City: Don't mess with trash codes

By MARTHA TOLES FROST
City Editor

By October of 1997, Muleshoe may not have a landfill to help deal with its volume of trash.

Time is running out on a two-year "arid extension" granted by the federal government.

"We think we can last as long as the extension," said City secretary Mary Hicks, referring to the landfill's life expectancy.

Muleshoe City Council recently passed amendments to the City's garbage and refuse code to help alleviate the problem of too much trash—by holding people financially responsible.

"We would like to reduce the volume, if we can," City Manager Dave Marr, Jr. said.

People can easily reduce the size of bulky objects like cardboard boxes they place in a dumpster. Cutting tree limbs to four-foot lengths helps, Marr said, because "the bigger the lengths, the more air you have to transport."

Liquids in trash cause problems, because trash trucks are not air-tight, and liquids cause solid waste to putrify and smell, as well as adding extra volume.

Strict enforcement of existing ordinances and the addition of new ordinances requiring people to pay for extra pickups or return trips, will have little effect on anyone but heavy users of the City's sanitation services, Marr said. "And they can reduce their volume if they wish to recycle."

Many of the stipulations of the trash and refuse code ask residents to use "common sense" in dealing with their trash, Marr said.

Nominations sought for Chamber awards

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is seeking nominations for the Chamber's Man of the Year, Woman of the Year and Farm Family of the Year.

The winners will be announced during the Chamber's annual banquet March 30.

Nominations should be sent to the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, 215 S. 1st St., Muleshoe 79347. The deadline is March 13.

Last year, Muleshoe community leader Max King, owner of King Grain, was named the Man of the Year; Muleshoe Healthcare activities director Joy Stancell of Lariat was named Woman of the Year; and Darrell Mason and Sons of Parmer County were selected Farm Family of the Year.

Tickets are now on sale for the all-you-can-eat steak and shrimp dinner. The price is $50 per person and includes entertainment by country musician/comedian Mike Snider, a member of the Hee Haw cast for seven years.

Tickets can be purchased at the Chamber office or through a Chamber Board member.

Snow and spirituality at ski retreat

Youths from Muleshoe savored a mixture of snow and spirituality at a ski retreat to Wolf Creek Pass during Muleshoe ISD's scheduled holiday last weekend.

First Baptist Church youth leader Donovan Martin headed up the caravan of three vehicles that transported youths of various faiths to a place of "awesome jumps" and too many trails to hit them all in two days of skiing.

The group of 21 youths and four adult sponsors stayed at Ute Bluff Lodge in South Fork, Colo., where they gathered at night beside the fireplace in the fellowship room to hear Martin talk about religion and his learning experiences rappelling and bike-riding.

His first talk, on faith that translates into action,

Martha Toles Frost

was about the bravery required to rapel off a mountain if you have never done it before—and everyone thinks you have.

His second talk, about crashing and burning in a bicycle spill in front of his friends, was about "pride that goeth before a fall."

During the daylight hours, the junior high and high school students—who enjoyed lots of skiing and eating sandwiches packed by Ed and Kay of the Arrowhead Cafe—met at the ski lodge "Base Camp" to tell of their experiences.

"Thumper (the name of a trail). It sounds so easy," said Amber Bruns. "But there were like fifty zillion hills. Up and down, gaining speed, I thought I might hit a tree. I can go down fast, but I just cannot stop—that's the hardest thing."

Blake Mount would return to the lodge with the front corner of his icy snowboard chipped from a run-in with something harder than packed snow.

"I learned it's not that easy to ski—it's very hard," said Kendra Kenmore, who took a half-day lesson. "I can do good. I just can't turn straight."

Sponsor Sandy Adair also took her first skiing lesson during the trip. By the second day, she had ventured to the top of "The Great Divide."

"I didn't fall once," said sponsor Marilyn Young,

Sudan eliminates Lazbuddie late

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

FARWELL — Sudan wasn't ready to give up its state title.

Jerimi Bourland scored 15 of his 17 points in the fourth quarter and defending state champion Sudan made all the big plays in the last four minutes of a 72-61 win over Lazbuddie Thursday in a Class A bi-district game at Farwell High School.

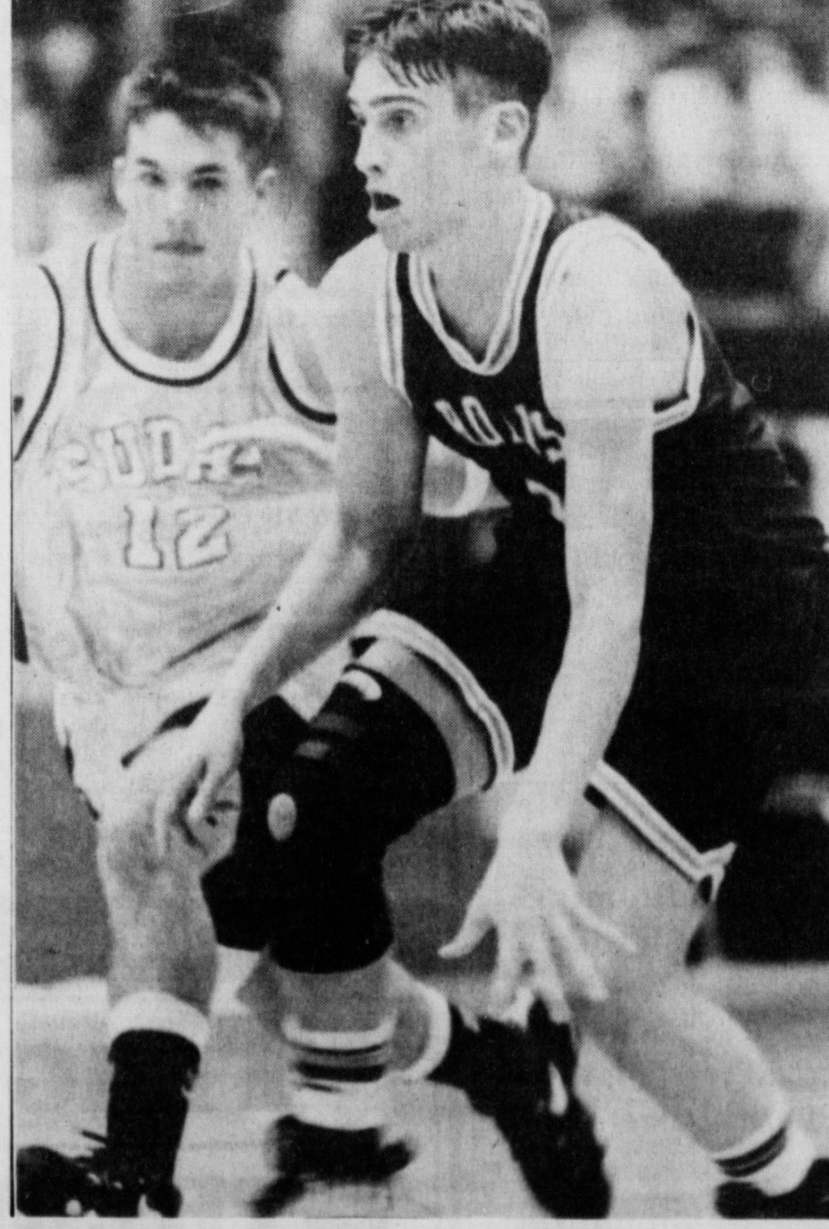

Trailing by five after three quarters, Sudan outscored Lazbuddie 31-15 in the fourth.

"It's so disappointing, because we outplayed them," Lazbuddie coach Gary Grahn said. "We pounded on them for three quarters, then let the opportunity slip through our hands. Turnovers and mental mistakes killed us."

Lazbuddie was one play away from taking control of the game throughout most of the game, but couldn't come up with the back-breaking basket or decisive defensive stop.

Credit the savvy that gets Sudan deep into the state playoffs most years.

Renowned trainer appearing in Portales

It may look like hypnotism or witchcraft but Craig Cameron uses horse psychology to turn untrained colts into "educated" horses. Craig Cameron will be giving seminars on his gentle colt-breaking and training techniques during the New Mexico Agricultural Expo February 27-29, 1996 in Portales at the Roosevelt County Fairground.

Patience and understanding are the keys to Cameron's training techniques. "Teaching the horse the way I'd like somebody to teach me is what I'm trying to do. I kind of work through the Golden Rule with him."

Cameron starts more than 200 horses a year, including 2-year-olds for some of the top cutting operations in Texas. He has also competed as a professional rodeo cowboy in bronc and bull riding throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Cameron has been training horses for more than 15 years. He originated and developed his own colt breaking techniques and gained a solid reputation with the top cutting operations in Texas. His methods and philosophies have been featured in Horseman Magazine, Western Horseman and on "The Eyes of Texas" and "Country Reporter" television shows.

He also holds both private and group seminars in "Gentle Horse-Breaking and Round Pen Training." His seminars in Texas, California, Nevada and Colorado have drawn widespread interest. At the Ag Expo, he will have seminars on February 27-29 at 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Orin Barnes is also a professional horse trainer, but at this year's Ag Expo he will be bringing his skills as a stock dog trainer. He has been training dogs for the past 10 years and has won the Texas Championship Sheep Dog Trails in 1987, 1988 and 1989. He has also won state fair dog trails in New Mexico, Colorado and Oklahoma.

AROUND MULESHOE

Lazbuddie family cashes in on Cash 5 Lottery

Lazbuddie — Using a numerical code that might make the CIA jealous, Eva Alcalá turned random numbers into cash in the Texas Lottery Feb. 16.

Alcalá, a Lazbuddie resident, matched five numbers in the Cash 5 game and won $47,452. Her numbers were 5, 8, 18, 21 and 35.

Alcalá said he picked 5 because her daughter was born May 5, 1977. She and her husband were married on Aug. 1, the eighth month of the year. She picked 18 because her youngest daughter is now 18 years old. She chose 21 because her other daughter is now 21.

Alcalá said she and her husband are both 45 years of age, but the Cash 5 numbers only go to 39, so she chose 35.

Alcalá almost didn't buy the lottery ticket, however. She was returning home from a doctor's visit in Plainview when her niece asked if she wanted to stop and buy a lottery ticket.

"I said, 'Well, I don't think so. Not today,'" Alcalá said. "When we got to Earth, she said, 'Are you sure?' And I said, 'Let's buy a dollar's worth.' And it was the winning ticket."

She said she plans to use the money to pay bills and to help her two daughters, both students at Clovis Community College, with their college education.

She added that she will keep playing the lottery. She said she and her husband had plans to play again Feb. 20.

CLOVIS, N.M. — Theresa Copley of Muleshoe and Eva Alcalá and Donna Cozby of Lazbuddie were named to the 1995 fall Dean's list at Clovis Community College.

These students earned at least a 3.5 grade point average while enrolled in 12 or more credit hours during the fall semester.

who accompanied her. But Young admitted reluctantly, "I didn't challenge myself. After all these years, I still take the baby slopes."

Dustin Cleavinger, who has been skiing every year since he was 3 years old and who has mastered the trails of Purgatory, Taos, Winter Park and Sipapu, says he likes "the Cleavinger cabin, the cold, and getting away from Muleshoe—and you can go fast."

On the way home, most of the young skiers slept or read the obligatory library books they had carried faithfully during the trip, previously unopened.

Adair, a science teacher who loves nature, pointed out the geographic and biological sights, fielding questions about everything from the moss on rocks to the way the water flows east to the Atlantic and west to the Pacific down the slopes Great Divide.

The day before Muleshoe's skiers arrived at Wolf Creek, a lift had broken, leaving passengers dangling, having to be rescued crying and screaming.

Muleshoe teenagers escaped the disaster completely and returned home with no serious injuries.

But some of the students awoke soon after the ski trip with unwelcome souvenirs—shared cases of "hot tub grunge" to intensify their memories.

Hospital to up collection efforts

By MARTHA TOLES FROST
City Editor

Muleshoe Area Hospital District is stepping up measures to collect unpaid balances, after writing off nearly $2 million in bad debts last year.

"We have to write off charges that third party payers (insurance companies, Medicare, Medicaid, etc.) do not pay and which we cannot collect from patients," said hospital administrator Richard Murphy.

These "contractual adjustments" amounted to more than $1.5 million last year, Murphy said, plus almost half a million in other uncollectable patient bills.

Controller Jerri Wilson reported Thursday to hospital board members the policies and plans the business office is implementing to enhance collections.

Patient account representative Alonzo Garcia is making phone calls—trying to work with people on their accounts and setting up payment plans.

The new collection procedures have not been in place long enough to produce a measurable change in the collection rate, Wilson said, as Garcia has been employed only 20 working days, with part of that time spent in training and setting up a system.

Murphy said the collection rate is presently 60 percent, and he would like to see this raised as much as possible. The average hospital bill is not collected for 60 to 120 days. Murphy would like to see 90 days as the maximum wait.

"After 90 days, we will look at turning over the (unpaid) accounts to a collection agency or to the courts, whichever is applicable."

In other business, the board moved to purchase new respiratory equipment (a blood gas analyzer) and considered an eight percent rate increase paralleling a Blue Cross/Blue Shield rate increase.

Blue Cross/Blue Shield has authorized the hospital to raise its rates eight percent on services it covers, Murphy said.

"The prices we charge for pharmacy services and disposable goods is based on a formula of cost that doesn't change. We are reviewing prices to see the price is applicable to the service."

Dental insurance and cafeteria plans for employees also were considered.

Plan 125, the cafeteria plan, would allow payroll deductions before taxes for meals purchased by employees from the hospital cafeteria.

Mulshoe beats Lubbock Cooper in season-opener

By RICK WHITE
Managing Editor

Alfredo Gonzales isn't easily satisfied. Gonzales kept Mulshoe in the game with five workhorse innings, leaving the mound with the game tied at 7.

Then in the bottom half of the inning, Gonzales stroked a two-run single, helping Mulshoe beat Lubbock Cooper, 10-7, at the Babe Ruth Field Friday in the season-opener for both teams.

"I didn't think I did a good job pitching, so I wanted to do something with the bat or on defense," said Gonzales, who moved to shortstop the last two innings.

Gonzales allowed nine hits, while walking six and striking out one. He was 2-for-3 at the plate.

Gonzales was making the start in place of John Embry, who was suspended for one game earlier in the day for a school-related disciplinary problem.

"He was just leaving the ball up," said Mulshoe first-year coach Brad Hill after earning his first career win. "He did a great job of keeping us in the game and gave us the innings we needed. He just needs more work in the pen."

Junior Layne Kemp picked up the save with two impressive innings of relief, retiring all six batters he faced.

Kemp struck out two and got help in when Jarred Redwine made a sliding catch of a sinking liner down the left-field line for the second out of the seventh.

"That was important because it was a seesaw game," Hill said. "I think it gave the kids a little momentum by keeping the lead. The kids saw he was going to throw strikes."

B.J. Gonzales and Jeff Wheeler added

Fine form

Mulshoe's Alfredo Gonzales uncorks a pitch during the Mules' 9-7 season-opening win over Lubbock Cooper Friday at the Babe Ruth Field.

two hits each for the Mules, who finished with eight. Gonzales scored twice and Wheeler drove in two runs.

"We hit the ball well and that was one of my main concerns," Hill. "We made a lot of mental mistakes, but those kinds of things will take care of themselves as the season goes on and we get some experience."

Sam Gonzales was 3-4 with two doubles and two RBI for Lubbock Cooper. David Vitz added two doubles and two RBI.

Mulshoe tied for the game in the fourth on RBI singles by Redwine and Kemp.

Wheeler led off the fifth with a walk, moved to third when Cooper threw away Johnny Flores sacrifice bunt, with Flores reaching second. Gonzales was hit by a pitch to load the bases. A four-pitch walk to Kemp made it 8-7, then Gonzales stroked a 1-1 pitch up the middle, scoring Flores and pinch runner Matt McClanahan.

Cooper scored four times in the score, four times in the third and twice in the fourth, with Gonzales ripping RBI doubles down the left-field line in both innings.

Mulshoe scored four times in the first inning on two hits, and tied the game at 5-5 in the third when Gonzales scored on Michael Woodard's fielder's choice.

Cooper took a 7-5 lead in the fourth when a tiring Gonzales walked in two runs.

all year and all their careers," Grahn said. "We were well aware of that and it scared us."

Bourland, who signed with the University of Hawaii to play quarterback earlier this month, passed off praise to his teammates when faced with a blitz of questions about his stellar fourth-quarter play.

"We had three starters coming back and everybody else has been in these kind of situations all year," said Bourland, who added three steals in Sudan's game-breaking 18-1 run down the stretch. "When it's their turn to step up they do."

Like freshman Chris Weaver, who turned a forced shot into a three-point play with four seconds left in the third quarter.

Like senior Roger Huey (21 points), who hit a 3-pointer from somewhere near the fourth row of the parking lot (about 25 feet) to start the fourth quarter, pulling Sudan within 46-44.

Like junior post Daniel Lee, who converted an offensive rebound into a three-point play, giving Sudan a 60-53 lead with 2:42 left in the game.

District 7-1A runnerup Sudan (17-7) plays District 5-1A runnerup McLean in the area playoffs next week.

District 8-1A champion Lazbuddie (25-8) set a school record for wins. It was Lazbuddie's first district title since 1971. The Longhorns beat Sudan, 62-55, during the regular season.

Fast fact

Sudan outscored Lazbuddie 18-1 over a four minute stretch in the fourth quarter to erase a five-point deficit after three quarters.

"I hope the young kids learn a lot about playing in big games," said Grahn, who loses just two seniors (Josh Warren and Guy Nickels). "But we can't let this one game destroy our season."

Junior Justin St. Clair led Lazbuddie with 15 points and 6-foot-6 sophomore post Jason Thomas finished with 11 points getting into foul trouble.

St. Clair took over the game for Lazbuddie early in the fourth quarter when Thomas went to the bench with his fourth foul. St. Clair turned an offensive rebound into a three-point play, then fed Israel Lopez (six points) in the paint for an easy hoop, giving the Longhorns a 53-48 lead with 4:35 left in the game.

Bourland's 3-pointer 20 seconds later started Sudan's 18-1 run that lasted until there was just 1:19 left.

"We were doing all the things we had worked on in practice. They just weren't going right in the first half," Bourland said. "Then I guess we started hustling more and anticipating passes and everything fell right in place."

Lazbuddie was getting the ball to the right place most of the game, inside to Thomas and Nickels (nine points).

But the Longhorns missed a ton of shots within five feet of the basket, partly because Sudan collapsed hard once the ball was dumped inside. "We knew they could get the ball inside, so we wanted to collapse on them so they couldn't put the ball on the floor," Sudan coach Doug Boxell said.

Lazbuddie used a 10-0 run, in the second quarter to take a 27-21 halftime lead.

Chris Smith had seven points for the Longhorns. Thomas and Nickels added six points each.

Lazbuddie held the lead until a 3-pointer by Lee Ray tied it at 36 midway through the third quarter. After the teams traded buckets, Lazbuddie scored the next eight points.

Senior Josh Warren (six points) scored on a pair of drives, St. Clair slashed into the paint for another score, and Smith capped the spurt with a baseline drive to make it 46-38 with 13 seconds left in the third.

Then Bourland and Sudan tradition took over.

Lazbuddie (61) — St. Clair 7-1-15, Nickels 4-1-29, Warren 3-0-0-6, Smith 2 (1) 2-4-9, Foster 1-0-0-2, Brown 1-1-3, Lopez 3-0-0-6, Thomas 5-1-2-11. Totals 26 (1) 6-10-61.

Trash

For instance, residents are asked not to pile their trash beside dumpsters behind someone else's house, or in such a way that it interferes with access by garbage trucks or meter readers.

Marr said people should remember to close dumpster lids hopefully not with a cat inside. "Cats often make it to the top of the trash after being transported to the landfill and emerge stunned and lost," Marr said.

It is illegal to scavenge or rummage through the trash. The ordinance is for the protection of people who might fall into a dumpster.

Asking small children to empty the trash for the family often results in trash not reaching dumpster, which is too tall a target for little children to hit accurately, Marr said.

It is illegal to place dead animals in dumpsters. The City has had few problems with this, as residents usually call animal control to deal with the problem, Marr said.

It is also illegal for people not paying a monthly sanitation charge to place trash or refuse in containers provided by the City.

The penalty for being found guilty of violating any of the provisions of the City's trash and refuse ordinances is a $200 fine per offense. Each offense is classified as a misdemeanor.

The City is cutting its commercial trips from five to three pickups per week to save money and to encourage people who need an extra dumpster to ask for it.

For residential areas, the collection trucks normally try to make one pickup per week during winter months, but usually need to make two trips during the summer, Hicks said.

A City ordinance requires heavy accumulations from construction or tree trimming to be disposed of at the expense of the person responsible. This will now be enforced, Marr said.

Fees for large accumulations will reflect the use of the sanitation vehicle, the cost of delivering and unloading the vehicle, plus a fee for using the City disposal area.

Some Thoughts On Caterpillars and Tadpoles

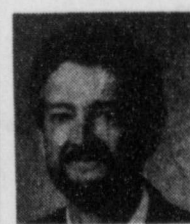

As the story goes, two caterpillars once sat on a green leaf watching the aerial acrobatics of a beautifully-colored butterfly. They watched as the nimble butterfly deftly performed loops, rolls, and all manner of seemingly complicated and dangerous manueflies and tadpoles into frogs. The word is metamorphosis. The dictionary defines it this way: "a transformation; a marked change in appearance, character, condition, or function." A metamorphosis is a change, a transformation.

Did you realize that the Apostle Paul uses this very word in the familiar passage in Romans 12:2? "Do not be conformed to this world," he writes, "but be transformed by the renewal of your mind." Experience a metamorphosis. Be transformed. Be changed.

Change is rarely comfortable. Doubtless our friend the caterpillar will be distressed when he and his companions begin to feel an irrepressible desire to build cocoons. Surely Brother Tad Pole will be frightened when he feels legs beginning to protrude and his tail starts to disappear.

Giving our lives to God and trusting Him to begin a spiritual transformation in them can also be frightening. After all, we don't know what He may have in mind. One thing is sure—the change will be for the better. I think you'll agree—it is better to be even a fledgling butterfly than to be a worm with potential!

Focus On Faith
Curtis Shelburne

vers. Finally one caterpillar announced to the other, "You'd never get me up in a thing like that!"

Do you suppose a tadpole swimming comfortably in the cool safety of his pond might have similar feelings as he sees a frog sitting on the creek bank? "Look at that poor miserable creature," he might say to a brother tadpole. "How would you like to have to swim in jerks and move about on the ground in the air in undignified hops? Look how unbecoming those long legs are! I tell you, we should be thankful to have been born tadpoles!"

Biologists use a sixty-four dollar word for the process that changes caterpillars into butter-

ON THE EDGE OF COMMON SENSE

"Just count me out," said Wilford as he lay there in the dirt,
 A shoein' rasp behind his ear, a hoof print on his shirt.
 "I'll handle this," said Freddie, "You jus' git outta the way."
 This sorry bag of buzzard bait has met his match today."
 The horse weren't much to look at, not the kind you'd prob'ly buy
 But you wouldn't know he's bad news till you looked him in the eye.
 It was small and mean and glittered, as deep as Jacob's well,
 Like lookin' down the smoke stack of the furnace room in Hell.
 Freddie grabbed a set of nippers and bent to grab a hoof.
 When he woke up... his shoein' chaps were danglin' from the roof. His shirt tail hung in tatters and his watch had come unwound.
 The nipper's orbit finally peaked and clattered to the ground.
 "You get a twitch," said Freddie, "I'm about to clean his clock."
 He tied a rope around his neck and fished it past the hock
 Then pulled back on the sideline to instill a little fear
 When Pigeye bit a good sized chunk from Wilford's offside ear.
 Wilford tangled in the sideline and tried to navigate
 While draggin' round the horse corral like a alligator bait.
 Freddie tried to stop this trollin' with a loop around the head,
 And it mighta worked if Freddie'd only roped the horse instead.
 But, of course, he caught pore Wilford, who left a funny track...
 ...Sorta like an oil slick, when Freddie jerked the slack.
 By now the boys were grouchy from this troublesome travail

 They figgered they'd be done by noon, but they'd not drove a nail.
 "Go git the Power Wagon! We'll winch him to a post."
 They got the cayuse necked up tight, and set to work...almost
 'Cause the halter broke and Pigeye walked the length of Freddie's back.
 They rolled beneath the axle like two lovers in the sack.
 Freddie heard the sound of gunfire like a thousand rifle choirs,
 "I've got the sucker pinned down, Fred, I shot out all the tires!"
 It was dark when Wilford stood up and laid his hammer down
 A gross of crooked City Heads lay scattered all around.
 Long lengths of rope stretched from the horse still pinioned underneath.
 They ran to old appliances and harrows missing teeth,
 To concrete bridge abutments, to a broke down drillin' rig
 And a set of post hole diggers somebody'd left mid-dig.
 The place looked like a cross between a drunken spider's web
 And a yard sale after Chernobyl's red glow'd begun to ebb.
 Wilford couldn't move his elbow but he grinned and proudly said,
 "Ol pard, we done a good day's work," to what was left to Fred.
 Just look at that shoein' job. Them clinches in a row.
 It's such a good example we should make a video"
 Freddie gazed around the battlefield and rubbed his aching knee,
 "What say, we wait till mornin' to put on the other three..."

Sowder, Tiller Trull re-elected to 5-Area board

Five Area Telephone Cooperative, Inc. held its annual membership meeting, Saturday, Feb. 17. Although the attendance was down the meeting was successful, organizers said.
 Each year it becomes more difficult to schedule the meeting with competition from school breaks, ball games, stock shows and other school activities, as well as weekend trips and weather.

The annual meeting is typically an opportunity for cooperative members to receive information concerning the financial health of the cop, in an enjoyable format. Organizers said they hope for increased attendance in coming years.
 During the business meeting Joe Sowder of District #5, Maple; Billy Tiller of District #6, Bula; and Ernest Trull of District #7, Lehman, were all re-elected to a three-year terms. There were no by-law changes or additions. The annual report was presented by the cooperative auditor and a board resolution was presented to Ann Sowder in memory of Mickey Sowder.
 Topics discussed in the manager's report were capital credit refunds, extended local calling (ELC), distance learning for schools, Med-Link, library connections, and the Internet.

USDA Farm Service Agency news

Kim Hanlin, Bailey County Executive Director

Emergency grazing

Bailey County has been approved for emergency grazing of CRP Acreage. Producers wishing to graze their CRP Acreage must come into the office and file a request prior to grazing of the CRP Acreage. Producers must also modify the conservation plan with grazing restrictions. This will be determined by NRCS. Producers will also be assessed a payment reduction of 10% of the annual rental payment, and must leave at least 25% of each field or contiguous field ungrazed for wildlife cover. Participants must install livestock facilities, such as watering facilities or fences at their own expense, and agree to re-establish CRP grass cover at participant's own expense should the grass cover fail as a result of the grazing. Grazing of the CRP Acreage will be permitted until March 31, 1996, and may be used to feed livestock owned or leased by the CRP participants, or rent or lease to a livestock producer from an approved county. For more information, contact the FSA Office at (806) 272-4538.

Farm crop records

Producers are reminded to inform this office of any farm changes such as new owner or operator, address changes, cropland, etc.

Cat insurance

Producers with CAT Insurance with this office are reminded that the final date to cancel your policy with us is March 15, 1996. This is also the final date to purchase CAT Insurance with this office, and is also the final date to purchase a higher level multiperil crop insurance, if you wish to do so.

Wool and mohair

Wool, Mohair and unshorn lamb producers are reminded to submit their 1995 original sales receipts for incentive payment by February 29, 1996. The sales documents must be signed by the person who prepared the document.

Foreign investors

All agricultural land that is bought or sold by foreign investors must be reported to this office within 90 days of the transaction. Failure to report these transactions could result in severe penalties.

1996 farm bill

We still have no news on the 1996 farm bill. We will inform our producers as soon as we get any information.

Direct deposits

Producers who wish to do so can now choose direct deposit, which is a free service provided by FSA/CCC that allows producers to have payments electronically deposited to their bank. If you are interested in this service, please call this office for more information.

Open House

Bailey County FSA would like to invite you to an open house to welcome Kim Hanlin as our new CED. Kim came to work in the Bailey County Office on February 5, transferring here from El Paso County where he was CED. Kim and his wife Sheila, have three children, Cary, Ashley and Morgan. Kim was employed for many years in the Lamb County Office before going into CED training and moving to El Paso. We hope you will join us on Tuesday, March 5, 1996, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to meet Kim, and welcome him and his family to Bailey County.

USDA loans available for area farmers

Applications for emergency farm loans are being accepted at the Bailey County Farm Service Agency office in Muleshoe.

Bailey County is one of six in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from excessive rain, flood, hail and high winds weather conditions.

Farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest is 3.75 percent.

"As a general rule, a farmer must have suffered at least a 30 percent loss of production to be eligible for an FSA emergency loan," County Supervisor Joyce Thompson said. Farmers participating in Federal Crop Insurance program will have to figure in proceeds from those programs in determining their loss.

Applications for loans under this emergency designation will be accepted until October 9, 1996 but farmers should apply as soon as possible. Delays in applying could create backlogs in processing and possibly over into the new farming season," Ms. Thompson said.

FSA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It is authorized to provide disaster emergency loans to recognized farmers who work at and rely on farming for a substantial part of their living. Eligibility is extended to individual farmers who are U.S. citizens and to farming partnerships, corporations or cooperatives in which U.S. citizens hold a majority interest. The FSA office in Muleshoe is open from 8 to 5 Monday through Friday.

What do you think when you see a cross?

Is the cross merely a symbol saying "Here is a Church," or even, "a man was crucified"? Does the cross not rather in language too vivid and real for words that God's love knows no limits? "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." The cross is the ultimate dramatic performance of God's love and man's rejection of it. God's love knows no bounds, He follows us to the ends of the earth, no matter what the cost to Himself - or us. As we run from His love, we again nail Him to the cross - and fill the emptiness in our lives with love of self. The cross is the monument to that love which knows no bounds. Verily He knocks at the portals of your heart, and He will keep knocking until you let Him in.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

Is something wrong with your life - is there restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and restore. Through the church God has promised the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relationship one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church in everyone!
