Pampa man hospitalized after tanker rollover

A Pampa man was injured when the tanker truck he was driving overturned into a ditch as he attempted to turn from U.S. Highway 60 onto a Roberts County caliche road 10 miles east of Miami

The injured man, identified by authorities as James Hoskins, 44. 305 Anne, was reported in satisfactory condition early today in Hemphill County Hospital in Canadian. He suffered head injuries in the mishap. Hospital officials said he is expected to be released

Texas Highway Patrol Trooper Jim Johnson of Canadian said the accident occurred shortly before noon Thursday. Johnson said the driver reportedly freed himself from the truck, crawled onto U.S. 60 and flagged down a passing motorist. The accident was reported to the Pampa ambulance service which then notified the Highway Patrol, he said

Johnson said the vehicle was apparently westbound on  $U.\ S.\ 60$ and attempted a left turn onto the dirt road. Unable to control his speed, the trooper said, Hoskins lost control of the truck which overturned onto its right side in a ditch.

The load of sait water — containing natural gas — leaked onto the dirt from the vehicle creating a fire hazard, and firefighters were called to the scene to hose down the area.

Defense secretary says U.S. troops 'ready for war'

EL PASO, Texas (AP) -- Secretary of Defense Harold Brown sees at least one encouraging aspect of the Iraq-Iran war, despite his insistence that the United States is strictly neutral and only wants to see the fighting stop.

"Even after almost two years of lack of supply and running down of an Iranian military, which was supplied and trained by the U.S., Iran has nevertheless stood up pretty well," the defense secretary told reporters Thursday during a trip here to visit troops at Fort Bliss.

During the visit, he knocked reports of a weakened, ineffective U.S. military

In Washington, The Associated Press Thursday obtained a copy of a memo that reflects new orders from Brown to military officers telling them to stress what he calls "the positive factors of our readiness" rather than

The memo from Maj. Gen. James H. Johnson. a senior operations officers on the Pentagon's top military staff, also said Brown has decided not to send Congress a periodic report on the services' combat readiness. Although the memo did not say so, it is presumed the report will be held up until it is revised to meet Brown's wishes

"The Iraqi forces have been supplied and trained by the Soviets, and here's an example of a conflict between those two." Brown said in El Paso. "Many people have been surprised that the Iranians have been able to stand up as well as they have. It says to me that American military equipment and training are pretty good.

At a Chamber of Commerce luncheon later. Brown insisted that U.S. military forces are "ready to go to war if necessary." He denied that his declaration was prompted by Republican presidential challenger Ronald Reagan's charges that the Carter administration has allowed the nation's defenses to sag

"The important question is, are we able to go to war if necessary and to fight effectively? Let me assure you, the answer to that question is ves." Brown told civic leaders of this West Texas

Earlier, reporters repeatedly questioned Brown about possible political motivations of his trip and his remarks about military preparedness less than a month before the Nov. 4 presidential election

For the secretary of defense to speak about the capibility and readiness of U.S. military forces can hardly been seen as a poltical event, Brown said.

Brown met briefly in private with the nation's only living five-star general, Omar Bradley, a resident of Fort Bliss, and afterward, Bradley, 87. joined the defense secretary at the head table. Brown said the military's own combat

Bullock says he would The dead were identified as Lola Studer, 80. have gone Clayton route

HOUSTON (AP) — State Comptroller Bob Bullock told jurors hearing the Texas Brilab trial he would have acted no differently than Texas House Speaker Billy Clayton if offered $5.000 from an influential labor leader.

Asked under cross-examination Thursday what he would have done if he had been offered $5,000 as Clayton was. Bullock replied. "I would have done the same thing that House Speaker Billy Clayton did. I'd take it, put it away and return it later.

Clayton and Austin attorneys Randall Wood and Donald Ray are accused of extortion, racketeering, bribery and conspiracy in an alleged insurance kickback scheme.

The three, along with Deer Park labor leader L.G. Moore, were indicted June 12 by a federal grand jury on evidence gathered in the 10-month FBI Brilab investigation. Moore, regional director of the International Operating Engineers Union, is to be tried later.

Clayton acknowledged he received $5,000 from Moore, but said he thought the money was a campaign contribution and planned to return it at a later date

Prosecutors contend Clayton, who has spent 20 years in the State Legislature and is seeking an unprecedented fourth term as speaker, accepted the $5,000 as a bribe to reopen bidding on a $76 million-a-vear state employees insurance

The government, using secret tape recordings, is trying to prove the lawmaker accepted the money from Moore with hopes of receiving an additional $500,000 a year if another company got the state's business But Bullock, who described himself as a liberal and distant from Clayton politically, insisted he found nothing wrong with the speaker's actions.

"If Speaker Clayton had taken that money and intended to use it political purposes, he would have reported it." Bullock said. U.S. Attorney A.J. "Tony" Canales chipped away at the high-ranking state official's testimony "How long would it have taken you to return a hypothetical $5.000?" Canales asked. Not until I sat down with him again. I wouldn't have sent it through the mail ... I'd want to look him in the eye." Bullock replied.

The comptroller noted that no good politician would ever insult a potential supporter, be it with votes or campaign contributions.

However, he added that of the 150 members of the Texas House and the 31 state senators, "the one I would least suspect of ever doing any wrongdoing would be Billy Clayton.

The former director of the state employees insurance program testified Thursday that if a person wanted to bribe his way into a rich contract he would have to pay off between 50 and 100 people

Jim Session, now assistant director of the Texas Employees Retirement System, said there are many steps leading to the awarding of an insurance contract and that it would be an almost impossible task to obtain the contract by

He said he was never contacted by Clayton or anyone on his staff about the insurance contract.

BY LAURA RICHARDSON Associated Press Writer

Both Republican and Democratic campaign workers say they've registered a large percentage of the crucial minority voters in Texas, but they aren't so sure those people will show up at the polls on Nov. 4.

GOP nominee Ronald Reagan and President Carter both have stressed the importance of Texas' vote in the November outcome and both have spent time wooing the growing ranks of Mexican-American and black

Experts say the minority vote is critical to both candidates. But one political analyist says the minorities may not be interested enough to get out and pull levers

"What's going to make the difference in this election is the turnout of the minority vote," said George Christian, an Austin political consultant for the past 11 years. "There's no way to predict it, but right now there's apparently considerable apathy among the black and Hispanic voters.

Christian said that despite the Carter campaign's 'vast' voter registration drive that ended Oct. 5, the Democrats are in trouble

"It's tough because the people you have to go out and work to register are not traditional voters, they're people who have very low voting habits," he said. 'Your chances of getting a large percentage to the polls are much less.

Gary Mauro, director of voter registration for the Texas Carter-Mondale campaign said minority voters were the "targeted program" and black and brown

"How important is the minority vote this year? It'll make up a good 60 percent of our vote," said Garv Mauro, director of voter registration for the Texas Carter-Mondale campaign. "We did very well in South

Mauro agreed that new voters can be unreliable, but said that the Democrats' target group of 600,000 registrants was carefully selected as likely to go to the Christian predicted that Carter would get only about 40 percent of the Anglo vote, so "of course he has to have Mexican-Americans and blacks. About one in every three Texas voters is black or Hispanic, he said.

The real political battle of 1980, Christian said, will be waged in San Antonio and points south, where "both parties are making their big effort. "It's a vote that's not enamored of Carter." Christian said, "and there aren't many local races to give him the big turnout he needs.

Mauro denied that minorities were anathetic to Carter, saying "You don't sign up 20,000 in San Antonio and 75 to 100,000 in South Texas, and 10,000 blacks in Tarrant County by having a bunch of white people out

But a Mexican-American political worker who asked not to be identified said the Carter-Mondale ticket is in trouble in South Texas because the state hierarchy has "left the old guard out of the effort. You don't see them using (U.S. Reps.) Henry B. Gonzales, or (Elijio) Kika de la Garza, or Chick Kazen like they should."

The Reagan campaign is aiming to get a "fair percentage" of the minority vote, and "if they can, chances are they'll win, "Christian said.

In San Antonio, Bexar County Democratic Party chairman Joyce Peters said the party has had a "tremendous voter registration drive, and in addition to that, we've taken a sampling ... and it looks about 50-50 Republicans and Democrats.

But she refused to predict Carter would carry the state, saying "It's too early to tell. ... In 1976 we had 72 percent of the registered voters (in Bexar County) to cast ballots, and 57 percent voted Democratic. I've never gotten the credit for that, (but) it put Texas in the Democratic column.

The Democrats are demoralized and the Republicans are running stronger than ever before." said Bexar County Republican Party chairman Lamar Smith. "I think more members of the hispanic community will vote Republican than ever before.

The county's voter registration manager, Roger Berry, said that more than 460,000 people — a record high - have registered to vote in the November election. County Clerk Robert Green predicted a voter turnout of about 70 percent

In El Paso, elections administrator Helen Jamison said that of all the groups conducting voter registration so that service could continue until the problem drives, "the Carter-Mondale people brought in the most applications by far.'

She said 152,637 people registered to vote, a new record for the county, and that many of the applications were new voters, "the 18 and

Lefors resumes football program

LEFORS - The Lefors Board of Education voted Thursday night to resume high school and junior high football in the 1981 fall season. according to Lefors School Superintendent Jerrel

Julian said it has been three years since Lefors has had a high school football team because school officials felt there were not enough boys to field a team. However, Julian said, in 1981, the program will resume in the high school. Lefors has had an eighth grade football team this year and next year, the team will be expanded to all junior high grades

Earlier this year, Julian said Lefors had lost a couple of students to Pampa for the football program.

Julian said the school board also voted Thursday to allow the senior class to have a spring educational trip with school sponsorship and under school supervision.

Bank assumes ambulance service

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — An Amarillo bank called in all collateral on loans to an ambulance service franchise Thursday after the Oregon-based company announced plans to discontinue service in the Panhandle city.

Medical Services Inc. of Eugene, Ore., cited financial troubles in announcing its plan to shut down its year-long Amarillo operations as of Wednesday

Amarillo National Bank, however, which is owed $170,000 by the company, called in the loans is solved

The company also owes $215,000 to a variety of suppliers and other creditors. Ambulance company officials said continued operation in the city would lead them farther into the red

In a Thursday meeting, the Amarillo Ambulance Advisory Committee failed to act on a proposal to budget a $20,000 a month subsidy to allow the ambulance service to operate there. Committee members said the problem was in finding a source for the subsidy, since neither the

City official arranges air fare to allow girl to attend funeral

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — Because mayoral assistant Leon Metz pulled a few highly placed strings, a 13-year-old California girl will be able to attend the funeral of her murdered mother here today. Metz said the victim's tearful sister. Cora Coyle, called Thursday morning and said the young girl was unable to afford plane fare for Kathleen Wilson's funeral

The 31-year-old woman was strangled in a donut shop here early Tuesday. The young girl, Tonia Tabarres, is Mrs. Wilson's daughter from a previous marriage.

Metz said Ms. Coyle asked him if the mayor's office could arrange the girl's flight from Gilroy, Calif., to El Paso. Metz said he told her "there is no way in the world the city has funds to do that." but promised to see what he could do.

"I sat here thinking about it ... about the 13-year-old girl." Metz said Thursday afternoon. "Then I decided to pay it (air fare) out of

Knight said he arranged to have Continental Airlines fly the girl out from San Francisco, with the airline absorbing the $160 ticket

Mayor Tom Westfall said he didn't know of his assistant's gesture until late Thursday

"I'm proud of you. That's a nice story. You're a nice man," Westfall told Metz.

"I'm glad it worked out." Metz replied.

Metz said he frequently hears from people who are "down and out with no place to go." He said he usually feels sorry for them and pats them on the back.

"This one touched me because of the tragic way she (Mrs.

Newspaper will stand behind story implicating sheriffs

DALLAS (AP) - A Dallas Morning News official says the newspaper will not investigate or retract a story concerning corruption among state sheriffs as the Sheriffs Association of Texas has demanded

The group, angry over statements in the article attributed to an FBI agent, called for investigations by President Carter, Attorney General Benjamin Civiletti and the News.

The Sept. 21 article, which ran under the headline "Crimes Tarnish Sheriffs' Stars." paraphrased FBI agent Bill Hinshaw as saying at least half the sheriffs in Texas were involved in some kind

'We have reviewed the matter and believe that we have presented a balanced account of the statement and the reaction to 'said Robert W. Decherd, executive vice president of The News.

We have, in the original story, attributed the comment to an FBI agent, and in subsequent stories represented a response from both the FBI and the Justice Department," Decherd said Thursday. Hinshaw, who once worked in Texas but has since been transferred to Georgia, later told a radio station he thought the statement was a bit strong.

His former boss. Special Agent James Abbott, publicly apologized to the sheriffs.

Frenchman today won the 1980 Nobel Prize in physiology or medicine for their discoveries on how genetic makeup determines whether a person successfully combats cancer and other diseases.

The award went to genetic researchers and immunologists Baruf Benacerraf, a Venezuelan-born American citizen working at Havard University; George Snell, of the Jackson Laboratory in Bar Harbor, Maine and Frenchman Jean Dausset of the immunological laboratory of Paris University Hospital St. Louise. The three share the coveted prize, this year carrying a sum of $211,000, for their work on "genetically determined structures on the cell surface that regulate immunologirreactions.

Snell, who was born in Haverhill, Mass. in 1903, is the oldest recipient at 77.

Benacerraf, who was born in the Venezuelan capital of Carcacas and will be 60 on Oct. 29, has been an American citizen since 1943 and a professor of pathology at Harvard Medical School since 1970. Dausset, who will be 64 on Oct. 19, is from Toulouse and has worked at the hospital since 1963. The three researchers have explored the genetic regulation of the body's immune response. They showed that so called H antigens (Histocompatibility antigens) determine the interaction of the multitude of different cells responsible for body's immunological reactions — including the combat of inference s and rejection of foreign matter.

Some travelers, usually elderly people fulfilling a lifelong dream, encounter serious medical problems in China. Some die. others are rushed to hospitals

After the normalizing of Sino-U.S. relations, 10 tourists were rushed from China on medical emergencies in a four-month span in 1979. This year, 10 or 12 have been flown out for treatment.

Associated Press Writer PARIS (AP) - A presidential appeal for local meetings throughout France today to show solidarity against a violent wave of anti-Semitism is being boycotted and condemned by the nation's two major labor unions who claim it's nothing but a political propaganda operation.

French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing issued the call for the meetings during a five-minute televised address Wednesday in which he denounced an Oct. 3 synagogue bombing that killed four people.

The explosion came amid what some regard as the worst wave of anti-Semitism in France since World War II. In the past two weeks, Jewish schools, homes, stores, synagogues and graves 5ave been the target of either submachcine-gun attacks or vandalism.

The president urged local police prefects to summon representatives of different religious groups, trade unions and anti-racist organizations to meetings where they could "testify their solidarity among themselves and examine security problems at the local level.'

A statement by the union said it would "refuse to lend itself to these efforts to divert public attention and to cover up the heavy responsibility of the government in this affair.'

The Socialist-led Democratic Confedeation of Labor also issued a resounding "no" to the participation plea.

EVER STRIVING FOR TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

Let Peace Begin With Me

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. For only when man understands freedom and is free to control himself and all he possesses can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by a government, with the right to take moral action to preserve their life and property and secure more freedom and keep it for themselves and others.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guide expressed in the Coveting Commandment.

Right to work laws always in danger

It appears that Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers union has fallen upon difficult times in California where vegetable growers have been giving him some tough resistance in his efforts to press his organizing

And now we hear from the chairman of the Texas House Agriculture and Livestock Committee that nothing indicates a chance of a successful migrant farm worker unionization effort in Texas this year.

He pointed out that two years ago, in the midst of so - called hunger strikes and marches by farm worker groups, the House Agriculture and Livestock Committee refused to endorse legislation protecting union rights to organize agriculture labor.

The chairman is Rep. Forrest Green of Corsicana.

He and several other committee members visited with California growers and workers a few months ago. Their opinion, after the meeting, was that aricultural unions in California have too much power.

There was a consensus that if agricultural union legislation is ever passed in Texas, it should be patterned after laws in Idaho, Arizona and Kansas which are patterned after the Federal Labor Act. The Act, one member of the House Agriculture and Livestock Committee said, is "much more fair to both workers and producers than the California law

The committee member said California's agricultural labor relations board is stacked with friends of the farm worker unions, and growers do not feel they can receive a fair hearing in labor disputes.

And, he emphasized, "the main thing in California" is the workes really had very little to do with the union rules. He added, "They were written by the union hierarchy." As a result, farm workers are told how much money they will contribute to political action funds, where they will work and when they will work, the committeem an said.

He added that often families of migrant farm workers are split up and sent to work on different farms, and union power is being abused, hurting both the worker and the grower.

In other activities of interest to Texans, right - to - work battles are heating up several state legislative races - not in Texas, especially, but in other states. Texas already is a right - to - work state, but there is a steady undercurrent of action to knock out its right - to - work law.

The Wall Street Journal has reported that AFL - CIO and right - to work committees, arch foes in the mandatory unionism fight, agree the election outcome could alter the number of states (now 30) barring the union shop. The Journal added that right - to - work looms as a

The financial journal quoted a right - to - work official: "You're going to see a much better legislature" in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. It also quoted the AFL - CIO: "We won't take that challenge

The Journal reported that both sides also hope to elect sympathizers in Colorado, Idaho and Missouri, and that in New Mexico's August primary, unions helped defeat a key state senator who favored anti union shop legislation. In that state, too, the governor last year vetoed such a measure, the Journal added.

But, it reported, "organized labor failed to get a proposition on the ballot there to repeal a constitutional right - to - work provision.

Emphasized the Journal: "although no state has passed a law barring union shops since 1976, advocates think up to eight more will in the next five years.

The forces that would attack the Texas right - to - work laws are not very vociferous right now, but one can wager they are working hard behind the scenes. The success or failure of their endeavors may be observed during the next session of the legislature as new and old members convene after the end of this year.

Windfall profits tax should be repealed

Any Texan believing any of the numerous television commercials extolling the economic progress in this nation created by the Carter Administration is

The Carter approach to ruining the nation is about as direct as one can visualize in the remnants of this republic of ours.

To be more ruinous the attack on the basics of Americanism would have to come from a totally socialist or communistic command.

One can take Jimmy Carter's pirating action on the oil companies by imposing, with the aid of Congress (the culprits in Congress are on record), the windfall profits tax.

The tax may be just what the socialist doctor ordered for the liberal eastern states, but it certainly has a crippling action on Texas economics. Texas Railroad Commissioner Mack Wallace said the windfall profits tax will cost Texas $137 billion and the nation two million barrels of oil during the next 10 years. Wallace said Railroad Commission studies indicate total revenues generated from the bill will total $227 billion and Texas will pick up most of that bill.

He said the tax also will discourage oil companies from developing lower, more costly petroleum deposits.

Wallace added that the commission study estimated petroleum production in Texas would be 11 billion barrels without the tax, and nine billion with it during this decade

Texas has the oil, and other states do, too. One finds it difficult to see the intent behind curtailing the production of American oil through such highway robbery tactics as the windfall profits tax as being anything other than

The action of the Carter Administration in discouraging the discovery and production of the federal bureaucracy's undermining the economic foundations of America by taxation and regulation.

Wallace said most Americans underestimate the severity of the nation's energy problems. He cited a national opinion poll which said only 30 percent of the public rates the issue as critical.

But, said Wallace, "let no one lull you into a false sense of security. Let no one tell you there is an oil glut. The tanks may be full, but the supply lines could be cut off tomorrow.

Wallace commented that Congress should do more to reduce the nation's But as long as Jimmy Carter has enough liberal congressmen eating out of his hand, the administration will continue to mislead the populace and perpetuate the public underestimation of the severity of the energy problems of A short cut back to reality and a departure from the naivete that is leading us to the brink of cold and darkness and immobility would be the immediate repeal of the windfall profits tax.

Inflation talk spreads confusion

By Oscar Cooley Loyal to his boss, Alfred Kahn tells us that in July there was a pause in inflation. The Consumers' Price Index (CPI) actually fell a trifle from its June level. This can be taken as political talk designed to plant the hopeful thought that maybe the inflation is over. It is not. It continues to boil up and may exceed 15 percent for the entire year of 1980.

The July CPI is down, Kahn admits, because of one price that dropped: interest rate on home mortgages. Many other goods, including such as foods, that are bought far more widely than mortgages, rise in prices.

Confusion results from equating inflation with price increases. Inflation is a fall in the purchasing power of dollars, not a rise in the price of goods.

What would you do if, famished for a good fish dinner, you went to your favorite restaurant, only to find the entrees limited to broiled grunt fish, baked mudblower and fried ratfish? Bet you'd lose your appetite for fish in a hurry, wouldn't you?

Just this: each good has its own price, which rises or falls. Some are rising while others are falling. Some rise a lot, others less. It is not meaningful to add these prices together and strike an average, as the CPI is calculated, for it is like adding apples and golf balls, plus a few visits to the doctor and sundry other goods. The result is simply an average change in price of those goods that are included in the

Inflation is a fall in the value of those pieces of paper we use to measure the values of all goods and services, that is, dollars. It affects the price of every good, from apples to golf balls, but the price of every good does not change by the same degree because each good has its own, individual forces which move its price up

Happiness has to be working for a company in which you decide your own pay status and fringe benefits. The so - called "boss" has but one function and that is to come up with the money needed to keep the concern operational.

The name of this very exclusive company is the Congress of these United States. If you don't think this is big business, take a look at the staggering facts. As the late Ed Sullivan used to say: "This is a REALLY big show!'

There are 535 workers. The 100 senators and 435 representatives each draw a yearly salary of $60,622.50 for an eye - popping payroll of $32,433,037.50.

That's merely the tip of the financial iceberg, which gives the taxpayer an acute case of the shudders. Then there are the fringes such as official expense account, travel, state office expense and so on.

You have probably heard or read many statements by members of Congress about "the bloated federal bureaucracy." Those statements are correct. But have you heard any senator or representative mention that the cost of operating the Congress has increased 450 percent since 1965?

Moreover, about 1970 Congress approved a clever little scheme whereby the salaries of senators and representatives - and almost every federal bureaucrat - would be increased automatically. The effect of that little scheme has been to insulate members of Congress, and the bureaucrats, from the inflation that has been caused by their own irresponsible decisions, right there in Washington, D.C.

In 1965, it cost $210 million a year to operate Congress. Today, it costs well over a billion dollars a year. To be precise, Congress will spend $1,157,000,000 on itself this year - one billion, 157 million dollars!

WASHINGTON (AP) - Roman Catholics in 18,000 parishes across the country have launched their annual "Respect Life Program," with a statement from New York's Cardinal Terence Cooke that "every human life - born and unborn, young and old, weak and strong ... is sacred.'

The program, including special studies in Catholic schools and organizations, focuses this year on the Bible and respect for life, teen-agers and sexuality, handicapped children and capital

Cooke, chairman of the U.S. bishops pro-life committee, said some contemporary forces conclude life is "good only if it measures up to certain standards and that God's creatures are

Tyler to host annual Texas Festival Oct. 15-19

KNOWN AS the Rose Capital of America, Tyler, Texas will host the 43rd annual Texas Rose Festival Oct. 15-19. 1980 Rose Queen Staley Wynne (holding basket) and members of her coronation court gather rose blooms in one of Tyler's many rose fields.

TYLER - The Texas Rose campus. Dr. Harold Phillip Festival, an annual event in Tyler, will take place Oct. 15-19.

With its mile long parade of rose adorned floats, spectacular Queen's Coronation, mammoth Rose Show displays (over 10,000 dozen blooms are artistically displayed during the four-day show), Rose Field Tours and, for the first time, the "Rose Pedal and Cycle Follies," the Texas Rose Festival ranks among the nation's big three of rtse celebrations - along side those at Pasadena, Calif. and Portland, Ore.

The festival, started in 1933 as a tribute to the rose growing industry, has been produced annually except for an interim of four war years. The annual spectacular represents the combined efforts of more than 2,000 persons working a full 12

The more than 100 rose growers of the area tend a vast acreage of roses for markets throughout the world. Nearly half of the nation's commercial rose bushes are grown in the Tyler area.

Reigning over this year's festival as queen will be Staley Wynne of Tyler. The festival, now in its 43rd year, opens Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m. with vespers services at Wise Auditorium on

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are friendly with another couple whom we do not see very often because of the distance between us. We have dinner at one home or the other about twice a year. Tonight they were our guests. They arrived promptly at 6:30 p.m. and we had drinks on the patio. At 7 p.m. my husband went inside and turned on the TV to catch the beginning of a football game. After 15 minutes, he joined us, "freshened" the drinks, then went back inside to watch the game, leaving me to entertain the couple. I tried several times, without success, to root him out. At 7:30, my husband emerged, put the steaks on the grill

(on the patio), then he ran inside again to watch the game, returning in time to turn the steaks. He rushed through dinner and - you guessed it - he sneaked in to watch the game again. I made conversation with the guests until the game was over. Then my football fan joined us for a spirited 20 minutes of conversation, after which our guests departed, saying they had a long drive home. Needless to say, I am terribly upset and wonder if we will ever see these lovely people again. What should I have done? And how can I keep this from happening again?

DEAR WIDOW: You should have kicked your husband in the end zone as soon as he started to pull the disappearing act. And in the future, don't schedule dinner party on a football night unless everybody enjoys football and wants to watch it together.

DEAR ABBY: Please settle something for us. My husband and I, who have been married for two years, had a party for some of our close friends before my husband began law school. All of us are in our 20s.

My 20-year-old brother was invited. He did not accept, but said he'd "drop by" if he could.

Well, in the middle of the party, my brother phones, asking if he can drop by with our father! I told him he had a

Broiled fish recipe is low in sodium

By Aileen Claire NEA Food Editor

The recent reports on the American diet include the recommendation that we cut back on our total sodium intake. Dousing everything with salt is a hard habit for most of us to break since the salt shaker seems to be a lifetime essential for most table settings

One of the problems in limiting our sodium intake is that sodium appears naturally in most foods we eat.

Here is a broiled fish dish prepared with low-sodium needs in mind. It has added flavor from a fruit and lemon sauce, cinnamon and nutmeg.

lot of nerve putting me on the spot that way, and no, he could not bring our father because it might put a strain on the entire evening.

My father contends that there would have been nothing wrong with "surprising" me and dropping by just to say hello. I feel that not everybody belongs everywhere, and had I wanted my father there, I would have invited him along with the rest of the guests. What do you think?

DEAR S.M.: People with good manners, be they parents, adult children, best friends, or whoever, never "drop by" for surprise visits uninvited particularly when they know a party is in progress.

DEAR ABBY: I've been going with a really fabulous girl. Everything was going along famously until a month ago when she got herself a dog.

Ever since this dog came into her life she seems to have transferred all the affection she had for me to the dog. She cuddles him, kisses him, strokes him and calls him all the pet names she used to call me. She even holds him on her lap the whole time I'm with her. Abby, this mutt is literally coming between us.

In case you think this is a gag, her name is Cindy, the dog's name is Tiger and my name is Norman. If you think I'm jealous, you are right. But what can I do about it?

DEAR NORMAN: Insist that Cindy treat you like a dog. (P.S. If she refuses, bite her in the leg.)

Do you wish you had more friends? Get Abby's booklet, "How To Be Popular; You're Never Too Young or Too Old." Send $1 with a long, selfaddressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to: Abby, Popularity, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif.

merchandise starts with a quick self-test and business-like actions designed for results. Learn the steps to success now - and celebrate National Consumer Education Week, Oct. 5-11.

To decide if action is your right, ask yourself several questions first:

Did you follow use-and-care instructions carefully?

Did you use the product for its intended purpose?

Were your expectations for the product reasonable?

If you answer "yes" to all three questions and decide the problem is the merchant's or manufacturer's fault, then business-like actions can help solve it.

Grizzlies to be relocated after death of Dallas man

WEST GLACIER, Mont. (AP) - The hair found in the intestinal tract of a slain grizzly was bear hair and not human hair, a Glacier National Park official said Thursday.

Meanwhile, park officials said problems with grizzly bears also have occurred in the residential region around the park headquarters here and three bears had been trapped and will be relocated "outside the park."

Spokesmen also said the air and ground search in an area of the park where three separate incidents involving grizzlies, one in which a Texas man died, was "winding down" and ranger teams had found no other bears in the

Al Trulock, an acting management assistant, said the autopsy results on a slain grizzly boar weighing nearly 400 pounds have provided "no conclusive proof" that the animal actually was the one that mauled and then ate most of the remains of Laurence Gordon, 33, of Dallas, Texas. Gordon's campsite and his remains were found last Friday in the rugged Belly River drainage in the northeast portion of the park just south of the Canadian border.

Three days later, during an intensive search for grizzly bears exhibiting "aggressive tendencies," the male bear was shot and killed by rangers in a helicopter. It's body was taken to a laboratory at Bozeman for analysis.

It could not be determined when Gordon was attacked and any evidence of human remains may have passed through the bear's body before it was shot. Initially, rangers said they found bear feces containing "what looked like human tissue and boot samples" matching the hiking boots worn by Gordon, who was the park's third grizzly fatality this year.

"We may never know if that was that bear" that killed Gordon but there was circumstantial evidence that it was the animal involved in a previous, non-fatal attack on three other hikers in the same general area, said Trulock. The additional grizzly sightings in the southwestern portion of the park and nearby residential areas prompted officials to initiate a bear trapping program. Trulock said.

He said the traps were set in the area where McDonald Creek empties into the Middle Fork of the Flathead River. Trulock said the bears were seen in a heavily used fishing area, near a golf course, at a Flathead County dump site and elsewere in the populous region.

State Fair medical care blasted

DALLAS (AP) - Medical care at the State Fair of Texas "is the worst of anywhere in the region" and jeopardizes the lives of heart attack victims, says the president of the Dallas chapter of the American Heart Association.

"We've criticized it for years, but it's just tilting at windmills trying to get it changed," said Dr. Jack Atkins, also a profesor at Southwestern Medical School.

For the second time in two years, a heart attack victim was dead on arrival at Baylor Medical Center after being transported from the fair by private ambulance.

Gerald Ferguson, 38, who suffered a heart attack on the midway the opening day of the fair this year, was transported to the emergency room by Professional Ambulance Co., a private company hired by the

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) -Testimony in the $42 million lawsuit brought by Roy Carver against the Texas drilling firm SEDCO Inc. ended Thursday in U.S. District Court with SEDCO's lawyers questioning Carver about his attorney.

Judge William Hanson told lawyers to file their final written arguments by mid-December. Final oral arguments will be heard in mid-January.

SEDCO's lawyers called Carver to answer questions about David M. Elderkin's role during Carver's abortive Mideast oil venture. Edlerkin heads the legal team representing Carver.

Texas honors Astros

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Gov. Bill Clements, in recognition of the first title ever won by a major league Texas professional baseball team, has declared Friday as Houston Astros Day.

The Astros, knotted 1-1 in the best of five National League Championship Series, return to the Astrodome Friday to play the Philadelphia Phillies.

Winning the National League West Division championship reflects great credit on the coaching staff, players and the entire Houston Astro organization," Clements' proclamation said.

National Football League roundup

By BRUCE LOWITT AP Sports Writer

Winning breeds winning, the saying goes. Get a taste of the good life and you hunger for more. The Detroit Lions are acting like gluttons this year. The New Orleans Saints are starving.

They understand a little more now than they did last year the good things that go with winning." Coach Monte Clark said as his Lions prepared for Sunday's National Football League game against winless New Orleans. "They've been able to experience it. To me, that's part of the thing that makes it fun.

Lions' rookie Billy Sims, despite being held to 21 yards by Atlanta last Sunday, still leads the league in rushing with 560 yards, 68 ahead of Ottis Anderson of St. Louis, and quarterback Gary Danielson is ranked third among National Football Conference

Last Sunday the Lions strolled confidently - perhaps too confidently - into Atlanta and were wiped out 43-28 by the Falcons for their first loss of the season. "Two words I hate are 'careless' and 'lazy' and I saw a touch of that," Cgbi,i

Despite the loss, the Lions still sit comfortably atop the NFC's Central Division. Their 4-1 record has them two games ahead of the rest of the divison. Green Bay, Tampa Bay, Chicago and Minnesota are each at 2-3. And with those four teams battling amongst themselves, the Lions can open up a little more ground against two

New Orleans quarterback Archie Manning had to leave last Sunday's 40-7 rout by St. Louis in the second period due to a pulled muscle in his throwing arm. Guy Benjamin took over and couldn't turn things around. Manning is listed as "probable" for the Lions' game - and that's how Clsrk sees it, too. "We expect him to play," the Detroit coach said. "That's who we've prepared for."

The Bucs, whose usually rugged defense was battered for 133 yards rushing by Chicago's Walter Payton and beaten for two running touchdowns by Mike Phipps last Monday night in Chicago, carry a three-game losing streak into their game against Green Bay. The Packers, who snapped their three-game losing streak last Sunday by defeating Cincinnati, axed longtime placekicker Chester Marcol during the week and will be relying on Tom Birney for extra points and field goals.

Payton would like another big game on the ground against Minnesota, to avenge the Vikings' 34-14 victory over Chicago earlier this year when they held him to 39 yards. Minnesota quarterback Tommy Kramer also is looking to get back on the right track. He was intercepted five times by Pittsburgh in a 23-17 loss to the Steelers last Sunday.

And the Jets. like the Saints, would like to get on the track for a change. They also also winless

Niekro gets starting nod today for Houston Astros

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros could have been named the cliff-dwellers--that's where they've lived throughout the 1980 National League regular season and they've carried the habit into the NL championship series against Philadelphia.

The Astros' style is to scratch and claw for a one-run lead and then cling to it as if they were about to be pushed over the precipice. And the bigger the game, the harder they hold on.

We've been able to win the big games when we had to have them over the past month." said Joe Niekro, the National League's only 20-game winner over the past two seasons. "We have lost some here and there but we've come through when we had to.

Niekro was scheduled to start against the Phils and Larry Christenson today in the third game of their best of five National League champion ship playoff series in the Astrodome. The fourth game is scheduled Saturday afternoon and a fifth game, if necessary, would be Sunday night. The Phils also have won the games they needed

We needed to win two of three games at Montreal and we got them." Phils Manager Dallas Green said. "We seem to do pretty good in this ball park.

The Phils beat the Astros in nine of 12 regular season games, including a 4-2 edge in the Astrodome. Even more impressive, Philadelphia won 21 of its last 28 road games. Although it takes strong-hearted fans to sit through an Astros game. Manager Bill Virdon says that style of play may be helping in the playoffs. I think they are more relaxed in the playoffs," Virdon said.

That's been our style of play all year so they are used to it. But that shouldn't be a factor. We still have to beat the team we're The Astros seldom had the ability during the regular season to put another team away but conversely, few teams blasted the Astros, hence, a season of close games, close series and a close division race. "I'd say that's the mark of a good ball club, probably a better club than most people give it credit for," Virdon said. "Our pitching keeps us in the game. We don't get that much hitting so it takes us longer to score runs. Since Virdon, along with General Manager Tal Smith were instrumental in rebuilding the Astros from a laughable last place team to the division champions, obviously Virdon likes the nickel-and-dime offense, right?

"I'd much rather have five guys who hit 50 home runs and not worry about all this other stuff." Virdon laughed. "But it's great to win, no matter how you do it and I think it's a credit to the players who have given a maximum production all year.'

Miami routed by Perryton JV

PERRYTON-Perryton's JV rattled off three successive second-half touchdowns enroute to a 26-8 win over Miami Thursday Perryton took a 7-0 halftime lead on Scotty Hagler's four-yard run and Clint Allred's conversion kick. Miami responded with its only score on the third offensive play of the second half. Mark Clark rambled for the TD from 50 yards away, and David Haws conversion run gave the visitors an 8-7 lead. Perryton went ahead for good, however, when Haigler scored again on a one-yard run. Lyndon Morrow added another score on a 35-yard run later in the period, and Jimmy Blundell's two-yard run gave the Deputies an insurance score in the final period.

Royals edge Yankees for two-game lead

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) - Frank White is batting 714 against the New York Yankees in the first two games of the American League playoffs, exactly 286 percentage points below Kansas City's level of confidence.

"I shouldn't say this," grinned the Royals' second baseman moments after he nervously helped turn a double play to save a 3-2 victory and give Kansas City a commanding two-game lead in the best-of-five American League playoff series.

'But I will. We're going to get 'em this time. 'This was the hump we needed to get over." said catcher Darrell Porter, the third man involved in a dramatic eighth-inning play that infuriated Yankees owner George Steinbrenner and turned Mike Ferraro from an obscure third-base coach into the center of

We finally beat them in a close game." Porter said. "We stopped them from doing what they always did to us before."

The Royals nicked Yankees starter Rudy May for all three runs in the third inning, on Willie Wilson's two-run triple and an RBI-double by U.L. Washington. The Yankees scored their two in the fifth on an inside-the-park home run by Graig Nettles and Willie Randolph's RBI-double.

But the Royals won it in the eighth and ninth when the Yankees failed to score despite four base hits.

"We can win three under any circumstances," said Yankees Manager Dick Howser, reminded that no team has ever rebounded from an θ-2 start to win a playoff series. "But this just makes it a little tougher. We'll do the same things that got us here.

Tonight in Yankee Stadium. Tommy John. New York's 22-game winner, will oppose Kansas City left-hander Paul Splittorff, who cautiously admitted the lion's share of the pressure will rest on

When you're two games up, you feel like you have less to lose,' said Splittorff, a veteran of Kansas City's bitter playoff losses to New York in 1976, '77 and '78. "My job is still the same. But we've been through this before and hopefully we've gained from our

Right-hander Dennis Leonard, Kansas City's only 20-game winner during the regular season, nursed his one-run lead into the eighth and struck out leadoff hitter Bobby Brown. Then Willie Randolph singled and Bobby Murcer fanned. Up came Bob Watson, who drilled a fastball into left field. Randolph rounded third base and dug for home on a signal from

But left fielder Wilson, in perfect position to catch the hard bounce off the wall, turned and fired to third baseman George Brett, who turned and fired to Porter at the plate.

Porter caught the ball, braced, and held on as Randolph slid into his tag. Dangerous Reggie Jackson, the on-deck hitter, watched helplessly as Randolph was tagged out. We got taken out of the eighth inning with Jackson next at bat, fumed Steinbrenner, "The players didn't lose it. The outspoken Yankee owner dispelled any doubt that he was implying Ferraro lost the game with a statement he made later. "There's no way you can send the runner." he said. "He's been doing that to us all year.

Howser defended his coach When I saw Wilson's throw go a little high. I thought we had a chance." he said. "But with two outs, you've got to take a chance and Randolph runs well. It took a perfect play by three guys.

Wilson admitted he actually was throwing to shortstop Washington, but overthrew him "It's something we work on every day in spring training." said Brett. "There's always got to be a trailer, if they throw the ball over said Porter.

"By far," said Brett, "By far," But the drama was not finished. Jackson opened the ninth with a single to left and Kansas City Manager Jim Frey summoned from the bullpen sinkerball specialist Dan Quisenberry, the American League's most effective reliever this season. Oscar Gamble popped up. Then Rick Cerone singled Jackson to second and Nettles marched to the plate.

"George Brett told me. 'Here's a good guy to double up, he hits a lot of ground balls," said Quisenberry. On the first pitch. Nettles hit a sharp grounder to White at second, who fumbled the ball a moment, then threw to Washington at second. Washington. too. slightly mishandled the ball before making a perfect throw to first base to end the game and push the Yankees to the brink of disaster. Frank had a little trouble finding the ball and I did. too," said.

'I don't' know what a heart murmur is," deadpanned Quisenberry. "But I think I had one."

Last Friday night, the Harvesters lost their third starter when two-way lineman Billy Ward sustained a knee injury against Altus. Ward has undergone surgery and will miss the rest of the season.

"It really hurts to lose a leader like Billy," Gilbert said. "He was having such a great year. That's what makes it so tragic. Football meant a lot to Ward's spots will be filled by Rodney Brewer, a 185-pound senior, at center, and Joe Ryzman, a 170-pound junior, at defensive tackle.

"I've been real pleased with the way Rodney has been progressing," Gilbert said. "He's quite a leader himself. even though he doesn't have the experience that Billy has."

Borger, led by sophomore Andy Anderson, defeated Pampa, 421, 386, in a high school golf dual Thursday at Huber Course.

Dennis Mashburn paced the Harvesters with a 41-38-79. followed by Gary Cudney, 40-41-81; Jeff Hanson, 43-40, 83: Kenny Martin, 43-41-84; Steve Shepherd, 50-44, 94.

Anderson fired a 70 for the winners. Travis Farmer followed with a 73 while Joe Don Davis had a 74 and Nolan Ashford, 87.

The Harvesters participated in the Amarillo Invitational at 9 a.m. next Friday at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Switzer, Akers do psych jobs

DALLAS (AP) - The psychological war between Oklahoma Coach Barry Switzer and Texas Coach Fred Akers, former teammates at the University of Arkansas, is always one of the more interesting sidelights of the annual meeting of the two teams. They spread the adjectives on thick when describing the other team in an annual exercise of respect and shadow dancing. Texas is the best team in the country," said Switzer before Saturday's nationally televised 11:50 a.m. showdown between the unbeaten and No. 3 ranked Longhorns and the No. 12 rated Sooners, who lost two weeks ago to Stanford.

Switzer continued "They have a better offense than they did a year ago and that's without (wide receiver) Johnny (Lam) Jones. They have good runners and I've never seen a tight end who is a game breaking player like Lawrence Sampleton. Their offensive line is really good.

"On defense, (tackle) Kenneth Sims is the No.1 lineman in the country. He'll probably be a No. 1 (National Football League) draft pick next year. Their secondary is inexperienced but overall they are better on defense than they were a year ago.

Akers, warming to the task. said "We haven't faced a team with the talent of Oklahoma. Their offensive line is awesome. Their defense is quick and agile as always. He added 'The Oklahoma-Colorado game looked like a track meet. OU must have had to change shoes by the third quarter for wearing them out. Their backs have good speed. I don't know how many runs of over 50 yards they had. You know some teams couldn't score 82 points against Danny Sebastian scored the deciding touchdown on a 10-yard run in the fourth quarter to give Pampa a 20-14 win over Borger in a ninth-grade football Thursday afternoon at Harvester Stadium.

Sebastian's scoring run up the middle came after a pass interception for a 22-yard gain into Borger

Pampa took a 14-0 lead in the second quarter on a 14-yard pass interception by Jim Ontiveros and a 17-yard scamper by Sebastian. Sebastian also ran the Bowie scored on a four-yard run in the third quarter and Horton caught a 34-yard touchdown pass for Borger in the fourth period.

'We had a good effort from everyone," Pampa coach Dickie Crockett said. "The defense played a very aggressive game. Offensive standouts were Marty Cross, Bill Fritz, Steve Seely, David Parr, Scott Thompson, Swassey Brainard, David Fatheree, Hugh Smith, Charles Wuest, Ricky Stout, Danny Sebastian, Jim Ontiveros, Dennis Kuempel and Terry Gray.

DETROIT (AP) - General Motors Corp. has recalled 62,500 of its cars to check for and correct problems that could cause fires or front-wheel brake failure.

GM said Thursday that 24,700 1980 Chevrolet Impala and Caprice models equipped with the 3.8-liter (229 cubic inches) V-6 engine have been recalled to check whether the front brake pipe is rubbing against the left front edge of the engine

That could make the brake line wear through, draining fluid from the front hydraulic circuit and disabling the front brakes. GM said. The rear brakes still would work and the dashboard warning light would light up, the company said. The brake line will be relocated if necessary,

Some 25,400 1981 cars in the "X-body" series -Chevrolet Citation, Pontiac Phoenix, Oldsmobile 2.8-liter (173 cubic inches) V-6 will be checked to see if a power steering hose lies too close to the exhaust manifold.

Heat could damage the hose so that fluid would leak onto the manifold, causing a fire, GM said. The hose will be rerouted if necessary.

Another recall will bring in 12,400 1980 diesel-equipped Oldsmobile Toronado models to check a wire in the exhaust gas recirculation valve. GM said the wire could become pinched between the air-cleaner assembly and the EGR switch mounting bracket.

Insulation on the wire could, if pinched, wear through and cause a short circuit and fire, GM

All repairs will be done without charge. GM said it knew of no injuries or accidents arising from any of the three problems.

One killed in explosion

INDEPENDENCE, Ky. (AP) - A dozen art students were painting Halloween goblins on Simon Kenton High School windows when a fiery blast from the boiler room next door slammed them across the room, killing one teen-ager.

"We heard a sudden hissing, like steam, coming from the wall .... five seconds, and the whole wall blew up," said art teacher Linda Whittenburg. A half-hour later, after some

1,000 students had fled the school, a second explosion rocked the building, triggering a fire and gutting three floors in the north wing. The cause of the noontime blast, which injured 33 people, had not yet been determined, Kentucky fire investigators

The tremor from the second explosion rattle homes a half-mile from the school. residents said.

John Engle, the school district's business manager, was in front of the school when the first blast occurred. "It's an absolute miracle there weren't 200 kids killed." he said.

"There were immediate flames in the first three windows on the bottom floor." he said. "My first thought was that I could see 30 kids in the art class being incinerated immediately.

The boiler room is in a north wing added to the original 45-year-old building, about 10 years ago, Engle said.

Many students were in the cafeteria, at the other side of the building, when the blast occurred and that may have lowered the number of casualties and heard the fire alarm go off," senior Donna Ridner, 17, "Everybody thought it was a fake, just another fire drill. Then teachers came in and yelled, 'Get out. Get out.

"Nobody panicked. Someone said it was just a fire in the chemistry lab, but that wasn't it. When we were outside, they told us to go next door to the elementary school and wait

"Then we heard the second explosion. It lifted us off the ground a couple of inches.

Mrs. Whittenburg praised her students, who were closest to the blast. "The kids were great. They grabbed me off the floor. We had barely time to get out. The flames rolled right toward
