County librarians report on new confidentiality act

(Editor's Note: Latrell McDonnell and Ann Greer, County Librarians, attended a meeting for librarians Nov. 12 in Midland Junior College to explain the new Confidentiality Act, effective Sept. 1, 1993. Printed here is their report.)

"Confidentiality of Library Records: Implications for Texas Librarians" given by Herman L. Totten for the Texas State Library. The Governor signed an amendment to Article 6252-17a concerning libraries. This Amendment came into effect on Sept. 1, 1993. BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS: SECTION 1. Section 3, Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (g) to read as follows: An Act is filed in the Yoakum County Library and will be made available for people to read or a copy can be obtained from the library.

The First Amendment of the Constitution of the United States protects free speech and a free press. The Constitution of the State of Texas provides that "no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press". A corollary of those constitutional guarantees is the corresponding freedom to read what is written, hear what is spoken, and view other forms of expression without fear of intrusion, intimidation or reprisal. The guarantee of privacy for readers, hearers and viewers will ensure this freedom.

The library is a central resource where information and differing points of view are available. Library users will be free to use the library and its materials and services without government, community, or individual interference.

Shyloh Winn to march in Thanksgiving Day parade

Shyloh Winn, daughter of Tony and Lynne Winn, will observe a very memorable Thanksgiving Day this year as she marches in the Fourth Annual Foley's Thanksgiving Day Parade in Houston. Family and friends are hoping that by chance they will be able to catch a glimpse of Miss Winn in the parade festivities via television. The event is to be telecast live by ABC Thursday, Nov. 25.

Selected last June in Lubbock as a Universal Cheerleaders Association All Star, Shyloh is among the approximately top five percent of cheerleaders attending UCA training camps.

Some 100,000 cheerleaders, dancers and coaches from elementary through college age attend the camps.

Part of being an All-Star is the opportunity to participate in various parades and sporting events throughout the United States and world. The Foley's Thanksgiving Day Parade is one of those occasions, and is the second largest Thanksgiving Day Parade in the U.S.

Fourteen-years-old, Shyloh is an eighth grader at Plains Junior High. She has been serving as a Wrangler Cheerleader for the past two years.

Board meeting draws big crowd

More than 200 people attended the Nov. 15 school board meeting in the continuing concern over school and community relations. Unrest has plagued the community since the resignation last month of J.B. Wilson as high school principal and his wife, Dianne, a teacher.

A group of citizens banded together and hired Lubbock attorney Sam Ogan to represent them in demanding to know why the Wilsons were "forced to resign" and why "taxpayers dollars were used to buy out the Wilsons' contracts."

During the meeting, Superintendent Pete Simmons and school attorney Laura Groce denied that coercive methods were used to secure the resignations. In response to a number of questions, Ms. Groce pointed out the privacy laws prevented a response.

LC Shane Tuggle visits family

Lance Corporal Shane Tuggle of the 3rd Division Marine Corps has been visiting in Plains with his grandparents, Dorris and Louise Tuggle, and other relatives and friends. He is on leave following a one-year assignment in Okinawa and will be reassigned to Panama.

He visited with his parents and brother, Danny and Tink Tuggle and Steve, of Granbury, formerly of Plains, and his grandmother, Dockie Hulse of Brownfield. In Plains, he also visited with Randy, Edith and Staci Tuggle. Visiting among friends, he shared with Julia Lemley information on having seen her son, Sgt. Lee Lemley in Okinawa, shortly before his departure.

Helping his grandfather strip cotton, Shane was also able to visit with Toni Jones, Larry Mason, Kathy Six and others. He met Bud Forbus, a veteran of the 3rd Division Marines, and was presented with a 3rd Division Cookbook by Bud and Mary Dale Forbus.

While in West Texas, he stopped for a short time to see other former Plains' residents, Bobby and Debra Crump of Canyon.

His grandparents, Dorris and Louise Tuggle visited in Granbury a few days following Shane's visit to Plains.

Sarah Shelton gives program at Tsa Mo Ga

Sarah Jane Shelton directed a program, "When Art is True and Beautiful", for Tsa Mo Ga Study Club Monday. She opened with a quote of Frederick Hart, "Art must again touch our lives, our fears and cares. It must evoke our dreams and give hope to the darkness."

Mrs. Shelton encouraged members to write their elected representatives at the national level to express concerns about the governmental subsidizing of decadent art under the National Endowment of the Arts.

Wilma Powell displayed some of her original oil paintings, needlepoint and china painting. She described her interests in art and said she also enjoys stained glass hangings.

Photography and jewelry by Louise Goehry were also displayed.

Announcement was made of a bake sale to be conducted in December with the date to be announced later. Club members will also collect gifts for veterans and have collected 38 bud vases to be sent to M.D. Anderson Hospital in Houston.

Next meeting will be at 7 p.m. Dec. 13 in the club house. Members will bring gifts for Girlstown.

The club will also participate in the community Christmas Tree Lighting Wednesday, Dec. 1 in Pioneer Plaza.

Hostesses Ruth Taylor and Zareta Winn served cheesecake, chips and dips.

MRS. JOEL LOWE

Kitchen Korner

Family time is Debra (Mrs. Joel) Lowe's favorite pastime. Other interests pale in comparison to the pleasure she gets from "keeping up" with her college age daughters, Michelle, a student at Texas Tech University and Daphne, who attends South Plains College; and last but not least, the interests of Kassie, her eighth grade daughter.

Debra and Joel grew up in Plains and love their hometown. They attend First Baptist Church.

"I really enjoy my job, too," she says. She has worked in the USDA-ASCS office for the past ten years.

Debra shares some of her favorite recipes with the Kitchen Korner cooks this week, including two festive works, the spicy pumpkin cake and the pineapple cheese ball, which should come in handy for the holidays ahead.

SPICY PUMPKIN CAKE

1 pkg 2 layer-size spice cake mix
1/2 t soda
1 c milk
1 c canned pumpkin
1/2 c chopped walnuts
1/2 c dates, finely cut

Combine cake mix and soda; proceed according to package directions substituting milk for the first addition of liquid and pumpkin for the second addition. Fold in nuts and dates. Bake in two greased and lightly floured 9x1 1/2 inch round pans according to package directions. Cool; remove from pans. Cool completely.

FROSTING/FILLING

Whip one cup whipping cream with two tablespoons honey and 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon.

Fill and frost top of cake. Chill.

PINEAPPLE CHEESE BALL

2 pkg (8 oz size) cream cheese, softened
1 can (8 1/2 oz) crushed pineapple, drained

2 c chopped pecans
1/4 c finely chopped green pepper
2 T finely chopped onion
1 T seasoned salt
canned pineapple slices
maraschino cherries
parsley sprigs
assorted crackers

1. In medium bowl, with fork, beat cream cheese until smooth. Gradually stir in crushed pineapple, 1 cup pecans, the green pepper, onion and salt.

2. Shape into a ball. Roll in remaining nuts. Wrap in plastic film or foil.

3. Refrigerate until well chilled - overnight.

4. To serve: Place cheese ball on serving board. If desired, garnish with pineapple slices, cherries and parsley. Surround with crackers. Let guests help themselves.

Makes about 40 appetizer servings.

NOTE: Any leftover cheese mixture can be reshaped and refrigerated, for use another day.

LASAGNE

1 lb Italian sausage
1 clove garlic, minced
1 T whole basil
1 1/2 t salt
1 1-lb can tomatoes
2 6-oz cans tomato paste
10 oz lasagne noodles
2 eggs
3 c fresh Ricotta or cream-style cottage cheese
1/2 c grated Parmesan or Romano cheese
2 T parsley flakes
1 t salt
1/2 t pepper

1 lb mozzarella cheese, sliced very thin
PREHEAT OVEN: 375 degrees
Brown meat slowly; spoon off excess fat. Add next five ingredients. Simmer uncovered 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cook noodles in large amount boiling salted water till tender; drain, rinse. Beat eggs; add remaining ingredients, except mozzarella.

Layer half the noodles in 13x9x2 inch baking dish; spread with half the Ricotta filling; add half the mozzarella cheese and half the meat sauce. Repeat. Bake at 375 degrees about 30 minutes (or assemble early and refrigerate; bake 45 minutes). Let stand 10 minutes before serving. Serves 8 to 10.

FIRST GRADERS SEE PLAY - Plains Elementary first graders took a field trip last month to Lubbock to see the play, "101 Dalmatians". Characters from the book came to life for the youngsters as Pongo and Perdita searched for their lost puppies among the crowd. The first graders painted tee shirts to make them look like Dalmatians. Following the play, they had a picnic lunch in Maxie Park. (Both pictures are reproduced here to allow all the children photographed to be in the newspaper.)

Plains vs Whiteface

Plains High School's Cowboys wrapped up their 1993 regular season Nov. 12 with a district victory over Whiteface. Final score was 31-6.

The Antelopes received the opening kick-off but could not mount a scoring drive so Plains took over control of the ball. Victor Bernal connected with Brad McMinn for two first quarter touchdowns but both were called back because of illegal motion and off-sides penalties, respectively. Third time was a charm when early in the second quarter, Bernal found McMinn and a 26-yard play put the Cowboys on the scoreboard. Bernal's kick was good.

Later in the second period, Shannon Ward pulled down a Bernal pass for a 55-yard touchdown. Once again, Bernal's toe put the ball through the uprights. Just before halftime, Bernal again cleared the uprights for a field goal bringing the score to 17-0.

The Cowboys scored twice in the third on a 43-yard pass to Ward and another for 14 when the Cowboys recovered a fumble. Both PATS were good.

With five seconds left on the clock, Whiteface saved a shut-out on a three yard pass play. Point after was no good.

A 1992 graduate of Plains High School, he is the son of Hershel and Debbie Smith.

Plains UIL team compete in meets

Plains High School's Math/Science Team composed of Brad McMinn, Jay Rushing and Ken McAdams competed Nov. 13 in a math/science contest in Lockney.

Individual performances found McMinn placing first in number sense, second in science, ninth in mathematics and tenth in calculator.

Rushing was second in number sense, fourth in science, fifth in calculator and sixth in mathematics.

McAdams placed sixth in science.

In an earlier meet in Seminole, the team finished second overall back of Shallowater. The team finished second in number sense, calculator and science and third in mathematics.

Individual scoring included Lenny Morrow, first in number sense and calculator, third in mathematics and seventh in science. Rushing finished second in number sense, third in science, fourth in mathematics and eighth in calculator. McMinn was second in number sense and science, fourth in mathematics and seventh in calculator. McAdams finished tenth in calculator.

Plains Junior High's math/science team also competed in Seminole. Participating were Shawn Cullins, Abraham Garcia, Heath Bowlin, Marcey House, Clint Burrus and Jennifer Lollar.

Cullins placed first in number sense and second in calculator. Bowlin was sixth in calculator. House finished first in number sense and seventh in calculator.

Both teams will compete in Midland in January.

National Hospice Month

It could be one of the best kept secrets in health care today, but if the staff and volunteers from Hospice Services, Inc. have their way, everyone in Lea County, NM and Gaines and Yoakum County, TX will hear about hospice, a special kind of care for terminally ill people, as November is observed nationwide as National Hospice Month.

"Terminal illness is not a pleasant subject to discuss," said Barbara Bullock, Director of Community Services, "and a lot of people don't know that something called hospice even exists or what it can offer. Yet hospice has been caring for the people of Lea, Gaines and Yoakum counties since 1991, and we are committed to reaching anyone who may need our services."

The goal of hospice is to enable the dying to enjoy the best possible quality of life until their last moments, pain-free, surrounded by friends and family, and at home or in a nursing home.

This month, Hospice Services Inc. volunteers and staff hope to involve partners from the media, business, and other organizations to increase awareness of hospice and its important role in the community. Using the theme, "HOSPICE: Caring for Our Community", more than 1,900 hospice programs all across the nation will observe November as National Hospice Month, Bullock said.

Hospice is one of the fastest growing fields in health care today. This year alone, hospice programs will provide care to an estimated quarter of a million terminally ill people and their families. A recent census conducted by the National Hospice Organization revealed an all-time high in the number of patients and families using hospice services in the U.S. last year at 246,000.

Hospice Services Inc. has provided specialized care to over 200 terminal patients and their families in the past two years. We are a community based, non-profit organization that opens its arms to everyone. For additional information about the hospice concept of care, call (505) 393-4717.

LET US COUNT OUR REAL BLESSINGS THIS THANKSGIVING

Remember, this Thanksgiving Day,
To count your blessings, come what may.
It seems so strange, and yet it's true:
Hard times can be a blessing, too;
Reminding us to be aware
Of family and friends who care.
No circumstance can take away
These values that are here to stay.
And now, before we start the feast,
Let's be appreciative, at least,
Of all the happy times we've shared,
And all the troubles we've been spared.
In gratitude, let heads be bowed
For every day that we're allowed,
A blessing with its own reward,
So let's give thanks unto the Lord.

Librarians....

This library policy is pursuant to Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, Article 6252-17a, referred herein as the Texas Open Records Act, relating to making confidential a record that would identify a person who uses library services or materials.

SOME OF THE QUESTIONS ASKED BY LIBRARIANS:

What kinds of steps can libraries that have been checking materials out manually take to erase those records? (E.g., writing patrons' card numbers and names on the checkout cards; sending overdue notices on postcards; calling patrons and leaving messages about reserved books.) - (Black wide-tip markers can be used to obliterate records and names of patrons cannot be used publicly.)

Professor Totten stated that library staff cannot discuss patrons, such as to say - call Mrs. Upjohn and tell her a certain book is in. No one has the right to know other than Mrs. Upjohn what kind of reading subjects she enjoys or reads.

Some of the records that are to be kept confidential are circulation records, including overdues; reference requests; reserve materials; interlibrary loan. Privacy for each patron and their requests is a law.

Librarians asked: "Is it still legal to post kids' names on the wall during the summer reading program or display nametags in the library?" Professor Totten said we must have a parent's written consent to place their child's name for public to see, plus - we cannot post books they have read, but can place stars by names for books read.
