LeFors Citizens in Big Safety Meeting

More than 500 LeFors citizens and school children gathered in the LeFors high school auditorium last night to hear a delegation of Pampa citizens explain safety work as it is being carried out in Pampa and other cities. So enthusiastic was the response that LeFors citizens asked the Pampa citizens to assist them in a safety campaign.

Talks on safety were made by A. G. Post, chairman of the Kiwanis club safety committee, M. P. Down and Paul Hill of the Kiwanis club and City Traffic Officer Joe Persky. Members of the Kiwanis club told how the program was sponsored by them with the cooperation of the city's department, citizens, fire department and school.

Officer Persky talked on the value of a child's life and the care motorists must use in driving through school areas. He particularly talked to the children on care in crossing streets, playing in the streets riding bicycles, and the value of their cooperation with their elders.

The Pampans were loud in their praise of the high school auditorium which is one of the best in this part of the country.

The Pampans said they would be glad to assist in the organization of a safety week program in LeFors.

West Texas Sets Record for Building Of Improved Roads

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 9. (AP)—Robert West Texas, young and proud of her strength, today has more road construction activity than perhaps any other section of the United States. Payrolls are being released each week-end to hundreds of men who are busy building bridges, putting up grades and building hard surfaced roadways.

In Sterling county, 19 miles of roads are being built from Sterling City to the Glasscock line. A few weeks ago the county built a hard road from the Tom Green county line to Sterling City.

From Brownwood north to Rising Star ten miles of paving are under construction. Plans are now being prepared for paving all roads on the main highway through the counties, amounting to 100 miles or more.

The 18 miles from Ballinger to wards Coleman will be paved in the next few months, and the grades and drainage have been completed. The contract will be let within three months. The money is available. Eleven miles from Ballinger to the Concho county line are under construction. Highway 4 through the Bammel county, a distance of 23 miles, will be paved entirely.

POSTAL SITE INSPECTION IS LIKELY SOON

City Engineer Completes Survey and Soil Tests Then Wires Washington to Check This Data.

LOCATION GOOD

Nearness to Station Makes Delivery Easy and on Free Basis; Work is Expected Soon.

A representative from the postal department at Washington will be in Pampa soon to check the survey, blue prints and soil tests made by City Engineer C. L. Stine at the location of the new federal building. Mr. Stine wired Washington this morning that he had finished his work and was ready for an inspection to be made.

A hole 6 feet by 4 feet by 10 feet has been dug and the soil tested. A smaller hole 5 feet deep has also been dug from the bottom of the large hole and that soil also graded. A large blueprint containing information regarding the lot itself, surrounding lots and the buildings thereon, streets, alleys, lights, etc., has been prepared by Mr. Stine.

Mail will be delivered from the depot by the new postoffice free of charge because the receiving door will be less than 100 feet from the depot. The exact distance from the depot to where the receiving door will be located is 297 feet, Mr. Stine says.

It is not known how soon construction work will start but postal officials here are optimistic.

Dallas Woman Shot; Husband Is Held by Police

DALLAS, Oct. 9. (AP)—Mrs. Katherine Wizenman Strong, 38, was wounded, probably fatally, at her home last night. One in the body, the other in the arm. Physicians said she had but slight chance of recovery.

A charge of assault to murder was filed today against her husband, Davis W. Strong, 38, who was arrested by a police officer and Ralph Wizenman, 20, his stepson, after a hand-to-hand encounter.

Police learned the Strongs had quarreled frequently since their marriage last April and Mrs. Strong was contemplating suicide for a while.

Motive for the shooting was believed to have been provided by the divorce issue.

Wanted: Motorists At Testing Ground

Only 500 Pampa motorists have taken advantage of free brake testing and light adjusting in connection with safety week since Monday according to A. D. Monteth, registrar. Mr. Monteth says that of the cars checked, 55 per cent had defective lights and 45 per cent had bad brakes.

There should have been 1,000 cars sent through by this time, Mr. Monteth declared. "If the cars already tested have defects think of the danger to citizens, especially children, from cars not tested," he said.

The service is absolutely free, testing is on West ingram avenue between Somerville and West streets. The service is part of the safety week being sponsored by the local Kiwanis club.

The free tests will end Saturday at 6 p. m.

Stampede Recalls Pioneer Dramas

EAGLE PASS, Oct. 9. (AP)—One of the thrilling dramas of the old Wild West was reenacted only three blocks from the business section of Eagle Pass a few days ago when 900 fat yearlings that were being taken to the stock pens became unmanageable and stampeded.

Tearing down fences, breaking small trees, and trampling everything in their path, they raced in the direction of a deep ravine that runs through the Army Post land here.

When they reached the bank of the ravine, they rushed headlong over the steep bluffs and piled three deep in the narrow confines below. Twenty-two of their number were left dead or dying when the wave of animals passed on.

TEXANS SEE CAVERNS CARLSBAD, N. M., Oct. 9. (AP)—Fifty-five per cent of the persons who went through Carlsbad caverns in Carlsbad Caverns park, during September, were Texans, the records of Col. Thomas L. Boles, superintendent, show.

As Al Capone Went on Trial

Alphonse Capone, variously known as Scarface, Al, Snorky, "75," the Big Guy and Public Enemy No. 1, is being tried in Chicago charged with violation of the income tax law. He is pictured here between guards leaving the federal court at the close of the first day of his trial.

THOUSANDS IN STRIKES NOW

Textile Centers Hard Hit as Workers Refuse to Take Salary Cuts.

BOSTON, Oct. 9. (AP)—More than 25,000 jobs went begging in Massachusetts today as workers, incensed by announced reductions in wages or by unsatisfactory working conditions, walked the streets on strike.

The general strike movement, having its center in a textile city of Lawrence where approximately 22,000 men and women left their looms and benches rather than accept a 10 per cent reduction of wages, had spread to other centers today. In Boston, approximately 3,000 longshoremen were refusing to handle cargo on the coastal and foreign vessels plying in and out of this port although the crew of their quarrel with the ship owners was not entirely a matter of wages, but centered with greater gravity on a working condition.

In the textile city of Lowell, a geographical neighbor of Lawrence, strike had brewed several days and was transformed into action yesterday when more than 300 employees left one of the mills. An announced 10 per cent wage cut here, also, was the motivating element. Several hundred workers in a hosier manufacturing plant in Northampton, objecting to wage reductions, succeeded in forcing the closing of the plant.

Lawrence, with its principal industry practically idle, is in the worst predicament. Yesterday strikers' pickets succeeded in drawing away sufficient workers to cripple the last of the large American Woolen company plants to operate. In addition, the Pacific mills and Arlington mills, employing large numbers were silenced.

The mill owners in this city contended that unless a reduction of 10 per cent in wages is made effective their mills cannot survive "the ruinous competition" from other centers where the prevailing wage is lower and, in some instances, the working day longer.

Hunted Gunman Is Shot To Death

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 9. (AP)—Police said today that they had identified H. C. Case, shot to death yesterday by a detective, as Adelbert McCabe, wanted for the gang killing at Houston, Texas, and for a bank robbery at Dallas, Texas.

His companion, who gave his name as J. C. Shores, was identified, police said, as William Schriener of Houston, also sought in connection with a Texas gang killing and for the robbery of the Jefferson Trust bank at Austin, Texas.

McCabe was slain at a prominent hotel when he tried to escape Detective Loren Miller as the latter sought to question him. He raced for a stairway and turned to shoot, but Miller emptied his own pistol at the fugitive, killing him.

In McCabe's room was found an automatic rifle, several smaller weapons and 200 rounds of ammunition. The identifications were made after a long distance talk with William Gordon, finger print expert of the Kansas City police department.

Car Is Seized An automobile believed to belong to the two men was taken from a local garage by police. The car, a sedan, bore the Kansas license number 1-28523.

Miller was the dead man's pockets bore the name of B. C. Case of Minneapolis. In his pockets were found $1,600 in cash and 16 cartridges.

The man identified as Schriener carried a pistol and two pairs of shoes when he was arrested. The shooting occurred while Detectives Miller and Fred Sillick were investigating a report that the two men were machine gun salesmen.

Miller was outside of the sixth floor room of the men, while Schriener was gradually losing ground.

WHISPERS NAME

Joe Roberts Succumbs as He Is Rushed in Ambulance to Baird; Has Sister in Brownwood.

CROSS PLAINS, Oct. 9. (AP)—A middle-aged man whispering his name as Joe Roberts died at 4 o'clock this morning in an ambulance conveying him over bumpy roads from Cross Plains to Baird, several hours after he had been found, frightfully burned, in Smith's drug store here, which was aflame.

The drug store fire was discovered at 12:45 a. m. Passersby drove into the building heard groans from the rear of the place. Roberts was found lying near the store safe. Both doors of the building were locked. The burned man gave his name, said he lived "most anywhere" but had a sister in Brownwood, then sank into unconsciousness, which was a fire.

Officers reported finding was smeared around the combination of the safe, but no torch or tools were found. A check-up today showed that an unsuccessful attempt had been made to break into another establishment here, the Sims Drug store, a screen door having been removed and the rear lock broken. Officers were certain an explosion had fired the rear end of the Smith store, enveloping Roberts fatally, but could not determine the cause.

The fire was extinguished with a $2,000 loss.

Judge to Admit Testimony About Capone's Moves

FEDERAL BUILDING, CHICAGO, Oct. 9. (AP)—A former Miami prosecutor who participated in the attempt to drive "Scarface Al" Capone out of Florida today quoted the gang leader as saying his business was cleaning and pressing, real estate and gambling—mostly gambling.

Vernon Hawthorne, who was state's attorney of the 11th Florida district in 1928, the first witness of the day in Capone's income tax trial, related an interview between Capone and Miami officials in the summer of that year. The authorities, he said, objected to Capone's presence there and wanted to know "what he proposed to do in Miami."

"I'm just here for a rest," he quoted the gangster as saying.

The former prosecutor was the first of the many witnesses the government had subpoenaed in Florida in their effort to show that Capone had large sums of money, although he paid no income tax.

In a formal statement, Federal Judge James H. Wilkinson reaffirmed his decision yesterday to allow the government to present evidence of Capone's attempt in 1930 to settle up his income tax.

Doctor Declares Girl Was Choked

SINTON, Oct. 9. (AP)— testimony was introduced today in the trial of Newton Yerberry on a charge of murder for the death of Dorothy Dorcas Symons, to show that the child singer's body bore evidence of "some choking or violent effort of some kind."

Dr. Walter Noble, who examined the body after it had been recovered from a muddy seaweed grave near the Aransas Pass breakwater Aug. 1, testified that the 18-year-old girl's throat appeared to have been bruised.

On cross-examination, however, he would not say positively how she had met death. He was unable to tell whether she was "drowned."

Yerberry, allegedly the sweetheart of the girl, was alleged by the state to have been the last person seen with her before her disappearance July 30.

ADVERTISING RACKETEERS

Our town may not have the blood-thirsty wops who flourish in the underworld of the great cities, but there is nevertheless a class of racketeers who have their eyes on this city, and are continually slipping in and going out with a generous amount of coin for their meager efforts.

There are very few more harassed personages in the land than the country merchant. He is systematically coaxed, teased, capoled and brow-beaten by these racketeers (who are looking for easy money) into taking on their advertising fakes, and these schemes are without end in number, and in the main practically all without advertising value.

They range from railroad time cards, hotel registers, cafe menus, door-knob hangers, so-called booster write-ups, to almost every kind of bologna the mind of a human can conjure.

Several years ago illuminated sign boards with changing pictures were placed along roads adjacent to the city. Cars whizzing along at 40 to 60 had a lot of spare time to read these "advertisements." If they did take their eyes off the road they merely flirted with the ditch, a turn-over, or a smash-up.

Then there came a bunch that sold "advertising" on cards with the order of services of churches. They told the advertisers that the local church was hard pressed for cash, and had asked them to help out. The church got 75 cards that were never used, the printer got $5, and the fakirs netted $120 for their profits.

The slicker with the circus shell game has nothing on these birds when it comes to their "con" games.

Scores of times since coming to this city we have been approached by these fakirs and offered juicy plums if we would co-operate with them in their schemes, and we have invariably turned them away.

We turned them away because in practically every case there was no advertising value in what they had to offer; because their charges to the prospective customer were outrageous; and mainly because they were fakirs, or in more modern parlance, racketeers.

There are home activities which must be supported but the next time one of the so-called racketeers drops into town and tries to divorce you from your much-needed cash—show him the gate—no matter what kind of advertising he is selling.

If you have any doubt as to the probably advertising value of the proposition these fellows offer, consult your local publishers, who, in many instances, had the opportunity to analyze the grafts before they were offered to you.

And at the end of the year your bank balance will be more substantial because you passed up the fakes. —Leader, Pipestone, Minn.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Oct. 9. —This old mining camp has arranged a 4-day celebration to pay tribute to the heroes of its "hell-dorado"—that pioneer period when the six-shooter was mightier than the pen.

A herd of wild horses was rounded up on the Arizona desert to open the pageant with a stampedede today. Memorial services will honor Ed Scheffelin, founder of Tombstone and Col. Billy Breckenridge, who died a year ago.

For several weeks the men chosen to portray the principal characters have avoided workshops and the management urges them "hurry up and get ready."

John Gilbert in New Film Role

"The Phantom of Paris" which leads the list of La Nora films, today stars John Gilbert, the screen's most popular lover in a daily new role of a trickster. Not only does Gilbert play the part of a headstrong, but a trick of making up also plays the part of a marquis who has different characters, who is loved and pitied.

He returns to his real self at the end of the picture, a trick of acting that was worth the utmost efforts of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

JUNIOR HIGH PARENTS, TEACHERS BEGIN ACTIVITIES

Miss Leora May, Former Woman's Page Editor in Pampa, Is Married

FIRST MEETING IS HELD WITH 65 ATTENDING

The junior high school Parent-Teacher association assembled for its initial meeting of the year Thursday afternoon at the high school building with 65 members and visitors attending.

Mrs. E. C. Will, president, presided, and Supt. R. B. Fisher opened the meeting with a prayer. Miss Lois Stallings then led the group in singing America, the Beautiful and Love's Old Sweet Song.

Principal R. A. Selby brought greetings to the patrons from the junior high school faculty. He discussed problems of the school briefly and asked for the cooperation of the association in solving these problems.

A piano duet was played by Flora Dean Finley and Ann Sweatman. Then Emmitt Smith, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. M. Teed, sang two selections, One Fleeting Hour, and Out of the Dusk to You.

Superintendent R. B. Fisher explained the proposed cafeteria plan, stating that it would meet a vital need in Pampa. A committee from the association is to consider this plan further.

Honoring pupils of Miss Byrd Whiteley's room, who had the largest representation of parents present, the association planned a watermelon feast.

Hayden's Bond Is Forfeited by Ewing

When W. O. Hayden, charged in 31st district court with possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale, failed to appear in the court room after Judge W. R. Ewing had allowed him a half hour to confer with attorneys, his bond was forfeited and a capias warrant issued for his arrest.

Hayden appeared late for his trial this morning, claiming that his attorney was out of the city and that he understood his trial had been postponed.

Judge Ewing informed the defendant that his trial was called for this morning and that it was going to be tried. Another member of the law firm representing Mr. Hayden was summoned and given 30 minutes to prepare a defense. The attorney appeared in the court room but the defendant was missing.

At noon the defendant had not been found and Judge Ewing then dismissed the jury.

Federal Judge in Official Warning On Truck Control

HOUSTON, Oct. 9. (AP)—Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly today cautioned officials of Robertson county, as well as of other counties, to assist in enforcing certain provisions of house bill No. 335, which placed the regulation of trucks under the supervision of the railroad commission, until final action is taken upon the bill by the three-judge federal court.

A petition alleged that T. L. Tyson, county attorney, V. C. Box, sheriff, and Lee Jacey, constable, all of Robertson county, and Luther Cuyler and O. L. Mounts, two special agents for railroads, were enforcing a provision requiring a permit to be obtained from the railroad commission for all trucks.

Attorney General In Tax Decision

AUSTIN, Oct. 9. (AP)—Atty. Gen. J. V. Allred today advised Comptroller George H. Sheppard that interest on all taxes delinquent prior to 1930 was stopped Sept. 30, and that interest on delinquents when house bill 80, releasing the taxes if paid by Jan. 31, 1932, became effective.

The comptroller also was advised that no penalty could be attached for 1930 taxes for non-payment prior to Feb. 1, 1932, and that interest on 1930 taxes will stop on Oct. 15. Under this ruling the taxpayer will pay his 1930 taxes after Oct. 15 and not be required to pay interest on penalty or further interest will attach until Feb. 1, 1932.

Allred said his department would co-operate fully in the suit filed by Rep. Vernon Lemens of Rainbow testing the constitutionality of the law passed at the second special session releasing back penalties and interest on all delinquent taxes, no matter how old, if the taxes were paid by Jan. 31, 1932.

Arkansas Passes Its Cotton Measure

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 9. (AP)—The Arkansas legislature completed action today on a bill embodying essential provisions of the Texas cotton acreage reduction plan and it now goes to the governor. The senate which previously had passed its own measure approved the house bill by a vote of 30 to 0.

The act would become effective only after states producing three-fourths of the American cotton in 1930 have adopted similar laws. The Arkansas act, for the passage of which Governor Parnell called the legislature into special session last Wednesday, would, like the Texas law, restrict cotton acreage in 1932 and 1933 to 30 per cent of the land in cultivation in 1931.

When similar legislation has been enacted by a sufficient number of other states, the act provides that the governor shall issue a proclamation declaring the Arkansas act in effect.

Los Angeles Child Believed Kidnaped

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9. (AP)—Posses of officers and citizens conducted an intensive search here today for Arilda Hofeling, 4-year-old daughter of Edward J. Hofeling, who was last seen being led away from her home by a black-bearded man.

John Henderson, 12, said he saw the man take the girl by the hand and lead her away yesterday. An employe of a tire factory told deputy sheriffs he had seen the man with the child later.

Late last evening, Mrs. Laurine West, wife of a minister who has an open air camp for unemployed near Watts, reported she had seen the man and the child enter a forest of pepper trees near the camp. A search of the vicinity revealed no trace of the pair.

To Walk Martin If Necessary Now

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9. (AP)—Sixty-eight-year old Connie Mack, after a heart-to-heart talk with each of his regulars, ordered them to bed early last night and completed his plans to check a wild youngster of only 27.

The old master won his first American league pennant before Popper Martin was born but he freely admits he has never seen anything, in all his half-century of baseball, to match the exploits of the Cardinal outfielder.

If necessary, the A's were prepared to bow to the exigencies of strategy today and walk Martin. It isn't safe to walk Martin, however, unless second base is occupied and even then, the menace is increased.

Battery A of the 102d coast artillery, Missouri National Guard, is equipped with a light five feet in diameter, weighing a ton. It will throw a beam 30 miles.

Republics May Form New League

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. (AP)—Formation of a permanent league of American republics to sponsor commercial cooperation was advocated today by Thomas L. Chadbourne, author of the Chadbourne sugar production control plan.

In an address delivered before the fourth Pan-American commercial conference he outlined five purposes of the proposed organization:

1. To ascertain the obstacles in the way of a Pan-American Customs union and how to remove them;
2. To study the effect free trade would have on commerce between the United States and each of the Pan American countries; what public works are advisable in the next 10 years in Latin America, and what would be necessary to finance them;
3. To study the possibility of increasing Latin American employment on American ships in Pan-American trade;
4. To study means of making mandatory the study of Spanish and English in the schools of America and Latin America, respectively;
5. To study the public debt of each Latin American republic, looking to a final refunding by the republics desiring it.

Chadbourne proposed that the group be composed of one man of affairs from each of the countries in the union to deal with the commercial subjects listed. A separate group of educators to deal with the cultural, educational, and language questions above.

Mr. Hoover recalled only Tuesday night at his conference with congressional leaders that in proposing the inter-governmental debt moratorium he had opposed cancellation of war debts.

The chief executive's attitude has

Armament Cuts To Be Demanded

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. (AP)—Reductions in war debts payments will be considered by the United States only if European nations in turn effect drastic curtailments of armament.

President Hoover intends that the two subjects shall remain indubitably linked. In his approaching conferences with Premier Laval of France he expects to press his views that disarmament and a naval holiday cannot be logically separated from the question of war debts and the world financial condition.

There has been no indication, however, that the administration would enter into a complete revision of war debts.

Mr. Hoover recalled only Tuesday night at his conference with congressional leaders that in proposing the inter-governmental debt moratorium he had opposed cancellation of war debts.

The chief executive's attitude has become increasingly clear here as the time nears when Premier Laval will depart for his epochal visit to this country.

Offer Sheep to Needy As Market Prices Collapse

HILLSBORO, Wis., Oct. 9. (P) — Rather than take the present prices offered at the Chicago livestock market, Landsinger brothers, sheep raisers, have offered to give their stock to needy families.

On the front page of this week's newspaper, the Landsinger brothers ran the following notice:

"We have some fat sheep which are selling very low on the market and don't bring much more than the freight. We decided if we have to give them away at Chicago why not do it at home. Any family where the husband is out of work and they are in need, come to us and we will give you one or two free."

Prohibition Agents Are Badly Beaten

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9. (P) — Two prohibition agents were so badly injured they were sent to a hospital and two others less seriously hurt in a raid on a Low street saloon early today.

The disturbance was quelled by a detachment of police called by one of the agents who escaped during the melee. Three men with police records were arrested as a result of the fight and another, known to the agents, is sought.

The fight started when the four agents entered the saloon without a warrant and advanced to the bar to seize evidence. They were attacked by 50 patrons wielding beer bottles.

Banking Will Be Studied by Solons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. (P) — Microscopic study by congress of the whole system of national banking laws on the basis of the last two years' business events is certain.

The emergency economic program advanced at this week's bi-partisan White House conference will be the principal laboratory lesson from which congress will build to guard against future credit strains.

While the congressional conferees agreed to the general program advanced by President Hoover, it was apparent today there would be sharp differences of opinion over details.

The main controversy is expected to center on the extent to which congress will go with the presidential recommendation for broadening the base of paper eligible for rediscount by Federal Reserve banks.

Veteran Describes His Self Defense

GAINESVILLE, Oct. 9. (P) — Frank Bracken, World War veteran, on trial for the alleged murder of City Motorcycle Officer William E. Johns, today pictured himself as sitting in his automobile between two officers with their pistols aimed at him, at the time he opened fire on Johns and City Fire Marshal Walter Clements, fatally wounding both.

His plea was self-defense. Bracken told of events leading up to the shooting. He said he was arrested by Johns and Clements three days before the slayings and kept in jail without being allowed to make bond or without trial in city court on a misdemeanor charge.

A. H. Doucette is critically ill at the home of his son, A. H. Doucette, 211 North Frost street.

Children Helped By Kiwanians Tell Of Their Gratitude

Among the visitors at the Kiwanis luncheon Friday were five children who had been helped by the club. Operations and other medical assistance were sponsored by the Kiwanis club for these children and one other who recently moved away from Pampa with his parents.

"It's easier for me to study my school books now," said one girl who recently underwent an operation. "I am sure that I will do better in my school work from now on."

One of the boys present said: "My brother and I can now take gym work and we are more active than we have been for years."

Each of the children expressed their appreciation to Dr. Tom Martin and A. B. Goldston and the other members of the club for the aid they received.

The meeting was in charge of Dr. Tom Martin, Dr. A. B. Goldston, and J. G. Barrett, members of the underprivileged child placement committee. These members have several other cases to investigate, and if found to be worthy, they will be given medical aid sponsored by the club.

Speakership Is Eagerly Sought

AUSTIN, Oct. 9. (P) — There is a spirited contest on for the speakership of the 42nd Texas legislature, the aspirants being Representatives A. P. Johnson of Carrizo Springs and Coke Stevenson of Junction.

There was quite a stir throughout the capitol the other day when, during the heat of battle over cotton, oil, and other things, Stevenson announced that if no one else offered as a candidate for governor of Texas next year against the incumbent the electorate could consider him (Stevenson) now running.

The Johnson adherents, through their campaign manager, Phil Sanders of Nacogdoches, decided that was a propitious time to strike—seeing as the iron was hot. So Sanders struck hard with a statement which amounted to the world that since opponent Stevenson had become a candidate for governor the Johnson path to the speakership was unobstructed.

British Women Busy in Campaign

LONDON, Oct. 9. (P) — Great general election to determine the life of the national government.

Another Good Thing About Black-Draught

When you take Theodor's Black-Draught, normal bowel activity is restored without sickening effects. This is only one of many agreeable qualities of this medicine.

Mr. George W. Cassidy, of Waco, Texas, whose experience in the use of Black-Draught has extended over forty-five years, says:

"When I take a laxative or purgative, I want something that I can take just a dose or two of, and then quit taking and feel as good as ever. Black-Draught is like that. You don't have to take it every night."

"I just bought a box yesterday, and after forty-five years I find it does me as much good as when I started taking it."

Sold at the drug stores.

The labor party is expected to run from 20 to 25 women for the house of commons and the conservatives and liberals about a dozen each, while the number to represent independent groups has not been decided. In the 1929 election, 49 women candidates were put forward by all parties and 14 were elected.

The most prominent of this year's candidates are Lady Astor, American-born M. P., who is standing for re-election as a conservative; Margaret Bonfield, former minister of labor, who seeks her old post as a laborite; the duchess of Atholl, who held a cabinet post in the last conservative government, and Megan Lloyd-George, daughter of the liberal leader, who is campaigning on her record as a staunch supporter of her father.

Political organizations are being berated by women and girls who are eager to lend a hand in boosting candidates of their favorite nominees. Most of the will be used in the routine work of distributing campaign material and its most talented will stamp the country on the battle-front.

Among the most tireless campaign workers of this and past elections is Isabel Mac Donald, daughter of the prime minister. She is carrying the fight for his re-election into the enemy's camp in Seham harbor which once sent him to parliament and now rejects him.

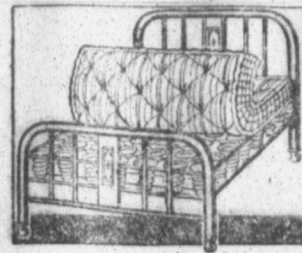

The female vote was credited largely with turning Stanley Baldwin's conservative government out of power in 1929 and elevating Ramsay Mac Donald's labor ministry.

Lambs Sent to Kansas to Feed

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 9. (P)—A trainload of lambs left Barnhart a few days ago for Emporia, Kan., where they will be fed. From Rankin, only 55 miles away, another trainload left the next day for feed lots at Brownwood, Texas.

All of these sheep are being fed by the owners who have either agreed on a certain price per pound for the grain or who have bought feed, leased feed pens or agreed upon a certain price per day for feeding.

The price on lambs in West Texas ranges from 3 to 3 1/2 cents a pound, a decline of from one-half to one cent a pound from the point at which the market opened.

In the spring some few local contracts were made at 5 cents a pound, but for the last two years the opening market has shaded off into lower ground.

New HME buyers have been arriving in West Texas and men who before had no orders now are making purchases. Wholesale movements to feed are expected to be made during October.

Frish to Bottomley. Four runs, three hits, one error, two left. CARDINALS—Hayes fanned, swinging. Bottomley flied out to Haas. Wilson grounded out, Williams to Fox. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

ATHLETICS—Bishop bounced out, Gelbert to Bottomley. Haas walked, the fourth ball high. Cochran grounded to Frisch and a double play was pulled. Frisch to Gelbert to Bottomley. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

ATHLETICS—Flint Rhem took the box for the Cardinals. Simmons fouled to Mancuso, who replaced Wilson behind the plate. Fox fanned on a third called strike. Miller singled to left. Dykes fouled out to Bottomley. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

CARDINALS—Roetger missed the third strike but the ball got away from Cochrane and Roetger reached first. Frisch fanned, swinging. Martin walked, Hayes flied out to Simmons. Bottomley popped to Bishop. No runs, no hits, no errors, two left.

McCabe (Continued From Page 1) lick was on guard in the lobby at elevators and stairway, when McCabe stepped out of the door.

Grabbed an Arm The detective followed and as they reached the door leading to the stairway, grasped McCabe's arm.

Miller also was taken to the hospital where he was treated for a wounded left hand. Beneath McCabe's body was a revolver that had not been fired.

Police reinforcements arrived meanwhile and an ambulance was called to take McCabe to the hospital.

Commenting on work of the special tax survey committee, authorized by the legislature to make recommendations after sizing up business and industrial conditions, the governor said there wasn't any great hurry about it completing its work.

"I do not have any idea of calling a special session of the legislature to consider anything," he said, when told many of the legislators expected to return to Austin for a third extraordinary session in January or February.

He again expressed keen interest in some method of cutting down "overhead" in the state government, but put this interrogation to the questioner.

"If you were to eliminate any of the departments which would be the first to go?" It is a big question that needs long and close study, the governor said.

BASEBALL (Continued From Page 1) ed for the Cardinals. Bishop singled to right. Haas sacrificed to Bottomley as Bishop ran to second. Cochrane hoisted to Hayes. Bishop raced home on Simmons' single to center. Fox smashed a single to left. Simmons stopping at second. Miller was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases. Dykes walked on the first straight ball, forcing Simmons home. Williams flied to Hayes, who dropped the ball. Fox and Miller scoring as Dykes raced to third. Grove grounded out.

down, featured by a federal court suit to enjoin him from enforcing his martial edict. The suit was filed by Frank Russell, Oklahoma City producer, who yesterday asked that it be dismissed. His action was seen as the result of pleas by fellow oil men to clear the way for any action Murray might take toward reopening.

Price No Factor Governor Murray said price was not a factor in the reopening, since the prevailing top price was pegged at 70 cents a barrel, oil men have importuned the governor to lift the martial lid, contending even the compromise would be of great benefit.

Oklahoma was producing a daily average of 550,000 barrels during July, and the shutdown reduced the flow to an average of 270,000 barrels.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9. (P)—The movement to control natural resources through state agreements, exemplified particularly by the efforts of Texas, California, and Oklahoma to curtail oil production, is regarded by the Hoover administration as of unusual significance.

Coal Men Agree The most recent step in this direction has been taken by the bituminous coal industry. Operators faced with shutdowns or running at a loss, have asked the governors of Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio to appoint commissions to study the possibility of an inter-state compact controlling coal production.

There have been indications of a growing sentiment among lumber men, particularly on the west coast, to apply the same principle to their industry. A strong trade organization, however, will be given a chance to demonstrate its ability to deal with production before any steps are taken toward a state compact. The state compact idea had its origin in the Colorado river basin compact entered into by the states alongside that stream as the preliminary move in the building of Hoover dam.

Such action by oil producing states was urged by President Hoover and by Secretary Wilbur early in 1929.

ATHLETICS ENTER GAME AS FAVORITES TO WIN TODAY

Even St. Louis Fans Admit Earnshaw Is Likely to Be Invincible.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9. (AP)—The principals in each corner today, with the world series drama nearing its grand climax, were John (Pepper) Martin and George Livingston (the Big Moose) Earnshaw, with baseball's greatest prize at stake.

It looked as one of the "naturals" of a sporting decade, whether Earnshaw went back to the firing line for the Athletics today to check the St. Louis Cardinals or was withheld for a possible seventh game, tomorrow, on the theory Lefty Grove could be depended on to beat Paul Derringer again and square the count at three frames, each.

The Martin bomber, leader of the Cardinals' flying squadron, twice has flown into action against Earnshaw, the famous righthand ace of the world champions, in as dramatic a baseball show as the national game has known since Walter Johnson pulled the Senators through to victory in 1924.

They have broken even, so far as the results are concerned, although Martin has had much the better of the duel, so far as his personal score against Earnshaw is involved.

The first time they were introduced, Martin literally "stole" the game from the A's star by rapping two hits, stealing two bases and scoring the only two runs of the game.

The Cardinals relied on Martin and their other outstanding "freshman," Derringer, right-handed pitcher, to beat Earnshaw, Al Simmons, the best of the Athletics and give St. Louis, as well as the National league, its first world championship in five years.

The Cardinals returned from the east, leading by three games to two, after a succession of thrilling engagements with the club that has been called the greatest Connie Mack ever put together. They needed only one more victory to clinch the winners' share of the spoils, representing a difference of about $1,800 per man.

Connie Mack may see his tower of baseball dreams toppling again, as he did 17 years ago, but the old master has not yet conceded defeat, not with Earnshaw to carry the main burden and Grobe absolutely confident he can redeem himself for his erratic pitching so far.

Mainly because of Earnshaw, the Athletics, even in St. Louis betting circles, were slight favorites to win today and prolong the series to the limit for the first time in five years.

The experts figured Earnshaw has just as much psychological advantage over the Cardinals as Martin has gained over the A's.

MEMBER OF TWO CLUBS
CANYON, Oct. 9. (Special)—Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers college, has the unique distinction of being one of the three men in the world who hold membership in two Rotary clubs. Dr. Hill is a member of Rotary at Amarillo and at Canyon.

The Canyon Rotary club is about two years old. It was organized with Dr. Hill as president. D. A. Shirley was elected to succeed him, and Rep. Clyde W. Warwick is now president.

Lubbock Train to Carry Matadors to Dallas Game

LUBBOCK, Oct. 9.—West Texas day at the state fair will find thousands of Panhandle and South Plains football fans in Dallas to cheer the Texas Tech eleven in its first inter-sectional contest. October 13 brings the Matadors and Haskell Indians together in one of the feature games of the state fair schedule.

Dr. P. W. Horn, president of Tech, has purchased the first ticket on the special train that is to carry over 500 students, the college band, and a large delegation of local rooters to the Haskell game. Store windows in this city are decked with the scarlet and black of the Matadors and "beat Haskell" signs.

Although the Matadors have an open date this week-end the squad has been through a week of grueling practice, worked the field on the evening of a defense against "Little Rabbit" Weller and his crafty teammates. With the exception of Carl McAdams, quarterback, the entire Tech squad is in good condition for Tuesday's game.

Two well known styles of offense will be demonstrated in the Indian battle. "Lone Star" Dietz, Haskell coach, uses "Pop" Warners' wing back formations while Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchy Smith have adopted Notre Dame's system of speed and deception coupled with well timed blocking.

Prisoners Heard in Britton Trial

GALVESTON, Oct. 9. (AP)—State and defense rested late yesterday in the trial of Roy Britton, charged in connection with the slaying of Jailer Joe Meyer.

The defense rested after two witnesses, John F. Sullivan, and John Sedgewick, both of whom are now serving prison sentences, testified that before the jail break they saw a pistol in the possession of Tommy Reis, who escaped from the jail.

The state rested at noon after Claude Pond and Reis testified. Both told of seeing Britton at the jail the night of the break and Pond positively identified him as the man who shot Meyer.

R. C. Scott, former San Antonio city commissioner, who was in jail on an assault to murder charge, testified Claude Pond told him he could not identify the man who shot Meyer, but he had to protect his own case.

Mrs. Margaret Rees Price, daughter of a retired American army officer and a resident of Paris was fined $500 for bringing about 90 gowns into the United States without paying duty.

Pepper Martin, Once Cocky as Rookies Come, Was Tamed With Disdain But He Came Through

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9. (AP)—Early in the spring of 1928 there stumbled into the lobby of the St. Louis Cardinals' hotel from Florida a haggard, grimy travel-stained youngster who looked like anything but a ball player.

His hawk-like face with the flaming black eyes was smeared with dirt and there were cinders in his dark tousled hair. Just about the last swag he could muster was in his slightly bow-legged stride as he marched up to the surprised desk clerk.

"Tell McKechnie," he announced with a weary grin, "that his new center fielder has arrived."

"Not in!" Sunk deep in an easy chair a few feet away, his face buried in a paper, Bill McKechnie, then manager of the Cardinals, raised his eyes at the sound of his name. He looked from the husky figure of what might have been a hobnob to the inquiring gaze of the desk clerk.

"He's not here just now," the desk man announced, "but I'll fix you up with a room."

Thus it was that John Leonard Martin, world series hero, joined the Cardinal ball club. He had spent the money sent him to pay his fare from Oklahoma City to the training camp. He had to ride the rods of freight trains to get there.

A hot bath changed his appearance considerably and he was back at the desk again, looking for McKechnie. The first fellow he met who would talk to him was an old friend Blake Harper, owner of the Fort Smith club in the Western association. It was Harper who had greeted Martin as follows when he appeared for work at Fort Smith years before:

"What's your name?" "Johnny Martin." "Nope," said Harper. "You're 'Pepper' Martin. There are too many Johnny's in the league now." And that was the way he got his name.

"Got The 'Runaround'" For days McKechnie, trying to tame the cocky youngsters, gave him what was politely known as the "runaround," avoiding him. Martin went out to the practice sessions and hung around the edges, sneaking in a catch here, a slug at the plate there, when he could horn his way in. He belted a few to the outlying districts and he dragged down files on a dead run. McKechnie gave in. He called the youngster in and offered him a hand.

"You're 'Pepper' Martin," he said, "our new center fielder. I'm McKechnie. I guess you were telling the truth."

Pepper wasn't exactly telling the truth. He sat on the Cardinal bench through that season and he was farmed out to Houston, Texas, for the 1929 campaign and Rochester, in the International league, in 1930. The past National league campaign was his first in the majors.

He's the kind of a ball player his mates can't talk enough about, cocky, but in no way offensive, simple, unaffected, certain of his own ability, but by no means impressed with his own importance.

Gabby Street's voice mellowed at the sound of his name. The players will talk about him for hours.

McMurry College Beaten by A. C. C.

ABILENE, Oct. 9. (AP)—Unable to suppress Abilene Christian college's backfield aces, "Goobee" Keyes and "Chappie" Cheeves, the McMurry college Indians went down to defeat here last night, 13 to 7.

Keyes' punting in the second half, after the teams ended the first half in a deadlock, drove the Indians back into the danger zone. Cheeves then wended his way through the secondary for 25 yards and a touchdown.

McKechnie gave in. He called the youngster in and offered him a hand.

HARVESTERS LEAVE HOME GOALS TO GORILLA TEAM

Price Memorial College Is Here for Contest on Local Gridiron.

Two Pampa football teams will be in action today, but only one game will be played in Pampa. The Harvesters will play a night game with the Teachers college freshmen at 8 o'clock.

This afternoon the Gorillas are to meet the Price Memorial Cardinals of Amarillo at Harvester park.

The green and gold clad Harvesters will be taking part in their first night game of football when they tackle the freshmen.

Coach Odus Mitchell had not announced his starting line-up when the team left. The entire squad will see the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm in action against Lawton, Okla., this afternoon before going on to Canyon.

Tonight's game will be the last for both Panhandle teams before they meet on Harvester field next Saturday for the crucial game of the season. Both elevens will be put through final workouts next week, preparing them for the big encounter.

The Gorillas are meeting one of the toughest junior teams in the Panhandle. The Cardinals, with two Pampa boys in the lineup, are undefeated this year.

Four Moslems were killed in India when government troops fired on a mob riot.

Mexicans Will Battle Denver U. Under Lights

Denver, by virtue of two Rocky Mountain conference victories, is avored to win, but the Mexican team, conceded to be a fast aggregation, is being taken rather seriously.

Fred Linahan, coach of the Mexican team and a former all-American guard, admits being unaware of the actual strength of his outfit, as they have not played this year. He plans to continue the use of the Yale system introduced in Mexico City three years ago.

One hundred and thirteen persons were on board when the Akron, largest and newest airship in the world, took its first flight recently.

Labor to Demand Only Legal Beer

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 9. (AP) Organized labor's demand for 2.75 per cent beer crystallized today at the American Federation of Labor convention and committeemen indicated resolutions for outright repeal of the 18th amendment probably would be sidetracked.

Matthew Wolf, chairman of a labor committee working for congressional sentiment to change the Volstead act, explained that 2.75 per cent beer would be of the same strength as the Canadian draft beer sold here, and not the "dishwater" some delegates had thought.

"By 2.75 per cent beer I mean about 3.10 per cent by volume," he said. "Just like the ordinary Canadian beverage. I am not referring to bottled beer or the stronger 'ales'."

President William Green, who also favors legalization of 2.75 per cent beer; W. J. McDonough, head of the building trades union, and other leaders indicated most discussion of resolutions dealing with alcohol would take place behind closed doors of the resolutions committee. However, leaders of the "wet ring" girded for a possible battle on the convention floor shortly.

The committee is expected by both wet and dry leaders to report favorably on that section of the executive council's report favoring 2.75 per cent beer. The committee also is expected to report non-concurrence on resolutions advocating repeal of the 18th amendment and repeal of Volstead act.

Japanese Bombing Is in Retaliation

TOKYO, Oct. 9. (AP)—Japanese authorities declared today the bombing of Chinchow, Manchuria, by Japanese airplanes was in retaliation for an attack on the planes by Chinese troops.

Mukden headquarters had fired on the planes while they were on a reconnaissance tour, whereupon the Japanese replied yesterday with bombs.

Other than stating "considerable damage was inflicted," Japanese communiques gave no intimation of casualties. Foreign dispatches to Peiping and elsewhere, however, placed the toll at from two to 20 dead.

University buildings, the temporary seat of the Manchurian government, were damaged, other sources reported. The Japanese cabinet had the incident under consideration.

The Tokyo war office estimated that more than 20,000 Chinese troops were concentrated at Chinchow, where Chang Hsueh-liang, youthful governor of Manchuria, planned to set up his headquarters. Mukden, the capital, is occupied by Japanese troops. Chinchow is about 125 miles southwest of Mukden.

Famous Stands Destroyed in Fire

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 9. (AP)—The grandstand from which cheering thousands watched Peter Manning set the world's mile trotting record of 1:59 3/4 in 1925 was a mass of charred wood and twisted steel after a fire which destroyed the structure at the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association track early today.

The blaze, its origin unascertained, started in the betting sheds and swept through the building before firemen could arrive. The grandstand was built in 1893. Track employees saved most of the association's records, kept in offices under the structure.

The grandstand was last used at the grand circuit meeting here last month. It overlooked an oval known as the fastest mile track in America, because of the many trotting records set there.

Track officials estimated the loss at $120,000.

GUILTY LIPS

by LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "MAD MARRIAGE" ©1931 by NEA SERVICE INC

BEGIN HERE TODAY
Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary, marries Mark Travers, millionaire's son, in spite of the opposition of Mark's father, P. M. Travers.

The story opens in Marlboro, middlewestern metropolis. After an extravagant honeymoon at fashionable Blue Springs during which Mr. Travers spends all his money and borrows $500 the couple return to Marlboro. It is a long while before the young man can find work and after one week he loses his first job. He becomes a floorwalker in a department store. In spite of poverty he and Norma are happy until Mark's father sends for him. He offers to take Mark back into his business organization if the son will prove he can make good. His first task involves a business trip to France. Norma is to remain at home. She tries to persuade him not to go but he cannot.

Norma, treated rudely at her father-in-law's home, slips away leaving no trace of her whereabouts. Chris Saunders, her former roommate, helps her find a job. Mark's father determines to engineer a divorce. He employs detectives who learn that the girl three years before was convicted on a vice charge. In spite of evidence that this charge was framed and Norma entirely innocent, he sends his lawyer to Paris. Norma knows nothing of all this until late in January she receives a letter telling her Mark has secured a divorce. Next day in the office she finds Chris takes her home but instead of you trying to starve yourself? You've got to eat, don't you know that? You've got to eat if you're going to hold your job, young lady."

There was a pause. Norma said, "I suppose I'll have to tell Mr. Stuart."

"He knows already. About the divorce, I mean. He was awfully nice, Norma. Said you could take a few days' rest if the doctor thinks you should. By the way, I made an appointment for you with Dr. Willoughby Monday."

Norma was sitting on the side of the bed. She reached for Chris' hand. "You're so good, Chris!" she said in a voice that was not quite steady. "There's nobody in the world so good as you are! I—I don't deserve all you've done—"

"Oh, don't you? Say, for heaven's sake, do you want me to sprout wings? Don't deserve anything I've done? Why, I haven't done anything at all! Just getting! But if I could there wouldn't be a thing on this earth too good for you! Let me tell you, Norma, you've had a few bad breaks but things are going to change. You'll see. It's just when everything looks blackest they suddenly come out right."

"I wish I could believe that."

"Believe it! I know it. Haven't I seen it happen a dozen times? Now if you feel like coming downtown tomorrow we'll have a talk with Jim Daniels. He's the lawyer I told you about. We can go in and see him at noon."

"Do you think it will do any good?"

"Well, it's worth a try. He's one of the best lawyers in Marlboro."

The bait was effective. Norma arose and dressed rapidly. She agreed to spend the night again at Chris' apartment. When they arrived there they had the place to themselves. Dorothy was away and Chris said the engagement would keep her until late.

The two girls cooked dinner and served it on the gate-leg table exactly as they had done so many evenings before. Chris' inspired cooking, the familiar surroundings and comfortable atmosphere worked a subtle magic. Gradually Norma relaxed and poured out her heart to Chris. She admitted going to the Travers' home that afternoon.

Norma wept a little but not with the tempestuous tears of the night before.

"If Mark were only here!" she said once brokenly, "I could only just talk to him!"

"He's bound to be back before long. I can't help feeling that when he comes all this can be straightened out in no time."

"But why is he staying so long? Why doesn't he come back?"

"Oh, you never can tell about business, you know. I have an idea his father has something to do with it but he can't keep him away forever. Things are not nearly so bad as they seem, darling. You'll find that out in a month or two."

"A month is a terribly long time!"

"Nonsense. Anyhow it may not be that long. Brad will know when he does come. By the way—Chris hesitated—"Brad's wife is in Reno."

Norma looked up quickly. "Does that mean—" she began.

"I don't know if it means anything or not. She's supposed to be visiting friends there. I just happened to know because I mailed her a check the other day."

There was a silence between them. After several moments Norma said, "You like him a lot, don't you?"

"Like Brad? Why, of course. Everybody does."

"I know. But I mean—if she did well, if things turn out that way, do you think you might—"

"Good gracious! Don't get notions of that sort in your head, Brad Hart has one wife he doesn't seem to care much about. He doesn't want another. Oh, well—life's a queer business, kid. We'll have a talk with Jim Daniels tomorrow. I'll call in the morning and arrange the time."

They went over arguments that had been rehearsed several times before. It was Chris who said presently, "I've been trying to figure this out, you know. I've been trying to figure what's at the bottom of it all. Do you think it could have been that Stone? What's his name—Hollis Stone?"

The other girl shook her head. "I've thought of him," she said slowly. "But there isn't any reason why he should want to hurt me. He was friendly really. Of course it was a shock seeing him at Blue Springs and having all that terrible nightmare come back again. But if he wanted to tell Mark why didn't he do it then? Oh, Chris! Norma buried her head in her hands. "Oh, it was all so terrible. I thought—I thought it was gone and past and I could forget the way you said—"

"It is past and you must forget about it!"

"But how can I now when Mark knows?"

Chris got to her feet and crossed the floor impatiently. "Norma," she said, "you've got to have a talk with Mark. You've got to tell him your side of things!"

Days slipped and no opportunity came for that talk. The first weeks of February dragged by and no news of Mark Travers reached Marlboro. Norma and Chris had two sessions with Jim Daniels, the lawyer. Daniels asked questions and promised to make investigations. He wrote some letters. He seemed optimistic when he talked to Norma. Privately he informed Chris that the case could not be reopened. The divorce had been granted. Beyond the shadow of a doubt legal technicalities had been overruled. Unfortunately that was the way Jim Daniels dismissed the affair.

Chris kept all this from the younger girl. She told Norma that Daniels was hopeful but the matter required time. Chris kept up the face during those early weeks because she was worried. There were nights when she could not sleep, worrying about Norma. Too many times she had heard her say, "I don't want to live without Mark! I don't want to live if he doesn't love me!"

Chris found excuses for inviting Norma to the apartment. As much
