Two Little Dribbler Teams Win National Championships

Plains Junior League All-Star Boys and the Major League All-Star Girls are both claiming the National Championship titles.

Chris Winn and Danny Bell returned again as coaches for the repeating champs, this year coaching their own sons. Winn has coached Plains All-Stars in the National Tournament 12 times.

Major League Girls posted an undefeated season with coaches Tana May and Bill May. The same girls, as junior leaguers, won the National Championship two years ago.

In their opener, Plains Major Girls won 39-20 over Frankston with Robin Squyres leading the scoring with 14 points. Cecilia Moreno and Bridget Bernal had 6 each; Kyley Bearden, 5 and Tessa StRomain and Shyloh Winn had 4 each.

Major Boys, coached by Bruce Lester and Alex Bitolas, pounded Beauregard, La. 56-16 back of Adrian Garcia's 10 points; Jacob Lester with 9; Stephen Bitolas and Tanner Blount, 8 each; Wayne Willett, 7; Allen Ward, 6; and Eddie Garcia, 5.

Junior Boys defeated LaPoyner, 48-33. Kaleb Clay led the winners with 20; Joshua Clay, 15; Steven Bunch, 8 and Matt Morgan, 2.

Thursday afternoon's play found three of the Plains teams playing at the same time in three separate gyms. Major Girls won a close one, 27-22 over Centerville. Kyley Bearden scored 13; Robin Squyres, 10; Kristy McClure and Kassie Lowe had 2 each.

Coached by Randy Tuggle and Zane Johnson, the Junior Girls were defeated by Evadale, 33-23. Jolyne Burgess scored 8; LaCresha Johnson, 6; Tandi Jones, 4; Kayla Redman, 3; and Lisa Parrish, 2.

Major Boys grabbed a last second victory when Adrian Garcia's free shot, after regulation time had expired, went into the basket to break a 36-36 tie. He had 13 points for the game. Also scoring were Marte Pierce, 8;

Plains Has Good Voter Turn-Out

Plains voters turned out in good numbers Saturday to elect four city councilmen and three school trustees. Plains ISD Superintendent Pete Simmons reports the voter turnout as "very, very heavy".

In the city race, incumbent Herschel Smith; Owen Schneider and Larry Cole were re-elected after garnering 145, 139 and 136 votes, respectively. Kent Welch collected 174 votes to fill the unexpired term of Julia Lemley.

Other candidates in the race were Barry Green, Alton Earl McGinty, Jim Warren, Jerry Shane McKinzie, Larry Murphree, Bill W. Alexander, Johnny Martinez, James F. Williams and write-in candidate Steve Crutcher.

Challenger Rickey Bearden unseated incumbent Melvin Lowrey for place 1 on the school board, 226 to 187 votes. Steve Jones garnered 111 votes. Incumbent Tony Winn held onto his spot by defeating Rudy Calsoncin, 391-125.

In place 3, Roger Bennett narrowly edged Mike Blount, 249-245, to fill the post that had been held by Edwin Livengood who did not choose to run for re-election.

Wayne Willett and Stephen Bitolas, 4 each; Yancey House, 3; and Tanner Blount and Roy Ramirez, 2 each.

Junior Boys defeated Centerville, 45-39 with Steven Bunch leading the scoring with 20 points. Kaleb Clay had 18; Adrian Rios, 5 and Joshua Clay, 2.

Friday's action found the Junior Girls winning 19-14 over Aspermont. Kayla Redman led with 11; Jolyne Burgess had 5; LaCresha Johnson, 2; and Tandi Jones, 1.

Major Boys squeaked by again by one point, whipping Cayuga 33-32. With 2 seconds to play, Plains led 33-31 and one of the host team's better players was fouled. He hit the first shot and missed the second, nailing the victory for Plains. Adrian Garcia scored 10; Stephen Bitolas, 6; Yancey House and Eddie Garcia, 4 each; Tanner Blount, 3; Wayne Willett, 2; and Marte Pierce, 1.

In a rematch of their first game, Junior Girls again faced Evadale and again came up losers, 32-8. LaCresha Johnson, Lisa Parrish and Jolyne Burgess had 2 points each. The loss eliminated the Junior Girls from the tourney.

Junior Boys also faced Evadale and lost a heart breaker, 54-52. Five Plains players fouled out but the team kept battling back. Kaleb Clay scored 24; Steven Bunch, 10; Matt Morgan, 6; Joshua Clay, 5; Adrian Rios, 4; and Colt Winn, 3.

Major Girls trampled their Evadale counterparts 43-11. Plains allowed them just 2 field goals and 7 free shots. Robin Squyres led the scoring with 12; Kyley Bearden had 9; Bridget Bernal and Tessa StRomain, 8 each; Shyloh Winn, 4; and Kassie Lowe, 2.

Junior Boys had to come back through the losers bracket to get to the finals and defeated Centerville 52-44. Kaleb Clay scored 25; Joshua Clay, 11; Steven Bunch, 6; and Colt Winn and Bryan Covarrubias, 4 each.

Finals began with the Junior Girls. Junior Boys made the right adjustments and this time defeated Evadale 51-49. Kaleb Clay was top scorer with 28; Joshua Clay added 14; Steven Bunch, 5; Matt Morgan and Justin Bennett picked up 2 each.

In the first quarter of the Major Girls championship tilt, it seemed Plains had used all their good luck when Centerville jumped to a 12-12 lead. But determination paid off with the girls pulling out a hard fought 33-31 victory. Kristy McClure suffered a cracked ankle in the final seconds and had to be carried from the court. Robin Squyres finished the game with a turned ankle and 12 points to her credit. Kyley Bearden had 10; Cecilia Moreno, 6; and Tessa StRomain, 5.

Major Boys were tripped up by Centerville 40-36. Stephen Bitolas was leading scorer with 16; Jacob Lester and Wayne Willett, 5 each; Adrian Garcia, 4; Tanner Blount, Jamie Caballero and Allen Ward, 2 each.

Plains teams finished with two first place titles and one second place finish.

Little Dribblers worked hard before leaving for Cayuga to earn money. Top salesmen in ice cream sales were Candace Bowers and Joshua Bell who each won new basketballs. Runners-up were Bridget Bernal and Chris Willett who won duffle bags. Top salesmen in the Tupperware fund campaign were Tony Lazos Jr. and Staci Tuggle who each earned 35 mm cameras.

All-Stars wish to thank everyone for their support throughout the season; participation in fund raisers and for supporting the team in Cayuga. Almost 175 traveled to Cayuga to share in the celebrations and disappointments. Plains traveled the greatest distance and had more fans than any other teams. Cayuga is a small town with a consolidated school four miles south of town. It is located between Corsicana and Palestine on Highway 287.

A vote of thanks also goes to the coaches who volunteered many hours of working with the teams.

Shannon Squyres Graduates From School Of Modeling

Shannon Squyres, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Squyres, graduated from Barbizon School of Modeling in Dallas in commencement exercises Sunday, May 5. Exercises were held in the Grand Kempinski Hotel in North Dallas.

The 80 graduates were put up in the Harvey Hotel Downtown Saturday. Saturday was filled with events including a professional photo shoot to help each student develop a portfolio to be used in interviews.

The Fashion Show and Graduation consisted of six scenes of models. Following the last scene in party and evening wear, the graduates were presented diplomas.

Miss Squyres attended classes in Lubbock's Sheraton Hotel, one of a number of Barbizon's satellite schools. She won a trophy for most outstanding model of the Lubbock school.

A senior at Plains High School, Miss Squyres will attend South Plains College in the fall to study elementary education and Spanish. She hopes to use her modeling experience for part time work to help with her college expenses. She has already worked as a stage manager for her former instructor, Carol McCarter, at a fashion show in the Permian Mall in Odessa.

Tour Of Plains Library Highlights Club Meeting

Tsa Mo Ga Study Club members and guests toured Yoakum County Library in Plains Monday evening with Librarian Latrell McDonnell directing the program.

Jo Amandes, consultant from West Texas Library System, cited goals of libraries, where to check out books to patrons and to efficiently operate tax supported businesses. She also noted that libraries are to be of service to the community through the expertise of librarians who know and understand the local community and its needs.

Libraries, she explained, must continuously "weed out" old, tired, outdated, useless books and replace them with new, unsoiled copies as well as current titles that are useful.

Pat McNabb demonstrated the computerized system to check books in and out. Linda Powell reviewed her work in teaching the adult literacy program and complimented the library staff for their help in assisting adult literacy students in book selections.

Mrs. McDonnell explained available services including video tapes, laminating, copying, 35 mm film projects and books.

Guests were Cindy Hunter of Lubbock and Mrs. A.G. Mabry of Harshorne, Okla., past president of Tsa Mo Ga (1939-1941).

Hostesses Pat McNabb, Helen Hunter, Dolores Davis and Latrell McDonnell served coffee and cookies.

Next meeting will be a golden tea honoring fifty year members Mary Jo StRomain, Wilma Powell and Sit Jones.

SERVING AS HOSTESSES for Tsa Mo Ga Study Club were Pat McNabb, Dolores Davis, Latrell McDonnell and Helen Hunter. Pictured below are Jo Amandes and Latrell McDonnell, program directors for the evening.
