Expansion & Remodeling Completed At Plains Jr. High

Parents of junior high students and all other interested persons are invited to visit the recently completed renovation of Plains Junior High School building. Jimmy Conner, principal, extends the invitation.

Students have been using the new facility the past six weeks. All that is original in the structure are the exterior walls and terrazzo tile floors in the main east-west corridors.

Reconstruction began in November 1984 by Monterey Construction of Wolforth. Architects were BGR Architects and Engineers of Lubbock. Total cost of the project, completed this week, was $816,996.

South wall of the building has been extended eight feet to provide an additional five classrooms and commons area near students lockers. That area is furnished with tables and chairs for study and social activities. Offices and the teacher's workroom have been enlarged.

The elementary resource center, serving grades K through eight is located here, enabling students to learn and use library skills at an early age. A new computer lab now utilizes the curved wall in the former band hall. It is equipped with 19 Apple IIe computer terminals, each with dual disc drives and printer. The computers were purchased from C.A.S.A. Computers in Lubbock. Placed along the curved wall enables the instructor to see all the students at work from any place in the room. Students in the seventh and eighth grades and one high school class have the opportunity for computer training in this superior lab.

Electrical wiring and plumbing are new throughout the building. PJHS now boasts 16 classrooms with current enrollment of 164 students in grades 5-8.

City Candidates Need To File

Plains residents wishing to file for city election have until 5 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 19. Positions to be filled will include Mayor and two seats on the city council, vacated by Bob Barton and Zarita Winn.

Filing must be completed before the deadline. There is no fee.

H.K. Henniger Announces Candidacy For County Judge

"My announcement and filing for the office of Yoakum County Judge is motivated by a desire to use the office to do positive and constructive things for the citizens of Yoakum County," stated H.K. Henniger this week.

"My desire to be the next County Judge has not been motivated by any kind of dislike or animosity toward any person or persons," he adds, "nor is it motivated by the fact that other persons have filed for the office."

"My attitude and feeling about life is basically this: The past doesn't matter that much, what is done is done and cannot be changed, it's the future that counts."

Henniger states he would "like to retain all the good things for Yoakum County that its' citizens have going for them, to do his best to correct weaknesses and to seek new and better ways to increase the quality of life for all citizens of the county."

A graduate of Abilene Christian University with a degree in Bible, Henniger is a veteran of the U.S. Army and served as a Texas Highway patrolman from 1956 to 1966. From 1966 to 1974, he was in full time church work as a student and missionary to Thailand.

Captain with the Denver City Police Department, Henniger has served as director of training for South Plains Association of Governments Law Enforcement Academy in Lubbock and was employed as full time deputy and jailer from 1982 to 1984.

Henniger and his wife, Dora are parents of three daughters.

Conservation Meetings Set In Farwell, Plainview

High Plains Farmers who are interested in learning more about cutting operating expenses, saving water, increasing profits, and reducing soil and water erosion are invited to attend two conservation meetings in February.

Edwin Livengood, District Conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service here in Plains, said the first meeting will be held at the Community Center in Farwell Feb. 13 beginning at 9 a.m.

"The meetings will feature farmers who are using conservation tillage farming systems and irrigation water management," Livengood said. "Several kinds of irrigation and conservation tillage equipment will also be on display."

The Farwell meeting will be sponsored by local Soil and Water Conservation Districts, USDA Soil Conservation Service, Farmers Association for Conservation Tillage and other organizations and businesses.

A Plainview meeting will be sponsored by Hale County Soil and Water Conservation District, Golden Spread Chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America, Agricultural Research Service and Soil Conservation Service.

Free lunches will be served by participating chemical and equipment companies.

Extension Agent Presents Program

Mary Dale Williams, Yoakum County Extension Agent, presented a program on "Vitamin and Mineral Supplements Can Be Harmful" for members of Turner Extension Homemakers Club in a Jan. 29 meeting in the home of Gay Wilmeth.

The hostess gave a demonstration on making decorative butterflies.

Attending were one guest, Janice Newsom, and members, Emily Boling, Pat Curtis, Dorothy Jones, Cecelia Knight, Jerry Lollar, Bitsy Martin, Doris Smith, Maurine Smith, Helen Worsham and the hostess and extension agent.

Next meeting is at 2 p.m. Feb. 11 with Sherry Burrows for a program on "Membership Begins With Me".

Passport Wait Now Minimal

Persons interested in obtaining passports or anticipating such a step soon, are encouraged to do so now. Mae Barnett, District Clerk, reports the passport agency in Austin has issued notice that processing of a routine passport application is now taking only four days plus mailing time.

During peak season of spring and summer, processing of applications can take up to four weeks, Ms. Barnett notes.

Irrigation Analysis Need Cited By Edwin Livengood

A good yield at the end of the year is often determined by the amount of stored soil moisture at planting time. If the plant root zone is filled with soil moisture at planting time, it will get crops off to a good start as well as provide a large portion of the total water needs of the crop during the growing season, according to Edwin Livengood of the Soil Conservation Service.

If soil moisture conditions are not at field capacity, farmers should make every effort to maximize the harvest of precipitation between now and planting time to fill the soil profile with water.

Toward the end of the growing season, crops grown in this area utilize more water per day than most irrigators' wells have the capacity to supply. Stored soil moisture can make up the difference, and thus return tremendous dividends at harvest time.

The SCS is now making appointments for irrigation system evaluations. Anyone wishing to know how to make his irrigation system more efficient, should set up a time for a complete irrigation analysis, Livengood said.

PICKLED BLACKEYED PEAS
Use:

2 #2 cans cooked dried blackeyed peas
OR:

3 c frozen blackeyed peas, cooked
1 c salad oil
¼ c wine vinegar
1 clove garlic or garlic seasoning
¼ c thinly sliced onion (I prefer green onions and use the tops also)
½ t salt
pepper to taste

Drain peas and place in a pan or bowl, add remaining ingredients, and mix. Store in a jar in refrigerator; remove garlic clove after one day - at least 2 days before serving - up to 2 weeks.

Red Kidney beans could be substituted for the blackeyed peas.

SHRIMP A LA HELEN
("for want of a better name")

Peel 1 lb raw shrimp; wash well and put in a pan and cover with:
2 T finely chopped parsley
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 c salad oil

Leave in the refrigerator all day and night, too (if time allows). When ready to serve, place on a shallow pan with the oil that clings to them and broil 3 mins. on each side. Salt lightly. (VERY LITTLE)

Be sure not to overcook as they will be tough. If small shrimp are used just broil 2 mins. on each side. Serve speared with toothpicks.

OLD FASHIONED SCOTCH SHORTBREAD
("from a friend whose grandmother brought this from Scotland")

2 c flour
½ c sugar
½ lb butter, NOT OLEO

Blend flour, sugar and butter together with a pastry blender, until very smooth. Press into a small Pyrex pan with fingers. Prick with a fork to the bottom. Bake 30-40 mins in 325° oven or until delicate brown. Cut into small squares and let cool.

ORANGE, DATE & PECAN BREAD
(1 loaf)

1 orange (½ c juice)
½ c boiling water
1 c dates
1 c sugar
2 T melted butter
1 egg, beaten
2 c sifted flour
1 t baking powder
¼ t salt
1 t soda
½-1 c pecans, chopped

Squeeze juice from orange and add boiling water to make 1 c liquid. Remove pulp from orange and put peel through food chopper. Combine with dates. Combine liquid, fruit, sugar, butter and egg. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and soda together and add to liquid and fruit. Mix well; add nuts. Bake in greased loaf pan at 350° for 50-60 mins. Cool in pan.

Restricted Use Classification Labeled On Certain Chemicals

Certain granular formulations of pesticides containing any one of five active ingredients — aldicarb (Temik), carbofuran (Furadan), disulfoton (Di-Syston), phorate (Thimet) and terbufos (Counter) — have recently been classified as restricted use pesticides by the Environmental Protection Agency. Some, possibly all, of the pesticide products subject to the classification action that are currently available locally may bear restricted use labeling. Restricted use pesticide products may be used only by or under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

Yoakum County producers who anticipate use of any of the granular formulations of the five active ingredients affected by this action and who are not currently certified may wish to qualify for certification as private applicators. A producer of agricultural commodities may qualify for certification as a private applicator by submitting a completed questionnaire to the Texas Department of Agriculture following a review of training materials, according to David Kight, County Extension Agent. Materials for use in obtaining private applicator certification through home study may be obtained at the county Extension office.

Producers, previously certified as private applicators, who no longer hold their private applicator certificate may direct inquiries regarding reissuance of the certificate to the Texas Department of Agriculture. Forms for use in making the inquiry are also available at the County Extension Office. The information given herein is for educational purposes only. Reference to chemical products or trade names is made with the understanding that no discrimination is intended and no endorsement by the Cooperative Extension Service is implied.

Section Of US 82 To Be Resurfaced

A 14.9 mile section of US 82 from US 380 in Plains to the New Mexico State Line will be resurfaced soon under a contract approved today by the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission.

The work is part of a $3.7 million project to improve 190 miles of highway in the highway department's 17-county Lubbock District, and is a result of improved state highway funding, according to department officials.

"A few years ago, the amount of this type of resurfacing work was next to nothing due to lack of funds," said William M. Pope, highway department district during 1986."

The resurfacing, known as a seal coat, protects the road from water and ice damage, and also improves skid resistance. The work on US 82 is scheduled for this summer, and will be done by High Plains Pavers, Inc. of Plainview.

Plains Independent School District

From The Superintendent's Desk

DEAN ANDREWS

The University Interscholastic League utilized October enrollment figures as the first step in realigning high school football and basketball districts this year. In the past U.I.L. has used two year averages for assigning districts.

There are 1,144 schools participating in football and basketball programs in Texas. Plains High School will be competing in Class A. Class A schools are those schools having an average daily membership up to 134. Our high school average daily membership for October was 131.50, so you can see that we will be one of the larger schools in Class A for the next two years.

We will be competing in different districts in football, basketball and volleyball. Districts are as follows:

DISTRICT 3A FOOTBALL

Plains, Sands, Klondike, Meadow, O'Donnell, Ropes, Sundown and Wilson

DISTRICT 5A VOLLEYBALL

Plains, Union, Klondike, Grady, Loop and Wellman

DISTRICT 12A BASKETBALL

Plains, Union, Loop, Dawson and Wellman

There will be district meetings in football and basketball on February 19, 1986, to schedule games for the 1986-87 seasons. We are excited that now we have the opportunity to compete with schools of our size and we look forward to the coming seasons. We appreciate your support and hope that you will continue to support our schools in the same excellent manner as in the past.
