The storm clouds don't have to be very dark before we lose sight of our fair weather friends.

Someone mailed us the following: "I saw an old friend last week. Years had gone by since we last visited together. Meanwhile he had done quite well in business. The inside of his calling card carried this fine message:

There are two days in every week about which he should not worry. Two days which should be kept free from fear and apprehension.

One of these days is yesterday, with its mistakes and cares, its faults and blunders, its aches and pains. . . . Yesterday has passed forever beyond our control.

All the money in the world cannot bring back yesterday. We cannot undo a single act we performed; we cannot erase a single word that we said—yesterday. . . .

The other day we should not worry about is Tomorrow, with its possible adversities, its burdens, its large promise and poor performance. Tomorrow is beyond our immediate control. . . .

Tomorrow's sun will rise, either in splendor or behind a mask of clouds—but it will rise. . . . Until it does, we will have no stake in Tomorrow, for it is yet unborn.

This leaves only one day—Today— . . . Any man can fight the battles of just one day. It is only when you and I add the burdens of those two awful eternities, Yesterday and Tomorrow—that we break down. It is not the experience of Today that drives men mad—it is the remorse and bitterness for something which happened yesterday, and the dread of what tomorrow may bring. Let us live but one day at a time.

The other day an interested citizen was giving one governing board down the country heck for not doing anything. . . . Afterwards we were wondering if perhaps they might be doing something after all. . . . In this day and time when some governing group meets and fails to up expenditures and taxes it could just be that they were doing the people the greatest favor of all.

It seems that most folks think this state senate redistricting amendment is a good thing. . . . Anyhow, we decided to go along and vote for it even after we had almost drawn a line against voting for any more amendments. . . . We had just about made up our mind to join the hold-that-line conservatives. . . . Take for instance, the four year term amendments—at the time they looked all for the good. But, when one takes the long look it appears to have been for the bad. In one sweep it took away one half of the voters say-so, and give the politician twice as long to get politically. . . .

One trend of thinking that worries us most of all has been growing worse for the last several Presidents, both Republican and Democrat. . . . This danger concerns

Shrinks Hemorrhoids
Without Surgery
Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinking) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Editorial

FOR THE RECORD

Mayor Kenneth Hale, members of the City Council, and City Secretary Bob Long are to be complimented for the financial reflection of Plains which was published in the recent audit.

The money has been well managed and the city has operated like a business should operate. The tally showed that our little city operated in the black.

In these times it is seldom true that a city will operate in the black. A poor example has been set by their big brothers at the county and state levels, not to mention the federal purse which has been over tapped for every pork barrel scheme with in one's imagination.

Our county officials and board members could well apply the merits of our well managed city. The hospital continues to go into the red and nobody wants to discuss the new park project which has already overdrawn itself to the tune of about $50,000.00. It looks like with this type of spending that the tax payers could have at least gotten a tree planted on the new golf course.

To each member of the City Council, and to the Mayor and the city personnel, we say thanks for caring what happens to John Q. Public's money and for managing the City of Plains like it is an independent business.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

On many occasions, and for many years, the nation's independent business proprietors voting through the National Federation of Independent Business have opposed increasing encroachments of State Dept. into all phases of American activity, as well as interfering with other nations.

Without State Dept. American taxpayers would have saved many billions thrown away in so-called foreign aid. State Dept. interference destroyed Winston Churchill's top protege, Anthony Eden, and turned the near East over to Nasser.

A case in point is the cold war now being waged against the Republic of South Africa by the State Dept. This is perhaps the only African nation not taking U. S. foreign aid. It is returning 13 to 17 per cent on almost a half billion dollars in American investments. It is the largest gold producer in the free world and maintains small put potent armed forces against communism. Yet South Africa cannot even buy arms or warships from the U. S. for cash.

The Republic of South Africa was founded in the 17th century by a few whites. Fewer negroes lived in the area than the number of Indians the Pilgrims found.

But as the whites through hard work and free enterprise developed a prosperous land, negroes from the midlands called Bantus, moved down to share in the developing wealth.

Big blocks of land have been given to the Bantus, to develop their own communities. They have their own local government which is represented in the national government, three Bantu universities, almost 30,000 Bantu teachers. In 16 years among 11 million Bantus there are more college degrees than have been awarded to 70 million other native Africans in the past 50 years.

In addition, it is recognized they have the right to practice their own religions and customs. For example, in their religion, they believe in polygamy, so in their own towns and on their farms polygamy is recognized. More than 12,000 Bantus own businesses.

It is perhaps quite fruitless at this date in history to compare the freedom of Bantu immigrants into South Africa with the American treatment of either the native Indians, or the colonizing Mormons.

The Republic of South Africa is not only militant opponents of communism, but what is perhaps more important, is an exponent of free enterprise.

They get not, neither do they ask, one cent of U. S. foreign aid. And it is indeed ironical when the U. S. so desperately needs South African gold that they cannot buy arms from the U. S. for cash. On the other hand, millions of foreign aid, plus arms is being handed out freely to jungle African nations, some ruled by communists, not to mention those where given opportunity, they eat American missionaries and emissaries.

CAYCE'S CORNER

Just imagine the lucky husband who was awarded a night out to go to see his favorite college team play a leading mid-western University. The hubby had probably been on his best behavior all summer long and had bribed the better part with a new fall coat and a pair of shoes and handbag to match. No doubt he tasted the tobacco of a quarter cigar and drove those 65 miles to Jones Stadium and every few minutes he probably reassured himself by feeling to see if that precious ticket was still in his suit pocket.

He no doubt settled into his seat at the stadium with the snug feeling of smelling the fall in the air and thought about what a great contest it would be. In fact, we are certain that he would deny it, but he probably even had a kind thought about his spouse and secretly said to himself that she used pretty good taste in selecting that new fall outfit. In fact he probably decided that he would smoke nickerle cigars the rest of the month and would cut out that extra cup of coffee to help meet the department store bill when the duns come out the first.

And then it happened! The clouds opened and the tubs of water fell on him. The civil defense signal went off and people yelled tornado and he could no longer see the dad burned field let alone either team. His quarter cigar wilted like a damp disrag, and the first thing that he knew,

Just Thinking

"FOR PARENTS ONLY"

THIS SELECTED ARTICLE SHOULD CAUSE US, AS PARENTS, TO PAUSE AND THINK.

THINKING that three hours of any movie are harmless for the child, but that two hours of Church and Sunday School are too much for his nervous system is just bad thinking.

GIVING him a nickel for the collection plate and fifty cents the movie not only shows a parent's sense of value, but is also not likely to produce a giver.

LETTING him watch and listen to several hours of TV thrillers a day with no time for one short prayer and a few Bible verses is criminal unbalance.

BECOMING careful that Junior has his weekly lessons, and caring not that he knows not his Sunday school lesson makes for spiritual illiteracy.

SAYING that a child must make his own decisions as to whether or not he should go to church, or as to what church, is shirking parental responsibility.

WHEN Father spends Sunday morning in mowing the lawn, cleaning the garden, or playing golf, his sons are left to walk alone.

WHEN PARENTS idle away Sunday morning in reading the paper or listening to the radio or TV while brother and sister are sent by themselves to church, something happens to the children's evaluation of church attendance.

If some women as much hindsight as foresight they wouldn't wear slacks.

Most of us think that tourists from other countries would think of New York as the favorite city in the U. S. A., however thirty foreigners on a recent tour voted San Francisco, their favorite.

They also voted Grand Canyon as the most impressive sight and Walt Disney the most fascinating showman.

The JFK grave at Arlington was the place they most wanted to see and they found Americans the world's friendliest people.

Bob Smirnoff says that the way to tell a naturalized citizen from one who was lucky enough to be born here is that the naturalized citizen knows the second, third and fourth stanzas of the Star Spangled Banner...

In going through my notes and some material which I file away to use at some time, I find the following poem written by Martha Lucilli Rhyne.

If you remember I shared one of her really clever poems regarding income tax time, in March. Martha is employed by the Farmers Fertilizer Company in Lovington.

This poem appeals to me as does its title, and I'm sure you will also like it:

THE SIMPLE THINGS OF LIFE
 The simple things of life are more precious than we know,
 The laughter of a child, the pure soft white of snow,
 The wind in the trees moaning soft and sweet,
 The warble of a little bird is really quite a treat,
 The fragrance of the violets in the early morn,
 The dog that follows you on each trip to the barn,
 The lofty mountain tops, the desert wide and bare,
 The little brook that gurgles as though it didn't have a care,
 To look upon a graceful tree, the sky so blue and wide;
 These simple things touch my heart and somehow make me satisfied.
 The thunder as it rolls and rumbles, a deep caress;
 The lightning as it flashes and takes away your breath,
 My heart fills with bursting when the sunset paints the sky;
 Oh to know such beauty as the clouds go drifting by,
 The blossoms from the apple tree floating gently in the breeze,
 Makes me thankful to my God and I fall upon my knees,
 These simple things of life, so gentle and serene,
 After God has washed the earth with rain so pure and clean,
 The pleasures from the simple things take away the worst of strife,
 These things make me what I am - the simple things of life!

Officers for 1965 - 66, Yoakum County Young Homemakers.

Yoakum County Young Homemakers

The September meeting of the Yoakum County Young-Homemakers was highlighted by the installation of new officers. The candle lit living room of the Home Economics Department was the scene. The installation table was set with red net over white linen and centered with an arrangement of red and white carnations and spiral candles. The installing officer was Mrs. Jim Barron, outgoing president. The new officers include Mrs. Kent Welch, president, Mrs. Vennum Fitzgerald, vice president, Mrs. Bob Mason, secretary, Mrs. Cordell Huddleston, treasurer, Mrs. Roy McGehee, reporter, Mrs. Jerome Head, historian, Mrs. Harry Richardson, parliamentarian, and committee chairmen, Mrs. Jim Barron, program, Mrs. Vennum Fitzgerald social, Mrs. Darrell Hobbs, publicity. The first act of the new president was to bring a spiritual thought to the chapter. Mrs. Welch also created the table arrangement.

The evenings program was presented by 4-H members from Plains and Denver City. David Box presided over a mock meeting and explained each action taken by the group. Their skit was well carried out and proved very informative. Others assisting with the program were Linda Blair, Royce Blair, D'Linda Lloyd, Linda Brown, Debbie Chadwick and Wayne Box of Plains and Vicki Rucker, Nancy Long and Donna Warren of Denver City. The group was under the leadership of Mrs. Sudie Thompson, home demonstration agent and honorary Young Homemaker. A formal tea was served in honor of the new officers and to welcome the new advisor, Miss Inez Peggram. Spiced tea and coffee were served from a silver tea service with hors d'oeuvre, mellow balls and layer cake from a beautifully appointed table. The incoming social committee, consisting of Mrs. Vennum Fitzgerald, Mrs. Alex Cross, and Mrs. Eldridge Tidwell were assisted by the outgoing chairman, Mrs. Jerome Head with the tea.

New members welcomed were Mrs. Harry Cayce, Mrs. Wynel Morgan and Miss Inez Peggram. Twenty four members and guests attended.

Yoakum County Young Homemakers projects on display in the window of Moore & Oden.

4-H Meet

Election of officers was the main business of the Lucky Clover 4-H Club meeting Tuesday night, September 13, at the club room in Plains. Officers elected were: Janalyn Lambreth, President, Peggy Rushing, Secretary, Gary Randall, Council Delegate, Teresa Hill, Vice President, Mike Blount, Treasurer, Elaine Todd, song leader, and Tommy Guy Box, reporter. Rita Jo Snodgrass and Georgia Gray gave a short report of their trip to Austin to the Attorney General's Youth Conference on crime.

Ten members from the Yoakum County General 4-H Club with David Box as President, gave a demonstration on correct parliamentary procedures that help to carry on a meeting. Those participating were Wayne Box, Debbie Chadwick, D'Linda Lloyd, Donna Warren, Vickie Rucker, Linda Brown and David Box. David Box let the Club motto and the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Shelia Taunton gave the devotion. Club adjourned until the next meeting, October 11, at the clubroom.

Our Soil, Our Land!

YOAKUM SCD NEWS BY C. MURRELL THOMPSON

There is more to a cover crop than just an idea. R. M. Jones, Chairman of the Yoakum County SCD Board is shown in rye over seeded in sudan stubble. The white spots are snow being held by the dead and green cover. Just as Bob's coat felt good that day, so does a cover crop feel to our top soil. Plant now on all bare ground.

BIG RAIN!

A thirsty Yoakum County received what was termed as a good general rain this week. The County Agent, Leo White and Murrell Thompson District Conservationist said that the County received up to four inches of rain since last week end.

Many farmers speculated that the rain was a big help to the cotton crop and definitely helped the grain. Several farmers speculated an opinion that the drought is broken and that good crops will be the result of the rain which has fallen since June.

The county has averaged about 12 inches of rain total in the past 3 1/2 months. This is far ahead of the average for the County.

YOUNG HOMEMAKERS

The Yoakum County Young Homemakers and Young Farmers held a watermelon supper at Plains Chemical Co. Inc., on Monday night as the kick-off for a week of activities in honor of Y. H. and Y. F. of Texas Week.

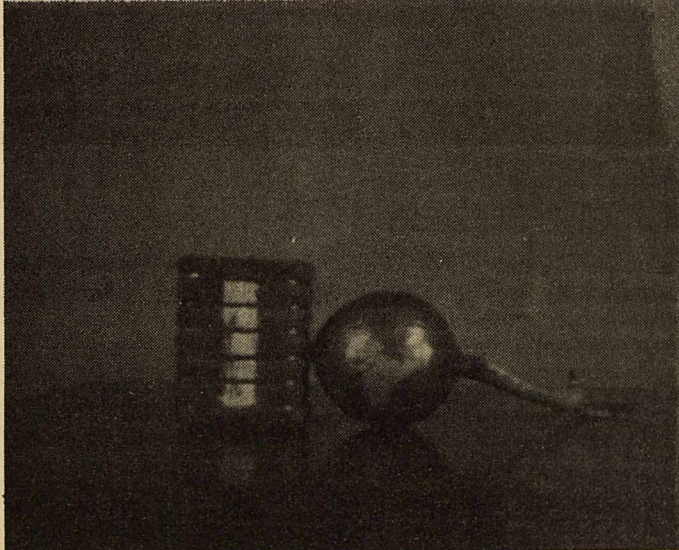

Gov. Connelly proclaimed September 19-25 as Y. H. and Y. F. of Texas Week. The purpose of this week is to inform the community of the aims, projects and activities of Y. H. and Y. F. and to attract new members.

The local Chapters have a display set up in the window of Moore & Oden. They are also planning a "42" party at the clubroom on Friday, Sept. 24, at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited.

Staking tall plants will prevent damage to blooms from wind and other weather and insure a cleaner specimen.

New Great Plains Contracts and Conservation Plans with the District and Cover crop planting are keeping a lot of people busy. Maps are now being used in writing Great Plains Contracts for P. Hudson, Jack Carother, W. M. Taylor and contracts have been completed on the William Worsham home place. Raymon Sherrin, Martin Bundick and Mrs. J. V. Been ranch are a few of the late SCD Plans. Maps are on hand to write plans for Rufus Bryan, O. H. Clark, J. W. Aldredge, and Robert A. Long. They have been ordered on Darwin Hobbs, Tommy Barron, Darrel Barron and Billy Rex Webb.

Cover crop planting was stopped by the good rain but will start again as soon as it is dry. There is a great increase in the interest in cover crops and especially in planting by airplane. R. M. Jones says he plans to plant rye in the stubble where harvested ensilage and where he has been grazing sudan and sorghums this summer.

SMALL COTTON, OR BIG ONION? IT REALLY ISN'T A TEXAS SIZE ONION IT'S A LOVINGTON VEGETABLE.

New Farm Market Sought Here

Interest has been expressed by local people in looking in to the possibility of getting a vegetable shed in Plains. The idea was discussed at a recent Chamber of Commerce meeting and information is being secured from an interested party in Dallas.

Statistics show that by 1970 that the surplus in the vegetable market will have ended and that a shortage will exist, and will grow more acute each year. Scientists state that more and more that the world will be forced to turn to synthetic foods, but that the taste preference will still be in the direction of fresh foods.

There will be at least 35 million more people in the United States to feed in 1970 and people favoring the production of vegetables in this area maintain that they would have the jump on other West Texas Counties if their goal could be achieved.

Others interested in the program illustrate that where the vegetable market has been risky in the past with a surplus supply that the shortage will create a good cash value to the crops.

These proponents also state that with cotton and grain allotments like they are and the peanut situation being similar, that more than a few farmers will look with interest on the production of vegetables.

Down These Halls

First of all we would like to congratulate the 1964-65 S. V. N. graduating Class on their fine achievements. I know it has been a long hard year for them, but I'm sure each of them feel it has been worth it.

We join together in wishing them the best of luck at State board next month.

Would like to say a "Cheery Hello" from our new S. V. N. Class. We have a nice group of 11 students. We have 1 student from Seagraves, Sharon Butler, 1 from Seminole, Billie Langford, 3 from Plains, Barbara Smith, Idell Murphy and Jessie Mae Braxton. Six of the students are from Denver City, they are Moray Studivant, Anne Evans, Jo Terry, Mrs. Sam Paris Pauline Orsini, Ketty Fulcher.

We feel we have one of the best instructors available. Mrs. Bonnie Heath R. N. She is the sister of Buddy Hanna of Plains.

Enjoyed having Rev. John Ferguson speak to us last week he brought words of wisdom, and inspiration to each of us. Would like to say "Thank you Rev. Ferguson,

Also a big "Thank you" to Wanda Greenfield who spoke to us on charm and etiquette. We've really come a long way already. Learning, Whee! The biggest thing we learned just took the first day. We found out right quick we're not nearly as smart as we need to be. You just can't impress anybody if you don't know nothin!

Did you know "the old noodle isn't a noodle at all? Its really the Cranium, that's the house the brain lives in.

Did you know we have hinges in our elbow? I'm sure mine are in the back of my neck all this bending to study.

Toured the hospital this week with Robbie as our hostess. Enjoyed coffee in the dining room with Mrs. McMah.

Cheers for Mrs. Paris who made 100 on her first test.

We elected officers this week as follows: President, Mrs. Barbara Smith, Plains, V. President, Mrs. Orsini, Denver City, Secretary, Mrs. Idell Murphy, Plains, Treasurer, Mrs. Kitty Fulcher, Denver City Social Committee, Mrs. Evans Miss Butler, Mrs. Studivant, Miss Langford, Historians, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Paris and Mrs. Braxton, Reporter, Jo Terry. Class Motto: Losing ourselves in service to others.

Colors: Purple and White Flower: White rose Song: "My God is Real"

See you next week.

Airman Third Class Harvey L. Wilkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilkerson of Plains, Texas, has been graduated at Lowry AFB, Colo., from the training course for U. S. Air Force munitions specialists.

Airman Wilkerson, a graduate of Plains High School, is being reassigned to one of the Air Force's major air commands within the U. S.

Jim Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Plains, is at home recovering from an injury which he received in the Plains-Friona Football game two weeks ago. Young Smith received a concussion and was hospitalized at the accidental injury. Barretts ambulance took Jim to the Denver City Hospital.

Jim Smith plays end on the varsity football team for the Cowboys. His mother reported that he is still bothered with headaches and has not returned to classes. She said that she doubted that he would be able to play football anymore this season, but that her son planned to play basketball when the season opens.

I'd like to thank everyone for all the kindness shown me while I was in the hospital and since I've been home.

Best wishes to each of you.

Jim Smith

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for all the kindnesses shown to us after the accident. May each of you be blessed in a very special way.
