

All's Well Until Writer's Cramps

ELECTRA—(AP)—If Electra citizens won't at writer's cramp, they can stop the Fort Worth & Denver City's streamlined Zephyr every time it comes through here. All they have to do is work up more than a bagful of mail for each trip.

As it is, a lot of whistling has been going on in this little North Texas town that claims the railroad has made a whistle stop of it. Electra is fighting a new schedule that halts the Zephyr only to pick up or discharge long-haul passengers.

Since the new schedule went into effect, the Zephyr has stopped 16 of 17 trips to pick up or let off passengers. The train goes through at 5:51 p. m. and 3 a. m. daily.

Now Station Agent N. M. Baird has orders to flag down the train when necessary for it to pick up first class mail. That means more than one bagful has to be waiting at the station. The train crew can snag one mailbag from a hook as the Zephyr speeds by.

Truman Gives in On Appointments

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman today appeared to have broken the ice on Southern appointments with his nomination of Abraham Benjamin Conger as federal judge in Georgia.

Conger was recommended by Senator George (D-Ga), vigorous foe of the President's civil rights program and one of the Democrats who has refused to go along with Mr. Truman's request for four billion dollars in new taxes.

The President's action in sending the nomination to the Senate yesterday was widely interpreted as a victory for those in the Democratic Party who have counseled against trying to punish Dixie lawmakers who didn't get out and root for the President in last year's campaign.

Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath, as leader of this group, has been trying his best to patch up the breach which the civil rights issue caused between the Southerners and the main body of the party.

McGrath, who went to bat at the White House for George on the nomination, told a reporter he was "very pleased" at the President's decision to appoint Conger.

The action also made it seem that Mr. Truman wasn't laying down an iron-clad rule when he said recently that those who don't support his program in Congress can't expect a voice in patronage, or job dispensing, matters.

At that time, the President hinted that House members who didn't vote for the administration's substitute for the Taft-Hartley labor law would find themselves out in the cold as far as patronage is concerned.

McGrath is known to have insisted in party conferences there should be no attempt by the administration to slap at Dixie lawmakers such as George. Those so classified obviously didn't want Mr. Truman as the party standard bearer but made no open fight against him after he was nominated.

Texans Brace Levees Against Breaks

Pampa News

VOL. 47—NO. 283 (8 PAGES) PAMPA, TEXAS, FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1949

DEATH SCENE—Picture above shows where a P-51 fighter plane, piloted by 1st Lt. William F. Haines, Bolling Field, Washington, D. C., plunged into the earth on the side of a gulch six miles southeast of Pampa early Monday morning. The pilot's mangled body was found about 150 feet farther down the ravine by witnesses to the crash. Other large parts of the plane were found at least 300 yards off to the left and over a hill. The pilot was buried this week in Arlington National Cemetery.

3 Women Acquitted in Theft Case

RENO, Nev.—(AP)—A woman wrestler and two girl companions took the verdict calmly in their first degree robbery case here.

But their friends cheered when the jury acquitted them of the charge.

The three were charged with beating and robbing Salvatore Manriquez, Sacramento, Calif., cafe owner, of some $1,500 gambling winnings Jan. 28.

The girls are Johnny Mae Young, 25, the wrestler; Eva Lee McDevitt, 24, a Houston, Tex., bar owner, and Mary Anise Hight, 22, a former barmaid and night club photographer from Monrovia, Ala.

The jury had been asked to decide whether Manriquez was "rolled" or was the victim of his own amorous advances.

"The defense wants you to think 'amorous sail' came to town to enjoy the girls," assistant District Attorney Gordon Thompson told the jurors.

"I can't stomach this age-old story that when a woman is involved she was being attacked by a beast."

The girls' attorney, Peter Echeverria, who was admitted to the bar only last week, attacked Manriquez' lapse of memory as being "very convenient for a married man."

Manriquez had testified he couldn't remember anything after several drinks with the women until he woke up in their car with his head streaming blood. He was pushed out and almost froze to death before he was found.

West Position Is Strong at London

BERLIN—(AP)—America, Britain and France will go into the Paris foreign ministers conference in their strongest positions since Yalta.

This is the situation of the Big Four as seen today in Berlin where France, Britain, the United States and Russia wrangle daily.

The Soviet Union's bargaining situation has been considerably weakened economically and politically since the Moscow and London conferences.

In both previous conferences the West was in a defensive position trying to seek agreements from Russia.

In the Paris conference for the first time diplomats believe the West can take the offensive or sit tight and let the Soviets seek to break the deadlock.

In a nutshell, the comparative positions on Germany are seen in this light politically and economically.

Western advantages:

(1) Last year and two years ago Western Germany was poverty stricken and economically stagnant. Today its industry is booming, living standards have been raised, its money has been reformed and put on a stable basis and recovery is well under way.

(2) Last year and two years ago West Germany was a political vacuum. There was no government nor did anyone care much about one. Today the Germans are busy setting up their own West German state and Germany as a whole have taken an interest in politics again. They have definitely aligned themselves with the West and communism has sunk to its lowest levels since pre-Hitler times.

(3) Last year and two years ago the Western powers were split on their German policy. Britain and the United States wanted to rebuild Germany until it could support itself. France fearing German aggression, opposed every move. With security fears largely alleviated by the Atlantic Pact, France is not closer to Britain and the United States and united in a common German policy.

Russia's position:

(1) At the end of the war the Soviets had the only zone which could support itself economically, particularly in food. Its standard of living was high.

(2) The union voted 128 to 2 against the company's final proposal—a two-cent wage boost if it is operating in the black by Sept. 2, or a month after the first month the firm's books showed a profit.

The union demanded a 25-cent-an-hour raise. Drivers were getting $1.10 and mechanics $1.22.

Oklahoma Has Floods

OKLAHOMA CITY—(AP)—Overnight rains brought on new flood problems for Oklahoma today. Streams spread out over large areas.

Thousands were driven from their homes and crop and property damage mounted steadily.

A flash flood on Cottonwood Creek dealt a severe blow to Guthrie, 30 miles north of Oklahoma City.

Red Cross workers counted more than 1,000 homeless after the swollen creek sent a wall of water surging through the center of the town.

Several persons were believed missing as houses floated away. Water was seven feet deep in one block City officials reported 30 blocks in Guthrie underwater.

The Cimarron, North Canadian and Washita rivers and their backwaters caused the major flooding.

The Arkansas was expected to overflow at several points in Eastern Oklahoma today.

River observers said they expected serious trouble from the Arkansas.

Main state highways were closed.

Tornadoes put a scare into several communities near Bartlesville in Northeast Oklahoma last night but only one came to earth. This one struck at Dewey, destroying a barn and ripping the porch off a home.

Carrying Pistol Brings Man Fine

County Judge Bruce Parker this morning levied a fine of $100 and costs on D. D. Himes, McLean, for illegally carrying a pistol.

Himes was picked up last night by Deputy Sheriff Charley Nicholson in McLean. Testimony in court revealed Himes was brandishing the pistol around McLean shortly before the deputy picked him up.

Himes was placed in the County Jail this morning in default of fine.

Navajo Doll Family Added To Population of Pampa

A Navajo doll family has been added to Pampa's population. Yes, Hosten Begay, father doll, Mary Begay, mother, Eton-a-Bah Begay, girl, Bah Yazzie, little girl, Hoskie, boy, and Yazzie, baby, have arrived and are now on display at the Pampa Public Library.

Eton-a-Bah Begay, following her mother's example, also wears a clothing that is typical of the Navajo women. Hoskie seems to be getting away from the Navajo dress, for he is clad in jeans, sport shirt, cowboy hat and bright wool shirt.

Yazzie, still too small to wear fancy clothes, is roped in his cradle—Indian fashion—and is strapped to his mother's back when she wants to leave the hogan and visit her friends.

Also displayed at the library are Troops 17 and 19 handicrafts. Troop 17 Scouts have been doing embroidery work and original textiles and crayon paintings on cloth.

Troop 19's display is primarily ceramics and leather work. Featured at the exhibit are ceramics, candy dishes and plaques, sewing boxes, bookends, embroidered aprons and leather belts.

Texan on Trial In Murder Case

GUAM—(AP)—Pvt. Calvin Dennis of Seguin, Tex., went on trial today before an Air Force court-martial on a charge of taking part in the rape-murder of Ruth Farnsworth last Dec. 11.

The Negro soldier's half brother, Pfc. Herman P. Dennis, Jr., was convicted of the slaying Monday and sentenced to the death. A third Negro soldier, Sgt. Robert W. Bruns, awaits trial in the case.

Indian Tribe Gets Last Invitation

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—(AP)—This desert resort will think twice about inviting the Jemez Indians again for Helderado week.

During the parade last Thursday, the New Mexico tribe did a rain dance ritual, guaranteed to bring rain.

It has rained every day since in this arid city which slogans "fun in the sun."

LATEST BULLETINS

Aid Should Stop

WASHINGTON—(AP)—United States has told Russia that if it wants peace in Greece it should get the Communist satellite states to stop aiding the Greek guerrillas.

Until such help is ended this government will not relax assistance to non-Communist Greece.

Ford Walks Out

DETROIT—(AP)—Ford Motor Company today flatly refused to open simultaneous union contract talks while negotiations continue for settlement of the CIO United Auto Workers' 16-day-old strike.

The UAW threatened last night to walk out on strike peace talks unless the company agreed to begin consideration on a new contract by next Monday. The Union's Ford contract expires July 15.

Fires in China

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Twenty-six fires burned tonight along the Whangpoo on the Pootung side of the river as a result of shelling and demolition work.

The blazes appeared to range from small villages on the horizon to industrial installations a few hundred feet from the east bank of the river opposite Shanghai's Bund. They extended from Shanghai almost half way to Woosung Fortress, where the Whangpoo and Yangtze converge.

Atomic Fellowship

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A young medical student in Boston holds a $3,750 atomic fellowship, it disclosed today, although he has been denied clearance on security grounds for secret work.

The student was named before a Senate Appropriations Subcommittee.

Bus Strike Parley Ends

BEAUMONT—(AP)—Key negotiators in Beaumont and Port Arthur's bus strike left town last night, and hopes for a quick settlement faded.

The negotiators were Ralph Hames of Chicago, vice president of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees, and Walter White of Houston, federal conciliator.

"Both sides told me there was no use my remaining in Beaumont further," White said.

The strike began yesterday. It followed hopelessly deadlocked talks between the National City Lines, Inc., and representatives of the 150 drivers and mechanics in the two cities.

The union voted 128 to 2 against the company's final proposal—a two-cent wage boost if it is operating in the black by Sept. 2, or a month after the first month the firm's books showed a profit.

The union demanded a 25-cent-an-hour raise. Drivers were getting $1.10 and mechanics $1.22.

Solons Will Fly To Mexico City

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A group of senators will fly to Mexico City Monday for a general look at the campaign against foot and mouth disease in cattle.

The senators, members of an agriculture subcommittee, will check on the work of a joint United States-Mexican commission.

Rich Farm Lands Are Threatened

By The Associated Press

Hundreds of sweating men toiled at Rosser, Tex., today, sandbagging the levees of the rampaging Trinity River to brace them against a dreaded break.

At places, the swollen river lapped within 16 inches of the top of the dike, Richard McMurray, Associated Press reporter said. Rosser is 30 airline miles and about 100 winding river miles below Dallas.

At 8:30 a. m. the river at Highway 34, two miles downstream from Rosser, stood at 36.90.

The official prediction was that the river would crest in the neighborhood of 40 to 41 feet but seasoned river men in this section thought it would be lower.

Great gaps in levees near Hutchins, 10 miles south of Dallas and opposite Ferris in Northern Ellis County, relieved pressure in this section considerably.

The men at Rosser were trying to save crops on land so rich that it is called the "Texas valley of the Nile."

The Trinity in flood left death and destruction at Fort Worth and lighter damage at Dallas.

The muddy water broke through dikes at Hutchins, 10 miles south of Dallas, and at Ferris, in Northern Ellis County, and rolled over many bottomlands.

At Rosser—90 miles from Dallas as the winding river flows—the flood surged against weakening levees that are supposed to protect 40,000 to 50,000 acres of rich Ellis and Kaufman County, farm lands. It is near Rosser that the gorged East Fork will dump its debris-laden crest into the swollen main stream.

Residents of the area worked all Wednesday night clearing out livestock and personal belongings.

But in the path of the flood lay fields of wheat and small grain almost ready for the harvesters, two-inch stands of cotton and foot-high corn.

James A. Cotton, engineer in charge of the Army Engineers subforce in Fort Worth, said the water last night was about three feet from the tops of levees in Northern Ellis County. (See TEXANS BRACE, Page 8)

Flood Victims Ask Little at Fort Worth

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD

FORT WORTH—(AP)—"If we can only rake together a stick of furniture, we'll make out."

That was James A. Pale talking—a young Marine veteran with a family who lost his home and possessions in the Fort Worth flood this week.

His is the spirit of Fort Worth, city on the brink of disaster.

"You'll find no discouragement here," said Amos G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher. "The flood was a bad break, but better breaks are on the way."

The flooding Trinity, bursting through levees Tuesday, drowned 10 persons, left an estimated 12,200 temporarily homeless and wrought $5,000,000 to $25,000,000 in property damage.

But this spunky city rolled with the punch and is quickly bouncing back to normal.

Its stores are crowded—its business section hums with activity.

Hopes for an improved city water supply perked up at 1:05 a. m. today. An electric water pump motor capable of boosting the supply 15,000,000 gallons daily arrived by truck from Fort Wayne, Ind.

Since Tuesday, water has been supplied only to limited areas. The flood submerged the city's main pumping plant. It was estimated the new motor could be installed within six to 10 hours. The electric motor had long been on order. It was rushed here when the flood situation became critical.

"Everything is under control," said W. O. Jones, Fort Worth's city manager. "Barring accidents, we'll have our water supply completely normal by Saturday morning." (See VICTIMS, Page 8)

U.S. Says 'No Compromise'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson leaves for the Paris foreign ministers conference today pledged to a virtual "no compromise" policy in the future of Germany.

In a pre-departure statement he made clear that his primary concern will be not an East-West agreement on Germany made just for the sake of agreeing, instead he spoke of a determination to protect the economic recovery and political stability of all Western Europe in which Germany plays a vital part.

"We shall neglect no real opportunity for increasing the area of solution and tranquility in the world," Acheson declared. "At the same time, we shall not barter away successes achieved (in Western Germany and Western Europe) for the sake of promises which might again prove to be illusory as they too often have in the past."

Acheson was confronted with a new problem: what attitude to take before the world on Russian's apparent bid for a settlement of the Greek civil war? News of the bid was circulated today by the Russian news agency, Tass.

While Tass denied there had been any talks for including the Greek question on the work schedule for Paris, there was an obvious significance to the matter in the whole East-West conflict. Caution was the prompt Washington reaction to the Russian proposal.

A chance physical examination disclosed the young woman also had characteristics of a man.

Asked whether she would rather be a man or a woman, the patient replied: "I'd rather be a man."

The hospital did not disclose the patient's name. Doctors called her "Joan" before the series of sex-altering operations had "John" afterwards.

★ WE, THE WOMEN
BY RUTH MILLETT VE. Staff Writer

New acquaintances who will probably never become friends; The woman who looks over your shoulder while she is being introduced, so afraid is she that if she gives you a few minutes of her undivided attention she'll miss something.

The woman who starts right in to tell you what a horrible experience she has just been through — it can be all about anything from her operation to losing her maid.

The woman who starts right in to impress you with who she is and what she's got.

The woman who surveys you from head to toes with her eyes, obviously putting a mental price tag on every piece of your wearing apparel.

THE CHARMER
The woman who is so intent on making a charming impression that it is impossible for you to make any impression on her at all.

The woman who finds out where you're from and then starts in to find out if you know any of the "very prominent" people from there she has met or heard about.

The woman who starts right in to tell you how busy she is. It never seems to dawn on such women that the rest of the world is rather busy, too.

Through her Career Girls' School, Candy trains women for specialty careers.

When I asked her to tell me about one of her interesting career girls, she said that a woman doctor took the course in fashions, so she could teach young mothers what an important part fashion plays in their lives.

Candy has a new television show in New York City. She calls it "Your Lucky Star." She interviews different celebrities, and each celebrity selects a phone number and dials it. If the person who answers happens to have a television set, he or she can see their own interview.

Her luckiest game, Candy says, is Russian Bank, and she gets fun out of telling fortunes with cards. She would like to have more time to play bridge because it makes you stop and think. Her business is based on making people think. She said "After all, a girl is just not beautiful; she has to think enough of her beauty to take care of herself." That can well apply to the theory on today's hand.

When declarer wins the opening lead with the king of hearts, his first thought might be to run off the spades suit. However, if the spades do not break, the contract cannot be made.

The club finesse must be the first played. Now, even if this loses, and the spades do not break, declarer will make 12 tricks.

Individual portions of potato salad are attractive when they are served in large lettuce cups and topped with a tiny sweet pickle. In making the salad, marinate the potatoes in French dressing, then add mayonnaise just before serving. To give the salad a crisp touch add finely diced celery or sliced radishes with the mayonnaise.

POSITION

 ard of living was far higher than the industrial West. Today, stripped by reparations, and shipping vast quantities of goods to Russia, the Eastern Zone is a deficit area. Its standard of living has tumbled far below Western Germany. Its money, despite rumors, is worth only one fourth as much as the West mark.
 (2) At the end of the war, the Russians had a chance to win German support by a lenient occupation policy. Today there is no hope for such support except by force of arms. Ruthless suppression of all anti-Communist opposition, the installation of a small Communist minority as the ruling class and reduction of the population to serfs of the state has aroused widespread opposition. An opposition vote of 33 percent last weekend in an election rigged to produce a 100 percent "Yes" vote is an index of the Soviet Union's political failure.
 A major factor in the lowering of Soviet prestige in Europe was the failure of Russia's attempt to force the Western powers from Berlin by starving the population through the blockade.
 The West's stand with the airtight heartened not only Germany but all of Europe to resist communism.

 ing. We are really cleaning up the flooded area and rehabilitation will come later. The Red Cross and Salvation Army, Carswell Air Base, National Guardsmen, city employees and others have done a wonderful job.
 "Citizens have cooperated 100 percent in following instructions. But I wouldn't expect anything less of citizens of Fort Worth."
 The crippled water supply is the biggest problem. "I need a bath," is the cry of the day. Many rent hotel rooms — some hotels have private water supplies — just to take baths.
 "Outside of the water problem, most of Fort Worth was not affected by the flood," Carter pointed out. "The greatest distress is in the loss of lives, homes and personal belongings. The greatest financial loss was to industries and business in the affected area."
 "Not more than two or three percent of Fort Worth's citizens were touched by this disaster. It is true that 10 percent of Fort Worth was inundated, but it was a sparsely-settled area. The Star-Telegram is sponsoring a relief fund and expects to collect $100,000. Of the 25,000 already collected, Carter and Sid Richardson of Fort Worth each gave $10,000. Jesse Jones of Houston gave $2,500 and Fred Florence, Dallas banker, $1,000.
 Army engineers will open sealed bids here Monday for repair of levees damaged. It was possible dirt-moving equipment would be in operation early next week. There were seven major and seven lesser breaks in levees along Clear Fork and the Trinity.
 "The levees will be patched immediately," Jones said. "Then we'll see that they're built bigger and better."
 And Carter said: "The Texas spirit of our people is undaunted."

Subversive Aliens
 WASHINGTON — (AP) — Attorney General Clark disclosed today that the Justice Department is investigating or taking action against "533 suspected subversive aliens."
 He supplied the information in a letter read to a House judiciary subcommittee by Immigration Commissioner Watson B. Miller. The letter strongly urged passage of a bill that would let the department jail deportable aliens like Gerhart Eisler.
Former Regent Dies
 ATHENS — (AP) — Archbishop Damaskinos, former regent of Greece, died suddenly today. He was 85.
 The archbishop, who ruled Greece as regent from 1944 to 1946, had been in poor health for the past several months. He suffered from heart trouble.
Constitution 'Okayed'
 BERLIN, Germany — (AP) — Parliament for the American Zone state of Hesse ratified the Constitution for a West German republic today, 73 to 8. All the opponents were Communists.
 This brings to five the number of states ratifying the charter. Only three more — of five yet to vote — are required to put the Constitution into effect. A West German federal government may come into operation by mid-July.

TEXANS BRACE

 It was rising three inches an hour.
 Meanwhile, Fort Worth started shaking the water off its back. The main problems were restoring the drinking water supply to Texas' fourth largest city, cleaning up muck and rebuilding the levees that gave way to let the river flood 12,200 people from their homes, drown 10 and cause $5,000,000 to $25,000,000 damage.
 The water was dropping fast in the low residential and industrial areas flooded in Dallas. Tornado-jittery Panhandle citizens, meanwhile, looked happily at clear skies yesterday — for the first time in more than a week of twisters.
