450 Planes Raid Britain In Mass Attack

12 Bombers Shot Down; Planes Fly Over In Waves

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 7.—Droves of German bombers hammered the war-torn London front with renewed mass assaults today, and some of the 450 planes which were estimated to have been used succeeded in penetrating to the central city.

Twelve of the raiders were shot down, the air ministry announced, in ferocious air battles in which the Germans were balked from reaching the capital in three of their five determined attacks.

Eight British planes went down. There were some fatalities and property was demolished by explosives dropped in parts of London outside the central area.

Dover, Eastbourne and "certain other towns" in Kent, in the south-east, also were damaged by the air ministry said.

The intensified attacks followed London's first quiet night in a month. Newspapers played up the "big news" that residents got a good sleep.

Brilliant sunshine succeeded channeled storms and clouds which grounded both British and German fliers last night.

However, the air ministry said its bomber squadrons made daylight attacks from the northern coast of France, yesterday, and did much damage among shipping, barges and airfields in a steady unfolding of the "master plan" to destroy German's ability to make war.

Some counteraction is to be expected in the Far East, too, informed sources said, indicating opening the Burma road to Chinese war supplies may be announced soon as a result of Japan's joining Britain's enemies in an axis alliance.

Continuing preparations for a steady winter of war on the London front, Health Minister Malcolm MacDonald announced a plan for comprehensive removal of women and children to billets in the country.

Two more landmarks, Westminster Abbey and Lambeth Palace, have suffered from German bombings of London, it was disclosed today.

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Numerous formations of German planes renewed mass tactics against London today, causing five "alert" signals to sound through the capital area, and reportedly losing nine of their number in severe air fights and anti-aircraft fire.

Only brief intervals separated the quiet periods between the fourth and fifth alarms, as the Germans took advantage of brilliant weather to press almost continuous attacks.

Raiding planes were seen over central London during the fifth alarm and gunfire was heard. The intensified raids followed upon London's first quiet night in a month.

Daylight raids, starting with attacks by single or small groups of planes, broadened into a series of thrusts with large numbers taking part.

The third daylight alarm was sounded in the London area as German planes, flying singly, by twos and threes, flew over the southeastern part of the city and also over the southwest coast.

Bursts of machine gun and anti-aircraft fire told of brief battles during the second and third raids, and apparently the bombers were driven off.

But later they returned over a southwestern London district, and were met by ground fire and British fighters.

Some yellow-nosed Messerschmitts dived on the balloon barrage at Dover, and shot down two of the big balloons.

The Germans took advantage of brilliant sunshine which succeeded thick clouds and storms yesterday and last night, when air activity was greatly reduced.

As they returned to the siege British authorities let it be known that hallowed Westminster Abbey, burial place of illustrious British dead and the scene of the coronations of her kings and queens, had been damaged by a recent bomb, and the Lambeth palace, residence

Worley And Campbell Invited To Tell Story On "We The People"

HEADS DRIVE

ARTHUR TEED Arthur M. Teed, for the past four years chairman of the local advisory board of the Salvation Army, will again head the Army's annual drive, which opens this week with an advance gifts campaign, to be followed by the drive proper, October 14-19.

"I have closely observed the progress of the Salvation Army," said Chairman Teed, "and can say that the splendid program carried on in the past certainly deserves support in the current campaign to raise $5,000 to carry on the Army's work here in the coming year."

Due in Pampa today are Major John Morrison, state financial secretary and Major Ernest Pickering, state young people's secretary, both from the divisional headquarters at Dallas. They are to conduct the annual audit of the Salvation Army here.

Captain Herman G. Lambrecht of Lubbock, formerly of Pampa, is in town to help the other officials get the drive underway.

A luncheon at the Schneider hotel at noon tomorrow is to mark the start of the campaign.

Congress May Decide To Take Recess Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Congress met today hopeful of reaching some decision on whether to take a recess until after election.

Speaker Rayburn said he would offer a resolution for a recess until Nov. 18, and senate leaders said that if the house so voted, they believed their chamber would quickly concur.

The temper of the house was uncertain, however, and some thought that a long recess might be defeated in favor of a series of three-day recesses under the informal ruling that no business be transacted on the days Congress reconvened to extend the recess another three days.

The latest threat to the elusive recess was the controversy which was developed over the informal rulings of Attorney General Jackson that

Crack Six-Man Teams Will Play In Pampa

By THE ROVING REPORTER It's another pass folks! Well, the Roving Reporter today passes you the big news that the two outstanding six-man football teams of the Panhandle will play here Friday night, and if we know the Pampa sports fans, they won't pass this one up!

All But Two Registration Places Named

With the exception of all but two, registration places for R-day in Pampa, October 14, have all been selected, the county clerk has been notified.

Remaining yet to report are precinct 3, Grandview, Morris Knopp, chief registrar, and precinct 8, Hopkins, Ernest Vandenburg, chief registrar.

No registration cards have yet been received by the county clerk. These cards and other R-day forms are due to be received in Pampa in time for the registrars school of instruction to be held this Saturday at the court house.

County Clerk Charlie Thut today received a check off list for registrars, outlining a part of their duties.

A copy of the first installment of a series of questions and answers on the peace-time military training program, which has been prepared under the direction of J. Watt Page, brigadier-general and state director of selective service, by Lieutenant Colonel Paul L. Wakefield, press division, selective service headquarters, Austin, is included in this story.

Further installments on the question and answer series will be included in daily stories concerning R-day in The Pampa News.

QUESTION AND ANSWER SERIES

1. History and Purpose Q.—What is the purpose of the selective service program? A.—The program's purpose is to train a body of reserves capable of meeting any military emergency that may confront this nation, and to select the men for this national duty by the fairest method possible—an enrollment of every man between the ages of 21 and 36, regardless of wealth or influence or social position. From this enrollment the United States army will choose those men whom it deems best fitted to receive a year's training.

2. Q.—Is the selective service program a newly-developed plan? A.—No. The selective service program was put into effect during the World War after the volunteer system of recruiting soldiers had failed to supply the nation's needs. After the war—in 1926—Congress instructed the army and Navy to work out a comprehensive selective service plan, and the program now being put into effect is the result of years

Japan Trying New Indo-China Grab

CHUNGKING, China, Oct. 7.—Japan has made new and far-reaching demands on French Indo-China, including the outright cession of an important slice of Tongkin province, in the northeast corner of the colony, a usually reliable source said today.

This source, reporting receipt of "authentic information," said the second Japanese demand was cession of a northwest strip of the colony's territory to Thailand, (Siam.) A third demand was reported to be that Indo-China grant independence to a southern district, presumably Cambodia, where a puppet government would be established.

Johnny Campbell was packed and ready to hop a plane for New York City, but his friend, Congressman-Nominate Eugene Worley of Shamrock, apparently today had not received their invitation for Mr. Worley and Johnny to appear on the famous radio program, We The People, Oct. 15 in New York.

The invitation came as a direct result of Johnny's story of the Mr. Worley Goes to Washington club in Life magazine last Friday. The We The People program Friday invited Gene and Johnny to appear on the program. The telegram was forwarded to Washington, and today the News received a telegram from Congressman R. E. Thomason of El Paso who introduced Mr. Worley on the house floor last week, stating that he was unable to locate Mr. Worley and that he understood the Panhandle congressman-elect was en route home.

It is believed that Mr. Worley had not received the telegram from We The People. The Associated Press, and Mrs. Van Huff, Marvin Jones' secretary, today cooperated in attempting to trace Mr. Worley.

It is believed that he will accept the offer. The News today received this message from We The People: "We have invited Congressman Worley and Johnny Campbell to appear on We The People program of Oct. 15. So far we have not received his acceptance to our invitation to come to New York WITH ALL EXPENSES PAID BY US. We do hope that he will accept as we are sure our listeners would enjoy hearing his story. Thanks very much for your interest. Tom McDonnell, We The People, 285 Madison Ave., N. Y. C."

We The People, one of the most famous radio programs in America, first introduced Wendell Willkie and a host of other noted Americans to the nation. It has been said often that Mr. Willkie received his greatest boost as a result of appearing on the program.

Today Johnny declared that the reason he wrote the Life article which gave Mr. Worley national prominence was because "I want him to appear on We The People program committee. He deserves it, and I believe that congress ought to give him that place. I know that if the nation could hear Gene over the radio they would know how smart he is and that he ought to have Marvin Jones placed on that committee. If he doesn't get it the Mr. Worley Goes to Washington will think of something else. Maybe we will go to Washington."

Meanwhile Johnny has his suitcase packed and is ready for Gene to turn up.

It is believed that the two will ride the airliner from Amarillo to New York if Mr. Worley hears of the invitation in time to accept. It will be necessary for both to be in New York by Sunday, Oct. 13. Johnny, 13-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, and captain of the Pampa team, is already planning to take in the World's Fair.

Disappearance Of Gene Worley Aired To Nation By AP

The following story concerning Congressman-Nominate Eugene Worley and Johnny Campbell, his youthful Pampa friend, was sent to newspapers all over the nation today by the Associated Press:

PAMPA, Texas, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Calling Gene Worley! Calling Congressman-to-be Gene Worley! Worley has gone to Washington. Johnny Campbell, 13-year-old Pampa football captain and campaigner who helped Worley win his run for congress, but he can't find Mr. Worley.

Johnny has an invitation to appear on a national broadcast and tell how the "Mr. Worley Goes to Washington club" helped put over his Shamrock, Texas, hero with the voters of the Panhandle.

Worley is somewhere in the East, maybe Washington. Will Mr. Worley contact Johnny? That is all!

Drive Nets Golfer Chicken Dinner

SPIRIT LAKE, Ia., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Oscar Todd, Spirit Lake postal clerk, socked a drive on the second leg at a country club here. The ball smacked a chicken and killed it, but nobody could find the lethal sphere.

Garfield Harker, the club's pro, took the chicken home. His wife dressed it. She found the golf ball inside, he said.

County 4-H Boys Leave For Dallas

Ralph R. Thomas, county agent, accompanied by three Gray county 4-H club boys, left today for the educational encampment at Dallas. These boys, together with more than 200 other 4-H club boys from all over Texas, will be guests of the state fair of Texas. All of the boys have won this trip by doing outstanding 4-H club work in their respective counties.

Accompanying Mr. Thomas were Billy Sanders, Alaneord, Donald Wilks Vincent, LeFors, and Thurl Collie of Alaneord. Last year Billy made a yield of 377 pounds to the acre on his cotton and turned in one of the most complete records in the county. This year he has 10 acres of cotton and five acres of milo, with prospects for another good yield in spite of the drought in his locality.

Donald Wilks Vincent fed a calf last year showing a net profit of $29.67. This calf won third place at the Pampa show and second place in the McLean show. Donald Wilks also raised a crop of milo last year as a feed for his calf. This year he will give him a net return of $74.82. This year Thurl won second in the open class on his 10 heads of milo and won first in the club class at the Alaneord fair.

This trip is being sponsored by the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

Aged Man Keeps Body Of Girl In Room Seven Years

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Officers arranged a hearing today for a 70-year-old man, who, they charged, kept in his bedroom for seven years the body of a young woman with whom he fell in love before she died.

"I did not want one so beautiful to go to dust," Deputy Sheriff Ray Elwood quoted the man as saying. Booked as Karl Taniel Van Cosel, he was placed in jail in default of $1,000 bond on a charge of removing the body from a vault without permission.

The officer said Van Cosel explained that he removed the body from a vault two years after the 15-year-old woman died, took it to his isolated home and used wax to repair and preserve it. Elwood said the body, clad in a silken robe with a veil over the face, lay in a single bed near a bed on which the elderly man slept. Gold bracelets were on the wrists and an artificial rose in her hair.

Deputies Elwood and Bernard Waite related this story. Van Cosel was an X-ray expert at the hospital to which the young woman was taken nine years ago for treatment of tuberculosis. He became enamored of her, and after her death, persuaded her family to allow him to have the body removed from the grave to a vault built at his expense.

Daily the aging man spent hours in the vault. "Then one day," Deputy Elwood quoted him, "I opened her coffin and found that the body was decaying. I did not want one so beautiful to go to dust. I stole the body about two years after she died and have had it with me ever since."

A member of the woman's family became suspicious, and upon a visit to Van Cosel's home, had a glimpse of the body on the bed. A search warrant was obtained and Deputies Elwood and Kaite entered the home yesterday.

U. S. Prepares To Build Army Houses

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Allocation of $45,762,500 to the public buildings administration for construction of 79 defense housing projects for the army to provide at least 13,000 dwelling units was announced today by John M. Carmody, federal works administrator.

Construction contracts will be negotiated on a cost-plus-limited-fixed fee basis. Eight of the projects consisting of 1,896 dwelling units will be for occupancy of civilian defense workers and the balance for married army personnel.

The act under which the housing will be constructed sets a limit for each unit of $3,500 for land, utilities and services.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapter Begins Rush Month At Breakfast Sunday

A clever school-day motif was the theme of the initial event of rush for Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority when breakfast was served at the Schneider hotel Sunday morning.

Centering the tables were yellow rose buds, the sorority flower. In a low black bowl and a bouquet of marigolds, tiny cedar trees in gum drop bases flanked the sidewalk which connected five "little red schoolhouses," designating the courses of study: Conduct, Expression, and Purpose; Beauty, Faith to Loyalty, Happiness, and Realization for the past five years. Miniature plates, on which were written the menu and activities for the

If your clothes budget is just about used up and you're still pining for a pinafore jumper or two, send for design No. 8797, and make yourself this perfectly charming style at practically no expense. It's deviously flattering to your figure, with soft front fulings in a skirt that sways and ripples gracefully with every step, and a corselet waistline, topped by gathlers.

The wide straps button across in the back, you see, making it stay put securely on the shoulders. Make the jumper of laid wool, corduroy, jersey of velvet; the blouse of flat crepe, chamois or jersey. Detailed sew chart included.

Pattern No. 8797 is designed for sizes 11, 13, 15, 17, and 19. Skirt 13 requires 2 2/3 yards of 34-inch material for jumper, 1 1/2 yards 38-inch material for short-sleeved blouse; 2 yards for long-sleeved.

Armies Being Inspected By Mussolini

(By The Associated Press)
ROME, Oct. 7.—Premier Mussolini moved rapidly through northeastern Italy today inquiring into the readiness of his trained troops while his people and the world waited for some indication from him on what Axis move his Brenner Pass party with Adolf Hitler might foreshadow.

On Thursday he is scheduled to review more Fascist units at Padua, up near the head of the Adriatic, and the word spread in some quarters that a speech might be expected from him there. Today he was at Verona, inspecting his armies of the Po.

The Italian high command, meantime, claimed another British submarine had fallen victim to the same torpedo motor torpedos which were reported yesterday to have sunk a British undersea craft.

The communiqué also said a British submarine had come out of the sea and thrown shells into the city of Savona, in northwestern Italy near Genoa, killing a civilian and injuring six others.

Navy casualties during September were listed as 55 Italian officers and sailors, five American native sailors and two civilian workers killed. The missing total 116 and 90 were wounded.

Mussolini reviewed motorized divisions today around Verona.

Decisions reached at Friday's Brenner Pass meeting of Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini will be translated into facts next week in the opinion of Giovanni Ansaldo, editor of Foreign Minister Count Ciano's newspaper Il Telegiornale.

Ansaldo told the nation's troops in a broadcast yesterday that this action would carry the Axis "further along the road to victory."

Lions To Help U. S. Navy Recruit Men

Pampa Lions are due to help the U. S. Navy recruit, according to a story received here today from Dallas.

The program was approved at a special meeting of the board of governors for Texas of Lions International, held in Dallas, September 29.

Secretaries of the 288 Texas clubs are to distribute material to members, and the program will reach its climax with special emphasis on Navy day, during the week of October 27, in hundreds of Texas cities.

The material distributed will include booklets, pamphlets and other literature describing the opportunities offered to youths who enlist in Uncle Sam's sea fighting forces.

"The navy must rapidly build up to meet the requirements of a two-ocean force," said Lieut. William B. Cranston, U. S. N., in charge of navy recruiting in this area.

"The navy feels that the opportunities it offers to youths for instruction in trades and crafts and technical subjects, plus chance to travel and learn first hand about the world, constitute enough of an incentive to maintain our procurement program at its top requirement if these opportunities are brought to the attention of eligible young men.

"Through this medium we hope to maintain Texas' position very near the top in percentage of voluntary enlistments as compared to population. Texas has always been in the forefront in the number and character of volunteers furnished the armed services in every emergency. It will not fall now."

Willkie Calls Jersey Mayor 'Puny Hitler'

By THEODORE F. KOOP
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 7. (AP) Describing Mayor Frank Hague in Hague's own Jersey City as a "puny Hitler," Wendell L. Willkie appealed today for preservation of civil liberties as an important part of national defense.

The Republican nominee for president called Hague, Democratic national vice chairman and state leader, "the principal promoter of the third-term draft, if such it is," and said his city was the site of "the greatest bunch of corruption and racketeers that ever appeared in America."

Speaking under heavy police protection in Journal Square—opposite Norman Thomas' "deported" when he tried to talk in 1938—Willkie told a throng estimated by supporters at 15,000:

"I call upon you in the interest of the cause we represent to bring civil liberties to their full functioning in Jersey City. If we do that and the people do that in every community, our precious rights will remain."

For seven and a half years, the candidate said, "the new deal has preached to our people a doctrine of bitterness."

Associated with it, he declared, "are men like this puny Hitler here who says who shall and who shall not be received courteously in this great state."

"How did this fellow get this way?" he asked.

Willkie had come from New York in a long line of automobiles, crossing the Hudson river by ferry and driving through some of the poorest sections of Hoboken and Jersey City.

Razzle-dazzle

People who read the sports pages know what razzle-dazzle means. It stands for football brilliance. The team that has it is flashy with unexpected passes and trick plays. A razzle-dazzle team gives the spectators plenty to yell about.

Razzle-dazzle is one of the spiciest ingredients of good football. It packs them in, and the customers go home satisfied.

Now, you might think such a satisfactory football ingredient would be a pretty nice thing to pass around to business in general. To merchants, for example. But you'll suddenly realize that razzle-dazzle is the last thing you want to find in a merchant you're dealing with!

Brilliant trickery is fine and dandy on the football field. But it's a different story in the marketplace. You want to dodge a razzle-dazzle merchant . . . or manufacturer . . . as you would the plague. And luckily, it's not hard to do.

Patronize those merchants and manufacturers who advertise. They're calling all their plays out in the open . . . for everybody to see. Merchants who advertise are bound to keep faith with the public . . . if they intend to remain in business.

Detroit Wins Fifth Game Of World Series

Reds Due To Win Sixth Battle Today

CINCINNATI, Oct. 7 (AP)—One of the most unexciting world series in memory of man came back to this city today for a return engagement, with the Detroit Tigers leading the Cincinnati Reds three victories to two and needing only one more to make it blank.

The general expectation was that the cruel war of attrition would continue to the bitter end, that today was the Reds' turn to win, and that the 1940 baseball championship would finally be decided tomorrow with everybody concerned bordering upon complete exhaustion.

Shutout 9 to 0 by a grieving but brilliant Bobo Newton in yesterday's fifth game at Detroit, the Reds figured to square it at three-all today behind Bucky Walters, who tamed the Tigers with a three-hitter in the second game here last week.

Bucky's scheduled round rival again was Schoolboy Rowe, who got rough treatment from the Reds the last time he faced them. They slammed him from the hill and went on to win without an anxious moment. Manager Del Baker, of course, hoped that "Schoolie" had recovered his stuff since then and would knock the Reds kicking today. But he knew it was only an outside chance.

Like everyone else around here, Baker, down in his heart, must have felt that the final decisive struggle would be fought on Crosley field tomorrow, his great Buck Newton coming back with one day's rest to oppose Cincinnati's Paul Derringer, who defeated the Tigers, 5 to 2, in last Saturday's fourth game.

It comes about, that will be something to see. And it's about time. Up to this point, the world series of 1940 has been a turkey, as the Broadway Daily critic likes to say. There hasn't been an exciting moment. The five games played have been won and lost almost at the outset. The crowds here and at Detroit sat out the latter stages of each.

Paradoxical as it may sound, last year's play-off-between Cincinnati and the New York Yankees packed greater thrills, even though the Yanks won four straight. In that one there were a couple of close hard-fought games. In this one the Reds and the Tigers have taken turns making each other look like bums. There have been three fine pitching performances, but in each instance there was no real contest.

Take Newton yesterday. His aged father had died after seeing his big son pitch the opening victory in Cincinnati, and Buck was strung up like a fiddle emotionally when he went to the hill again when he was determined to pitch another "for dad." And he did. He pitched one of the greatest games of his life. But his teammates battered the Red pitchers, starting with Junior Thompson, so quickly and violently that Buck's magnificent effort practically was wasted.

The big pitcher, once he had won, cried in the dressing room.

He gave the Reds only three hits, walked only two. His fast one was singing, his curve was breaking wide.

In a game where the result ever was in doubt, a couple of catches by Jimmy Riddle in left field for the Reds could have been baseball classics. Riddle was mad as a hornet because the official scorer hadn't given him a hit on a smash that third baseman Pinky Higgins on the previous day, so he probably was inspired. Anyway, he jumped against the barrier to rob Newton of a hit in the second inning, and in the eighth made a leaping,umping, falling catch off Sullivan in the left field corner that practically stopped the show.

Baker And Wilson Teams Will Clash Tuesday Afternoon

Top-Ranking Football Teams Of U. S. Picked

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (AP)—It is becoming possible to pick out the leaders among major college teams on the basis of performance rather than predictions, now that we are into October.

Top ranking in the various sections, on present performances may be awarded to Cornell, Georgetown, Boston College and possibly Pennsylvania in the east; Tennessee, Kentucky, Wake Forest and Clemson in the south; Michigan, Ohio State and several of their challengers in the middle-west; Texas, Texas Christian and Texas Tech in the southwest and Stanford and Santa Clara on the Pacific coast.

Right back of these—or perhaps even with them—are plenty of other challengers.

Right now the setup, by sections, looks something like this:

Last week's upsets have taken some of the edge off this week's program. Dartmouth, conquered by little Franklin and Marshall, 23-21, meets Columbia, 15-0 winner over Maine, New York University, upset 9-4 by Lafayette, plays Syracuse, 40-0 victim of Northwestern and Colgate meets Brown, an unimpressive winner. Princeton and Navy come together after a pair of close calls.

Inter-sectional games furnish most of the "meat" with Michigan's great team, which escaped a rebound from the California game by beating Michigan State 21-14, faces Harvard; Pitt, which came back to beat Michigan, 19-13, tackles Southern Methodist, rated one of the Southwest conference powers; Fordham, 20-7 winner over West Virginia, meets Calumet, which lost its second game to Auburn, 20-14.

Big Ten: The nine-team western conference maintained its excellent record when only Indiana lost to outside opposition and Purdue Purdue separates a big surprise by holding Ohio State to a 17-14 score in the first conference game. This week the Buckeyes encounter Northwestern, which looked very good against Syracuse while Purdue goes outside the loop to play Michigan State. Indiana, beaten by Texas 13-6, plays Nebraska, which lost to Minnesota 13-7.

Big Six: Iowa State leads the loop now on a 7-0 victory over Kansas while the other teams were turning in dismal performances against non-conference opposition. This week Iowa State plays Marquette; Kansas plays Drake, one of the Missouri Valley conference leaders; Oklahoma, which barely pulled out a 29-27 decision over Oklahoma Aggies, visits Texas at Austin and Kansas State, nosed out 7-6 by Colorado, meets Missouri.

Notre Dame, which resumed its career as the mid-western "independent" leader by whipping the Denver hospital "angel" takes on speedy Georgia Tech.

Southwest: Texas Christian, after assuming the conference lead with a 20-0 win over Arkansas, goes away to play North Carolina while the Razorbacks try again against Baylor, 14-7 winner over Denver. The Texas Aggies, another title candidate, tuned up with a 41-6 win over Tulsa, for a journey west to play U. C. L. A., which lost its second 9-6 game to Santa Clara Friday.

S. M. U. and Rice turned in fairly easy victories over North Texas and Centenary, respectively. Texas Tech, 19-0 victor over Loyola of Los Angeles, encounters Montana next.

South: Tennessee's 14-0 over Duke in what was billed as last Saturday's biggest game but which didn't quite come up to expectations put the Vols temporarily at the top of the South-eastern circuit and this week's Chattanooga game can't hurt them much.

Pacific Coast: Clark Shaugnessy's "dark horse" Stanford team now ranks as the team to beat in the coast conference after its 13-0 triumph over Oregon. While Santa Clara may be good enough to do the trick this week, the conference standing won't be affected. Casey at the Bay" baseball poem on his mother's (Hedda Hopper) radio program today. . . Southwest Teams Will Face Strong Elevens This Week

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT
DALLAS, Oct. 7 (AP)—Somewhere along the line something must crack to untangle the infant Southwest conference season—and if it doesn't by next week-end the craziest football league in the nation is on the way to its craziest season.

No one team, with the possible exception of Arkansas, has shown anything but its good hand. They all look good, and they have to be lead the nation in inter-sectional triumph—a clean sweep in 11 starts.

The spectacular inter-sectional lineup for next week-end, one of the most ambitious bits of Saturday afternoon scheduling ever achieved by the conference, puts every team right into the blue chip derby.

First off, the Texas Aggies, the great bunch looking for a second straight title, take a whack at U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles Saturday afternoon. The Aggies still have it, and they threw a little more fear around down at San Antonio last week-end to another Tulsa university, 41-6. Makers of 67 points in two games and a rather awesome offensive total of 602 yards against Tulsa alone, the Aggies shoot at the best Southern Methodist drilled, 9-6, two weeks ago, and still they go along unharmed—which is the important thing.

The stunning University of Texas team that felled Indiana, 13-6, and showed Cowboy Jack Crain some still amble, comes to Dallas to meet Oklahoma in the annual scrap between the state schools. Some 30,000 are expected for this one. Oklahoma got by a fine Oklahoma Aggie team, 29-27, in its opener.

Over at Chapel Hill, N. C., a game loaded with drama gets on. The shocking Texas Christian team that wallopped Centenary, 41-6, and then really showed something in shutting out Arkansas, 20-0, in the conference opener, plays North Carolina. It will be the old "teacher and pupil" act, crazy Duran Meyer leading a wild band of sophomores and a few veterans against one of his old boys, Bear Wolf.

The big parade carries into Pittsburg where Southern Methodist, owners of a 20-7 decision over that very stubborn North Texas State team, plays a Pitt team that isn't de-emphasized, after all. The Pitt Panthers sent "Pitchin' Paul Doozer" unassisted; Dozier to Huffman. Struck out by Hubbell 13, Dorman 4, Dorman 4. Base on balls off Crain 1; Hubbell 1; Dorman 3; Moore 1. Hits and runs off—Crain 6 and 8 in 5 innings; Hubbell 9 and 5 in 6 innings; Malle 8 and 1 in 5 innings; Moore 8 and 6 in 5-2-3 innings; Gibson 1 and 1 in 1 inning; Dorman 1 and 0 in 5-3-4 innings. Wild pitches—Crain 3; Hubbell 1; Dorman 1. Winning pitcher—Dorman. Losing pitcher—Gibson. Time of game—2:25. Umpires—Hunter and Rieger.

SERIAL STORY

THIS COULD BE YOUR STORY

BY MARGUERITE GAHAGAN

COPYRIGHT, 1940, NEA SERVICE, INC.

All characters, organizations and incidents of this serial are entirely fictitious.

YESTERDAY, Joe is still in a critical condition, may have to undergo an operation. Worried and weary, she has fled to the hospital. Sue Mary sends out several agents hunting down subversive elements. She writes to the federal building, tells her story to the department chief. He tells her not to worry, to go through with plans to meet Nick.

SUE MARY WINS

CHAPTER XXV

THE door to the law office was partly open. Sue Mary pushed it wide, stepping in to the dim quiet. She started back in surprise as Nick rose from a chair and came toward her. She had hoped to be there ahead of him. She wondered how he had come in, but she had no time to puzzle that out. He was beside her before she could speak. He took her in his arms, looked into her face.

"Why—Nick—y—ou're here early."

"Not too early. A man in love doesn't like to wait." He held her tighter and kissed her long while she tried to push him away.

"No, Nick, no, please. You—you said you wanted to talk to me."

"We can always talk—" he said, kissing her again.

She wanted to run; to run anywhere; get away from Nick, from his lips, his arms. She was terrified, but she had to stay. He took her hand and led her to the office.

"We shouldn't be here," she repeated, but he only smiled. It was then that Vera came out of old Ross Clark's office.

"So—she did come," she said, looking at Sue Mary in her usual calm, poised, assured manner. "Well, now we can call it a night."

Sue Mary sat down suddenly. Her legs refused to hold her up and again she felt panic, taking control of her. She wasn't alone.

Mr. Flanagan and his men should be here. But were they? She wondered if they were here now. How much had they seen and heard?

She felt enough confidence in Flanagan and his men to believe they controlled the situation. Yet being with Nick was nerve-wracking enough.

VERA was stuffing some papers into her bag. "Let's go. She knows—that is unless she's a complete half-wit."

Sue Mary felt feminine indignation rising within her. "Half-wit?" she repeated angrily.

"You can't do anything about it back into the center of the room. "Take the two of them along," Flanagan ordered. "And get those papers away from her. There won't be any airport site announcement tomorrow. I've settled that deal already after talking to young Clark."

"Now, maybe, good citizen Nicky can tell us about the labor trouble at Smithson—as well as a lot of other things we've been wondering about."

They were finally gone, Vera bristling and Nick trying desperately to hush her angry flow of words.

"Nice people," Flanagan said to Sue Mary. "I'm sorry you had to go through this, but it seemed the safest way. Get them here as though nothing was going to happen and then nab them."

"You've helped us plenty. Most people want to help these days, but too many of them let their imaginations run wild. But this—this was the real thing. You've done your part tonight."

She felt a glow of gratitude, but her eyes were on the clock. She wanted to get to the hospital. They might be operating on Joe even now.

"Sure, I know," Flanagan was saying. "You're worried about the boy friend. Well, get along. I'll put you in a cab. I have a hunch you're going to find everything all right. You deserve to have it that way."

SUE MARY didn't remember much about the ride. She walked down the corridor to Joe's room. Suppose it was empty! Suppose he had gone to the operating room never to return! She met the nurse at the door.

"Tell me—is he?"

"He's fine. They won't have to operate. It will be a tough struggle back, but he's out of danger. And you can go in—just a second, though."

A second—it was a whole lifetime. The beginning of a new life, she thought, standing by Joe's bed watching his regular breathing, touching his helpless hand. It was a new life and no matter what happened around them, no matter what problems arose in this strange, confused world they would face them together.

The curtains moved gently in the breeze and a faint sound of music came from a radio in another wing of the building. It was midnight and a station was signing off.

"God bless America—"

She leaned over and kissed Joe's lips.

Seven Killed In Airplane Crashes

(By The Associated Press)

Seven persons were killed and another was injured in three Texas airplane accidents over the week end.

Claude Eure, 60-year-old pilot, and four passengers in his plane fell to their deaths after an air collision late Saturday near Velasco. The other ship in the collision was piloted by Eure's 21-year-old son, Willard, who managed to land safely despite the loss of a propeller.

The fatally injured passengers were Dave S. Crowley, about 60, of Velasco; his son, J. P. Crowley, 21; T. J. Knowles, about 45, Freepport, and Hugh Holly, 40, Freepport.

Scott Strauch, 29, N. Y. A. instructor at Roy Inks Dam near Burnet, and William Jordan 26, of Katelyn, Williamson county, were killed Sunday when Strauch's plane crashed in a field near Katelyn.

Frank Graves, 18-year-old private flying student at Beaumont, suffered a cracked pelvis Sunday in the third mishap. Graves pulled his ship out of a spin but was forced to land in a wood.

GIRL DISCUSSES BOYS

"Oh, you don't like the way girls dress, do you—well, I like that. Suppose you get that smug, self-satisfied look off your face and listen to me! First, you say you don't like our hair—so what? Do you think we like some of the ways you young specimens of manhood wear yours?"

And Holy Cow! Speaking of hair, why let your hair grow down your back, Coronado style—we don't mind admitting you boys have "pretty hair" but Coronado is dead—why not leave him there! Still there's the brother of yours who persists in brightening his family tree—I'm talking about the monkey generation—and the boys who clip their hair so short!

No—wait—I'm not through—that's just a sample—these darling little brothers of yours who don a pair of second-rate cowboy boots and strut around like Gene Autry. Can you imagine? Looks cozy—if you get what I mean! And shoes—well, we may wear saddle oxfords and they might be dirty once in a while but did you ever take a gander at the boys cruising around the halls wearing shoes with run-down heels or with no more polish than a farmer's boots?

And wait—our faces—what's the matter with 'em? I notice boys never fall to turn around and stare at a girl who has a shiny nose. Still, why stare at her at all—it isn't compulsory!

BUILDING GROWS LONESOME

If our present high school building could talk, I wonder just what she would say about the new school building that is at the moment being erected. I wonder if she would look at it with a smile or would she scorn it. I rather think that she would have a look of scorn on her brow for she has mothered the students of high school age for the last 11 years. She has seen them when victory was theirs and I rather imagine that she too has seen joys and triumphs. She has seen us when we have seen defeat and sorrow has filled our hearts; perhaps her heart, too, has been filled with these sorrows. For she has been rather like a mother to several hundred students and teachers.

Industrial Art Classes Work Hard On Projects

The hum of machinery, buzzing of raws and the pounding of hammers, greeted me as I entered the headquarters of the department of Industrial Arts.

As my eyes roved around the cluttered table, I lit on Ralph Proper. A busy personage he seems to be, too, engaged in making a lovely cedar chest. Two other boys, Jack Termin and John Rogers, are also making cedar chests. Ah, what do we have here? Looks like something in the walnut line. Raymond Hall is making a walnut table; Bill Spivey a walnut lamp, and Bill Hudgens a smoking stand. Completing my observation I see that Richard Wright is working on a shadow lamp, Lawrence Brown a magazine basket, and Lewis Flanigan a lamp in the shape of an old-fashioned well.

Industrious, aren't they? Phil F. Gruver, teacher of shop, says, "Even though most of my students are beginners, the work so far by the boys has been very satisfactory. For those who are so industrious a new addition has been added to the shop family (a new jig saw)."

Officers Elected At Class Meeting

Harvesters Fight But Lose Third; Olney Wins, 12-9

Johnny Collings ran, passed and kicked the Olney Cubs to a 12-9 victory over the Pampa Harvesters Friday night.

Olney scored early in the first quarter after Grover Heiskell had kicked to the 40-yard line when the Harvesters failed to make a first down from the 30-yard line. Collings and Graves hit the line three times for first downs, Collings passed to R. Smith who took the ball to the 45-yard line. Collings circled left end for 14 yards before Arthur and Heiskell tackled him. He went off tackle to score but failed to convert, making the count 6-0.

After Olney had kicked off following the touchdown, the Pampa team marched from the 48-yard line to the 7-yard line, but failed to cross pay-dirt for a score.

Just before the first half was over, Heiskell broke off tackle and raced 98 yards to score, standing up, but the play was called back and the Harvesters were penalized 15 yards for holding. A few plays later the Olney center snapped the ball over Collings' head and it rolled over the goal line but Collings covered it, giving the Harvesters 2 points. At the half the score was 6-2 with Olney in the lead.

The Harvesters score came early in the third quarter and featured "Lefty" Pendleton doing most of the running. The Harvesters started on Olney's 45-yard line and Ed Terrell scored 5 plays later. Heiskell kicked the extra point and the Harvesters were leading 9-6.

Both teams played in the center of the field for the rest of the third quarter and most of the fourth. With only 5 minutes to play, Heiskell kicked to the Olney 20-yard line where they started a 70-yard march down the field to victory. This drive was sparked by Collings' smashes off-tackle and his passes.

The Cubs made more yardage through the air than on the ground. The Harvester defense lacked a little of their drive they have shown in other games, but the blocking was better.

Arthur, Pendleton, Heiskell and Fade were the outstanding players for Pampa. Collings and Smith were outstanding for Olney.

The game was dedicated to the memory of Knute Rockne, the greatest football coach of all times. A dedication speech preceded the game.

I wonder why Mickey Rafferty has been summoned to Mrs. Roberts' office so often the last week?

Membership Drive Announced At P. T. A.

Mrs. Frank W. Showell, membership chairman of the high school P. T. A., announces the membership drive will close October 25.

The executive board, which met at 2:20 p. m. Thursday, October 3, in room 203, recommended that $5 be paid the class—freshman, sophomores, junior or senior—which has the most paid members on October 24.

The Parent-Teacher voted to accept the recommendation of the executive board.

The Student Council urges all classes to co-operate in this project. Read the poem printed below, parents and teachers, and then follow this prescription:

Put your 35 cents into an envelope, seal, sign your name and address on the outside—Take the envelope to Mrs. Lou Roberts, registrar, and your membership card will be given at the next meeting.

Just a plain, white envelope, Without a thing to hide, Isn't worth much to anyone Without something inside.

So place a quarter and dime within. And join our P. T. A. Send it to your registrar. Then hear the members say: "This ordinary envelope Has proven to be a friend, So many fine new members, It has helped us to win."

So, whether you join or not, It pleases us to say We welcome you to every meeting Of the High School P. T. A.

Gorillas Look Good In Beating LeFors Second String 19-0

Combining the smashing power of Jack Lane and Richard Stephens, the Gorillas hung up a 19-0 victory over the LeFors second string Pirates in a scrimmage game Wednesday afternoon at LeFors.

"Doug" Loveliss looked like a college guard as he went through the LeFors line and dropped the ball carrier for many losses.

The first score came at the beginning of the second quarter after Stephens and Waters carried the ball the 1-yard line. Waters played across for the first touchdown; Bobby Edson missed the extra point. The second touchdown came on a beautiful 30-yard run around left end by Jack Lane. Edson, running up, Edson kicked the extra point. Lane had previously scored a touchdown but it was called back when Pampa drew a penalty for holding. The Gorillas were penalized 15 yards. The third touchdown was made by Stephens carrying the ball most of the way, marching 60 yards. Stephens went over from the 3-yard line. Edson's kick hit the bar and bounced back.

Frank Showell played a bang-up game in both defense and offense, smearing the passer many times. He also caught a couple of beautiful passes thrown by L. J. Halter who also played well.

The LeFors team made only 2 first downs, which shows the Gorillas were crashing all the time.

Basketball Taught In P. E. Classes
Basketball seems to be the center of attraction in the physical education classes of Miss Evelyn Gregory.

Senior Diary

Puff! Puff!
8:31
I'm late
To Mr. Herod
I overslept
But I don't admit it
I look off—
Far off—at blue distances
Try to look injured
Abused
Martyred
It doesn't work
Unexcused
Oh, well
It cost nothing
To try
To thrice down the hall
To typing—
Sams old crate
To pound snuff
I see myself
A speed demon—
90 words a minute
Sought after,
Talented—admitted—
The boss—yachie—
Big ears!
Who knows???

The bell saves me.
Boy! Was I dizzy in that round.
Round 2
Roland Phillips
Going to war
On Chaucer's
"When that Aprille
With his shoures sote"
Sad!
That he should come to this.
Round 3
I fight my way into
A Cappella choir,
Treading over the protests
Of Miss Martin
Of Miss Culberson
Strikes a chord;
Miss Martin
Raises her hand;
There is silence—
(She hcpes)
The basses swing on
"Ezekiel saw de wheel."
The other guys and gals
Say, "Hallelujah!"
We scream up the scale.
Br-r-ring!
Teacher passes on.
I pass out.
Crumch time—
I dash for Patrick's
(Liberty or death)
Out of breath.
I lose—
I miss my booth.
The waitresses—
Yonder she goes
Here she come,
Whassa!
She stops—
"Name it!"
I answer, I perish—
The Silence.
Diffused odors—
Onions-perfume
Gaming of sounds
Sweet music
Clashing dishes
Loud conversation.
Boy meets girl.
If coles get people drunk
Boy! The drunk people
Jim session
Girls to right
Comes a football hero
Manly-handsome
(In an ugly way)
Two waitresses in a race
They're off
Neck and neck
Mine lost
Hungry, famished,
I swoon, I perish—
Time files.
I peep over the booth
Confidentially.
Heal come my lush gal
Bitch!
Here comes a newsguy sody
Nice!!!
Empty again
No! Thank you.
No, nickels
No, nickels
Oh! Oh!
A new one in green
So cool—
So cold—
Cracked ice.
A sailor enters
Adventure—Curly black hair
Well, there they all go
The rush is over
Only the dishes remain
The waiters eat.
I rush out into the street—
Gnawing ragged fingernails—
Frenziedly
What in the %&*
Can I use for
Harvester copy?

Henry Gee From Far East Is President Of Freshman Class
From the land of rhododendron, sampans, junkies and chopsticks comes Gee Sil Hing, (Henry Gee to you), to be the new president of the freshman class. He adds this honor to his position as student council member.

Henry formerly lived in Canton, one of the capitals of China. Henry is not from the country; Canton has a population of 812,241.

Pampa says Henry just fine. All he cares about China now is as a place to go for a visit. He likes America the best since he has come to know the people and their customs.

Henry was only 11 years old when he arrived in the United States. He is now 15.

After four years in America, he is able to take part in all class work, presides nicely at class meetings, and knows all the American slang.

"His English is very good," his English teacher stated.

The American way of reading is very difficult to Henry. In his country he starts at the back of the book and reads to the front. China has a syllable language; each written character represents not a sound, but a word of one syllable.

Written characters are placed in columns, not lines, and are read from top to bottom and from left to right. Four years ago, Henry could not speak a word of English. When he enrolled in Woodrow Wilson, he took first grade reading and fifth grade mathematics. Math in China is the same as in the U. S.; two times two is four. All reading is done aloud. Henry said that he had a hard time learning to read silently.

The boys and girls have one hour for lunch and two hours for dinner. The rest of the time is spent at the school. One part of the school is divided for the boys to sleep in and the other for the girls.

Gee, Sil Hing would like to study art, his favorite subject, at Texas A. and M. college. He likes history very well. His favorite sports are basketball and football. Volley ball is the only sport of this kind in China. His hobby is learning as many foreign languages as he can. He likes to read books, especially those from China.

Meet J. M. Ellbert, Your Library Teacher
Mr. James M. Ellbert, the Pampa High school library teacher, was born on July 20, 1905, in Denton county, Texas.

Mr. Ellbert attended grammar and high school in Denton. He went to North Texas State Teachers college in 1931 where he received his B. A. degree.

Mr. Ellbert started teaching school in 1927, at the Godley High school in Godley, Texas. He taught sciences, and was also the football, baseball, and basketball coach in Godley that year.

For the next two years Mr. Ellbert was principal in the grammar school in Frisco, Texas.

The next two years were spent as superintendent of a rural school at Lake Dallas, Texas.

He temporarily quit teaching and for the next six years worked for the Cabot Carbon company at Seminole, Oklahoma, and then later at Pampa. He came from Seminole to Pampa last year.

Mr. Ellbert enjoys all sports, especially tennis. He used to play baseball while working for the Cabot Carbon company, he was catcher and fielder on their team.

Mr. Ellbert was with the faculty last year and again this year. He is a very ready and willing person to help anyone who needs him at any time.

Wrestling To Be Offered This Year

Amateur wrestling, a highly exciting form of physical exertion, is to be included in the list of sports for the boys' P. E. class. This will be the first time wrestling has ever been offered at P. H. S. According to Coach Hinger, P. E. instructor, this "grunt and groan" work will start sometime after Christmas.

The P. E. program has been divided into fall, winter, and spring divisions and each will be full of good, clean fun.

In the fall program is croquet, horse-shoes, softball, basketball, shuffle-board, speedball, and soccer.

When the weather gets too cold to be outside in gym clothes, the class will play in the gym. Then they will play hand-ball, basketball, tumbling, boxing, wrestling, ping-pong, and aerial darts.

When spring rolls around they will engage in bowling, tennis, padminton, tennis, archery and badminton.
