Cowgirls To Compete In State Tournament

The Cowgirls earned a fourth consecutive trip to Austin and the right to defend their two consecutive Class A State Volleyball crowns by capturing the Region 1-A Championship.

They opened the 24th Annual U.I.L. State Volleyball tournament Friday, Nov. 16, with a 9 a.m. match against Windthorst (26-10) in Tony Burger Center. Round Top Carmine (32-4) squared off against Yantis (19-6) at 10:15 a.m. The winners advanced to the Class A Championship match scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday.

The Cowgirls advanced to the state finals by topping Fort Hancock and Bronte in regional competition held at the Texas Tech Student Recreation Center in Lubbock last Saturday.

Rena McElroy paced the Cowgirls with 14 kills in their 15-9 16-14 victory over the Bronte Lady Longhorns in the championship match. The teams traded points in game one until the Cowgirls pulled ahead with Michelle Lowe's four consecutive service points reaching game point on a Jo Lena Powell kill. Bronte held the Cowgirls at game point through four rotations before a McElroy kill netted the winning point for a one game advantage.

The Cowgirls charged ahead 11-2 in game two, but a Cowgirl hitting error and a couple of Bronte dinks narrowed the lead. They picked up two more points before the Lady Longhorns rallied to tie the game 14-14. After a time out, the Cowgirls forced side out with a kill, setting up a pair of Leslie Patton serves that clinched the match.

Individual statistics included Melissa Green, six kills, two blocks, six digs; Michelle Lowe, two kills, one ace, six digs; Rena McElroy, 14 kills, six blocks, nine digs; Leslie Patton, two kills, two blocks, two digs; Jo Lena Powell, five kills, one ace, two digs; and Sandra Ramos, one kill, nine digs.

In semi-final action with Fort Hancock, the Cowgirls jumped ahead 10-6 as Sandra Ramos and Rena McElroy combined for two dinks and Melissa Green collected three kills. The Indians scored three more points on four rotations before Leslie Patton caught the defense off guard once again and dinked the ball for a final side out. Michelle Lowe served five consecutive points, including two aces, for a 15-9 triumph.

After a 4-4 tie in the second game, the Cowgirls answered with a 7-0 run, keyed by Rena's three kills and a kill and dink by Melissa. The Cowgirls maintained their momentum and Leslie's kill gave them a 15-7 win.

Cowgirl statistics included Melissa, five kills; Michelle, three kills, three aces, one dig; Rena, six kills, four blocks, one dig; Leslie, two kills, one block, one dig; Jo Lena Powell, one kill, two digs; and Sandra Ramos, four digs.

Plains Football Teams Suffer, Lose To Sudan Squads

The first weekend in November was not a good one for Plains football teams. All three squads were handed defeats by Sudan Hornet teams. Junior High Wranglers were beaten, 37-0.

Junior Varsity players started their game with a Brian Wilson interception of a Sudan pass on the Hornet's first drive. A pass from Wilson to Michael Bernal put the Plains team on the scoreboard. A two-point conversion added 2 more points as Dan Partin pulled in a Wilson toss.

Although they did threaten again, the Cowboys could not score again. Final score was Sudan 37, Plains 8.

The Cowboys opened their game with a drive beginning at their own 28. Monte Pierce made good a toss to Shane Lowrey for 37 yards and then hit Dan Rushing for seven. Mario Medina carried for 11, three and four yards before Pierce completed a seven yard pass to Medina for paydirt. A kick by Chris Chavez was good.

On their first drive, Sudan fumbled and the Cowboys took over on their own 33. A couple of penalties and a seven yard loss put the Cowboys back to their own 45. Pierce threw a 15 yard pass to Jason Smith and then carried the ball himself for 17. He then found Dain Guetersloh for 16 and Jose Ramirez carried for two and Medina three. Pierce, on fourth down, carried but found himself just inches short of the goal line and out of downs.

Two series later, Sudan scored on a 29 yard pass from Shannon Fisher to Bryan Baker. Kick was good. Halftime found the score tied, 7-7.

The Hornets scored again in the second half, kick was no good.

Mounting a good drive in the fourth, the Cowboys moved from their own 43 to the Hornet 19 before losing the ball on downs.

William Matta led the defense with 17 tackles. Dusty Rafferty had 16; Jose Ramirez, 11 and Dwane Talley, 10.

Cowboys Take 34-21 Win Over Petersburg Buffaloes

Once again in winning form, the PHS Cowboys herded the Buffaloes of Petersburg to a 24-21 victory Friday evening.

On their very first drive, the Cowboys marched to a touchdown culminated by a 15 yard pass from Monte Pierce to Jason Smith. Chris Chavez kicked the PAT. Taking over again on the Petersburg 47, Pierce completed a 7 yarder to Shane Lowrey. Mario Medina had carries of 2 and 3 and Pierce ran for 32 yards. Petersburg defense then held for three downs. Chavez put one through the uprights on fourth down for a 27 yard field goal, bringing the score to Plains 10, Petersburg 0.

Only 30 seconds remained in the second quarter when the Buffaloes scored on a 12 yard pass from Jerry Fillingim to Doug Porter. PAT was good.

Petersburg scored again in the third on a two yard run by Fillingim. Point-after was no good.

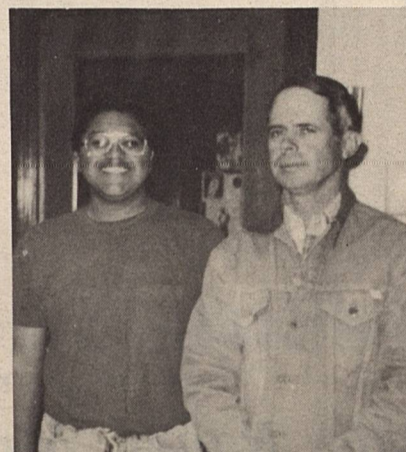

Fifty-five seconds later, Pierce hit Medina for 62 yards and a TD. Chavez' kick was good. Less than two minutes were gone in the fourth quarter when Medina found the end zone after a 23 yard run. Chavez pinned on one more point.

Petersburg scored once again on a one yard plunge by Fillingim. Arturo Luna ran the two point conversion.

Medina carried 17 for 89; Pierce, six for 79 and Ramirez, five for nine. Pierce threw 16 times, completing eight for 167 yards, two TDs and three interceptions. Jason Smith caught five passes for 67 yards, Medina, two for 93 and Lowrey, one for seven.
