Cyclone Loses First Conference Game To Lefors Pirates Friday Night 27-7

The Lefors Pirates took the 1-A District conference opener from the Cyclone Friday night by a score of 27-7, by taking advantage of every break of the game. Mixing passes with their running attack, and the fortunate recovery of two Cyclone fumbles, the Pirates kept their record clear of losses for the 1954 season.

Two passes tossed by Quarterback Eddie Clemmons to Halfback Phillip Earhart were responsible for the first two touchdowns. One of these was for 90 yards, and the second for 29. The other two counters were by Fullback J. D. Redus, who plunged over from the two, and by Clemmons from the 1-yard line.

The Cyclone counter came late in the third quarter, when Quarterback Cleve Evans passed to End Jack Montgomery for a 9-yard advance and the touchdown. Jimmy Davis plunged over for the extra point.

Coach George Childress' team led in gain on the ground. They made a total of 149 yards in this department, to 120 yards by their opponents. But the aerial game of Lefors was clicking to near perfection. They completed 7 out of 9 attempts for a gain of 185 yards. Two of these passes went for touchdowns. Memphis tried 10 passes, completing 4, for a total of 54 yards.

Setbacks by penalties dogged the local eleven in all four quarters of the game. They lost 75 yards by being assessed 9 penalties by the officials. The Pirates lost 10 yards on 2 penalties.

A Cyclone fumble early in the second quarter, which was recovered by the Pirates, set up their second touchdown. Another fumble early in the fourth quarter on the Memphis 3-yard line remarks on the idea that "It is the individual that counts." He insisted that people should not base opinion on races as a whole.

Report From Washington

By Walter Rogers

Congressman, 18th District

Quiet On The Potomac

I returned to Washington about a week or ten days ago on an accumulated mail bag up on agency, bureau and departmental business, I found the city very quiet. The only thing going on are the committee hearings in the Senate. The reports are mainly filling international and local news items that are being dominated by the front page news. The District courts are in session and the trials are furnishing the local news. One trial in a former police officer alleged to have been mixed up in a racketeer's dope peddling racket in Baltimore, they are a Washington resident for tax evasion, and the facts of the case seem to be centering on major gambling and race activity.

The Supreme Court convened on October 4th, for its fall term. 133 applicants for admission to practice before the Court were admitted. This included two Amarillo attorneys, namely, John H. Merchant and O. Fitzjarrald. Chief Justice Warren and the other members of the Court appeared to be busy to go to work on a heavy load of cases. No doubt but that some of the decisions this fall will have world-wide significance.

The tourist activities have ceased. I was over at the Chamber the other day with one of my good constituents, and that the bullet hole in the Chamber, that was put there by the Puerto Rican woman, was repaired. Too bad it was easier to repair than the physical damage she did to the physical structure of some of the Members.

On October 6th is one of the important days in my family. It is my wife's birthday. We celebrated by having lunch at the hotel. This hotel is almost an international cross-roads. Difficult to go through without someone you know from there. For instance, Georgia's United States Senator Dick Russell, Boston's Mr. Welch (of Senatorial fame), Pampa's Ruby Hughes, and Mrs. Eisenhower. They were all in the city at the same time.

I finished the birthday celebration that night, when the child had a "Happy Birthday" cake. Everyone had a slice, and the cake had to be cut into so many pieces that it wasn't enough to make anybody sick. We know pretty well how to handle birthdays; we have about every week.

The Foreign Situation
The gloom that seemed to engulf many of our government elements when EDC failed of action in France has turned sunshine since the London has been agreed upon. They had great forward progress has been made, and here is anticipation of greater things to come. There are still many obstacles to overcome and great difficulties that will be encountered. Let us hope that it is the beginning of a unified Europe that will be the surest guarantee of peace.

The U. S. Treasury Building is having its face lifted. That is, the outside is being washed down, or rubbed down, or sand blasted, or whatever is necessary to clean it off. One wag, standing on the street corner watching these activities, was heard to remark: "It looks like the Treasury is getting cleaned both inside and out."

Small World

A few days ago I extended an invitation to Commissioner Seaborn L. Digby, of the Federal Power Commission, to address a group of gas producers and royalty owners in Amarillo. Mr. Digby had to decline the invitation because of the tremendous amount of work now pending in the FPC offices. However, in his letter of regret to me, he mentioned the fact that his wife was the sister of Mrs. S. D. Stennis, of Pampa. Mrs. Stennis is the widow of the late Judge Stennis, who was a brother of Senator John Stennis of Mississippi. Hampton Stennis, a son of Judge and Mrs. Stennis, is employed by the Globe-Times Publishing Company in Amarillo. I wish that Commissioner Digby could have made the trip to Amarillo and taken his wife along.

Phillips 66 brings you the first All-Weather Motor Oil which has proved it meets the most exacting standard ever established for automobile lubrication...

Mil-0-2104, Supplement 1 level.

The toughest standard ever set up for automobile lubrication is the Mil-0-2104 Supplement 1 test. New TROP-ARTIC is the first all-weather motor oil to meet the requirements of this test. It is an oil which will serve you winter and summer... an oil so good it can double the life of an automobile engine!

Compared to ordinary motor oils, new TROP-ARTIC reduces ring wear 40% or more. It cuts oil consumption 15% to 45%. It keeps pistons and bearings cleaner... longer-lasting. It saves you money by increasing gasoline mileage. This has been demonstrated in tests representing over 150,000 miles of driving.

TROP-ARTIC is truly an all-weather oil... S.A.E. 10W through S.A.E. 30. Therefore it flows instantly for easy starting at sub-zero temperatures, and yet it retains the film strength necessary to prevent engine wear under high temperature driving conditions. It isn't just heavy duty. It's double duty.

Any car, in any climate, at any time of the year will perform better with Phillips 66 TROP-ARTIC. It is a worthy companion product to Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL, the new high performance gasoline recently introduced by Phillips. It pays to stop at the station where you see the Phillips 66 Shield.

LETTERS FROM READERS

Dear Editor: The following article, which I found very interesting, appeared in the October issue of The School Administrator, which is published in Washington, D. C., by the American Association of School Administrators of the National Educational Association. Headed "Criteria Offered Boards Searching for Supts.," the article reads as follows: "Here is a list of the really important criteria that most school boards should have in mind when they search for the ideal man: "He should have chronic low blood pressure. He must possess an ulcer-proof stomach. "He must possess an ulcer-proof withstand petty gripes and slaps during the ten-hour work day in his office; he must be able to tend to school and community business eight nights a week; he then must enjoy lying awake most of the night worrying about school problems; and then he must have the ability to jump out of bed in the morning refreshed and with a huge smile. "He must possess the hide of a rhinoceros. "He must be able to find solutions to insoluble problems and especially be able to make people happy who are placing exacting contrary demands on him. "He must be a man who can spend his life helping other people's children but who takes in stride the fact that he does not have more than an hour a week for his own. "He must be a man who has a wife who loves him so much that she does not care whether or not she ever sees him. "His skills must include only those of the business executive, the education philosopher, the accountant, the teacher of teachers, the architect, the dynamic public speaker, the human relations expert, and the maintenance engineer. "In a 12-month period, nearly 60 per cent of Massachusetts public school superintendents received demands to put more emphasis on the 'Three R's.' "In the same period nearly two-thirds of the state's superintendents were under exactly opposite pressures to offer more and varied courses and subjects. "Forty per cent reported they faced demands from the community to put less emphasis on athletics in the schools. But 58 per cent were under pressure for greater emphasis on athletics." Mary Foreman

Leary Appointed To Co-Op Board

Don Leary has been appointed to the board of directors of the Hall County Electric Co-op to serve out the unexpired term of C. L. Sloan, according to J. W. Coppedge, manager. Both Leary and Sloan live at Estelline. Leary was named to succeed Sloan at the September meeting of the co-op directors. Sloan said that his resignation was necessary for business reasons. Sloan had served on the board of directors for a number of years and his present term had until 1955 to run. At the time of his resignation, he was vice-president of the board.

Raymond Clark Now Stationed In Maine

Raymond E. Clark, aviation electrician's mate third class, USN, is currently serving with Patrol Squadron 11. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Clark of Memphis. VP-11 recently completed its change of permanent duty station from Naval Air Station, Quonset Point, Rhode Island, to the Naval Air Station at Brunswick, Me. The Flying Pegasus squadron, of which Clark is a member, not long ago returned from the warm waters of the Mediterranean, where the group did a five-month tour of duty at the Royal Naval Air Station at Halfar, Malta. The cold and snow of Maine will be quite a contrast. Patrol Squadron 11 recently received its full complement of P-2V-5 Neptunes which they have been flying during the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cullin arrived here Wednesday from Slator to attend to business and visit old friends. Mr. Cullin returned home today but Mrs. Cullin remained for a longer visit. The couple lived here until a few months ago.

Local Men Attend District Convention

Three Memphis men attended an 18th District American Legion convention at Amarillo recently. They were H. C. Pounds, immediate past commander of the local post; Frank Van Pelt, and Hubert Dennis. Cong. Walter Rogers was the principal speaker. In addition, a number of speeches on various Legion topics were heard. Hereford was selected as the site of the spring convention next year. Approximately 400 persons attended the region-wide gathering. Paul Spillman of Wellington, district commander, presided.

IN MEMORIAM

"For he was a good man—" This would, I think, be a good epitaph for the life of Geo. C. Dickson. This language originally was written of Barnabas, a companion of the Apostles of the Lord Jesus. He was not noted for oratory as was Apollos, for brilliance as was Paul, not for fire eating defenses of the Gospel as was Stephen, not as impetuous as was the Apostle Peter, nor was there in him the fierceness of demeanor of the Sons of Thunder, James and John; but in him there was heart, and faith, and goodness. In Pop Dickson we think this community has found those same qualities and the Church of Christ at Memphis may well join the family in sincere mourning the passing of a good man who has done much in a quiet way to advance the lasting principles of the Kingdom of God. I have lost a second father whom I esteemed not only personally but for his work's sake. The great host of friends and relatives who have held vigil at his bedside through his long illness give testimony to this fact. From the family I extend thanks for all the kind words and helpful deeds, and sympathetic tears throughout our trouble. For the Dicksons and Uphaws By Kermit Uphaw, minister Wills Point, Texas.

Rev. Sharp Attends Meeting At Lubbock

'Operation Hotdog' To Gorge Hungry Youths At Fair

Mammoth "Operation Hotdog" will take place at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas Saturday, October 16, when rural youth make their annual visit to the exposition. R. L. (Bob) Thornton, Jr., Rural Youth Day chairman, says his committee of 50 men is setting up facilities to feed some 60,000 of the 100,000 boys and girls expected from all sections of the state.

Purchases for the big feeding project resemble an order of groceries required for a large body of Uncle Sam's troops in the field, according to Carlton Lawler, co-chairman of the committee and specialist in mass feeding. He has called for five tons of hotdogs and 60,000 buns, 160 gallons of mixed relish and mustard, 60,000 packages of potato chips, 60,000 candy bars and 6,600 gallons of grapeade to be cooled in 120 barrels by 24,000 pounds of ice.

The Rural Youth Day activity sponsored and paid for by Dallas business firms and individuals through the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, is carried out by the State Fair of Texas. This year's project will cost in the neighborhood of $12,000, Thornton estimates. Left-over food, if any, he said, will be delivered to the Buckner Orphans Home in Dallas.

D. A. Hulcy of Dallas, Lone Star Gas Co., president, is general chairman of the Fair's over-all youth activities for 1954.

Toughness Might Aid Traffic Safety

In view of the mounting number of automotive and pedestrian fatalities and injuries, more and more people who are striving for safety on streets and highways of this nation are saying: "Get tough!" It appears to be the viewpoint of these persons that politeness may be all right normally but that with a certain element of motorists—and pedestrians, too—it just doesn't pay off, except in death and suffering.

Those who advocate hard-boiled treatment for traffic offenders declare: "Get tough on driver licensing procedures" . . . "Get tough on law enforcement" . . . "Get tough on penalties for violations" . . . "Get tough on drunken drivers" . . . "Get tough on teen-age speed demons" . . . "Get tough on defective vehicles" . . . "Get tough on traffic safety engineering." Those typical comments were reported by Edmond C. Powers of Cleveland.

Powers' summary of growing public opinion takes the following course:

"If we are determined to reduce highway slaughter, we should be as tough in dealing with the situation as we would be in resisting an invasion or any other agent of destruction.

"Thirty-eight thousand deaths, more than a million injured people, and an economic loss of nearly 4 billion dollars every year is a crime of the worst order.

"Mealy-mouthed measures never won a war and in terms of death and destruction, traffic accidents are the costliest conflict in our history.

"Driver education in our schools, group meetings and discussions, traffic safety organizations, public appeals through press, radio and television, all serve a useful purpose.

"But until we drive home the real seriousness of the accident problem by direct disciplinary measures, we have little hope of reducing accidents to any great extent.

"These disciplinary measures should include revocation of licenses by habitually thoughtless and incompetent drivers, ridding our streets and thoroughfares of unsafe vehicles, refusal to issue licenses to mentally and physically unfit, and application of our best thought to the engineering of safety into our existing and our new thoroughfares.

"It all boils down to a tough policy on the part of authorities at all levels of traffic administration and regulation.

"Until this tough policy goes into action, we are just begging the question of how to reduce accidents."

All of the above seems to provide a workable foundation on which to build a program that could make life more certain for a lot of us. But the big question is are we, the public, interested in making things tough enough to clear large numbers of dangerous motorists and careless pedestrians from the streets and highways?

Or will we continue to take comfort from the belief that "it won't happen to me," and go on blissfully killing and being killed?

QUOTING OUR NEIGHBORS

Guilt's leathery wings keep flapping in my ears each time I admit to my conscience that I have broken faith with tradition of the cowboy. Riders in the glittering hills of Valhalla must share my shame like the burden of a friend's betrayal. I have ridden a new saddle designed for comfort; luxury. I have ridden on quilted leather upholstered by sponge rubber at points where a saddle can use a little comfort. Frankly, the experience was a revelation, and I am given to ponder the whims of destiny. Through the development of the automobile which made the horse obsolete, foam rubber was perfected, which in turn has made riding a horse bearable.

Car Failed To Click When Newspaper Ads Are Stopped
We have just received an interesting letter from the agency which handles the advertising account of a well known car. As soon as the new model hits the display rooms, newspapers will be called upon to tell the story, through regular newspaper advertising.

The story is that the dealers demanded that the company cease newspaper advertising, and place the advertising money of the company in radio and television. The plan has been a flop, as you might know. Radio and TV are too high in price and do not do the job that newspapers can do for any LOCAL POWER PLANT MAKES IMPROVEMENTS—The Memphis Electric & Ice Company is making extensive improvements in its power and ice plant. Recent additions have included a 150-horsepower engine, a new condenser, placing jackets on the boilers and putting in a new concrete floor.

STRICTLY PERSONAL—Jet Brumley of Hedley was in Memphis Tuesday.—Miss Beulah Evans was a visitor here Saturday.—Bill Rowell of Newlin was in town today.

The auto dealers should keep their opinions to themselves and allow the advertising experts to handle the account. Radio and TV have never sold cars, and a close comparison of the sales show the results.

Skaggs is the daughter of the Greers.

The accident occurred when the trailer which was loaded with hogs broke loose from a pickup that was driven by Richard Wayne Stotts of Giles, according to Donley County Sheriff Truett Behrens.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whited of Amarillo were following Stotts. When the trailer broke loose, Mrs. Whited, who was driving swerved her car off the highway and the couple was not injured.

Greer had lived at Amarillo for about six years and was employed at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the First Baptist Church at Hedley, with Rev. O. L. Jones, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Rowe Cemetery, Hedley, under direction of Spicer Funeral Home.
