TWO GOVERNORS FIGHT FOR COTTON SLASH SUPREMACY

OISEN BILL IS PUSHED AHEAD FOR APPROVAL

EXPECT BOTH HOUSES TO AGREE ON PART CUT IN CROP

CONFERENCE IS HELD

STERLING EMBITTERED BY LONG'S RADIO INVASION

AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP)—Two southern governors—Ross Shaw Sterling of Texas and Huey P. Long of Louisiana—antagonists in a bitter fight over cotton relief legislation, counted strength tonight for a final contest Monday on the floor of both houses in the Texas legislature. The south as a whole awaited the outcome, because of Texas' dominance as a cotton producer.

The Texas senate's agricultural committee remained aloof from both factions today by reporting favorably upon two bills, one providing for the acreage reduction program advocated by Governor Sterling and the other for the cotton prohibition plan for 1932 championed by Governor Long.

Followers of the Louisiana governor saw a gain in this, as the house committee considering cotton bills was ready to report favorably Monday a bill providing for one-third acreage reduction in 1932 and crop rotation thereafter.

Governor Sterling resented the radio "invasion" of Texas by Governor Long and held the more strategic position by threatening to veto any measure which embodied the cotton prohibition plan of Louisiana's executive. He declared he would not be swept off his feet by "any hysteria," advocating acreage reduction as a more sensible program.

Confident that both houses would pass the Olsen acreage reduction bill, leaders of the acreage control movement were preparing to carry the fight into other states.

A resolution, adopted in both houses Monday, if the acreage reduction bill is passed, whereby delegates will be sent from the Texas legislature to the legislatures of other cotton growing states to aid in passage of similar bills. The expense will be paid from the market contingent fund of the Texas legislature.

A companion bill to the control bill will be offered Monday. It will be aimed at offering the cotton farmer some means of withholding a part of his crop from the market so he can benefit by the anticipated increase in price.

The special house sub-committee conferred at length with Governor Sterling today relative to the bill. Members said the governor agreed with it in principle. A. P. Johnson, chairman of the sub-committee, said he felt sure the governor would approve the Olsen bill or any bill embodying its provisions.

All cotton acreage control bills, except the sub-committee draft of the Olsen bill, will be turned back to the committee of the whole without recommendation. Among them is one levying a graduated production tax. The tax ranges to 25 cents a bale on 5 bales, to 10 per cent for all over 25 bales. It was argued this would discourage the planting of virgin land in cotton and keep production down.

FRENCH AGES DIE IN CRASH

NON-STOP PLANE GOES TO GROUND NEAR RIVER TANT

MOSCOW, Sept. 12. (AP)—Joseph Lebrun, noted French aviator, and his mechanic, Rene Meslin, were killed when their airplane, Biplan II, in which they were attempting a record non-stop flight from Le Bourget to Tokyo, crashed in a field near the mouth of the river Tant, in the vicinity of Ufa, at 8 a. m. today.

Marcel Doret, co-pilot of the plane and its third occupant, saved himself by a parachute jump.

Delay in identifying the two aviators who were killed was caused by the fact none of the populace of Ufa could understand French. A dispatch received here said, however, that all assistance was being provided for Doret by an official of the Enkhkir republic who went to the scene with a doctor.

Fighting heavy fogs, clouds and rain from the moment they crossed the Soviet frontiers, the aviators passed Moscow last night and faced a continuation of bad flying conditions for several hundred miles. They were unreported after flying here until word came of the catastrophe which befell them approximately 750 miles further on.

Two months ago lacking one day the same trio barely escaped death when their motor failed because of carburetor trouble while they flew through a midnight storm in mid-Siberia on their first attempt to set a new distance record.

Fair Prize Money Given To Welfare

Mrs. Gertha McConnell gave Mrs. W. H. Davis of the Pampa Welfare board a check for $12.50 yesterday afternoon. The check was her prize money for taking second place in the wheat exhibit at the Gray County Fair. Mrs. McConnell's wheat was exceptionally well filled and tested high.

Several exhibitors gave fruit and vegetables to the board. Mrs. Davis will give the donations to the poor.

Borger Highway To Be Opened Monday

The balance of the Borger road, recently paved, will be opened to traffic tomorrow if placing of shoulders is completed, County Engineer A. H. Doucette said last night. When opened there will be a paved road from Pampa to the Carson county line, about eight miles.

The last strip to be laid was four and one-half miles from the county line east toward Pampa. The first mile of the road was opened to traffic last week. Construction work was done by the Stuckey Construction company.

MAKE DRY RAIDS

NACOGDOCHES, Sept. 12. (AP)—Five more arrests were made here tonight on liquor charges following a series of raids by county officers. Considerable liquor was confiscated. Twenty were arrested a week ago last Friday in the first series of raids.

INDORSE ALFALFA BILL FOR PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

NEED CLEAR PROGRAM

HOOVER IS ASSAILED AS IMPERIALIST BI. SENATOR

MEDICINE PARK, Okla., Sept. 12. (AP)—Members of the League of Young Democrats of the Sixth Oklahoma district, in a resolution, endorsed Governor William H. Murray of Oklahoma as a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination at their meeting here late today.

Governor Murray has not admitted he has presidential aspirations, but his friends have discussed the possibility often in recent weeks.

The democrats, who attended a banquet tonight at which Senator Tom Connally, Texas, was the principal speaker, also passed resolutions urging state and national authorities to inaugurate a public road construction program as an unemployment aid; urged revision of taxes with the burden shifted from "American homes and farms" and recommended repeal of the Hawley-Smoot tariff act.

Senator Connally advocated the debenture form of farm relief as "the only plan which will give the agriculture tariff benefits enjoyed by industry."

Asserting that the country was "weary of the miserable blunders and failures of the republicans; of their selfish and reckless policies," Senator Connally said the democrats must go before the people in 1932 with a definite and clearcut program.

In addition to debenture farm relief, the Texas senator advocated downward revision of the tariff, currency and coinage legislation, an international conference to stabilize silver and creation of an economic democracy.

Senator Connally characterized President Herbert Hoover as an "imperialist."

LONDON SLUMS TITTER AT MAHATMA GANDHI IN WHITE ROBE

LONDON, Sept. 12. (AP)—London's East End slums tittered today at the first sight of Mahatma Gandhi, the scruffy man who is defying the British empire.

Clad in a long white robe and wearing his longloath and sandals, the Mahatma drove to the Kingsley Hall settlement immediately after his welcome meeting on his arrival from Folkstone, where he had disembarked earlier in the day. Hundreds of East Enders had been standing long in the bone-chilling drizzle to see him.

When Mr. Gandhi arrived bobbies pushed the spectators back and he was hustled into the building.

A few minutes later he appeared on a little balcony. Then came the good humored laughter.

After Mr. Gandhi withdrew, settlement workers began unloading his 30 pieces of baggage. Trunks, bags and blankets were brought up containing from the crowd but when a tray filled with bottles of goat's milk appeared there was more laughter.

After a brief reception by settlement residents and a welcome by the borough mayor, the Mahatma retired to his rooftop quarters overlooking "dockland" and thousands of smoking chimneys tops.

Mr. Gandhi agreed to see newspaper men immediately after prayers, which lasted half an hour. In a chilly, cement-floored room the press awaited him. Gandhi grunted and so did the reporters. Then the Mahatma sat on a chair, slipped his feet out of his sandals, covered his legs up under the long white robe and shaved.

"Perhaps you have a message for England after your welcome?" an English newspaper man said.

"Haven't I given messages enough today?" Mr. Gandhi replied.

"Perhaps you have a message?"

"Perhaps you have a message?"

Exhibits Will Be Sent To Amarillo

The pick of the exhibits at the Gray County Free fair are being saved and will be taken to the Amarillo Tri-State fair as a Gray county exhibit. George W. Briggs, manager of the Board of City Development, and Ralph R. Thomas, county agent, will be in charge of the exhibit.

Wheat, cotton, row crops, vegetables and fruits were the outstanding exhibits at the fair, representing the natural resources of Gray county.

The exhibit of antiques drew more attention from visitors than any other department. During the past three days the new Mitchell building has been well filled every day with visitors from all parts of the county. Several guns displayed by T. D. Hobart and others were particularly admired. The ladies' displays drew the greatest crowds.

Livestock also came in for its share of praise.

PRYOR IS GIVEN SENTENCE

WHEELER, Sept. 12. (AP)—Clarence Pryor tonight was found guilty of murder with malice aforethought in connection with the shooting, July 12, of his father-in-law, Dr. W. W. Guyton. A prison term of 15 years was recommended by the jury.

The verdict was returned at 7:10 o'clock tonight after the jury had been deliberating since early Friday morning.

Pryor was calm as the verdict was read.

Attorneys for the defense declared intention to file motion for a new trial. The motion will be filed Monday.

Appeal will be made if the motion is overruled, defense counsel said.

Pryor, from the witness stand, had claimed self-defense.

Prosecuting attorneys had asked the death penalty.

ARREST SUSPECT NACOGDOCHES

Vernon Acree, 29, was arrested here today by Sheriff Tom Lambert, charged with bank robbery at Anahuac, Chambers county, a year ago. Officials said identification of Acree was partially accomplished by means of a scar on the left leg.

When the bank was robbed a bulldog bit the robber as he fled. The loot was $5,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McConnell returned yesterday from Colorado Springs, Colo., and Colorado mountain resorts where they spent a week.

Hearst Passes Up France

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP)—Conditions in Europe are "so bad," William Randolph Hearst said tonight, that "our own depression in comparison seems like only a small dent in the smooth surface of prosperity."

In a radio address, the publisher said "The essential and vital difference between conditions abroad and here at home is that, although considerable individual financial embarrassment and even some individual insolvency prevails here, still our nation is sound and solvent, while in Europe not only in these much more individual impoverishment but governments and even nations are on the brink of bankruptcy."

Although he traveled in many European countries, he said, he stayed out of France by "what may politely be termed mutual consent."

Last year he was expelled from France as a sequel to the publication in his papers of a memorandum on the so-called Anglo-French secret naval pact.

"There is one outstanding lesson in the European situation for America," said Mr. Hearst, "and that is: Keep out of European conflicts and complications."

"Taken as a whole, Europe lies prostrate and impoverished as a final result of the great war."

"But her poverty has at least one advantage. It is keeping her out of another war."

"Just as soon as the nations of Europe can stand upon their financial feet and accumulate a little money they will invite another and greater disaster."

"War means debt," he warned. "Debt means depression. Depression means social revolution."

"We got into our present troubles by going into Europe and if we would keep out of trouble, let us keep out of Europe."

"Keep out of it politically. Keep out of it financially. Keep out of it."

"And let us pray," he said in conclusion, "for an American administration at Washington which will recognize the full, its primary obligation to our own American people."

AMERICAN LEGION PAYS LAST RESPECTS TO ITS COMMANDER

Members of the Pampa fire department will assist Santa Claus this year in distributing toys to children who might not be as fortunate as some of their neighbors.

The firemen will use some of their spare time in repairing and painting old toys. They ask that citizens look up old and broken toys and take them to the fire station so that the repair work may be started. Those having toys but no way to deliver them may telephone No. 617, the fire department's private phone, and someone will call for them.

Fire Chief Clyde Gold expects hundreds of children to attend the firemen's Christmas party, and many toys will be needed.

Panhandle Hearing Date Will Be Set

R. D. Parker, head of the oil and gas division of the Railway commission, was expected to set a date soon for a hearing on the prorotation schedule in the Panhandle under the recent legislative action, according to J. M. McDonald, deputy supervisor for the Panhandle field. Mr. McDonald was in telephone communication with Austin yesterday.

Mr. Parker will also set a place where the hearing will be held. Mr. McDonald says the hearing may be held somewhere in this territory. The deputy supervisor is scheduled to meet C. V. Terrell, chairman of the railway commission, in Lubbock tomorrow. He will leave here today.

ELKS CLUB HAS RITUAL SERVICE AT GRAVE OF ALEXANDER

An audience estimated to be the largest that ever attended a funeral in Pampa, crowded into all seats, aisles and corridors of the First Methodist church yesterday afternoon to hear the Rev. C. E. Lancaster pay a glowing tribute to C. C. Alexander in a funeral address.

Mr. Alexander, commander of the Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion at the time of his death, was given a full military funeral. Members of the local post and the Elks lodge marched in a body to the church and later to the cemetery.

The flag draped casket was taken to the cemetery on a caisson drawn by six big black horses. The national guard unit at Amarillo furnished an eight-man firing squad, caisson guard, color guard, caisson and three riders for the teams.

Mr. Lancaster reviewed Mr. Alexander's career in the American Expeditionary Forces during the late World War. He was a member of the 26th Infantry, first division. He was discharged upon his return from the battlefields of France as a first lieutenant.

The minister, who is chaplain of the local post and was chaplain in the army during the war, praised Mr. Alexander's act in offering his life for his country. "There are some things worth more than life—liberty is worth more than life," he said.

The casket was carried from the church altar which was piled high with flowers to the caisson waiting at the south entrance. The long march to the cemetery began with the band softly playing a slow funeral march. The procession traversed Foster avenue from the church to Cuyler and then up North Cuyler to the cemetery. The color guard led the procession, carrying aloft the U. S. flag and the local post's flag. Next came the uniformed Pampa American Legion band led by Com. Lewis O. Cox, drum major. The band was followed by the caisson, firing squad, members of the Legion post, and of the Elks lodge.

At the grave, the Elks' burial ritual was said. The military funeral began with the ritual. This was followed by three volleys from the firing squad. The last honor paid the dead commander was the taps sounded by trumpeters.

As the flag draped casket was being lowered into the grave a plane piloted by Dr. J. C. McKean and carrying Dr. C. D. Hunter dropped flowers.

The funeral was held under direction of G. C. Malone funeral home.

Mr. Alexander, 42 years old, is survived by his widow, a daughter, Elizabeth Gene, and a brother, Gene E. Alexander, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Alexander lived here during the last five years. He was prominent in business and civic affairs. He was a native of Georgia, but lived in almost every section of the United States.

PAVING BIDS ARE TO BE RECEIVED FOR ROAD SOON

Bids for paving 2,424 miles from the end of the pavement on the Miami road to the Roberts county line, and 2,099 miles of the Pampa-LeFlore road from the end of the present pavement, with 18-foot wide concrete will be received at the office of county auditor until one o'clock, Sept. 28.

Bids will be opened in the afternoon by county commissioners. Contracts are due to be let the same date. The right is reserved by the commissioners to reject any and all proposals and to waive all technicalities.

County Engineer A. H. Doucette last week estimated the paving would cost about $18,800 per mile. The engineer's estimate on the Pampa-LeFlore road job totaled $39,119.97 or $18,802 per mile. Estimate on the Miami project totaled $45,586.61, or $18,802 per mile.

Judge Braly Ends District Court

Judge Clifford Braly officially closed a 10-week term of the 114th district court here last night by denying two motions for new trials, granting one new trial and granting a divorce. The term has been one of the busiest since the court was authorized nearly two years ago.

Dr. W. F. Nicholas was granted a new trial in the suit of H. E. Stevens versus Dr. Nicholas for damages. The verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff. Pete Black's motion for a new trial in the suit of Black versus the Texas Indemnity company was denied. Will P. Saunders, attorney for the plaintiff, said he would appeal the decision. The motion of the Fidelity Union Casualty company for a new trial in the suit of Mattie Crockett, negro, against the company was denied.

Mrs. Alma Gurley was granted a divorce from J. S. Gurley and given custody of a child, 3 years old. The defendant was ordered to pay court costs. Gurley represented himself in the suit which lasted more than four days.

TWO KILLED IN EXPLOSION

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12. (AP)—Two of 17 men injured today in a fire and explosion at the Atlantic Refining company's oil plant here, died tonight. Seven others of the injured were not expected to recover.

The dead were John Joseph Hall, a rigger, and Irwin Milligan, a machinist's helper.

A new gas stabilizing plant, consisting of a series of pipes outside the buildings, was being operated for the first time when parts of the piping were ruptured, spraying flaming naphtha over men employed by the company, and a contractor.

No serious property damage was done.

Buelah Bridges Is Released On Bond

More than 900 bottles of beer was stored in the basement of the court house yesterday afternoon following a raid by officers of the sheriff's department. Paraphernalia for the manufacturing of the beverage was also taken in the raid which resulted in the arrest of Buelah Mae Bridges.

A truck was required to haul the beer and equipment to the court house. The beer was in cases, cartons and boxes. Sheriff Lon Blanton said.

Mrs. Bridges was charged with possession of beer for the purpose of sale and released under a $1,000 bond.

Two Are Charged With Possession

Charles and Frank Soumerville, cousins, were released yesterday under bond of $750 each following filing of charges of possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale. The men were arrested early last week in their house near LeFlore.

Officers of the sheriff's department said they found several bottles of whisky, beer and wine.

PART OF CITY IS BURNED TO HALT DISEASE

FUNERAL PYRES LIGHT DESTROYED CITY IN HONDURAS

TOWN WILL BE MOVED

SPRING IS LOCATED IN CITY—TO WARD OFF FAMINE

By PHILLIP WOOD, A. P. Staff Correspondent (Copyright, 1931, Associated Press)

BELEZE, British Honduras, Sept. 12. (AP)—More than 1,000 of the 16,000 inhabitant of Belize perished in 1918 by a hurricane. It was estimated tonight after a survey.

Authorities tonight were considering abandoning the town in which almost every house was damaged by the storm, and moving the site to the high plains along the pine ridge.

Unable to keep up with the rising death toll, the government applied the torch tonight to burn areas where the destruction and death took the highest toll.

The funeral pyres were lighted to ward off the menace of disease, made more threatening by the broiling sun which beat down upon the ruined city.

Fire lanes were then cut around the grimly burning area to protect the rest of the city.

Belize depends upon a catchment system for its water supply and with all roofs blown off, the government was preparing to prevent a water famine. A spring of fresh water was discovered in the middle of a street in the center of the town and it was hoped that would afford some relief.

American Red Cross physicians have begun work and have thrown themselves into the task before them. The American vice consul, Robert Ott, of El Paso, has enlisted as a special constable and is rendering valuable service. Consul O. Russell Taggart was slightly injured by falling roofing iron.

Eighteen of the students at the Jesuit college have been buried and the government has decided not to seek any more bodies at the college, but to burn the debris.

The captain of a motor vessel which weathered the hurricane and showed the shore near the college when it collapsed, said the building was heaved high in the air above its concrete pillars and dropped to the ground like a pack of cards.

Manager Beattie of the Royal Bank of Canada, who was out riding during the storm, had a terrifying experience when his horse was blown from under him while he was on an uninhabited part of the coast. He had to hang on to trees during the storm and reached Belize 24 hours after the hurricane had passed.

The superintendent of police was out warning citizens during a gale, that another and more severe blow was expected, when the tidal wave hit his car and he was drowned.

The misery of Mesopotamia, a worker's suburb built on a reclaimed swamp, baffled description. Already low lying, about a foot above the high water level, the tidal wave carried away every one who happened to be at home at the time. All the houses in this section were demolished with the first sweep of the hurricane.

Liquor warehouses were burst open by the storm and cases of liquor were scattered along the streets for a great distance. Some of them were driven into the doors of the American consulate.

With the U. S. S. Swan in port tonight, citizens were feeling easier and the danger of possible rioting was considered less. The streets were considered less.

Vesper Musicale Today Will Offer Pleasant Hour

An hour of sacred music, consisting of numbers by talent from various choirs of the city, will be offered local people at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the First Methodist church under the auspices of the Music Week committee.

Well known vocal and instrumental soloists will be heard, in addition to the ladies' chorus, mixed quartet, vocal duet, piano duo, and organ prelude and postlude. Altogether, it will be a very pleasing home talent performance.

It is expected that this will be one of a series of sacred programs to be given as Sunday afternoon performances. Large groups from various churches, who know the excellent talent local choirs have, will be in the audience. See the program in The NEWS-POST woman's page.

TWENTY GRAND RACES TO NEW TURF LAURELS

NEW YORK, Sept. 12 (AP)—Twenty Grand raced on to new laurels today as he carried the colors of Mrs. Payne Whitney to an easy victory in the Lawrence realization at Belmont park.

The big bay son of St. Germain-Bonus scored much in the same manner that characterized his hollow triumph over Sun Beau in the Saratoga cup last week, finishing the mile and five furlongs with five lengths to spare. His closest pursuer was Mrs. Katherine E. Pitt's Sun Meadow, while another five lengths back trailed the Belair Stud's Sir Ashley with the Wheatley stable's Vieniheim fourth and last.

The victory was worth $29,700 and boosted Twenty Grand's total earnings to $249,325, just $60 more than Man O'War earned during his sensational career. Twenty Grand covered the distance in 2:41.1-5.

N. W. Cozart is here from Oklahoma City for a short stay while attending to business affairs in this district.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Gray County—Greeting.

You are hereby commanded to summon P. L. Winters by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the 31st District Court of Gray County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Pampa, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in September A. D. 1931, the same being the 21st day of September A. D. 1931, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 20th day of August A. D. 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said court No. 2940, wherein Dove Arlene Winters is Plaintiff, and P. L. Winters is Defendant, and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

Plaintiff alleges that she resides in Gray County, Texas, but that the residence of the defendant is unknown to her; that she has been a resident of the state of Texas for more than 12 months prior to the filing of her petition herein and has resided in Gray County, Texas, six months prior to filing such petition; that she and the defendant were married in New Mexico on or about July 29, 1930, and lived together as husband and wife until April 15, 1931, when she was forced to leave the defendant, since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife; that during the time she and the defendant lived together as husband and wife, she was kind and considerate of the defendant, managed the household affairs with prudence and at all times treated him with kindness and consideration; that shortly after their marriage the defendant began a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical conduct toward her; that he cursed and abused her in the presence of her neighbors and friends and that such conduct on his part continued without interruption until she was forced to leave the defendant, and on account of the conduct of defendant toward her their further living together as husband and wife has been rendered insupportable. Plaintiff prays for divorce and for all cost of suit.

Herein fail not but have before said court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Pampa, Texas, on this 13th day of August A. D. 1931.

EXTRA GUARDS WATCH CHURCH

DISCUSS POSSIBILITY OF CHARGES ON PREACHER

JONESBORO, Ark., Sept. 12. (AP)—Sixteen extra guardsmen, armed with a machine gun, sawed-off shotguns and tear gas bombs, were dispatched to the Rev. Joe Jeffers' tent tabernacle here tonight after Jeffers had launched into a denunciation of the officer commanding the detachment of the Arkansas National Guard. The guard is patrolling the streets here because of a factional difference in the First Baptist church.

Immediately after the extra detail of guardsmen was dispatched to the tabernacle, Capt. Harry E. Eldridge, in charge of the troops, went into a conference with Mayor H. J. Bosler with the announced intention of determining whether charges could be placed against the evangelist. Jeffers, in his talk tonight, charged Captain Eldridge had exaggerated the situation with his statement that about 25 armed men attended services Thursday night and challenged the officer to prove the statement.

CONOCO ETHYL GAS SHOWN TO BE EFFICIENT

Why Conoco Ethyl gasoline is superior to ordinary white gasoline was demonstrated here Friday and Saturday at Conoco stations by E. T. Martin.

Martin carries a one-cylinder high compression motor equipped with a generator and speed indicator, and with the carburetor arranged to use either white or Ethyl at will. The motor lost speed and generating capacity at high speed on white gasoline but went right back to efficient operation when switched to Ethyl. The demonstrator also showed how Ethyl keeps an engine cooler than white gas. A. K. Snyder, district superintendent, assisted Mr. Martin, and local dealers cooperated.

SEE YOU HAVE AN ELECTROLUX WATER COOLER. I NOTE YOU SAY "SEE" AND NOT "HEAR"

Cool your way into the hearts of your employees and customers by giving them the Electrolux of drinking water chilled by gas—at a cost of only 5 or 10 cents a day—and incidentally provide yourself with healthful quantities of stimulating cool water; you'll drink more because it's always so invitingly just-right.

The Electrolux Cooler is (as all business appliances should be) utterly noiseless. (It is, I believe, the one noiseless automatic refrigerator cooler.) No distracting stopping or starting noises. No moving parts. Nothing to listen to. Nothing to oil. A tiny, harmless, inexpensive gas pilot light (with automatic protective shut-off) does all the work instead of "machinery."

The whole outfit is you-proof, employee-proof and tinker-proof. Just put it in and forget it except when you want a refreshing cool drink.

MIAMI SEEKS LOWER RATES

MIAMI, Sept. 12. (Special)—Members of the city council of Miami have been meeting frequently of late in their effort to secure reductions in light, gas, and telephone rates. The Southwestern Associated Telephone company which serves Miami has been asked for a reduction in residence telephone rates. It has granted a 25-cent cut in desk rates, but this is not satisfactory to the commissioners.

NEGRO CONVICT HELD ASSAULTING WOMAN

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 12. (AP)—A negro arrested when he alighted from a freight car here was held by police today as a possible suspect in connection with the murder of Aubrey N. Nodurt, Fort Worth, and the criminal assault upon his fiancée in Wichita Falls Wednesday night. The man was identified as an escaped convict from the state penitentiary at Huntsville and detectives wired Wichita Falls police for a description of two negroes wanted in connection with the murder.

PASS RESOLUTION
WESLACO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Directors of the newly organized Valley Vegetable Co-operative association today adopted a resolution urging passage of Rep. Clarence Farmer's debt moratorium bill prohibiting foreclosures and suits against real property. Copies of the resolution were dispatched to Gov. Ross S. Sterling and this section's representatives.

NEW PARTY COMMITTEE SOUGHT IN CHIHUAHUA

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Sept. 12. (AP)—Federal congressmen from the state of Chihuahua, Mex., today petitioned the national revolutionary party to appoint a new provisional party executive committee in the state.

They claimed the present committee was no longer representative of the voters. They also announced they would start a campaign immediately favoring the candidacy of Gen. Rodrigo Quevedo for the office of governor in Chihuahua.

Party officials were asked to authorize the selection of candidates for the approaching municipal elections by the plebiscite system. KASUMIGAUARA, Japan, Sept. 13. (AP)—Colonel and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh left here at 12:25 p. m. today (Sunday) for Osaka, western Japan, expecting to take about three and a half hours for the flight.

Toll Bridge Open For Free Traffic

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 12. (AP)—The toll bridge, six miles north of Gainesville, was opened free to all traffic late this afternoon after bridge company officials and county officials of Cooke county, Texas, and Love county, Okla., had signed a contract. The contract provided for a 30 day lease for $1. During the 30 days officials hope to complete grading of 4.6 miles of a detour road leading from the free Texas-Oklahoma highway bridge to Gainesville. The road is now impassable because of mud conditions. Hundreds of cars became stalled last night on the road following a heavy rain.

COMMITTS SUICIDE
LAREDO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Emilio Martinez, 57, committed suicide by discharging a shotgun in his chest at his home here this afternoon. A verdict of death from a shotgun discharge, self inflicted, was returned in an inquest held before Justice Cayetano M. Dela Garza. Martinez was a carpenter.

CANADIAN WILL HAVE BIG FAIR

CANADIAN, Sept. 12. (Special)—Hemphill county's fair which will be held Sept. 18 and 19, promises to exceed all previous exhibitions. Ten communities have signified their intention of having exhibits. They are Gageby, Washitz, Pleasant Valley, Glazier, Gem, M. K., Liberty, Blue Ridge, and Notia. Miss Margie Lyon of Panhandle will judge the contests for women and girls. Edward C. Fisher, who is in charge of home talent carnival, has the performance well along. There will be a baseball game and a football contest, the latter between Canadian and Pollett. Tickets are on sale for the rural banquet to be held Sept. 18 in the W. C. T. U. building.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 12. (AP)—W. H. Fuller, charged with murder of Mrs. Mary Ann Cothron, probably will go to trial the first week of the regular term of the 94th district court which will convene October 5.

ARGENTINE POLOISTS CONQUER AMERICANS

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 12. (AP)—The Santa Paula four, champions of Argentina, rallied today to conquer Harold E. Talbot's Roslyn team after an accident to their captain and star, Manuel Andrada, nearly resulted in their elimination from the United States open championship.

The South Americans won by the narrow margin of 8 to 1 in an exciting, hard-fought battle. The crack No. 2 of the invaders, Juan Reynald, tied the score at 7-7 in the seventh chucker on a beautiful run and then put through the winning goal in the final period, from sharp angle, with barely a minute to go.

Andrada, the big, broad-shouldered No. 4 man of the Argentines, was thrown heavily to the turf in the fifth period while Santa Paula was enjoying a 5-2 lead and clearly outplaying its rivals. The accident took the dash out of Santa Paula's play, however, as well as the effectiveness from Andrada's defensive work.

CHANGES MADE IN SEASON FOR BIRDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—Changes in the hunting season for ducks, geese, brant and coot in 14 states were announced today by Secretary Hyde of the agriculture department.

The season in Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma will run from October 20 to November 19. No change was announced for Texas. The alterations were made following complaints by many sportsmen that the open date made public when the season was shortened to one month did not give them opportunities for hunting that were afforded in other states.

President Hoover recently shortened the hunting season to one month and the changes today were in the dates made public at that time.

MARINES ARE WINNERS IN SHOOTING CONTEST

CAMP PERRY, O., Sept. 12. (AP)—The United States Marines outshot the Coast Guards at long range today to win the national rifle championship for the second straight year.

The Marine team of 10 men finished with a score of 2,809 out of a possible 3,000. The Coast Guards came second with 2,788, the Infantry third with 2,756, the Navy fourth with 2,757, the Cavalry fifth with 2,749 and the Engineers sixth with 2,741.

The fourth corps area of Atlanta, Ga., led in the reserve officers training camp classification, totaling 2,642. The eighth corps area, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., scored 2,632.

First place in the citizens military training camp classification went to the sixth corps area, Chicago, with a total of 2,659. Fort Sam Houston, Tex., was second with 2,583.

ELLSWORTH WINES IS NATIONAL CHAMPION

By GAYLE TALBOT Associated Press Sports Writer. FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 12. (AP)—There was none left tonight to dispute the American supremacy of Ellsworth Vines Jr., 19-year-old University of Southern California sophomore, in the world of tennis. The last of his rivals fell today when George Lott Jr., Philadelphia's Davis cup star, went down before the coast sensation's magic racket in four thrill-packed sets at Forest Hills, 7-9, 6-3, 9-7, 7-5.

Twelve thousand spectators set up a mighty roar as the Pasadena strapping, who a year ago was ranked only No. 8 in this country, blasted his way to the tennis heights. When the two weary athletes dragged themselves from the court the experts were comparing Vines to Big Bill Tilden, who witnessed the match. In the depth and speed of his drives today, as well as in his court strategy and fighting heart, they said he was the equal of the former champion in his prime.

Within an hour of the match Vines was aboard a fast train for the coast to take up his studies. Vines, who also holds the national clay courts crown and numerous club titles won on his tour of the east this summer, is the youngest player to win the national championship in the present century. He will be 20 next Sunday.

SPOODERS HOLD EARLY LEAD TO WIN CONTEST

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 12. (AP)—Wichita Falls socked George Murray for three runs in the first and Cesar Fuhr for four in the fourth to defeat Dallas, 7 to 4, today in the opener of the season's final series. Florid aided his own cause with a timely double that figured in the fourth inning spurge. Dallas.....601 111 600-4 10 2 Wichita Falls.....300 400 000-7 13 1 Two-base hits, Holman, Florid, Allday, Scharen. Home run, Loopp. Stolen base, Garns. Runs and hits, off Murray 3 and 4 in 1-3 inning. Struck out, by Murray 1, Florid 6, Fuhr 1. Base on balls, off Murray 1, Florid 6, Fuhr 3. Batsmen hit, by Florid (Todd, Loopp). Losing pitcher, Murray. Left on base, Dallas 14, Wichita Falls 9.

TEXANS CAN GAMBLE ON HORSE RACES NOW

FORT WORTH, Sept. 12. (AP)—Under the title of option selling, Texas race track fans next Saturday will be given their first opportunity to gamble on races at Arlington Downs near here since the inauguration of the park by W. T. Waggoner three years ago.

The Texas breeders' future will feature the day's races. Betting will not be through pari-mutuels which is against Texas law. Under the system, which has been placed in the hands of Joseph A. Murphy of Chicago, spectators will be permitted to buy a one day option on the horse he wishes. The money taken on the sale of options on all horses in one race will be put up as the purse in the same race and will be divided among the winners in proportion to the number of options sold on them.

The $3,000,000 racing plant was erected by Waggoner three years ago in an effort to establish racing in Texas without betting. In commenting today on the races, Mr. Waggoner said Arlington Downs always has been against betting on and has not altered its position. He said option buying will be endorsed and encouraged.

Between 10,000 and 15,000 are expected to attend the one day races which are under the direction of the Texas Thoroughbred Horseman's association. In addition to the Texas breeder's future, there will be seven other races, three polo games and a free barbecue. The single day's program replaces events of six days, held for the past two years.

M. M. Bounds of Roy, N. M., left for home last night after a two weeks stay in the oil fields.

Shopping With Mistress Nell

Particular Shops for Particular People

Mistress Nell went shopping around one day and this is what she found: An autumn leaf commenced to turn, a schoolboy on his way to learn. A honey bee for one more sip before the flower had ceased to drip. A baby waving hubby hand while wriggling toes were digging sand. A gray-haired sire on duty bent-You'd think his serving years were spent. That life is one great shop, unless you care to be out!

Faultless

In Empire Days, so much depicted in present day styles, only Empresses and ladies of the court had faultless complexions. Today any woman knows the advantage of that asset. One of the most horrible results of a neglected skin is blackheads. DUBARRY offers you in a simple home treatment, an effective powder when mixed with a few drops of water into a paste and applied to that part of the face showing blackheads, will be found upon daily treatments to dissolve and eradicate this unpleasant condition. In a short while, twice a week will be sufficient. FATHEREE DUBARRY STORES are exclusive agents for DUBARRY Cosmetics.

Thin barrel muffs barely large enough to hold the hands and sometimes are of the same material as the coat will be worn this year.

Important Note

Those who read the latest fashion news know that a most important note in the style world this year is fabrics. Rich materials in intricate weaves and patterns without doubt is what "makes" the frock. At DOAK'S DEPARTMENT STORE fruits of an extensive market trip are in evidence. Mr. and Mrs. Doak have just returned from the East and their store, known since its opening about a year ago as the rendezvous of the dressmaker, is filled with crisp new fall patterns of travel crepes and tweeds, smart woolens, cantans and satins. You will delight to work up these lovely new materials.

The Eugenie type hat is carried even into the bridesmaid outfit, however in pastel shades for both hat and plume.

One of the most attractive entries in the Business and Professional Women's Style Show this week will be that of THE UNITED DRY GOODS STORE. They will model Street and Evening Dresses, Coats and Hats. Mrs. Frederickson of the Retail Department of this store will arrange the hair and makeup of the models and Mrs. Bullock of the Hemstitching and Dressmaking Department will do the alterations necessary. If you are interested in any of the garments displayed by THE UNITED DRY GOODS STORE you will find upon investigation that their prices are interesting as well.

Contest

Isn't it interesting to note the many changes and additions to what business district? Come to think of it we have almost a new town from six months ago. A new shop, which is to be named in a contest offered to school boys and girls is at 314 North Cuyler. They market all kinds of table supplies and will serve sandwiches, hamburgers, candy and fountain drinks to the school kiddies, and if you will go in and ask they will tell you all about the contest. Mothers will like the light airy cleanliness of the place as well as the choice market supplies for their tables.

Afternoon frocks are transformed into dinner dresses by the addition of waistlength jackets.

No appetite is quite so ravaging as that of the High School Youth. And they must have a well balanced lunch in order to keep their health and stand the strain of school work. THE PAMPA COFFEE SHOP, 120 on North Russell, are serving a specially planned school lunch and Mothers sending their children here may be assured they are receiving proper food. Teachers also will like the service rendered by THE PAMPA COFFEE SHOP.

Uneven hemlines are again a feature of evening gowns varying five inches or more front to back.

Foundation

The particular lady of fashion chooses her undergarments with the same unerring taste she uses for her frocks and coats. The foundation of the Fall Silhouette takes its inspiration from the evening frocks—made of supple satin and built on graceful diagonal lines. Lovely laces continue to be favorites in the hampered iron holders are choosing tailored lingerie for fall. MURPEES Inc. are showing an exclusive line of beautiful underwear and you will be surprised at the low prices.

Another Dial Idea

There is no excuse now for not knowing your Geography. THE GIFT SHOP is showing the Radio Globe, the latest accessory for convenience and learning in connection with Radio Programs. And just like a butterfly, does the lovely little clothes brush of that design lift the dust from your dress or hat. Remember the Colonial Patch Boxes? They have them in many sizes and designs, just the thing for gifts or prizes. The everlasting tapers, shown here, coiled serpentine in the hands of holders are quite unique. When you need something novel for any purpose, go to THE GIFT SHOP.

Pearl throat ornaments for evening in simple lines are expected to be much worn this winter.

Pleasing

One never knows just what pleasant surprise is waiting around the corner. The other day in my ramblings I came upon an artistic sign swinging in the curb—MRS. ENK'S PRIVATE DINING ROOM. Of course I had to stop about a little and upon investigation I discovered a most hospitable hostess prepared to serve delicious home cooked meals. And while you encounter that home-like air, at the same time the individual little tables of restful green with their gay Roman stripes lend a note of smartness found in city tea rooms. Mrs. Enk's location is 306 on North Somerville and she serves Lunch and Dinner.

Woolens hold the center of the stage and even influence silks for fall.

Friendly

Who does not appreciate that breath-of-the-country air of friendliness? That "Well Howdy Folks, Come Right In" atmosphere? That's just what you will find at the PAMPA HARDWARE & IMPLEMENT COMPANY'S store. Mrs. T. C. Lively is the genial manager and whether you want to buy or not he will be glad to have you come in and help yourself to a refreshing drink from their water cooler, and listen, ladies, if you feel a little guilty about those extra vitamins, their scaler will put you straight about the matter. This store is always ready and willing to cooperate for the good of the community as shown by their farm show window during the fair.

POLICE CHECK WIFE'S STORY IN YACHT CASE

MRS. COLLINGS HOLDS TO SAME STORY OF KIDNAPERS

BOYSEITZ, N. Y., Sept. 12. (AP)—The revelation that Benjamin Collins failed to take advantage of two opportunities to arm himself against the two men his wife says threw him off his cruiser was made today by Mrs. Collings, after she had identified an abandoned canoe as the one the invaders used.

Authorities would not say what significance they attached to her disclosure. One published theory attributed to some of the investigators was that the Connecticut yachtsman might have vanished voluntarily and that the events on the cruiser Wednesday night related by his wife were "staged" to mislead her and others.

It also was learned late in the day a message had been sent out yesterday to police of six states asking them to search for the missing man. His full description was given.

District Attorney Elvin N. Edwards again said he believed the attractive young wife was telling what happened just as she had seen it.

Police Inspector King, however, said that in the absence of proof or a motive for the apparent drowning of Collings he would await the finding of the body or some other conclusive evidence before accepting the story of midnight piracy.

Plans were made late today for a cruise on the Collings boat, the Penguin, to test the carrying power of the human voice from the deck to the cabin. Mrs. Collings had told of hearing the conversation between her husband and the two "pirates," part of which took place while the engine was running.

The checking of this detail was part of a general policy adopted by authorities in examining all phases of Mrs. Collings' story.

The canoe Mrs. Collings identified is owned by Miner D. Cray, wealthy yachtsman who has an estate on Ducks' island, Northport, not far from where the Penguin was anchored when she said the two men climbed aboard. It was stolen Wednesday afternoon or evening from a beach on the Cray estate.

CONNALLY HITS—

peralist of big business; an imperialism in which the dollar shall wear the crown.

"From such a dream of imperialism, I appeal to an economic democracy for our own people—a democracy in which every man may have an opportunity to share the rewards of industry and fortune—a democracy which will strive to secure a market for the products of the millions at home and economic justice for the producers and consumers of America," Senator Connally told the young democrats.

"Today there is an army of unemployed with empty dinner plates facing hunger and misery larger than any army that ever gathered under the banner of the republic to face the enemy in time of war. We are promised prosperity. We have been plunged into the most tragic agricultural and business panic of the last half a century.

"We were assured by the republican candidate for president that the poorhouse was fast disappearing and under his direction would likely soon pass from view. It now bulks larger and more ominous with each day. Its lines are sharper and clearer. No longer a phantom, an dying day. Its lines are sharper and sadder and gloomy reality," Senator Connally said.

Senator Connally asserted that no such plea as a "world wide depression" would have been listened to if the democrats had been in power at the present time.

"Had the democratic administration exhibited the lack of leadership which exists today in high places where leadership is expected, every republican orator in the land—every republican organ would be filling our ears with ringing taunts that the democratic party is a party of ruin and disaster and hard times. Whatever their ability, they cannot with success evade or avoid their responsibility. If they have not been the author of our misfortune, neither have they proposed any plan for our redemptions," the senator stated.

In discussing the tariff, Senator Connally said:

"Shielded from foreign competition at home, American tariff protected industries have established plants in foreign markets. This has caused much American unemployment. International bankers and industrialists have invested billions in foreign countries in loans and factories. The Hoover administration has shown more interest in protecting such investments than in our own people's welfare. Anxiety over American investments in Germany ought not to be greater than over American consumers at home."

PHILLIPS TEAMS WILL PLAY ON MAG DIAMOND

Pampa baseball fans are due to see one of the best baseball games of the season this afternoon when the Phillips Oilers from the South Pampa field playing the pick of the Gray-Carson baseball league, take on the Phillips Oilers of Borger on Magnolia field. The game will be the second of a three-game series between the two teams. Borger won the opening game last Sunday afternoon in Borger, 4 to 2, although outbatted by the Pampa nine.

J. B. Rickett, will call the game at 3 o'clock. McKinley will be in the box for the Pampa team with Pullian behind the bat. Borger will probably send the great Lefty Dillon to the mound with Williams receiving. Dillon is recognized as one of the best hurlers out of professional ball.

Manager Bob Kirkpatrick announced his lineup last night as follows:

Baldwin, ss; Marshall, rf; Pullian, c; Lister, lf; Newsome, 3b; Cahill, 2b; Warren, cf; Flynn, 1b; McKinley, p.

The other manager says he will have a bench full of real reserves with Stewart and Ross ready to take the box if McKinley weakens. McKinley's inability to field bunts started the rally that lost for the Pampans last week but the big right-hander says he is ready for the Borger bunters this afternoon.

about English weather," another interviewer suggested.

"Mr. Gandhi laughed loud and heartily.

"Oh, this English weather, how well I remember it!" he said. But I don't anticipate any difficulties with it. I have been through it before."

Then he grew serious. It is improbable, he said, that he will go to America.

"Friends have told me that America wouldn't know what to do with me," he said. "I should like to go but I feel I can speak most usefully to America by doing my work in India."

He added, however, that he might change his mind, explaining "if my inner voice says to go, I shall go."

TO PROBE GIRL IN MYSTERY

BOSTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—An investigation into the killing of Edward Theodore Humbert of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the suicide of his friend, Charles E. Chapman, New York interior decorator, turned tonight toward a girl with the initials E. C. Chapman poisoned himself yesterday in a Back Bay hotel 48 hours after the discovery of Humbert's battered body in a cottage the two friends had shared in Norwalk, Conn.

The card of a girl with the initials E. C., who was believed to be a student at an exclusive school near Boston, was found among Chapman's effects. Police said they would question the girl as soon as they located her to determine if she had been involved in a quarrel between Chapman and Humbert.

The only communication was through the radio station of the Pan-American airways. L. E. REPEATS REQUEST FOR FOREIGN OIL EMBARGO

SANTA FE, N. M., Sept. 12. (AP)—Gov. Arthur Seligman today telegraphed to President Hoover a renewed request, of oil states governors or a ban on foreign oil importations. The telegram read:

"Governor Sterling of Texas, Governor Woodring of Kansas, Governor Murray of Louisiana and Governor Long of Oklahoma join me in requesting your excellency to use all legal means at your disposal to temporarily prohibit importation of foreign crude oil as we have information that since shutdowns in Oklahoma and Texas the foreign importations have tremendously increased thus nullifying to a large extent the stabilizing effect on the oil industry resulting from recent shutdowns.

"We request and urge your co-operation and assistance believing as we do that importers are using unfair methods of competition which are injurious to the oil industry within the United States.

"We believe that you are in a position to declare an embargo on foreign importations—on crude oil pending an investigation and hearing of our complaint.

"Knowing your well merited desire to do everything possible to protect and aid us in the unfair and undemocratic discrimination now prevailing, I am with high esteem and respect, Arthur Seligman, governor."

Judge Clifford Braly will leave for Stinnett tomorrow, where 114th district court will convene.

C. A. Clark of Panhandle, executive of the Adobe Walls council, transacted business here yesterday.

BONDS IS CONVICTED OF SLAYING GROCER

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 12. (AP)—J. A. Bonds was convicted here today on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying of J. C. White, a grocer, and sentenced to 50 years in the penitentiary.

White was shot to death in a Brownfield cafe last April.

At his trial Bonds testified to shooting White because he believed his life was endangered.

Testimony was introduced to show ill feeling existed between the men over Bonds losing his job with the state highway department.

It was also indicated they had become estranged because of marital differences between Bonds' son and White's daughter.

Otis Glingman transacted business in Amarillo yesterday.

ABOUT NEW YORK

(By William Gaines)

NEW YORK—Charles Yarus, pioneer pretzel man, informs me that the pretzel business has increased 500 per cent since prohibition!

While you are figuring that out, let me give you Mr. Yarus' theory.

He says that in the pre-Volstead era, practically every pretzel came over the bar. Now, they have become a home delicacy and hundreds of thousands of them are distributed through grocery and delicatessen stores.

The same stores now distribute malt-hops combinations. Could it be possible that, after all, the pretzel renews old acquaintances at the hearthside?

By the way, Philadelphia gave Mr. Yarus to this world entwined in pretzels. And he has two brothers in the business, too.

One More Thing—

One of the clearest voices you can get over the telephone is that of Natacha Rambova, who was the wife of Rudolph Valentino. No accent.

Among the disarming things about the present city administration are its smiles.

Acting Mayor McKee now is flashing one which lacks that slightly cynical twist that characterizes Jimmie Walker's.

One of the two really long run plays here has bounced the current theory that playgoers won't shop below Forty-second street.

"Grand Hotel" has been pulling 'em down to Forty-first since last Nov. 13.

The newspaper room in the New York Public Library affords access to nearly 300 papers from over the United States—more than you could accumulate at all of the out-of-town newspaper stands in the city.

Only the Library of Congress assembles more domestic news sheets. But New York's library gets more foreign papers than any other place you can find—172, I was told there.

If you go to the newspaper room, you can find New Yorkers who used to live in this town and that, from Maine to Arizona, poring over the old home town sheet to see what has happened in a scene they haven't seen for years.

Armistice—And War

So over to Central Park zoo, and we wonder why it is that big rats can stalk about the cages of the larger members of the cat family, and the resident pussies will make no attempt to catch them. In fact, we've never seen a tiger in the zoo pay any attention at all to a rat.

Down to the aquarium, since this is visitors' day:

There was a scrap in there this week. Two seamen off the same ship stood before one of the glass tanks. Neither, it seems, had seen a catfish before, and one remarked that the fish bore a facial resemblance to the other. For a couple of minutes there was considerable disturbance but no arrests because there wasn't any damage.

"You know how sailors are when they get ashore," one of the attendants remarked to me.

Yes, and I can imagine how that catfish looked to both of them, knowing where sailors go before it would occur to them to drop in the aquarium.

(By Herbert Plummer)

WASHINGTON—Aside from the fact that it is getting to be a habit for widows of departed members of congress to be elected to fill their husbands' places, there are several seats to which particular families have special claims.

Sons of former members have a way of coming to Washington to carry on for their fathers.

Of course one of the most noteworthy examples is that of "Young Bob" LaFollette of Wisconsin, successor to "Old Bob."

And there's the youthful Paul Kvale of Minnesota. He was his father's secretary in Washington when the parent was burned to death. As his father, Paul carries on as the only farmer-laborite in the house.

Charles R. Crisp of Georgia is another example. He first came to the house in the fifty-fourth to fill out the unexpired term of his dead father, who then was speaker.

A Kansas paragrapher reports that fire destroyed 66,000 bushels of wheat in an elevator the other day, but the loss was slight.

PAMPA TOPICS OF OUR CITY

Well, one thing is certain, the Harvesters can still win.

Up in Boys. There is talent in the squad. Rightly used as a playing unit, it can win the district title. But it must be remembered that other schools also have good talent, and that they have opportunities too.

The community made a good start in attendance Saturday. It should find next Friday's contest with Oklahoma City a really outstanding opponent—highly entertaining. Fans and Harvesters alike should keep fit in all their responsibilities.

Our Farm-Factories. The fair is over, and it was a "fair start" in our exhibition comeback. Let's develop our agricultural interest in a big way so that the 1932 event may be so large that it will cover the city.

Well folks, if we are going to put the government into business, there is no better way to do it than to go down to Austin and watch the laws in the making as the farmers are doing. The reaction to the lawmaking spectacle should tend to discourage those persons who think "the government" can do anything.

Sessions and Taxes. The way to reduce taxes is to quit fighting taxes and start fighting expenditures. Everything the legislature does costs money, and that means taxes. It is going to be necessary to raise the taxes to pay for special legislative sessions.

There are many who argue with reason that there is no need for two houses in the legislature. Times have changed since the upper house represented the classes and the lower houses the masses in the legislative halls of the nation.

Doomed to Failure. Experience of trans-oceanic liners again demonstrates that one should not embark on a voyage without proper understanding and equipment. This is equally true in the business world.

State Superintendent S. M. N. Marrs is reiterating that to keep its affiliation a school must have nine months of school. Education is one of the most vital activities of government, and one in which it spends most of the tax-derived revenue.

New Problems. Education, particularly in the colleges, must put more emphasis upon business training and government than in the past. It is not enough to provide the ground work, plus some literary and technical.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS THINK

START DOLLARS TO MOVING. Spend a dollar for cotton goods—TODAY, or TOMORROW. Solution of the cotton problem, after all, is up to the buying public.

Cotton goods haven't been so cheap in years. Now is the time to replenish the household stock.

The movement started by the Memphis Press-Scimitar and El Paso Herald-Post should spread rapidly in Tennessee and Texas, all over the south and then become nation-wide.

It will help the cotton farmer. It will help the mill workers, merchants, clerks—everybody, in fact.

For, when you buy a cotton article, you help to start the flow of trade all the way from the store to the cotton field.

There is not too much cotton, no matter how much we talk of over-production—nor when thousands are in rags, too poor to buy.

Buy for the orphanages, for the hospitals, for the poor family on the back street.

Link your charity impulses with constructive thought and start the mills at work converting Texas farmers' cotton into needed articles of wear and household use.

Merchants of El Paso and El Paso territory should take the lead.

Put on big window displays of cotton goods from pajamas and underthings to bedsheets.

Show how much a dollar bill will buy.

Appeal to the pocketbook of the masses as well as to their hearts and pockets.

The law of supply and demand still rules in America. Let's solve the cotton problem by increasing the use of cotton goods.

You can't legislate water out of a boat; the only way is to bail it out.

The south's cotton problem can't be solved by legislation or night riders.

Providence has given us a bountiful crop. Let's not waste it or cuss it.

Purchase of cotton goods, based on six-cent cotton is a wonderful investment—for everybody who needs cotton goods.

If you want to help the cotton farmer and at the same time help yourself, as well as start the whole country up grade to prosperity again—

DON'T HOLLER—SPEND A DOLLAR—FOR COTTON!—El Paso HERALD-POST.

CHARITY FUND JEALOUSY GUARDED

If those who refuse to work when an opportunity is given, and who expect to impose upon the generosity of the American people this fall and winter, think they are going to be fed they are due for a rude awakening.

Clarendon people, like other responsive citizens, will certainly do their best they can for the truly worthy unfortunates this winter, but there is to be no duplication of effort and there is to be a more rigid investigation before aid is extended.

If it be a "hard winter," those who would "ride free" are going to feel it keener than any one, for necessity forces Clarendon and every other town to clamp down the lid on any but the most worthy cases of charity.

Another thing—these gypsies that range from one town to another in search of food; they may as well pass on, for they will receive scant attention in Clarendon.—Clarendon NEWS.

The Illinois farmer, suffering from the bite of a mule thought to have had rabies, needn't feel he has had a unique experience. A whole lot of farmers have contract-rabies just from reading the market pages.

What "Cracked" Gasoline Is

REFINERIES ON SKILLED BASIS SORTING OF PRODUCTS IN CRUDE OIL EFFICIENT

It is fortunate for the owner of the motor car, for the housewife, and for the industrial user that all refining methods and equipment have undergone change and improvement making possible the meeting of requirements for products in greatest and most essential demand, as well as products of greatly improved quality.

Straight-Run Refining. The advances of the engineering professions, particularly with respect to metallurgy and furnace design, have made possible "continuous distillation" and refining operations have practically gone over to the so-called "pipe still" type of unit of large capacity.

Whereas the sorting of the collection of compounds composing crude oils into groups, such as motor fuel and kerosene, was formerly accomplished largely by repeated partial separation—using in each stage the principles of fractional distillation—operations have been raised to such a high state of perfection that the oils to be separated are converted wholly into vapor in a single step of continuous operation.

The whole separation operation is thrown upon a fractionating tower or rectifying column. The tower is able to make separations which would have been the despair of a refiner of even 10 years ago.

This distillation process is usually referred to as "straight-run refining." Making Gasoline by "Cracking." Until 20 years ago kerosene was the petroleum product in greatest demand. More and more motor cars appeared on the road, and the need for greater quantities of gasoline became apparent.

Cracked gasoline is made by taking the gas oil or fuel oil—the heavier constituents of crude oil—obtained in straight-run refining and subjecting it to high temperatures in specially designed stills. Usually this operation is conducted at high pressures. In other words, the distillation, that is, changing the liquid into vapor, takes place at controlled temperatures and pressures.

At these temperatures and pressures a chemical decomposition or "cracking" of the gas oil or fuel oil takes place. The vapors from the cracking distillation are released from the still and separated into distillates—the lightest being finished for gasoline.

More Gasoline From Oil. Twenty years ago a 42-gallon barrel of crude oil run through American refineries yielded on an average only 4.5 gallons of gasoline, while from it was produced 12.7 gallons of kerosene. Today the gasoline yield is 16.5 gallons, and the kerosene yield is 2.4.

Without the supply of gasoline obtained from cracking operations, the use of automobiles could probably have expanded to its present proportions, because of lack of fuel. The average yearly consumption of gasoline per motor vehicle over the last 10-year period is estimated at 475 gallons. On this basis, cracked gasoline supplies the annual fuel requirements for 12,700,000 motor vehicles, that is, for as many cars as the total number in operation in this country less than 10 years ago.

GUILTY LIPS

By LAURA LOU BROOKMAN Author of "MAD MARRIAGE"

BEGIN HERE TODAY. Pretty Norma Kent, 20-year-old secretary in a law office, sees Mark Travers for the first time when together they rescue a puppy from downtown traffic in Marlboro, middle-western metropolis.

Travers' invitation, and her indifference spurs his interest. Bob Farrell, young lawyer, asks Norma to marry him and she refuses, though she is fond of him as a friend.

Norma shares an apartment with Christine Saunders. She hears Chris is falling in love with her married employer, Bradley Hart, proprietor of an advertising agency.

Natalie Price, popular debutante, is trying to win Travers as a husband but her efforts fail when Norma at last allows the young man to take her to dinner. She does not know he is the son of Earl Travers, real estate magnate.

Chris declares if Norma loves Travers all else is unimportant. Norma is alone in the apartment one evening when Mark's father arrives and demands she must end the affair with his son.

Mark overhears the conversation. Father and son quarrel and Travers declares he will disown Mark if he marries Norma. After his father has gone Mark begs Norma to marry him at once.

Chris and Bradley Hart accompany the couple to a little town in the next county where the marriage takes place. Mark takes his bride to the palatial Hotel Marlboro. He has only $13 in his wallet. Mark departs, saying he will return soon but at 3 p. m. he has not come.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY. CHAPTER XIV. The door flew open and Mark Travers, beaming, bowed a greeting from the threshold. In three skips and a leap Norma was in his arms.

She was laughing, touching his cheeks with reassuring fingers, raising her lips for his kiss all in one instant. She was aware there was film before her eyes.

"Oh, Mark! I've been such an idiot. I was afraid something had happened!" "Happened? Well, I should think there has. I'll tell the world something's happened. What do you suppose I've been doing all this time? Listen, baby, we're starting on a honeymoon in exactly two hours. Look—!"

One of Mark's hands dived into a pocket and came out with a dancing unfurled strip of green paper. Railway tickets. He tossed them toward Norma. A second dive and he was displaying more paper. Greenbacks. More of them than the girl had ever seen. They were folded into a huge roll.

"What—? Why where in the world—?" Norma floundered for the words. Before she could go on Mark had caught her arms and was whirling her into a crazy whirl-i-gig pirouette.

"Don't you hear me, Norma, darling? Don't you understand? We're going places? Come on—we've got just two hours to make the train. Blue Springs, Mrs. Travers! How does that strike you? Blue Springs, where the sun shines and skies are almost as blue as your eyes. Riding and bathing and lots of golf. Oh, you'll love it! Blue Springs is the grandest place to play in these United States. You and me, Norma! Why—why, what's the matter?"

He could not understand the expression in the girl's eyes. "What's the matter?" Mark repeated. "Don't you want to go to Blue Springs?"

"Of course—only, Mark, do you think we should? I mean do you think right now—?" "Right now? Say, when is it customary to go on a honeymoon? After the ceremony or 15 years later? If there's some place you'd rather go than Blue Springs I suppose I can change the tickets. I was sure you'd like it there!"

"No, no. It isn't that. I'd love it, of course. I'd love any place with you."

She could not endure to see the light of enthusiasm fade from his face. Norma went on, laughing. "Did you say we start in two hours? Oh, I'm glad I packed things before you came. We'll have to hurry. Travers was not satisfied. He put a hand on her arm, studied her face searchingly.

"Tell me why you don't want to go to Blue Springs," he said. "I do want to go, Mark! I guess here this morning. It will be at 8 o'clock at the Holy Souls church."

CRITICISM IS VOICED ABOUT TAX PROPOSAL

HOOVER AWAITING LAST MINUTE DATA FOR TAX BUDGET

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—Determined opposition to the sales tax proposal of Senator Reed, Republican of Pennsylvania, had arisen today from both Democrats and Republicans.

However, the issue of whether to revise taxes or borrow more money to balance next year's budget still was raging tonight and there was every likelihood it would be settled only when congress meets.

President Hoover and Secretary Mellon whose word will go a long way in determining the tax dispute are going to wait until congress meets in an effort to get last minute information on the trend of government income and prospective expenditures.

Senator Harrison of Mississippi, the ranking Democrat on the finance committee, speaking through the Democratic national committee has declared not only against tax revision but specifically against the sales tax if there must be a revision.

Senator Caraway, Democrat of Arkansas, joined in that view, asserting the sales tax proposal was "an attempt to shift the burden of government from those who have means to those who need."

Republican independents, likewise, have declared unequivocally against the sales tax.

With Senator Watson, of Indiana, the party pilot, and the Democrats standing firmly against tax revision, it was believed President Hoover and his treasury chief would weigh carefully all elements before recommending such action.

The program advanced by Representative Bacharach of New Jersey, high ranking Republican on the ways and means committee, was viewed more favorably.

He proposed that rates on incomes above $100,000 be increased over the present 20 per cent flat levy; that the estate tax be boosted; a gift tax restored and sales taxes be levied on "luxuries and non-essentials."

RANCHER STOPS HERE

A. L. Branham of Douglas, Ariz., is leaving for home this morning after a three days stay while visiting friends in Pampa. Mr. Branham is owner of the Circle X Stage lines, operating in eastern Arizona, and is on his way home after a visit to his father in Sapulpa, Okla.

DOCTOR WOOD GIVES LIGHT ON CANCER IN REPORT TO BUTLER

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP)—The old idea of a cancer being a powerful army of victorious soldiers has changed to the view that these are rather feeble parasitic cells, says Dr. Francis Carter Wood, director of the Crocker Institute of Cancer research of Columbia university, in his annual report today to President Nicholas Murray Butler.

"The new method of studying cell life," Dr. Wood explains, "has proved, so far as cancer is concerned, only the discouraging fact that the cancer cell differs in no way from the healthy normal cell from which it is derived except in a quantitative way."

"In other words, the cancer cell is equipped with no new mechanisms, no new abilities, no unknown powers, but rather is a somewhat feeble cell which does not live long under similar conditions as a healthy cell."

"The old idea of a cancer being a powerful army of victorious soldiers has changed to the view that these are rather feeble parasitic cells which grow only because they die so easily, their very death bringing fresh growth."

This, he added, is the epitome of a quarter of a century of painstaking

SCOUT NEWS

TROOP NO. 15
By Harlan Martin
The first scout meeting of Troop No. 15 since camp was held Friday night at 7:30 in the Methodist church. Scoutmaster John Bradley, assistant scoutmaster Clarence Coffin and Billie Hyde, 12 scouts and 2 visitors were present at the meeting. We met promptly with Troop 15, and Mr. Sackett told us some very interesting things about our summer camp so that some of the scouts that didn't do would know what a wonderful camp it was. The meeting was turned over to Clarence Coffin when Mr. Sackett joined the church.

We were dismissed by the scoutmaster and benediction at 8:15.

The scouts have been busy this week at the fair in which we took four prizes on scout work. A foot stool made by Robert Talley was awarded first prize in carpentry, and a lanyard by John Bradley, a billfold by John Martin, and metal work by the troop also received first place awards in their respective divisions.

A talk was made by Jimmy Sackett, scoutmaster of troop 80, on our scout trip to New Mexico. The boys enjoyed his talk and the meeting adjourned at 8:40 with the scout benediction.

These present included: Max Brown, Joseph Hodges, George Lane, Bob Suratt, Steve Goodwin, Jim Bob Johnson, Harlan Martin, and a new member, Junior Baratt.

BRADSHAW VISITS HERE
J. H. Bradshaw, who spent a few days in this district ten days ago, stopped over in Pampa Saturday morning for a brief visit before returning to his home at Fort Smith, Ark. Mr. Bradshaw has just been over the eastern portion of New Mexico, after an extended investigation of the Panhandle of Texas. He is leaving for Arkansas for climatic reasons and contemplates locating in Texas or New Mexico soon.

George M. DeLoach, of Texarkana is spending a few days in the Pampa district.

PRIZE WINNING LAWN AT DUNCAN HOME HAS DISTINCTIVE "FORM"

DUNCAN YARD IS VERY PLEASING FROM ALL ANGLES

(By ARCHER FELLINGIM)

The garden at the rear of the Ivy E. Duncan home, 1115 Christina street, is a wide expanse of clover-and-grass lawn framed with flowers, trees, and shrubbery. It may be a fancy, but it seemed that the lawn is ever-so-slightly dome-shaped; that the center of the dome if there is one is in the center of the lawn. At any rate the lawn does not look flat—like an alfalfa field. Many lawns are green, smooth, and beautiful but they are without form. They have no shape; they resemble alfalfa fields.

In this connection, one of the finest lawns in Pampa is at the city hall. It has both form and quality; it is not flat, but slopes to the street.

Willow Tree Helps

The lawn in the Duncan rear garden was saved from being ordinary because it has "a form." The lawn was the basic reason that a judge in the recent Lions club yard garden contest gave it first prize in the hired-labor class. The mere presence of a slight but well-shaped weeping willow tree near the center of the south half of the lawn gives the yard a French garden atmosphere. It breaks the monotony of the clover and grass no flower pattern or rose garden could have done. The center of a lawn is no place for a rose garden.

The edge of the lawn where it meets the flowers, shrubbery and trees is neatly scalloped. First are the flowers—zinnias, marigolds, golden glow, petunias on the south side a sweet pea trellis, cannas. This mass of bloom extends entirely around the garden. Behind the flowers is the shrubbery; a dozen different varieties. Some of the shrubbery blooms and some does not. Back of the shrubbery are trees, elm mostly; although there are a few sycamores and poplars. A rose garden which had a number of nice blooms yesterday, is almost in the shadow of the garage. The garden is separated from the front yard by a trellis covered with honeysuckle. Varieties of spruce and cedar and flowers are growing next to the house at the rear.

Deftly Terraced

The front lawn has the conventional shrubbery and a few flowers, mostly zinnias and petunias, growing next to the house. The front lawn is as individual in shape as the rear lawn. It is deftly terraced. Pink rocks embedded in lawn form a walk near the entrance. The mite rocks appear to be trying to give the impression that the lawn is not one of those one must not set foot on for anything.

The big two-story house built in the Spanish manner with pinkish-red tile roof fits well into the landscape plan. The elm trees at the rear will form an appropriate background for the house when they grow tall. The shapely lawn at the front is a suitable foreground. A hedge at each front side could not be replaced by anything else that looks so well.

training. Colleges have assisted in speeding up production; now they must go into the equally difficult subject of distribution. Elimination of humbug must precede advancement of the fine arts, or at least it should.

Very Similar

Statistics show that there are more old people and fewer young ones in the world now. Maybe our elders have imposed an epidemic of conservatism but we have a hunch that old fools and young fools are very much alike.

Colorado has a five-day notice of marriage intentions now and New Mexico-made weddings will increase another 100 per cent. It looks like Reno will uphitch them after New Mexico ties them up.

ONE WORKMAN KILLED BY ELECTRIC SHOCK

LONGVIEW, Sept. 12. (AP)—One workman was electrocuted and another was burned probably fatally in accidents near here late today. C. W. Hale, 31, recently of Locksburg, Ark., was killed by a charge of electricity when a pipe with which he was operating a hand water drilling machine came in contact with an overhead current conveyor carrying 11,000 volts. J. H. Hale, oil company employe, was believed dying from burns he received when a boiler exploded near Willow Springs, five miles from here.

Norma and Mark ran pell-mell for the train gates.

A brakeman was shouting "All aboard. All aboard!" for the last time as they swung onto the car. Breathless, they floundered to seats in their compartment. The colored boys dropped the luggage and made swift retreat. The train had begun to move, was gradually gathering speed.

Norma looked at Mark. "We—we got here!" was all she could manage to gasp. She raised one hand to straighten the little black hat that had been pushed back at a foolish angle in the rush for the train.

There came a tap at the door. Mark answered. It was the conductor. Something about the tickets needed to be settled. Only a moment, and the couple were alone again.

Norma had discarded the troublesome little hat. Mark helped her out of her coat. Somehow this led to slipping his arms about her, whispering precious nonsense. Norma's hair became badly disarranged but neither of them noticed that.

"Happy, kid?" "It was to become a habit of Mark's during the next few weeks to make that inquiry. As habitually and with emphasis the girl was to answer as she did then:

"Of course!" Without talking they watched the landscape stream past. Mark's arms were about his bride. Her head rested on his shoulder. They had passed the suburbs now and were flying through wooded ravines. The foliage, touched by the first frost of October, had begun to show gorgeous tones of gold and scarlet.

"What time is it, Mark?"

"Fifty seconds to make it!" Mark whistled sharply. "Red cap!" he shouted. "Red cap!"

Two colored boys rushed up and loaded themselves with the packages. Mark thrust a bill at the cab driver whose eyes widened as he realized its denomination. Then with the boys in red caps leading

YOU'VE BROKEN ANOTHER RECORD

Fay Wray, Ralph Graves and Jack Holt in "Dirigible," a Columbia picture opening at the La Nora theater today for a three day showing.

"Nearly six. I'll have the porter bring a menu. You'd rather eat there than go into the dining car, wouldn't you?" She nodded. Instead of summoning the porter, however, both preferred to prolong that perfect interval. The shadows on the countryside grew longer.

Why at that moment of all times should memories she had relentlessly put behind suddenly reappear to plague Norma? She turned away from Mark. What was he saying? She heard the words dimly: "Oh, there's something I forgot—something important!"

L. T. HILL WINDOW FAIR EXHIBIT IS INTERESTING

It is almost certain that a number of the many people who daily filled the exhibition rooms of the Gray county fair took the advice offered by a sign surrounded by a display of agricultural products in a front window at the L. T. Hill company department store.

"Attend the Gray County Free Fair," the sign read. The display was formed of vegetables and row crop products from the farm of Joe Fox. The sign was fixed to a black background on which was tied miniature bundles of wheat. Back of this was a row of grain sorghum stalks, standing upright. Other products exhibited included bundle cane, kaffir, corn, cane, hegar, bundle wheat, squash; peppers, maize, pumpkins, kershaws.
