PROGRAM CALLED OFF

TO THE PEOPLE OF MITCHELL COUNTY:

We regret very much to call off our program for Liberty Day—Saturday, owing to the prevailing epidemic of Influenza, but this will in no wise relieve us from doing all we possibly can in buying Liberty Bonds.

Canvassing Committees will call on you. Please be prepared to make a liberal purchase.

The boys gone from our midst have not quit shooting because the enemy is running, so let us keep up our end of the fight.

P. C. COLEMAN,
Chairman Mitchell County.

SPANISH INFLUENZA

PRECAUTIONS

1. Keep in mind that like most contagious diseases influenza is spread by contact, that is, by the transfer of the poison, from one person to another. It is spread by sneezing, coughing and spitting at which times the discharges from the nose and throat are scattered in the air.
2. Avoid crowds as much as possible, including moving picture places theatres and other assembly halls. When feasible avoid crowded street cars, and other public carriers.
3. When sneezing or coughing, place your handkerchief before your nose and mouth.
4. Make sure that you are properly clothed, in accordance with varying changes in temperature, prevalent at this time of the year.
5. Fresh air is always good. Keep your bedroom windows wide open, and secure as much sleep as possible.
6. Keep the digestive organs in good condition.
7. Drink water freely.
8. Avoid common drinking cups, common towels and similar utensils.
9. Wash your hands frequently.
10. Use a mild antiseptic as a nose spray or as a mouth gargle, especially if your throat is sore or there is a tendency to sneezing.
11. If you have a "cold" use utensils for your personal use exclusively or if you are in contact with one so affected be careful not to handle utensils used by them.
12. Consult family physician at first onset of symptoms suggestive of influenza.

F. G. PERNOUND,
Medical Advisor Southwestern Division.

When the Liberty Loan train pulled out from the station at Groesbeck, a citizen who had not been able to make up his mind to buy bonds, was suddenly seized with a patriotic inspiration. Racing after the departing train, he caught at the rail of the rear car and at the risk of his life clung with one hand while he pitched into the car a $20 bill shouting his name and address. The last they saw of him he was picking himself up out of the cinders along the tracks and grinning.

At another point along the train route a man who had been saving up his money for emdical treatment reconsidered and subscribed to the full amount of his savings

"It may not help my ailments," he said, "but it will sure cure Bill Kaiser of his fits." Can't you give him a dose of the same medicine?

LETTER FROM THE FRONT.

Capt. McAllister, Who Has Been Wounded and Gased Tells of It

We publish a letter from the front, written by Captain J. G. McAllister to his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Landers and her daughter, Lottie, now Mrs. Slagel. Capt. McAllister is an old army man, having been through the Spanish-American war and served several years in the Philippines. The "boys" he speaks of in his letter, are Lieut. Slagel, to whom Miss Landers was recently married, and Harry Landers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Landers.

The letter gives a closer view of the awful conditions than any we have so far published and it will, no doubt be of much interest to the Readers of the Record: Here it is:

After expressing his delight at receiving a letter from Mrs. Landers, and thanking her for it, says:

"I am sorry to know that Mr. Slagel and Harry had to come over here for I know how both of you feel, but I firmly believe you will have them both back home safe and sound again before very long, so keep a stout heart and look forward to the happy days to come.

I shall try to locate the boys, for I want to see them, but names of towns divisions and locations of different units all lose their identity at the front and are designated by code names entirely, so its very difficult to find any one; but quite often I run into people I knew in America, who have been within rifle shot of me for weeks without either of us knowing it. So when the boys move up to the front I may come across them accidentally, when least expected.

The censorship is necessarily so rigid in my section, I can not tell you all you wish to know, so we will have to save most of it until we meet in God's country once more.

As you already know I volunteered for service with the Foreign Legion. This was before America had many soldiers here. The Foreign Legion was used by France as shock troops and it seems to me that when we were not fighting we were marching, for we never seemed to get any sleep or rest. Being extremely despondent and anxious to die, the terrible hardships perhaps was for the best. Anyway I worked hard and studied constantly and made rapid progress, besides a reputation which caused me to be selected for patrol duty, which work consisted mostly of crawling around in "no man's land" during the night in search of sundry information, and also as a protection against a surprise attack. The Germans of course did the same. To fire a shot or even speak above a whisper was suicide, for friend and foe would instantly open an artillery and machine gun barrage. Consequently when we met an enemy patrol we had to silently fight it out with bayonets and trench knives. It was on one of these silent little meetings one night at Verdun that I "got mine." We were surrounded and seriously outnumbered, and five very earnest Dutchmen concentrated their attention on me and labored hard to cut my skinny carcass into ribbons. We had a very interesting time for a few minutes and were doing excellent execution, and I know we would have cleaned them up, had not a flat headed Dutch cur side-stepped my knife and fired a shot. I had three bayonet wounds when he fired his cowardly shot, and instantly a barrage of shrapnel and gas was started. Being weak from loss of blood, and having lost my gas mask in the fight, I was put to sleep quick, and knew nothing until I came too in a hospital and was told I had more gas in my system than an ordinary gas meter, and everything considered, I was, according to Hoyle, had been killed four times. It was for that little simple affair I was given the French War Cross, and adopted by a French family, of whom I am very proud.

I wrote you the night after leaving the hospital, and on that same day was ordered to a new company and took my place in the line in time for the battle of Soissons. From there I went to Chateau Thierry and received a trifling bayonet wound there from which I have only recently recovered and am now busy getting my outfit ready for what I believe will be the greatest battle the world has ever known. Other than that I can say no more except I believe it will end the war for it will certainly be Germany's death blow, for in spite of its bigness we are going to WIN, and that very soon.

Other than a slight fever which I "have always with me" for some reason, and a slight limp I am all right. I think I will "outgrow" the limp if I live long enough, and I guess I will for it seems the devil don't want me. Anyhow, it does not matter, either way, for its all in the game and some one must pay.

I stick to the only comforting thought I have, and that is the certainty that there is a God; that He sees all and knows all, and that in His own way and time, He will arrange an accounting and give back to each of us that which is ours.

The sorry thing of it all is, that those who lay around in idleness, seeking nothing but the devil's own amusements, cannot see some of the realities over here. Surely if they could but look into the eyes of the men who are going through a living hell for them; eyes which stare at you in speechless agony—they would quickly change their view of life and realize that there are greater, more noble, more soul-inspiring things than dances, joy rides, and all such so-called "good times."

I've seen the most worthless, degraded humans on God's earth transformed into noble men and women, and with tears streaming down their faces get down on their knees and pray to the God they had scorned all their worthless lives, at the sight of endless streams of rushing ambulances which are a part of every battle, for it brought home to them like nothing else could, the eternal fact that there is a greater aim in life than pleasures, and that a physical or moral slacker is the biggest coward and the most despicable enemy to civilization and progress that the world has to contend with.

This war has completely transformed France, Belgium and England and it is a pity the bulk of our own people can not see or feel this baptism of fire and self-denial as Europe feels it, for if they could, many of our social and public problems would be solved automatically.

The winter season has started now and it has been raining for several days and we all look like animated chunks of mud.

I am permitted to carry only 35 pounds of baggage so my wardrobe consists of the clothes I have on, two blankets, 4 pairs socks and one suit of underwear. I own nothing else for with me its a forced case of look out for today, tomorrow may never come.

Our artillery has commenced to roar, and though it is midnight the flash from the guns make it as light as day from heaven to earth and as far to the right and left as the eye can see is one blinding glare, and the roar makes one think of old time tales of the judgment day, for when many thousands of cannon start to speak there is no use for mere man to try to make himself heard, so I'll quit. I'll be called soon anyway, as this means the opening of what I think will be the deciding battle of the war. I'll say good-bye—or rather good-night—am sure I'll be lucky enough to write you again when it is over.

Be brave; try not to worry about your boys, for I believe they will return smiling to you again soon, and I know you will both be happy and proud of them. The wives and mothers of American soldiers over here have justified reasons for being proud and feeling honored and perhaps some day they will realize it more fully than now.

Again thanking you for your splendid letter, as well as for the sentiments it contained, I am always your devoted brother,
MAC.

Capt. McAllister was too modest in the recitals of his battle experiences, having participated in several hand to hand fights which he did not mention. He was formerly a Captain of company of bombers, and in making a trench raid on one occasion, they were surrounded by Germans, and had to fight their way out unaided. In this skirmish many of the company were either killed or captured and the Captain slightly wounded, but he led the remnant of his devoted company to safety by his bravery and loyalty. We are sure the Record readers would like to hear further from this "scrapper" from the old U. S. A.

BUY BONDS

In one Texas city a Liberty Loan Salesman paused at a hamburger joint for physical reinforcement. While he stood there watching the little pats of ground meat sizzle in the bubbling grease, he got a $2,000 subscription. Here's a tip for salesmen: You never know where they are coming from!

At Hallettsville, Texas, a woman of French birth was so deeply affected that she passionately caressed the French 75, referring to it as "the world's best friend today," and, in a voice broken with emotion she appealed in her broken English, "let there be no inconclusive peace, we'll see to it that there shall be no inconclusive subscription to this Loan."

At a downtown office building in a New Mexico city, a negro girl is employed as elevator "boy." She was very excited over her purchase of a Liberty Bond and was fumbling in her pockets for the first payment. The elevator was filling up with people, and feeling that she owed her passengers an apology for the delay she addressed them thus: "Dis yhaa Libberty Loan done got me mesm'ried." How about you?

Here is a story straight from the battlefield told by an officer of the French Foreign Legion, now in Texas.

"Debout les morts" "Stand up you dead."

This was the cry of a French officer outside Verdun, as he called to his few surviving comrades. He said afterwards that his cry was answered for his men, filled anew with the magnificent spirit of those who died, and to avenge their death, rushed on and saved Fort Devaux. Went you fight with such men? The privilege is yours. Stand behind them with your dollars.

Groping his darkened way into Liberty Loan headquarters at Dallas, blind Harris, the newsboy, stretched forth a hand holding dimes, nickels, pennies, his savings for the first payment of a $50 Liberty Bond. When the salesman filling out the pledge murmured something about patriotism, tears started in Harris sightless eyes as he feverishly fingered the button on his chest, to make sure it was there. He cannot offer himself to his country; he is blind. He cannot even read the flaring headlines on the papers he sells, but emblazoned across the heart that beats beneath his faded shirt are the flaming words, "Liberty, Equality, Justice," the principles for which his grand-sires fought. Come on you fellows who "can't afford it." Blind Harris will show you how.

NEW NEWSPAPER LAW

The new orders of the government to newspaper publishers include the following:

"2. No publisher may continue subscriptions after 3 months after date of expiration, unless subscriptions are renewed and paid for.

"3. No publisher may give free copies of his paper to anyone."

This means that all subscribers who are behind as much as three months must be cut off November 1st unless they renew by that date. If your subscription falls under this rule you had better send in your renewal at once.

Look at the date next to your address! It will show you how your subscription stands.

Local Liberty Loan Committee Will Receive N. B. C. Contribution.

Salesman E. Mahan of the Fort Worth branch of the National Biscuit Company has just received advice that the Company proposes to allocate its liberal subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan among all the cities of the country where it maintains manufacturing or selling branches on the basis of business enjoyed by such branches. This means that the local Liberty Loan Committee will receive a pro rata subscription through the local branch of the Company. It is further stated that the National Biscuit Company will donate thousands of dollars worth of advertising space to the Fourth Liberty Loan, and in addition its vast selling force is going to sell Liberty Bonds for Uncle Sam.

THE RAIN

Monday evening a funnel shaped cloud formed Southeast of Mitchell county and a good rain (about 2 in) fell in the Iatan community, raising Morgan creek so it run water all day Tuesday.

Wednesday morning Fred McKenzie phoned in that they had a big rain down at his ranch (Southeast corner of the county). Wednesday evening the heavens darkened, the thunders rolled and the lightning flashed, and it rained a fairly good shower, probably a quarter of an inch here, but heavier South, Southwest, West Northwest and North of Colorado.

Union reports a good rain and it rained up the river, as the river is up and rising this (Thursday) morning. Horn's Chapel reports a regular waterspout. The H S and Spade ranches report a big rain. Good rains fell as far west as Midland.

COMMON SENSE COLLECTIONS.

(By W. C. Garrett)

Is it curiosity? Well, perhaps so, but anyway, there are two sorts of it; one is idle, the other purposeful.

Idle curiosity meddles; purposeful curiosity investigates. In the realm of curiosity is one place where the child is stronger than his seniors; but if his curiosity is trained to be the purposeful sort it will also turn out to his good.

Curiosity is the mind's appetite and needs the right sort of food.

Sometimes common sense is very uncommon.

"If we with ink the ocean fill,
Were the whole world of parchment made,

Were every stick and twig a quill,
Were every man a scribe by trade
To write the love of God Above
Would drain the ocean dry;
Nor would the scroll contain the whole
Tho' stretched from sky to sky."

"Now abideth faith, hope, love, these three, but the greatest of these is love.

Brethren if God so loved us we ought also to love one another.

And this commandment have we from Him, that he who loveth God, love his brother also."

No one else can take your place at church.

They tell us tales of camouflage,
The art of hiding things,
Of painted forts and bowered guns,
Invisible to wings.

Well, it's nothing new to us,
To us, the rank and file;
We understand this camouflage—

We saw the painted battleships
And earthen-colored trains.
And planes the hue of leaden skies
And canvas-hidden lanes.

Well, we used the magic art
That day of anxious fears;
We understand this camouflage—
We laughed away your tears.

They say that scientific men
And artists of renown
Debated long on camouflage
Before they got it down.

Well, it came right off to us,
We didn't have to learn,
We understood this camouflage—
We said we'd soon return.

We understand this camouflage
This art of hiding things;
It's what's behind a soldier's jokes
And all the songs he sings.

Yes, it's nothing new to us,
To us, the rank and file,
We understand this camouflage—

—M. G. in Stars and Stripes, official newspaper of the A. E. F.

A stenographer in a Liberty Loan Committee office, self supporting and with an invalid mother who has just undergone an operation has just bought a $100 Bond.

"I thought I had bought all I could," she said, "but when I see these wounded boys coming into the office and realize what it means, I just feel that I must buy another bond, although I'll have to do without the coat I was going to buy. I did want it, but I want the bond more."

Every duty which we omit obscures some truth which we should have known.—Ruskin.

President Wilson is the greatest man in the world today.

As one of the boys puts it, our men are on the way home via Berlin.

All the nations of the world today now look to Wilson for adjustment of affairs.

If peace comes this soon "There will be glory enough for all."

"In the north our troops are advancing with the French and British participating in their successes.

It's funny, but every time they send Americans to one of those "quiet sectors," real news comes from there right away.

The saddest thing about immediate peace will be that our boys did not get to march through Germany and plant "Old Glory" on Berlin's capitol.

The Record will publish interesting letters from soldiers or sailors, who went from Mitchell county, and relatives or friends will confer a favor by sending us letters they receive. We will delete any personal portions not desired to be published, and all which would not be of interest to the general public.

"Doughboy" was originally applied to an infantryman, but now it is applied to all members of the A. E. F. There are various stories to account for its origin. The most probable is given in Stars and Stripes as follows: "The term 'doughboy' dates back to the civil war when army wit was aroused by large globular brass buttons on infantry uniforms. Some (he must have been a sailor) of the buttons 'doughboys' be they reminded him of boiled plings of raised dough served in messes and known to all sailors as 'doughboys'." Another explanation is that the term was applied to infantrymen because marching along dusty roads, their uniforms caught the dust and, mixed with sweat, caked on them.

ECONOMY (?)

The Government has asked the Record to cut down its consumption of paper by cutting off all delinquent and free copies, etc. To this the Record cheerfully accedes, but there is a greater source of wastefulness than is found in the country print shop.

"During the seven days of last week the RECORD received printed and typewritten matter from various government departments, the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other activities incidental to the carrying on of the war, weighing one pound and three ounces. If reproduced in the Record, according to request from these various activities, the matter would fill something more than sixteen pages, or double the ordinary size of the paper. We are not certain of the exact number of daily and weekly papers in the United States, each of which receives, probably, the same stuff sent to the Record. We believe it conservative to estimate the total weight of publicity stuff sent out in this way at 7,000 pounds a week, or enough to print 583 newspapers the size and circulation of the Record.

"Now if this matter were all carefully prepared and condensed to the limit, it would occupy something like two or three columns of the Record's space, as against at least 80 columns in its present form. At present it cannot be used, and is not used, by any newspaper, daily or weekly, in the country, and is therefore, about 95 per cent waste.

"Each correspondent apparently takes the view that he should write an essay about his particular subject, and he does so regardless of importance, cost or adaptability.

"What is sadly needed in a publicity bureau, to which every item of desired publicity should be referred, and which bureau should condense, arrange and edit all the matter, getting it into such shape and size that it can and will be used by papers.

"Again there is the item of postage. Most of the matter mentioned above is handled free by the post office department. At the new zone rates for newspapers, the postage would amount to about $1,000 a week, but as most of it is first class mail (or handled as such,) the postage on the usual basis of 3 cents for each ounce would be $33,600.

A good deal of the paper used is high-priced bond paper, ranging up to 35 cents a pound. But say the average cost per pound is 14 cents. This makes the cost of the paper wasted weekly in vain requests for publicity $9,800. The cost of printing up this paper is approximately $30,000, or approximately $40,000, in addition to the postage—say $70,000 weekly, or $3,640,000 a year.

This seems a small sum when we are talking in terms of billions, but it is certainly more than $3,000,000 above what it ought to be.

"We respectfully call the attention of members of congress and the federal trade commission to this economic and worse than useless waste and extravagance."

Shoes are so scarce in Germany that they are rented by the hour. Bet the Kaiser would like to give a lease on his for 99 years.—Minneapolis Tribune.

THE RECORD FORCED TO CUT OFF DELINQUENTS

The Government has put into effect an order which demands that no newspaper may send its publication to a subscriber who is three months in arrears. The law goes into effect the first of November.

We have no choice in the matter. When the law or order goes into effect we will be subject to a penalty and not only this, our supply of paper will be cut off if we fail to comply with the demands made upon every publisher. It has been our custom to allow subscribers to renew at their convenience and it is very little that we have lost on our friends, but at this time we are powerless to prevent such action unless we wish to close up shop. We must heed the powers that be and there is no other course to pursue. We are compelled to cut off all who are in arrears or suffer the penalty.

Look at the date of your subscription and if you are in arrears kindly see that it is paid. We want to retain ALL on the list as it would be a keen disappointment to lose a single subscriber at this time. It is a new order of things under which we must do business for which neither of us is responsible, and we are asking you to meet us half way under the new arrangements of things and pay up your subscription without delay.

The Record appreciates every subscriber. While the war and the high cost of material has interfered to a great extent, we are doing the best we can to give Mitchell County and her people a good local paper and trust that all will continue to stand by us through this critical time.

In a few days a canvas will be made to all in arrears and it is hoped that all will respond. Otherwise WE WILL BE COMPELLED TO CUT OFF ALL IN ARREARS.

Assuring you all of our appreciation of your splendid patronage of the past and your immediate renewal, we are,

THE RECORD.
PEACE SEEMS IN SIGHT

The world is war weary. This fact will hasten the return of the dove of peace. Of course, there must be a just peace; any other sort would be a mockery. The signs multiply that the dove, long flying over the waste of waters, will soon find a place to rest her weary wings. Bulgaria saw the inevitable result and betook herself to a place of safety. Turkey is getting ready to fly the coop. Austria is anxious to save something out of the wreck; her anxiety daily increases. Germany has put a known pacifist forward as her spokesman. The Allied and American strength has been increased in such a way as to leave no doubt as to the ultimate and speedy victory. The day's duty and the day's privilege is the purchase of Liberty Bonds.—Editorial in Sunday's Waco Times-Herald.

Mrs. Louis Hirsch of Shreveport, La., who operates a squab farm entirely alone, sent in a subscription of $1,000 to the Fourth Liberty Loan, with the announcement that it was the result of wringing the necks of one thousand squabs, and the hope that it would be the means of wringing the necks of one thousand Huns.

In 1912 the rainfall was 15.43, the smallest in history except the year of 1917. The year 1901 and 1910 showed a record only slightly better, both less than 16 inches.

The German peace offer was all camouflage. Don't be deceived, the war is not near over. While we believe the end is in sight, yet it may take a long long time to get to the end. The fighting will go on, the draft machinery will not stop, Liberty Bonds will be sold, the Red Cross work must be kept up for the Allies will not stop to consider peace until Germany stacks her arms and gets her army back on German territory. The Record believes Turkey will soon follow Bulgaria and then Austria and Hungary. When these countries cry "enough," then Germany will see her doom and cry Kamarad, but not until then.

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25-Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff and Doubles Beauty of Your Hair.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderrine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderrine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderrine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderrine. Eat without Fear of Indigestion! Instant Relief for Bad Stomachs

When your meals hit back. When what you eat turns sour, forming acids, gases and indigestion. Magic-relief. No waiting! The moment Pape's Diapepsin reaches the stomach all the sourness, acidity, heartburn, dyspepsia and indigestion ends. Upset stomachs feel fine. Costs so little—Any drug store.

UPSET? Pape's Diapepsin

No man or woman has ever been hurt by doing his or her duty. There is no evil that we cannot face or fly from, but the consciousness of duty disregarded. A sense of duty pursues us ever. It is omnipresent like the diety. If we take to ourselves the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, duty performed or duty violated is still with us for our happiness or our misery. We cannot escape the power, nor fly from the presence of our obligations.

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well." Adv.

Liberty Day Oct. 12 NATIONAL HOLIDAY

The Colorado National Bank will be Closed that day.

HERE could be no more appropriate date for President Wilson to set as Liberty Day than October 12th, the 426th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of the New World.

The Genoese navigator in that undertaking accomplished for liberty more than he could have dreamed. The word was scarcely understood in his day. He took possession of his discoveries, their vastness quite unguessed, in the name of monarchs who at that very time were setting an example of ruthless tyranny in forced deportations hardly matched until German Kultur in our own day bettered all precedents of ruthlessness.

It was the fact that the new discoveries were big that made them the hope of freedom. Men could lose themselves in the virgin territories and set up new forms of government with all the advantages of the material development and invention of the Old World. The great example is our own Republic. But it is almost a hundred years since the heavy hand of Spain was lifted from the Continent proper. It is more than fifty since, in the same year, 1867, Canada became a free, federated nation and Mexico was delivered from the fantastic dreamer, Maximilian.

The exact date of Columbus' landing is camouflaged by the Gregorian Calendar, since adopted. This gives us a chance to put in a few preliminary days, to make sure. But let October 12th be Liberty Day with a long, strong pull on the Loan that shall carry cheer to our troops in France and dismay to despotism in its most evil manifestation.

OPEN MEETING.

The Hesperian Club held its annual open meeting with Mrs. Sam Wulfjen last Friday. Miss Dry presided and the program was read by Mrs. Milburn Doss. The guests were besides the teachers in the public schools, Mesdames Edgar Majors, C. L. Root, W. P. Garvin, Avery, J. D. Wulfjen and Miss Shell Merrill. The members all helped the hostess welcome the guests and by the time all had arrived the true Hesperian spirit was felt by all.

The roll call was "How we may do our bit." Miss Ruby McGill gave a piano solo. She was heartily encored and most graciously responded with another number. The outgoing president, Mrs. M. K. Jackson, who is in Dallas, remembered the club by sending her message. This was a "Retrospection" read by Mrs. J. G. Merritt, and brought forth pleasant memories to every member. Elsie Lee Majors and Roddy Brooks Merritt sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." and responded to the encore with Joan of Arc. Master John Thomas Merritt sang to the delight of all the chorus of Long Boy. The incoming president, Mrs. Everett Winn, encouraged and inspired her members with her message, "The Trend of the Times," and all visitors were lead to higher ideals by having heard her message.

The Round Table talk was "Funny things I experienced as a suffragette." This was as enjoyable to the guests as the members, and many really amusing things were related.

Ice cream and macarons were served and corsage bouquets of autumn flowers were given as favors. The regular work will begin this week with Mrs. W. L. Doss as hostess. The program will be: Subject, Rise of Democracy. Roll call, Current events relating to congress. Paper, French revolution a preparation for democracy, Miss Chambers. Paper, Rise of industry in the 19th century and its relation to democracy, Mrs. W. L. Doss.

DEATH OF MRS. MCCARLEY.

On last Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, Mrs. A. J. McCarley died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Watson, after an illness of about ten days.

The funeral services were held at Zions Rest, and conducted by Rev. W. C. Garrett, pastor of Baptist church.

Mrs. McCarley was born in Douglas county, Alabama, December 1, 1850 and lived there and in Georgia until 1901, when she and her husband moved to Ellis county, Texas, and in 1909 they moved to Mitchell county, where they both spent their last days.

Mrs. McCarley was the mother of nine children, and was indeed a mother to three others, ten of whom are still living. Her youngest son is in army service in the Philippine Islands. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother, and a faithful christian, having been a member of the Baptist church since she was fourteen years old.

Hers was a full and well spent life and she was ready for the summons when the Master said "enter into the joys of thy Lord."

The Record joins the many friends of this family in extending sincere sympathy to those who mourn the departure from earth of this good woman.

SINCERE GRATITUDE.

Mrs. William Bell, Logansport, Ind. writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."

AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The text for Sunday morning will be "And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire."—Acts 28:3. At night "Follow thou me"—Jno. 21:22.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. Six per bottle.

Joe Y. Fraser is home on a few days furlough from Camp Bowie at Fort Worth. Joe says so far he likes army life very well, and is enjoying his visit here very much, as well as is some one else, no doubt.

BANKHEAD COMMISSION TO BEGIN INSPECTION ON OCTOBER 15

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 30—Much interest is being aroused throughout the country over the tour of the Bankhead Pathfinding Commission, which will inspect a number of proposed routes from Memphis, Tenn., to El Paso, Texas.

There are two routes to inspect between Memphis and Little Rock; two routes between Little Rock and Fort Smith; one route between Little Rock via Hot Springs to Texarkana, Ark.; two routes in Oklahoma; two routes in New Mexico and three routes in Texas. The official party will start from Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 15th and will be composed of ex-Congressman T. S. Plowman, President and J. A. Roundtree, Sec'y of the Bankhead National Highway Association, one United States Government Engineer, one Civil Engineer, three distinguished disinterested citizens living east of the Mississippi river. There will be several newspaper representatives, photographers, etc. The official party will be composed of ten and will travel in automobiles. The pathfinding party will have the latest equipment for observations of the topography of the country roads. They will have maps, data and all information about each route they are to inspect, before they start so they will know the route when they commence to travel over the same. The Pathfinding Commission, who pass on route is composed of five members; they will take a report of the most favorable route from Little Rock to El Paso and the Board of Directors will receive the same.

Secretary Roundtree, who is arranging details of the tour and who will have charge of the party, reports that, from the letters and telegrams received that the Pathfinding Commission will receive a most cordial welcome in the States of Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas. The people are anxious for the route to be settled and each one wants it through his State and county and town, and especially since the Bankhead Highway Route is definitely settled from Washington via Richmond, Raleigh, Greenville, S. C., Atlanta, Birmingham to Memphis, Tenn. passing directly through seventeen cantonments and military post aviation fields, making it a typical military road and with the prospects of the government building the same.

The Senate Committee on Military Affairs, of which Senator Chamberlain is Chairman, has set December 15th for the purpose of hearing and showing why the Bankhead Highway should be taken over as a military road and built by the Government.

GIRLS! IT'S YOUR STEP THAT ATTRACTS!

Says Women Pay too Much Heed to Their Face Instead of Their Corns.

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace, besides corns are very easy to remove.

Rid your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of Freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out without pain.

The freezone is a gummy substance which dries instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin.

Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhances her attractiveness.

The Kaiser used, in ante-bellum days, to complain that Americans went to France without visiting Germany. There are 1,600,000 Americans in France at present. More are getting ready to go, and the whole crowd will visit Germany before returning.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Catarrh cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 7c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Forward!

With no thought of bursting shrapnel and poisonous gases into which they plunge—with every muscle tense, with every faculty of mind alert, with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

That is the way our men are going into battle. When the shrill whistle sounds the advance, out they go—their whole heart in the task before them. No power on earth can hold them back.

Forward!

The same sharp challenge to battle is sounding for us. We must answer in the same proud way—the way of our fighting men—the American way. We must lend the way they fight.

We must show the war-maddened Hun a united American people moving forward shoulder to shoulder, irresistibly, to Victory.

Our task is to supply the money, the ships, the guns, the shells that we must have to win. It is a tremendous task. We must do it as our fighting men do theirs—with the indomitable spirit of Victory.

We must work, and save, and lend with one thought only—TO FIGHT AND WIN.

Get into the fight—with your whole heart. Buy Bonds—to the utmost!

FOSTER'S WEATHER PREDICTIONS

Foster gives us but little encouragement unless we lived in Canada. Foster says unusually cold weather is expected from October 10 to 17. This will be the coldest part of October. Temperatures will go high again near October 19 and be followed by moderate weather to the end of the month.

The great drouth will not end during October. Some rains are expected, but they will do less good than usual and the moisture will rapidly evaporate. The Mexican drouth ended in May, 1918, and the great drouth began in June following.

Very dangerous storms and most precipitation are expected during the nine days centering on October 21. Canada will get most rain during that period and much of the Canadian soil will be put in good condition.

You may think because we are clear across the Atlantic ocean we don't know what you people over there are doing, but to prove that we do, I will inclose a clipping I cut from this evening's paper. (The clipping he referred to was an account of the organization of the bankers of West Texas, at Sweetwater).

WHAT CATARRH IS

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors only irritate and do little if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with an oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-up, free from any harmful drugs, helping thousands. Try it.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smooth and beautify the skin.

All druggists will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

DEATH OF LITTLE GIRL.
On Saturday at 3:15 o'clock, Inez, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McAdams, died of Spanish influenza, and whooping cough; age 2 years, 7 months and 7 days. Her illness was of short duration, death having claimed her after two days of suffering. Everything that loving hands and medical skill could do, could not hold the little soul and body together, and she was laid to rest in the Loraine cemetery. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the sorrowing ones.

The manner in which our boys are shelling German cities reminds us of Poe's Raven—"Suddenly there came a tapping."

No new school buildings are to be erected during the period of the war, according to a recent ruling of the war department.

We heard a lady remark the other day that she didn't care if congress did "sit down on womans suffrage, she 'lowed women had suffered enough anyway."

It seems just now that man is an animal who spends half his time growling because it doesn't rain, and the other half because the Spanish influenza has "got loose."

The German peace offer reminds us of the day when we were the victim of the maternal slipper. We made promises galore 'till the hurting stopped, then we'd go back and do the same badness over again.

The Federal reserve bank of Dallas has issued a warning to the people of Texas, not to be swindled out of their Liberty Bonds by fake oil companies who want the bonds in exchange for their worthless scraps of paper.

The latest military weapon is the bullet proof automatic soldier which fires triple machine guns, using bullets of fire and gas. The weapon is controlled by radio from a bomb-proof dugout and bids fair to revolutionize warfare.

One million, eight hundred and fifty thousand broad shouldered American boys are now in France helping to raise the German speed limit, and promote the German graveyard industry. Heretofore there has been a dreadful shortage in that particular brand of graveyard.

Did you know that in the present Liberty Loan Campaign bonds are not to be sold on the plan of a "dollar down and a dollar some other old time." The government has instructed banks to collect ten per cent of the purchase with the application, and the remainder in four installments, Nov. 21, Dec. 19, Jan. 16, and the last in June 20th.

Have you bought a bond in the Fighting Fourth? Gen. Pershing and our noble boys have acquitted themselves with glory on European battle fields. Shall we acquit ourselves with honor over here? Secretary McAdoo has said it will take six billion dollars to whip the Kaiser and every true American knows that he must be whipped to a frazzle. The hour for sacrifice has come, and who shall be found wanting?

THOS. BURRUS FOUND DEAD.

On October 2nd, Thomas Burrus, who for ten years has been a citizen of Loraine, was found dead at his home north of Loraine. His daughter Mary Burrus made the discovery late in the afternoon when she found him in a sitting posture, supported by his buggy wheel. It is supposed that death was brought about by heart failure, and it was evident that he had been dead several hours.

Mr. Burrus was born in North Carolina, December 8, 1851 and was reared in that state, going from there to Benton County, Arkansas, from which place he came to Loraine in 1908. His occupation was that of a farmer. He was a member of the Primitive Baptist church, and an honest and highly respected citizen.

Funeral services were conducted at the Loraine cemetery by Rev. Bodine of Colorado. He is survived by ten children, only four of whom were present at the funeral. Two sons from Arizona and another from Oklahoma; also a daughter from Noodle, Texas, arrived after interment had taken place. Misses Grace and Mary Burrus were living with their father, and another son, Thomas, is serving his country, stationed at Long Island.

His wife who was Mary Emma Elmore preceded him eighteen years ago.

The pathetic circumstances surrounding his death was a shock to everyone, and the sympathy of Loraine and vicinity goes out to the bereaved relatives.

SCHOOL POSTPONED.

On Saturday afternoon Oct. 5, the school board held a meeting to discuss the advisability of postponing the opening of the Loraine public school until the epidemic of Spanish influenza should subside. Though the advice of City Health Officer, Dr. Martin, it was decided to postpone the opening date two weeks at least with the understanding that the date to be set earlier if possible. The situation remains about the same—no new cases have developed, and every precaution is being taken to prevent an epidemic.

METZ

Metz has a population of 60,000. It is one of the strongest fortresses in Europe.

Invasions have always followed valleys which are the highways of mountainous countries, and for this reason, too, valleys are always fortified against invasions. Thus the Valley of the Meuse is fortified by the French at Verdun, and the Valley of the Moselle at Toul and Nancy, while the Germans answer these fortresses with Metz. Invasion can proceed in neither direction without the reduction of these obstacles, because an army cannot leave a fortified place in its rear from which a force can be thrown out to sever its communications.

It is not necessary to anticipate the next American limited objective. The present objective—passing beyond all details of it—is the seizure of the Moselle gateway. The Americans are now planted squarely on it, and since their faces are toward Germany we can know they are going to press beyond the gateposts and follow the road itself. It is an old military road, this valley, and has echoed to the tramp and battle of armies for centuries. The Prussian and Austrian armies came that way to strike down the French Revolution. It was one of the passes through which Napoleon's enemies closed in on him for the final campaign in France after Leipsic. In the Franco-Prussian war a great French army was trapped in Metz, and the Moselle Valley became a German road.

Offensive operations toward Metz strike at one of the most important German bases in the West. The city and the twenty-eight encircling forts comprise what has been regarded as one of the most formidable fortresses in the world. Metz also is the center of important iron fields, which before the war supplied France and Germany with more than two-thirds of the ore used by their iron manufacturers.

Metz is on the Moselle 10 1/2 miles west of the French border. The city lays astride the Moselle river as well as on both sides of the Seille. Part of the city is on islands in the Moselle. To the east, north and northwest are the iron and coal fields of French and German Lorraine. Deprived of these fields Germany could not conduct the war another three months, it is asserted.

The chief iron field of the Rhine district is that of Lorraine, including the Bassin de Briey, (the center of which is the little village of Briey) the greatest iron producing region in the world. It is located mainly in Alsace-Lorraine and overlaps into Belgium and Luxemburg. It extends along the Franco-German frontier for thirty-five miles, almost up to Pont-a-Mousson.

Germany's possessions of the major portion of this productive area followed the signing of the Treaty of Frankfurt in 1871. Previous to the present war Germany obtained from the mines on her side of the frontier 21,000,000 tons of her total annual production of 28,000,000, while France got 15,000,000 out of a total production of 22,000,000.

Since her occupation in 1914 of the mines on the French side of the frontier Germany has added to her mineral wealth 15,000,000 tons annually obtained by the French, bringing her total production from Lorraine alone up to 42,000,000 tons a year.

The only practical road to this important region, military authorities agree, is the valley of the Moselle. At the head of the valley and barring the way lies Metz, ranking with Strassburg as one of the two great bulwarks of the German southwestern frontier. Metz is a city of 60,000 population, its chief industries being the manufacturing of weapons, clothes, shoes and hats.

As a fortress Metz has been important since the Roman era. Since that time it has never succumbed to frontal attack. Its present system of fortifications include 28 detached forts which encircle the city proper. The outer chain of defenses built within the last two decades and undoubtedly perfected since the outbreak of the present war, extend to Tionville on the north, and Gravlotte on the west.

West and southwest of Metz the course of the Moselle is lined with high-wooded hills. The German fortresses also is protected by heights and woods northward. On the south however, the terrain is more open with few hills and little wood.

From the American lines southwest of Metz the nearest forts are Forts Ha Selser and de Sommy on the right bank of the Moselle and Fort Kronprinz on the left bank. Fort de Sommy is less than five miles from the French town of Arnville on the Franco-German border. The forts surrounding Metz were similar to these at Liège which were notable for their disappearing turrets. German guns, however, overcame these forts.

Metz also is an important point on the railway line supplying the German line eastward from Laon.

The fall of Metz, not only would probably seal the fate of the iron and coal fields but, through the severance of railway lines, imperil the German line west of Loon and thence northward to the Belgium coast. All reports of a possible German retirement in the west have indicated that Metz would form one of the bastions of the German defense.
