

Civic Center stormed by angry protesters against Texcor

By Les Roper, Kinney Cavalryman Writer

CIVIC CENTER -- State Representatives, County Commissioners, City Mayors, City Council Members, Department Heads, Attorneys, and concerned citizens "stormed" the Civic Center Tuesday morning in protest to the radioactive waste disposal site that is in the planning stages by Charles Salsman and Texcor, Inc.

The hearing that was set up by the Texas Department of Health drew a standing room only crowd estimated in excess of 800 including participants and spectators.

A demonstration by a large group of protesters of the waste site was held outside the Civic Center before the hearing got under way with old and young alike participating.

Hearing examiner, Gordon W. Hardin, was earlier interviewed and chosen for the job by the Texas Department of Health. His previous work for the TDH led to his being chosen for this project. Representing the C.A.R.E. organization was Rich Lowry from Austin while Jed Hill represented Texcor.

Leading the list of blue ribbon representatives who were on hand to speak out against the dump site was State Rep. D-Alpine, Pete Gallego, along with a host of others. Evaristo Perez Arreola, mayor of Ciudad Acuna, Mexico, Oscar Rodriguez, city manager of Eagle Pass, James Thurman, city manager of Uvalde, Carmen Rivera Worley, county attorney for Val Verde County, Tim Ward, Kinney County Judge, Alex Solis, ranch foreman for Malone Co., Blake Williams, ranch owner whose land is adjacent to the Texcor site, James Saunders, attorney representing the city of Spofford, and many others. City commissioners and county commissioners from surrounding counties appeared to voice their disapproval. It was estimated that over 350 representatives from several different governmental organizations were on hand for the hearing.

It was quite obvious the protesters were not from Kinney County alone. They had traveled to the hearing from a radius of 50 to 75 miles. Many of them were reasonably sure that their areas would not be affected by the dump site but their compassion for their neighbors and friends who resided just a few short miles away compelled them to come forward in defense of this little southwest Texas town.

A steady flow of onlookers were in and out for the entire meeting. The crowd did drop off some in the afternoon, but interest remained at a very high level of intensity.

The hearing was very orderly and without incident. The only show of disfavor by the crowd was during James "Sonny" Harrison's short and well worded speech endorsing the Texcor project. When the murmuring began to intensify it was quickly squelched by Mr. Hardin.

Now, on the positive side ... it was very heart warming to see a small community of people, whose closest neighbor is 30 miles to the west, band together and rise to the occasion. This group of old settlers and new residents who make up the population of Kinney County feel as though they are being mistreated by the government they love and support. They honestly feel that they have a Governor who is sincerely interested and concerned with their problem but the bureaucracy that seems to dictate the power of state government has intervened once again and halted her effort. Yet, they feel betrayed.

These southwest Texas citizens do not care about having their name in the newspaper nor do they care about seeing themselves on National television. They just want to be left alone where they can continue their love of life and know in their hearts that the loved ones that they will leave behind will be able to enjoy the same quality of life they have enjoyed. The uniqueness of these people is their unselfishness. They are not necessarily thinking about their own welfare as much as they are their children and grandchildren who will be forced to move and relocate if this horrible injustice is not corrected. Their love for their children and friends is indescribable.

The citizens of Brackettville and Kinney County are being encouraged to write to Governor Ann Richards requesting her immediate action on

CIVIC CENTER -- The 1991 Chamber of Commerce banquet and beauty pageant is now being recorded into the history books and when it is read in future years the word success will appear many times.

Four of Kinney County's most beautiful and vivacious young ladies displayed their remarkable talents which included comedy, poetry, singing, and pantomimes along with a feminine charm that completely captivated the overflow crowd. In the words of LaShawn Wardlaw, the very lovely and talented master of ceremonies, "it was truly a night to remember."

This gorgeous group of fledgling females who were vying for the title of "Miss Kinney County" was Michelle Brandt, sponsored by the Stop-n-Shop, Charlie Hall, Lazy J Ranch, Wendy McDaniel, Davis Hardware, and Jenifer Shahan, Alamo Village.

Even though all of the young ladies were queens within their own rights the night belonged to Wendy McDaniel, daughter of Jim and Jennifer McDaniel, as she was crowned Miss Kinney County 1991-92. The judging was very close according to the judges, but after all of the points were added together in the various categories, Miss McDaniel's name surfaced to the top.

The runner-up spot went to freshman, Charlie Hall, daughter of Chuck and Connie Hall, as she brought the house down with a Minnie Pearl skit. This young lady showed a poise usually found in older girls and this, along with her talent, created a difficult task for the judges.

With her little black eyes sparkling and her devious little smile radiating a childlike innocence, Cathy Herman, daughter of Jennifer Herman and granddaughter of Bill and Sandy Herman, completely captured the hearts of the judges and earned her the title of "Little Miss Kinney County". When her grandmother, Sandy, was asked if Cathy was spoiled, she smiled and answered, "Isn't that what grandchildren are for?"

Little Alex Gonzalez, son of Resendo and Benita Gonzalez, grandson of Manuel and Keta Villarreal, is the "Little Mister Kinney County." He stole the hearts of the audience when he waved to everyone and then clapped his hands with approval when the audience clapped theirs.

On hand, representing the C of C was president, Glen Seaver, Jr., vice president, Allen Kreiger, Jr., Treasurer, Kathryn Letsinger, Executive Secretary, Mary Seaver, and members Larry Sofaly, Dennis Dodson, Archie Woodson, LaShawn Wardlaw, and Charles Ingram.

The four young, luminous ladies opened the pageant with a dance routine to the tune of "Stars and Stripes."

Following their dance routine Shelley McDaniel, Miss Kinney County 1990 was introduced and, as usual, she radiated the beauty and talent that won her the crown. Miss McDaniel will be leaving Brackettville shortly to continue her education at Texas Tech. With her lovely smile coupled with a charm seldom seen in young ladies her age, she should be a "sure fire" hit starting with her first day on campus.

The Alamo Village Originals, led by western singer, Sergio Salinas, entertained the audience along with Amber Leigh and the rest of the band. When Salinas "cut loose" on "I've Got Friends in Lower Places" the western music lovers immediately recognized a winner in this young cowboy singer.

The entire extravaganza would not have been possible had it not been for the supporters in Kinney County who always seem to come through when they are needed. Lashawn Wardlaw served as Director and Coordinator, Helen Seargeant, Choreographer, Nancy Frerich, Programs, Don Ralston, Stage Construction, Allen Kreiger, Jr., Lighting, Marie Sofaly, Special gifts and prize coordinator, Sondra Meil, Stage Decorations, and Nelda Archer, Stage Decorations.

A very special thanks go out to Happy Shahan's Alamo Village, the First State Bank of Brackettville, Mona Miller, Chamber of Commerce, and the wonderful western music provided by the Alamo Village Originals.

Court to work on Pct. redistricting

By LES ROPER
Cavalryman Editor

COURTHOUSE -- The Commissioners Court was called to order Monday morning at nine o'clock in the county courtroom by Judge, Tim Ward. After the Pledge of Allegiance and the Invocation, the business at hand got under way.

The minutes were read and approved by the quorum of commissioners which included Plunker Sheedy, Ruben Fuentes, and Alvin McClure.

One of the highlights of the meeting was a resolution passed by the Commissioners recognizing Betty Deason, who recently passed away, for her dedication and service to Kinney County. Betty had served the county faithfully for the past few years as auditor, a position appointed by District Judge, George Thurman. She took great pride in her work and her ability was unsurpassed.

Judge Ward brought a report to the Court on the 911 emergency number. He had appointed Regina Pena to conduct a survey from the Judge's office on the 911 number. Miss Pena reported that she had contacted 132 persons from Fort Clark Springs in regards to the emergency number and 87 were in favor of it, 27 were not in favor of it, and 18 were undecided. From the Brackettville directory, Miss Pena contacted 296 persons with 202 in favor of 911, 40 were not in favor, and 54 were undecided. In a combined total of City, County, and Spofford, 428 persons were contacted with 289 in favor, 67 not in favor, and 72 undecided.

Another item of importance that was acted on was the approval of a resolution for the court to become a party in the hearing with the Texas Department of Health that will take place on June 11, 1991 at the Civic Center in regards to the Texcor project.

Under miscellaneous, Judge Ward again reminded the Court of the importance of the redistricting plan that is so imperative for Kinney County.

After amending the budget to cover the $10,343.88 incurred during the City and County Clean-up, a new line item was established for the coming year

Light Recipes Serve As 'Spring'-board To Thinness.

The arrival of spring is a sign of renewal—that wonderful time when people, as well as flowers, spring back to life. Unfortunately, spring follows winter, that time of year when holiday meals and inactivity help add a few extra pounds to even the most health-conscious eater. So, to millions of Americans spring-time has become an American rite of dieting and exercise.

But, while diet is the foundation of forming a thin, fit body, dieting is boring. Until now.

A new series of Light Recipes developed by Earth Grains bread offers calorie-conscious consumers an opportunity to melt away excess winter weight in imaginative ways.

The springboard to thinness begins with very thin bread and a set of 10 new and unique recipes, which feature Earth Grains Very Thin breads, that will help melt away excess winter weight without the normal suffering associated with unimaginative "diet" meals.

The recipes are easy to make and span the full mealtime spectrum:
breakfast, lunch, dinner and dessert. Best of all, none of the recipes contain more than 348 calories per serving.

For breakfast, try "Layered French Toast," featuring fresh fruits and a whipped topping;
"Sauer-Hot Dogs," featuring frankfurters, sauerkraut and sharp cheddar cheese, will add zest to an "ordinary" lunch. Keep right on going through dinner with "Sesame Stuffed Filets," which include fish, vegetables and sesame seeds. Top it off with dessert and "Apricot Bread Pudding" or
"Brunch Fruit Turnovers."

Other recipes include "Brunch Blintzes," "Four-Way Grilled Cheese," "Tomato Salad Sandwiches," "Shrimp/Cucumber Open Face Sandwich," and "Bread Crust
Quiche."

Brunch Fruit Turnovers

Beginning with Very Thin bread recipes, you can put your exercise program in high gear. Don't loaf this spring, start having fun with exercise and your diet—with Light Recipes. Soon, that winter bulge will disappear like the morning frost.

To acquire a free recipe card set,
consumers should send two U.P.C.
bar codes from any Earth Grains product and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Earth
Grains Light Recipes, P.O. Box

Ribbon cutting by Community Council

Cavalryman Reporter

FORT CLARK -- The ribbon cutting ceremony in front of Shaft-Hall took place last Saturday morning at eight forty-five o'clock before a partisan crowd. This marked the official opening of this building for the Fort Clark Community Council, which will be used for their monthly meetings and the weekly Bingo games.

This building had been chosen for this new venture after the Community Council met with the Fort Clark Board of Directors and discussed the use of the facility. There was work to be done on the building before it could be used, so the Council offered the Board enough money to cover the expense of the furnishings and the carpet if the Fort would bear the cost of the labor. An agreement was reached and resulted in the ribbon cutting that took place on Saturday.

Vice president, Vickie Nichols, was on hand with Board president, Rozetta Pingnot, and Sheriff Norman Hooten for the ceremony. It was another step forward in uniting the Community Council and the Fort Clark Board of Directors together and, in doing so, adding strength to their working relationship with one another.

The meeting was called to order by Miss Nichols, approximately 60 members were in attendance. Before any official business was approached special recognition was given to Ray Kurtz, one of Fort Clark's oldest settlers, for his undaunted efforts in organizing the Community Council. It has served as a liaison for the members for many years and continues to grow and develop from year to year.

After the minutes were read and approved and the financial reports were presented, future activities for the Community Council were presented by Miss Nichols. Also, a report on Board of Director activities.

After a short recess which included coffee and cookies, Norman Hooten was introduced as the guest speaker. He showed a video tape on Neighborhood Watch programs. He ended the meeting by answering questions from the audience.

In the 30's she met and married John T. Jones. They had one son Richard, (he & his wife, Linda have three children, Steven, Stacey and Shawn and granddaughter Stephanie).

In the late 30's, John and Jonesie tired of the dirt storms of Neb. and moved to Denver, Col. Her father owned a department store in Neb. which she worked in and when J. C. Penny bought his business, she went to work for them until her retirement. Besides throughout their married life, they lived in Houston Tx. and Galveston, Tx. They moved to Corpus Christi, Tx. in 1969 where they wanted to live after his retirement from B.F. Goodrich. John died in 1971 and Jonesie transferred back to Houston, still with J.C. Penny.

She visited Fort Clark in 1976 with some friends, fell in love with the place and bought a membership and moved here. Jonesie loves people, talking to and visiting with them. She also likes to change things and is always redoing a room in her home. Her hobbies are reading and watching TV.

She has traveled all over the U.S. and parts of Europe, also Hawaii, Australia, New Zealand, Mexico and Ireland. She has even kissed the Blarney Stone. ## "Honky ole Mae"

By LES ROPER
Cavalryman Reporter

FORT CLARK -- We nearly had a very unexpected visit a few weeks ago from President George Bush and his wife. He notified my wife and I that he was coming through town early and would like to have breakfast with us around six o'clock in the morning. I was overjoyed to have the "Big Boss" as a house guest and I just knew my wife would be elated also.

Wronnnnnnnng!!!
When I told "honky old Mae" about our guest and his arrival time, well ... you've heard about the shot heard around the world. Folks, she yelled so loud her voice traveled in both directions around the globe. She told me very emphatically, "I ain't gittin' up that time of the morning for none of your early rising friends." Well, needless to say I had to contact the president and cancel our visit.

Tuesday morning, I woke up pretty early (around five o'clock) and, very softly sneaked into the kitchen, not wanting to wake "ole Mae" up from her deep sleep. Lo and behold ... there in the kitchen stood my wife, fully dressed in golfing attire, with a cup of coffee in one hand and a putter in the other. She was pawing the ground like an "old race mare" on race day waiting for the starting gates to open. She looked at me and said, "Think I should call Mary Lee and make sure she don't oversleep?"

Boy howdy ... how that gal loves the game of golf!!!

The numbers were down for the ladies this past Tuesday morning but not the enthusiasm. They divided up and played a scramble and when the last "rabbit" went into the hole Luella Gilliland, Hilda Viestenz, and Lorraine Lundquist took the checkered flag. It was a winner take all game of golf and the winning team loved it.

"Honky ole Mae" came home the other day and told me she missed a hole in one ... by five strokes.

One of our local golfers who is known to have a sharp point and a big eraser on his score keeping pencil was heard saying, "I don't really cheat at playing golf. I play for my health and a low score makes me feel better."

Jarrett Harrison and "Tyler" concentrating on catching the big one. He is more familiar with the Las Moras than most adults who live here.

The "Huckleberry Finn" of Las Moras Creek

Cavalryman Reporter

FORT CLARK -- It would be very difficult to find someone who had never heard of Tom Sawyer or Huckleberry Finn. These two Mark Twain characters have been studied by every student who has ever learned to read and write. If they were not read about they were seen in movies that were made about them in Hollywood. Two famous young boys.

Fort Clark is very lucky in having it's very own Huckleberry Finn.

His name ... Jarrett Harrison. Sonny and Susan Harrison moved to Fort Clark from Del Rio about 8 years ago and at the time their baby boy, Jarrett, was 2 years of age. He was a pretty little guy with a very serious nature and no one ever figured he would spend the biggest part of his life on the banks of the Las Moras Creek, trying to catch the big one.

By the time Jarrett was 4 years old he had developed into quiet an angler. He could cast as good as anyone and he knew all the "hot spots" on the creek that might produce a big bass.

He and his dad, Sonny, had been fishing one morning when they spotted a big female bass sitting on her nest. He tried and tried to get the wily old fish to take his lure but no luck. His dad finally got tired and headed for home. He told Jarrett to be careful and come in at noon.

About 1 1/2 hours later this little "fishing expert" walked into the garage and called for his dad. Sonny walked out and the little rascal had caught the old bass. She weighed nearly 5 pounds and is now hanging on his wall.

Jarrett's mom, Susan, was asked about her son roaming the woods of Fort Clark and fishing the banks of the Las Moras at such an early age. She replied, "Of course, I worried about him but I didn't try to stop him. We just taught him to be careful and watch what he was doing."

He came in the other day wet and told his Dad that he was trying to retrieve a lure when the edge of the creek caved in with him and he fell into the water. Sonny had always taught the boy, who was an excellent swimmer at 4 years of age, to never get excited if he fell in.

Jarrett and Tyler ... a boy and his dog ... two familiar figures up and down the banks of the Las Moras who look like they just stepped out of the pages of Mark Twain's best seller and were painted by Norman Rockwell.

Alzafar Red Roadsters compete in Texas All-State Competition

By Bruce Clements
Cavalryman Contributing Writer

The Alzafar Red Roadsters, of which I am a member, won 3rd place in the Texas All-State Shrine Competition which was held in San Antonio June 6 thru 8.

There were about 6,500 Shriners and their Ladies that converged on San Antonio for the purpose of our All-State Competition. All 13 Temples in Texas were represented. Units competing, were Bowling Teams, Golf Units, Provost Guards, Mounted Horse Patrols, Motorized Vehicles, (Both two and four wheels), Clowns, and Marching Units. The two and four wheel vehicles were separated into 13 different groups according to the size of the wheels and the motor horsepower.

Thursday, all units were allowed to practice off the competition pads. Even though the Red Roadsters have been practicing once a week since March, we were not allowed to use the competition pads because it might give us the advantage over our competitors. Friday morning, we arrived at the Alzafar Temple at 8:00 a.m. and put the finishing touches to our vehicles and lined them up for inspection, then we dressed for our personal inspection. We were inspected by Air Force Personnel. We thought we were in trouble in the personnel inspection, for when one of our members (Bob Brooks) started to unload his vehicle, a car had pulled up behind him. Brooks, not knowing who was in the car, yelled, you can't park there, I need that space. The Lady moved her car, but when she got out, she was an Air Force Captain, and the Personnel Inspector. When she came in front of Brooks, she said, "I know you." Our hearts sank for we knew we were in trouble. But being a true military person, she did not let this interfere with her duty. In fact, she wrote on her inspection sheet, "This is the most Professional Team I inspected." Following the inspection, we then moved out to the pad and waited. We were unlucky in drawing for the position, we were the last ones to ride. We stood in the hot sun watching the other units ride, for what little shade there was, was taken by the spectators, among whom was our ladies.

Our ladies play an important part in our Unit, they see to it that our Uniforms are in tip-top shape and cheer us on as we ride. Jack Taunt, a former member of the Red Roadsters was there to watch. I am sure he was wishing he was still able to ride, but sickness caused him to have to drop out. We missed him as much as he missed us. As each of our competitors rode, we wished them good luck, but deep in our heart we were hoping they would foul up. Of course they wished us the same thing. Finally at 12:41 p.m. the P.A. Announcer said "Alzafar Roadsters are you ready?" By that time we were soaked and our uniforms looked as if they had been slept in. The time had arrived for what we had practiced 3 months for. As we entered the pad we began to feel great. Our maneuvers were going just perfect when one car broke down. The other seven finished without further mishaps. You cannot ride less than 8 minutes or more than 10 minutes. It is 3 points against you for any vehicle that does not finish the ride, therefore we felt certain we would not place, but Friday evening at the Awards Ceremony, to our surprise they announced us the 3rd place winner. Everything but the lost car had gone just about perfect. Saturday morning all Temples met at the Joe Freeman Coliseum for a parade and good-byes, expecting to meet again August 16 & 17 in Waco for the Obstacle Competition. Obstacle is something you practice long hours for to drive in competition for approximately 35 seconds. This is really a test in driving skill. These are the two competitions where various units compete against each other for fun and to show their driving skills, of course we feel better when we bring home the first place trophy, all other parades are for the pleasure of the public and to let them know that we offer free help to crippled children.

TOMATO PROBLEMS?

Have you had tomato problems lately? I have had several calls regarding malformation and scarring of fruit, yellow-orange blotches and blotches that do not ripen at or around the stem end.

This is commonly referred to as "catfacing". It is caused by cool weather during fruit set. Evidently when most of our tomatoes were setting, mine included, we had some cool temperatures either at night or during the day. This cool weather triggered a response to the plant not to set fruit. The problem is, most of the fruit setting process had already taken place. This crop of tomatoes will never ripen correctly and you might as well remove them and wait for the next crop.

WHEN TO WATER---A real mystery:

It's a safe assumption in this area that if you are going to have a successful garden, you need a good water supply. To many of us, one of the most enjoyable aspects of home gardening is watering. It can be quite enjoyable to see your garden vegetables respond to a "drink" during the heat of summer. Watering can also be a source of problems for us including bitter fruit, sunscald, disease, poor fertility, poor quality, poor yield and a dozen other things. All of these can be associated with improper watering.

Many of us, myself included, in insufficient nutrient uptake, poor growth and disease problems.

Water your garden not by looking at plants but rather by examining your soil. Look at the soil surface. If it appears dry, then scratch to a depth of 1 to 2 inches to determine if moisture is present. If the soil is relatively dry beneath the surface, then watering is necessary. If sufficient moisture is available, wait a couple of days before applying additional water.

How much to apply is another question. Apply enough water to wet soil down at least 6 inches. Take a sharpshooter and see if it is wet at that depth. If it is not, water a little more. If it is wet at 6 inches, you've applied enough.

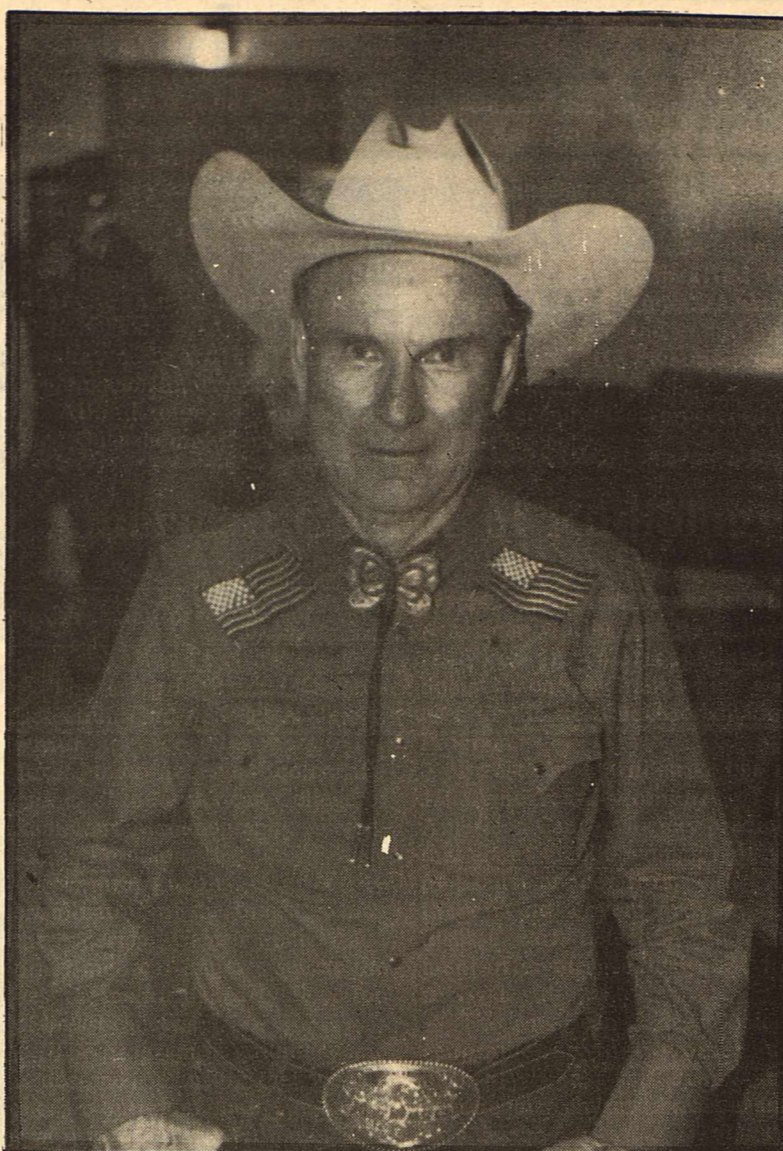

How you water the garden is important, but adequate watering at the right time and in the right amount is more important than the method used. Most gardeners prefer the furrow or flood system as a means of applying water. Be careful of sprinkling in the heat of the day to prevent foliage burn.

Drip or trickle irrigation is another method. This method conserves water and is probably a much more efficient method of watering. In any case, your gardening success directly depends on the amount of care and time you spend with it and the results would be apparent.

If you need more information about gardening, we have a number of Extension Service publications available in this office.

like to water our gardens after a hard day at work, or just as a form of relaxation. So it is not all unusual that many gardens get watered two, three or more times a week. Unfortunately, in most cases the is the worst things you can do since it can result in poor root development.

Light frequent waterings have a tendency to cause a concentration of roots in the top inch or two of the soil. This type of "limited" root system does not pose any real serious problem early in the season when plants are young and sufficient moisture is generally available. However, as the season progresses and moisture becomes less and less available, you may be forced to water the garden several times a week just to keep plants from wilting. This practice results

Early Saturday evening, June 8th, the Chamber of Commerce had their Annual Chamber Banquet at the Brackettville Civic Center.

The Banquet Program began with the Pledge of Allegiance lead by Dennis Dodson and Tim Ward saying the invocation.

After the treasurer's report was made, recognition of the Chamber's nine Board Members were made. They are President, Glen Seaver, Jr., Vice-President, Allen Kreiger, Jr., Treasurer, Kathryn Letsinger, Executive Secretary, Mary Seaver, Larry Sofaly, Dennis Dodson, Archie Woodson, Lashawn Wardlaw, Charles Ingram and Jim Runyan.

American College of Radiology

Cavalryman Correspondent

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit of Odessa, Texas, which services Brackettville, Texas, today received the certification of the American College of Radiology Mammography Accreditation Program.

Mammography is an x-ray examination of the breast, which the American Cancer Society and other medical experts see as the best means for the early detection of breast cancer.

The program is voluntary and is designed to insure that women receive optimum quality mammographic examinations. The process is done through a peer review evaluation of the facility's staff qualifications, equipment, quality control and quality assurance programs, image quality, and breast dose. The accreditation must be renewed every three years.

The accreditation program was instituted because of the concerns of radiologists, other national medical organizations, and the public that qualified personnel perform and interpret mammograms and that dedicated mammo-graphic equipment be used. The American College of Radiology received an American Cancer Society Control Grant which was used to pilot test the Accreditation Program.

Breast cancer will strike one in 10 American women. The American Cancer Society predicts that about 41,000 women will die of breast cancer this year. As there is no way to prevent the disease, early detection and treatment offer the greatest hope for survival.

The American Cancer Society recommends that women do monthly breast self-exams and have regular physical breast exams by a doctor.

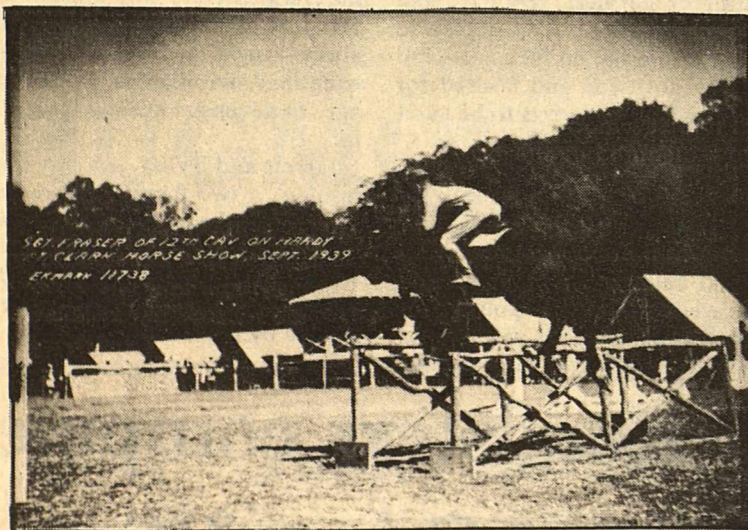

It further recommends mammography on the following schedule:

A baseline mammogram (for reference) between age 35 and 39.

A mammogram every one or two years between age 40 and 49.

An annual mammogram from age 50.

The Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Brackettville, Texas, on Tuesday, June 18th. You may call 563-2434 for an appointment.

FORT CLARK, Texas, 1939. The first annual First Cavalry Brigade Horse Show, was held at Fort Clark on September 22, 23, and 24, 1939. The location was at the cavalry riding arena, just across the street to the east of the old cemetery with the stone walls, on Travis Road. The two Regiments assigned to the 1st Cavalry Brigade were the 5th, and the 12th.

Among the officers of the 1st Cavalry Brigade Horse Show were; Brigadier General J.M. Wainwright, President, Colonel A.E. Wilbourn and Col. C.P. Stearns, Vice Presidents. Some of the trophy donors were; Brigadier General J.M. Wainwright, Fort Clark, Petersen and Company, Brackettville, Henry Veltmann and Sons, Brackettville, Eagle Pass Chamber of Commerce, Eagle Pass, Hill Top Cafe, Brackettville, Deason Service Station, Brackettville, Nipper Drug Store, Brackettville and Del Rio Chamber of Commerce, Del Rio.

There was a total of 30 classes in the show. Typical of the classes held were Polo Mounts, middle and heavy, Hunter championship, Regimental team jumping, and best horse in the show. The Friday afternoon show began with the Commanders Sweepstakes, Officers. This class was open to officers or civilians riding public or private mounts. It was over a course of approximately 16 jumps: maximum height 4ft. 3 in.; maximum spread 12 ft.; length of course not to exceed 800 yards. Prizes: trophy to first place, ribbons to first four places. There were 13 entries in this class.

Horse shows were a way of life in the horse cavalry. It provided energetic training and competition. Interest was always high, by not only the competitors, but by many others, including the civilian population near the Army Post. Winners of these shows went on to the International team trials and competition. It's too bad that when the Army sold all of the horses, this type of competition stopped. That ended military team competition. Now-a-days, our U.S. Equestrian teams must seek donations from wherever they can in order to compete world wide.

WHY GOD CREATED MAN PART XIII

"Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. Put on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the schemes of the devil. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Ephesians 6:10-12).

In this series on Why God Created Man, we have seen Satan present at the beginning of human history in Genesis, and we have seen that he will be present at the end of human history in Revelation. The reason is because Satan himself is the answer to why God created man. Man was created by God to resolve the angelic rebellion begun by Satan. As we have seen in our study, the Bible only deals with the history of man on earth. Outside of Satan's original sin and rebellion, almost nothing else is revealed by God to us of eternity past. Nothing, I repeat NOTHING, is revealed to us by God about eternity future! The book of Revelation ends with Satan being cast into the Lake of Fire (and we have to assume that he is accompanied by all of the other fallen angels called demons). Then in Revelation 21:1 we read that there will be a new heaven and a new earth, but there is no detailed description of what it will be like in eternity future, except that the Saints will be with the Lord forever.

When Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden of Eden, the rulership of the earth passed to Satan. That is why he is called the "prince of the power of the air" in Ephesians 2:2, and in II Corinthians 4:4 the Apostle Paul calls him "the god of this world (that) has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God." When Satan tempted Jesus by saying that if Jesus would fall down and worship him he would give Christ the whole world. This was a BONAFIDE OFFER! The rulership of the world was Satan's to give. This temptation was not to Jesus as God, nor as Jesus the man, but to Jesus the God-Man, the intermediary between God and Man, and the temptation was for Jesus the God-Man to bypass bearing the sins of the human race on the cross. Jesus as God was not subject to death, and Jesus the Man died physically on the cross after Jesus the God-Man had paid the penalty for man's sins and said, "It is finished."

The sin of Satan in eternity past was the act of a created being attempting to act independently of and in defiance of its creator. Man was created to show Satan that God's sentence of Satan to the Lake of Fire was just. Though created vastly inferior to the angels, man was given the mental capabilities to know his creator, and the free will to choose to be dependent upon his creator or act independently of his creator. Satan's sin was in wanting to be like God. I find it very ironic that while regenerate man will not become "God," he will become an adopted son of God. As an adopted son of God, he will share everything the Son Of God has; he will share His destiny, His inheritance, His eternal life, His perfect righteousness, His priesthood, His kingship, and His election. Though born inferior to the angels, regenerate man as an adopted son of God will become higher than angels and will judge angels (I Corinthians 6:3). Consider these verses: "But we do see Him who has been made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren" (Hebrews 2:9-11).

In this series I have only touched on a few major activities of Satan, and have not mentioned the activities of demons in order to keep the series from being too long. Demonology will be the subject of a future series.

Next week I will begin a series called Eternal Security which will deal with how a Christian can know he or she is saved forever.

Brackett drop double header to Uvalde 3 - 2 and 1 - 0

Cavalryman Sports Writer

The Brackett Big League (16-18 year old) traveled to Uvalde to play a double header Sunday against Uvalde. Brackett played outstanding defensive play against an aggressive Uvalde team. Gilbert Villarreal was hit by a pitched ball to lead off Brackett's first chance to score. John Hernandez popped out to centerfield and J.J. Sandoval hit a single to put Gilbert on second base while J.J. was thrown out at first. Lesly Floyd hit a single through the shortstop, scoring Gilbert to give Brackett a 1-0 lead in top of the first inning.

Garza, the lead-off batter for Uvalde, also scored from a single by Gilleland to tie the game 1-1. Brackett never reached base due to the tough defensive play and strong pitching by Uvalde. Uvalde scored in the bottom of the second when Howard singled and was driven in by Gonzales's triple to right field to take the lead 2-1 Uvalde's favor. Brackett didn't score again until the top of the seventh inning. Javier Solis hit a single and stole second on an error by Uvalde. Manager Greg Sharp put Luis Gonzales as a pinch runner for Solis. Luis stole third on an error from the catcher putting the tying run on third base. Victor bunted down the first base line and the first baseman overran the ball scoring Luis to tie the game in the top of the seventh inning. Uvalde, in the bottom of the seventh with two outs, got a single from Lopez. Chapoy then hit a double scoring the winning run with the final score 3 - 2.

Javier Solis did an outstanding pitching job against Uvalde. Javier only gave up 3 hits, had no base on balls, and 8 strikeouts in seven innings.

The second game was all defense on both sides. Brackett's infield made the plays when they were needed and the fine pitching of J.J. Sandoval and Rumaldo Serrano kept Brackett in the game. Uvalde scored in the fourth inning on one of three errors Brackett made in both games. Uvalde brought in Jody Everett, their ace pitcher in the fifth inning and Brackett couldn't hit his curve ball ending the game 1 - 0 Uvalde's favor.

FORT CLARK -- Golfers ... it finally looks like the golfing association has found them a jack-leg who can take rough old golf courses and turn them into a golfer's paradise. Strange as it might seem, this golfing jack-leg's name is Jack Legg.

Ain't no more talk going around like, "wish they'd water them dad-burned fairways" or "them greens is hard as a minister's head" or "think I'll move my membership to San Felipe and fight with the old owners." Members are laughing and drinking coffee together again while sitting around the club house and bragging on the golfing conditions. The secret "laugh meter" that is hidden in the club house has recorded more he and she laughter in the last three weeks than it has in the last two years. "Thuffering Thuckatash" things is finally returning to normal.

Flo Stafford and Mae Roper divided the teams equally Thursday morning for the weekly couple's scramble but when Danny and Marti Isenberg had to make a last minute scratch due to a doctor's appointment alterations had to be made. It was decided to let the couple's play their own scramble and the foremat worked out quite well.

Many of the men were paired with their own wives and those men who did not have a golf playing wife were paired with their regular playing partners. It was different and, since yours truly and his wife tied for first, the new game was a lot of fun.

Coming in 1 under par was the team of Bob and Jane Young and Les and Mae Roper. Finishing one over par for an outright claim on third place was George and Helen Miller.

It was great fun on a great golf course.

Rory's Video Review

GRAVEYARD SHIFT

From horror master Stephen King comes his most terror-filled tale yet.

Gates Falls, Maine, when an abandoned textile mill is reopened, several employees meet mysterious deaths. The link between the killings: all occurred between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. -- the Graveyard Shift.

The sadistic mill foreman (Stephen Macht) has chosen a group to clean up the mill's rat-infested basement. But what the workers find is a subterranean maze of tunnels leading to the cemetery--and an unimaginable horror that comes alive in the dead of night.

MERMAIDS

Academy Award winner Cher is the free-spirited and decidedly unconventional Mrs. Flax, the original liberated woman. She's sexy, sassy, brassy, and more than just a bit exasperating, especially to her daughters. Charlotte (Winona Ryder) is a hormonal 15-year-old desperate to be a nun, even though the family's Jewish, and nine-year-old Kate (Christina Ricci) is an aspiring swimming champ who practices in the bathtub. The guy with a heart of gold, Lou Landsky (Bob Hoskins) tries to turn this wacky trio into a family as they careen through romantic escapades and unusual encounters.

THE SHELTERING SKY

Are you tourist or traveler? Kit (Debra Winger) and Port Moresby (John Malkovich) find the distinction important. A tourist wants comforts of home. A traveler seeks adventure. Kit and Port are travelers, drawn by desire and destiny to the Sahara. There they will follow their passionate obsessions almost to oblivion in an attempt to recapture the love they once shared.

Bernardo Bertolucci, the Academy Award-winning director behind such provocative films as Last Tango in Paris and The Last Emperor (1987 Oscar winner for Best Picture), delves into the heart's and mind's most intimate recesses in The Sheltering Sky. With Winger and Malkovich, two of today's most compelling talents, Bertolucci explores the limits of human passion in "an extravagant drama of love and adventure" (Gene Shalit, Today/NBC-TV).

Powerful performances by Winger (An Officer and a Gentleman), Malkovich (Dangerous Liaisons) and Campbell Scott (Longtime Companion) fuse with the Vittorio Storaro cinematography (New York Film Critics Award) and Ryuichi Sakamoto (Richard Gere's adobe (Los Angeles Film Critics and Golden Globe Awards) for a rich, daring experience - evoking the traveler in all of us.

MEMPHIS BELLE

They've flown 24 perilous missions. Now there's only one thing keeping the flyboys of the B-17 Memphis Belle from going home to a hero's welcome: mission 25, a daylight raid that's their most dangerous ever.

Matthew Modine (Full Metal Jacket) heads the dynamic star cast of Memphis Belle, an acclaimed, high-flying adventure inspired by true-life World War II heroics. Legendary director William Wyler, who flew five battle runs in the famed Flying Fortress, first told the Memphis Belle's story in a 1944 documentary. Using that as inspiration, producers David Puttnam (Chariots of Fire) and Catherine Wyler (William's daughter) scoured the world to find enough operable B-17's to give their movie wings. They found five of the now-rare aircraft, along with 13 other vintage planes.

These airborne marvels are joined with impressive model work, wartime footage and a stirring story of the guts and teamwork required when the flak gets so thick you can walk on it. The result is a movie that soars. With the courage of men who took to the skies in the world's darkest hour.

Open letter to Governor Richards

June 12, 1991

To: Ann Richards, Governor, Austin, Tx.
From: Joan Kealy, P.O. Box 1439, Brackettville, Tx. 78832
RE: Radioactive Dump to be placed in Kinney Co. by Texcor

Dear Governor:

I wish you could request a transcript from the hearing (6-11-91) examiner, Gordon Hardin, and suspend any further action whatever by Texcor. The following sought to be parties AGAINST their permit: The National Park Service, 2 water districts, the cities of Spofford, Del Rio, Uvalde, Brackettville, Eagle Pass, and Villa Acuna, Mexico, the Middle Rio Grande Development Association, and more! The Kickapoo tribe, private owners of ranches, the Fort Clark Springs Association and more! Save the taxpayers any further expenditure in this over two year fight. What does it take in a democracy to represent the will of the people??

The Former head of the Texas Health Department violated your moratorium against ramming down the throat of an unwilling citizenry any more radioactive dumps. Local people feel his retirement is well-financed. Why else would he be willing to put the State of Texas in violation of the 1983 U.S. - Mexico Treaty against further pollution of the Rio Grande? The Mexican government is willing to spend $29 million to build a resort on their side of the Amistad (Friendship) Reservoir and the Friendly Health Department had their lawyers at this hearing to defend an indefensible decision, while Bush tries to hurry his fast track trade agreements through congress and the three nations of the North American Continent meet in Toronto. Can these people be aware they will seem hypocritical if Texas is permitted to sanction a radioactive dump so close to an International Border? Can Bush and the U.S. State Department possibly be aware of this pending atrocity?

For two years the taxpayers in these three poor western counties have scraped up money to oppose Texcor, but we won't be able to give our property away if a radioactive dump is placed so near. The tax collecting entities for Maverick, Val Verde, and Kinney Counties will be swamped with demands for re-assessment hearings once that dump is installed. I doubt now I could sell my house for its assessed value. People peel out of here when realtors are forced by law to inform them of the pending radioactive dump. City, County, and school districts will lose taxes massively. They are already dirt-poor in this area of the state and can't afford continuously opposing Texcor. This is what Texcor counts upon--swamping us with $13 million.

The Texas governorship is considered to be a "weak governorship" per TIME magazine. I think you have enough legal traction in this case to haul Texcor's hulk off our backs. Every win for the people makes the Texas governorship a stronger governorship. Such precedents make politics.

Sincerely,
S/S Joan Kealy

Tracks Along the Trail

By Dorothy Payne

The first important caravan traffic across the Great Plains was along the Santa Fe Trail.

William Becknell drove the first wagon from western Missouri to Santa Fe in 1822, eight years before Jedediah Smith. David E. Jackson and William Sublette took a party of 81 men and ten large wagons (drawn by five mules) from St. Louis to the trappers rendezvous on the Wind River.

It was ten years before Capt. L. E. Bonneville conducted another wagon train across South Pass. Caravans of 25 wagons or more were used mainly to move freight over the Santa Fe Trail to the value of $35,000 in 1824, $90,000 in 1826 and $150,000 in 1828. The distance traveled from Franklin, Mo. to Santa Fe was 870 miles. After the first few years, Lexington, some 60 miles farther west, was the point of departure, and later Independence, 100 miles further west became the starting point.

During the 1850's, caravans were traveling all roads across the Great Plains. Randolph B. Marcy took a caravan of 100 wagons from Fort Smith to New Mexico along the Canadian River.

Town such as St. Louis, Fort Smith, Little Rock, San Antonio, Denver, and Salt Lake City did a thriving business. At one of these towns, immigrants bound for the far west had a last opportunity to buy necessities. Food such as meal, flour, sugar, coffee, and bacon, clothing, blankets, guns and ammunition, axes, hoes, shovels, sometimes a plow. Most wagons carried a bedstead, pictures, chairs or other heirlooms. Many an immigrant traveling the Oregon Trail to the Columbia, or the Platte route to California ended up throwing away possessions to lighten the load.

The army appropriation bill of 1853 made available $150,000 to survey routes for western railroads, and four surveys were made. A new era was formally initiated by the first Union Pacific act of 1862. Seven years later the first transcontinental line was completed. But caravan trade and travel were to remain for a decade until railroads could offer adequate facilities.

Reflections

By Rev. Preston Taylor
First Baptist Church

Keep going! That's the secret to living, to true success.

A "keep-you-awake" autobiography by David Harold Byrd has the title, "I'm An Endangered Species." It's in our local library.

You may read in that exciting, soul-expanding autobiography the highlights of the Byrd family.

D.H. Byrd was the cousin and financial supporter of Admiral Richard E. Byrd who explored the North and South Poles in 1928. He also became co-founder of the Civil Air Patrol, plus a list of other accomplishments that are too long to place in this space.

One of the remarkable facts in the life of Free Enterprises, D.H.B. was his "keep going" spirit. In the book you may read that he once drilled fifty-six "wildcat wells" in a row without finding oil. Who would not have quit before then? S.H. Byrd didn't!

You can keep going. You can die "with you boots on." You don't have to be extinct. You and I can be a special breed of people who trust God, have character, live for the well-being of others, and who allow the Holy Spirit to shape us into the likeness of Jesus.

The alternative spells death. The choice is quite simple. Shakespeare's famous character says it, "To be, or not to be. That is the question."

Will we accept the challenge to move ahead and be an instrument for the good of others while time lasts? Each of us holds the answer to the question. What will we do?

Public Notices

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company (Company), in accordance with the rules of the Public Utility Commission of Texas (Commission), hereby gives notice of its intent to implement a new schedule of telephone rates in Texas for Directory Assistance Services, effective August 1, 1991, unless otherwise determined by the Commission. The Company has filed an application with the Commission to restructure and change the rates for Directory Assistance Service.

To help recover its costs, the Company is proposing to increase the rates for Directory Assistance calls from $.30 to $.40 per call (after the three-call allowance). Southwestern Bell is proposing that there be no change in the number of free Directory Assistance calls allowed each month (currently three) and that customers who qualify for exemption of Directory Assistance charges because of visual or physical handicaps continue to be exempt from these charges. The company also proposes to begin charging $.25 per call for Directory Assistance from pay telephones.

If approved by the Commission, this proposed rate change for Directory Assistance will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.4 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. This proposed rate change would affect approximately 900,000 residence customers, approximately 155,000 business customers, approximately 500 private pay telephone owners and all customers who make Directory Assistance calls from public pay telephones.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

*denotes rate decrease

**Southwestern Bell's application proposes to obsolete residence Speed Calling 30 except for existing customers at their existing locations.

Most of the Company's residence customers in Texas who subscribe to one or more of the Custom Calling Service features will be affected by the proposed rate restructuring. It is expected that the proposed rate restructuring of Custom Calling Services will increase the Company's annual revenues by $15.9 million, which is an increase of approximately one half of 1 percent in the Company's adjusted revenue for the twelve-month period ending December 1990. The restructuring will result in an increase in the Custom Calling Services rates for approximately 2.5 million residence customers and rate decreases for approximately 15,000 residence customers. Also, the obsolescence of the optional feature Speed Calling 30 will affect approximately 156,000 residence customers.

Super "S" Food Stores give Brackett ISD Computers

Cavalryman Contributing Writer

Brackett ISD will receive three apple computers and five printers from Super "S" Food Stores after participating in the year-long Apples for Students program. During the school year of 1990-91 students, teachers, and community members from Brackett ISD collected grocery receipts from Super "S" Food Stores. The receipts were turned in to Super "S" for the computer equipment. Patrons and students in Brackett ISD collected receipts with a face value of $700,000. The package of receipts sent to Super "S" in return for the computer equipment weighed twenty-two pounds.

Steve Mills, the elementary principal, coordinated the effort with the local Super "S" store. He was very impressed with the community effort in the program and the school district administrators, teachers, students and trustees expressed appreciation to Super "S" Food Stores for their efforts helping the school district provide the latest in instructional technology to students.

stopping this project and, in doing so, relieving a lot of good people of more of the same kind of stress they have so unnecessarily received for the past three years.

As many spectators left the hearing they were over heard, as they wondered out loud, how a license could be issued to Texcor after today's display of opposition. There were serious doubts in regards to the compassion and reasoning behind TDH. Can this state organization issue a license to an organization that would spell doom to a tiny little settlement who has played a giant sized roll in the history of Texas? Only time will tell.

which would cover the same project.

The budget was amended by $6,850.00 to cover expenses incurred by the Sheriff's department. This amount was taken from the Prisoner Care Estimated Revenue to emergency amend the current budget.

Judge Ward told the Court that he had received a report from Rauscher Pierce Refsnes, Inc. notifying him that they were presently working on a package for the county after taking a copy of the budget with them. This company, according to the Judge, should have a finalized version ready for presentation in the very near future. It is the intentions of the Court to face the coming year with a more realistic approach to the county budget with this assistance from Larry Skiles, consultant for Rauscher Pierce Refsnes, Inc.

It was reported that David Brooks would be contacted to handle the redistricting plan for Kinney County. They have all of the material to handle the project and the price for the project was met with the approval of the county. Judge Ward told the Court that part of the material had already been sent to Mr. Brook's office and this kind of local cooperation should sharply reduce the cost.

There was some discussion on the County assisting the City on the paving of some streets within the city limits. Commissioner McClure had a figure for the work to be done but it was called to his attention that a job of that size must be put out on bids.

A lengthy conversation took place in regards to the continuation of private road work with county equipment. It was finally agreed that some assistance to local tax payers would be possible but the work must not exceed 8 hours.

Other items of importance were covered by the Court which included drug and alcohol abuse, required physicals, etc. It was agreed that the department heads would set their own precedents on these policies.

Commissioner Plunker Sheedy had requested to approve or disapprove a resolution to reorganize the "County Road Department" and personnel in order to comply with the Optional Road Law of 1947 under the Road and Bridge code. This discussion pertained to the termination of Acting Road Supervisor, Lee Lawson for failure to comply with requirements of employment mandated by Commissioners Court which includes proof of a High School Diploma or G.E.D. certificate. Also, discuss the termination of the position of "County Road Supervisor" as it does not comply with provisions of the Optional Road Law of 1947.

The Court went into Executive Session. Commissioner McClure requested that Sheriff Hooten remain in the room and act as "Master of Arms".

After open Court re-convened, Commissioner Sheedy made the motion to give Lee Lawson ample time to attain his G.E.D. and if he fails to do so, he will be notified and then given notice as to his permanent termination.
