Plains Resident's Free Time Literally 'For The Birds'

Some folks enjoy the hunt of gamebirds. For Plainsman Hershel Smith, the pleasure is in raising them. He has pursued this interest three years, getting involved initially by a co-worker, Royce Randall.

Impressed with Randall's set up for raising birds, Smith decided to get involved in the fascinating hobby. At present, he has three varieties of pheasants, the Ringneck, Silver and Golden. He has two varieties of quails, the Blue Scale and Gambel.

Smith was recently contacted by a representative of the State Government about raising a new strain of pheasant. Called the Afghan Cross, it is similar to the Ringneck but is heartier and better suited to the West Texas climate.

Anyone interested in raising the new strain or in stocking them on their land may contact Smith for information on obtaining them.

Enjoying his free time evenings with his flock of gamebirds, Smith says the hobby is a family affair that includes his wife, Debbie and their sons, 12-year-old Jason, and eight-year-old Luke. His boys enjoy getting into the pens and have managed to tame some of the birds the family has raised.

Computer Analysis Program Slated

The Yoakum County Extension Service in cooperation with Plains Independent School District will be holding a program on Micro-computer Analysis for Farm and Ranch Management. The program will be held Monday, Feb. 9, from 7 to 10 p.m. in the typing room in Plains High School.

Limited facilities are available. The class will be offered on a first come first serve basis. Interested persons must call and make reservations by Feb. 5. The number to call is 456-2263.

Student Loan/Grant Services May Have Hidden Costs

Parents of junior and senior students need to be aware that there is a growing practice with profit-making organizations, of contacting parents of college-bound students with offers of guaranteed student loans, grants and scholarships, according to Plains I.S.D. Superintendent Dean Andrews.

"It is important to realize that these services usually have costs attached. Some insurance companies offer guaranteed student loans, but have tied high premium life insurance policies to them. Some technical schools with very expensive tuition have recruited students in their homes. It is wise to be cautious," warns Andrews, "when considering unsolicited offers."

Parents are advised to be informed of all facts before signing any contract or paying money in advance. If parents or students have any questions, please call Arlon Alexander at Plains High School, 456-7498, during regular school hours.

"FOR THE BIRDS" -- Hershel Smith holds a Golden Pheasant, a gamebird originating in China, which he raised. He has been raising gamebirds for pleasure for about three years. He presently has pheasants and quails.

Yvette Vasquez, Freddy Ramos Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

MR. &amp; MRS. JOSE ALFREDO RAMOS

'Spending Plan' Tips Given By Extensionist

Going over last year's receipts, cancelled checks, W-2 forms and other papers to get ready for tax time is never much fun. But it's even more bothersome when it creates some nagging doubts about how well last year's income was spent, according to Mary D. Williams, Yoakum County Extension Agent.

You might avoid the problem next year by establishing a family spending plan for 1987 while the year is still young. Whether you have a lot of money or a little, a sound plan for spending is the key to having dollars for what is need and wanted before the money disappears in unexpected ways.

It's fairly simple to set up a spending plan. First calculate your 1987 income from all sources. Then, while you've got all your 1986 financial records out, use them to estimate your expenses for next year.

So you don't miss items or underestimate what you spend, look at your weekly, monthly and yearly expenses. Some of the things we buy with "pocket money" such as restaurant meals or recreation expenses often get overlooked. And don't forget to include irregular expenses, such as semi-annual insurance payments or car servicing.

When you have these two sets of figures, you can plan ahead for what you will spend each pay period, and how much you should set aside in savings to meet irregular bills and unexpected expenses.

Having a spending plan also allows you to "bill" yourself for a certain amount each pay period which can go into savings to meet long-term financial goals. That goal might be a downpayment for a new house or car, college expenses, a vacation or a retirement nest egg.

It takes practice and patience in keeping financial records so that you can use fairly accurate amounts for planning rather than estimates. But good records can help you see where you might want to cut your spending plan in some areas and increase it in others.

We have a number of Extension publications which contain worksheet and logs to help keep track of family spending. There is a letter series -- "Mastering Money Management" available. Call the Extension Office, 456-2263, if you would like to get this mail series.

Young Farmers Slate Meeting

Interested persons are encouraged to attend.

Miss Gloria Yvette Vasquez and Jose Alfredo Ramos pledged double ring wedding vows in a Dec. 20 ceremony in St. John's Catholic Church in Monahans.

Rev. Jamie Isreal officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso D. Vasquez of Monahans and Mr. and Mrs. Alfredo Ramos.

Music was presented by Conda Lee. Ramon Diaz, solo guitarist, played "Yvette". Arlinda Valencia sang "Sunrise, Sunset", "The Lord's Prayer" and "Ave Maria".

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal length gown of ivory allegro satin styled with fitted bodice featuring a high sheer yoke of English net. Florals of beaded Alencon lace adorned the bodice front and deep vee back. Pearls and sequins enhanced the Alencon lace and satin Austrealin sleeves. Alencon lace medallions and pearls embellished the front of the skirt which swept to a cathedral length train. A wide band of Alencon lace edged the hemline of the gown and train.

Her two tiered waist length veil of illusion was attached to a pouff of illusion held by a wide band of pearls and crystals. She carried a flowing cascade of ivory roses, stephanotis, leather leaf fern and needlepoint ivy centered with a cattleya orchid.

Laura Smith of Rankin was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sofie Lezama of Odessa, Danette Arreguy, Penny Escamilla and Marcela Marengo, all of Monahans, Margie Diaz, Dora Rios, Melissa Garcia, Janie Ramos, Alice Rios, Estella Caballero, all of Plains, and Gloria Calsoncin of Lubbock.

Wide bands of satin with large bows and rhinestone pins accented the hiplines. They carried cascades of ivory roses, miniature carnations, stephanotis, leather leaf fern and needlepoint ivy tied with ivory picot satin ribbon streamers.

Crystal Calsoncin of Lubbock was flowergirl. Elaine and Carrie Escamilla distributed programs.

From The Superintendent's Desk

DEAN ANDREWS

If you were to ask someone my age or older, "What comes to mind when you see the word "ENTER", they would probably say it is a sign over a door inviting you to go through. A younger person though might have a much different answer. Soon all young people will recognize the word "ENTER" as being the command in computer operations that enables the hardware to operate.

Several people have seen and asked about the 10' satellite dish on the southeast corner of the high school gymnasium. This dish is an essential part of the TI-IN (Texas Interactive Instructional Network) system for receiving educational programs for instruction in our school. This satellite dish combined with the computers already in our school allows us access to a vast amount of information. This means of communication was almost unheard of five years ago and is now a reality in our school. Many good things will come through this system. We will receive two educational stations but no H.B.O. or other controversial programming.

Our high school students will be able to take many advanced courses for credit such as computer mathematics, calculus, computer science, creative writing, trigonometry, French, German, Latin and many others. Programs are also available to assist students in preparation for TEAMS testing, ACT and SAT testing, as well as basic skills. Our junior high and elementary students will be able to participate in basic skill booster programs. TEAMS testing information and enrichment courses will also be available for these students.

Our community will also be able to participate through our community education program. Courses available will include college level courses in English, small business computer accounting and micro-computers for agriculturalists.

Our teachers will be able to receive inservice training in areas of developing writing in the elementary grades, drug abuse prevention, varying instructional strategies, teaching reading as thinking, and many more.

The Texas Education Agency has scheduled three and one half hours weekly to discuss various problems facing education and strategies for meeting the needs of students in these changing times. The mandates of curriculum changes are causing schools to seek new ways to meet the needs of their students. I don't think we are extreme, but just maybe a step ahead in trying to give our students and staff an even sharper edge. Our staff is doing an excellent job of teaching and is continuously getting better.

POINTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

Decorating The Bathroom

Bright colors...bold colors for wall design...attractive fixtures—with today's new looks in home decorating, you no longer need to settle for a drab, unattractive bathroom.

Indirect lighting fixtures spread brightness over an entire bathroom. White walls aid in overall lighting to make the bath bright enough for grooming. Twin lighting fixtures near the mirror and indirect or ceiling lights are a must for convenience.

The right kind of storage space can make using your bathroom easier. Built-in units keep glasses, paper towels and toothbrushes regimented and off the lavatory.

Easy-care flooring is important in making a bathroom look good. Cotton carpeting can be taken up easily for laundering. Hard-surface floorings are still carefree, easy up-keep favorites.

A decorator's favorite for giving bathrooms a truly elegant look at an affordable price are the new stylish designer's faucets. The new faucets from NIBCO INC., for instance, come in antique bronze with a smoked acrylic handle and polished brass with a crystal-clear acrylic handle and are available at up to 30 percent less than the decorator lines of other major faucet makers.

This year's line is washerless and features a corrosion-resistant underbody of a plastic called CPVC, as well as a "puttyless" putty plate that not only improves the appearance of the faucets but also conforms well to irregular sink top surfaces for a water-tight seal.
