

FDR ORDERS AIDES TO FIND OUT WHY VETS WERE LEFT TO DIE IN STORM

DEATH TOLL IN FLORIDA KEYS MAY BE 1,000

PRESIDENT TAKES ACTIVE CHARGE OF SITUATION

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt today directed immediate aides to super-vised relief in the Florida hurricane area and to investigate why adequate precautions apparently were not taken to protect the veterans in work relief camps from the devastating gale.

Using the telephone, the president personally called Frank T. Hines, veterans' administrator, and Harry L. Hopkins, works relief administrator, and asked that they name assistants to go immediately to the Florida disaster scene.

It was announced that Col. George E. Ijams, assistant to Hines, would represent him in the relief and investigation work.

Mr. Roosevelt outlined three specific points for the federal leaders to perform.

First, to see that the injured veterans are promptly hospitalized. He understands the Red Cross is supplying food, clothing and shelter but has offered to assist in this if necessary.

To provide caskets. Second, to provide caskets for the dead veterans and transportation of their bodies. If the next of kin desire, the body will be sent home. Otherwise, full military funerals probably will be arranged for Arlington National cemetery.

Third, the president called for means to rehabilitate the survivors and then he insisted quite strongly upon a study of why the veterans encamped along the Florida Keys were not rescued in time and why adequate precautions were not taken.

Announcement of the president's action in the hurricane problem was made by Stephen T. Early, a secretary.

Mr. Roosevelt previously had directed the army, navy, and coast guard to render all possible assistance.

He is keeping in touch by telephone and through press reports:

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press) MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 5.—Relief officials estimated today that the tropical hurricane, sweeping the Florida Keys, left in its path a death toll of from 200 to 500 and it "may reach 1,000."

W. P. Mooty advised his chief, Gov. Dave Stoltz, from the center of the storm area that fatalities "may reach 1,000." Other sources have placed the number at from 200 to 500, but the exact figure probably will not be known until communication has been re-established with many marooned points.

"Words cannot describe the terrible disaster," Mooty said in a telegram to the governor. "Everyone as far south as Carabes colony has been moved out. Injured first. Now moving dead, fifty so far. Rebuilding bridges to cross Snake creek."

Snake creek cuts off the Matecumbe Keys, where the death toll is expected to have been heaviest. Gov. Sholtz left by automobile to tour the devastated area.

The hurricane, dwindling in its destructive powers, is moving north through Georgia as Florida rescue workers search for survivors.

Swimming Pool To Be Open on Days Sun Shines

The last three weeks have been "a tough break" for the swimming pool, according to Mrs. Josie Young, co-manager of the swimming pool, who nevertheless is glad that it has rained.

Only a few days in that time have been swimming weather. People don't go in swimming when it's cloudy, cool or rainy. From now on until closing time in October, the swimming pool will be open every day the sun shines. There have been few swimmers this week; even the King brothers have gone in only once daily whereas when the sun shines they hit the water from noon to three daily. Pool habitués are beginning to complain they are losing their tan.

Also, the free Friday morning swims will not be given any more, starting tomorrow. All during the summer hundreds of children have been allowed to swim free on Friday morning.

Water will be changed as usual tomorrow, although few have been in it during the week. The water is heated just enough to take away the icy chill, and swimmers are not aware that it is heated.

I Heard . . .

Mack Graham declaring that he couldn't understand the sudden interest of the public in his behalf unless it was his white shoes and straw hat. Everyone he met this morning seemed to feel sorry for him.

Baseball fans describing the act put on by Sedbrook and Dingman behind second base last night as the "After you, my dear Gaston," drama. The two players stood about four feet apart and watched a fly ball drop between them. Neel and Clowers of the Road Runners almost pulled the same stunt.

Twinkles

Evidently the new democratic party will belong to the protestant denomination.

Skippy, the family pup, greeted visiting mother-in-law with such affection the other day that he shortly was the most popular member of the family circle.

Can't we somehow get Huey Long interested in the Ethiopian situation? It lacks the comic touch.

Wonder what the farmer, getting a check for corn he didn't grow and bogs he didn't raise, thinks when he buys a pound of bacon at present prices? He's not blaming him for the condition.

School will soon be here, and once more we'll wonder where all those kids stayed during the summer.

Musing of the moment: Dogs, like humans, are peculiar. Skippy, the family pup, eats lots of grass but turns down spinach. . . . Maybe we should try to discover rhyme and reason for his actions.

Night football is definitely here. Our Harvesters have four games scheduled, three here and one at Childress. On cold, gusty nights, remember that our worst weather is tame compared with football nights "up north."

Brevitorials

PAMPA BASEBALL fans and others who have been "saving themselves" for the better games of the Jaycee tournament may now attend the meet with the full assurance of being well entertained. And, frankly, the Jaycees will need your money. Bad weather has put the young men in a tough financial spot. Doubling of games on the program has hurt.

If Pampa will show the same baseball and civic spirit which Denver exhibits, the event will be a success financially. And remember, Pampa is entertaining these teams and fans should be generous in their applause. All the boys are our friends and neighbors. Try to see every game from now to the end of the tournament.

YOUTH ORDINARILY is kindly and tolerant of advanced age. Youth gives little thought to its own "advanced" years which are scorned by the old as death is for others. Statistics compiled since the old age pensions began to be taken seriously show that 70 per cent of men are without adequate financial resources at retirement age. Many of these had ample resources at some time in life, and could have set up trust funds, insurance, or annuities for their declining years.

One of the dreaded effects of old age pensions is that no thought will be given to old age. The figures indicate that this condition already exists.

ALL KINDS of theories are being devised to explain how a man can do enough productive work in a given number of years to warrant his leaving the rest of his life. Such theorists would reduce production to the limit, distribute its blessings more or less equitably, and let the young and energetic support the men and women who similarly worked when they were younger.

Such a scheme might work on a small scale, though human nature has wrecked a number of experiments. But until it can be made to work on a small scale, it should not be applied to the whole nation.

Note how many young folk try to live off the old age pensions of their parents or grand parents. Try to see how many reach as much as $25 per month for each person eligible.

THE FEDERAL constitution was not based upon any such paternalistic conception of United States government. All rights not conferred on the federal government were reserved by the people and the states. Many strict constitutionalists fail to note, however, that the people are regarded as superior to the constitution—in the sense that they can change it when and as they please. . . . The states rights theory is not a new theory. It is the idea that the people, through their state governments can set up any sort of system they desire, providing it does not conflict with the rights of another state. . . . We note, however, that the states seem eager to resist the United States responsibility for handling such things as relief and financial crises.

SEPTEMBER 17 is Constitution day.

GILMORE NUNN, back from a business trip to New Mexico, finds a letter from Pampa's No. 1 pitcher, M. K. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, vacationing in the northern U. S. possession, tell of traveling with Archie Roosevelt, son of the late T. R., and Mr. Bender, editor of the Daily Alaska Empire.

Regarding Roosevelt, Mr. Brown writes that "of course you are not interested in republicans; however, September 17 is Constitution day."

Workers Seeking Way To Paralyze Mussolini's War

BY WADE WERNER, Associated Press Foreign Staff.

GENEVA, Sept. 5 (AP)—Prof. Gaston Jeze, the representative of Ethiopia, spoke in behalf of the African empire tonight in the council of the League of Nations. When he rose to begin his address, Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian delegate, left the chamber. Aloisi had started his speech, Aloisi had sat at his usual seat at the council table. He declared yesterday that Italy could no longer meet Ethiopia in the league on a basis of equal footing.

GENEVA, Sept. 5 (AP)—Organized labor prepared today to take up the Italo-Ethiopian problem as the League of Nations council, faced with uncompromising stands by the two nations involved, re-tired the matter momentarily to the status of private discussions. Italy indicated she would not meet Ethiopia on a basis of equal footing in the league. She claimed Ethiopia was barbarous and uncivilized. The Ethiopians, on the other hand, suggested Italy wanted to settle their differences without regard to the standards of civilization.

It was understood the council may meet tomorrow and appoint a general committee of inquiry. It would consider all aspects of the dispute between Italy and Ethiopia and prepare a plan of settlement.

In the meantime, the word went out that the executive committee of the International Federation of Trades Unions, meeting here tomorrow, would discuss how organized labor can paralyze Premier Mussolini's Ethiopian enterprise. If the league fails to preserve the peace, the federation represents most of the organized labor unions in Europe as well as many others overseas.

Its executive committee is expected to discuss the possibilities of workers' boycotting the handling of all goods shipped to and from Italy in case of war. The importance of a possible decision to this effect by the committee is that it could be reached independently of the league regardless of whether any government or group of governments decided for "sanctions"—international penalties—against Italy.

Leaders of the left wing parties of France already are urging Premier Laval to insist on a settlement, promising left wing support to the government on any program of strong measures to prevent war.

In the league itself, proceedings were halted while statesmen reviewed the mass of material flowing from yesterday's council meeting.

Works Projects Total $105,000 In Final Plans

Fairground Improvement WPA projects amounting to $105,000 were approved by the county planning board yesterday afternoon, taken to Amarillo by City Manager C. L. Stine, and approved by the district office late yesterday.

Five double tennis courts previously requested also were approved.

Mr. Stine remained in Amarillo last night in order to urge approval today of water main extensions, concrete street markers, and a bridge in the draw just east of the Sam Houston ward school.

The park projects asked include a race track, administration building, display building, grandstand, stables, rodeo corral, dam, walks and

ROGERS' GIFT PAYS FOR SCOUT TRIP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—Four Denison, Tex., Boy Scouts were today finishing off a far-flung jamboree of their own on $450 furnished by the late Will Rogers.

With Rogers' name as a special "open sesame," they'd seen St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, Boston, Albany and New York before reaching their original objective, the national capital.

In this city, where the jamboree was called off because of a few cases of infantile paralysis, rain poured, down, and the Scouts, having expiored near-by museums, sat in a hotel lobby, writing letters home-long letters crammed with high-lights of the whole trip.

Unanimously they pronounced Will Rogers a swell guy to have made their trip possible before he went flying off to Alaska.

Three of them, Jack Hemburger, 18, Fred Parrott, 18, Murray Marshall, 16, had never seen Will Rogers. "But when we found out he'd been killed, we felt as though we had lost an old friend," Jack said.

"I saw him play polo in Los Angeles last June," contributed curly-haired Douglass Johanning, 15,

Long's Foe?

A champion behind whom all Huey Long forces will unite is expected to be selected soon to oppose the Kingfish for the Democratic senatorial nomination in the Louisiana January primaries, and guarded hints point to Rep. John N. Sandlin, above, as the man. Sandlin, a former judge from Minden, La., has served eight terms in the House.

POLO CLUB MAY BE ORGANIZED BY LOCAL MEN

Tentative Plans Will Be Discussed on Tuesday Eve

Polo, favorite sport of the late Will Rogers, will be brought to Pampa.

A number of local men have been making tentative plans for months. Some of them have ponies which can be used in the sport. They will

PUBLIC SCHOOL FACULTY WILL MEET FRIDAY

ENROLMENT REGULATIONS ANNOUNCED BY FISHER

Faculty members of the Pampa independent school system will have their first meeting for the new term tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the cafeteria room of the red building.

Supt. P. B. Fisher and Principal L. L. Sme, with the ward school principals, will announce regulations concerning enrollment, ward lines, and other subjects.

To be eligible to enter the public schools, a child must have been 6 years of age by Sept. 1, 1935. This is a state regulation. Age must be verified by birth certificate, Texas enumeration records, or other means satisfactory to Supt. R. B. Fisher.

Children coming from private schools will be enrolled as if they had not previously attended classes, but will be advanced on their merits during the term. New pupils must present report cards and book cards from schools previously attended.

New Bus Rules

All "old" children who come to school on buses will enroll in same schools attended last year, but all new pupils arriving on buses will go to the Sam Houston school to be assigned. This applies to bus children only.

Grade schools have grades from the first through the sixth, Junior high the seventh and eighth grades, and high school the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades. Increased enrollments are expected in all grades.

All grade schools will begin enrollments Monday. Children will remain at the school most of the day. Ward zones will be nearly the same as last year, except that alleys will be the lines instead of streets. For instance, the alley east of Ballard, north of Browning, will be the boundary between the Woodrow Wilson and Sam Houston wards.

Children living on Crest street and on Sunset drive will attend the Woodrow Wilson school. The alley west of West street will be the line between the Sam Houston and Horace Mann wards. Baker ward includes all south of the tracks excepting the "Crest" Banks and Lavender additions, which are in the Horace Mann ward. Children who were enrolled last year, and their brothers and sisters, will not be affected by the new zone rule, but all others must observe it. Further explanations will be made at the schools.

Vaccination Required

Vaccination against smallpox is required of all pupils. New pupils must present vaccination certificates, immunity certificates, or scars resulting from the vaccine.

Enrollment in Junior high school will begin Saturday for all pupils who did not attend last year. The eighth grade former pupils will enroll Monday morning and the seventh graders Monday afternoon. Books will be distributed and assignments made Tuesday at 1 p. m. in Junior school. Classes will start Wednesday at 8:45 a. m.

Rural Facilities

County schools opened Monday. Their facilities are as follows: Laketon—Mrs. Grace Bell, principal.

Last Group Of Passengers Removed From Doomed Ship; Tales Of Heroism Related

Hurled on Reef, Periling 352 Lives

Lives of 352 persons, 235 passengers and a crew of 117, were periled when the Morgan Line flag ship Dixie, above, crashed on Casper reef, nine miles off the Florida coast, at the eastern entrance to the dangerous Straits of Florida. Bound from New Orleans to New York, with Capt. Eimer W. Sundstrom in command, the liner had almost won her way through a hurricane to the open Atlantic when a furious sea hurled her on the reef. Six ships battled through storm-lashed waters to rescue the passengers and crew.

The task of transferring the passengers was completed while the rescued persons unfolded a sea saga of courage.

The transfer of those who remained on the liner, fast aground on the treacherous Casper Reef, Florida Keys, was carried out with celerity, messages from the Dixie's master, E. W. Sundstrom, indicated.

When the transferee was resumed this morning, 230 persons—143 passengers and 77 members of the crew—were on the Dixie.

Divisional headquarters of the coast guard at Jacksonville, Fla., received a report from the cutter, Saukee, that it had aboard 54 of the Dixie's passengers—brought to her by two motorboats, the salvage tug, Warbler, and coast guard boats Nos. 2384 and 185.

Four Arrested In Dynamiting Of Prosecutor

His Cousin, The Sheriff, Puts Men Behind Bars in 'Solution' of Slaying

CHARLAN, Ky., Sept. 5 (AP)—Four men were arrested here today charged with the willful murder of County Attorney Elmon Middleton of Harlan county, who was assassinated by the dynamite explosion of his automobile here yesterday.

The men were listed as Bob Farmer, Otis Noe, Fred Howard and Bill Leonard. They were arrested on warrants sworn to by Sheriff Theodore R. Middleton, cousin of the slain official, who promised a statement later in the day giving a "solution" of the murder mystery.

The prisoners were spirited away to a jail in another county not named by officials.

Judge Gilbert was about to discharge the grand jury when Sheriff Middleton walked into the court room and said: "Judge, I've solved this dynamiting case. I would like for you to hold the grand jury until this afternoon."

Sheriff Middleton did not state what evidence he had, remarking he would present it to the grand jury. Judge Gilbert directed the jurors to meet at 1 p. m.

A detachment of 70 national guardsmen was on duty today.

The front of the county attorney's automobile was blown to pieces here last month when he gave legal advice when Middleton stepped on the starter.

Investigators said Middleton so far as could be learned had no personal enemies. He became embroiled in political squabble here last month when he gave legal advice to Adj. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt during the Kentucky national guard's occupation of Harlan county at the August 3 primary, but this difference was not considered serious enough to have provoked violence.

RAIL WASHOUT PUT DIXIE IN STORM'S PATH

SHIP IS NOT EXPECTED TO EVER FLOAT AGAIN

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press) MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 5 (AP)—Swiftly and uneventfully, the last group of passengers was removed today from the stranded and battered liner, Dixie, their perilous prison since last Monday night.

In less than three hours, the last of the 143 marooned passengers was transferred.

The life boats shuttled over placid waters, the howling hurricane that crippled the Dixie and ground her against the rocks of Casper Reef, death trap, of the Florida Keys, having spent its force.

Aboard the hapless Dixie, still pinned to the reef, remained Capt. E. W. Sundstrom and a skeleton crew. Capt. Sundstrom, who thinks there has been no decade among sea-faring men—that masters of modern vessels are just as cool and efficient as the skippers of the old-time sailing ships—stayed with his ship that the Morgan line might keep possession of her.

All of the passengers gone, he wired coast guard offices at Jacksonville that he was no longer necessary for cutters to stand by the Dixie.

The NEWS Tries To Bring Marine Band to Pampa

The Pampa Daily NEWS is making every effort to bring the U. S. Marine band here for a concert tomorrow as the group returns to Washington.

Many cities made similar efforts when the band was en route to Amarillo. Many have unsuccessfully tried to book the band on its return trip. Nearness of Pampa to Amarillo encouraged the hope that a brief stop-over could be made here.

Announcement will be made tomorrow of the time if the effort is successful.

Children's Band Goes to Reunion

The uniformed, children's band of Sam Houston school went to Amarillo under B. C. D. auspices this afternoon to play at the Confederate reunion.

The band was to play at 4 p. m. at the grandstand near the Amarillo hotel. Arrangements were made by the local B. C. D. on behalf of the Amarillo program committee.

The children were to remain to hear the U. S. Marine band early this evening. They were to have gone tomorrow, but the date was changed.

Rep. Eugene Worley coming into Pampa in his "new" car, a 1928 model A Ford for which he traded his 1922 Model T, and is he sorry "I sure have missed her," he pined. "I'm going to buy her back as soon as I can. A fellow doesn't learn to love a car until he has cussed it two or three years!"

HUBER AND PHILLIPS 66 OF BORGER TO BATTLE IN TOURNAMENT TONIGHT

Coltexo Drops 14 to 2 Upset To Pampa Club

Determined to win the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce baseball tournament, Huber's Blackfaces of Borger will be here tonight with base hits in their bats. The Blackfaces lost a grueling 10-inning battle to Coltexo Carbon on Tuesday night and it didn't sit very well with the team that expected to win the big money without a loss.

Huber's opponents tonight will be their fellow townsmen, Phillips 66 Oilers. The Phillips aggregation has had two headline escapes from being annihilated and sent home.

To prove his determination not to leave the tournament tonight, Mulrone will send his ace motorman, Hadley, to the box against the Blackfaces.

The last two teams in the tournament will play a two-out of three series to determine the winner. The tournament has lasted longer than anticipated, due to adverse weather conditions.

SOONER TEAMS WIN GAMES IN TEXAS LEAGUE

OKLAHOMA CITY MAKES FOUR RUNS OFF ONE HIT

By The Associated Press. The Oklahoma City Indians made four runs from one hit last night to shut out Dallas, 4-0, and maintain their supremacy in the Texas league standing.

In the only other game played, Tulsa trounced Fort Worth, 5-2. The win increased the Oilers' fourth-place lead to two and a half games over the San Antonio Missions, who were held idle by rain.

Rain also caused postponement of the Galveston-Beaumont contest at Beaumont.

The Oklahoma City-Dallas game was witnessed by 4,500 ladies' night customers. The victory placed the Tribe two full games ahead of Beaumont.

Al Baker, Dallas fast-ball artist, found himself in a peculiar position in the eighth inning. He was flung along toward a no-hit game with three runs chalked up against him.

There were no hits to figure in the other scoring, but Brower stole home in the first frame, in which the Indians tallied twice without benefit of hit or error.

The Tulsa-Fort Worth contest was close until the eighth inning, when Gus Britain, Oiler catcher, hit a homer to score behind Howell, who had walked.

Col. Reg Robbins' Daredevils Coming Tuesday

Col. Reg Robbins, whose hell riders will perform here Tuesday at Road Runner park, speeding his car off into space in an attempt to jump it 30 feet. The stunt will be a part of his show Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

More daring than the man on the flying trapeze? Yes, yes, a thousand times more daring than the man on the flying trapeze are the hell riders in Reg Robbins' "auto rodeo" troupe, which will perform Tuesday evening at Road Runner park.

Robbins and his lieutenants will make preparations for staging their two-hour show, purchase two cars from a local dealer which they will destroy in a head on collision, and make arrangements for other paraphernalia which they require in the conduct of their daring feats.

Work also will start on the construction of a 60-foot ramp, which will be used when an attempt will be made to jump an automobile 50 feet.

"Lucky Joe" Fitzgerald, who will loop-the-loop in a new car, turning it over three times. The nickname, "Lucky Joe," was given Fitzgerald for his many escapes from destruction in automobile and airplane crashes.

Another death-defying performance will be by Jean Ruiz, son of a Mexican nobleman, following a demonstration of fancy and trick motorcycle riding, he will pilot a motorcycle through an 8-foot burning board wall. To minimize danger, Ruiz must speed the motorcycle up to 50 miles an hour before crashing it against the wall.

Ruiz, according to Robbins, is the originator of the stunt, and Ruiz explains the originality of the feat as the result of an accident. Driving down a highway one day, he was talking to a lot of boys in this section. Finally, when pressed for a reason for liking Southwest athletes so much, I said I thought they grew a little taller in Texas and Arkansas.

"I think that stuck in the craw of some of our fellows. Who are you?" "It was Paul Hill, six feet, three and 250 pounds, and Clovis Green, six-foot and 220 of T. C. U.

"You can imagine what an impression those two big boys made. I was vindicated."

Ohoians Recall Big Pampa Boys Of Train Visit

The following remarks were made by Francis Schmidt, formerly football coach at Texas Christian university but now with Ohio State, while on a recent visit back to Fort Worth:

"When I went from T. C. U. to Ohio State I guess I was guffy of talking a lot of the boys in this section. Finally, when pressed for a reason for liking Southwest athletes so much, I said I thought they grew a little taller in Texas and Arkansas."

"Then came the day that a train bearing our track team to California stopped at Pampa. Two giants climbed aboard looking for me."

"He didn't come along," explained one of our fellows. "Who are you?" "It was Paul Hill, six feet, three and 250 pounds, and Clovis Green, six-foot and 220 of T. C. U."

"You can imagine what an impression those two big boys made. I was vindicated."

Berry Accused Of Using 'Spit' Ball; Is Cleared

Tiger Joe Berry, former Road Runner pitcher who is hurling winning ball for Ponca City in the Western association, has been charged with using a spit-ball. Berry merely licked his finger tips, due probably to nervousness, but wiped them dry before gripping the ball.

Pampa baseball fans have often seen Berry wet his finger tips and then draw them across the front of his uniform before a pitch. Often the little right-hander's uniform had a soiled streak.

Ponca City and Springfield were scheduled to start a play-off series for the league title last night. Springfield won the first half of the schedule and came within a half game of taking the second half. Berry won his final game to give Ponca City the last half title.

Favored Horses Drop Behind In Panhandle Races

Pay-off Big as 'Dark Horses' Capture Most Events (BY STAFF WRITER.) PANHANDLE, Sept. 4.—Wednesday was a tough day for favorites in most of the races on the program of the Southwest Racing association here.

The ponies picked to win by the "yellow" and "blue" sheets and at the pari-mutuel windows came out ahead in only two out of the seven events.

The third race, in the officials' opinion the closest of the afternoon, aroused the most discussion. Nine out of ten persons in the stands and at the wire were positive that Karachi Queen thundered in ahead of Alpha with daylight between them.

The fourth race, five furlongs, 3-year-olds and up, claiming, $75. Double Hades, 113, $8.10, $3.40, $2.30 Ray Brookler, 116, Hart, $2.90, $2.30 Big Lady, 108, Person, $2.20 Time—1 minute, 1 4-5 seconds. Also ran—Sube, Meade Lady, Tony Reed.

Miami Warriors Back From Camp

MIAMI, Sept. 5.—Returned earlier than anticipated because of heavy rains, but with a lot of good work accomplished, Coach Bob Curry and his Warriors returned from camp on the Hay-Hook ranch this week to resume practice at Warrier field.

Coch Curry took 21 boys to camp. Prospects for winning team look unusually bright with so many letter-men returning. The boys are much heavier than last year when the team was made up mostly of freshmen or green material.

The Warriors have a hard schedule ahead of them. They are taking their football seriously and looking forward to the opening game.

Galan Helps Cubs Trounce Phillies As Cardinals Win

Giants Also Victors In National League

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON JR. One of the season's best bits of master-minding apparently was Charley Galan's conversion of Infielder with the Cubs to a regular toiler in the outer pastures.

That shift came when the Cubs were in the doldrums. Shortly afterward they began to move toward the top with Galan in a leading role in the drive that made them contenders for the flag.

It didn't take Galan long to develop into a good outfielder and he has been hitting at a .300 or better clip.

Galan proved his worth yesterday when the Cubs rolled over the Phillies 8 to 2 to keep their place 2 1/2 games behind the league-leading Cardinals and a half game back of the second-place Giants. Galan drove in six runs, drawing a walk with the bases loaded in the fourth and clotting two home runs. His second homer came with the bases loaded in the eighth and broke up the ball game.

The Cards maintained their lead by staging a four-run rally in the eighth to beat the cellar-dwelling Braves 6-3. A close game in which Wally Berger put Boston ahead in the first half of the eighth with his thirtieth homer of the season, suddenly fell apart when Frank Frisch started the eighth with a single off Ed Brandt, Jim Collins doubled him home and Ben Chaiwall, who followed, was pounded for three more hits.

The Giants, although somewhat shaky at times, outlasted the Reds to win 6 to 4, principally because Carl Hubbell had control and the Cincinnati pitchers didn't.

A FINE RECORD

Texas will search long and diligently before it finds a man to replace Lee Simmons, who resigned this week as general manager of the Texas prison system to devote his entire time to his own large interests in Grayson county.

In his five years as manager, Simmons wrought some miracles of management. At the time he took over the system it was run down, the prisoners discontented and escaping in droves, and there was a strong effort under foot to centralize the system near Austin in hope of bringing order out of chaos.

Lee Simmons soon straightened that out. Item: In 1929 it cost $293 per man to maintain the prisoners in the system; in 1934, the cost per man had been reduced to $85. Item: In 1930 there were only 136 prisoners in school; today the average attendance is 3,000. Item: The net operating loss in 1929 was $1,446,035; in 1934 it was only $410,798.

The physical property of the system has been improved along with the improving morale of the inmates. Simmons cites 10 modern concrete buildings erected in the last four years as proof. During the preceding 20 years only one had been put up.

Under Simmons the system has become nearly self-sustaining, with the farms producing much of the food consumed not only in the prisons but in some of the state's other eleemosynary institutions.

It is a remarkable record of good management, and Texas owes Lee Simmons a few lusty cheers. It is too bad he is quitting. — Abilene News.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER

NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives is a place—for all but a few—where obscure politicians go and lose their identities.

Those who stand out from the pack are almost invariably elderly gents who have time-served their way to positions of power through the seniority system, which sometimes is called the senility system.

Yet today its most outstanding members—in point of independence, aggressiveness, ability, integrity, and future promise—seem to be a couple of fellows who have been here only eight months—Mrs. Maury Maverick, 38, of Texas, and Mr. Vito Marcantonio, 32, of New York.

A burly, bull-voiced son of the plains, whose ancestors were big shots in early Texas days and in colonial New England, and a swarthy, keen-eyed, vigorous little Italian-American from one of New York's toughest districts. You wouldn't think they'd have much in common.

But they share a passion for free speech, civil liberty, underdogs, social and economic justice, national peace and most of those other things that go to make a complete progressive.

Each happens to be a smart politician with a sense of humor, which has enabled them to obtain a lot of co-operation—even from the old-line leaders—and to assume an unofficial leadership of the most effective liberal bloc the shackled House has seen in many years.

The liberal House bloc includes Carl Moran of Maine and Otha Wearin of Iowa, with whom Maverick and Marcantonio co-operated in the brilliant fight those two made against the Bland-Copeland ship subsidy bill; Paul Kvale of Minnesota, Eicher of Iowa, Citron of Connecticut, Lister Hill of Alabama, and most of the Wisconsin and Washington delegations.

The first revolt Maury and Vito led was against the McSwain-Baruch war profits bill, which seemed to them to guarantee war profits and conscription. The House added an amendment conscripting war profits.

The neutrality battle found them in the van of the effort to get an effective bill as against the administration's mild measure and next winter they'll be fighting for an even stronger one.

Maverick, badly wounded and decorated for gallantry in the war, has a neutrality bill—prepared with the aid of 30 professors and international lawyers—which would confine the army and navy to defense of American territory; prohibit contracts to supply munitions or other things designated as contraband to warring nations, and ban such exports as well as loans and credits and casual passports to warring countries and war zones.

It was the Texan who exposed the navy's official memorandum branding the Federal Council of Churches, National Council for Prevention of War, and Women's International League, Jane Addams, Clarence Darrow, and Sherwood Eddy as Communistic or "Communist-minded."

Marcantonio was campaign manager for Fiorello LaGuardia when LaGuardia was beaten for re-election to Congress in 1932. Then LaGuardia ran for New York mayor and Vito ran for Fiorello's old House seat. Campaigning for each other, both won and Marcantonio is regarded as a worthy successor to LaGuardia, who became the most effective independent leader in the House.

A member of the Labor committee, Marcantonio is radical in his demands for labor. He led a brilliant but unsuccessful battle against compulsory military training in colleges and managed to block the Dickstein alien deportation bill. He led the unsuccessful revolt for a tax bill soaking all incomes above $5000 and raising the administration ante on big inheritances, incomes and corporations.

If there's a future for radicalism, Marcantonio has a big future.

A Sioux Falls, S. D., pig swallowed a vial of radium. By advertising the fact, the farmer might have sold the animal for twice the usual price.

"Italy will try to convince the other powers she is right." But what can Italy do if the others persist in staying out of step?

"Preparing Balloon for New Stratosphere Flight." In view of the previous blowout, perhaps the officials should have a spare.

Wonder what would happen if Benito or Il Duce didn't feel like attending when Mussolini called a cabinet meeting?

It's not so easy on the farm these days, leaving the barn before dawn to go into the house and prepare the hogs' milk and cereal.

BRAKE ON NEW DEAL SPENDING SEEN IN ACT

BELIEVE ROOSEVELT IS MEETING ATTACKS OF OPPOSITION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt's orders placing all emergency agencies under the budget bureau aroused speculation here today whether this might not be a move toward meeting opposition attacks on new spending.

First stirrings of the approaching election campaign have indicated that heavy governmental expenditures and an unbalanced budget would figure prominently as an issue. Republican spokesmen apparently intend to keep it a live subject.

In his talk with newspaper men at Hyde Park, N. Y., yesterday, however, Mr. Roosevelt said the national emergency had passed and that his orders contemplated a reduction in employe personnel and eventual consolidation where possible.

Observers here wondered whether this meant that when congress meets in January the president would relinquish any of the emergency powers when a car was side-swiped and lift in a ditch west of White Deer Sunday night.

Even before he left for Hyde Park the president gave hints of moves to trim down government agencies. He arranged with heads of bureaus dealing with housing activities to prevent an overlapping of their functions. He also set September 12 as a deadline for receiving applications for money from the $4,000,000,000 works fund.

Fisher Tells of Trip to Europe At Rotary Lunch

"The outstanding observation in Europe and England by those who have studied or traveled in the foreign countries, is the rapidly changing conditions," said R. B. Fisher in a talk before the Rotary club yesterday. "Situations, thought, and activity change so rapidly in Europe that each year brings something very different."

Mr. Fisher recently returned from a 16,000-mile trip, 3,000 of which was in Russia, an educational trip where school officials were registered with Columbia University. The social, political and economic problems of England, Russia, and Germany were studied.

The English folk appeared to be an honest, conservative people who refuse to plan far ahead but meet their problems as they arise. And their past and present activity impresses one with the fact they are able to meet their problems.

Several impressions regarding Russia that seem to be rather world wide are wrong, according to the findings of Mr. Fisher's party. They found Russians worshipping much as they please, with several old religious practices still in existence. Russians also have a freedom of study and hobbies, and large parks and playgrounds provided for these purposes.

Much building in Russia has been started but has not been finished. Former rulers' palaces have been changed into sanitariums, and churches have been made into museums.

Germany is attempting recovery in a consistent way. The people are trying to regain their industrial status, their prestige, and lost colonies.

Both Germany and Russia are highly militarized with soldiers stationed along all borders. Travelers are not allowed to take more money from either country than the amount with which they entered.

Visitors yesterday were Joe and Bob Gribbin and Rotarians W. E. Goodloe and F. A. Zimpher of Amarillo and Neely Vaught of Burkburnett.

WORKERS

The Italian delegates seemed pleased by the delay and one of them said: "We want to give the world time to understand our position. We are in no hurry."

Fear was expressed in some quarters that if the council tried to "bring Italy to the bar of judgment," Premier Mussolini would immediately order his delegation to leave Geneva.

League circles suggested that Italy's long list of accusations brought yesterday against Ethiopia claiming the African empire to be barbarous and slave-holding, might be met by the appointment of an international police force which would operate in the African empire under the authority of the league.

Such a force operated early this year in the Saar basin territory during the plebiscite.

Such a police force could be dispatched into Ethiopia with the consent of the Ethiopian government and could suppress any slave trade and maintain order along the frontier.

Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy, who yesterday read a condemnatory memorandum on the African empire to the council, told foreign correspondents he would refuse to answer questions or otherwise enter discussion with the delegation of Emperor Haile Selassie.

Hence two diametrically opposed nations glared at each other across the council table. The last word of each yesterday was calculated to sting the other.

"It is beneath our dignity to parley further with uncivilized and un-speakably barbarous states," spoke Italy.

"Ethiopia's problem," was the rejoinder of that empire's spokesman, "has been to persuade the Italian government to follow in this particular case the procedure of civilized states—that is, recourse to arbitration rather than force."

Optimists found cause for cheer in the fact that neither Italy nor Ethiopia had walked out of the league and in the fact that Italy had not specifically demanded Ethiopia's expulsion.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Sept. 5 (AP)—Stocks surged upward today with the buying demand pushing many issues to new highs for the year.

Brokers thought that good business news, combined with the growing volume of idle money in the country helped to spur the upturn. Advances ranged from fractions to 3 or more points. The close was strong. Transfers approximated 1,950,000 shares.

he is a good fellow and you would enjoy meeting him. Much of Alaska reminds the trippers of Pampa in the early days. At Wrangle, they inspected the fire department and found an engine "about like our first Reo in Pampa." The Browns planned to go as far as Anchorage, from where they intended to fly to Fairbanks. They were to be in Seattle today, and are to return to Pampa about October 1.

A BIG DEVELOPMENT

of the Dohaert Texan carries the word that Dallas county is still in the Panhandle, and not in Kansas, Iowa, or Nebraska. We gather, from the pictures, that the government is doing a good job of helping the folk "stand down" the Panhandle by sticking to the grass roots, if any, until the rains returned. And recent reports indicate that Dallas has been soaked in the good old-fashioned way. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas County.

VETERANS

because of the advanced age of the veterans, Gen. Rice A. Pierce of Union City, Tenn., commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, has a different view. "We'll meet as long as there are three of us left to honor the stars and bars," he said. "That's part of our constitution, sir. We put it in at the first meeting, and it is in the minds and hearts of each of us to see that we can do all honor to the south as long as we are able."

Several cities had made bids for the reunion which will end tomorrow with the grand parade, an event expected to be as colorful as the annual ball last night.

Dancing the steps of their youth, scores of the feeble old soldiers took part in the grand ball. Their faltering steps kept time with the music of the United States Marine band, which they danced the quadrille, the Virginia reel and the waltz with their official ladies.

The followers of Lee in the 60's voted unanimously yesterday to accept an invitation to meet the followers of Grant in a grand reunion at the Gettysburg battlefield in 1938.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Sept. 5 (AP)—Stimulated by assertions that Europe has started buying Canadian wheat on the largest scale witnessed in two years, wheat values climbed today.

Big purchases of wheat from Canada for shipment overseas were reported as having taken place today as well as yesterday.

Exes Don't Care To Scrimmage Boys Friday Afternoon

At noon today, ex-Harvesters were still scurrying around looking for talent with which to scrimmage the Harvesters at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Harvesters field. Coaches Odus Mitchell and J. C. Prejanen gave the exes until 3 o'clock to get material together.

Should the former stars be unable to field a team, Coach Mitchell said he would try to secure either Miami or Mobeetie for a scrimmage.

The two Harvester coaches are well pleased with their prospects. The boys are working hard and conscientiously at their assignments. Whether the job is tackling, blocking or running interference, the boys go at it with a determination to do their best.

Earl Rice, letterman from last season, has turned in his uniform, leaving only nine letters on the squad.

Crowd Attends School Opening

MOBEETIE, Sept. 5.—Mobeetie schools opened Sept. 2 with the largest crowd present that has ever been at a Mobeetie school opening. Speeches were made by the president of the county school board, H. M. Wiley, and B. T. Rucker, the county superintendent.

Approximately 380 students were enrolled by Monday and probably four hundred will be enrolled this year. A new system of periods has been introduced; there being only six one-hour periods each day, giving more time to each class.

M. D. Blankinship, the new superintendent, who received his bachelor of science degree at Canyon this year, is doing everything possible to get the schedule arranged and the classes running smoothly so that each student may take the subjects best suited to his or her purpose.

DEATH TOLL

corpse quickly moved into the stricken regions where they were met by scenes of horror and desolation. Fifty-one bodies, few identified, lay in a morgue here, as the difficult mission of bringing aid to the injured and marooned victims was speeded to the coastal regions where the storm was most severe.

Countless injured were reported strewn through the Keys, battered and torn through almost four days of swirling winds and rains.

Congressman J. Hardin Peterson at Lakeland telegraphed Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins for an investigation into reported deaths among war veterans in FEMA work camps on upper and lower Matecumbe Keys.

A similar request went to President Roosevelt last night from the Miami chamber of commerce and the Coral Gables post of the American Legion.

The storm curled into Georgia with drenching rains and stiff winds, but damage in towns was mostly confined to fallen trees and signs of devastation. Damage to peanut and pecan crops was reported in some localities.

Weather bureaus at Thomasville and Quitman reported wind velocity at between 35 and 45 miles an hour. So devastating was the storm that towards Macon and then whirl across Savannah, the Carolinas and out to sea.

Estimates Differ.

Despite turn up railroads and washed away bridges, Red Cross and coast guard workers hurried their relief task on the stricken Florida Keys. "The next problem is to find and remove the bodies," Coast Guard Commander H. C. Perkins said.

Sixty department of health officials said that the work of caring for survivors of the hurricane on the upper and lower Matecumbe Keys was "pretty well in hand."

So devastating was the storm that today, more than 60 hours after it struck, no definite estimate of the dead, missing and injured could be made.

Dr. Leonard K. Thompson, Red Cross relief chairman in the Keys hurricane area, reported to Washington that he believed the toll of dead would be less than 200.

Dr. Joe Stewart, who made an aerial survey of the stricken places, placed the total as not in excess of 300.

Capt. P. T. Branking, master of the yacht, Byronic, which made a rescue voyage to the Keys, declared the number of dead would be at least 600.

Jack Combs, a Miami undertaker who led a rescue expedition, said the dead would number between 400 and 500.

It is planned to make the game inexpensive and on a small scale at the start. Anyone can join the group, and visitors Tuesday evening will be welcomed.

Similar plans are taking form at Lubbock and Amarillo, hence competition will be available. The game is dangerous in a professional way, and thrilling, but is the sport of many who play it according to their own wishes.

Faler Funeral Plans Not Made

The parents of Ivan Faler, 34, suicide victim, were to arrive in Pampa this afternoon to plan funeral arrangements. Mrs. Faler, prostrated after the shooting, was able to leave Worley hospital last night.

Faler died of a gunshot wound in the head, self-inflicted, according to Justice of the Peace James Todd Jr., coroner. Faler had been a resident of Pampa for some time and was a rig builder. He died late Tuesday night at his home south of Pampa.

Survivors are his wife and four children, Jacqueline, Ivan Jr., Billy, and Paul, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Faler, and one brother, W. D. Faler, all of Seminole, Okla.

The body is at the G. C. Malone Funeral Home.

Supt. Fisher Tells Of European Tour

Stories of his summer journeys in England, Russia, and Germany were told to Pampa Lions today by Supt. R. B. Fisher.

Mr. Fisher said that other countries and their conditions today could be properly measured only in comparison with conditions a few years or decades ago. He said Russian conditions were bad compared with modern America, but to the people appear progressive by comparison with conditions prior to the revolution. Similarly, Germany after throwing off the post-war low morale, poverty, and weakness and seeking to rebuild the people, regain lost colonies, and bring back her former prestige.

He predicted that Europe would continue to change often, and that success of some movements would mean beginning of new ones which would more nearly approximate our own methods. But America, he concluded, is so much more efficient, beautiful, and scientific that other countries seem like slums by comparison.

In behalf of the club, John Sturgeon presented a set of fine glassware to Mrs. John Corrigan, club pianist, as a wedding present.

READY MADE WIFE

BY CORALIE STANTON

Chapter 39
DISAPPOINTMENT

Across the six foot gulf, the two men looked at each other. Rex Moore had, in his miraculous act of saving himself, landed on the farther side.

"I'm anything had happened to you, my dear fellow, I should never have forgiven myself," said Albery. "Oh, don't worry!" replied Rex; and, just to show that nothing had happened to him, he leaped over the opening and landed lightly by his employer's side. "You can give me another drink, if you like," he said. "I could do with one now. And then I'll get off to bed."

Mark Albery sat on in his chair for some time after the airman had gone.

There were papers in front of him on his desk, but he was not looking at them. There was a contemplative expression, his face lit with an almost shut. The madness in his brain, fed by the accident, was increasing, was growing beyond control.

While Rex Moore was alive, Laurie would not give a thought to any other man. He knew that beyond a doubt.

If Rex Moore had fallen down on to the floor of the hangar, he would have been dead by now.

He would have been out of the way.

The next day Rex Moore again came up to Albery's office in the hangar, and laid on his employer's desk a little bundle of bank notes.

"This is the other half of the money you lent me," he said. "Thank you very much."

"You didn't take long paying it back, Rex," said Albery. He spoke with indulgence, and yet a touch of sarcasm. It was the first time he had called the airman by his Christian name. It seemed as if the accident of the night before had changed their relations.

"I've been lucky in getting several more articles to write," was the reply. "Journalism seems a paying game."

"When you're a public idol, certainly!" remarked Albery, with genial cynicism. "It's a different story when you're not getting your brains flying!"

"I know all about that," was the young man's quick rejoinder. "I owe it all to you. I couldn't pay for my flights by writing about them."

"I have told you until I'm tired of it, that you need worry about money," put in Albery complacently. Then, his voice changed. "You're worth far more than money, Rex. You're an asset—you belong to the nation—to England."

And apart from the personal madness in his brain, he was speaking the truth. He needed this man more than he needed any man up on earth. And yet he wished him dead.

"Rex," he added earnestly, "I definitely want you to put off the Pacific flight, I'm sure it will be for you, as well as for me. If you wait until we quite certain about the new fuel. If it comes off, it'll be the biggest triumph for you. If it doesn't, you can do the flight all the same."

Rex Moore shrugged his shoulders; his angry mouth looked petulant as a child's. But, of course, he did know what he would mean to him if the new fuel turned out a success. He would be the first man to fly at a speed hitherto believed impossible. Although he hated this inaction, he could not deny that it was worth waiting for.

"That's settled, then," said Albery. "By the way, I didn't sack the chap who left the trap open last night. You asked me not to, for one thing. And he turned out to be Flood, the foreman of the hangar, one of the men we could least spare. He was in a terrible state when I told him what might have happened to you."

"Yes, I've seen him," Rex replied carelessly. "He's a good fellow, I know. He seemed frightfully upset. And he said he had strained his arm rather badly and was afraid he couldn't manage the trap alone; and all the others had gone. I'm glad you didn't sack him, Mr. Albery. He won't do it again."

Rex Moore was in London on the following Sunday.

He rang up Mrs. Steele from the Chelsea flat, which he was still occupying, at Albery's urgent request, or rather, command. Albery said it was necessary for their plans that Rex should use it when in London, after Laurie had left.

Rex did not want to see Mrs. Steele, but he could never get over his bad conscience where she was concerned. He had behaved to her with such rank ingratitude.

She was at home, and invited him to come to lunch, with that throbbing emotion in her high-pitched voice that made him so uncomfortable.

"I thought I was never going to see you again," she said, when he arrived. But this time there was no reproach in her voice, only unshamed delight, which made him feel very small and unworthy.

He explained how busy he had been, as they sat in the sitting-room of her luxurious suite. And then, realizing that he might have had the decency to pay her some slight attention, such as sending flowers, or an invitation to a meal and a show, he ended up awkwardly:

"I'm afraid I'm not fit for civilized life, Wanda. I must seem abnormally ungrateful."

"My dear, I know how you only live for your job," she answered generously. "As long as you don't try to pay me back what you think you owe me with money! That hurts too much. I have a terror of opening a letter again, like that last one you sent me!"

Her eyes were misty; her large, eager red mouth trembled, as she gave him a smile of pathetic tenderness.

The man was touched.

They talked of all sorts of things over the delicious and light luncheon. Wanda skilfully led him on to his own subjects. He told her about his preparations for the Pacific flight, and she said she would love to travel to South America with him on her way home, perhaps she could arrange it, as he was having to postpone his departure.

He did not tell her about his accident of the middle of the week. For some reason that he did not quite understand, he would not allow himself to think of it. It was too fantastic, and at the same time too dull. He had looked death in the face many a time, but never in an ignominious way like that.

It was not until the end of the meal, when the coffee was bubbling in the glass globe on the table, and coming back like that. After all that time—without letting her know."

"You mean she wanted to leave you?"

"Of course. She was very sporting about it. She did her best."

"What are you going to do—get a divorce?"

"Yes, what else can we do?"

"I see!" Wanda burst out indignantly. "And you'll take the blame, Rex, and she'll marry Albery."

"I am to blame," he said simply. "How did you know about Albery?"

"Anybody with eyes could see that he's crazy about her. And, of course, he's a great catch for a girl like that!"

She had slightly forgotten herself. She flushed and apologized. "I didn't mean anything against her, Rex. I know how chivalrous you are. And she seemed a nice, quiet little thing. But I can't help being angry with her for letting you down."

"She hasn't let me down, Wanda. Please, I'd rather not discuss it. We have agreed that it would be for the best to part."

"She hasn't let me down, Wanda. Please, I'd rather not discuss it. We have agreed that it would be for the best to part."

MORNING COFFEE BEGINS THE SEASON FOR TREBLE CLEF CLUB

MRS. WOLFE IS HOSTESS WITH LOVELY PARTY

FALL PROJECTS FOR MEMBERS ARE OUTLINED

Mrs. Philip Wolfe was hostess with a morning coffee at her home yesterday, entertaining the Treble Clef club at its first meeting of a new season.

An orchid and yellow color note was strung at the table, which was centered with a bowl of field flowers in those shades. The table cover was of lace, and the room was lighted by yellow candles.

Mrs. Sam Irwin poured coffee, and Mrs. John Bricker and Mrs. Massey of Corpus Christi assisted in serving dainty sandwiches and cakes.

Fall projects of the club were discussed at the business meeting, in charge of Mrs. J. W. Garman, president. Interest centers around the district music club convention here in October, and the pioneer ball and square dance planned for Sept. 17 as a convention benefit.

The club is preparing for a radio program to be broadcast from Amarillo on Sept. 30, and also to enter the choral contest in the Tri-State fair at Amarillo. Members here won that contest last year.

Appointees to several committees were announced by Mrs. Garman as follows: Music committee, Mrs. Ray Huling, Mrs. Bob McCoy, Mrs. Walter Stein, Mrs. Wolfe, Mrs. W. R. Chaffin.

Membership committee, Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. E. W. Voss, Mrs. W. L. Brummett. Delegate to city club council, Mrs. Dave Dodge.

The only club guests were house guests of three members: Mrs. Massey, sister of Mrs. Wolfe; Mrs. Harry L. Hall of Bartlesville, Okla., a visitor of Mrs. Huling; and Miss Booth of Stamford, sister of Mrs. Bricker.

Members present included a new member, Mrs. Everett Westbrook, and Misses Ralph Dunbar, Neil McCullough, Huling, Dodge, W. A. Branton, Voss, Roberts, Harry Hoare, Lorene Thomason, Stein, McCoy, Rowntree, and Miss Jimma Seary.

REVIVAL OPENS WITH TALK ON PRAYER AS KEY

A. H. Carleton Is in Charge of M. E. Services

"The God Who Carries My Burden" is the subject announced by the Rev. A. H. Carleton for the second night of the revival at the Harrah Methodist chapel, 713 S. Barnes street.

"The theme of these services, is 'Back to God,' in keeping with the spirit of the fall return to activity."

Last night, Mr. Carleton in speaking on "The God Who Answers Prayer" said, "The only way back to God if we have left him, or forward to God if we have never known him, is through the power of prayer."

Prayer is the key that unlocks all doors to the forgiveness, companionship, and strength which God desires all men to know. Prayer is not just asking for something, a polite begging, but it is the Christian's vital breath, the sinner's only hope, the life connecting man and God.

After showing how Jesus' life was one of the constant prayer, Mr. Carleton emphasized the necessity that every one who discovers the real worth of Christianity must pray individually, socially, constantly, believably, and humbly.

"Such prayer," he said, "results in a life of peace and power, a calmness and refreshing strength, which can be developed in no other way."

The service begins at 8 p. m. with an informal song service led by the pastor, Rev. Lance Webb. Rev. E. C. Wallace is directing the young people, who meet at 7:30. Adult prayer groups are called for 7:40.

"Everybody is welcome to these services. You will feel at home anyway you come," the pastor said.

RECORD ATTENDANCE EXPECTED AT COOKING SCHOOL AS PRIZE OFFER TO P-TA IS ANNOUNCED

With interest heightened by announcement of two cash awards to Parent-Teacher associations amassing the most registration votes during the three-day sessions, preparations are being completed for the Kitchen Chautauqua that will start Monday in the city hall auditorium.

Record attendance is expected, since Parent-Teacher associations of this territory will urge their members to be present and register each day, and their friends to cast their votes also. Everyone who attends, whether or not a Parent-Teacher association member, may vote for a chosen association.

"Housewives, we are a lucky bunch," says Beulah Mackey Yates, the noted lecturer of all artful features to a fashion show of foods and cooking who will lead the Kitchen Chautauqua to be held under the auspices of this newspaper.

"We are lucky," Mrs. Yates continued, "because we live in a day and age when the art of cooking and the secret form as of all generations are brought to us for our quick and easy use, making home-and-kitchen happiness possible with the very least effort, smallest work-and greatest pleasure. We are lucky because there are no long, hot hours over the washbasin occasioned by out-of-date washing equipment. Clothes do not shrink and colors do not fade any more. Dirt of all kinds can be removed easily and quickly. Dishes no longer present a grind of housewife.

"What a wonderful world we live in these modern days. There are perfect ensembles for every woman, but greatest of all there are appetizing appeals for any and every kind of weather. If we but know the secrets of means, marketing, budgeting, step-savers, recipes, baking, left-overs, calories, salads, frying, labor savers, vitamins, and other important things of this age in which we live, that add pleasure to the doing of the job in the kitchen and bring happiness to the entire family."

The Kitchen Chautauqua will show housewives the way to real kitchen-happiness. Each woman of this city will be entertained and helped by these fascinating lectures that deal with every phase of home-interest. They are free. We invite you to attend this cooking school and urge you not to miss a single fascinating minute of it.

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness. If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. # MUSSOLINI IS NOT BLUFFING ITALIAN SAYS

ITALY DETERMINED TO CIVILIZE AFRICAN EMPIRE

BY A. E. STUNTZ.
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
ROME, Sept. 5 (AP)—Italy will impose its own conception of civilization on Ethiopia, official sources insisted today.

These sources added that Mussolini is determined that Emperor Haile Selassie shall not be left to his own devices in his "backward empire."

A government spokesman reiterated that Il Duce was not bluffing when he said recently "the nation is prepared to go ahead with the league, without the league or against the league."

Italian statesmen expressed confidence that another rung would be added to the ladder by which fascism has slowly but surely brought Italy world prestige.

These officials felt that the world at large could not fail to appreciate the point Italy has taken by Geneva to prove that the Ethiopian nation is lacking in all the requisites for membership in a society of civilized states.

If the league and the world should not recognize Italy's powerful argument, these supporters of Mussolini asserted, the Italian nation will go ahead nevertheless.

Findings of the conciliation commission were cited as evidence that civilized tactics could not be employed in treating with "barbarous" nations.

Government circles were quick to point out that the conciliation commission absolved Italy of all blame in the Uahai incident. They insisted the commission's findings were "attenuated" with regard to Ethiopia, which must necessarily serve, they said, as an indictment against Ethiopia.

Industry to proceed cautiously this week.
The refined market held up well under the circumstances.
Neither the coast disturbance nor the decline in demand for refined products came unexpectedly. Bad weather in some sections over Labor day week-end caused the buying to drop rather more than usual.

Third grade gasoline gave way an eighth of a cent a gallon on the lower quotations on the Chicago tank car market. Oil-raised gasoline prices were unchanged, with third grade 4 1/2¢ at Chicago and the regular 5 1/2¢.

Conditions favorable to fall plowing strengthened the demand in this district for kerosene with the result that the prices held steady despite sales pressure.

The California crude price cut still was being watched with interest. The most optimistic observers called it a "local situation," and cited a previous instance when crude price reductions were restored after a few weeks when production was brought down.
