Harassment Calls Being Investigated

Linda Lowrey, Criminal District Attorney, reports of telephone harassment occurring in the Plains area.

Phone lines have been tapped and offender(s) will be identified, she states.

Harassment is a Class B misdemeanor, punishable by a fine up to $1,000, a jail sentence not to exceed six months or both fine and jail sentence.

"Parents should make certain their teenagers are aware that making frequent calls to a number and hanging up each time the phone is answered, can constitute harassment," says Ms. Lowrey.

Plains School District To Offer Summer Program

Plains Independent School District will offer a special bi-lingual program this summer for children who do not speak and/or understand English as well as they need to. The program is designed for students who will be in kindergarten in the fall of 1988.

Parents are encouraged to send their children although participation is not required.

Starting June 27, the eight weeks course will end Aug. 19. Classes will be weekdays from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. No meals or snacks will be served and transportation will not be furnished. Families are responsible for providing transportation to and from school.

There will be no charge for the program. Certified teachers will be employed by the school district. Regular attendance is requested in order for the program to be successful.

Families who have children who might qualify for the program should contact John Nance at 456-7438. Registration will be March 28 through April 6.

From The Superintendent's Desk

DEAN ANDREWS

It seems that every other week I am writing about school funding. If you get tired of hearing or reading about this subject, please let me know. However, I can assure you that this problem is not going to go away.

Governor Bill Clements appointed a Select Committee on Education recently, made of up fifteen members which include private citizens and lawmakers. Larry Jenkins of Austin was selected as chairman. Jenkins says that his panel complements the education task force that was headed by Dallas billionaire H. Ross Perot.

The committee was told at its first meeting late last month that it will look at massive consolidation of the state's 1,086 school districts and other dramatic changes as it strives to make Texas' school finance system constitutional.

State Education Commissioner W.N. Kirby has warned that the committee's proposals to revamp the funding of public schools probably will be costly and controversial. "One of the things the taxpayers of this state have to learn is that excellence is not cheap," Kirby said. "There are a whole series of operations that you will have to look at," Kirby told the committee.

Clements has said that the reform panel will have "very, very broad" authority to investigate all areas of public education. "That means that anything they want to dig into and anything they want to investigate and any recommendations they want to make are perfectly in order," he said. "Without question, public education funding and local control represent the No. 1 issue in the next session of the Texas Legislature. The question is whether local control of our school districts will become a thing of the past."

Judge Clark has given the state until September 1, 1989, to overhaul the school finance system or he will step in and order the changes himself. Clements said several lawyers familiar with the case "have been pessimistic about reversing Judge Clark" on appeal.

MRS. JOHNNIE BROWN

Kitchen Korner

Family favorites are the recipes shared with Kitchen Korner this week by Barbara (Mrs. Johnnie) Brown. Barbara also offers suggestions on what to serve with the compliment winning recipes.

"I guess I got my knowledge of cooking from my mother, Mrs. Rose Hash of Sherman," says Barbara. "She was a great cook and today, at 86, she still is!"

Barbara wins raves too from her children and grandchildren. She still treasures the memory of one day when daughter Sue came home from school. While eating a snack prepared by her mother, Sue exclaimed, "Mama, sure wish you would cook at school cause you're such a good cooker!"

The Browns are parents of three grown daughters, Connie, Sue and Johnna. They are proud grandparents of five "special grandchildren", Kristy, Luke, Aaron, Lane and Landon.

Barbara's hobbies are cooking and plastic needle crafts.

She is employed by Plains Independent School District as cross walk guard.
