Sam Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allison, has enrolled for the 1970 summer session at Lubbock Christian College.

He graduated from Muleshoe High School where he was a member of the FFA and FTA. He is now a junior student majoring in Animal Production.

With 24 teams from 12 districts competing, the Bailey County Rifle Team from the 4-H Clubs in this county, placed 11th in the state rifle contest recently.

Coached by Pat Vinson, team members included Vowery Throckmorton, Larry Vinson, Mark Dillman and Gary Lackey.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scarborough included Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes, Denene and Danel of Lubbock and Robert Scarborough of Washington, D.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Puckett from Blanchard, Oklahoma, are visiting in the homes of their sons and families, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Puckett and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Puckett.

The First Baptist Church bus, which is presently taking the Tri-C's and a dramatic group from the church on a tour of mid-western states, was involved in a slight accident in Topeka, Kan. Thursday around 11 a.m.

A spokesman said the brakes apparently failed on the bus and slight damage was sustained by two cars in the Kansas city. No injuries were recorded from the accident and the group went on to Marshalltown, Iowa for a performance Thursday night.

Mrs. W.F. Wright is out of the intensive care and now in room 310 at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young and family spent last week in Ruidoso.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Riggs were on a short camping vacation.

Sixty Tickets For Speeding Top JP Books

Speeders, beware! Records in the office of Justice of the Peace and City Corporation Judge Morris Nowlin, show the whopping number of 60 speeding tickets issued in Bailey County by members of the Texas Highway Patrol during the first 10 days of June.

Muleshoe City Police officers issued two speeding tickets during the same period of time. In other violations in the JP books are three for running stop signs; two each for no driver's license and failure to drive in a single lane; and one ticket for each of the following violations: failure to yield right of way; improper left turn; drunk in public; minor consumption (of liquor); driving on wrong side of road; drunk pedestrian and driving while intoxicated.

Cases heard in city court or filed on the city docket include: three on drunk charges; two for no driver's license, speeding and minor possession and consumption of liquor and one each for the following violations: improper start from parked position; failure to yield right of way; expired driver's license; passing on the wrong side and failure to control vehicle.

Judge Nowlin said that as far as he knows, the sixty tickets issued during the first 10 days of this month may be an all-time high in speeding tickets issued in this area. He also commented that the officers and he are not just attempting to add to the city and state coffers by fining violators, but are in an attempt to stop some of the flagrant violations and perhaps save lives, property and injuries.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN--Donnie Haberer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Haberer, shows good form at the swimming pool at the Muleshoe Country Club. The young life guard is a blur of movement as he dives into the pool demonstrating how especially the younger generation is 'playing it cool' these days. Both the country club pool and the city pool are open for the summer.

Thirty Complete First DL School

Of the 55 persons who started the Texas Department of Public Safety Drivers' License instruction classes at Hilltop Community Center during the past week, 30 persons completed the school and received their driver's license applications Wednesday night.

Most of the 25 persons who dropped out after the first night of instruction have signed applications to attend an all-Spanish class which is presently being planned by the Bailey County Community Action Committee who sponsored the first

Deputy Brings In Prisoner Sans Handcuffs

Following investigation of a Thursday night break-in at Crow Chevrolet, Deputy Sheriff Ken Petree returned one suspect from Amherst after he was apprehended on a mini-bike which was allegedly taken in the break-in. Sheriff's Deputy Irene Splawn reported that the prisoner was the first one she had ever noticed the deputy bring in that he did not have handcuffed.

John Crow of Crow Chevrolet reported the break-in to the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center Friday morning. Investigating officers Sheriff Dee Clements, Deputy Sheriffs Ken Petree and Pete Black and City Patrolman Lee Simmons found a window broken in back where the suspect gained entry to the building. The suspect, who is now in jail at the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center, then apparently broke another glass out of an inner door to gain entry to the front of the building where the mini-bike was taken from a show window.

driver's license school. Several of the people who began the class are Spanish-American persons with a limited English language vocabulary, so the services of a Spanish-American Texas Highway Patrolman will be secured to teach the next class at Hilltop Community Center.

Members of the Bailey County Community Action Committee expressed their appreciation to the people of Muleshoe, Bailey County and the surrounding area who responded to the school and to Sergeant J.M. Luckie and Patrolman C.D. Fitzgerald of the Texas Department of Public Safety for conducting the six hour school.

A report was presented members of the CAC during a regular meeting which was held Thursday, June 11 at 8 p.m. in Hilltop Community Center. Vice President George Mitchell presided during the absence of President Brian Maconi who is attending college in Massachusetts this summer.

A lengthy discussion was held on possible youth activities for the summer at the Center. It was decided to have an introductory party for teenagers on Saturday, June 27 from 6 p.m. The party will be called a 'paintin' party' and all teenagers and their dates will be invited to attend.

A welding school, sponsored by the CAC, is tentatively scheduled to begin early in September pending the availability of five welding machines which will be 'on loan' to the organization for the school. It was reported that the welding machines are scheduled to be in use during the summer months and more information will be released as soon as it becomes available.

Cooking classes will begin at the Center in the near future, probably by July 1. Anyone interested in learning cooking or baking is eligible to sign up for the classes which will be held during the evening hours.

Secretary Clea Williams reported on a visit to the Hereford Community Action Center. She said the coordinator of the Center, Lorenzo Granado, had expressed interest in the local operation and offered his services in beginning various programs. The Hereford coordinator has worked with the Bovina Community Action Program prior to assuming the

New Attorney Has Joined Young Office

A Lazbuddie community former resident, Jimmy D. Ivy, has moved back to Muleshoe where he will be in the law firm of Jack Young engaged in the general civil practice of law.

Ivy, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ivy of Lazbuddie, said the move was prompted because he wanted to move back to a small town and his hometown. He said, "We were tired of the city, and since we have two small children, we wanted to raise them in Muleshoe."

Ivy continued, "We like the pace of living in a small town, and like the thought of raising our children in the smaller towns. After living for four years in Dallas, we were more than ready to come home."

He is married to the former Donna Rogers of Hereford, and they have two children, Angela, age three and a son, Cordell Joe, three months old.

The attorney attended the Lazbuddie School grades one through 12, graduating in 1955. He graduated from the University of Texas in 1959 and from the University of Texas Law School in 1962.

Following graduation from the law school, Ivy was associated with the law firm of Witherspoon, Akins, Thomas and Langley in Hereford for three and one half years before moving to Dallas.

In Dallas, Ivy was associated with Lawyers Insurance of Texas, a corporation; then with Weston and Ivy before moving to Muleshoe.

The Ivys are members of the First Baptist Church in Dallas and plan to be affiliated with the First Baptist Church in Muleshoe.

He will be at his desk in the Young and Ivy Law Office at 103 West Avenue D on Monday, June 15.

Cotton, Grain, Corn, Sandblasted Thursday General Rain Eludes Dryland Farm Areas

West Texas rain (a violent sandstorm) proved not to be beneficial to area farmers Thursday as a wide area, encompassing several counties in Northwest Texas and the South Plains was battered by high winds and sand throughout the day.

Dryland farmers were especially hard hit, at least those who had accumulated enough moisture to plant cotton. What cotton that was up was sand-buried and virtually blown out of the fields.

Election Suit To Be Filed This Monday

Jerome Kirby of the law firm of Kirby, Ratliff and Sansom in Littlefield, who represent over 300 individuals that are contesting the recent Bailey County Hospital District and Hospital Bond Election, has announced to The Journal that an instrument of election contest will be filed of record with the Bailey County District Clerk on Monday, June 15.

The Littlefield attorney said the election contest to be filed in District Court Monday would be essentially the same instrument as the statement of election contest served on the county attorney, Roger Gorrell, with the exception of the deletion of approximately eight contestants. These contestants were deleted, he explained, because it has been discovered that they either were not registered voters, or in other words, were not qualified property taxpaying electors residing within the boundaries of the proposed Bailey County Hospital District.

Generally, the Notice to Contest protested the election procedure, the fact that the hospital district as an entity could call an election, the legality of votes by people who had not rendered property for taxes prior to the election and the hours the polls were open.

The statement of election contest served on Gorrell last Monday concludes with: "You are further notified that the

Woman Hurt In Accident On Thursday

Mrs. Lowry Molloy, 57, of 3507-40th Street, Lubbock, was taken to West Plains Memorial Hospital Thursday afternoon following a one car accident on West American Blvd. in Muleshoe around 3:30 p.m.

The 1968 Pontiac driven by Mrs. Molloy spun out of control in the 1000 Block on West American Blvd. and hit a metal light pole in front of the Art Loft.

The right front of the automobile was caved in with part of the right side of the dash resting against the front seat. The car was estimated to have at least $1300 in damage with Southwestern Public Service Company estimating $200 damage to the light pole which snapped some large bolts and leaned precariously in a severe sandstorm which was blasting Muleshoe at the time of the accident.

A small dog riding in the car received a cut over its eye and was taken to a local veterinarian for treatment.

Mrs. Molloy is undergoing treatment in the local hospital for a broken nose, abrasions and possible internal injuries. Her husband said she had been staying with her mother, who is seriously ill in a Clovis hospital, and had fallen asleep while returning to Lubbock.

Mrs. Buck Ragsdale said her husband was out checking damage sustained by young cotton in the Stegall area. According to preliminary reports in that area, a high percentage of young cotton was severely damaged or destroyed in the devastating, stinging sand. Mrs. Ragsdale said although there was much damage to cotton already standing in the fields, many farmers had not been able to plant yet due to a lack of moisture. "For instance," she commented, "the general rains Sunday began approximately three miles east of Stegall.

"Some farmers will try to plant cotton anyway, and other farmers will be forced to plant grain sorghum.

"But, we have had bad crops before, and somehow, we'll make it," she concluded, "we always have before."

Ray Bevers who farms approximately eight miles east of Needmore said that although there was some damage to cotton that was up in the fields in his area, many of the farmers had not planted their dryland farms as there has been very little moisture.

"It will have to rain this week or we will have little or no cotton," added the farmer. "West of here, toward Baileyboro and beyond, they have had .3 or .4 rain, and that isn't enough moisture to let the farmers plant their cotton."

"It doesn't look good down here," he commented, "although some fields of grain look fairly good, I have a few good crops now, and my cotton was getting far enough along that it looks fairly good."

"If it would only rain we could do a lot of things, but it will have to rain this week then there would be a lot of things we could do."

County Agent J.K. Adams, who just completed a county-wide survey of wind and sand damage during the first part of the week, was out all day on Thursday during the violent sandstorm.

He said, "I would guess that the ones who didn't have a crop up yet are well off. The tender cotton that was just up is definitely hurt and everyone was out fighting sand all day Thursday.

"On the brighter side, the replanted cotton was still under the ground for the most part, Cont'd. on Page 2, Col. 7

Lazbuddie News

Mrs. Richard Engelking

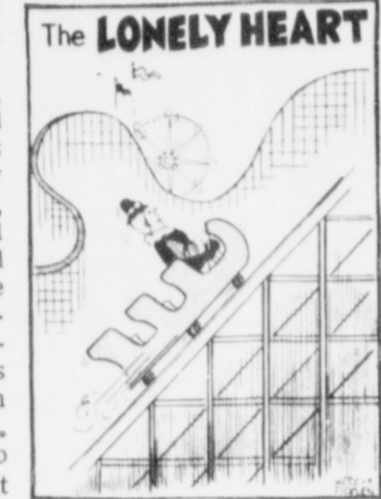

Come seven, now eleven, these might be lucky figures in a numbers game but not so weather wise as of late for Lazbuddie and area folks. April 17 was the date of disaster for our tornado and May 11 Lubbock shared the catastrophe and now June 7 another blow is dealt in the shape of that hard stuff that is the usual farmer's nightmare this time of year. A wide swath was damaged from approximately one and one-half mile east of Clay's Corner to that far post Lazbuddie. Proper and north and south didn't escape the wrath either. Driving through the foggy, vapor path late at night four hours after the eight p.m. onslaught, the debris was still piled on the road and fields, freezing what young stalks that might survive otherwise. The week previously had been so cool it felt as if it could snow and indeed at first glance the hail gave that effect on the roads and rooftops. Miss Christie Ivy, daughter of the D.B. Ivys and recent senior graduates left last week for Fashion School of Merchandizing in Dallas where she will be studying for several weeks. Mrs. Dalton Mimms is recovering nicely at home after surgery in a Lubbock Hospital. Mr. Clarence R. Mason is confined to Clovis Memorial Hospital after a farm accident where he received a crushed lower leg and wounds about the head when a tool bar and attachments fell on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Briggs, Joe Dan and Jana returned Thursday from an Arkansas vacation. They stayed in a new cabin at Bella Vista Village, a new development recreational area and thoroughly enjoyed their stay. They toured the back country which is so beautiful this time of year and explored various caves but was disappointing to have to return to find their hail damaged crops.

Other folks lucky enough to get a few days away from it all since school's been out are the Raymond Treider Jr.'s where they found Possum Kingdom Lake a beautiful place even if the fish did 'get away', Max Steinbocks and Bobby Broyles took their family Busses and camped at Ute Lake near Logan, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith, Tim and Tammy found Taos, New Mexico an enticing spot for motorcycle riding and other activities the mountain air invites. The Joe Moores ventured on a bit further to a fascinating place known as Disneyland for a California vacation.

Southwestern sponsored a group of 44 students and teachers at the symposium.

and some older cotton was tough enough to stand up to the sand. "Right now we are dancing on the borderline on cotton planting. However, some people have planted as late as June 20 and have made a decent crop."

When asked about an alternative to cotton, especially in the dryland areas where there has been no moisture, the county agent said the best alternative is grain sorghum. Adams said that despite the sandstorm, harvest went on in several areas on test fertilizer plots of alfalfa. He commented that nearly three tons of cubed alfalfa was harvested on nearly all plots, with some yields in excess of three and a quarter tons. The consensus seemed to be that if adequate moisture falls right away there will be a good chance to have fairly good crops in the county.

Mrs. Roy Clark and granddaughter, Marie Bynum, daughter of Hal Bynum visited Mrs. Clark's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Packard and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stallings, of Hereford.

car so that he could build a garage.

"It seems to me," the man replied indignantly, "that if a man owns his own house, car and garage he should be able to get credit for gas."

Herbicides For Grain Sorghum Discussed

Grain sorghum producers may be somewhat confused because of the number of pre-emergence herbicides and mixtures of herbicides available for application at planting time. Each producer needs to evaluate his particular weed problem, planting method and soil type and plan accordingly, say Dr. Dudley Smith and Dr. Alton Wiese, weed control scientists at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center, Lubbock, and the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center, Bushland, respectively.

In most instances the main weed problem is carelessweed. They point out that this is the species that robs the most profits in grain production. Wiese found that on grain yielding 4,000 pounds per acre and selling at $1.50 per hundredweight, 200 weeds per acre will cost $4.20 in reduced yields. With grain selling at $1.75, this cost will be $4.90 per acre. So, if weed control costs are less than this, a control program will be profitable.

"Although several chemical products are being offered this year," add Smith and Wiese, "we are still working with the same chemicals that we have always depended on." Herbicides available are Milogard, Herban, a mixture of Herban and Milogard and mixtures of Lorox and Milogard. In the past we have not had some of the blends that are available this year.

Milogard, formerly sold as propazine, is the most widely used preemergence in grain sorghum. It is a reliable, relatively inexpensive chemical that has done the job for growers in the past. Some growers may have experienced carryover problems. However, if Milogard is sprayed at recommended rates in a 10 to 20-inch band, there is no reason why cotton can't be planted the following year, contend the scientists.

"One of the main reasons for using a combination mixture is to minimize residue problems the following year," explain Smith and Wiese. "Milogard has long soil residual while Herban and Lorox have shorter residual periods."

The Herban-Propazine mixture, generally sold as Herban 21P, has been effective and may control some additional weed species that neither chemical will control alone. However, as far as crop injury is concerned, this mixture is not any safer than propazine alone and should not be used on loamy sand or sandy soil. Herban 21A, a Herban-Atrazine pre-emergence mixture, is not recommended for Texas but is used in northern areas of the U.S.

Two Lorox-Propazine mixtures are also available--LOP-65, sold as a wettable powder, and Pro-Lin, a flowable suspension. Growers would want to use these two mixtures primarily on Loam or Heavier soils, advise the scientists. However, LOP-65 or Pro-Lin can be used on sandy loam where grain is planted in the bed. Furrow-planted grain sorghum is easily injured where herbicides are used on sandy soils.

"Trials on fine sandy loam indicate that the maximum safe rate is one-fourth pound of active ingredient of each herbicide in the mix. To determine the proper rate of application, read the label carefully and see how much active ingredient of each chemical is in the package mix," add Smith and Wiese.

Although some farmers prefer flowable liquid-type formulations, wettable powders are just as effective in killing weeds. Regardless of the herbicide used, some form of agitation in the tank is absolutely essential to prevent the chemical from settling out.

More information on herbicides and weed control in grain sorghum may be obtained at the A&M Research and Extension Center at Lubbock or the USDA Research Center at Bushland.

Four Accidents Injured Two During May

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Bailey County during the month of May, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in two persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $1,965.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1970 shows a total of 16 accidents resulting in no persons killed, nine persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $11,548.00.

During the next three months millions of motorists will be heading for the road on vacations and outings. According to past facts and figures this will be the most deadly consecutive three months of the year.

During 1969 in Texas 996 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the summer vacation period.

The Sergeant stated, "This should be a challenge for all drivers and pedestrians not to be a fatality this summer."

WITH U.S. COMBAT AIR FORCES, Vietnam -- Airman First Class Jimmy Cartwright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cartwright of 306 S.E. Second, Merton, is a member of a unit that has earned the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with combat "V" device.

The 366th Tactical Fighter Wing at Da Nang AB, Vietnam, was cited for exceptionally meritorious service from April 1, 1968 to July 31, 1969 during military operations against enemy forces in Southeast Asia. The wing maintained a superior combat record while pioneering operational techniques that produced beneficial changes to the tactical air structure.

Airman Cartwright, a security policeman in the 366th, will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the unit.

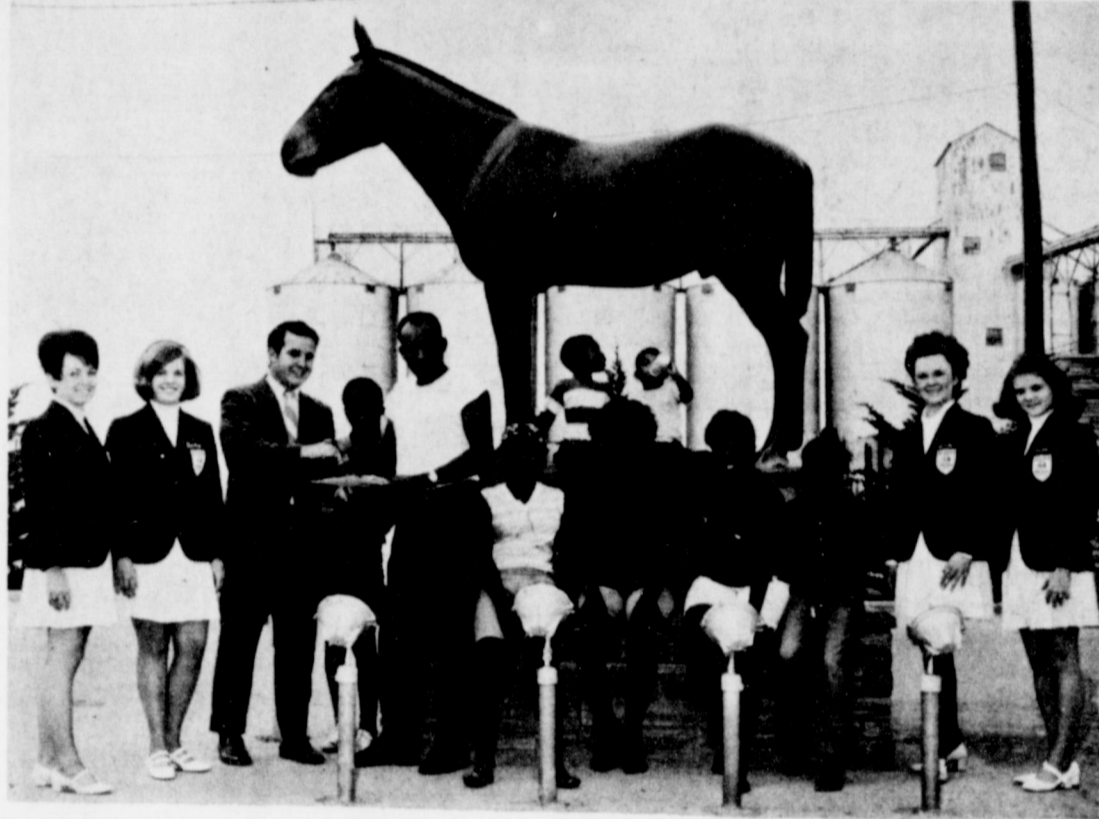

The organization is a part of Pacific Air Forces, headquarters for air operations in Southeast Asia, the Far East and the Pacific area.

The airman is a 1967 graduate of Merton High School.

CAMP PENDLETON, CALIF. -- Marine Private First Class Jack C. Stovall, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Stovall of 403 E. Fourth, Muleshoe, participated in the training exercise "Beagle House" with the Fifth Marine Expeditionary Brigade at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The exercise was a test of Navy-Marine Corps amphibious and helicopter landing techniques under all weather conditions on various types of terrain.

Lee said he is a bus driver for the City of Las Vegas and the family was enroute to Dallas on vacation. Receiving a free tank of gas, a free meal for the family and a free night's lodging for the family, Lee thanked those responsible for the honor. Pictured here are, from left, Devona Bradley and Becky Milner, ambassador; Hutton, George Lee Jr.; Lee; Joyce Lee; Dorothy Lee; Sandra Thomas and Yvonne Lee. 4-H's Challenged To Save Resources

SPECIAL - "Will you live in a world of smog-bound skies or sweet clean air? Scummy streams or sparkling water? Eroded land or fertile fields? You must choose."

That is the challenge open to 4-H youths in a recent conservation bulletin titled "YOU Can Make The Difference." They are urged to get involved in "shaping the world you live in" by participating in the 4-H conservation of natural resources program.

So far this year an estimated 303,000 boys and girls are doing just that. They have enrolled in the program, reports the National 4-H Service Committee.

Like charity, conservation begins at home. And this is where most projects are centered: Neighborhood, town and county. Parents, 4-H leaders, town officials, law enforcement officers, and Extension Service personnel cooperate with the youngsters.

One of their biggest boosters is John Deere of Moline, Illinois, sponsor of the national 4-H conservation of natural resources program for seven straight years.

Annual awards are offered to individual 4-H members, to clubs and to counties in recognition of their conservation efforts. A $50 cash award awaits the county completing the most outstanding conservation program this year. Ten clubs throughout the state will receive certificates of merit.

Awards for 4-H'ers consist of the following: Medals of honor of as many as four outstanding conservation projects in each county; an expense-paid trip as a delegate to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago for the best project throughout the entire state. A $600 scholarship will be presented to six youth who complete the most impressive projects in the nation.

To be eligible for the state or national award, the 4-H'er must be between 14 and 19 years of age, and have been a 4-H member for at least three years. All winners are determined by the Cooperative Extension Service which supervises 4-H work.

It is

The age of discretion is when you learn that nothing is as important as you once thought it was.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.-- Search for treasure off Padre Island will continue in a big way this summer.

Texas Antiquities Committee granted a reconnaissance permit to the Institute for Underwater Research Inc. to pinpoint locations of additional 16th century Spanish galleons believed to have sunk in Padre area waters.

A giant survey, using geophysical detection devices and scuba divers, may serve as the basis for a state master plan for protection, study and possible future excavation of submerged historic sites.

State agencies, including the Land Office and major universities, will cooperate. Antiquities Committee granted $3,000 to assist Underwater Research, a non-profit corporation financed with private foundation funds.

"It sounds good to me," commented Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, storm center of the controversy over disposition of treasure recovered from an ancient Spanish galleon off Padre in 1967.

Antiquities Committee Chairman Dr. Fred Wendorf said there is good historical evidence that a fleet of Spanish ships was wrecked along the Texas coast in 1553. Committee, Dr. Wendorf emphasized, wants to prevent future looting by profit seekers and to preserve remaining ships so that historic data and artifacts may be retained by the state.

Committee also put up $6,000 to hire graduate students to compile inventory of major archeological land sites in Texas. Inventory would enable sites to be nominated to National Register of Historic Places and gain

Farm Bureau Backs Action In Cambodia

WACO -- (Sp) -- President Nixon's decision to attack Communist sanctuaries in Cambodia in order to shorten the Vietnamese conflict has been given strong support by the president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Sidney Dean of Victoria commended the President's action in a letter to county Farm Bureau leaders in which he asked them to declare their feelings on the matter.

"The President has made a most difficult and courageous decision to attack the North Vietnamese forces in their sanctuaries inside the Cambodian border," Dean said. "It is along this border that the enemy has stockpiled large supplies of war stores in operational bases for future assaults against South Viet Nam. The President's decision was predicated on his belief--based on the information available to him--that the destruction of that large store of supplies and bases would save many lives and shorten the conflict."

"As a retired military officer, it is my opinion that our President made a wise decision," Dean said. "I am also convinced that our President believes that his decision was imperative if we are to expect an honorable and just peace and escape a humiliating defeat in Viet Nam."

The TFB leader said there is a "highly vocal minority of hardcore individuals" in this country whose activities "give much aid and comfort to the enemy."

"We, the so-called 'silent majority,' have too long been silent," Dean said. "Isn't it time that we at least offer our aid and support to the President?"

"If you agree with me," he told the county Farm Bureau leaders, "I urge that you now communicate with the President and declare your position and support for him, that you make it known to all that you support our President in this great effort."

"It's time to stand up and be counted," he said.

"Small districts have twice as much taxable wealth per student and receive 13 per cent more state aid per student," said Dr. Marvin H. Berkeley, Dallas Independent School District President.

Eighteen-member committee headed by veteran Sen. A.M. Aikin Jr. of Paris was authorized by the last Legislature to study the financial relationship between state and local districts and examine structure of current economic index for schools. In its first session the Committee heard financial woes of Dallas, Fort Worth, San Antonio, New Braunfels and Lubbock school districts.

WELFARE COST SOARING

Predictions about cost to Texas taxpayers of new federal welfare legislation get steadily more alarming.

Senate welfare reform committee was told by its staff chief, Dr. June Hyer, that bills before Congress would increase state spending for medical care of needy by $252 million to $293 million during the next two and a half years.

Welfare Commissioner Burton Hackney said assistance programs can be maintained at present levels until July 1, 1971, only if the Legislature boosts welfare appropriations to a ceiling of $80 million in January. Hackney also says a chance of getting $8 million in emergency funds through rejiggering procedures for purchasing medicines.

AG RULES

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin slapped down Texas Water Development Board's plan to commit itself to the purchase of political subdivision bonds in the future, subject to availability of the funds at marketable interest rates.

At the same time, Martin held constitutional a 1969 statute aimed at authorizing political subdivisions to purchase water development board bonds and sell them at a discount. Opinion put the Board out of water project aid business for the time being.

Martin also upheld the constitutionality of the new destination franchise tax on out-of-state firms selling products in Texas, but said it can't be collected on strictly-mail order businesses.

In other recent opinions, Martin conclude that:

*County judge cannot grant misdemeanor probation to anyone who has received probationary sentence during the preceding five-year period.

*Cottonseed in physical possession of Valley Co-op Mill in Cameron County on January 1 is exempt from property taxes.

*In a county having only a single jail facility, it must be at the county seat.

*County commissioners, by unanimous consent, may allow temporary flooding of a county road if a suitable alternate route is provided.

*State Board of Health may not by rules expand the amount of equipment to be carried by ambulance, but may define minimum contents of first-aid kits.

*Purchases under $2,000 may be subsequently ratified at the county commissioners meeting.

*Board of Examiners in Fitting and Dispensing of Hearing Aids can require recording of aid serial numbers on the bill of sale. Any person who can pass the exam or qualifies under the "grandfather clause" or reciprocity provisions is entitled to a license to fit and dispense hearing aids.

*Lump sum payment in addition to monthly pension can be paid to a retired fireman or survivor if additional payment was adopted at the time he was an active fulltime fireman or prior to that time.

*State Board of Landscape

Architects must issue a license without examination to applicants who have been representing themselves as landscape architects for at least three years, if they have defined requirements.

*Trailer type carriers carrying implements of husbandry may be moved up to 50 miles without special overwidth permit.

*When conviction or indictment is set aside, accused regains his civil rights (to vote and serve on juries) but may not truthfully state in job application he has never been "convicted" of felony.

COURTS SPEAK

State Supreme Court, in a Beaumont case, upheld the state law requiring that barber colleges have at least 2,800 square feet and a minimum of 20 chairs in a permanent structure.

In other cases the High Court held that:

*As an historic site, the home of Texas patriot Jose Antonio Navarro in San Antonio is exempt from property taxes.

*A Dallas insurance company owes $213,355 in 1967 personal property taxes, instead of $33,367 it offered to pay. High Court agreed to review the Amarillo case in which a couple demand damages from a doctor, alleging negligence in pregnancy care of wife.

Third Court of Civil Appeals overturned State Savings and Loan Commissioner Sale Lewis' order granting authority to Brenham savings association to open an "agency" in La Grange.
