'Veterans' Day' Is November 11

Americans have the opportunity Monday to pause a few moments from their busy affairs of the day to remember the nation's men and women who wear the title "Veteran".

Proclaimed "Armistice Day" by President Woodrow Wilson in 1919, Nov. 11 was for years observed as an annual day of tribute to those persons who fought and served in military branches during World War I. It continued to be observed thus until 1954 when Congress declared it a legal holiday to be known as "Veterans Day".

Observing this holiday, all city, county, and federal government offices, along with Plains State Bank will be closed Monday, Nov. 11.

Shane McMinn Holds Lead In Football Guessing Game

Without a doubt, the season's top predictor will be none other than Shane McMinn, who incidently takes this week's first place spot...again. McMinn tied with Chris Blundell and Wayne Davis as they all came up with 17 correct guesses last week. McMinn came closest in the tie-breaker, being off by 7 points; Blundell off 14 points and Davis, missing by 15 points.

Next week the season's "best guesser" will receive two tickets to the Dallas Cowboys-Chicago Bears game, one night's accomodation for two at Dallas Regent Hotel with transportation provided to and from the stadium by the hotel and cocktails before or after the game — a prize valued at $125.

Leading in the Season's Standings are Shane McMinn, 140 points; Wayne Davis, 124 points; Janice McGill, 114 points; David McGill, 111 points; Michael Covarrubias, 110; Chris Blundell, 107 points and Bobby Livengood, 106 points.

With the conclusion of the football contest, we would ask that all who participated to be sure and thank the sponsoring merchants who made the contest possible...Plains Body Repair, Chamber of Commerce, Yoakum County Co-Op Gin, Yoakum County Federal Credit Union, Pay-N-Save Grocery, Lazos Roustabout Service, Two J-S Flying Service and Cowboy Cleaners.

Plains High Band Recieves II Rating

Nine West Texas high school marching bands advanced to U.I.L. State Competition Saturday, following the Region B Marching Contest in Jones Stadium.

A disappointed Plains High School Band came home from Lubbock Saturday only second best, which did not earn them a right to state competition. In Class AA, Abernathy and Stanton bands were given the honor and the go-ahead to compete in Austin. McCamey High School Band, along with the Cowboy Band, scored a II. Stanton also rated a II in the division but will attend and compete at State level.

Plains Public Schools Slate 'Open House' November 12th

American Education Week is Monday, Nov. 11 through Sunday, Nov. 17. The Plains Independent School District faculty and personnel would like to invite the community to attend "Open House", Tuesday, Nov. 12, from 7 until 9 p.m.

Special happenings for the evening include a volleyball match at 6 p.m. between the Paducah High School Dragons and the Plains Varsity Cowgirls. This game will decide the District Championship.

Parents and persons interested may visit with classroom teachers who will be available for conference from 7 until 8 p.m.

Activities conclude with the production of the Junior High One-Act-Play, "Little Princess Sara Crewe". Beginning at 8:15 the play will be staged in the school auditorium.

Suit Filed In Harris County Against 'No Pass-No Play'

A Class Action suit has been filed in the District Court of Harris County, Texas, 334th Judicial District on behalf of all public school students and their parents or legal guardians in the state of Texas.

The suit questions the constitutionality of the "no pass, no play" rule. The action deems that the "penalties imposed by such laws and policies are so arbitrary and capricious and so harsh and unreasonable and so totally unrelated to any legitimate state interest as to be void."

Persons wishing to be excluded from this lawsuit may mail in a request to be excluded from class action suit. For more information you may contact Supt. Dean Andrews at Plains I.S.D., 456-7401.

Allsup's Quarter Horse To Compete In Oklahoma

A quarter horse owned by Lonnie D. and Barbara J. Allsup of El Cid Quarter Horses and Allsup's Convenience Stores of Clovis, N.M. and trained by Tom and Jackie Krshka of Yukon, Okla. will be competing in the American Quarter Horse Association's World Championship Show, the premiere Quarter Horse event, in Oklahoma City, Nov. 16, 23.

Lonnie D. Allsup will be among 2,025 participants from the United States and Canada taking part in the invitational show where a record $445,000 will be awarded during the week of competition. He will compete with his registered American Quarter Horse, Tasmanian Tari, a four year old bay mare in various classes at the show. An increase of 600 entries from last year's figure, this year's Quarter Horse showcase promises to be the most exciting, and largest, World Championship Show ever.

As an invitational show, participants must have qualified by earning a predetermined number of points in AQHA-approved shows held between August and July of the preceding year. The World Show is recognized as the highlight of the year for the Quarter Horse industry with its phenomenal prize money and highly coveted World Champion awards: 69 of which will be awarded.

The World Show is sponsored by U.S. Tobacco's Copenhagen and Skoal products and Levi Strauss and Company's Western-Wear Division, in cooperation with the Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce, Cutter Animal Health, Resistol Hats and Tempco (down-filled outerwear). Added prize money from show sponsors totals $124,500. Entry fees of $150 (weanling halter class entry fees are $500) are added back to each class, bringing the total purse in excess of $445,000.

This year's show begins Saturday, Nov. 16 with amateur classes continuing through Sunday. Open eliminations will begin Monday morning with final performances, witnessed by sellout crowds in previous years, beginning Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and continuing through Saturday evening.

While first-rate competition among the nation's top point-earning Quarter Horses generates a full week of excitement for contestants and spectators alike, the traditional race for two awards will offer added excitement. Levi Strauss and Co., for the third year, will award a saddle and $2,500 in cash to the top amateur rider who accumulates the most points in three or more World Show amateur events. A total of 34 amateurs will compete for the Levi's All Around Amateur Award this year. And, U.S. Tobacco will once again present their prestigious Copenhagen/Skoal Superhorse Award: $10,000 in cash and a trophy for the owner of the Top All Around Horse entered in three or more open events. Initiated in 1978, the Superhorse Award is one of the most coveted awards for American Quarter Horse owners, breeders and exhibitors. There will be 49 contenders to vie for the '85 Superhorse Award.

In addition to arena competition, the World Show Exhibition and Trade Show will be held throughout the week, along with a Sale, Nov. 22 and 23. Farm tours to Quarter Horse breeding farms in the Oklahoma City area, a collegiate judging contest, barbecues and dances round out the week's events.

Highlights of the World Show will be featured in a 90 minute television special to be aired on, ESPN in December. The telecast is produced by AQHA and JPI & Associates of Denver, Colo.

There Is Land Ahead

Louis Crenshaw
United Methodist Church

When I was in a Gulf Coast pastorate, often Leona and I went down to sea. Just married, all of life was tinted in golden glow. Sometimes we would frolic in the Gulf waters, then sit on the strand watching the tide come in. Waves breaking in white caps looked like gray beards of old men. Far out in green waters, pleasure ships were anchored. Their lights gave the impression of a floating city at sea.

Often we took a sea-going vessel around the bay. Our eyes saw the same body of water that Columbus and his men saw centuries before. When his sailors grew faint on their ocean voyage, Columbus drew from the water a tree limb on which were green leaves and fruit. Evidence beyond dispute indicated that there was indeed land ahead. Old world dreams became a new world reality. These were assured.

The life you and I travel is like a great ocean voyage. We sail far from the shore we left. Fear that there is no shore save the one we left makes us grow faint.

My question, "Does our broad sea have a shore ahead?" My faith and hope answers, "yes." The childhood shore I left is too far away. I can never return. Zephyrs from heaven now bring fragrance from the trees of God. I cannot see the place, though I can taste the fruit which tells me that the country is beyond compare.

Did you ever fly a kite into the fog? A man asked a boy flying his kite into the clouds, "What is on the end of that string?" The excited boy answered, "A kite!" "How do you know since you can't see it?" The unsurpassed answer was, "I know the kite is there because I can feel its pull."

We, the living, have not seen the Celestial City. It's there, for its pull is strong. Some of our best in Plains have so recently stood on the prow of the Ship Zion and caught a glimpse of that new land toward which they sailed. From their sick bed they heard the glad cry, "Welcome, heaven and home. The Day of God has dawned."

Plains Independent School District

From The Superintendent's Desk

DEAN ANDREWS

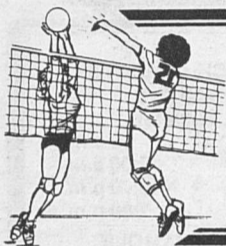

American Education Week is Nov. 11-17. The staff of Plains Independent School District would like to invite each of you to attend our Open House activities scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 12. We will begin with the area volleyball game against Paducah in our gymnasium at 6 p.m. The winner of this game will advance to the regional meet in Big Spring Saturday, Nov. 16.

All classroom teachers will be available for conference and visits from 7 to 8 p.m. and then our activities will conclude with the junior high one-act play in the auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

We encourage you to visit our school at any time, however, we would extend a special invitation during the open house activities.

I would like to congratulate our band on their performance at the Regional Band Marching Contest. Mr. Bill Shipp, Mr. Bill Strickler and the entire band have made us proud of their accomplishments. Another big "thank you" to the parents and fans who supported the band during their competition. There was an excellent following at Jones Stadium in Lubbock for the contest.

Volleyball Results

VARSITY

Levelland took the Cowgirls down in defeat Tuesday, Oct. 29 with scores 15-8, 11-15 and 15-10. Ruth Diaz served 12 of the 33 points Plains scored.

The Cowgirls hosted Seminole's varsity team Saturday, Nov. 2 and won the match, 15-13, 15-3.

Toni Lowrey gave 13 good serves in the game.

Pleased with the girls mental attitude, Coach Cain stated that the Seminole game "was a big win for the girls. The girls started off slow, but came on strong in the last two games of the match. Seminole has a good team. They have a lot of height and have good hitters. I'm pleased with their progress...but we still need to keep improving for the play-offs and try to be more consistent."

JUNIOR VARSITY

Elsie Carrillo served five points for Tuesday's game against Levelland in Lobo country.

The girls gave it up 15-7, 15-7.

8TH GRADE A

Seminole beat the visiting Wranglers, 15-12, 16-4 on Monday, Nov. 4. Sally Burrus was high point server, contributing 11 points.

"It seemed like our season had ended last Monday night instead of tonight by the way we played," commented Coach Foster. "It seemed like nothing clicked, but these girls have been great competitors all season long, and I have thoroughly enjoyed coaching them."

8TH GRADE B

Seminole's B team came down on Plains with 13-15 and 0-15, after the Wranglers won the first set, 15-12. Angie Murph served seven points in Monday's match.

"I was very pleased by the way the girls played the first two games. They really fought hard and they stayed tough throughout the games," commented Coach Foster. "We certainly had a mental collapse during the third game which was the deciding factor." Coach Foster continued praising the girls for their year long effort, saying she was very proud of them.

Cowboys Tame The Lions

By Randy Kennedy

On Friday night, Nov. 1 in the last home game of the 1985 football season, the Cowboys certainly didn't disappoint the Plains crowd. Putting on an impressive show, they rolled over the New Deal Lions with a 20-0 shutout score and thus upped their season record to five wins and four losses. They'll now spend a week in preparation for the tenth and final game of the season against the Seagraves Eagles on Nov. 8.

Reviewing some of the game's highlights, the first quarter of gridiron action got off to a slow start for both teams. After the kickoff, New Deal had the first possession of the ball but quickly lost it to a fumble on the second play of the game. Recovering at the Lion 30, the Cowboys then tried their luck at moving the ball and they, too, met with no success. The entire first quarter continued in this manner, with each team's drives either ending in untimely fumbles or fourth down punts. As the first quarter expired on the immobilized teams, the score remained 0-0.

The second quarter seemed to be only a deadlocked sequel to the first. As the quarter got underway, number 35, Alfred Ledesma intercepted a Cowboy pass deep in New Deal territory, but the Lions were unable to follow up on this good break. Falling to a fourth down and thirteen situation, they were forced to punt. The quarter slowly progressed, and although Plains was offensively stalled, the Cowboy defense started to come on strong. Billy Curtis, Ronny Wall and Michael Diaz all penetrated into the backfield for successful quarterback sacks. As time ran out in the first half of play, neither team had managed to put points on the board.

Moving into second half action, the Cowboy's scoring ability was a different story altogether. On a long, well sustained drive, lasting 7:07, the Cowboys marched down the field and finally drew first blood. A nine yard spiral from quarterback Shane McMinn to senior receiver Mickey McMinn ended the drive and put Plains' first six points on the board. A failed extra point attempt followed and the score was 6-0, Plains, at the close of the third quarter.

The final quarter of the game was characterized by a succession of personal foul penalties and two more Cowboy touchdowns. First, with 11:18 left in the quarter, the Cowboys operated off of a New Deal fumble at the 30 yard line and scored. A 35 yard touchdown completion to senior Billy Curtis did the job, upping Plains' lead to 12-0. At this point, penalties began to play a large factor in the game. A total of four personal foul violations were called against the Lions, eventually placing the Cowboys on the New Deal nine yard line with the aid of penalty yardage. With 3:23 remaining in the game, substitute quarterback Mickey McMinn ran into the end zone from 8 yards out on a veer and followed up with a two point conversion pass to junior Joe Rivera. Time finally ran out on the battle with the final score - Plains, 20 and New Deal, 0.

As the 1985 football season is drawing to a close, the Cowboys will square off against their last opponent, the Eagles of Seagraves, on Friday, Nov. 8 at 7:30 p.m. A pep rally is scheduled to take place in Eagle Stadium in Seagraves at 7 p.m. Everyone planning to attend the game is asked to make a special effort to be present for the rally.

The Chrysler Deal: How To Kill U.S. Jobs

By Edward J. Walsh

(Editor's Note: Edward J. Walsh is a staff writer with the USBIC Writers Syndicate. His column is published in a variety of newspapers throughout the United States.)

The eight-day strike by the United Auto Workers against Chrysler Corporation is now history. The walkout cost Chrysler $17 million per day in lost production, but UAW president Owen Bieber considers it a great victory. "I've got a smile on my face, and I might say, it's a very broad one," he said.

The new contract which will cost Chrysler $1 billion, will run until September 1988. Under its terms, Chrysler's 70,000 workers will receive base-pay increases of 2.25 percent and 3 percent in the first and third years respectively, and a 2.5 percent lump sum payment in the second year. The wage settlement restores Chrysler employees to "parity" with those of Ford and General Motors. In addition, they will get a $2,100 lump sum bonus in compensation for wage concessions in 1979, when Chrysler nearly went broke. Retirees will get $1,200 over two years. Further, the union won a profit-sharing plan, higher pensions, and protection from layoffs recommended by measures that would improve productivity. It also got the corporation to back away from its plan to change job classifications to increase productivity. The union consented only to formation of a "national mechanism" that would review the 500-odd job classifications in effect in Chrysler plants.

In a nutshell, hints Mr. Bieber, the contract amounts to vintage, all-American toughness by determined unionists defending their rights against greedy management. Isn't it?

Not exactly. There are a few problems with the contract. Chrysler refused to surrender the option to transfer or "out-source" work to non-union or overseas facilities. It offered only to consult with the union when considering out-sourcing.

Says a Chrysler executive, "We've already done a lot of it, but where do we stop? This contract just raises the level of the hurdle over which our car programs have to go to be profitable in the U.S."

The key phrase there is "in the U.S." The UAW now crows that it has restored itself as a monolithic representative of all the autoworkers by getting Chrysler workers back on the same pay scales as those at Ford and GM. What it has done is guarantee that the American auto industry becomes less American. Mr. Bieber looked at Ford and General Motors and saw higher wages for his members than Chrysler paid them. He did not see, or preferred not to see, two behemoth companies that willingly put with nonproductive, noneconomic UAW contracts in order to avoid strikes and bad publicity, then immediately assume their identities as multinational businesses by shipping work to Mexico, Europe and Asia.

"Out-sourcing" has already totally transformed Ford and General Motors into purely international, rather than American entities. Chevrolet Sprints and Spectrums are built in Japan by Suzuki and Isuzu. The Pontiac Sunbird uses an engine built in Brazil, and the Ford Escort is equipped with a transmission built by Mazda. Already, Chrysler buys most of its engines from Mitsubishi. By 1988, an as-yet unnamed Pontiac will be built in South Korea, by Isuzu, based on a design by GM's Opel subsidiary in West Germany.

The one exception to the trend is General Motors' Saturn project, which will produce a revolutionary subcompact with revolutionary labor practices at a new plant in Tennessee. To do so, it has already forced the UAW to submit to vastly reduced seniority benefits and simplified work rules. Since it is building in the U.S. to compete with the Japanese, it will make its workers produce like the Japanese. That means no union bullying.

Chrysler does not have GM's muscle, nor does it have the profits to pay for its new labor contract without sending more jobs overseas. But Owen Bieber and his cronies in the UAW's office building in Detroit aren't concerned. As their union grows smaller, no one threatens to send their jobs overseas. Thanks to him and his accomplices, that's where more American auto jobs will end up.
