Summer Baseball Ends

Summer baseball season came to an end last week with the T-Ball and Minor Leaguers in play. In T-Ball play, the Royals defeated the Dodgers 38-7. For the Royals, Aaron Cain turned in his second unassisted triple play of the season, catching a fly ball, stepping on third to catch that runner off base and tagging the runner approaching third before he could return to base. Season records for the two teams are 4-3-1 for the Royals; 2-6 for the Dodgers.

In Minor League action, the A's held on for a 13-11 win over the Cardinals. Third out in the final inning stilled a rally for the Cardinals who left the bases loaded and the winning run on first base.

Jamie Caballero went the distance for the A's, getting 9 strikeouts. Roy Ramirez and Steven Bunch combined efforts for the Cardinals.

In a make up game Thursday, the Cubs whipped the Cardinals 18-3. Steven Bunch and Patrick McGinty pitched for the Cardinals, combining for 5 strikeouts. Joshua Clay, Joey Ward and Kaleb Clay pitched for the Cubs, adding up 7 strikeouts.

Judge Brewer Urges Vets To Consider Lubbock Seminar

Judge Dallas Brewer urges all Yoakum County veterans to attend an upcoming seminar in Lubbock to learn more about the special low-interest loan programs available to them through the Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB). The free seminar will be held at the Lubbock Civic Center on Wednesday, July 18 at 6 p.m.

Hosted by Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro, the seminar is open to the public. Texas veterans, real estate professionals and home repair contractors will be able to receive the most up-to-date information available on the state's three loan programs.

The VLB offers a $57,500 total low-interest loan package that enables Texas veterans to buy land, a house or make home improvements. Statewide, the VLB has made more than 120,000 loans to Texas veterans totaling more than $1.67 billion.

Texas veterans can receive up to $20,000 at 8.75 percent interest to buy five or more acres of land and they can also borrow up to $20,000 at 8.5 percent interest to use toward the purchase of a home.

In addition, Texas veterans can receive up to $17,500 at 10.5 percent interest (plus FHA insurance) to make home improvements.

Eligible Texas veterans can use all three loan programs one time.

For more information on the Lubbock seminar or the Texas Veterans Land Board programs call toll-free 1-800-252-VETS.

INSURANCE ANSWERS

INSURERS MUST FOLLOW AGENCY RULES TO CANCEL OR NON-RENEW

A decision by an insurance company to cancel or not renew your automobile or property coverage is a disconcerting experience, but you — the policyholder — have certain rights and protections.

Cancellations and non-renewals are two different matters.

A cancellation terminates coverage before a policy's normal renewal or expiration date. A non-renewal is refusal to continue coverage past the expiration date.

Rules of the State Board of Insurance limit the conditions under which insurance companies may cancel coverage. Board rules also place certain responsibilities on companies when they non-renew policies.

Personal Auto Policies

Personal auto policies must provide coverage for a full 12 months.

During the first 60 days after a policy has been issued, the company may cancel it for any legal reason.

After a policy has been in effect for 60 days, a company may cancel only for:

- (1) non-payment of premium or
- (2) suspension or revocation of the driver's license or motor vehicle registration of any person who is named on the policy or who customarily drives a car covered by the policy.

A company that cancels a personal auto policy must give the policyholder 10 days' notice.

State Board of Insurance rules specifically prohibit insurers from refusing to renew a personal auto policy because of the age of the policyholder.

If a company decides to non-renew your automobile policy, it must give you at least 30 days' notice so you will have time to shop for new coverage.

Property Insurance

A newly-issued homeowner's, renter's or other property insurance policy may be cancelled for any reason during the first 90 days.

After the first 90 days, a policy may be cancelled only for (1) non-payment of premium or (2) an increase in hazard, within the policyholder's control, that would result in an increase in rate.

As with auto policies, insurers must provide you with 30 days' notice before non-renewing your property coverage.

General Provisions

In the case of both automobile and property insurance, a company must give you, upon request, a written explanation why it canceled or non-renewed your policy.

A cancellation of either an auto or a property policy is null and void if it violates the Board's rules governing cancellations.

In addition, if a company fails to give the required 30 days' notice of non-renewal, the policy — whether auto or property — must be renewed at your request.

Shopping Tips

If your policy is cancelled or non-renewed, you should take time to shop for replacement coverage. When you are shopping, here are a few hints:

❑ Don't panic but don't procrastinate either. Use your time wisely to find replacement coverage.

❑ Contact several companies or agents for information. There are hundreds of insurance companies writing auto and homeowner's insurance in Texas. Time spent shopping could pay off.

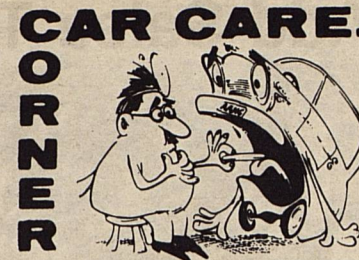

❑ Buy from companies licensed in Texas. By dealing with licensed companies you receive the full benefits of state laws designed to protect you. If you can't get coverage you need from a licensed company, deal only with eligible surplus lines carriers.

❑ Be wary of promises that sound too good to be true or prices well below market since these are common in insurance fraud scams. One way to protect yourself is to check the license status of the company and agent you are dealing with by calling the State Board of Insurance toll-free consumer line (1-800-252-3439).

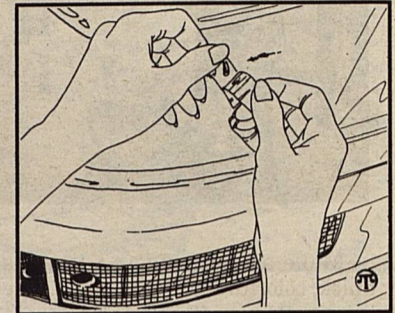

❑ If all you need is automobile liability insurance, ask your agent for information on the assigned risk plan.

❑ Get promises or representations to "bind" coverage in writing. Make sure the insurance company issues a policy to you.

The sugar beet industry owes its beginnings to Napoleon Bonaparte. Cut off from sugar producing countries, he ordered his scientists to develop a substitute for cane sugar. They developed the methods for producing beet sugar.

In 1610 Captain Samuel Argall was blown off course near a cape on our eastern seaboard. He immediately named it for his sponsor, Lord De La Warr, it became the state of Delaware.

Plains Independent School District

'Home of the Cowboys & Cowgirls'

From The Superintendent's Desk

Dean Andrews

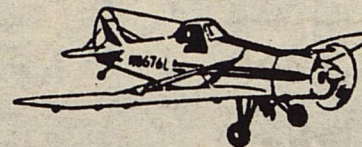

This past week the poorest school districts of Texas went back to court in Austin and filed another law suit, Edgewood vs. Kirby II. The suit claims that the education bill recently passed by the legislature did not satisfy the equal funding issue.

I think we will continue to hear of court cases being filed until the state finance plan is modified to pick up about 80 percent of the cost of education from state funding. We will continue to hear about law suits in the state for the next few years.

This summer has been a busy one at Plains schools. It is hard to believe that in less than a month our high school students will report for athletic workouts. We should all enjoy the summer while we can because it will be over before we know it.

Improve Equipment Efficiency With Preventive Maintenance

When determining farm equipment productivity, one formula is very straight forward: downtime equals lost income. One of the easiest ways to avoid downtime is through use of preventive maintenance schedules for all farm equipment.

"Of course it's impossible to predict when a machine will fail, but many breakdowns can be avoided by thoroughly inspecting and routinely maintaining equipment before, during and after operation, said Vaughn Culwell of Plains Farm Supply, Inc.

"I don't know how many times I've heard I'll grease it tomorrow," said Culwell. "Tomorrow comes and we forget about maintenance until it's too late."

Failure to perform routine maintenance and repairs not only leads to unexpected, untimely failures, but also to higher equipment operating costs.

"A good maintenance program can help reduce both equipment downtime and machinery operating costs," said Culwell. "It also improves equipment reliability."

"When the work load is heaviest, that's when farm equipment needs preventive maintenance the most," noted Culwell. "During these times, you simply can't afford any downtime. Preventive maintenance can't entirely eliminate the possibility of a failure, but it helps reduce unexpected failure to a minimum."

Culwell emphasized that the time and few dollars invested in preventive maintenance pay for themselves many times over.

"A good way to make sure that all maintenance is performed on schedule is to keep detailed maintenance records," suggested Culwell. "Follow the recommendations in the equipment operator's manual for specific service intervals."

"It's also a good idea to get into the habit of performing maintenance either at the end of the day or early in the morning before going to the field."

Equipment efficiency, productivity and reliability are all enhanced by comprehensive preventive maintenance programs," concluded Culwell.

4-H Project Sponsored By PSB

Project Home Safe for all Denver City 4th grade students was taught May 14, 15, 24 and 25. The 4-H project was coordinated by Mary Dale Williams, County Extension Agent, Home Economics. The project consists of four lessons taught by Mrs. Williams aimed at helping youngsters become more self-responsible when home without adult supervision.

The lessons included safety and first-aid procedures, safety procedures in answering the door, telephone and taking care of emergencies, nutritious snacks, doing homework and taking care of younger children.

The project has received assistance from Plains State Bank and Yoakum County State Bank.

Youngsters received a starter first-aid kit in one session.

THE VOICE OF BUSINESS

CURBING HEALTH CARE COSTS

by Dr. Richard L. Leshner, President
U.S. Chamber of Commerce

WASHINGTON — The cost of health care in the United States is soaring more than 20 percent per year, placing severe strain on many public and private organizations, and posing a very real threat to the economic vitality of the nation.

Unfortunately, this drama has not electrified public opinion, at least in part because there is no villain to provoke outrage. To the contrary, there are some very sensible reasons why health care costs are rising so fast.

The first, and most obvious, is that citizens of the United States presume a natural right to extensive health services regardless of our condition or circumstance. Other industrial nations routinely deny expensive treatments to people. Patients over 50 cannot receive kidney dialysis; infants with severe disabilities are denied heroic measures. Americans would never stand for such arbitrary limits.

We want the best and we want it now. In other countries, many elective surgeries must be delayed for months or years. Again, we would never stand for such a thing.

Yet another reason our medical costs are so high is the tab for research and development of new medicines, a disproportionate share of which is done in this country.

Of course, explaining the reasons for a problem does not make it go away. Clearly, health care costs are out of control. We simply must do something.

What we do not need is to impose a national health care system or simply embrace a program of federal funding for health care. We have all surely learned by now that federal assumption of responsibility for anything is a sure-fire prescription for chaos.

Still, there are some practical options available by which we can make incremental progress. We need legislation to make it easier for small businesses, and self-employed persons, to obtain health insurance at reasonable rates. For the uninsured poor, we should assure basic Medicaid coverage, restoring the program to its original intent, and defining clearly the government's responsibility. We need federal legislation allowing establishment of state pools for uninsurable individuals, with losses financed by general revenues or other broadbased funding.

We can curb the rise in health care costs without abandoning our principles or turning our backs on the poor. All it requires is a little common sense, and a realistic appraisal of the limits of government intervention.
