baptist Church with Rev. T. O. Upshaw, pastor, reading the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Taylor, 1224 S. Sumner, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Willis, 3708 Caladium Dr. in Dallas.

Jade palms, huckleberry and Grecian urns of white mums flanked the altar with a background of pandelabra holding lighted tapers. The honor pews were marked with white satin bows and white mums. The bridal veil was made of a white cloth which led to a white prie dieu where the couple knelt during the benediction. Mrs. Hugh Sanders, organist, presented the pre-nuptial selections and traditional wedding marches. Hugh Sanders, vocalist sang "Because," "One Hand, One Heart," and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

BRIDE
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of bouquet taffeta fashioned material with attached veiling. She carried white spider-mums entwined with English ivy. John L. Bennett served his brother as best man. Travis Taylor, brother of the bride, and Mike Corbett of Dallas were ushers.

Ringbearer was Dugger Willis, nephew of the bride's groom. Candlelighters were Marshal Johnston, nephew of the bride and Russell Willis, nephew of the bridegroom. Flowergirl, Sabrina Spelec, niece of the bride, wore a white cotton dress of embroidered cotton with an organza overskirt.

Mrs. Taylor wore for her daughter's wedding, a mislaid blue silk dress with matching accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Willis, wore a mauve silk dress with matching accessories and a matching corsage.

Wedding guests attended from Dallas, Houston, San Angelo and Wichita Falls.

RECEPTION

A reception was held immediately following the wedding ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston, 2313 Mary Ellen. Mrs. Bill Spelec, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a floor-length organza cloth centered with a silver epergne holding an arrangement of white mums and English ivy. The wedding cake was divided into three sections being held by trusted columns and was topped by wedding bells. Silver and crystal appointments completed the setting.

Mrs. Travis Taylor, sister-in-law of the bride served the cake and Miss Linda Darnell presided at the punch bowl.

For travel, the bride chose a charcoal silk suit with matching accessories and lifted her orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Dallas following a brief wedding trip.

Mrs. Willis was graduated from Pampa High School and attended Texas Tech. She is presently employed by Martin and Associates in Dallas.

The bridegroom was graduated from Hillcrest High School in Dallas. He attended Texas Tech and will enter North Texas University this fall to continue studies.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES
Pre-nuptial courtesies included a rehearsal dinner hosted by the bridegroom's parents at the Black Gold Restaurant.

Miss Judi Vail and Miss Judy Gordon were hostesses at a noon luncheon at the Coronado Inn and a miscellaneous bridal shower was held in Fellowship Hall of Central Baptist Church.

with a shawl collar and tapered sleeves which came to equal points over the hands. The veiled bride wore a pearl studded lace trim. The bouffant skirt swept to a chapel train. Her bridal veil was elbow length of French silk illusion. It was held by a pearlized Queen's crown. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Prince-Jones Vows Exchanged

Miss Frances Leola Prince and Royce W. Jones were united in marriage at the Calvary Baptist Church Aug. 16 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Rev. Orval See, pastor, performed the single ring ceremony before an altar of white gladioli.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Prince of Pampa and Mrs. Idda Petty of Boswell, Okla.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white brocade sheath dress with a white fur-trimmed jacket. Her small white pill box was attached to a pill box hat. The bridal bouquet was fashioned of white roses tied with white streamers.

Mrs. Carl M. Porter of Sedgewick, Kan., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink jacket-dress trimmed in white fur with matching accessories and a white carnation corsage. Her pink hat was veiled.

J. B. Holt served the bridegroom as best man.

Mrs. Prince chose for her daughter's wedding, a blue crepe two-piece dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held following the wedding in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a white lace. (See PRINCE-JONES, Page 11)

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. A. McCallie. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Check McCallie of Arkansas City, Ark.

Miss Margaret Schulz played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Martha Settiff of Plainview who sang "Bless This House," "Whither Thou Goest," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Yellow dahlias, apple blossoms, and fern were arranged in two bouquets and entwined the candle tree to form the altar setting for the exchange of vows. Pew markers were also of yellow dahlias, apple blossoms, and fern.

BRIDE

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white silk peau de soie fashioned with decollete neckline edged with Alençon lace appliques. The long sleeves of lace tapered to petal points over the hands. Styled dress had alternating lace and gathered back skirt that terminated in a chapel train.

Her veil of illusion was caught by a crown of peau de soie and seed pearls centered with a net rosette embroidered with a row of pearls. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations and palm mums.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Jackie Barnard of Canyon was maid of honor and wore a yellow dress of silk shantung. Bridesmaid was Miss Paula Dean Wimberly. She wore a mint green dress. The attendants' dresses were street-length with full skirts, low ruffled necklines that dipped to V's in the back, short sleeves and carried double bows. They carried bouquets of white feathered carnations and palm mums.

Roy McCallie of White Deer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Don L. Childress of Dallas, brother of the bride, was groomsmen. Serving as candlelighters and ushers were Don Davis and Dean Wyatt of White Deer.

Judy Wisdom was flower girl. She wore a dress of pink organza with full scalloped skirt and a pink shantung.

Gary Woods was ringbearer. The bride's mother chose a beige linen dress with brown accessories. Her pillbox hat shaded from beige to brown. The bridegroom's mother wore an ice blue lace dress with white accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding ceremony, guests were received in Cousins' Hall Reception Room. The bride and groom were seated at the corners with rows of yellow flowers. The three-tiered white wedding cake decorated with yellow was the centerpiece. A small bouquet of yellow flowers and two white candles completed the table arrangements. Appointments were in crystal. Serving the punch and cake were Miss LaVelda Rose and Miss Billy Mayfield of Canyon. Mrs. Bobby Hise of Morority, N.M., cousin of the bride, presided at the guest register. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. Orville Craig, Mrs. Felix Ryals, and Mrs. Glenn Satterwhite, all of White Deer, and Mrs. Raymond Wisdom.

For a wedding trip to Red River, the bride wore a dusty rose embroidered linen sheath dress with a large detachable collar covering the sleeveless, low-necked bodice. Her accessories were white.

The couple will be at home at White Deer, where he is employed by the First Bank and Trust Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of McGehee (Ark.) High School and attended Arkansas A&M.

The bride is a graduate of Tulia High School and West Texas State College where she was a member of Buffalo Gals. This will be her third year to teach first grade in the White Deer School.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bride's grandfather, R. A. Freeman of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cullum, Little Rock, Ark.; Bobby Hise, Morority, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Patterson, Adrian; Mrs. Beulah Henderson and Mrs. A. C. Jack Barnard and Kay Dean of Canyon, and the following of White Deer: Mrs. Roy McCallie, Ray McCallie, Orville Craig and Cara Jean, Felix Ryals and Carolyn, Glenn Satterwhite and children, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Sailor and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Zic Bates, Frank Hawkins, Mrs. Wilma Corneer, Mrs. Lara Wrentham, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Terry, Tom and Tanya Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Samuelson, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson, Mrs. Don Davis, Mrs. Ellen Turner and Gary.

PRE-NUPTIAL COURTESIES

Alter the rehearsal on Thursday night, members of the wedding party and families of the bride and bridegroom were entertained with a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnard in Canyon.

One of the pre-nuptial courtesies extended Miss Childress was a gift tea in the home of Mrs. Guy Young.

An arrangement of yellow roses and white candles centered the serving table laid with white net over yellow. Crystal appointments were used. Miss Vickie Young poured the pineapple punch, and Mrs. Jack Driskill served the cookies.

Mrs. Donald Langston was at the guest register. Mrs. Brasher welcomed guests and presented them to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. A. M. Childress, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Check McCallie of Arkansas City, Ark. A set of stainless steel silver-ware was presented to the bride. (See WHITE DEER, Page 11)

Couple Wed In Pampa Church

Miss Gloria Sue Langford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Langford, 1022 S. Finkner, and Roy Don Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Stephens, 129 S. Nelson, were married Friday in the First Baptist Church with Dr. E. Douglas Carver, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of palms placed on the choir bannister with candelabra on each side. White baskets of gladioli were placed on each side of the kneeling bench. Tapers lighted the scene.

BRIDE
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle and chantilly lace. The bodice was fashioned of chantilly lace over satin and the scalloped neckline was accented by seed pearls. The princess lines of the bodice came to scallops below the waistline. The cap sleeves were also scalloped.

The bouffant skirt of tulle over satin was accented with wide tiers of lace ending in a short train. Lace gloves completed her attire. The bridal veil of silk illusion, designed in Australia, fell from a crown of seed pearls and chantilly lace centered with one white rose and tiny sprays of baby's breath. Her bouquet was made of white roses and carried on a Bible.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Sandra Weatherly was maid of honor. For the wedding she wore a dress of pale orchid prima cotton with a low neckline and bouffant skirt. Her only jewelry was a pearl pendant necklace. She carried a split mum bouquet tied with orchid streamers.

Dressed identical to the maid of honor were the bridesmaids, Miss Judy Stephens, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Elmer Fuggle, sister of the bride. Best man was Jeal Keeton of Tulia. Ushers were Larry Stephens brother of the bridegroom and Terry Brown, cousin of the bride. Groomsmen were Loyd Stephens and Larry Sroud.

Mrs. E. Douglas Carver provided the traditional organ music for the wedding. Vocalist, Miss Candy Noblett, presented the selections, "Whither Thou Goest" and "Wedding Prayer." For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Langford chose a blue silk suit and white and blue accessories. She wore a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Stephens, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue knit dress with beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

RECEPTION
A reception was held in the dining hall of the church with Mrs. Larry Ray registering guests.

The serving table was covered with an orchid colored net cloth, gathered up at the corners with orchids. The centerpiece was formed by a glass candelabra holding three orchid tapers, surrounded by the attendant's bouquets. Mrs. Ed Langford served the cake and Miss Earlene Brown presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting were Meses E. W. Hendrix, Dale Butler, Joe Brown and Roland Davis.

For a short wedding trip, the bride's traveling costume was a navy blue silk suit with yellow accessories. Her corsage of white roses was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Pampa. (See COUPLE WED, Page 11)

Campus Chapel Wedding Scene

Miss Susan Ann Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Kay, of Pampa, and John Paul Brantley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Brantley of Converse, were married Aug. 26 in Robert Carr Chapel on the T.C.U. campus in Fort Worth by the Rev. Byron Banta.

The seventeenth century English style chapel was decorated with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums flanked by palms in the altar cave for the double ring ceremony. Organist, Professor Emmet Smith of T.C.U., provided the wedding selections. The processional was the "Bach Wedding Chorale for Trumpet and Organ." Trumpet soloist was Mack Guderian of T.C.U. The music was compiled of compositions by baroque, romantic and contemporary composers.

BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a fitted sleeveless bodice and floor length skirt, pleated in the front with gathered sides. It was worn with a jacket featuring a shallow scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A white pill box hat and gauntlet-length gloves completed her ensemble. She carried a white Bible topped with stephanotis and pink cymbidium orchids. She also carried a lace handkerchief, gift of her father's sister.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Mary Iva Kay, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale pink street-length afternoon dress with a pink hat and veil, and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and English ivy.

Serving his brother as best man was Daniel Brantley of Waco. (See CAMPUS CHAPEL, Page 10)

Dear Abby... Call A Family Meeting... Not A Lawyer

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: There are eight of us in my family. All married and doing well. I happen to be the oldest, which may explain why I have the dubious honor of paying for everything that should be divided by eight. Our father died over a year ago. I took care of all the arrangements, and paid for the funeral. One sister asked me what her share was. I told her and that was the end of it. (No one else even bothered to ask.) A year later, when the stone was to be put up, I was elected to select it. I did, and it was billed to me. My husband says I should turn THIS bill over to a lawyer and let HIM collect it. I have no income of my own. It's my husband's money I'm spending and I feel terrible. What should I do?

DEAR OLDEST: Call a family meeting and present each member with a bill for his share of the expenses. If you let them know you mean business it won't be necessary to threaten them with legal action.

DEAR ABBY: My cousin recently married a man who holds an HONORARY (yet!) doctor's degree in something that has nothing to do with medicine. It is from a small, unheard-of college with no reputation. Well, when my cousin introduces her husband, she says, "This is DOCTOR—!" And when she refers to him, she calls him "The Doctor." When people first meet him, they naturally assume he is a medical doctor and they start telling him about a skin rash or dizzy spells until he sets them straight. Tell me, is it considered good etiquette to use the "DOCTOR" in introducing him? I'd never say anything to her about it, but I'd like to know for my own information.

DEAR CUZ: Few people who hold honorary doctor's degrees use the title "Doctor." Technically permissible, it is a matter of style. And I'm afraid your cousin hasn't much.

DEAR ABBY: I have lived with my "husband" for over 25 years, but we have never been legally married. We have grown children who think we're married. My "husband" and I can't get along with each other any more and we would like to get rid of each other. I've been true blue all these years, but he sure hasn't. How can we make this separation legal? Do we need a divorce if we have never been married? How can we separate quietly without disgracing our children?

DEAR CONFUSED: Each state has its own laws with regard to "common law marriages." Your local lawyer can advise you how to handle yours.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FRANKLY ENVIIOUS": "Like a jewel of gold in a swine's snout is a beautiful woman lacking in discretion." (Proverbs 11:22).

Double Ring Ceremony Read

BRIDE
The bride, given in marriage by her father with "her mother and I" avowal, chose for her wedding a gown of white lace over satin.

The fitted bodice featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in petal points over the hands. The extended waistline ended in a point in front. The full bouffant skirt was of lace. Her silk veil was attached to white lace covered satin pillbox hat. She carried a white Bible, a gift from the maid of honor, topped by a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Tennyson, maid of honor, wore a blue sheath of silk with an over skirt of silk organza. Her cascade bouquet was of white gladioli and lemon leaves. Bridesmaid, Miss Jon Naylor, was dressed identically to the maid of honor.

Jerry Don Hopkins, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Gary Neal, Bob Followell and J. C. Hopkins, brother of the bridegroom were ushers. The flower-girl, Cindy Berniers, niece of the bride, wore a dress blue silk organza.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the church parlor, following the ceremony. Miss Linda Higginbotham, sister of the bride, registered guests.

Mrs. Richard Gene Hopkins (Photo, Call Studio)

Miss Nancy Lanell Higginbotham and Richard Gene Hopkins were married Aug. 16 in the First Methodist Church Chapel. Rev. T. O. Upshaw, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, performed the double ring rite.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Higginbotham, 615 Sloan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hopkins, 421 Zimmer.

White votive candles held in spiral candelabra were placed on each side of the altar before a background of jade palms and white gladioli for the ceremony.

Miss Ruby Gunn provided traditional organ music and Russell West, vocalist, presented the selections "Because" and "Through the Years".

The horizontal wheel in the laboratory of John H. Breck, Inc., whirls locks of hair in a wild electric polka of 1,400 revolutions per minute to determine the "centrifugal G ratio" of various waving preparations.

RECEPTION

The bride's bouquet fashioned the centerpiece. Mrs. Ed Prince of Borger, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. Carl Porter presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Jones is a 1963 graduate of Pampa High School. The bridegroom graduated from Boswell High School and is employed by the Radcliff Brothers Electric Company.

The couple is at home at 944 E. Denver.

Husted

wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor. Miss Denise Davis, cousin of the bride, was a flower girl. She wore a dress of moss green satin with matching accessories and carried a basket of rose petals.

Best man was Pfc. Glen Husted, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Doug Chauveaux, cousin of the bride, and Doug Altom. Groomsmen were Cecil Ray Colm, brother of the bride, and Tim Kent.

Mrs. John Gill provided the traditional organ music, and vocalist, Mrs. Lonnie S. Richardson, presented the selections, "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Mrs. Collum, mother of the bride, wore a beige sheath accented by beige embroidery and matching accessories. Her corsage was of champagne colored feathered carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Husted, wore a powder blue sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white feathered carnations.

RECEPTION

Mrs. Gene Allegan provided piano music during the reception which followed the ceremony in the dining hall of the church. Miss Debra Kayser of Slaton, registered the guests, and Miss Ann Blackberry of Kress, and Miss Sharon Virden of Amarillo, assisted at the punch bowl. Miss Joyce Gamble of Slaton, served the cake. Four white tapers set on a net over satin covered table accented the bride's table arrangement.

Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Eddie Collum, cousin of the bride, of Amarillo, Mrs. Venus Collum, aunt of the bride, Mrs. C. C. Hayter and Mrs. John Barpes.

For travel to points of interest in Colorado, the bride chose a sheath of cranberry red silk shantung and fitted the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Canyon after the beginning of the fall term at West Texas State University where they both will

Harmonson Family To Have Reunion

The Harmonson family will hold its second annual reunion Sept. 15th at historic Ft. Belknap, ten miles west of Graham, Tex.

The program will begin at 10 a.m. with a short business session. A collection of family mementoes and pictures will be displayed.

Miss Jackie Harmonson, president of the reunion said "there will be in attendance folks from all over Texas, with the states of California, New Mexico, Nebraska and Oklahoma represented."

Miss Harmonson said ALL Harmonsons in Texas descend from two brothers, Thomas and Peter. Miss Harmonson added, "Peter Harmonson and wife Anna McGee came to Texas during the days of the Republic, and with them were five of their seven children." They were: two sons, William Perry Harmonson (married Ann Harper); Zerril Jackson Harmonson (married Ruth Duncan); three daughters: Evaline Jane (married Thomas Asa Mounts); Louisa Ann (married S. A. Venters); Marthe Jane (married George Hunter).

The Peter Harmonson family first settled in Denton County, near Lewisville, Tex. in 1845. In the early 1850s, he moved to Young County which he helped to organize in 1856 serving as its first Chief Justice.

Dinner will be served at noon.

A rubber washer between the handle and the bolt on the inside of a dresser drawer will keep the handle from wobbling.

Dusty and worn suede shoes can be brushed with a metal brush and steamed with a steam iron to raise the nap.

Reservations can be made with secretary Mrs. Alma Starbuck, Bryson, Tex., according to Mrs. A. B. Harmonson, Keller, Tex.

Vows Exchanged In Clarendon

Miss Rhonda Mae Mays became the bride of Rev. Billy Gene Hill of Clarendon in a double ring ceremony read Monday evening in the Calvary Baptist Church of Clarendon. The Rev. Earl Maddox, pastor of the Fellowship Baptist Church in Pampa, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marva Lee Mays of Clarendon and Mrs. W. L. Hill, and the late Mr. Hill, of White Deer.

Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with white gladioli. Emerald palms decorated the upright wrought-iron candelabra holding cathedral tapers. The wrought-iron kneeling bench was laid with white satin brocade, kneeling pillows. Gary Mays, brother of the bride, and Harold Gerner lighted the tapers. Ushers were brothers of the bride, George and John Mays.

Mrs. Harold Gerner, organist, presented a nuptial prelude and accompanied Mrs. Delora Frezner of Amarillo as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white brocade satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and long sleeves tapering to the hands. The full skirt was of bouffant design. Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara ornated with seed pearls.

She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations tied with white satin streamers. She carried out the tradition of something old, something new, something borrowed and blue, and a penny in her shoe. For her daughter's wedding

Mrs. Mays chose a beige dress of Cupidon, complimented by white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Hill, mother of the bridegroom, wore a sky blue dress accented by white accessories and chose a white carnation corsage.

RECEPTION

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white lace table cloth over pink and was centered with the bridal bouquet.

The tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing in front of white wedding bells. White flowers completed the cake decorations. Appointments were in crystal. Mrs. Doyle Hall and Mrs. Harold Gerner of Clarendon presided at the table, assisted by Mrs. Lamar Aten and Mrs. G. B. Lane of Clarendon.

On a wedding trip to Fort Worth and points east, the bride chose for travel a red linen suit highlighted by white accessories and a white corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Clarendon High School and is attending Clarendon Junior College. The bridegroom is a graduate of White Deer High School and Wayland College at Plainview. He presently is pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Clarendon.

The couple will be at home in the parsonage in Clarendon.

Out of town guests at the wedding included friends and relatives from Arlington, Lubbock, White Deer, Pampa.

Holliman of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ferrell of Concord, Calif. and Miss Andrea Keeler of Concord, Calif., and one grandson Charles Honeycutt of McLean, also attended. Seventy-five friends and relatives called throughout the afternoon.

Andrew and Pearl Honeycutt were married Aug. 24, 1913 by a minister of the gospel, T. P. Williamson in Collingsworth County. They made their home in and around Dozier and the Samnorwood Community where Mr. Honeycutt farmed until his retirement. They then moved to Wellington where they resided four years before moving to Shamrock where they lived four years. They moved to Pampa in July, 1963.

Wealth Is Not Static

Abraham Lincoln once observed that a man could not hope to own a home of his own if he continually tried to destroy a system which made home ownership possible for others. The philosophic point is important. Men cannot hope to have larger wages if they constantly do their best to reduce the wages of others. Nor can they expect to make profits for themselves if they object to a system which makes profit possible.

It is in the area of profit that so much misunderstanding arises. Some seem to feel that profits are an unearned increment accruing only to "greedy capitalists." Possibly some even go so far as to echo the sentiments of Karl Marx who said: "A dollar of profit is an unpaid wage."

Back of all these erroneous suppositions is a belief, fostered by the socialist mentality, that there is a "fixed" amount of wealth in the world and, therefore, that the gain of one becomes automatically the loss of all.

If it were true that there was a constant or static amount of wealth in the world, then the assumption would be true. This would mean, without question, that if one man obtained a little more than another, he would have obtained it to the detriment of the second man. He might have obtained it fairly or unfairly but the fact would be that one man would lose while the other man gained.

But this supposition is wholly false. Wealth in the world is not static. And the way to prove this for yourself is to examine the sum total of wealth available in the world in some prior time and then compare that with the wealth available today.

Take, for instance, the sum total of wealth in the world in the time of Henry VIII. Henry lived in a palace, commanded a great army, was able to collect large taxes from his people, and lived as a king had to live at that time. His palace, the large, had few comforts as we recognize them today. He had no automobile, no television set, no daily newspaper. The furniture in the palace was rude and uncomfortable—nothing with foam rubber or inner springs. If he wanted to travel anywhere, he couldn't book passage on an air line or train. He rode, uncomfortably, in a carriage or on horseback, jostled and jolted every foot of the way over roads that were often little more than quagmires.

The average worker in America is richer in the attainment of human comforts than Henry ever thought of being. The average worker spends on himself and his family more money per year than Henry spent on his own personal well-being. The average worker may not command an army or be able to tax anybody. But the average worker is able to spend his earnings (except for what is taken away from him by force) in a thousand ways that would have delighted Henry had he been alive to see it.

The amount of wealth in the world has enormously increased from the 16th to the 20th century. Actually the amount of real wealth in the world is increasing constantly in times of peace. In war time, we experience setbacks which reduce the total amount available for everyone; but in peace time we make and have almost always made substantial gains.

What of the idea, then, that the gain of one is the loss of another? The idea is false and cannot be sustained. And this fact ought to be a matter of common knowledge. But it isn't. We still have people wandering around and expressing opinions which are as old-fashioned and incorrect as ideas once expressed about the shape of the world we live in.

In the free market the gain of one is the gain of all. And what is really important is the recognition that a man of substantial wealth is not only not injuring anyone, he is assisting everyone. For his wealth must be invested if he is to obtain maximum benefits from it. And by investing it he provides jobs for others and increases the total amount of goods and services available for everyone.

Red, White and Blue

Americans these days are — or certainly ought to be — safety conscious when it comes to their favorite pastime: driving. Here's news that proves it's literally patriotic to drive safely.

A survey conducted by the post office showed that accidents involving the department's trucks declined sharply simply as a result of switching from the age-old olive-drab coloration to the bright red, white and blue colors so familiar today on our streets.

In a three-year survey involving 7,000 vehicles, half painted olive drab and half red, white and blue, the o.d. trucks had 849 accidents; the red, white and blue trucks had

Pull Up A Chair

By Frank J. Markey

The population explosion has hit the primitive tribes of South America, according to Homer E. Dowdy, Flint, Michigan, reporter, author, and specialist in urban growth problems. He left the study of the population explosion in the United States to go to British Guiana and found an even greater one in the heart of the jungle. He says native tribes, almost extinct a few years ago, are increasing in numbers. He said the population "increase" affects tribes since they must plan longer hunting trips, and larger areas must be cleared for planting. Dowdy relates it in his book, "Christ's Witchdoctor," published by Harper & Row, which tells of a tribe of Indians in an undeveloped region on Brazil's border.

The latest whacky invention from our point of view is the Hangover Hat designed to ease the aching heads of tipplers, who imbued too much the night before. It's made of plastic and fits tightly over the top of the head. You fill it with water, place it in the refrigerator overnight, and wear it the next morning. Keeps the liquid chilled for hours.

Guaranteed to do the trick! Everyone knows dogs go after postmen, but no one seems to know why. The Post Office Department reports 7000 dog bite cases last year, costing more than $1-million in lost working time. We learned recently the Department now furnishes a liquid spray to letter carriers, which will not harm dogs but repels them.

Country Editor speaking: "Don't worry about growing old. It's happening to all of us." Your Uncle Sam has many post offices with colorful names such as: Rainbow, Texas; Blue, Arizona; Black, Alabama; Vermillion, Kansas; Violet, Louisiana; Coral, Michigan; and White, South Dakota.

Franklin Roosevelt once remarked to his White House staff that two short sentences will generally answer any letter. We receive a large amount of mail but personal ones with the familiar handwriting on the envelope always are the first read.

William Wordsworth, one of our favorite poets, said in his "Tintern Abbey" the best portion of a man's life are the little acts of kindness and love. How true. The Broadway stage has a calendar year all its own. It ignores all others starting its new year in September with its new productions, and making an audit of its successes and failures the following June. We have been told that only one-fifth of the Broadway shows are financial successes.

Memory Lane: Remember when all male golfers wore knickers, woolen hose, pull-over sweaters, and caps? You never see a man in knickers today. There's a new gadget that will be a boon to guys who run out of gas. Simply attach it to the fuel line of a running engine and it channels gas into the empty tank of another car.

The U.S. Travel Service says foreigners visiting the U.S. on business and pleasure totaled 604,000 in 1963, a 17 per cent increase over the previous fiscal year. The Atomic Energy Commission says it plans to sell 3,800,000 pounds of excess mercury.

Curing hams in barrels of brine is old fashioned. A Chicago firm has developed a machine that injects pickle brine into hams on a conveyor belt, curing about 15,000 pounds per hour. A grunion sounds as though it should be a vegetable but it's a slender fish found off the coast of California.

Today's smile: Everyone wants to be excused from jury duty, but we like the one about the judge who said to the fellow: "I suppose your firm can't get along without you? The poor guy replied: "No, your honor. I just don't want them to find that out."

Castro Hinting He Will Attend UN in Fall; Has Lost Power to Others in Soviet-Controlled E-Man Junta

WASHINGTON — Fidel Castro is telling foreign diplomats in Havana that he is going to New York to attend the fall session of the UN General Assembly.

Land Reform Institute boss Carlos Rodriguez is excitedly denying that typhus has become rampant among Cuban cattle. This has been reported by Latin American specialists summoned to cope with this serious threat.

Castro's last visitation was several years ago when Tito, Khrushchev, Gamal-Nasser and other Soviet bloc and neutralist leaders were on hand.

From hints dropped by Castro, his aim is to use the United Nations as a forum to charge that the U.S. is financing and organizing underground activities to overthrow him.

Whether Castro goes through with this plan remains to be seen. He no longer wields dictatorial power.

A Soviet-controlled eight-member junta is now the real ruler of Cuba.

Castro is a member of this inner clique, but he doesn't run it. He still has the title of "Maximum Leader," but he has been shorn of that authority. It is exercised by the junta which is under tight Moscow domination.

This all-powerful inner group consists of two Russian generals (one an armor, one air) and a colonel (Communist party commissar), Blas Roca, secretary general of the Cuban Communist party, Carlos Rafael Rodriguez, editor of the Communist newspaper HOY, and head of the powerful National Land Reform Institute, Ernesto ("Che") Guevara, economic czar, Castro and his younger brother Raul, Minister of Defense.

Roca, Rodriguez and Guevara are Soviet-trained Communists who have been professional party functionaries for many years. With the three Russian military officers, they completely control the inside junta.

They tell Castro, and not the other way around. They are the real boss and not Castro.

This is the reason for the question mark over Castro's backstage talk about going to the UN. It's still unknown whether he is talking for himself or the Soviet-controlled junta.

If it's the latter, then the Red puppet dictator will be there. Otherwise he may not.

CUBAN FLASHES—Significantly, now working closely with the junta is Anibal Escalante, veteran Moscow-trained Communist expelled by Castro in March 1962 on the ground he was a "deviationist" and organizer and leader of a "sectarian conspiracy." Escalante recently returned from Russia and is working directly under the junta purging and tightening up the Cuban Communist party organization. More than a 70 school teachers have been ousted in Oriente Province because of "negative and frankly traitorous attitude toward our revolution."

This makes more than 1,000 teachers axed by the Reds this year. Some 400 have been fired in Las Villas Province alone. The underground is concentrating on sab-

Calm Before '64 Storm - Dems Resting on Laurels

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Democratic political activity in Washington is now so dead that Sam Brightman, the Democratic National Committee's veteran director of public relations, has been able to take his family on vacation for the first time in five years.

The Republicans are "doing all the politicking with their Rockefeller - Goldwater feud, favorite son boomlets, right-wing revolts and lambasting of the Kennedy administration."

The feeling around Democratic National Committee headquarters is to relax and enjoy it, believing that it's too early to start taking 1964 politics too seriously.

Any feeling of insecurity that individual Democratic congressional candidates for re-election may have at home does not seem to be reflected in the national outlook.

One factor seems to be that the Democrats are too sure of themselves, too fat and contented, too prosperous. For the first time in years, the party is operating in the black, though they play it poor-mouth as they try to raise more.

A report by Herbert E. Alexander, director of the Citizens Research Foundation of Princeton, credits President Kennedy with having raised $9,970,000 for the party since his election.

When Richard Maguire, the Democrats' national treasurer, made his "financial report" to the National Committee last June, he didn't cite a single dollar figure. No news — meaning that the 1960 deficit was wiped out — was good news.

Next meeting has been tentatively scheduled for September or October. If Congress hasn't adjourned by then, there won't be much national Democratic political activity before next year.

"The President stirs up the excitement for us," says Stephen P. Smith, the President's brother-in-law, who recently took a job in Democratic National Committee headquarters.

Asked if he is a kind of special assistant to National Committee Chairman John M. Bailey, Smith replied, "That's as good a title as any."

Smith travels a lot, as does atheism being nourished in the churches which it seeks to destroy. I confess to a real apprehension so long as communists are able to secure ministers of the gospel to do their evil work."

In an article in Christianity Today, Hoover wrote, "No assignment is more strategic in the communist world today than the disruption of the Church of God — both within and outside the Iron Curtain."

Mr. Hoover says that the communist tactic is to get clergymen or laymen to sign communist-sponsored petitions which favor communist objectives while cleverly hiding the communist inspiration.

CAN'T WIN BY QUITTING
Many church members are worried. Some have quit. But you can't win by quitting. The socialists and communists then have a free ride with those who remain and with the children.

Will we continue to support with our membership and "money" a church which asks that we clasp the bloody hand of a gangster regime which is trying to exterminate God from the minds and hearts of all people?

Further, the N. C. C. and the communists appear to have the following common aims: peaceful coexistence; peace at any (communist) price; disarmament, and killing Selective Service; ban on nuclear testing; integration; smearing of Joe McCarthy; clemency for convicted communist spies; destruction of our immigration and passport laws; discrediting of J. Edgar Hoover and the F. B. I.; reconstruction of religion on basis of modern scientific materialism; abolishment of American loyalty-security laws; abolishment of all our investigating committees on Communism; a One-World cooperative, non-profit socialistic brotherhood; abolishment of loyalty oaths; recognition of Red China by the U. S.; admission of Red China to the U. N., etc.

J. Edgar Hoover has said that the communists "have operated under the guise of some church commission or religious body and it is ghastly to see the monster

"leaving the door open." One way he is doing that is by stressing his Moscow achievement. "With all due respect to modesty," he says, "I think I can honestly say that my presence in these negotiations was a major factor in reaching an agreement. The Russians know me and trust me. They know I am a man of my word, and that I know them. I think that had a lot to do with coming to an understanding."

A termite is about the most determined creature in the world. When he can't find wood to eat, he lives on hope. A Central American termite eats through lead sheathings on cables. He can't digest lead, but he's hoping for something inside.

Tom Tom Calls the Beat In Indian Jam Sessions

By JOSEPH H. CARTER
United Press International
KICKAPOO RESERVATION, Kan. (UPI)—Young braves, hep to the beat of the tom tom, stage jam sessions to practice their Indian dance chants.

"Han lah nat ten,
"No wah Ah,
"Who wape no nik,
"Ah we Yab."

The sensual, rhythmic wail—blended with the boom of the rawhide drum—enthalls the Indian chant addict like the lonesome cry of the muted trumpet soothes the jazz cat.

On the prairies, in a cool cluster of trees, the young men gather. Like a lead tenor, one bronze singer breaks into a chant. The others follow with the precision of barbershop quartet singers.

They sing of love, war, frustrations, life and death. They quote a Pueblo Indian means, "I'll bet you are just thinking of me."

Sometimes the chanters break into words of English, but mostly it is in the tribal tongue.

A pair of young Taos Pueblo Indians from New Mexico and a Crow Indian from Montana are guests here at the recent Kickapoo Indians' pow wow. They gathered within the scent of a camp fire while a breeze cooled them from the plains' summer heat.

The impulse came and they broke into a chant. It was a clear sound, almost wild. The onlooking fans swayed with the rich rhythm, battling their feet to resist the urge of a traditional Indian dance.

The jam session ended and the three took a cup of open fire coffee. They settled on a log for an interview.

"Most of us don't go with this rock 'n roll," said Gilbert Suazo, 23, who moved from New Mexico to Lawrence, Kan., to find work as a toolmaker. He chants as a hobby. In the impromptu session, he sang lead and rapped the tom tom.

Sam Rideshorse, 21, of Pryor, Mont., chanted the harmony. He holds a clerical job in Kansas City, but longs for the companionship of his Crow nation. Sometimes he takes the lead.

The third member of the trio was 21-year-old Tony Mirabel who lives 70 miles north of Santa Fe, N. M. He is a cousin of Suazo.

All are proud to be Indians and practice their native languages. They sing the ancient songs of their tribes, but also compose new chants.

"Sometimes you're lying real still and you come to it," Suazo explained. "Then sometimes you try like hell and they don't come."

"When a song comes to you," he paused, "it must."

All their lives, the young men said, their fathers and grandfathers taught them the customary chants of the tribe. They said they had little use for music that beats them from juke boxes, radios and concert halls.

"We even sing Indian songs when we're driving our car," Mirabel said. "There's no use to have a radio."

Park Chung Hee To Run for President

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—Military junta chairman Park Chung Hee, who led the coup in 1961 that overthrew South Korea's last civilian government, announced Saturday he would run for president in elections he has promised to hold in October.

Park, who resigned his four-star general's commission Friday, predicted he would lead the junta-sponsored Democratic Republican party to victory.

The 45-year-old strongman's announcement was no surprise. Ever since he announced that elections would be held and a civilian government established, he has made it plain that he hopes to remain in power.

Texas Mid-Continent Announces Meet

DALLAS — Some looks into the future as it affects Texas oil operations — petroleum markets, U. S. space programs, and Congressional attitudes toward the industry — were scheduled this week for the 44th Annual Meeting of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association at the Rice Hotel, Houston, Sept. 23-25.

Charles E. Simons, Association executive vice president, said the program would include addresses by Morgan J. Davis, Houston chairman of the board of Humble Oil & Refining Company; Dr. James E. Webb, Washington, Administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration; Frank N. Ikard, Washington, President of the American Petroleum Institute, and Clyde Tomlinson, Longview, Association president.

Davis and Tomlinson are slated for the first day's panel of speakers Tuesday morning and Dr. Webb and Ikard are scheduled for Wednesday. Simons said at the speakers will be announced as soon as their plans are confirmed.

Davis, who is chief executive officer of the far-ranging Humble organization, will discuss trends affecting petroleum markets. He is closing out a 38-year Humble career which started in 1925 as a geologist at Esso. When Humble merged with Esso Standard and Carter Oil in 1960 he became president of the new organization and two years ago became chairman of the board.

Prior to his appointment to head the NASA operation, Webb was a director and assistant to the president of Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., Oklahoma City, with a long record of service in numerous governmental, scientific and educational endeavors.

Ikard, formerly a congressman from Wichita Falls, heads up the nation's largest petroleum association and is one of the industry's principal spokesmen in Washington.

Committee meetings and a reception honoring Association President Tomlinson have been set for Monday. Following the morning business session, Tuesday, an afternoon golf is scheduled for River Oaks Country Club, with the annual membership dinner to be held that evening at the Rice. The Wednesday meeting, in addition to speakers, will see presentation of awards to independent and major company representatives for distinguished service to the petroleum industry, and election of officers.

MOBIL SKY REVUE, featuring daring aerialists in death-defying circus acts high above the Mobil Stage, will be presented at 2 and 7:30 p.m. daily through Sept. 1963 State Fair of Texas, October 5 through 20 in Dallas. Overseeing each performance is Big Tex, who lowers 52-foot masts to the crowds who watch the free stage shows at the State Fair.

ASKS ASYLUM

ATHENS, Greece (UPI) — A young Soviet engineer has been granted political asylum in Greece. The Interior Ministry said Saturday.

Police said Oleg Mal'kov, 27, of Leningrad, stopped an Athens policeman Tuesday and told him he wanted political asylum because he disliked the Soviet regime.

SHORT SUBJECT

LAWRENCE, Kan. (UPI) — The state Geological Survey recently released a report entitled, "A Preliminary Report on Conodonts of the Meramecian Stage from the Sub-surface of Western Kansas."

The report concerns fossils of marine animals, normally recovered from the cores of oil wells.

Miskimins Retires From Oil Well Supply

DALLAS (SpI) — William Miskimins, widely-known in the oil field supply industry, retires today as manager of store products of the Oil Well Supply Division of United States Steel, it was announced by W. A. Weir, vice president-sales of the division.

Miskimins joined "Oilwell" in June 1917 at Houston, Tex. He served the firm in many locations, including Dallas, Humble, Fort Worth, Eastland, Corsicana; Electric, Wichita Falls and Pampa; Shreveport, La., and Wichita, Kan. Following various regional assignments in the Southwest he served as Central Midwest Area manager here from 1954 until 1961, when he was promoted to manager of store products, with headquarters at Dallas.

At a farewell party this week at the Marriott Hotel given in his honor by associates Miskimins was presented with a sterling silver tray as a memento of his 46 years of service with "Oil Well."

Born at Midway, Pa., Miskimins attended public schools and business college in West Virginia prior to joining the division. He and Mrs. Miskimins will continue to reside at 10099 Lakeland Dr., Dallas, following his retirement.

Local Insurance Company Holds Meet

Independence Insurance Company of Pampa held its Second Annual Qualifier's Conference at the Friendship Inn at Altus, Oklahoma, August 22, 23 and 24th. Activities officially opened Thursday evening with a reception honoring President and Mrs. Robert L. Hudson which was followed by a tour of Craterville Park.

Friday-morning a seminar was held by D. N. Packwood, C. L. U. C. L. U. M. from Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Salesmen were awarded various educational achievement certificates and proper recognition was given to leading producers at the noon luncheon and B. K. Houchin, Assistant to the President, addressed the salesmen and their wives. Packwood opened the afternoon session with a specially prepared presentation for the salesmen and their wives.

Lectures by B. K. Houchin; George Zochowski, Home Office Manager, and R. F. MacDonald, General Agent, were the afternoon speakers and the meeting was officially ended by an inspiring address by the President and Chairman of the Board, Robert L. "Bob" Hudson.

Hudson reported that the company had a 158.37 per cent increase in Premium Income and that the expenses were less than last years for the same period of time by 9.16 per cent. The seasoned agency force has produced some very outstanding results so far this year and the officers and directors of Independence Insurance Company are very optimistic about the remainder of the year and the future growth and development of the Company.

W. A. "Bill" Lewis Agency Director of Trans-American Life Insurance Company of Fort Worth, Texas, was Guest Speaker at the President's Banquet, which was followed by the President's Ball.

FCC Proposal Could Lead To Government Control

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The FCC if the suggestion was not implemented.

He cited the following passage from the text of Lotvinger's speech:

"How far the FCC can go in stimulating and encouraging such enterprise and innovation I am not prepared to say just now. It is obvious that the power to grant, withhold and renew broadcasting licenses, and the mandate to take such actions in the public interest, enables the commission to exert a powerful influence, if not actually to require action.

"However, it is surely better for all if the initiative in such matters is taken by broadcasters and if the commission is not forced to take action to compel broadcasters to fulfill their responsibilities to the public."

SKIPPER MUST RETIRE

PARIS (UPI) — Georges Croisille, captain of the liner France, is retiring because he has reached the compulsory retirement age of 55, it was disclosed Saturday.

Croisille, who has skippered the France since she was launched in 1960, left Le Havre Friday with 2,000 passengers for his farewell journey.

NO LONGER RECOMMENDED

AMSTERDAM (UPI) — The Dutch tourist organization V.V.V. said Saturday it had removed the Old Nickel Hotel here from its recommended list because it refused accommodations to an American Negro, Leo Sam Jr., 23. The hotel said the student had been refused because of frequent fights between Negroes and U.S. military men in the hotel.

Connally to Address TIPO Annual Meet

AUSTIN — Governor John Connally will address the annual membership luncheon of the Texas Independent Producers & Royalty Owners Association (TIPO) when that association gathers in San Antonio for its 17th Annual Membership Meeting September 29 to October 1. The Governor's address is expected to highlight the close relationship between the health of the domestic oil producing industry and the well being of the state as a whole.

This week Governor Connally called upon the Southern Governors' Conference, meeting in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., to press for more effective oil imports restraints in Washington. He earlier had appealed to Interior Secretary Stewart Udall and other Administration officials to tighten up procedures in the import program, action he described as necessary to assure domestic oil its proportionate share of U. S. market growth.

Citing the sharp increase in oil imports, both before and since adoption of the oil import program, Governor Connally told the governors: "If more of the U. S. market is served up to imports, the solvency of state and local governments in the 30 oil-producing states will be seriously threatened."

The Texas governor also focuses attention of the governor's conference on a July change in import quota procedures which made it possible for imported foreign oil to avoid a scheduled cut of 31.60 barrels per day.

Independents recently praised Governor Connally for his part in the August 5 oil-tax reversal by the House Ways and Means Committee. The Governor, in a statement to the committee and more recently in a letter to the committee chairman, stressed that the tentatively adopted provision dealing with mineral sales would have proved particularly disastrous to domestic oil independents and seriously injure economies of oil-producing states.

The TIPO meeting in San Antonio is expected to draw several hundred independents to the Hotel Granada, gathering "from throughout the state to shape the policies which will guide the association for the coming year."

Pampan Retires From Sinclair After 34 Years

Oral L. Satterfield, pulling unit operator for Sinclair Oil & Gas Company at Pampa, will retire September 1 after more than 34 years with the company.

Satterfield joined Sinclair in August, 1919, as a pumper at Borger. He was transferred to Coahoma, Texas, in 1943 and to Gladewater, Texas, in 1946. He came to Pampa later in 1946.

He was born at Stroud, Okla., Satterfield resides at the Davis hotel in Pampa. Children are Virginia Ashby, Silver, Texas; Bernadine Smith, Midway Island; Mildred Taylor and Meredith, Co. of Pampa.

Satterfield is a member of the Calvary Baptist church.

Tulsa Firm Shows 155% Net Gain

TULSA, Okla. (SpI) The highest gross sales in the company's history and a 155 per cent increase in net earnings over the same period a year ago were reported today for the first half of 1963 by Seismograph Service Corporation.

In a report to stockholders, President G. H. Westby said contract services and sales for the first six months totaled $10,891,790, or eight per cent above the $10,050,595 a year ago.

Net earnings were $1.08 per share as compared with 42 cents per share for the same period in 1962.

"If operations continue at the present rate for the remainder of the year 1963 should be a banner year, with sales approaching $23 million, and earnings of more than $1 million, or $2.30 per share," Westby said.

"The results achieved during the first six months of 1963 indicate a continuing upward trend in our sales and profits.

"Our foreign operations continue at a strong pace, with sales and earnings from our 'VIBROSEIS' crews becoming an important factor in company operations. At the present time, 'VIBROSEIS' operations contribute over 20 per cent of our gross sales."

Westby pointed to "a resurgence of activity" in the Birdwell logging division which has resulted in a profitable second quarter for the wireline service division of SSC. He said the current trend indicates that Birdwell will end the year with a profit.

"Manufacturing activities within the Seiscons division continue to increase. Sales and profits are now at an all-time high and are supported by a backlog of $1.3 million."

Carload Movings Show Decrease

Total carloads moved over Santa Fe System Lines for the week ending August 24, 1963, were 31,764 compared with 32,380 for the same week a year ago.

"On-line loadings were 20,794 compared with 21,188 for the corresponding week last year.

Cars received from connections totaled 10,970 compared with 11,192 for the same week a year ago.

Santa Fe handled a total of 30,479 carloads in the preceding week of this year.

"GOOD OLD DAYS"

Today's younger generation is going to have a real problem trying to find something to tell their children they had to do without.
